Ierem.18.a.6.

The bookes of the olde Teſtament, do teache vs that the ſame God, whom Adam, Noe, Abraham, Iſahac, Iacob, Dauid, and the other fathers did worſhip, is the onely true God, and that he the ſame is almyghtie and euerlaſting: VVho of his meere goodneſſe hath created by his woorde heauen and earth, and al that is in them: From whom al thinges doo comme: without whom there is nothing at al: And that he is iuſt and mercyful: VVho alſo wooorketh al in al, after his owne wyl: To whom it is not lawful to ſay, wherefore he dooth thus or thus.

Creatiō of man.

Sinne.

Gene.1.d.27.

Epheſ.2.a.3.

Moreouer, theſe bookes teache vs, that this very God almightie, after he created al thynges, ſhope alſo Adam the firſt man, to the image and ſpiritual ſimilitude of him ſelfe, and that he dyd conſtitute him lorde ouer al thinges that he had created in earth. VVhiche Adam, by the enuie and fraude of the deuyl, tranſgreſſing the precept of his creator, by this his ſinne brought in ſuche and ſo great ſinne into the worlde, that we whiche be ſprong from hym by the fleaſhe, be in nature the chyldren of wrath, and therevpon we be made ſubiect and thraule to death, to damnation, to the yoke, and tyrannie of the deuyl.

Chriſt promiſed.

Furthermore, we are taught by theſe excellent bookes, that God promiſed to Adam, Abraham, Iſahac, Iacob, Dauid, and to other fathers of the olde time, that he woulde ſende that bleſſed ſeede, his ſonne Ieſus Chriſte our ſauiour, whiche ſhoulde deliuer al thoſe from ſinne, and from the tyrannie of the deuyl, whiche by a lyuely and woorkyng fayth ſhoulde beleeue this promiſſe, and put their truſt in Ieſus Chriſte, hopyng that of hym and by hym, they ſhoulde obteyne this deliuerance.

Galat.3.c.19.
Iohn.1.d.29.

Alſo, they geue vs to vnderſtande, that in the meane ſeaſon, whyle thoſe fathers the Iſraelites looked for the ſaluation and deliuerance promiſſed (for that the nature of man is ſuch, ſo proude and ſo corrupt, that thoſe would not wyllyngly acknowledge them ſelues to be ſinners, whiche had neede of the ſauiour promiſed) God the creator gaue by Moſes his lawe written in two tables of ſtone: that by it, ſinne & the malice of mans hart being knowen, menne mought more vehemently thirſt for the commyng of Ieſus Chriſte, who ſhoulde redeeme and deliuer them from ſinne: VVhiche thyng, neither the lawe, nor yet the ſacrifices and oblations of the lawe dyd perfourme. For they were ſhadowes and figures of the true oblation of the body of Chriſte: by whiche oblation al ſinne ſhould be blotted out, and quite put away.

Chriſte came our ſauiour.

By the bookes of the newe Teſtament we be taught, that Chriſte ſo afore promiſſed (which is God aboue al thinges moſt bleſſed for euer) euen he, I ſay, whiche was ſhadowed in the bookes of the olde Teſtament, and in ſacrifices figured, that he was ſent at the laſt from the father the ſelfe ſame tyme whiche the father dyd conſtitute within hym ſelfe: I ſay, at that tyme, when al wickedneſſe abounded in the worlde, than he was ſent: And this Ieſus our ſauiour, beyng borne in the fleaſhe, ſuffered death, and roſe agayne from the dead. VVhiche actes of his were not donne by him in reſpect of the good woorkes of any man (for we were al ſinners) but that this god our father ſhould appeare true, in exhibiting the aboundant riches of his grace whiche he promiſſed, and that through his mercy he mought bring vs to ſaluation.

VVhereupon it is euidently ſhewed in the newe Teſtament, that Ieſus Chriſte, being the true lambe, the true ſacrifice of the worlde, puttyng away the ſinnes of menne, came into this worlde to purchaſe grace and peace for vs with the father, waſhing vs from our ſinnes in his owne blood, and ſhoulde deliuer vs from the bondage of the deuyl, whom by ſinne we dyd ſerue: And ſo we ſhoulde be adopted by him to be the ſonnes of God, made heires with him of that moſt excellent and euerlaſting kingdome.

Nowe, that we ſhoulde acknowledge this ſinguler and excellent benefite of GOD towarde vs, almightie God geueth vs his holy ſpirite: the fruite and effect of the whiche is fayth in God, and in his Chriſte. For, without the holy ghoſt, by whiche we are inſtructed and ſealed, neyther can we beleeue that GOD the father ſent Meſſias, nor yet that Ieſus is Chriſte: For no man (ſayth Paul) can ſay that Ieſus is the Lorde, but by the holy ghoſt. The ſame ſpirite witneſſeth to our ſpirite that we are the children of God, and powreth into our bowels that charitie whiche Paul deſcribeth to the Corinthians. Furthermore, that holy ſpirite dooth geue vs hope, whiche is a ſure lookyng for eternal lyfe, whereof he hym ſelfe is the certayne token and pledge. Alſo he geueth vs other ſpiritual gyftes, of the whiche Paule writeth to the Galathians. Therefore the benefite of fayth is not yet to be deſpiſed, or litle to be ſet by. For by the meanes of this truſt & fayth in Chriſt, which woorketh by charitie, and ſheweth it ſelfe foorth by the woorkes of charitie, mouyng man thereto, we are iuſtified and ſanctified: that is to ſay, God and the father of our Lorde Ieſus Chriſte (which is made our father alſo by him, beyng our brother) dooth accompt vs to be iuſt and holy through his grace, & through the merite of his ſonne Ieſus Chriſte, not imputing our ſinnes to vs ſo farre foorth, that we ſhoulde ſuffer the paynes of hel for them.

Iuſtification and ſanctification.

Good woorkes.

Finally, Chriſt hym ſelfe came into the world, to the intent that we through him being ſanctified and cleanſed from our ſinnes, folowing his wyl in good woorkes, ſhould denie the thinges parteyning to the fleaſhe, and freely ſerue hym in righteouſneſſe and holyneſſe al the dayes of our lyfe: and that by good woorkes (whiche God hath prepared for vs to walke in) we ſhoulde ſhewe our ſelues to be called to his grace and gyft of fayth: whiche good woorkes who ſo hath not, dooth ſhewe him ſelfe not to haue ſuche a fayth in Chriſte as is required in vs.

Titus.2.c.12.b. and.13.14. Luke.1.g.74. Epheſ.2.b.10.

Chriſte our maiſter and teacher.

To Chriſte muſt we comme, and folowe hym with a cheareful mynde, that he may teache vs: For he is our maiſter, lowly and humble of hart: he is to vs an example, whereby we muſt learne the rule to lyue wel.

2.Pet.1.b.10. Epheſ.5.a.2. Mat.23.b.8.

Biſhop. Mediator. Aduocate.

Moreouer, he is our biſhop and our hygh prieſt, whiche dyd hym ſelfe offer vp for vs his owne blood, beyng the onely mediator betweene God and menne: VVho nowe ſitteth at the ryght hand of God the father, being made our aduocate, makyng prayer and interceſſion for vs: who doubtleſſe ſhal obteyne for vs whatſoeuer we ſhal deſire, eyther of him, or els of his father in his name, if ſo be that we thus deſyring, ſhal beleeue that he wyl ſo doo: for thus hath he promiſed. Therfore let vs not doubt, if we ſinne at any time, to comme with repentance (to the whiche he dooth inuite and ſtirre vs at the very begynnyng of his preachyng) and with ſure truſt to the throne of his grace, with this beleefe, that we ſhal obteyne mercy: For therefore came he into the worlde, that he mought ſaue ſinners by his grace.

Iudgement.

This is verily Chriſt Ieſus, which ſhal comme at a certayne time appoynted by his father, & ſhal ſit in great maieſtie to iudge al menne, and to render to euery man the woorkes of his body according to that he hath donne, whether it be good or euyl. And he ſhal ſay to them whiche ſhalbe on the ryght ſyde, whiche in this world did looke for the good thinges to comme (that is to ſay, life euerlaſting:) Comme ye bleſſed of my father, enioy the kingdome that hath benne prepared for you from the begynnyng of the worlde. But to them which ſhalbe on the leaſt ſide, he ſhal ſay: Depart from me ye curſed into euerlaſtyng fire prepared for the deuyl and his angels. And then ſhal the ende be, when Chriſt hauing vtterly vanquiſhed al manner of enimies, ſhal deliuer vp the kingdome to God the father.

Mat.25.c.31. 2.Tim.4.a.1. 2.Cor.5.b.10.

Eternal lyfe. Eternal fire.

Mat.25.c.34. 1.Cor.15.c.24.

To what intent the ſcriptures were written.

To the intent that we mought vnderſtande theſe thinges, the ſacred bookes of the Bible were deliuered to vs by the goodneſſe of God through his holy ſpirite: with the preachyng of that doctrine whiche is conteyned in them, and with his Sacramentes by which the trueth of this doctrine is ſealed vp to vs: that we mought vnderſtande, I ſay, and beleeue that there is one onely true God, and one ſauiour Ieſus Chriſte, whom (as he had promiſed) he hath ſent: and that we beleeuing, mought haue in his name lyfe euerlaſtyng.

2.Pet.1.d.19. Iohn.17.a.3. Iohn.20.f.31.

Chriſte the only fundation.

Beſyde this fundation, no man can lay any other in the Churche of Chriſte: and vpon this fundation the Churche dooth ſtande ſure and ſtedfaſt. And Paul wylleth hym to be accurſed whiche ſhal preache any other fayth and ſaluation, then by Ieſus Chriſt, yea although he were an angel from heauen.

1.Cor.3.b.11. Galat.1.b.8.

For of hym, through hym, and for hym, are al thynges: To whom with the father and the holy ghoſt, be al honour and glory, worlde without ende, Amen.

Rom.11.d.16.

His Table ſetteth out to the eye the genealogie of Adam, ſo paſſing by the Patriarches, Iudges, Kynges, Prophetes, and Prieſtes, and the fathers of their tyme, continuing in lyneal diſſent to Chriſte our ſauiour.

D Iubal was the father of them which ſong in Harpe and Organes, not finder of the inſtrumentes, but inuentour of the art of muſicke, to the intent that the ſhepheards labour myght be ſomewhat recreated: and leſt that the art of muſicke ſhoulde decay, he graued the whole ſcience in two pillers, the one of marble agaynſt the fluddes, the other of bricke agaynſt the fire. Gen.4.

E Tubalcain was the firſt inuentour of Smithes art, and of grauyng woorke in metal: by whoſe doeyng, Iubal his brother hauyng delectation in the ſounde of his hambers, was the firſt that diuiſed proportions, and harmonies ſpringyng out of them.Gen.4.

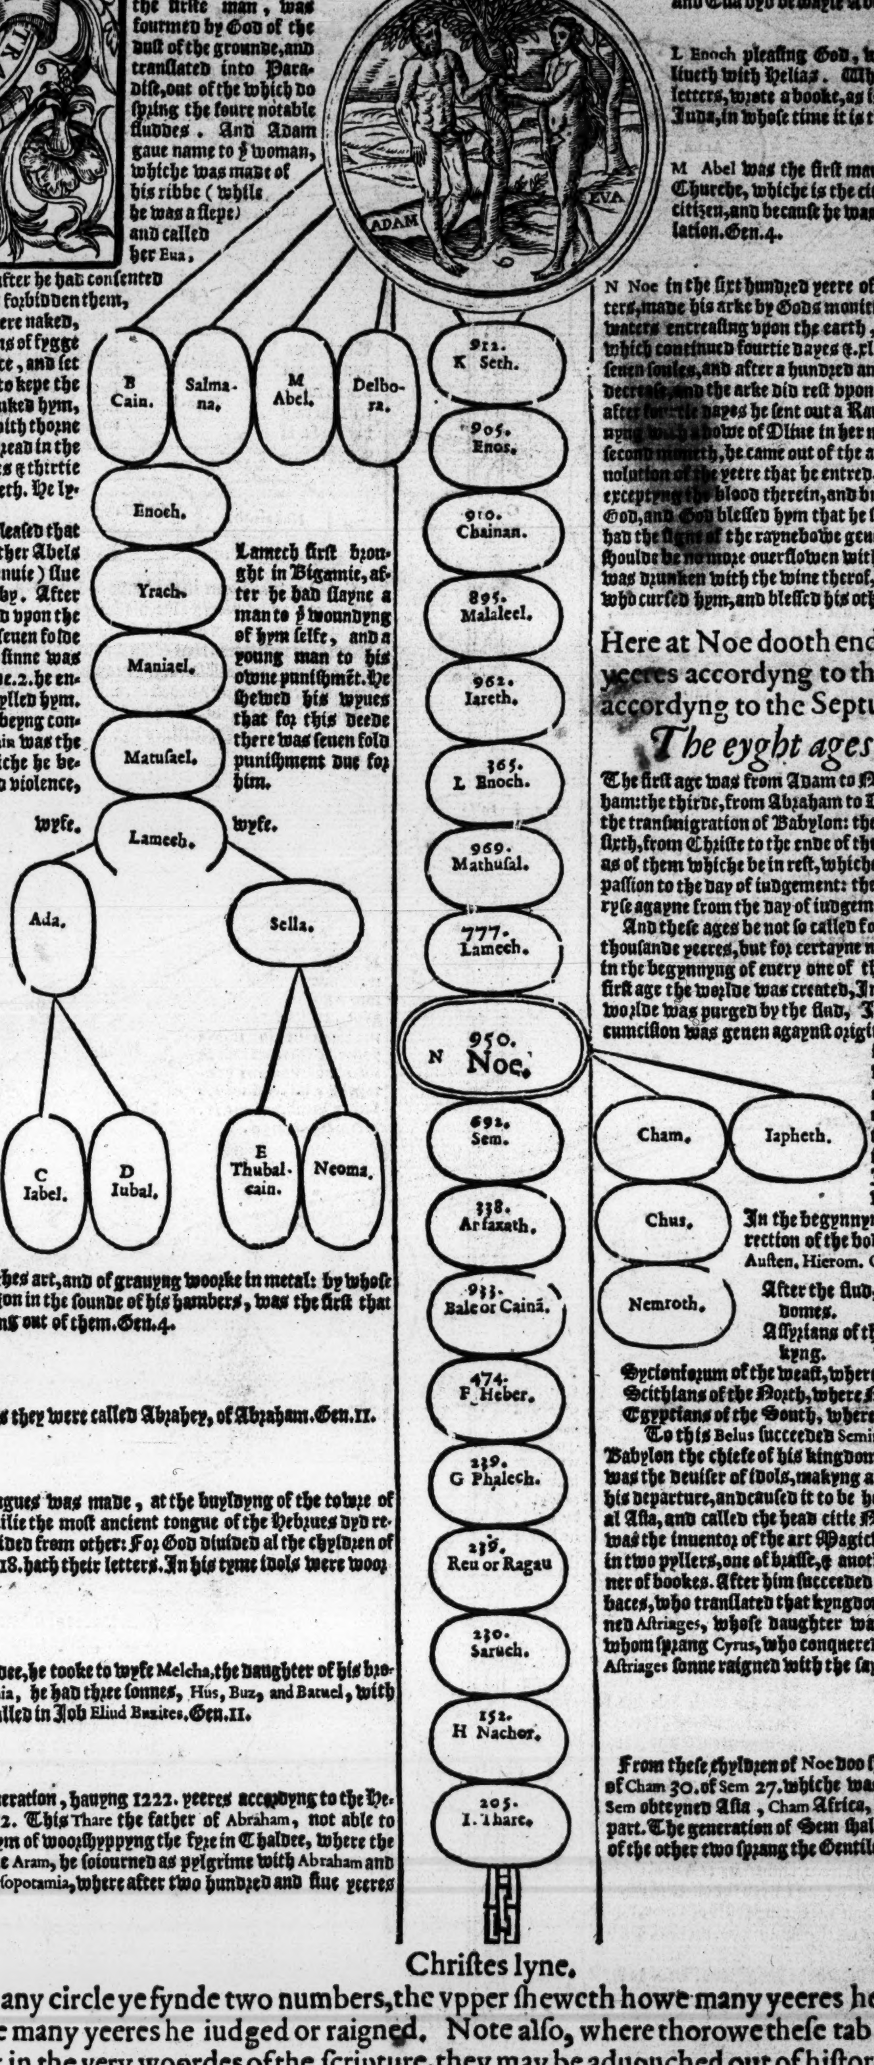
H Nachor after he was comme out of Chaldee, he tooke to wyfe Melcha, the daughter of his brother Aram, he dwelt in Charran of Meſopotamia, he had three ſonnes, Hus, Buz, and Batuel, with other fyue. Of Buz ſprang Baalam, who is called in Iob Eliud Buzites.Gen.11.

I Thare maketh the ende of the ſeconde generation, hauyng 1222. yeeres accordyng to the Hebrues, but accordyng to the Septuaginta.1072. This Thare the father of Abraham, not able to beare the iniuries that were donne vnto hym of worſhyppyng the fyre in Chaldee, where the Chaldees deſtroyed his firſt begotten ſonne Aram, he ſoiourned as pylgrime with Abraham and Nachor, and the familie of Aram, in Aram Meſopotamia, where after two hundred and fiue yeeres of his age, he dyed.Gen.12.



Chriſtes lyne.

And after fourtie dayes he ſent out a Rauen, and after that a Doue, returnyng with a bowe of Oliue in her mouth. And in the.xxvii.day of the ſecond moneth, he came out of the arke, the ſelfe ſame day after the reuolution of the yeere that he entred, & had granted hym to eate fleaſhe, exceptyng the blood therein, and buylded an aulter, and ſacrifiſed to God, and God bleſſed hym that he ſhoulde growe and multiplie, and had the ſigne of the raynebowe geuen hym, as a token that the worlde ſhoulde be no more ouerflowen with flud. After that he pitched his tent betwixt Bethel and Hay, & called vpon the name of the Lorde. And from thence he departed for the famyne, and went downe into Egypt, where he named his wife to be his ſiſter. And from thence he went to the valley of Mambre, and diuided hym ſelfe from Loth. L. This Ariſtobulus ouercomming his brother Hircanus in batayle, was taken priſoner in Hieruſalem of Pompeius, & brought to Rome, but he breakyng pryſon out of Rome, with a greate multitude of ẏ Iewes, beſieged Alexandria, whiche he would haue deſtroyed, but Ariſtobulus was taken and brought agayne to Rome with his chyldren.

At the laſt, he and Lyſias bounde of theyr owne armie, and at the commaundement of Demetrius Sother, the chyldren of Seleuchus were ſlayne. I. Mach. 7.

And after he had made Hircanus biſhop, he led Ariſtobolus with his chyldren captiue to Rome, and here ended the kingdome of Syria, which came into the Empire of ẏ Romanes.

R. Antiochus the younger gaue ẏ prieſthood to Ionathas, and was ſlayne by ſleyght of Triphon who deſyred to raigne. I. Mach. 11.

T. Craſſus tooke away almoſt al the golde of the temple, from the whiche Pompei keapt his handes cleane, he ſpent it vpon his ſouldiers that he had in Parthia, wherupon he had golde crammed into his mouth, and therof dyed.

Chriſtes lyne.

B Herode a Scalonite, made of his father liefetenant of Galilee, ſlewe Ezechias a notable theefe, with his company: beyng kyng of the Iewes, by Antonie and Auguſtus, and by Soſius was after brought in into yͤ kyngdome of Iurie, who ſlewe the infantes, amongſt whom he thought to haue kylled Chriſte, he had ſeuen wyues, yet the ſcripture ſpeaketh but of theſe foure, he ſlue Mariamne his wyfe by the accuſation of her ſiſter for adultrie with her huſbande, whom he alſo ſlue, he ſlue his ſonnes, Antipater, Ariſtobulus, and Alexander, and many other Iewes: at the laſt he ſlewe him ſelfe, and dyed miſerably, leauyng Archelaus his ſonne after hym. This Herode next hym hath his brothers, vnder whom be his wyues, and vnder them his.6. ſonnes of his foure wiues.

C Archelaus after long battayle with his brethren, made liefetenant of Idumea and Iurie of the Senate of Rome, beyng puft in pride for the promiſe of his roome, was accuſed before Cæſar for tyrannie, & was driuē out in exile to Vienna of Burgundie, where he dyed, whiche landes beyng brought vnder tribute, Componius was ſent of Auguſtus Cæſar, whiche Componius was Procurator of Iurie. Mat.2.

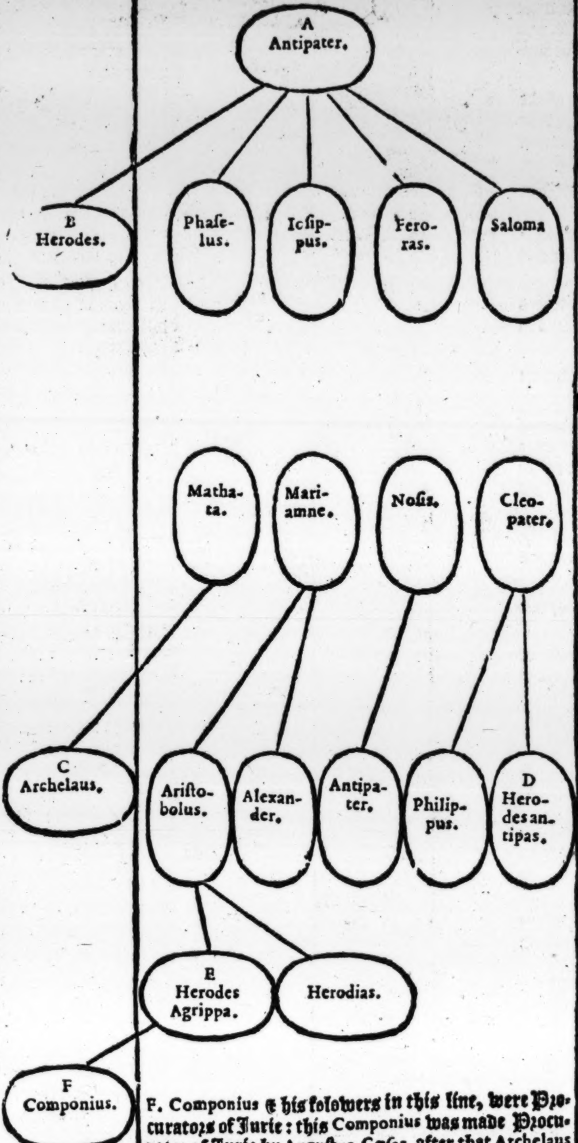
D Herode Antipas, ſlewe Iohn Baptiſt, to whom Pilate ſent Chriſt, vnder whom he ſuffered, beyng Tetrarche of Galilee, after long battayle with Archelaus, enuying Herode Agrippa king of the Iewes, after Chriſtes death, went to Rome by the counſayle of his wife, he was driuen in exile by the accuſation of Herode Agrippa, to Lions, where he dyed miſerably with Herodias his concubine. Mat.14.

E Herodes Agrippa oft troubled with varietie of fortune, to whom was geuen the Tetrarchie of Trachonitis by Caligula, yͤ whiche Philip refuſed, and Claudius afterward added Samaria and Iudea, and called him kyng. And he beyng deſirous to pleaſe the Iewes, ſlew Iohn and Iames, impriſoned Peter, tooke vpon hym Gods honour, and therefore dyed eaten of wormes. Actes.12.

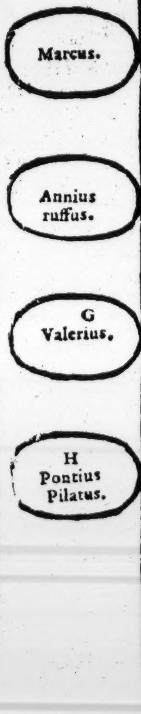
It is to be noted that Mathan and Melchi deſcended from Dauid, but Mathan by Solomon, and Melchi by Nathan. Mathan had to wyfe one Eſtha, of whō he begat Iacob, & Iacob beyng dead, Melchi of the line of Nathan the ſonne of Leui maryed her to wyfe, of whom he had Hely, and ſo Iacob and Hely were made brothers of one venter. Hely maried a wife, and dyed without chyldren, and therefore Iacob maryed her, of whom he had Ioſeph, ſo that Ioſeph was the natural ſonne of Iacob, and the ſonne of Hely by lawe, and thereof it is that Matthewe calleth Ioſeph the ſonne of Iacob, and Luke calleth Ioſeph the ſonne of Hely.

L Iohn Baptiſt was prophecied to Zacharie by the angel Gabriel, & was borne of Elizabeth when ſhe was barren, ſanctified in her wombe: when he was ſeuen yeeres of age, went into wildernes, where he liued an auſtere lyfe, & after Chriſte was baptized, & had preached penance, and ſhewed Chriſte, he was beheaded by Herode Antipas at the requeſt of Herodias his concubine in the. 32. yeere of his age. Luke.1.

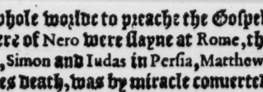
A. Antipater borne in Idumea, a gentile, was confederated firſt with Hircanus, who went at his counſayle to the kyng of Arabie, he ioyned with Pompeius, and after his death with Iulius Cæſar, whom Cæſar ſent with 3000. menne agaynſt Pellucium, in which battayle doyng valiauntly, yet he had many woundes, he was accuſed of Antigonus for the death of his father & brother, & for the betraying of the Empire, before Cæſar. Wherupon he put of his clothes, and ſhewed the ſcarres of his woundes whiche he receaued for Cæſars ſake, ſayeing, Though my tongue ſpeake not, let theſe woundes declare whether I haue ben a traytour. At the laſt he was poyſoned: he had Criſpis to wyfe, neece to the kyng of the Arabians, of whom he had foure ſonnes & one daughter, as appeareth here.

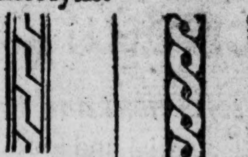


F. Componius & his folowers in this line, were Procurators of Iurie: this Componius was made Procurator of Iurie by Auguſtus Cæſar, after that Archelaus was exiled, who becauſe the Samaritanes entred in the night into Hieruſalem, and to the temple, and did caſt the bones of the dead men about the temple, he commaunded the gates of the temple to be ſhut vntil the day, who after his returne to Rome Marcus was ſent, after his returne was ſent Annius Ruffus, in whoſe dayes Cæſar was ſlayne: after whom Valerius was ſent to be Procurator of Iurie.

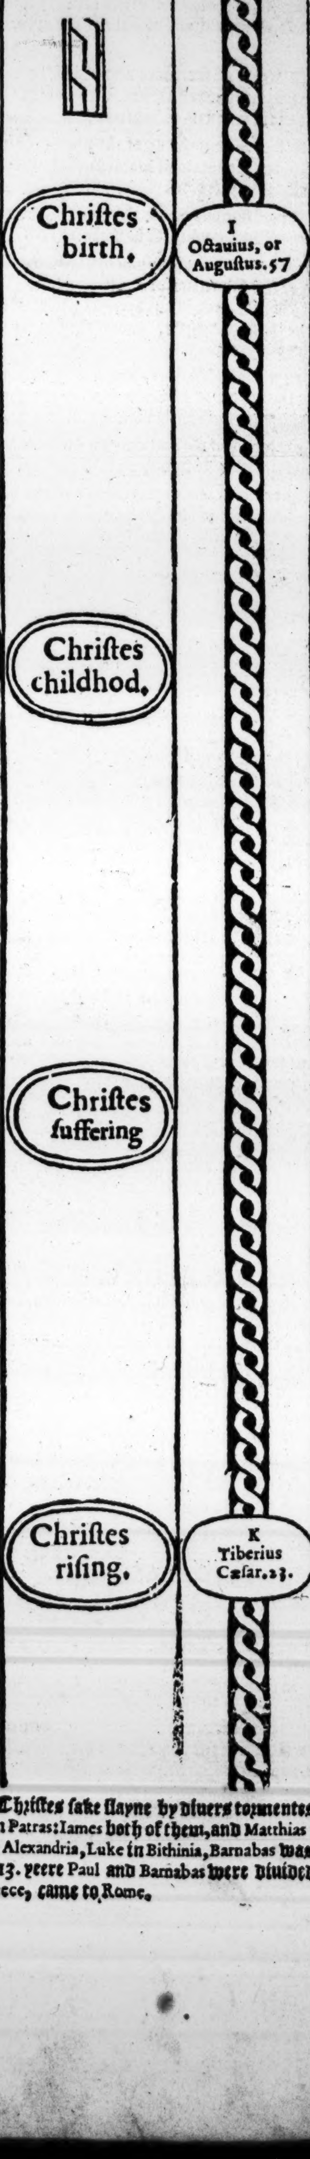


G. Valerius a Greke borne, he was made Procurator of Iurie, by Tiberius Cæſar, he depoſed Anna, and ſubſtituted Iſmael, whom within a while he depoſed, and ſet vp Eleazar the ſonne of Annas, and after a yeere depoſed hym, and appoynted Simeon, whom he alſo depriued after a yeere, and conſtituted Ioſippus, whiche was alſo called Caiphas, vnder whom Chriſt ſuffered, he after eleuen yeeres forſooke Iurie, and returned to Rome, after him Tiberius ſent Pontius Pilate, vnder whom Herode Agrippa to the honor of Tiberius Cæſar, builded the Citie of Tiberias. After the death of Herode a Scalonite, the monarchie of the kingdome of the Iewes was diuided into two partes by the Senate of Rome, one part was geuē to Archelaus vnder yͤ name of the Tetrarch, that is, of Iurie & Idumea, and it was promiſed hym that yf he dyd worthily, he ſhould be made king. An other part was diuided into two Tetrarchs, and one part thereof was geuen to Herode Antipas ouer the riuer, & Galilee: and to his brother Philippus was geuen the Tetrarchie of Ituria or Traconitis: and to Liſania, was geuen the Tetrarchie of Abiline.





Chriſte Ieſus our Lorde was borne the. 42. yeere of the Empire of Auguſtus, in the.30. yere of Herode the kyng, on the Sunday at nyght, & in the. 15. yeere of Tiberius, Chriſte was 30. yeeres of age.

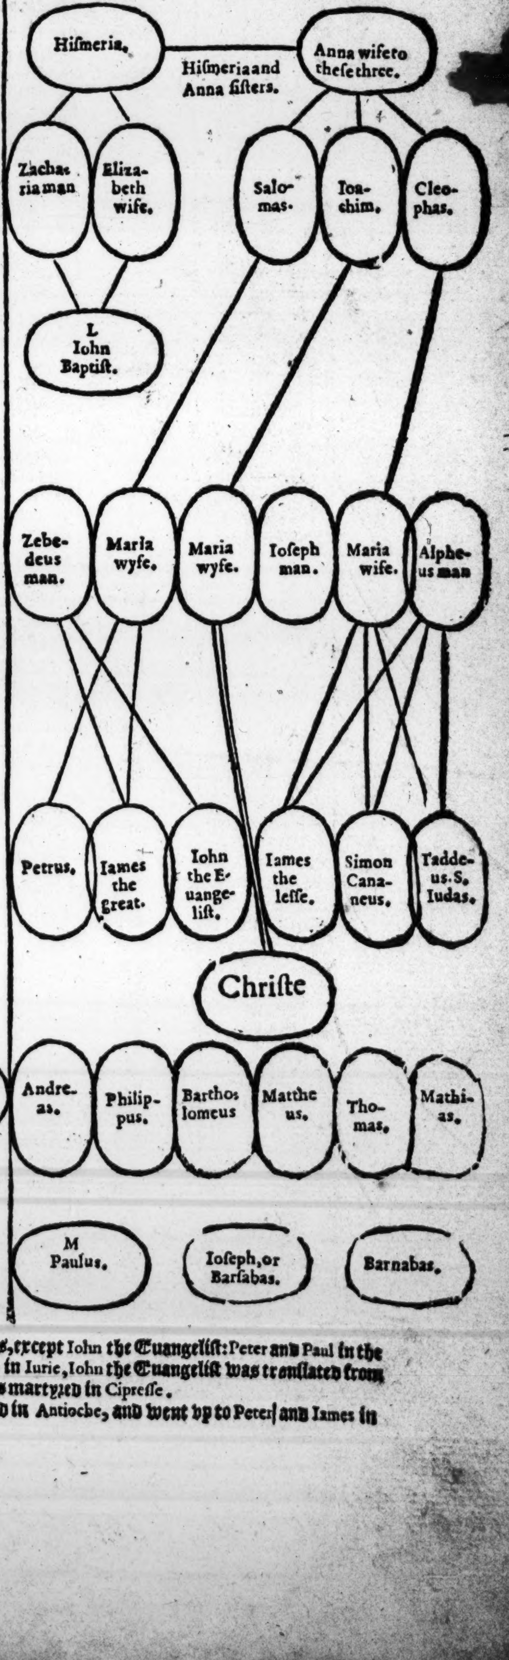


Here at the Natiuitie of Chriſte endeth the fifth age, in the. xlii. yeere of Octauian the Emperour, and it conteyneth yeeres fiue hundred fourescore and ſixe, wherunto if you ioyne the yeres from Adam to Chriſtes byrth, they amount to. 5199. yeeres, and ſo begynneth the ſixt age, whiche ſhal continue to the day of iudgement.

H Pontius Pilate was made Procurator of Iurie by Tiberius Cæſar, who commyng to Hieruſalem, woulde haue the image of Iulius Cæſar to be ſet in the temple: in the. 17. yeere of his rule he pronounced falſe ſentence agaynſt Chriſte, he woulde haue brought into the temple the images of the Gentiles, contrarie to the lawe of the Iewes: & the money receiued into Corbonam, that is, of the arke, wherin was put the offerings of the prieſtes to the repayring of the temple, and alſo of the Treaſure houſe, wherin was put the oblations of al paſſengers, he turned to his owne vſe, and therefore Tiberius exiled hym to Lions his owne countrey, where he dyed to his ſhame. Iohn.19.

I Octauianus, or Auguſtus Cæſar, after he came to the empire, founde pacified the whole worlde, and therefore he deſyred to knowe what regions, what cities, what caſtles, what villages, what menne were vnder his Empire, for he had the rule of the whole world, and this deſcription was firſt made of Cirenius the liefetenant of Syria, and than was Chriſte borne. And hauyng deſire to buylde a notable pallace, he woulde knowe how long it ſhoulde continue, and had anſwere from Cibilla that it ſhould endure ſo long tyl a virgin ſhould bryng foorth a chylde, wherupon he called it eternum, that is, euerlaſting: But Chriſte beyng borne of a virgin, the pallace fel downe, wherupon he builded an aulter to God borne of the virgin, and called it the aulter of heauen, he raigned thirteene yeeres after Chriſtes byrth, and in the.41. yere of his rule he numbred the people in Rome, and there were founde nientie tymes three hundred thouſande, and.80. thouſande, and ſixe hundred menne. Luke.2.

K Tiberius was the ſonne of Auguſtus, and of Iulia his wyfe, he had two nephewes, one of his ſonne called Tibur, and another of his brother called Gaius, he would haue ſubſtituted after him the ſonne of his ſonne whō he loued better, but Herode Agrippa loued better Gaius, and wiſhed hym to be Emperour, for which wiſhe he put Herode in priſon. In the. 15. yeere of his raigne Iohn Baptiſt began for to preache and to baptize, and in his. 18. yeere Chriſte was crucified, and Tiberius dyed.



The Apoſtles diſpearſed through the whole worlde to preache the Goſpel of Chriſte, were for Chriſtes ſake ſlayne by diuers tormentes, except Iohn the Euangeliſt: Peter and Paul in the 39. from Chriſtes paſſion, and in the.14. yere of Nero were ſlayne at Rome, the ſame day Andrewe in Patras: Iames both of them, and Matthias in Iurie, Iohn the Euangeliſt was tranſlated from Epheſus, Thomas and Bartholomewe in Iudea, Simon and Iudas in Perſia, Matthewe in Ethiope, Marke in Alexandria, Luke in Bithinia, Barnabas was martyred in Cipreſſe.

M Paul in the ſeconde yeere from Chriſtes death, was by miracle conuerted to the fayth: in the. 13. yeere Paul and Barnabas were diuided in Antioche, and went vp to Peter and Iames in Hieruſalem, and in the.14. yeere they went to preache, and Paul after long preaching in Iurie and Greece, came to Rome.

The whole ſcripture of the Bible is diuided into two teſtamentes, the olde teſtament and the newe, whiche booke is of diuers natures, ſome legal, ſome hiſtorical, ſome ſapiential, and ſome prophetical. The olde teacheth by figures and ceremonies: the lawe was geuen terribly in lyghtning and thundryng, to induce the people to the obſeruance thereof by feare. The newe Teſtament came in more glorioully with the gentle name of the Goſpel, and good tidinges, to induce men to obſerue it by loue.

F all the ſentences pronounced by our ſauiour Chriſte in his whole doctrine, none is more ſerious, or more woorthy to be borne in remembrance, then that whiche he ſpake openly in his Goſpel, ſayeing, Scrutamini Iohn.v. ſcripturas, quia vos putatis in ipſis vitam eternam habere, & illę ſunt quę teſtimonium perhibent de me. Search ye the ſcriptures, for in them ye thinke to haue eternal lyfe, and thoſe they be whiche beare witneſſe of me. Theſe woordes were firſt ſpoken vnto the Iewes by our ſauiour, but by him in his doctrine ment to al: for they concerne al, of what nation, of what tongue, of what profeſſion ſoeuer any man be. For to al belongeth it to be called vnto eternal lyfe, ſo many as by the witneſſe of the ſcriptures deſire to finde eternal lyfe.
No man, woman, or chylde, is excluded from this ſaluation, and therfore to euery of them is this ſpoken proportionally yet, and in their degrees and ages, and as the reaſon and congruitie of their vocation may aſke. For not ſo lyeth in charge to the worldly artificer to ſearche, or to any other priuate man ſo exquiſitely to ſtudie, as it lyeth to the charge of the publike teacher to ſearch in the ſcriptures, to be the more able to walke in the houſe of God (whiche is the Churche of the liuing God, the piller and grounde of trueth) to the eſtabliſhing of the true doctrine of the ſame, and to the impugning of the falſe. And though whatſoeuer difference there may be betwixt i. Tim.3.
the preacher in office, and the auditor in his vocation, yet to both is it ſaid, Searche ye the ſcriptures, wherby ye may finde eternal life, and geather witneſſes of that ſaluation whiche is in Chriſte Jeſus our Lorde. For although the prophet of God Moſes, biddeth the king when he is once ſet in the throne of his kingdome, to deſcribe before his eyes the volume of Gods lawe, according to the example whiche he ſhoulde receiue of the Deut.17.
prieſtes of the leuitical tribe, to haue it with him, and to reade in it al the dayes of his lyfe, to thende that he might learne to feare the Lorde his God, and to obſerue his lawes, that his hart be not aduanced in pride ouer his brethren, not to ſwarue either on the right hande, or on the leaſt: yet the reaſon of this precept, for that it concerneth al menne, may reaſonably be thought to be commaunded to al menne, and al menne may take it to be ſpoken to them ſelfe in their degree. Though almightie God him ſelfe ſpake to his captaine Ioſue in preciſe woordes, Non recedat volumen legis huius ab ore tuo, ſed meditaberis in eo diebus ac noctibus. &c. Let not the volume of this booke Ioſue.1.
depart from thy mouth, but muſe therein both dayes and nightes, that thou mayeſt keepe and perfourme al thinges whiche be written in it, that thou mayeſt direct wel thy way, and vnderſtand the ſame: yet aſwel ſpake almightie God this precept to al his people in the directions of their wayes to hymwarde, as he ment it to Ioſue:
For that he hath care of al, he accepteth no mans perſon, his wyl is that al menne ſhoulde be ſaued, his wyl i. Pet. v. is that al menne ſhould comme to the way of trueth. Howe could this be more conueniently declared by God Epheſ. vi.
to man, then when Chriſte his welbeloued ſonne our moſt louing ſauiour, the way, the trueth, and the lyfe of i. Tim. ii.
vs al, dyd byd vs openly Searche the ſcriptures, aſſuring vs herein to finde eternal life, to finde ful teſtification Iohn.14.
of al his graces and benefites towardes vs in the treaſure therof? Therfore it is moſt conuenient that we ſhould al ſuppoſe that Chriſte ſpake to vs al in this his precept of ſearching the ſcriptures. If this celeſtial doctour (ſo Matth.17.
authoriſed by the father of heauen, and commaunded as his onely ſonne to be hearde of vs al) biddeth vs buſily to Searche the ſcriptures? of what ſpirite can it proceede to forbid the reading and ſtudying of the ſcriptures? If the groſſe Iewes vſed to reade them, as ſomme menne thinke that our ſauiour Chriſte dyd ſhewe by ſuche kynde of ſpeaking, their vſage, with their opinion they had therin to finde eternal life, and were not of Chriſte rebuked or diſproued, either for their ſearching, or for the opinion they had, howe ſuperſtitiouſly or ſuperficially ſoeuer ſomme of them vſed to expende the ſcriptures: Howe muche more vnaduiſedly doo ſuche as boaſt them ſelfe to be either Chriſtes vicars, or be of his garde, to loth chriſten men from reading, by their couert ſlaunderous reproches of the ſcriptures, or in their authoritie by lawe or ſtatute to contract this libertie of ſtudying the woorde of eternal ſaluation? Chriſte calleth them not onely to the ſingle reading of ſcriptures (ſaith Chriſoſtome) but ſendeth them to the exquiſite ſearching of them, for in them is eternal life to be found, and they be (ſayth him ſelfe) the witneſſe of me: for they declare out his office, they commende his beneuolence towarde vs, they recorde his whole woorkes wrought for vs to our ſaluation. Antechriſte therfore he muſt be, that vnder whatſoeuer colour woulde geue contrarie precept or counſayle, to that whiche Chriſte dyd geue vnto vs. Very litle doo they reſemble Chriſtes louing ſpirite mouing vs to ſearche for our comfort, that wyl diſcourage vs from ſuch ſearchyng, or that would wiſhe ignorance and forgetfulneſſe of his benefite to raigne in vs, ſo that they might by our ignorance raigne the more frankly in our conſciences, to the danger of our ſaluation.
VVho can take the light from vs in this miſerable vale of blindneſſe, & meane not to haue vs ſtumble in the Pſal.22.
pathes of perdition to the ruine of our ſoules? who wyl enuye vs this bread of lyfe prepared and ſet on the table for our eternal ſuſtenance, and meane not to famiſhe vs, or in ſteede thereof, with their corrupt traditions and doctrines of man, to infect vs? Al the whole ſcripture, ſaith the holy apoſtle Saint Paul, inſpired from GOD ii. Tim. iii.
aboue, is profitable to teache, to reproue, to refourme, to inſtruct in ryghteouſneſſe, that the man of God may be ſounde and perfect, inſtructed to euery good woorke.

Searche therefore good reader (on Gods name) as Chriſte byddeth thee, the holy ſcripture, wherein thou mayeſt finde thy ſaluation: Let not the volume of this booke (by Gods owne warrant) depart from thee, but occupie thy ſelfe therin in the whole iourney of this thy worldly pilgrimage, to vnderſtande thy way how Pſal.j. to walke ryghtly before hym al the dayes of thy lyfe. Remember that the prophete Dauid pronounceth hym the bleſſed man which wyl muſe in the lawe of God both day and night, remember that he calleth hym bleſſed Pſal.119. whiche walketh in the way of the Lorde, whiche wyl ſearche diligently his teſtimonies, and wyl in their whole hart ſeeke the ſame. Let not the couert ſuſpitious inſinuations of the aduerſaries driue thee from the ſearche of the holy ſcripture, either for the obſcuritie whiche they ſay is in them, or for the inſcrutable hydden myſteries they talke to be compriſed in them, or for the ſtrangneſſe and homelyneſſe of the phraſes they woulde charge Gods booke with. Chriſte exhorteth thee therfore the rather for the difficultie of the ſame, to ſearche them diligently.

Heb.v. Saint Paul wylleth thee to haue thy ſenſes exerciſed in them, and not to be a childe in thy ſenſes, but 1.Cor.14. in malice. Though many thinges may be difficult to thee to vnderſtande, impute it rather to thy dul hearyng and reading, then to thinke that the ſcriptures be inſuperable, to them whiche with diligent ſearching labour Matth.7. to diſcerne the euyl from the good. Onely ſearche with an humble ſpirite, aſke in continual prayer, ſeeke with puritie of lyfe, knocke with perpetual perſeuerance, and crye to that good ſpirite of Chriſte the comforter: and ſurely to euery ſuche aſker it wyl be geuen, ſuche ſearchers muſt needes fynde, to them it wylbe opened. Chriſt
Matth.11. hym ſelfe wyl open the ſenſe of the ſcriptures, not to the proude, or to the wyſe of the worlde, but to the lowly

1.Cor.12. openeth. For as this ſpirite is a benigne and a liberal ſpirite, and wyl be eaſily founde of them whiche wyl early
Apoc.3. in carefulneſſe ryſe to ſeeke hym, and as he promiſeth he wyl be the comforter from aboue to teache vs, and to Sapi.1. leade vs into al the wayes of trueth, if that in humilitie we bowe vnto hym, denying our owne natural ſenſes,
Iob.14. our carnal wittes and reaſons: ſo is he the ſpirite of puritie and cleanneſſe, and wyl receede from hym, whoſe
Sapi.1. conſcience is ſubiect to filthineſſe of lyfe. Into ſuche a ſoule this heauenly wiſedome wyl not enter, for al peruerſe cogitations wyl ſeparate vs from God: and then howe buſily ſoeuer we ſearch this holy table of the ſcripture, yet wyl it then be a table to ſuche to their owne ſnare, a trap, a ſtumbling ſtocke, and a recompence to them ſelfe. VVe ought therefore to ſearche to finde out the trueth, not to oppreſſe it, we ought to ſeeke Chriſte, not Pſal.68. as Herode did, vnder the pretence of woorſhipping him to deſtroy him, or as the Phariſees ſearched the ſcriptures to diſproue Chriſte, and to diſcredite hym, and not to folowe hym: but to embrace the ſaluation whiche we may learne by them. Nor yet is it yenough ſo to acknowledge the ſcriptures as ſomme of the Iewes did, of the holyeſt of them, who vſed ſuch diligence, that they could number preciſely, not only euery verſe, but euery woord and ſyllable, how oft euery letter of the alphabet was repeated in the whole ſcriptures: they had ſomme of them ſuche reuerence to that booke, that they woulde not ſuffer in a great heape of bookes, any other to lay ouer them, they woulde not ſuffer that booke to falle to the grounde as nigh as they could, they would coſtly bynde the bookes of holy ſcriptures, and cauſe them to be exquiſitely and ornately written. VVhiche deuotion yet though it was not to be diſcommended, yet was it not for that intent, why Chriſte commended the ſcriptures, nor they thereof alowed before God: For they did not cal vpon God in a true fayth, they were not charitable to their neighbours, but in the middeſt of al this deuotiõ, they dyd ſteale, they were adulterers, they were ſlaunderers and backbiters, euen muche lyke many of our chriſtian menne and women nowe a dayes, who glorie muche that they reade the ſcriptures, that they ſearche them and loue them, that they frequent the publike ſermons in an outward ſhewe of al honeſtie and perfection, yea they can pike out of the ſcriptures vertuous ſentenſes and godly preceptes to lay before other menne. And though theſe manner of menne doo not muche erre fro ſuche ſearching and ſtudying, yet they ſee not the ſcope and the principal ſtate of the ſcriptures, which is as Chriſte declareth it, to finde Chriſte as their ſauiour, to cleaue to his ſaluation and merites, to be brought to the lowe repentance of their liues, and to amende them ſelfe, to rayſe vp their fayth to our ſauiour Chriſte, ſo to thinke of him as the ſcriptures doo teſtifie of hym. Theſe be the principal cauſes why Chriſte dyd ſende Iohn.20. the Iewes to ſearch the ſcriptures: for to this end were they written, ſaith Saint Iohn, Hæc ſcripta ſunt vt credatis, & vt credentes vitam habeatis eternam. Theſe were written to this intent, that ye ſhould beleeue, & that through your beliefe ye ſhoulde haue euerlaſting lyfe.

And here good reader, great cauſe we haue to extol the woonderous wiſedome of GOD, and with great thankes to prayſe his prouidence, conſydering howe he hath preſerued and renued from age to age by ſpecial Hebre.5. miracle, the incomparable treaſure of his Churche. For firſt he dyd inſpire Moſes, as Iohn Chriſoſtome dooth teſtifie, to write the ſtonie tables, and keapt him in the mountayne fourtie dayes to geue him his lawe:
after him he ſent the prophetes, but they ſuffered many thouſande aduerſities, for battayles dyd folowe, al were ſlayne, al were deſtroyed, bookes were brent vp. He then inſpired agayne another man to repayre theſe miraculous ſcriptures, Eſdras I meane, who of their leauinges ſet them agayne togeather: after that, he prouided that the ſeuentie interpreters ſhoulde take them in hande: at the laſt came Chriſte him ſelfe, the Apoſtles did receiue them, and ſpread them throughout al nations. Chriſte wrought his miracles and woonders:
1.Cor.10. and what folowed? after theſe great volumes the Apoſtles alſo did write, as Saint Paul dooth ſay, Theſe be Matth.22. written to the inſtruction of vs that be comme into the ende of the worlde: and Chriſte dooth ſay, Ye therefore erre, becauſe ye knowe not the ſcriptures, nor the power of GOD: and Paul dyd ſay, Let the woorde of Coloſſ.3. Chriſte be plentiful among you: and agayne ſayth Dauid, Oh howe ſweete be thy woordes to my throte: he Pſal.119. ſayde not to my hearyng, but to my throte, aboue the hony or the hony combe to my mouth. Yea Moſes Deut.16. ſayth, Thou ſhalt meditate in them euermore when thou riſeſt, when thou ſitteſt downe, when thou goeſt to ſleepe, continue in them he ſaith: and a thouſande places more. And yet after ſo many teſtimonies thus ſpoken, there be ſomme perſons that doo not yet ſo muche as knowe what the ſcriptures be: wherupon nothing is in good ſtate amongeſt vs, nothing woorthyly is donne amongeſt vs: In this whiche parteyne to this lyfe, we make very great haſte, but of ſpiritual goodes we haue no regarde. Thus farre Iohn Chriſoſt. It muſt needes ſignifie ſomme great thing to our vnderſtanding, that almightie God hath had ſuch care to preſcribe theſe bookes thus vnto vs: I ſay, not preſcribe them onely, but to mainteyne them, & defende them againſt the malignitie of the deuyl and his miniſters, who alway went about to deſtroy them: and yet coulde theſe neuer be ſo deſtroyed, but

but that he woulde haue them continue whole and perfect to this day, to our ſinguler comfort and inſtruction, where other bookes of mortal wiſe menne haue periſhed in great numbers. It is recorded that Ptolomeus Philadelphus kyng of Egypt, had geathered togeather in one librarie at Alexandria by his great coſte and diligence, ſeuen hundred thouſand bookes, whereof the principal were the bookes of Moſes, which reſerued not muche more then by the ſpace of two hundred yeeres, were al brent, and conſumed in that battayle, when Cæſar reſtored Cleopatra agayne after her expulſion. At Conſtantinople peryſhed vnder Zenon by one common fire, a hundred and twentie thouſande bookes. At Rome when Lucius Aurel Antonius dyd raigne, his notable librarie by a lightnyng from heauen was quite conſumed: yea it is recorded that Gregorie the firſt, dyd cauſe a librarie of Rome conteyning onely certayne Paynims woorkes to be burned, to thintent the ſcriptures of God ſhoulde be more read and ſtudied. VVhat other great libraries haue there benne conſumed but of late dayes? And what libraries haue of olde throughout this realme almoſt in euery abbey of the ſame, benne deſtroyed at ſundry ages, beſydes the loſſe of other mēns priuate ſtudies, it were to longe to rehearſe. VVherupon ſeyng almightie God by his diuine prouidence, hath preſerued theſe bookes of the ſcriptures ſafe and ſounde, and that in their natiue languages they were firſt written, in the great ignorance that raigned in theſe tongues, and contrarie to al other caſualties, chanced vpon al other bookes in maugre of al worldly wittes, who woulde ſo fayne haue had them deſtroyed, and yet he by his myghtie hande, woulde haue them extant as witneſſes and interpreters of his wyl towarde mankynde: we may ſoone ſee cauſe moſt reuerently to embrace theſe diuine teſtimonies of his wyl, to ſtudie them, and to ſearche them, to inſtruct our blynde nature ſo ſoare corrupted and fallen from the knowledge in whiche firſt we were created. Yet hauyng occaſion geuen ſomewhat to recouer our falle, and to returne agayne to that diuine nature wherein we were once made, and at the laſt to be inheritours in the celeſtial habitation with GOD almightie, after the end of our mortalitie here brought to his duſt agayne: Theſe bookes I ſay beyng of ſuche eſtimation and aucthoritie, ſo muche reuerenced of them who had any meane taſt of them, coulde neuer be put out of the way, neyther by the ſpite of any tyrant, as that tyrant Maximian deſtroyed al the holy ſcriptures whereſoeuer they coulde be founde, and burnt them in the middeſt of the market, neyther the hatred eyther of any Porphirian philoſopher or Rhetoritian, neyther by the enuie of the romaniſtes, and of ſuche hypocrites, who from tyme to tyme dyd euer barke againſt them, ſomme of them not in open ſorte of condemnation: but more cunnyngly vnder ſuttle pretences, for that as they ſay, they were ſo harde to vnderſtande, and ſpecially for that they affirme it to be a peryllous matter to tranſlate the text of the holy ſcripture, and therefore it can not be wel tranſlated. And here we may beholde the endeuour of ſomme mens cauillations, who labour al they can to ſlaunder the tranſlatours, to fynde fault in ſomme woordes of the tranſlation: but them ſelfe wyl neuer ſet penne to the booke, to ſet out any tranſlation at al. They can in their conſtitutions prouincial vnder paine of excommunication, inhibite al other menne to tranſlate them without the ordinaries or the prouincial counſayle agree therevnto: But they wyl be wel ware neuer to agree or to geue counſayle to ſet them out. VVhiche their ſuttle compaſſe in effect, tendeth but to bewray what inwardly they meane, if they coulde bryng it about, that is, vtterly to ſuppreſſe them: beyng in this their iudgement farre vnlyke the olde fathers in the primatiue Churche, who hath exhorted indifferently al perſons, aſwel menne as women, to exerciſe them ſelues in the ſcriptures, whiche by Saint Hieroms aucthoritie, be the ſcriptures of the people. Yea they be farre vnlyke their olde forefathers that haue ruled in this realme, who in their times, and in diuers ages did their diligence to tranſlate the whole bookes of the ſcriptures, to the erudition of the laytie, as yet at this day be to be ſeene diuers bookes tranſlated into the vulgar tongue, ſomme by kynges of the realme, ſomme by biſhoppes, ſomme by abbottes, ſomme by other deuout godly fathers: ſo deſyrous they were of olde tyme to haue the lay ſort edified in godlyneſſe by readyng in their vulgar tongue, that very many bookes be yet extant, though for the age of the ſpeache and ſtrangeneſſe of the charect of many of them almoſt worne out of knowledge. In whiche bookes may be ſeene euidently howe it was vſed among the Saxons, to haue in their Churches read the foure goſpels, ſo diſtributed and piked out in the body of the euangeliſtes bookes, that to euery Sunday and feſtiual day in the yeere, they were ſorted out to the common miniſters of the Churche in theyr common prayers to be read to theyr people. Nowe as of the moſt ancient fathers the prophetes, Saint Peter teſtifieth that theſe holy menne of GOD had the impulſion of the holy ghoſt, to ſpeake out theſe diuine teſtimonies: ſo it is not to be doubted but that theſe latter holy fathers of the engliſhe Churche, had the impulſion of the holy ghoſt, to ſet out theſe ſacred bookes in their vulgar language, to the edification of the people, by the helpe whereof they myght the better folowe the example of the godly Chriſtians, in the beginning of the Churche, who not onely receiued the woorde with al redyneſſe of hart, but alſo dyd ſearche diligently in the ſcriptures, whether the doctrine of the Apoſtles were agreeable to the ſame ſcriptures. And theſe were not of the raſcal ſort (ſayth the diuine ſtorie) but they were of the beſt and of moſt noble byrth among the Theſſalonians, Birrhenſes by name. Yea the prophetes them ſelues in their dayes, writeth Saint Peter, were diligent ſearchers to inquire out this ſaluation by Chriſt, ſearching when and at what article of tyme this grace of Chriſtes diſpenſation ſhould appeare to the worlde. VVhat meant the fathers of the Churche in their writinges, but the aduancing of theſe holy bookes, where ſomme doo attribute no certayntie of vndoubted veritie, but to the canonical ſcriptures. Somme doo affirme it to be a fooliſhe raſhe boldneſſe to beleeue hym, who proueth not by the ſcriptures that whiche he affirmeth in his woorde. Somme doo accurſe al that is deliuered by tradition, not founde in the legal and euangelical ſcriptures. Somme ſay that our fayth muſt needes ſtagger, if it be not grounded vpon the aucthoritie of the ſcripture. Somme teſtifieth that Chriſte and his Churche ought to be aduouched out of the ſcriptures, and doo contende in diſputation, that the true Churche can not be knowen, but onely by the holy ſcriptures: For al other thynges (ſayth the ſame aucthor) may be founde among the heretikes. Somme affirme it to be a ſinneful tradition that is obtruded without the ſcripture. Somme playnely pronounce, that not to knowe the ſcriptures, is not to knowe Chriſte. VVherefore let menne extol out the Churche practiſes as hyghly as they can, and let them ſet out their traditions and cuſtomes, theyr deciſions in ſynodes and counſayles, with vauntyng the preſence of the holy ghoſt among them really, as ſomme dooth affirme it in their writing, let theyr groundes and theyr demonſtrations, theyr fundations be as ſtable and as ſtrong as they blaſe them out: Yet wyl we be bolde to ſay with Saint Peter, Habemus nos firmiorem ſermonem propheticum: VVe haue for our part a more ſtable grounde, the prophetical woordes (of the ſcriptures) and doubt not to be commended therefore of the ſame Saint Peter with theſe woordes: Cui dum attenditis ſeu lucerne apparenti in obſcuro loco, recte facitis donec dies illuceſcat,&c. VVhereunto ſayth he, while ye doo attende as to a light ſhining in a darke place, ye doo wel vntil the day light appeare, and til the bright ſtarre doo ariſe into our hartes. For this we knowe, that al the prophetical ſcripture ſtandeth not in any priuate interpretation of vayne names, of ſeueral Churches, of catholique and vniuerſal ſeas, of ſinguler and wylful heades, whiche wyl chalenge by cuſtome al deciſion to parteyne to them onely, who by woorking ſo muche for their vayne ſuperioritie, that they be not aſhamed now to be of that number, Qui dixerunt, linguam noſtram magnificabimus, labia noſtra a nobis ſunt, quis noſter dominus eſt: VVhich haue ſayde, with our tongue wyl we preuayle, we are they that ought to ſpeake, who is lorde ouer vs. And whyle they ſhal thus contende for their ſtrange claymed aucthoritie, we wyl proceede in the reformation begunne, and doubt no more by the helpe of Chriſte his grace, of the true vnitie to Chriſtes catholique Churche, and of the vprightneſſe of our fayth in this prouince, then the Spaniſhe cleargie once geathered togeather in counſayle (onely by the commaundement of their kyng, before whiche tyme the Pope was not ſo acknowledged in his aucthoritie whiche he nowe claymeth) I ſay as ſurely dare we truſt, as they dyd truſt of their fayth and vnitie. Yea no leſſe confidence haue we to profeſſe that, whiche the fathers of the vniuerſal counſayle at Carthage in Affrike as they write them ſelfe did profeſſe in their epiſtle written to Pope Celeſtine, laying before his face, the foule corruption of him ſelfe (as two other of his predeceſſours did the lyke errour) in falſifying the canons of Nicen counſayle, for his wrong chalenge of his newe claymed aucthoritie: Thus writing. Prudentiſſime enim iuſtiſſimeque prouiderunt (Nicena & Affricana dicreta) quecunque negotia in ſuis locis (vbi orta ſunt) finienda, nec vnicuique prouintiæ gratiam ſancti ſpiritus defuturam, qua equitas a Chriſti ſacerdotibus & prudenter videatur, & conſtantiſſime teneatur, maxime, quia vnicuique conceſſum eſt, ſi iuditio offenſus fuerit cognitorum, ad concilia ſuæ prouinciæ, vel etiam vniuerſale prouocare. That (the Nicen and Affrican decrees) haue moſt prudently and iuſtly prouided for al manner of matters to be ended in their teritories where they had their beginning, and they truſted that not to any one prouince ſhoulde want the grace of the holy ghoſt, whereby both the trueth or equitie myght prudently be ſeene of the chriſtian prelates of Chriſte, and might be alſo by them moſt conſtantly defended, ſpecially for that it is graunted to euery man (if he be greeued) by the iudgement of the cauſe once knowen, to appeale to the counſayles of his owne prouince, or els to the vniuerſal. Except there be any man, whiche may beleeue that our Lorde God would inſpire the righteouſneſſe of examination, to any one ſinguler perſon, and to deny the ſame to prieſtes geathered togeather into counſayle without number.&c. And there they doo require the Biſhop of Rome to ſend none of his clarkes to execute ſuche prouincial cauſes, leſt els, ſay they, mought be brought in the vayne pride of the worlde into the Churche of Chriſte. In this antiquitie may we in this chriſtian catholique Churche of Englande, repoſe our ſelfe, knowing by our owne annales of auncient recorde, that kyng Lucius, whoſe conſcience was muche touched with the miracles whiche the ſeruantes of Chriſte wrought in diuers nations, therevpon beyng in great loue with the true fayth, ſent vnto Eleutherius then Biſhop of Rome, requiring of hym the chriſtian religion. But Eleutherius dyd redyly geue ouer that care to king Lucius in his epiſtle, for that the kyng as he writeth, the vicar of G O D in his owne kingdome, and for that he had receiued the fayth of Chriſte, and for that he had alſo both teſtamentes in his realme, he wylled him to drawe out of them by the grace of G O D, and by the counſayle of his wiſe menne, his lawes, and by that lawe of G O D to gouerne his realme of Britanie, and not ſo much to deſire the Romane & Emperours lawes, in the whiche ſomme default might be found, ſayth he, but in the lawes of G O D nothing at al. VVith whiche anſweare the kinges legates, Eluanus and Medwinus, ſent as meſſengers by the kyng to the Pope, returned to Britanie agayne, Eluanus beyng made a Biſhop, and Medwine alowed a publique teacher: who for the eloquence and knowledge they had in the holy ſcriptures, they repayred home agayne to king Lucius, and by their holy preachinges, Lucius and the noble menne of the whole Britanie receiued their baptiſme.&c. Thus farre in the ſtorie. Nowe therefore knowing and beleeuing with Saint Paul, Quod quecunque preſcripta ſunt, ad noſtram doctrinam preſcripta ſunt, vt per patientiam & conſolationem ſcripturarum ſpem habeamus: VVhatſoeuer is afore written, is written before for our inſtruction, that we through the patience and comfort of ſcriptures myght haue hope: the onely ſuretie to our fayth and conſcience, is to ſticke to the ſcriptures. VVherevpon whyle this eternal woorde of GOD be our rocke and anker to ſticke vnto, we wyl haue patience with al the vayne inuentions of menne, who labour ſo hyghly to magnifie their tongues, to exalt them ſelues aboue al that is GOD. VVe wyl take comfort by the holy ſcriptures agaynſt the maledictions of the aduerſaries, and doubt not to nouriſhe our hope continually therewith, ſo to lyue and dye in this comfortable hope, and doubt not to parteyne to the elect number of Chriſtes Churche, howe farre ſoeuer we be excommunicated out of the ſynagogue of ſuche, who ſuppoſe them ſelues to be the vniuerſal lordes of al the worlde, Lordes of our fayth and conſciences, at pleaſure. Finally to commende further vnto thee good reader the cauſe in part before intreated, it ſhalbe the leſſe needeful, hauing ſo nigh folowed that learned preface, whiche ſometime was ſet out by the diligence of that godly father Thomas Cranmer, late Biſhop in the ſea of Canterburie, whiche he cauſed to be prefixed before the tranſlation of that Byble that was then ſet out. And for that the copies therof be ſo waſted, that very many Churches doo want their conuenient Bybles, it was thought good to ſomme wel diſpoſed menne, to recogniſe the ſame Byble agayne into this fourme as it is nowe comme out, with ſomme further diligence in the printing, and with ſomme more lyght added, partly in the tranſlation, and partly in the order of the text, not as condemning the former tranſlation, whiche was folowed moſtly of any other tranſlation, excepting the original text, from whiche as litle variance was made as was thought meete to ſuche as tooke paynes therein: deſyring thee good reader if ought be eſcaped, eyther by ſuche as had the expendyng of the bookes, or by the ouerſight of the printer, to correct the ſame in the ſpirite of charitie, callyng to remembrance what diuerſitie hath benne ſeene in mennes iudgementes in the tranſlation of theſe bookes before theſe dayes, though al directed their labours to the glorie of G O D, to the edification of the Churche, to the comfort of their chriſtian brethren, and alwayes as God dyd further open vnto them, ſo euermore deſirous they were to refourme their former humane ouerſightes, rather then in a ſtubborne wylfulneſſe to reſiſt the gyft of the holy ghoſt, who from tyme to tyme is reſident as that hea-

And yet may it be true that W. of Malſberie writeth, that Phaganus and Deruuianus were ſent after (as Coadiutours) with theſe learned menne to the preachyng of the Goſpel, whiche was neuer extinguiſhed in Britanie, frō Joſeph of Arimathea his tyme, as to S. Auſten the firſt biſhop of Canter. they doo openly auouche.

uenly teacher and leader into al trueth, by whoſe direction the Church is ruled and gouerned. And let al men remember in them ſelfe howe errour and ignorance is created with our nature: let frayle man confeſſe with that great wiſe man, that the cogitations and inuentions of mortal men be very weake, and our opinions ſoone deceiued: For the body ſo ſubiect to corruption dooth oppreſſe the ſoule, that it can not aſpire ſo high as of dutie it ought. Menne we be al, and that whiche we knowe, is not the thouſande part of that we knowe not. VVherupon ſaith S. Auſten, otherwiſe to iudge then the trueth is, this temptation riſeth of the frailtie of man. A man ſo to loue and ſticke to his owne iudgement, or to enuie his brothers, to the peril of diſſoluing the christian cōmunion, or to the peril of ſchiſme, and of hereſie, this is diabolical preſumption: but ſo to iudge in euery matter as the trueth is, this belongeth onely to the angelical perfection. Notwithſtanding good reader, thou mayſt be wel aſſured nothing to be donne in this tranſlation either of malice or wilful meaning in altering the text, either by putting more or leſſe to the ſame, as of purpoſe to bring in any priuate iudgement by falſification of the woordes, as ſomme certayne menne hath benne ouer bolde ſo to doo, litle regarding the maieſtie of God his ſcripture: but ſo to make it ſerue to their corrupt error, as in alleaging the ſentence of Saint Paule to the Romaines the. 6. one certayne writer to proue his ſatisfaction, was bolde to turne the woorde of Sanctificationem into the woord of Satiſfactionem, Thus. Sicut exbibuimus antea membra noſtra ſeruiræ immundicie & iniquitati, ad iniquitatem: ita deinceps exbibeamus membra noſtra ſeruire iuſtitiæ in ſatisfactionem. That is, As we haue geuen our members to vncleanneſſe, frō iniquitie to iniquitie: euen ſo from hencefoorth let vs geue our members to ſerue righteouſneſſe into ſatiſfaction: where the true woorde is, into ſanctification. Euen ſo likewiſe for the aduantage of his cauſe to proue that menne may haue in their prayer faith vpon ſaintes, corruptly alleageth Saint Paules text, Ad philemonem, Thus. Fidem quam babes in domino Ieſu & in omnes ſanctos, leauing out the woorde Charitatem, whiche woulde haue rightly benne diſtributed vnto Omnes ſanctos. As fidem vnto in domino Ieſu. VVhere the text is, Audiens charitatem tuam & fidem quam babes in domino Ieſu & in omnes ſanctos. &c. It were to long to bring in many examples, as may be openly founde in ſomme mens writinges in theſe dayes, who woulde be counted the chiefe pillers of the Catholique fayth, or to note howe corruptly they of purpoſe abuſe the text to the commoditie of their cauſe. VVhat manner of tranſlation may menne thinke to looke for at their handes, if they ſhould tranſlate the ſcriptures to the comfort of Gods elect, whiche they neuer did, nor be not like to purpoſe it, but be rather ſtudious onely to ſeeke quarrels in other mens wel dooinges, to picke fault where none is: And where any is eſcaped through humane negligence, there to crye out with their tragical exclamations, but in no wiſe to amend by the ſpirite of charitie and lenitie that whiche might be more aptly ſet. VVherupon for frayle man (compaſſed him ſelfe with infirmitie) it is moſt reaſonable not to be to ſeuere in condemnyng his brothers knowledge or diligence, where he dooth erre, not of malice, but of ſimplicitie, and ſpecially in handling of theſe ſo diuine bookes ſo profounde in ſenſe, ſo farre paſſing our natural vnderſtanding. And with charitie it ſtandeth, the reader not to be offended with the diuerſitie of tranſlatours, nor with the ambiguitie of tranſlations: For as Saint Auſten dooth witneſſe, by Gods prouidence it is brought about, that the holy ſcriptures whiche be the ſalues for euery mans ſoare, though at the firſt they came from one language, and thereby might haue benne ſpread to the whole worlde: nowe by diuerſitie of many languages, the tranſlatours ſhoulde ſpreade the ſaluation (that is conteyned in them) to al nations, by ſuche woordes of vtterance, as the reader might perceiue the minde of the tranſlatour, and ſo conſequently to comme to the knowledge of God his wyl and pleaſure. And though many raſhe readers be deceiued in the obſcurities and ambiguities of their tranſlations, whyle they take one thing for another, and whyle they vſe muche labour to extricate them ſelues out of the obſcurities of the ſame: yet I thinke (ſaith he) this is not wrought without the prouidence of God, both to tame the proude arrogancie of man by his ſuche labour of ſearching, as alſo to keepe his minde from lothſomneſſe and contempt, where if the ſcriptures vniuerſally were to eaſie, he woulde leſſe regarde them. And though (ſaith he) in the primatiue Churche the late interpreters whiche dyd tranſlate the ſcriptures, be innumerable, yet wrought this rather an helpe, then an impediment to the readers, if they be not to negligent. For ſaith he, diuers tranſlations haue made many times the harder and darker ſentences, the more open and playne: So that of congruence, no offence can iuſtly be taken for this new labour, nothing preiudicing any other mans iudgement by this dooing, nor yet hereby profeſſing this to be ſo abſolute a tranſlation, as that hereafter might folow no other that might ſee that which as yet was not vnderſtanded. In this point it is conuenient to conſyder the iudgement that Iohn once Biſhop of Rocheſter was in, who thus wrote: It is not vnknowen, but that many thinges hath benne more diligently diſcuſſed, and more clearely vnderſtanded by the wittes of theſe latter dayes, aſwel concerning the goſpelles as other ſcriptures, then in olde time they were. The cauſe whereof is (ſaith he) for that to the old menne the yſe was not broken, or for that their age was not ſufficient exquiſitely to expende the whole mayne ſea of the ſcriptures, or els for that in this large fielde of the ſcriptures, a man may geather ſomme eares vntouched after the harueſt menne, howe diligent ſo euer they were. For there be yet (ſaith he) in the goſpelles very many darke places, whiche without al doubt to the poſteritie ſhalbe made muche more open. For why ſhoulde we diſpayre herein, ſeeyng the goſpel (writeth he) was deliuered to this intent, that it might be vtterly vnderſtanded of vs, yea to the very inche. VVherfore, foraſmuch as Chriſte ſheweth no leſſe loue to his Churche nowe, then hitherto he hath donne, the aucthoritie whereof is as yet no whit diminiſhed, and foraſmuche as that holy ſpirite the perpetual keeper and gardian of the ſame Churche, whoſe giftes and graces doo flowe as continually and as abundantly as from the beginning: who can doubt, but that ſuche thinges as remayne yet vnknowen in the goſpel, ſhalbe hereafter made open to the latter wittes of our poſteritie, to their cleare vnderſtāding. (Thus farre this writer.) Onely good readers let vs oft cal vpon the holy ſpirite of GOD our heauenly father, by the mediation of our Lorde and ſauiour, with the woordes of the octonary pſalme of Dauid, who did ſo importunatly craue of God to haue the vnderſtanding of his lawes and teſtament: Let vs humbly on our knees pray to almightie GOD, with that wyſe king Solomon in his very woordes, ſayeing thus.

The Preface.

Sapi.ix. O GOD of my fathers, and Lord of mercies (thou that haſt made al thynges with thy woorde, and dydſt ordaine man through thy wiſdome, that he ſhould haue dominion ouer thy creatures whiche thou haſt made, and that he ſhoulde order the worlde according to holyneſſe and righteouſneſſe, and that he ſhoulde execute iudgement with a true hart) geue me wiſdome which is euer about thy ſeate, & put me not out from among thy chyldren: For I thy ſeruant and ſonne of thy handmaiden am a feeble perſon, of a ſhort tyme, & to weake to the vnderſtanding of thy iudgementes and lawes. And though a man be neuer ſo perfect among the children of men, yet if thy wiſdome be not with him, he ſhalbe of no value. O ſende her out therefore from thy holy heauens, and from the throne of thy maieſtie, that ſhe may be with me, and labour with me, that I may knowe what is acceptable in thy ſyght: for ſhe knoweth and vnderſtandeth al thynges, and ſhe ſhal leade me ſoberly in my woorkes, and preſerue me in her power. So ſhal my woorkes be acceptable by Chriſte our Lorde, To whom with the father and the holy ghoſt, be al honour and glory, world without ende, Amen.

A Prologue or Preface made by Thomas Cranmer, late Archbiſhop of Canterburie.

Concerning two ſundry ſortes of people, it ſeemeth muche neceſſary that ſome thing be ſaid in the entrie of this booke by the way of a preface or prologue, wherby hereafter it may be both the better accepted of them which hitherto could not wel beare it, & alſo the better vſed of them whiche heretofore haue miſuſed it. For truely ſome there are that be to ſlowe, & neede the ſpurre, ſome other ſeeme to quicke, & neede more of the brydle: ſome loſe their game by ſhort ſhooting, ſome by ouer ſhooting, ſome walke to muche on the leaſt hande, ſome to much on the right. In the former ſort be al they that refuſe to reade, or to heare read the ſcripture in the vulgar tongue, much worſe they that let alſo or diſcourage the other frō the reading or hearing therof. In yͤ latter ſort be they which by theyr inordinate reading, vndiſcrete ſpeaking, contentious diſputing, or otherwiſe by theyr licentious liuing, ſlaunder and hinder the word of God moſt of al other, whereof they woulde ſeeme to be greateſt furtherers. Theſe two ſortes, albeit they be moſt farre vnlike the one to the other, yet they both deſerue in effect like reproche: neither can I wel tel whether of them I may iudge the more offendour, him that doth obſtinately refuſe ſo godly and goodly knowledge: or him that ſo vngodly and ſo vngoodly doth abuſe the ſame. And as touching the former, I would marueyle much that any man ſhoulde be ſo mad, as to refuſe in darkneſſe, light: in hunger, foode: in colde, fyre: for the woorde of God is lyght: Lucerna pedibus meis verbum tuum. Thy woorde is a lanterne vnto my feete. It is foode: Non in ſolo pane viuit homo, ſed in omni verbo dei. Man ſhal not liue by bread only, but by euery woorde of God. It is fyre: Ignem veni mittere in terram, & quid volo, niſi vt ardeat? I am come to ſend fire on the earth, and what is my deſire, but that it be kindled? I would marueyle (I ſay at this) ſaue that I conſyder howe muche cuſtome and vſage may doo. So that if there were a people as ſome write, de Cymerijs, which neuer ſaw the ſunne, by reaſon that they be ſituated farre towarde the north pole, and be incloſed and ouerſhadowed with high mountaynes: it is credible and lyke yenough, that if by the power and wyl of God, the mountaynes ſhoulde ſinke downe, and geue place, that the lyght of the ſunne myght haue entraunce to them, at the firſt ſome of them woulde be offended therewith. And the olde prouerbe affirmeth, that after tillage of corne was firſt founde, many delighted more to feede of maſt and acornes wherewith they had ben accuſtomed, then to eate bread made of good corne. Such is the nature of cuſtome, that it cauſeth vs to beare al thinges wel and eaſily wherewith we haue ben accuſtomed, and to be offended with al thynges thereunto contrary. And therfore I can wel thinke them woorthy pardon, which at the comming abroade of ſcripture doubted and drue backe. But ſuch as wyl perſiſt ſtyl in their wylfulneſſe, I muſt needes iudge not only fooliſhe, frowarde, and obſtinate: but alſo peeuiſhe, peruerſe, and indurate. And yet, yf the matter ſhoulde be tryed by cuſtome, we might alſo to aleage cuſtome for the readyng of the ſcripture in the vulgar tongue, and preſcribe the more auncient cuſtome. For it is not muche aboue one hundred yere agoe, ſince ſcripture hath not benne accuſtomed to be read in the vulgar tongue within this Realme, and many hundred yeres before that, it was tranſlated and read in the Saxons tongue, which at that time was our mother tongue, wherof there remaine yet diuers coppies founde lately in olde abbeyes, of ſuche autique maner of wrytyng and ſpeakyng, that few men nowe ben able to reade and vnderſtande them. And when this language waxed olde and out of common vſage, becauſe folke ſhoulde not lacke the fruite of readyng, it was agayne tranſlated into the newer language, wherof yet alſo many coppyes remayne, and be dayly founde. But nowe to let paſſe cuſtome, and to way as wyſe menne euer ſhould, the thyng in his owne nature: let vs here diſcuſſe what it auayleth ſcripture to be had and read of the lay and vulgar people. And to this queſtion I intende here to ſay nothing, but that was ſpoken and written by the noble doctour and moſte morall diuine, ſaint John Chriſoſtome in his third ſermon de Lazaro, albeit I wyl be ſome thing ſhorter, and geather the matter into fewer woordes and leſſe roome then he dooth there, becauſe I woulde not be tedious. He exhorteth there his audience, that euery man ſhould reade by hym ſelfe at home in the meane dayes and tyme, betweene ſermon and ſermon, to the intent they myght both more profoundly fixe in their mindes and memories that he had ſayde before vpon ſuch textes, whereupon he had already preached: and alſo that they might haue theyr mindes the more ready and better prepared to receaue and perceaue that whiche he ſhoude ſay from thencefoorth in his ſermons, vpon ſuche textes as he had not yet declared and preached vpon, therefore ſayth he there, My common vſage is to geue you warnyng before what matter I entende after to entreate vpon, that you your ſelues in the meane dayes, may take the booke in hande, reade, way, and perceaue the ſumme and effect of the matter, and marke what hath ben declared, and what remayneth yet to be declared, ſo that thereby your mynde may be the more furniſhed to heare the reaſt that ſhalbe ſayde.

S.Chriſoſtome.

And that I exhort you (ſaith he) ⁊ euer haue and wil exhort you, that you (not only here in the Churche) geue eare to that that is ſayde by the preacher: but that alſo when ye be at home in your houſes, ye apply your ſelues from tyme to tyme to the readyng of holy ſcriptures: whiche thing alſo I neuer lin to beate into the eares of them that be my familiers, and with whom I haue priuate acquayntance and conuerſation. Let no man make excuſe and ſay (ſayth he) I am buſied about matters of the common wealth, I beare this office, or that, I am a craftes man, I muſt applie mine occupation, I haue a wife, my children muſt be fed, my houſholde muſt I prouide for: breefly, I am a man of the worlde, it is not for me to reade the ſcriptures, that belongeth to them that haue bidden the worlde farewel, whiche liue in ſolitarineſſe and contemplation, and haue benne brought vp and continually noſilled in learnyng and religion. To this anſwearing, What ſayeſt thou man (ſayth he) is it not for thee to ſtudie and to reade the ſcripture, becauſe thou art encumbred and diſtract with cares and buſineſſe? So muche the more it is behoueful for thee to haue defence of ſcriptures, howe muche thou art the more diſtreſſed in worldly daungers. They that be free and farre from trouble and entermedling of worldly thynges, liue in ſafegarde and tranquilitie, and in the calme, or within a ſure hauen. Thou art in the middeſt of the ſea of worldly wyckedneſſe, and therefore thou needeſt the more of ghoſtly ſuccour and comfort: They ſitte farre from the ſtrokes of battayle, and farre out of gunne ſhoote, and therefore they be but ſeldome wounded. Thou that ſtandeſt in the forefront of the hoſt, and nigheſt to thyne enimies, muſt needes take nowe and then many ſtrokes, and be greeuouſly wounded, and therefore thou haſt moſte neede to haue thy remedies and medicines at hande. Thy wyfe prouoketh thee to anger, thy chylde geueth thee occaſion to take ſorowe and penſiueneſſe, thyne enimies lye in wayte for thee, thy freende (as thou takeſt hym) ſometyme enuieth thee, thy neyghbour miſreporteth thee, or piketh quarelles agaynſt thee, thy mate or partener vndermineth thee, thy lorde, iudge, or iuſtice, threatneth thee, pouertie is payneful vnto thee, the loſſe of thy deare and welbeloued cauſeth thee to mourne, proſperitie exalteth thee, aduerſitie bringeth thee lowe: breefly, ſo diuers and ſo manifolde occaſions of cares, tribulations, and temptations, beſet thee and beſiege thee rounde about. Where canſt thou haue armour or fortreſſe agaynſt thyne aſſaultes? Where canſt thou haue ſalues for thy ſoares, but of holy ſcripture? Thy fleaſhe muſt needes be prone and ſubiect to fleaſhly luſtes, whiche dayly walkeſt and art conuerſant among women, ſeeſt their beauties ſet foorth to the eye, heareſt their nice and wanton woordes, ſmelleſt their balme, ciuet, and muſke, with many other like prouocations and ſtirringes: except thou haſt in a readineſſe wherewith to ſuppreſſe and auoyde them, whiche can not els where be had, but only out of the holy ſcriptures. Let vs reade and ſeeke al remedies that we can, and al ſhalbe litle yenough. Howe ſhal we then do, if we ſuffer and take dayly woundes, and when we haue donne, wil ſit ſtil and ſearche for no medicines? Dooeſt thou not marke and conſyder howe the ſmith, maſon, or carpenter, or any other handy crafteſman, what neede ſoeuer he be in, what other ſhift ſo euer he make, he wyl not ſel nor lay to pledge the tooles of his occupation: for then howe ſhould he woorke his feate, or geat his liuing therby? Of lyke mynde and affection ought we to be towardes holy ſcripture. For as mallettes, hammers, ſawes, cheſils, axes, and hatchettes, be the tooles of their occupation: ſo be the bookes of the prophetes, and apoſtles, and al holy writers inſpired by the holy ghoſt, the inſtrumentes of our ſaluation. Wherefore let vs not ſticke to bye and prouide vs the Byble, that is to ſay, the bookes of holy ſcripture, and let vs thinke that to be a better iewel in our houſe, then either golde or ſyluer. For lyke as theeues be loth to aſſault an houſe where they knowe to be good armour and artillerie: ſo whereſoeuer theſe holy and ghoſtly bookes be occupied, there neyther the deuil nor none of his angels dare come neare. And they that occupy them be in much ſafegard, and haue a great conſolation, and be the readier vnto al goodneſſe, the ſlower vnto al euil: and yf they haue donne any thing amiſſe, anone euen by the ſyght of the bookes their conſciences be admoniſhed, and they waxe ſory and aſhamed of the fact. Peraduenture they wyl ſay vnto me, Howe and yf we vnderſtande not that we reade, that is conteyned in the bookes? What then? Suppoſe thou vnderſtande not the deepe and profound myſteries of ſcriptures, yet can it not be but that muche fruite and holyneſſe muſt come and growe vnto thee by the readyng: for it can not be that thou ſhouldeſt be ignorant in al thynges alyke. For the holy ghoſt hath ſo ordered and attempred the ſcriptures, that in them aſwel publicanes, fiſhers, and ſheepheardes, may finde their edification, as great doctours their erudition. For thoſe bookes were not made to vayne glorie, like as were the writinges of the gentile Philoſophers and Rethoritians, to the intent the makers ſhoulde be had in admiration for their high ſtyles and obſcure maner and wrytyng, wherof nothing can be vnderſtanded without a maiſter or an expoſitour: But the apoſtles and prophetes wrote their bookes ſo, that their ſpecial intent and purpoſe myght be vnderſtanded and perceaued of euery reader, whiche was nothyng but the edification of amendement of the lyfe of them that reade or heare it. Who is it that reading, or hearing read in the Goſpel, Bleſſed are they that be meeke, Bleſſed are they that be merciful, Bleſſed are they that be of cleane hart, and ſuche other like places, can perceaue nothing except he haue a maiſter to teache him what it meaneth? Likewiſe the ſignes ⁊ miracles with al other hiſtories of the dooynges of Chriſte or his apoſtles, who is there of ſo ſimple wit and capacitie, but he may be able to perceiue and vnderſtand them? Theſe be but excuſes and clokes for the rayne, and couerynges of their owne idle ſlouthfulneſſe. But ſtyl ye wyl ſay, I can not vnderſtande it. What marueyle? How ſhouldeſt thou vnderſtand, yf thou wilt not reade, nor looke vpon it? Take the bookes into thyne handes, reade the whole ſtory, and that thou vnderſtandeſt kepe it wel in memorie: that thou vnderſtandeſt not, reade it agayne, and agayne: yf thou can neither ſo come by it, counſayle with ſome other that is better learned. Go to thy curate ⁊ preacher, ſhew thee ſelfe to be deſirous to know ⁊ learne: and I doubt not but God ſeeing thy diligence and readineſſe (if no man els teache thee) wyl hym ſelfe vouchſafe with his holy ſpirite to illuminate thee, ⁊ to open vnto thee that whiche was locked frõ thee.

Remember the Eunuch of Candace Queene of Ethiopia, whiche albeit he was a man of a wylde and barbarous countrey, and one occupied with worldly cares and buſineſſe, yet rydyng in his charret, he was readyng the ſcripture. Nowe conſyder, yf this man paſſing in his iourney was ſo diligent as to reade the ſcripture: what thinkeſt thou of lyke was he woont to doo ſitting at home? Agayne, he that letteth not to reade, albeit he dyd not vnderſtande: what dyd he then troweſt thou, after that when he had learned and gotten vnderſtandyng? For that thou mayeſt wel knowe that he vnderſtoode not what he read, hearken what Philip ſayth there vnto hym, Vnderſtandeſt thou what thou readeſt? And he nothyng aſhamed to confeſſe his ignoraunce, anſweared, Howe ſhoulde I vnderſtande, hauing no body to ſhewe me the way? Lo, when he lacked one to ſhewe hym the way, and to expounde to him the ſcriptures, yet dyd he reade: and therefore God the rather prouided for hym a guide of the way, that taught hym to vnderſtande it. God perceaued his wyllyng and towarde mynde, and therefore he ſent hym a teacher by & by. Therfore let no man be negligent about his owne health and ſaluation. Though thou haue not Philip alwayes when thou wouldeſt, the holy ghoſt which then moued and ſtirred vp Philip, wyl be ready and not fayle thee yf thou doo thy diligence accordyngly. Al theſe thynges be writen vnto vs for our edification and amendement, whiche be borne towardes the latter ende of the worlde. The readyng of the ſcriptures is a great and ſtrong bulwarke or fortreſſe agaynſt ſinne: the ignoraunce of the ſame, is a greater ruine and deſtruction of them that wyl not knowe it. That is the thyng that bryngeth in hereſie, that is it that cauſeth al corrupt and peruerſe lyuing, that is it that bryngeth al thynges out of good order. Hitherto al that I haue ſayde, I haue taken and geathered out of the foreſayde ſermon of this holy doctour ſaint Iohn Chriſoſtome. Nowe yf I ſhoulde in lyke manner bring foorth what the ſelfe ſame doctour ſpeaketh in other places, and what other doctours and wryters ſay concernyng the ſame purpoſe, I myght ſeeme to you to wryte an other Byble, rather then to make a preface to the Byble. Wherfore in fewe woordes to comprehende the largeneſſe and vtilitie of the ſcripture, howe it conteyneth fruiteful inſtruction and erudition for euery man, if any thyng be neceſſarie to be learned, of the holy ſcripture we may learne it. If falſhood ſhalbe reprooued, thereof we may geather wherewithal. If any thyng be to be corrected and amended, yf there neede any exhortation or conſolation, of the ſcripture we may wel learne. In the ſcriptures be the fat paſtures of the ſoule, therin is no venemous meate, no vnwholſome thing, they be the very daintie & pure feeding. He that is ignoraunt, ſhall fynde there what he ſhoulde learne. He that is a peruerſe ſinner, ſhal there fynde his damnation to make hym to tremble for feare. He that laboureth to ſerue God, ſhal fynde there his glorye, and the promiſſions of eternall lyfe, exhortyng hym more diligently to labour. Herein may princes learne howe to gouerne theyr ſubiectes: ſubiectes obedience, loue, and dreade to theyr princes: Huſbandes howe they ſhoulde behaue them vnto theyr wyues, howe to educate theyr chyldren and ſeruauntes: And contrary the wyues, chyldren, and ſeruauntes, may knowe theyr duetie to theyr huſbandes, parentes, and maiſters. Here may al manner of perſons, men, women, young, olde, learned, vnlearned, riche, poore, prieſtes, lay men, lordes, ladies, officers, tenauntes, and meane men, virgins, wiues, widowes, lawyers, marchantes, artificers, huſbandmen, and al manner of perſons of what eſtate or condition ſoeuer they be, may in this booke learne al thinges what they ought to beleue, what they ought to do, & what they ſhoulde not doo, aſwel concerning almightie God, as alſo concerning them ſelues and al other. Breefly, to the readyng of the ſcripture none can be enimie, but that either be ſo ſicke that they loue not to heare of any medicine, or els that be ſo ignorant that they knowe not ſcripture to be the moſte healthful medicine. Therefore as touchyng this former part, I wyl heare conclude, and take it for a concluſion: ſufficiently determined and appoynted that it is conuenient and good the ſcriptures to be read of al ſortes and kyndes of people, and in the vulgar tongue, without further allegations or probations for the ſame, whiche ſhal not neede, ſince that this one place of Iohn Chriſoſtome is yenough and ſufficient to perſwade al them that be not frowardly & peruerſly ſet in theyr owne wylful opinion, ſpecially nowe that the kinges highneſſe beyng ſupreme head next vnder Chriſt of this Churche of Englande, hath approued with his royal aſſent the ſettyng foorth hereof, which only to al true & obedient ſubiectes ought to be a ſufficient reaſon for the alowance of the ſame, without further delay, reclamation, or reſiſtance, although there were no preface, or other reaſon herein expreſſed. Therfore now to comme to the ſeconde and latter part of my purpoſe: here is nothyng ſo good in this worlde, but it may be abuſed, and turned from vnhurtful and wholſome, to hurtful and noyſome. What is there aboue better then the ſunne, the moone, and the ſtarres? Yet was there that tooke occaſion by the great beautie and vertue of them, to diſhonour God, and to defile them ſelues with idolatrie, geuyng the honour of the lyuyng God and creatour of al thynges, to ſuche thynges as he had created. What is there here beneath better then fyre, water, meates, drynkes, mettals of golde, ſiluer, iron, and ſteele? Yet we ſee dayly great harme and muche miſcheefe donne by euery one of theſe, aſwel for lacke of wiſdome & prouidence of them that ſuffer euil, as by the malice of them that woorke the euil. Thus to them that be euil of them ſelues, euery thing ſetteth forwarde and encreaſeth theyr euyl, be it of his owne nature a thyng neuer ſo good: lyke as contraryly, to them that ſtudie and endeuour them ſelues to goodneſſe, euerye thyng preuayleth them, and profiteth vnto good, be it of his owne nature a thing neuer ſo bad, as ſaint Paul ſayth, Hiis qui diligunt deum, omnia cooperantur in bonum, Al things do bring good ſucceſſe, to ſuch as do loue god, euen as out of moſt venemous wormes is made triacle, the moſt ſoueraigne medicine for the preſeruatiō of mans health in time of daunger. Wherfore I would aduiſe you al that come to the reading or hearing of this booke, which is the word of God, the moſt pretious iewel and moſt holy relique that remayneth vpon earth, that ye bryng with you the feare of God, and that ye do it with al due reuerence, & vſe your knowledge therof, not to vayne glorie of friuolous diſputation: but to the honour of God, encreaſe of vertue, and edification both of your ſelues and other. And to the intent that my woordes may be the more

The concluſion.

The kinges highneſſe hath alowed the ſcripture as neceſſary for vs.

There is nothing but it may be abuſed more regarded, I wyl vſe in this part the aucthoritie of ſaint Gregorie Nazianzene, lyke as in the other I dyd of ſaint Iohn Chriſoſtome. It appeareth that in his tyme there were ſome (as I feare me there be alſo nowe at theſe dayes a great number) which were idle babblers, and talkers of the ſcripture out of ſeaſon and al good order, and without any increaſe of vertue, or example of good liuing: to them he wryteth al his firſte booke, de theologa. Wherefore I ſhal breefely geather the whole effect, and recite it here vnto you. There be ſomme (ſayth he) whoſe not only eares and tongues, but alſo theyr fiſtes be whetted and ready bent all to contention and vnprofitable diſputation, whom I woulde wyſhe as they be vehement and earneſt to reaſon the matter with tongue, ſo they were al ready and practiue to doo good deedes. But foraſmuch as they ſubuertyng the order of al godlyneſſe, haue reſpect only to this thyng, howe they may bynde and looſe ſubtile queſtions, ſo that nowe euery market place, euery alehouſe and tauerne, euery feaſt houſe, breefely euery company of men, euery aſſembly of women, is filled with ſuche talke: Since the matter is ſo (ſayth he) and that our fayth and holy religion of Chriſte begynneth to waxe nothyng els but as it were a ſophiſtrie or a talkyng craft, I can no leſſe doo but ſay ſomme thyng thereunto. It is not fit (ſayth he) for euery man to diſpute the high queſtions of diuinitie, neither is it to be donne at al tymes, neither in euery audience muſt we diſcuſſe euery doubt: but we muſt knowe when, to whom, and howe farre we ought to enter into ſuche matters. Firſt, it is not for euery man, but it is for ſuch as be of exact, and exquiſite iudgementes, and ſuche as haue ſpent theyr tyme before in ſtudie and contemplation, and ſuche as before haue cleanſed them ſelues aſwell in ſoule as body, or at the leaſt endeuoured them ſelues to be made cleane. For it is daungerous (ſaith he) for the vncleane to touch that thing that is moſt cleane, lyke as the ſoare eye taketh harme by lokyng vpon the ſunne. Secondarily, not at al tymes, but when we be repoſed, and at reaſt from al outwarde dregges and trouble, and when that our heades be not encumbred with other worldly and wandryng imaginations: as yf a man ſhoulde mingle balme and dirt togeather. For he that ſhal iudge and determine ſuch matters and doubtes of ſcriptures, muſte take his tyme when he may applye his wittes thereunto, that he may thereby the better ſee and diſcerne what is trueth. Thirdly, where, and in what audience. There and among thoſe that haue benne ſtudious to learne: And not among ſuche as haue pleaſure to trifle with ſuche matters, as with other thinges of paſtime, whiche repute for theyr cheefe delicates, the diſputation of high queſtions, to ſhewe theyr wittes, learnyng, and eloquence in reaſonyng of hygh matters. Fourthly, it is to be conſydered howe farre to wade in ſuche matters of difficultie. No further (ſayth he) but as euery mans owne capacitie wyll ſerue hym, and agayne no further then the weakeneſſe or intelligence of the other audience may beare. For lyke as to great noyſe hurteth the eare, to muche meate hurteth the mans body, heauie burthens hurt the bearers of them, to muche rayne doth more hurt then good to the grounde, breefely in all thynges to much is noyous: euen ſo, weake wittes and weake conſciences may ſoone be oppreſſed with ouer harde queſtions. I ſay not this to diſwade men from the knowledge of God, and readyng or ſtudiyng of the ſcripture: For I ſay that it is as neceſſarie for the lyfe of mans ſoule, as for the body to breathe. And if it were poſſible ſo to liue, I woulde thinke it good for a man to ſpende al his life in that, and to doo none other thyng. I commende the law whiche biddeth to meditate and ſtudie the ſcriptures alwayes both nyght and day, and ſermons ⁊ preachynges to be made both mornyng, noone, and euentide, and God to be lauded and bleſſed in al tymes, to bed warde, from bed, in our iourneyes, and al our other workes. I forbyd not to reade, but I forbyd to reaſon. Neither forbyd I to reaſon ſo farre as is good and godly: but I allowe not that is donne out of ſeaſon, and out of meaſure and good order. A man may eate to muche of hony be it neuer ſo ſweete, and there is tyme for euery thyng, and that thyng that is good, is not good yf it be vngodly donne. Euen as a flowre in winter is out of ſeaſon, and as a womans apparel becommeth not a man, neyther contraryly, the mans the woman, neither is weeping conuenient at a brideale, neyther laughing at a burial. Nowe yf we can obſerue and kepe that is comely and timely in all other thynges: ſhall not we then the rather do the ſame in the holy ſcriptures? Let vs not runne foorth as it were wilde horſes, that can ſuffer neyther bridle in theyr mouthes, nor ſitter on theyr backes. Let vs keepe vs in our boundes, and neither let vs goe to farre on the one ſyde, leſt we returne into Egypt, neither to farre ouer the other, leſt we be caried away to Babylon. Let vs not ſyng the ſong of our Lord in a ſtraunge lande, that is to ſay, let vs not diſpute the woorde of God at all aduentures, aſwell where it is not to be reaſoned, as where it is, and aſwell in the eares of them that be not fitte therefore, as of them that be. If we can in no wiſe forbeare but that we muſt needes diſpute, let vs forbeare thus muche at the leaſt, to doo it out of tyme and place conuenient: And let vs entreate of thoſe thynges whiche be holy, holyly: and vppon thoſe thynges that be myſtical, myſtically: and not to vtter the diuine myſteries in the eares vnwoorthy to heare them, but let vs knowe what is comely, aſwell in our ſcilence and talkyng, as in our garmentes wearyng, in our feedyng, in our geſture, in our goeynges, in all our other behauyng. This contention and debates about ſcriptures and doubtes thereof (ſpecially when ſuche as doo pretende to be the fauourers and ſtudentes thereof, can not agree within them ſelues) dooth moſte hurt to our ſelues, and to the furthering of the cauſe and quarrelles that we woulde haue furthered aboue al other thynges. And we in this (ſayth he) be not vnlike to them that being mad, ſet theyr owne houſes on fyre, and that ſlay theyr owne chyldren, or beate theyr owne parentes. I marueyle muche (ſayth he) to recount whereof commeth all this deſyre of vayne glory, wherof commeth al this tongue itche, that we haue ſo muche delight to talke and clatter? And wherein is our communication? Not in the commendation of vertuous and good deedes, of hoſpitalitie, of loue betweene Chriſtian brother and brother, of loue betweene man and wyfe, of virginitie and chaſtitie, and of almes toward the poore: not in Pſalmes and godly ſonges, not in lamentyng for our ſinnes, not in the repreſſyng the affections of the body, not in prayers to God. We talke of ſcripture, but in the meane tyme we ſubdue not our fleaſhe by faſtyng, watching, and weeping, we make not this lyfe a meditation of death, we do not ſtriue to be lordes ouer our appetites and affections, we goe not about to pul downe our proude and hygh myndes, to abate our fumiſhe and rancorous ſtomackes, to reſtrayne our luſtes and bodyly delectations, our vndiſcrete ſorowes, our laſciuious mirth, our inordinate looking, our inſatiable hearyng of vanities, our ſpeakyng without meaſure, our inconuenient thoughtes, and breefly, to refourme our lyfe and manners: but al our holyneſſe conſiſteth in talkyng. And we pardon eache other from al good liuing, ſo that we may ſticke faſt togeather in argumentation, as though there were no mo wayes to heauen but this alone, the way of ſpeculation and knowledge (as they take it) but in very dee[illegible] is rather the way of ſuperfluous contention and ſophiſtication. Hitherto haue I recited the my[illegible] of Gregorie Nazianzene in that booke whiche I ſpake of before. The ſame aucthour ſayth alſo in an other place, that the learning of a Chriſtian man ought to begyn of the feare of God, to ende in matters of high ſpeculation: and not contraryly to begyn with ſpeculation, and to ende in feare. For ſpeculation (ſayth he) either high cunning or knowledge, if it be not ſtayed with the bridle of feare to offende God, is daungerous, & yenough to tumble a man headlong downe the hyl. Therefore, ſayth he, the feare of God muſt be the firſt beginning, and as it were an. A. B. C. or an introduction to al them that ſhal enter into the very true and moſt fruiteful knowledge of holy ſcriptures. Where as is the feare of God, there is (ſaith he) the keping of the commaundementes: and where as is the keping of the commaundementes, there is the cleanſyng of the fleaſhe: whiche fleaſhe is a cloude before the ſoules eye, and ſuffereth it not purely to ſee the beame of the heauenly lyght. Where as is the cleanſyng of the fleaſhe, there is the illumination of the holy ghoſt, the ende of al our deſyres, and the very light wherby the veritie of ſcriptures is ſeene and perceaued. This is the mynde, and almoſt the woordes of Gregorie Nazianzene doctour of the Greeke Churche, of whom ſaint Ierome ſayth, that vnto his tyme the latine Churche had no wryter able to be compared, and to make an euen matche with hym. Therefore to conclude this latter part, euery man that commeth to the readyng of this holy booke, ought to bryng with hym firſte and foremoſt this feare of almyghtie God, and then next, a firme and ſtable purpoſe to refourme his owne ſelfe according thereunto, and ſo to continue, proceede, and proſper from tyme to tyme, ſhewyng hym ſelfe to be a ſober and a fruiteful hearer and learner: whiche yf he do, he ſhal prooue at length wel able to teache, though not with his mouth, yet with his lyuing and good example, whiche is ſure the moſt liuely and effectuous fourme and maner of teaching. He that otherwiſe intermedleth with this booke, let hym be aſſured that once he ſhal make accompt therefore, when he ſhal haue ſayde to hym as it is written in the prophete Dauid, Peccatori dicit deus. &c. Vnto the vngodly ſayde God, Why dooeſt thou preache my lawes, and takeſt my teſtament in thy mouth? Wheras thou hateſt to be refourmed, and haſt ben partaker with adulterers. Thou haſt let thy mouth ſpeake wickedneſſe, and with thy tongue thou haſt ſet foorth deceipt. Thou ſatteſt and ſpakeſt agaynſt thy brother, and haſt ſlaundered thyne owne mothers ſonne. Theſe thinges haſt thou donne, and I helde my tongue, and thou thoughteſt wickedly, that I am euen ſuch a one as thee ſelfe: But I wyl reprooue thee, and ſet before thee the thynges that thou haſt donne. O conſyder this ye that forgeat God, leſt I plucke you away, and there be none to deliuer you. Who ſo offereth me thankes and praiſe, he honoureth me: and to hym that ordereth his conuerſation ryght, wil I ſhewe the ſaluation of GOD.

5975. and. 6 monethes	* After the. 70. yeres of captiuitie, Cyrus the firſt Monarke of the Perſians, ſet the people at libertie againe, and ſuffered them to returne into their owne lande. It was reuealed to Daniel the prophete, that there ſhoulde be. 70. weekes of yeres, (which is. 490. yeres) reckoning from the commaundement geuen to builde the citie, vntil Ieſus Chriſte. Daniel. 9. And this commaundement was geuen by Darius Longimanus, the twentieth yere of his empire. Nehem. 2. which was. 64. yeres after the aforeſaide deliuerance. VVherefore reckoning the ſayde. 64. yeres after the deliuerance, and adding thereto the. 70. weekes aforeſaide reuealed vnto Daniel, we ſhal finde that from the ſaide deliuerance vntil the death of Chriſt, there is fiue hundred, fiftie, and foure yeres.
5510. and. 6 monethes	From the natiuitie of Chriſt to this preſent yere, we recken a thouſande, fiue hundred, ſeuentie & two: from which number if we ſubtract the yeres from his birth vntil his death (which is three and thirtie) we ſhal finde that from the ende of the ſaid ſeuentie weekes of Daniel, vntil this preſent yere, it is. 1539. yeres.
	Al which aforeſaid being wel examined and reckoned, ye ſhal finde that ſince the creation of the world to this preſent yere of. 1572. the yeres amount to. 5507. yeres, and. 6. monethes.

* Abraham was taken from Hur in Chaldei the place of his birth, the 70. yere of his age, & came to dwel in Charran where his father dyed: then being. 75. yeres, came to the land of Chanaan. Gen. 12. Fiue and twentie yeres after, he begat Iſaac. Gen. 21. So he that reckoneth the yeres of the peregrination of Abraham and his ſucceſſours, tyl the deliuerance of Egypt, beginning at that time that he departed out of his countrey, he ſhal finde. 430. yeres mentioned Exod. 24. but beginning their reckoning at the birth of Iſaac, they ſhal finde only. 400. yeres. And thus ought. Gen. 15. and Act. 7. treating theron, to be vnderſtanded.

* The yeres that the people were gouerned by thoſe that the ſcriptures called Iudges, including from Ioſua to Samuel (excepting the time of the oppreſſion vnder the Ammonites) amounteth to. 357. yeres. Nowe it is ſayde. Actes. 13. that this time amounteth to about. 450. yeres. Where is to be noted, that this place hath ben corrupted, & in ſteede of three hundred, they haue ſet foure hundred: whiche readyng of. 300. agreeth very wel with that which is conteined in the ſcriptures touching the ſayde yeres.

* Or, Ahaziahu.

* Amaſias raigned. 29. yeres, the 15. yere of the ſaide Ieroboam, and began to raigne ouer Iſrael in Samaria. 4. Reg. 14. So the. 29. yeres of the raigne of Amaſias, finiſhed the. 15. yere of the ſaide Ieroboam: nowe it is manyfeſt that Azarias the ſonne of Amaſias beganne to raigne but the. 27. yeere of the ſayde Ieroboam. 4. Reg. 15. then it foloweth, that betwene the end of the raigne of Amaſias, and the begynnyng of Azarias, there falleth out eleuen yeeres, that are left out.

* There is difference betweene aucthors touchyng the begynnyng of the. 70. weekes of Daniel: ſome begyn the ſayde weekes from the firſt yeere of Cyrus: other from the tenth yeere of Darius Longimanus, and ſome other from the ſixt yeere of the ſame: but it is likelyeſt that it ſhoulde be the. 20. yeere, becauſe that that which is written Daniel. 9. hath relation to Nehēmias the ſeconde.

The order howe the reſt of holy ſcripture

THE old Teſtament is appoynted for the firſt Leſſons at Morning and Euenyng prayer, and ſhalbe read through euery yere once; except certayne bookes and Chapters whiche be leaſt edifiyng, and might beſt be ſpared, & therefore be leaſt vnread.

¶ The newe Teſtament is appoynted for the ſeconde Leſſons at Mornyng and Euenyng prayer, and ſhalbe read ouer orderly euery yeere thriſe, beſyde the Epiſtles and Goſpels: Except the Apocalips out of the which there be only certayne Leſſons appoynted vpon dyuers proper feaſtes.

¶ And to know what Leſſons ſhalbe read euery day: Finde yͤ day of the moneth in the Kalender folowyng, and there ye ſhal perceyue the bookes and Chapters that ſhalbe read for the Leſſons both at Mornyng and Euenyng prayer.

¶ And here is to be noted, that whenſoeuer there be any proper Pſalmes or Leſſons appoynted for the Sundayes, or for any feaſt moueable or vnmoueable: Then the Pſalmes and Leſſons appoynted in the Kalender, ſhalbe omitted for that tyme.

¶ Ye muſt note alſo that the Collect, Epiſtle, and Goſpel appoynted for the Sunday ſhal ſerue al the weeke after, except there fal ſome feaſt that hath his proper.

¶ When the yeeres of our Lord may be diuided into foure euen partes, whiche is euery fourth yeere, then the Sunday letter leapeth, and that yeere the Pſalmes and Leſſons whiche ſerue for the .xxiii. day of Februarie, ſhalbe reade agayne the day folowyng, except it be Sunday, whiche hath proper Leſſons of the olde Teſtament appoynted in the Table ſeruyng to that purpoſe.

¶ And, whereſoeuer is not expreſſed howe farre ſhalbe read: there ſhal you read to the ende of the Chapter.

¶ Item ſo oft as the firſt Chapter of Saint Matthewe is read eyther for Leſſon or Goſpel, ye ſhal begin the ſame at: The birth of Ieſus Chriſte was on this wyſe, &c. And the thirde Chapter of Saint Lukes Goſpel ſhalbe read vnto: So that he was ſuppoſed to be the ſonne of Ioſeph.

BE it knowen that Eaſter Terme beginneth alwayes the .xviii. day after Eaſter, reckonyng Eaſter day for one: and endeth the Munday next after the Aſſention day.

3 And GOD (b) bleſſed the ſeuenth day, and ſanctified it: becauſe that in it he had reſted from al his worke whiche God ordeyned to make.

Exo.20.b.
Hebr.4.a.
(b) The ſeuenth day conſecrated to the ſeruice of god, for man in his perfect ſtate.

4 Theſe are the generations of the heauens, and of the earth, when they were created, in the in the day when the Lorde GOD made the earth and the heauens.

5 And euery plant of the fielde, before it was in the earth, and euery hearbe of the fielde before it grewe. For the Lorde GOD had not [yet] cauſed it to rayne vpon the earth, neyther [was there] a man to tille the grounde.

6 But there went vp a miſte from the earth, and watered the whole face of the grounde.

B 7 The Lorde God alſo dyd ſhape man, [euen] (c) duſt from of the grounde, and breathed into his noſethrylles the breath of lyfe, and man was a liuing ſoule.

8 And the Lorde God (d) planted a ᵘ garden eaſtward in *Eden, and there he put the man whom he had ſhapte.

9 Moreouer, out of the grounde made the Lorde God to growe (e) euery tree, that was fayre to ſight, and pleaſaunt to eate: The tree (f) of lyfe in the middeſt of the garden, and the tree of (g) knowledge of good and euil.

10 And out of Eden there went foorth a flood to water the garden, and from thence it was diuided, and became into foure heades.

11 The name of the firſt is *Piſon, the ſame is it that compaſſeth the whole lande of (h) Hauilah, where there is golde:

12 And the golde of the lande is very good. C There is alſo Bdellium, and the Onixe ſtone.

14 The name of the thirde riuer is ᵘ Hidekel, and it goeth towarde the eaſt ſide of Aſſyria: and the fourth riuer is Euphrates.

15 And the Lorde GOD tooke the man, and put hym in the garden of Eden, that he myght (k) worke it, and keepe it.

16 And the Lorde God (l) commaunded the man, ſaying, Eating, thou ſhalt eate of euery tree of the garden:

17 But as touchyng the tree of knowledge of good and euil thou ſhalt not eate of it: For in what day ſo euer thou eateſt thereof, thou ſhalt dye the (m) death.

18 And the Lorde GOD ſayde, It is not good, that the man ſhoulde be alone, I wyl make hym an (n) helpe ʺ lyke vnto hym.

19 And ſo out of the grounde the Lorde God had ſhaped euery beaſt of the fielde, and euery foule of the ayre, and brought it vnto man, that he myght ſee, howe he woulde call it. For lykewyſe as man hym ſelfe named euery liuyng thing, euen ſo was the name thereof.

20 And the man (o) gaue names to al cattel, D and foule of the ayre, and euery beaſt of the fielde: but for man founde he not an helpe lyke vnto hym.

21 The Lorde GOD cauſed a deepe ſleepe to fall vppon Adam, and he ſleapt, and he tooke one of his ribbes, and cloſed vp the place with fleaſhe in ſteede thereof.

22 And the ribbe whiche the Lorde GOD had taken from man, ʺ made he a woman, and (p) brought her vnto the man.

23 And man ſayde, *This is nowe bone of my bones, and fleaſhe of my fleaſhe, ſhe ſhalbe called (q) woman, becauſe ſhe was taken out of man.

If there be any kyngdome vnder heauen that is excellent in beautie, in aboundance of fruites, in plenteouſneſſe, in delites, and other gyftes: they whiche haue written of countreys, doe prayſe aboue al, the ſame that this figure repreſenteth. Wherefore, with the prayſes of thoſe wryters, Moſes exalteth this paradiſe, as duely belonging vnto it. And it is very well likely that the region or kyngdome of Eden hath ben ſituated in that countrey, as it appeareth in the .xxxvii. Chapter of Eſaias the .xii. verſe, and in the .xxvii. of Ezechiel the .xxiii. verſe. Moreouer, where as Moſes ſayde that a flood dyd proceede from that place: I doo interprete it, from the courſe of the waters, as yf he ſhoulde haue ſayde that Adam dyd inhabite in the floodes ſide, or in the lande whiche was watered of both ſides. Howebeit, there is no greate matter in that, eyther that Adam hath inhabited vnder the place where both floodes come togeather towarde Babylon and Seleucia, or aboue: It is ſufficient that he hath ben in a place watered of waters. But the thing is not darke nor harde to vnderſtande, howe this floodde hath ben diuided into foure heades. For they be two floodes whiche be geathered in one, then they ſeperate them ſelues in diuers partes. So in their ioyning and flowyng togeather, it is but a floodde, whereof there are two heades into two chanels from aboue, and two towarde the ſea, when it beginneth to ſeperate it ſelfe abrode. But to declare vnto you the diuerſities of the riuers names, beſides their vſual and principal appellations, and howe they be called as they paſſe through eche prouince, with the interpretations of the ſame, I thinke it rather tedious and combreſome, then profitable. Wherefore the ſimple ſenſe of Moſes is, that the gardine whereof Adam was the owner, was watered with waters, becauſe that the courſe of this flood was there, whiche was diuided into foure heades.

A 1 AND it came to paſſe, that when menne (a) began to be multiplied in the vpper face of the earth, there were daughters borne vnto them:

2 And the (b) ſonnes of god alſo ſawe the daughters of menne that they were fayre, and they tooke them wyues, ſuche as they liked, from among them al.

3 And the Lorde ſayde, (c) My ſpirite ſhal not alwayes ſtryue with man, becauſe he is fleaſhe: yet his dayes ſhalbe (d) an hundred and twentie yeeres.

4 But there were Giantes in thoſe dayes in the earth: (e) yea and after that the ſonnes of God came vnto the daughters of menne, and hadde begotten chyldren of them, the ſame became mightie men of the worlde, and men of renowme.

5 (f) But God ſawe that the malice of man was greate in the earth, and al the imagination of the thoughtes of his * heart [was] onlye euil euery day:

6 And it repented the Lord that he had made man vpon the earth, (g) and he was touched with ſorowe in his hart.

B 7 And the Lorde ſayde, I wyl from the vpper face of the earth, deſtroy man, whom I haue created, from man vnto cattel, vnto worme, and vnto foules of the ayre: For it (h) repenteth me that I haue made them.

8 But Noah (i) founde grace in the eyes of the Lorde.

11 The earth alſo was corrupt[l] before God, and the ſame earth was filled with crueltie.

12 And God looked vpon the earth, and beholde[m] it was corrupt: for al fleaſhe hadde corrupt his way vpon earth.

13 And God ſayde vnto Noah, The[n] ende of al fleaſhe is comme before me, for the earth is filled with crueltie through them, and beholde I wyl deſtroy them with the earth.

14 Make thee an Arke of[o] Pine trees: Habitations ſhalt thou make in the Arke, and ſhalt pitche it within and without with pitche.

C 15 And of this faſhion ſhalt thou make it: The length of the Arke [ſhalbe] three hundred cubites, the breadth of it fiftie cubites, and the heigth of it thirtie cubites.

16 A windowe ſhalt thou make in the Arke, and[p] in a cubite ſhalt thou finiſhe it aboue: but the doore of the Arke ſhalt thou ſet in the ſide thereof. With three loftes one aboue another ſhalt thou make it.

17 And beholde, [q] I, euen I doo bryng a fludde of waters vpon the earth, to deſtroye al fleaſhe wherein is the breath of lyfe vnder heauen, and euery thing that is in the earth ſhal periſhe.

18 [r] With thee alſo wyl I make [ſ] my couenaunt: and thou ſhalt come into the Arke, thou and thy ſonnes, thy wyfe, and thy ſonnes wyues with thee.

19 And of euery liuing thing of al fleaſhe, [t] a payre of euery one ſhalt thou bring into the Arke to kepe them aliue with thee, they ſhalbe male and female.

20 Of feathered foules alſo after their kinde, and of al cattel after their kinde: of euerye woorme of the earth after his kinde, two of euery one ſhal comme vnto thee, to keepe [them] aliue. D

21 And take thou with thee [v] of al meate that is eaten, and thou ſhalt laye it vp with thee, that it may be meate for thee and them.

(ſ) Abraham wiſheth not the wicked to be vnpuniſhed: but the godly to be deliuered out of this vtter deſtruction.

24 " If there be (ſ) fiftie ryghteous within the citie, wylt thou deſtroye and not ſpare the place for the ſake of fiftie ryghteous that are therein?

25 That be farre from thee, that thou ſhouldeſt doo after this manner, and ſlay the ryghteous with the wicked, and that the ryghteous ſhoulde be as the wicked, that be farre from thee: Shal not the iudge of al the world doo accordyng to ryght?

Rom.iii.

(t) God byndeth not hym ſelfe here, alwayes to ſpare the wicked for the godly mennes ſake: as Ezechiel.

26 And the Lord ſayd, If I finde in Sodome fiftie ryghteous within the citie, I wyl (t) ſpare al the place for their ſakes.

(v) What care and regard the godly haue of their neyghbours.

27 And Abraham aunſwearing, ſayde, (v) Beholde I haue taken vpon me to ſpeake vnto the Lorde, whiche am but duſt and aſſhes.

28 If there ſhal lacke fiue of fiftie ryghteous, wylt thou deſtroye al the citie for [lacke] of fiue? And he ſayde, If I finde there fourtie and fiue, I wyl not deſtroy them.

E

29 And he proceeded to ſpeake vnto him agayne, and ſayde, What yf there ſhalbe fourtie founde there? He aunſweared, I wyl not doo it for fourties ſake.

30 He ſayd vnto him agayne, O Let not my Lord be angry, that I ſpeake: What yf there ſhal thirtie be founde there? And he ſayde, I wyl doo nothyng yf I fynde thirtie there.

31 He ſayde agayne, O ſee, I haue taken vpon me to ſpeake nowe alſo vnto my Lorde: What yf there ſhalbe twentie founde there? He aunſweared, I wyl not deſtroye [them] for twenties ſake.

(x) The godly man woulde not contemne al the citie: though he knewe it to be very corrupt.

32 And he ſayde, O let not my Lorde be angrye, and I wyl ſpeake yet but this once: What yf (x) tenne ſhalbe founde there? He aunſweared, I wyl not deſtroye [them] for tennes ſake.

33 And the Lorde went his way aſſoone as he had leaft communyng with Abraham, and Abraham [alſo] turned vnto his place.

The.vi.Chapter.

1 The hoſpitalitie of Lot, receiuing angels. 3 He prepareth a banket for them. 4 The luſt of the Sodomites. 14 God deliuereth Lot from the Sodomites, the ſubuertion of whom he foretelleth. 14 Lot is laughed to ſcorne of his ſonnes in lawe. 16 God compelleth Lot him ſelfe to goe out. 18 The towne Segor is ſaued by the prayers of Lot. 20 Lot confeſſeth the mercie of God. 24 The deſtruction of Sodome and Gomorrhe. 26 The wyfe of Lot is turned into a ſtone of ſalt. 29 For Abrahams ſake, Lot is deliuered. 30 Lot goeth out of Segor. 31 The inceſt of Lot with his daughters. 37 Moab. 38 Ammon.

A 1 AND there came two angels to Sodome at euen, and Lot (a) ſate at the gate of Sodome: & Lot ſeeing [them] roſe vp to meete them, aud he bowed him ſelfe with his face towarde the grounde.

(a) The godlye ſeeke occaſion to bryng foorth the fruites of fayth.

2 And he ſayde, Oh my Lordes, turne (b) in I pray you, into your ſeruauntes houſe, and tarrie al nyght, and * waſhe your feete, and ye ſhal ryſe vp early to goe in your wayes. Whiche ſayde, Nay: but we wyl bide in the ſtreetes al nyght.

(b) Hoſpitalitie commended.
Gen.18.a.

3 And he preſſed vpon them exceedyngly: and they returnyng in vnto hym, entred into his houſe, and he made them a feaſt, and dyd bake vnleuened bread, and they dyd eate.

4 And before they went to reaſt, the menne of the citie [euen] the menne of Sodome compaſſed the houſe rounde about, (c) both olde and young, al people from [al] quarters.

5 And they callyng vnto Lot, ſayde vnto hym, (d) Where are the menne whiche came in to thee this nyght? bryng them out vnto vs, that we may knowe them.

(c) Ezechiel ſheweth by what euil meanes they came to this extreme miſcheefe.
(d) This one fact declareth the manifolde wickednes of al the citie.

6 And Lot went out at the doore vnto them, and ſhut the doores after him,

B 7 And ſayde, Nay, for Gods ſake brethren, doo not [ſo] wickedly.

8 Beholde, I haue two daughters whiche haue knowen no man, them wyl I bryng out nowe vnto you, and (e) doo with them as it [ſeemeth] good in your eyes: onlye vnto theſe menne doo nothyng, for therefore came they vnder the ſhadowe of my roofe.

(e) As the defence of the ſtraungers was godly: ſo this meanes to ſaue them, was not good.

9 (f) And they ſayd, Stande backe: And they ſayde agayne, He came in as one to ſoiourne, and wyl he be nowe a iudge? We wyl ſurely deale worſe with thee then with them. And they preſſed ſoare vpon the man [euen] * Lot, and came to breake vp the doore.

(f) The wicked can not abide to be told of their faultes.
2.Pet.2.b.

10 But the menne put foorth their hande, and pulled Lot into the houſe to them, and ſhut to the doore.

11 * And the menne that were at the doore of the houſe (g) they ſmote with blindneſſe both ſmal and great, ſo that they were weryed in ſeeking the doore.

(g) The obſtinate blindnes of the Sodomites, who amended not by this ſcurge of God.

12 And the menne ſayde vnto Lot, Haſt thou here any beſides? (h) ſonne in lawe, and thy ſonnes, and thy daughters, and whatſoeuer thou haſt in the citie, bryng them out of this place:

(h) God dealeth mercifully with al that parteyne to the godly: yf they contempne not his goodneſſe.

C 13 For we wyl deſtroy this place, becauſe the * crye of them is great before the face of God: for the Lorde hath ſent (i) vs to deſtroy it.

Gen. [illegible]
(i) An[illegible] may be miniſters both of gods grace and wrath.

14 And Lot went out, and ſpake vnto his (k) ſonnes in lawe whiche married his daughters, ſaying, Stande vp, geat ye out of this place, for the Lorde wyl ouerthrowe this citie. But he ſeemed as though he had mocked, vnto his ſonnes in lawe.

(k) A ſhewe only of publique honeſtie, is among the wicked.

15 And when the mornyng aroſe, the angels cauſed Lot to (l) ſpeede him, ſaying, Stand vp, take thy wyfe, and thy two daughters whiche be at hande, leſt thou periſhe in the " ſinne of the citie.

(l) Many thoughtes and cares made hym ſlacke: wherein the angels inſtruct hym.
" Or, puniſhment.
VVis.x.a.

16 And as he prolonged the tyme, * the menne caught both hym, his wyfe, and his two daughters by the handes, (m) the Lorde beyng merciful vnto hym: and they brought him foorth, and ſet hym without the citie.

(m) It was of gods mercie that Lot was deliuered.

17 And when he had brought them out, he (n) ſayde, " Saue thee ſelfe, and looke not behynd thee, neither tarrie thou in al this plaine [countrey] Saue thee ſelfe in the mountaine, leſt thou periſhe.

(n) God dooth not only begyn, but alſo finiſheth the ſaluation of his ſeruantes.
" Or, flee for thy lyfe.
" Or, eſcape into the hyl.

18 And Lot ſayde vnto them, Oh not ſo my Lordes.

D 19 Beholde thy ſeruaunt hath founde grace in thy ſyght, and thou haſt magnified thy mercie whiche thou haſt ſhewed vnto me in ſauing my lyfe: (o) Beholde I can not be ſaued in the mountayne, leſt ſome harme fal vpon me, and I dye.

(o) The infirmitie of Lots fayth, not contentyng hym ſelfe with the meanes that God had appoynted.

20 Beholde here is a citie by, to flee vnto, euen yonder litle one: Oh let me eſcape thyther: Is it not a litle one, and my ſoule ſhal liue?

21 And he ſayde to hym, See, I haue receiued thy " requeſt as concernyng this thing, that I wyl not ouerthrowe this citie for the whiche thou haſt ſpoken.

" Hebr. Face.
" Or, eſcape thyther ſafe.

22 Haſte thee, and be " ſaued there: for (p) I can doo nothyng til thou be comme thyther: and therefore the name of the citie is Soar.

(p) The angel had in commaundement both to ſaue Lot, and to deſtroy Sodome, ſo that one muſt be donne before the other.

24 Then the Lorde *rayned vpon Sodome and Gomorrhe (q) brymſtone and fyre, from the Lorde out of heauen:

(q) A terrible & new punishment for ſo outragious newe ſinnes.

25 And ouerthrewe thoſe cities, and al that plaine region, and al that dwelled in the cities, and that grewe vpon the earth.

26 But Lots wyfe folowyng hym, looked behynde her, and (r) was turned into a piller of ſalt.

(r) She beleued not ſtedfaſtly the worde of god: and ſlowly & vnwyllingly leaſt Sodome: as appeareth. Luke.xvii.

27 Abraham ryſyng vp early, gote hym to the place where he ſtoode before the preſence of God, and looked towarde Sodome and Gomorrhe, and towarde al the lande of that plaine countrey, 28 And behelde, and loe, the ſmoke of the countrey aroſe, as the ſmoke of a furneſſe.

29 And it came to paſſe, that when God deſtroied the cities of that region, (s) he thought vpon Abraham, and ſent Lot out from the middeſt of the ouerthrowe, when he ouerthrewe the cities, in one of the whiche Lot dwelled.

(s) God declared howe muche he loued Abraham, in deliuering iuſt Lot, whō he dyd alſo muche regard.

E 30 And Lot departed out of Soar, and dwelled in the mountayne with his two daughters: (t) for he feared to tarrie in Soar, but dwelled in a caue, he and his two daughters.

(t) Yet the angel had promiſed not to deſtroy it.

31 And the " elder ſayde vnto the younger, (v) Our father is olde, and there is not a man in the earth to comme in vnto vs after the manner of al the worlde.

33 And ſo they gaue theyr father wine to drynke that nyght: and the elder daughter went and lay with her father, and (x) he perceiued it not, neyther when ſhe laye downe, nor when ſhe roſe vp.

(x) The manifolde puniſhment of Lots intemperance.

34 And on the morowe the elder ſayde vnto the younger, Beholde, yeſternyght lay I with my father: let vs make hym drynke wine this nyght alſo, and goe thou and lye with hym, that thou mayeſt rayſe vp ſeede of our father. And they made theyr father (y) drynke wine that nyght alſo.

(y) It is a daungerous thing to begynne to falle into a ſinne.

35 And the younger aroſe, and laye with him: and he perceiued it not, neyther when ſhe lay downe, nor when ſhe roſe vp.

F 36 Thus were both the daughters of Lot with chylde by theyr father.

37 And the elder bare a ſonne, and called his name Moab: the ſame is the father of the Moabites vnto this day.

38 And the younger bare a ſonne alſo, and called his name Benammi: the ſame is the father of the chyldren of Ammon vnto this day.] ☞

The.xx.Chapter.

1 Abraham is a ſoiourner in Gerar, where his wyfe is taken by force. 3 Abimelech is chydden. 4 His prayer. 7 God ſaueth Abimelech from dooing amiſſe. Abraham a prophete. 9 Abimelech chydeth Abraham him ſelfe. 12 Sara the niece of Thare by his ſonne, and the niece of Abraham by his brother. 14 Abimelech rendereth the wyfe with gyftes. 17 Abraham prayeth for Abimelech.

A 1 AND Abraham (a) departed thence towarde the South countrey, and dwelled betweene Cades and Sur, and ſoiourned in Gerar.

(a) God dyd thus teache him that he was but a ſtranger here.

2 And Abraham ſaid of Sara his wyfe, (b) She is my ſyſter: And Abimelech kyng of Gerar ſent, and fet Sara away.

(b) Abraham once agayne geueth more to his owne counſel, then to the prouidence of god.

3 But God came to Abimelech by night in a dreame, and ſayde to hym, See, (c) thou art but a dead man for the womans ſake which thou haſt taken away: for ſhe is a mans wyfe.

(c) We may learne howe greatly adulterie diſpleaſeth God.

4 But Abimelech had not yet touched her: and he ſayde, Lorde wylt thou ſlay ryghteous people?

5 Sayde not he vnto me, She is my ſyſter? yea and ſhe her ſelfe ſayde, He is my brother: With (d) a ſyngle hart, and innocent handes haue I donne this.

(d) He dyd neyther purpoſely nor tyrannically take another mans wyfe.

6 And God ſayde vnto hym in a dreame, I wote wel that thou dyddeſt it in the ſynglenesse of thy hart: I kept thee alſo that thou ſhouldeſt not ſinne (e) agaynſt me, and therefore ſuffered I thee not to touche her.

(e) The ſinne agaynſt our neighbour, is ſinne alſo agaynſt God.

B 7 Nowe therefore deliuer the man his wyfe agayne, for he is a prophete, and he ſhal pray for thee, that thou mayeſt lyue: (f) But yf thou deliuer her not againe, be ſure that thou ſhalt dye the death, [both thou] and al that thou haſt.

(f) In Gods threatnynges, is included the doctrine of repentaunce.

(g) A good kyng findeth many good Courtiours.

9 Then Abimelech called Abraham, and ſayde vnto hym, What haſt thou donne vnto vs? and what haue I offended thee, that thou haſt brought on me and on my kyngdome [ſo] (h) great a ſinne? thou haſt donne deedes vnto me that ought not to be donne.

10 And Abimelech ſayde vnto Abraham, What ſaweſt thou, that thou haſt donne this thyng?

11 Abraham aunſweared, For I “ thought [thus] ſurely, (i) the feare of God is not in this place, and they ſhal ſlay me for my wyues ſake.

12 Yet in very deede ſhe is my ſyſter, for ſhe is the daughter of my father, though ſhe be not the daughter of my mother, and ſhe became my wyfe.

C 13 And after God cauſed me to wander out of my fathers houſe, I ſayde vnto her, This kyndneſſe ſhalt thou ſhewe vnto me, in al places where we comme, that thou * ſay of me, He is my brother.

14 Then (k) tooke Abimelech ſheepe and oxen, menne ſeruauntes ⁊ women ſeruauntes, and gaue [them] vnto Abraham, and deliuered hym Sara his wyfe agayne.

15 And Abimelech ſayde, Beholde my lande lyeth before thee, dwel where it pleaſeth thee beſt.

16 But vnto Sara he ſayde, See, I haue geuen thy brother a thouſande peeces of ſiluer: beholde, (l) it is as a coueryng of thyne eyes vnto al that are with thee, and to al [other:] and thus ſhe was reproued.

17 And ſo Abraham prayed vnto God, and God (m) healed Abimelech, and his wyfe, and his maydens, and they bare chyldren.

18 For the Lord had cloſed vp al the wombes of the houſe of Abimelech, becauſe of Abrahams wyfe.

9 Sara ſawe alſo the ſonne of Hagar the Egyptian, whiche ſhe had borne vnto Abraham, [to be] a (e) mocker.

10 Wherefore ſhe ſayde vnto Abraham, (f) Caſt out this bond woman, and her ſonne: for the ſonne of this bonde woman ſhal not be heyre with my ſonne Iſahac.

11 And this ſayeing was very greeuous in Abrahams ſyght, becauſe of his ſonne.

12 And God ſayde vnto Abraham, Let it not be greeuous in thy ſyght, becauſe of the lad and of thy bonde woman: In al that Sara hath ſayde vnto thee, heare her voyce: for (g) in Iſahac ſhal thy ſeede be called.

13 Moreouer, of the ſonne of the bonde woman wyl I make a nation, becauſe he is thy ſeede.

17 And God (k) hearde the voyce of the ladde, and the angel of God called to Hagar out of heauen, and ſayde vnto her, What ayleth thee Hagar? feare not: for God hath hearde the voyce of the ladde where he lyeth.

18 Aryſe and lyft vp the ladde, (l) and take hym in thyne hande, for I wyl make of him a great people.

A AND it came to paſſe, that when Iſahac waxed old, & his eyes were dimme, ſo that he coulde not ſee, he called Eſau his eldeſt ſonne, and ſayde vnto him, My ſonne? And he ſayde vnto hym, Here am I.

2 And he ſayde, Beholde, I am nowe olde, and knowe not (a) the day of my death.

(a) The nowledge of r moꝛtalitie oulde cauſe to ſee al ynges in der.

3 Nowe therefoꝛe take, I pꝛay thee, thy weapons, thy quyuer and thy bowe, and geat thee to the fielde, that thou mayeſt take me ſomme veneiſon.

10 And thou ſhalt bryng it to thy father that he may eate, and that he may bleſſe thee before his death.

11 Then ſayde Jacob to Rebecca his mother, Beholde, Eſau my brother is a heary man, and I am ſmoothe:

12 My father ſhal peraduenture feele me, and I ſhal ſeeme vnto hym as though I went about to begyle hym, and ſo ſhal I bryng a curſe vpon me, and not a bleſſyng.

13 And his mother ſayd vnto hym, Upon me be the curſe my ſonne: only heare my voyce, and goe and fetche me them.

C

14 And [Jacob] (e) went, and fet them, and brought them to his mother: and his mother made pleaſaunt meate, ſuche as ſhe knewe his father loued.

15 And Rebecca fet goodly rayment of her eldeſt ſonne Eſau, whiche were in the houſe with her, and put them vpon Jacob her younger ſonne:

16 And ſhe put the ſkynnes of the kiddes vpon his handes, and vpon the ſmoothe of his necke.

17 And ſhe put that pleaſaunt meate and bread, whiche ſhe had prepared, in the hande of her ſonne Jacob.

18 When he came to his father, he ſayde, My father? And he aunſweared, Here am I: who art thou, my ſonne?

19 And Jacob ſayde vnto his father, I am Eſau thy eldeſt ſonne, I haue donne accordyng as thou baddeſt me, aryſe I pray thee, ſit, and eate of my veneiſon, that thy ſoule may bleſſe me.

20 And Iſahac ſayde vnto his ſonne, Howe commeth it that thou haſt founde it ſo quickly my ſonne? He aunſweared, (f) The Lorde thy God brought it to my handes.

21 Then ſayde Iſahac vnto Jacob: Comme neare, and I wil feele thee my ſonne, whether thou be my very ſonne Eſau, or not.

D

22 Then went Jacob to Iſahac his father, and he felt hym, and ſayde, The voyce is Jacobs voyce, but the handes are the handes of Eſau.

23 And (g) he knewe hym not, becauſe his handes were heary as his brother Eſaus handes, and ſo (h) he bleſſed hym.

24 And he aſked hym, Art thou my ſonne Eſau? And he ſaide, That I am.

25 Then ſayde he, Bryng me, and let me eate of my ſonnes veneiſon, that my ſoule may bleſſe thee. And he brought hym, and he ate: and he brought hym wyne alſo, and he dranke.

26 And his father Iſahac ſayde vnto hym, (i) Comme neare and kyſſe me, my ſonne.

27 And he went vnto hym, and kyſſed hym, and he ſmelled the ſauour of his rayment, and bleſſed hym, and ſayde, (k) See, the ſmel of my ſonne, is as the ſmel of a fielde, whiche the Lorde hath bleſſed.

28 God geue thee (l) of the dewe of heauen, and of the fatneſſe of the earth, and plentie of corne and wyne.

30 Aſſoone as Iſahac had made an ende of bleſſyng Jacob, and Jacob was ſcarſe gonne out from the preſence of Iſahac his father, then came Eſau his brother from his huntyng.

31 And (m) he alſo had made a pleaſaunt meate, and brought it vnto his father, and ſayde vnto his father, Let my father aryſe, and eate of his ſonnes veneiſon, that thy ſoule may bleſſe me.

32 Then his father Iſahac ſayde vnto hym: Who art thou? He aunſweared, I am thy ſonne, thy firſt borne Eſau.

33 And Iſahac was greatly aſtonned out of meaſure, and ſaide, Whiche [is he] and where [is he] then, that hath hunted veneiſon, and brought it me, and I haue eaten of al before thou cameſt, and haue bleſſed hym, yea (n) and he ſhalbe bleſſed.

34 When Eſau hearde the wordes of his father, he cryed aloude and bitterly, aboue meaſure, and ſayde vnto his father, Bleſſe me,* I alſo am [thy ſonne] O my father.

38 And Eſau ſayde vnto his father, Haſt thou but that one bleſſyng, my father? bleſſe me, I am alſo [thy ſonne] O my father. So lyfted vp Eſau his voyce, (p) and wept.

The.xxx.Chapter.

The fatherly chaſtement of Iacob, is ſet out here in the great vnquietneſſe and trouble of his houſholde.

1 Rachel complayneth to her huſbande of barenneſſe. 4 Rachel geueth Bilha for a wyfe vnto Iacob. 6 Dan. 13 Aſer. 15 Lea byeth with Mandragues of Rachel, that her huſbande myght lye with her, and conceiueth. 18 Iſachar. 20 Zabulon. 21 Dina. 22 God geueth conceiuing vnto Rachel. 24 Ioſeph. 25 Iacob aſketh licence to depart, and his wages. 19 God enriched Laban for Iacobs ſake. 32 Iacob aſketh wages for ſheepe of diuers colours, whiche be yeaned of ſheepe of one colour. 43 Iacob very riche.

A 1 Rachel when ſhe ſawe that ſhe bare Iacob no chyldren, ſhe enuied her ſiſter, and ſayde vnto Iacob, Geue me chyldren, or els I am but dead.

2 And Iacobs (a) anger was kyndled agaynſt Rachel, and ſayd, Am I in Gods ſteede, whiche keepeth from thee the fruite of thy wombe?

3 Then ſhe ſayde, Here is my mayde Bilha, go in vnto her, and ſhe ſhal beare vpon my knees, that I alſo may " haue chyldren by her.

4 And (b) ſhe gaue hym Bilha her handemayd to wyfe: & Iacob went in vnto her.

5 And Bilha conceiued, and bare Iacob a ſonne.

9 Then ſayde Rachel, God hath geuen ſentence on my ſide, and hath alſo hearde my voyce, and hath geuen me a ſonne: therefore called ſhe hym " Dan.

B 7 And Bilha Rachels ſeruaunt conceiued agayne, and bare Iacob another ſonne.

(a) This was godly anger, whiche preferred the honour of god to his wyfe, whom he ſharply admoniſheth.

" Be buylt by her.

(b) The vanitie of a womans witte, who ſeeketh vnlawful meanes to her enuious purpoſe.

" That is, iudgement.

8 And Rachel ſayde, With " godly wraſtlynges haue I wraſtled with my ſiſter, (c) and haue gotten the vpper hande: and ſhe called his name " Nephthali.

9 When Lea ſawe that ſhe had leaſt bearing children, (d) ſhe tooke Zilpha her mayde, and gaue her Iacob to wyfe.

10 And Zilpha Leas mayde bare Iacob a ſonne.

11 Then ſayde Lea, " Good lucke: and called his name " Gad.

12 And Zilpha Leas ſeruaunt bare Iacob an other ſonne.

13 Then ſayde Lea, Happy am I, for the " daughters wil calle me bleſſed: and called his name " Aſer.

14 And Ruben went out in the dayes of the wheate harueſt, and founde (e) Mandragoras in the feelde, and brought them vnto his mother Lea. Then ſayde Rachel to Lea, Geue me I pray thee, of thy ſonnes Mandragoras.

bande, (f) but wouldeſt thou take away my ſonnes Mandragoras alſo? Then ſayde Rachel, Wel, let hym ſleepe with thee this night for thy ſonnes Mandragoras.

(f) Olde malice nowe in a ſmal matter breaketh out, to the diſturbance of al the houſholde.

16 And Iacob came from the feelde at euen, and Lea went out to meete hym, and ſayde, Thou ſhalt comme in to me, for I haue bought thee in deede with my ſonnes Mandragoras. And he ſleapt with her that ſame nyght.

17 And God hearde Lea, that ſhe conceiued, and bare Iacob the fift ſonne.

18 Then ſayde Lea, (g) God hath geuen me a rewarde, becauſe I gaue my mayden to my huſbande: and ſhe called hym “ Iſachar.

(g) She boaſteth of her fault, and maketh that a cauſe, whiche was none in deede.

“ Iſhſhaſhear. That is, a reward.

19 And Lea conceiued yet agayne, and bare Iacob the ſixth ſonne.

D

20 And Lea ſayde, God hath endued me with a good dowrie, now wyl my huſbande dwelle with me, becauſe I haue borne hym ſixe ſonnes: and called his name “ Zabulon.

“ Zebulon. That is, abidyng.

21 After that, ſhe bare a daughter, and called her name Dina.

22 And God remembred Rachel, and God (h) hearde her, and “ made her fruiteful.

(h) Faythful prayer obteyneth at the length, her requeſt.

23 So that ſhe conceiued and bare a ſonne: and ſayd, God hath taken away my rebuke.

24 And ſhe called his name “ Ioſeph, sayeing, The Lorde geue me yet another ſonne.

“ That is, addyng.

25 (i) Aſſoone as Rachel had borne Ioſeph, Iacob ſayde to Laban, Sende me away, that I may goe vnto my owne place, and to my countrey.

(i) Nowe his xiiii. yeeres ſeruice was expyred.

26 Geue me my wyues and my chyldren for whom I haue ſerued thee, and let me goe: for (k) thou knoweſt what ſeruice I haue donne thee.

(k) He had donne his ſeruice vpon, and of a good conſcience.

E

27 To whom Laban aunſweared, I pray thee, yf I haue founde fauour in thy ſyght, [tarrie:] for I haue proued that (l) the Lorde bleſſed me for thy ſake.

(l) This hypocrite ſpeaketh of god, and yet he worſhippeth falſe gods, and continueth in his wickedneſſe.

28 Alſo he ſayde, Appoynt what thy reward ſhalbe, and I wyl geue [it thee.]

29 But he ſayde vnto hym, Thou knoweſt what ſeruice I haue donne thee, and in what takyng thy cattel haue benne vnder me:

30 For that litle whiche thou haddeſt before “ I came, is now increaſed into a multitude, (m) and the Lorde hath bleſſed thee through “ my trauayle: but nowe when ſhal I make prouiſion for myne owne houſe alſo?

“ My face.

(m) Al the increaſe of our labour, is to be looked for at gods hand.

“ My foote.

31 And he ſayd, What ſhal I then (n) geue thee? And Iacob aunſweared, Thou ſhalt geue me nothyng at al: yf thou wylt doo this thyng for me, then wyl I turne againe, feede thy ſheepe, and keepe them.

(n) The couetous hath no reſpect of the hinderaunce of his ſeruaūt, but of his owne gayne.

32 I wyl goe about al thy flockes this day, and ſeparate from them al the cattel that are ſpotted, and of dyuers colours: and al the blacke among the ſheepe, and the partie and ſpotted amongſt the kiddes [the ſame] (o) ſhalbe my rewarde.

(o) That is, whatſoeuer cattel afterwarde ſhalbe ſpotted, ſhal be my reward.

33 So ſhal my ryghteouſneſſe aunſweare for me “ in tyme to comme: for it ſhal comme for my rewarde before thy face. And euery one that is not ſpecked and partie amongſt the goates, and blacke among the ſheepe, let it be compted theaft in me.

“ To morowe.

34 And Laban ſayde, Goe toe, would God it myght be accordyng to thy ſayeing.

F

35 Therefore he tooke out the ſame day the hee goates that were ryngſtraked, and of diuers colours, and al the ſhee goates that were ſpotted and coloured, and al that had white in them, and al the blacke amongſt the ſheepe, and put them in the keepyng of his ſonnes.

36 And ſet three dayes iourney betwixte hym ſelfe and Iacob: and ſo Iacob kept the reſt of Labans ſheepe.

37 (p) Iacob tooke roddes of greene populer, haſel, and cheſſe nut trees, and pilled whyte ſtrakes in them, and made the whyte appeare in the roddes,

(p) It is not lawful by fraude to ſeeke recompence of iniurie: therefore Moſes ſheweth afterwarde that god thus inſtructed Iacob. Gen. 31. b.

38 And put the roddes whiche he had pilled, [euen] before the ſheepe, in the gutters and watryng throughes when the ſheepe came to drynke, that they ſhoulde conceiue when they came to drynke.

39 And the ſheepe conceiued before the roddes, and brought foorth lambes ryngſtraked, ſpotted, and partie.

G

40 And Iacob dyd ſeparate theſe lambes, and (q) turned the faces of the ſheepe whiche were in the flocke of Laban, towarde theſe ryngſtraked, and al maner of blacke: and ſo put his owne flockes by them ſelues, and put them not with Labans cattel.

(q) He dyd dryue his owne lambes before Labans ſheepe, ſo that they alwayes ſawe before them, ſuche as were of diuers colours.

41 And in euery conceiuing tyme of the ſtronger cattel, Iacob layed the roddes before the eyes of the cattel in the gutters, namely that they myght conceiue before the roddes.

42 But when the cattel were feeble, he put them not in: and ſo the feebler were Labans, and the ſtronger Iacobs.

43 And the man (r) increaſed exceedyngly, and had muche cattel, and maid ſeruauntes, and man ſeruauntes, & cammels, and aſſes.

The.xxxj.Chapter.

1 The chyldren of Laban doo grudge at Jacobs richeſſe. 3 God commaundeth Jacob to returne into his countrey. 5 Jacob declareth Gods benefites to hym warde. 7 God ſaueth Jacob that Laban doo hym no harme. 16 Jacob returneth into his countrey Laban not wyting thereof. 19 Rachel hath ſtollen her fathers idolles. 23 Laban purſueth Jacob. 24 The care of God for Jacob, that Laban doo him no ha[illegible]e. 26 Laban chydeth Jacob. 30 He complaineth that his idolles be ſtollen. 34 R[illegible], her fathers idolles beyng hydden, begyleth hym. 38 Jacob declareth to Laban his trueth, his diligence, his trauayle. 44 A league betweene Laban and Jacob.

A 1 AND he heard the wordes of(a) Labans ſonnes, ſaying, Jacob hath taken away al that was our fathers, and of our fathers [goodes] hath he gotten al his glorie.

(a) The enuious chyldren of couetous Laban, thinke the wealth of another theyr vtter vndooing.

2 And Jacob beheld the countenaunce of Laban, and beholde, it was not towardes hym “ as it was woont to be.

“ As yeſterday, and ere yeſterday

3 And(b) the Lorde ſayde vnto Jacob, Turne agayne into the lande of thy fathers, and to thy kynrede, and I wyl be with thee.

(b) Though he were in great feare and doubt, yet he durſt not returne without gods commaundement.

4 Therefore Jacob ſent, and called Rachel and Lea to the feelde vnto his flocke.

5 And ſayde vnto them, I ſee your fathers countenaunce, that it is not towarde me, as it was woont to be: but the God of my father hath benne with me.

6 And ye knowe howe I haue ſerued your father to the beſt of my power.

B 7 But your father hath deceiued me, and chaunged my wages(c) ten tymes: but God ſuffered hym not to hurt me.

(c) A certayne number, is ſet for an vncertayne, oftentymes.

8 (d) When he ſayde, The ſpotted ſhalbe thy wages: then al the ſheepe bare ſpotted. And when he ſayde, The ringſtraked ſhalbe thy rewarde: then bare al the ſheepe ringſtraked.

(d) He would ſhewe what iuſt cauſes he had to depart from theyr father: and how theyr brethren wrongfully accuſed hym.

9 Thus hath God taken away the increaſe of your fathers flocke, and geuen it to me.

10 But in ramming time, I lyfted vp myne eyes, and ſawe in a dreame, and beholde, the “Rammes leaped vpon the ſheepe that were ringſtraked, ſpotted, and partie.

“ It ſignifieth the hee goate alſo: as vnder ſheepe, are conteyned the goates, 11 And the angel of God ſpake vnto me in a dreame, ſayeing, Jacob? And I aunſweared, Here am I.

12 And he ſayde, Lyft vp nowe thyne eyes, and ſee al the Rammes leapyng vpon the ſheepe that are ringſtraked, ſpotted, and partie: for I haue(e) ſeene al that Laban dooth vnto thee.

(e) Gods eye obſerueth, what the wicked dooth to the godly.

13 I am the God of Bethel, where thou anoyntedſt the ſtone ſet vp on an ende, and where thou vowedſt a vowe vnto me: now therefore aryſe, and geat thee out of this countrey, and returne vnto the lande where thou were borne.

C 14 Then aunſweared Rachel, and Lea, and ſayde vnto hym, Haue we had as yet any portion or inheritaunce in our fathers houſe?

15 Dooth not he count vs euen as ſtraungers? for he hath ſolde vs, and hath quite deuoured alſo(f) our money.

(f) For the fruite of Jacobs labour came to Labans vſe.

16 Therefore al the ryches whiche God hath taken from our father, that is ours and our chyldrens: nowe then(g) whatſoeuer God hath ſayde vnto thee, that doo thou.

(g) The voice of faythful wyues and ſubiectes.

17 Then Jacob roſe vp, and ſet his ſonnes and wyues vp vpon Cammelles:

18 And caryed away al his flockes, and al his ſubſtaunce whiche he had procured, the increaſe of his cattel whiche he had gotten in “ Meſopotamia, for to goe to Iſahac his father vnto the lande of Chanaan.

“ Padan Aram.

D 19 But Laban(h) was gonne to ſheare his ſheepe: and Rachel had ſtollen her fathers(i) images.

(h) The godly hauing gods worde, may vſe iuſt occaſion alſo in theyr dooynges.

(i) Images made in the lykeneſſe of men, whiche he had in reuerence as his houſholde goddes.

20 And Jacob ſtole away the hart of Laban the Syrian, in that he tolde hym not that he fledde.

21 So fled he, and al that he had, and made hym ſelfe ready, and paſſed ouer the riuer, and ſet his face ſtrayght towarde the mount Gilead.

22 Upon the thyrd day after, was it tolde Laban that Jacob fledde.

23 Then he tooke(k) his brethren with him, and folowed after hym ſeuen dayes iourney, and ouertooke hym at the mount Gilead.

(k) They woulde reuenge the iniurie donne to theyr falſe religion: for their goddes were ſtolne.

24 And(l) God came to Laban the Syrian in a dreame by nyght, and ſayde vnto hym, Take heede that thou ſpeake not to Jacob ought “ ſaue good.

(l) Thus god refraineth the cruel purpoſes of tyrants agaynſt his Churche.

25 And Laban ouertooke Jacob, and Jacob had pitched his tent in the mount: And Laban with his brethren, pitched alſo vpon the E mount Gilead.

26 And Laban ſayde to Jacob, What haſte thou done? for thou haſt ſtollen away my heart, and caryed away my daughters as though they had benne taken captiue with the ſworde.

“ And haſt ſtollen me.

27 Wherefore wenteſt thou away ſecretly “ vnknowen to me,(m) and dyddeſt not telle me, that I myght haue let thee goe thy way with myrth and ſongues, with tymbrel and harpe?

(m) A diſſemblyng hypocrite when he can do no harme: yet he wyl burthen the godly in wordes.

28 And haſt not ſuffered me to kiſſe my chyldren and my daughters? thou were a foole nowe in ſo dooyng.

29 For it is (n) in my hande "through God to doo you hurt: But the God of your father ſpake vnto me yeſternyght, ſayeing, Take heede that thou ſpeake not to Iacob ought ſaue good.

30 And nowe though thou wouldeſt needes be gonne away, becauſe thou ſore longeſt after thy fathers houſe, yet wherefore haſt thou ſtollen my (o) goddes?

31 Iacob aunſweared and ſayde to Laban, Becauſe I was afrayde, and thought that peraduenture thou wouldeſt take away thy daughters from me.

32 But with whomſoeuer thou findeſt thy goddes, (p) let hym dye. Here before our brethren, ſeeke that thyne is by me, and take it to thee: But Iacob wyſt not that Rachel (q) had ſtollen them.

33 Then went Laban into Iacobs tent, and into Leas tent, and into the two mayde ſeruauntes tentes: but founde them not. Then went he out of Leas tent, and entred into Rachels tent:

E 34 And Rachel had taken the images, and put them in the cammelles ſtrawe, and ſate downe vpon them: And Loban (r) toſſed vp al the tent, but founde them not.

35 Then ſayde ſhe to her father, My Lorde, be not angry, that I can not ryſe vp before thee, for the cuſtome of women is comme vpon me. So ſearched he, but (ſ) founde not thoſe images.

36 And Iacob was wroth, and chod with Laban. Iacob alſo aunſweared and ſayd to him, What haue I treſpaſſed? or what haue I offended thee, that thou doeſt ſore purſue after me?

37 Thou haſt toſſed vp al my ſtuffe, and what haſt thou founde of al thy houſholde ſtuffe? put it here before thy brethren and my brethren, that they may iudge betwixte vs both.

38 Beholde, this twentie yeere haue I benne with thee, thy ſheepe and thy goates (t) haue not benne barren, and the rammes of thy flocke haue I not eaten.

39 Whatſoeuer was torne [of beaſtes] I brought it not vnto thee, but made it good my ſelfe: of my hande dyddeſt thou requyre it, that was ſtollen by day or night.

F 40 I was in ſuche caſe, that by day the heate conſumed me, and the froſt by nyght, and my ſleepe departed from myne eyes.

41 Thus haue I benne twentie yeere in thy houſe, and ſerued thee fourteene yeeres for thy two daughters, and ſixe yeere for thy ſheepe, and thou haſt chaunged my rewarde tenne tymes.

42 And except the God of my father, (u) the God of Abraham, and the feare of Iſahac had benne with me, ſurely thou haddeſt ſent me away nowe al emptie: but God behelde my tribulation, and the labour of my hands, and rebuked [thee] yeſternyght.

43 And Laban aunſweared and ſayde vnto Iacob, Theſe daughters are my daughters, and theſe children are my chyldren, and theſe ſheepe are my ſheepe, and al that thou ſeeſt is myne: and what can I doo this day vnto theſe my daughters, or vnto theyr chyldren which they haue borne?

44 Nowe therefore comme on, and (b) let vs make a league I and thou, whiche may be a witneſſe betweene me and thee.

45 Then tooke Iacob a ſtone, and ſet it vp on ende.

46 And Iacob ſayde vnto his brethren, Gather ſtones. And they tooke ſtones, and made an heape: and they dyd eate there vpon the heape. G

47 And Laban called it (x) Iegar Sahadutha: but Iacob called it Galeed.

48 Then ſayde Laban, This heape is witneſſe betweene thee and me this day, therfore it is called "Galeed, 49 And "Miſpah: for he ſayde, The Lorde looke betweene thee and me when we are departed one from another.

50 If thou ſhalt vexe my daughters, or ſhalt take (y) other wyues beſide my daughters: here is no man with vs, beholde, God [is] witneſſe betwixt me and thee.

51 And Laban ſaid moreouer to Iacob, Beholde this heape, & this ſtone ſet vp on end, whiche I haue layde betwixte me and thee, 52 This heape be witneſſe, and alſo this ſtone ſet vp on ende, that I wyl not comme ouer this heape to thee, and thou ſhalt not comme ouer this heape, and this ſtone ſet vp on ende, vnto me to doo any harme.

53 The God of Abraham, and the (z) God of Nachor, and the God of their father, be iudge betwixt vs. And Iacob (aa) ſware by the feare of his father Iſahac.

54 Then Iacob did ſacrifice vpon the mount, and called his brethren to eate bread: & they did eate bread, and taried al night in the hil.

55 And early in the mornyng Laban roſe vp, and kiſſed his ſonnes and his daughters, and (bb) bleſſed them: and Laban departing, went into his place agayne.

The.xxxii.Chapter.

1 God comforteth Iacob with a viſion of angels. 4 Iacobs meſſengers beyng ſent, requyre the fauour of his brother Eſau. 7 Iacob diuideth the people and al his ſubſtaunce into two parcelles. 9 Iacob prayeth in his diſtreſſes, taking holde on Gods promiſe, and confeſſing his vnworthyneſſe. 13 Iacob ſendeth gyftes vnto Eſau his brother. 24 Iacob wraſtleth with an angel, that he may not feare his brother for the time to comme. 28 Iacob is named Iſrael. 32 The Iewes doo not eate the ſinowe of the thygh.

4 And he commaunded them, ſayeing, Thus ſhal ye ſpeake to my [c] Lord Eſau, Thy ſeruaunt Iacob ſayth thus, I haue benne a ſtraunger with Laban, & haue ſtayed there vnto this tyme.

24 And Iacob was leaft hym ſelfe [i] alone: and there wraſteled a man with hym, vnto the breakyng of the day.

(i) He ſought a ſolitary place for prayer: where god declared vnto hym, that many troubles remayned, yet he ſhuld ouercomme al.

25 And when he ſawe that he coulde not preuayle agaynſt hym, [k] he ſmote hym vpon the hucklebone of his thygh, and the hucklebone of Iacobs thygh looſed out of ioynt, as he wraſteled with hym.

(k) Though the godly ouercome in temptation, yet ſome infirmitie remayneth.

26 And he ſayde, Let me goe, for the day breaketh. Whiche aunſweared, I wyl not let thee goe, except [l] thou bleſſe me.

(l) We ought to deſyre gods bleſſing, howe greeuous ſoeuer gods preſence hath benne to vs.

27 And he ſayde vnto hym, What is thy name? He aunſweared, Iacob.

That is, one that wraſteleth with God.

28 He ſayd, Thy name ſhalbe called no more Iacob, but “ Iſrael: For as a prince haſt thou wraſteled with God, and with menne, and haſt preuayled,

(m) He deſireth more perfect knowledge of this wraſtler, for he knewe him to be god, whiche is not graunted him.

29 And Iacob aſked hym, ſayeing, Telle [(m)] me thy name. And he ſayde, Wherefore doeſt thou aſke after my name? And he bleſſed him there.

30 And Iacob called the name of the place “ Peniel: for I haue (n) ſeene God face to face, and my lyfe is preſerued.

“ That is, the face of God.

(n) Iacob glorieth of this knowledge of God, whiche he had by this viſion.

31 And as he went ouer Peniel, the ſunne roſe vpon him, and he halted vpon his thygh.

32 And therefore it is that the chyldren of Iſrael eate not of the ſinnowe that ſhranke in that place of the thigh, vnto this day: becauſe that he touched the hucklebone of Iacobs thygh, about the ſinnowe that ſhranke.

The xxiii, Chapter.

1 Eſau meeteth his brother, with whom Iacob countermeeteth. 4 Eſau kyſſeth Iacob his brother, and is at an attonement with hym. 11 Eſau receiueth his brothers gyft. 20 Iacob buyldeth an aulter vnto God.

A 1 IAcob lyftyng vp his eyes, looked, and behold Eſau came, hauyng with hym foure hundred men: and he diuided the chyldren vnto Lea, and vnto Rachel, and vnto the two handmaydens.

2 And he put the handmaydens and theyr chyldren foremoſt, and Lea and her chyldren after, and Rachel and (a) Ioſeph hindermoſt.

(a) As yet Iacob was not certified of the prerogatiue of Iuda.

3 And he went before them, and bowed him ſelfe to the grounde ſeuen tymes, vntyl he came to his brother.

(b) Thus God hath the hartes of the wicked in his hande.

4 (b) Eſau ranne to meete hym, and imbraced him, and fel on his necke, and kiſſed him: and they wept.

5 And he lyft vp his eyes, and ſawe the women, and the chyldren, and ſayde, Whence haſt thou theſe? And he aunſweared, They are the (c) chyldren whiche God hath geuen thy ſeruaunt.

(c) This benefite of God, the godly doo not forgeate.

6 Then came the handmaydens foorth, and their chyldren, and dyd theyr obeyſaunce.

B 7 Lea alſo with her chyldren, came and dyd theyr obeyſaunce: And laſt of al, came Ioſeph and Rachel, and did (d) theyr obeyſaunce.

(d) A figure of the churche appeareth in Iacobs houſholde, whiche was in no dignitie in reſpect of Eſau.

8 And he ſayd, What is al the droaue whiche I mette? He aunſweared, That I may finde grace in the ſyght of my Lorde.

9 And Eſau ſayde, I haue yenough, my brother, keepe that thou haſt vnto thee ſelfe.

10 And Iacob aunſweared, Nay, I pray thee, but yf I haue founde grace in thy ſyght, receiue, I pray thee, my preſent of my hande: for I haue ſeene thy face, as though I hadde ſeene the face of God, and ſo thou haſt receiued me to grace.

11 Oh take my bleſſyng that is brought thee: (e) for GOD hath had mercie on me, and I haue yenough. And ſo he compelled hym, and he tooke it,

(e) All wealth commeth from God.

12 And he ſayd, Let vs take our iourney, and goe, I wyl goe before thee.

13 (f) Iacob aunſweared hym, My Lorde, thou knoweſt that the chyldren are tender, and the ſmal and great cattel with young vnder my handes, whiche yf menne ſhoulde ouerdryue but euen one day, al the flocke wil dye.

(f) He ſhoulde not ſo muche haue feared Eſaus companie, ſeyng he had experience of gods defence.

14 Oh let my Lorde goe before his ſeruaunt, C and I wyl dryue fayre and ſoftly, accordyng as the cattel that goe before me, and the chyldren be able to endure, vntyl I comme vnto my Lorde vnto Seir.

15 And Eſau ſayde, I wyl leaue ſomme of my folke with thee. And he aunſweared, What needeth it? I ſhal finde grace in the ſyght of my Lorde.

16 So Eſau went his way againe that ſame day vnto Seir.

17 And Iacob tooke his iourney towarde Suchoth, and buylt hym an houſe, and made boothes for his cattel: and therefore is it, that the name of the place is called (g) Suchoth.

(g) There is a place in Egypt, whiche is alſo ſo named of tentes. Num. 33.

18 And Iacob came to Sale, a citie of Sichem, (h) whiche is in the lande of Chanaan, after that he was comme from Meſopotamia, and pitched before the citie.

(h) It is called Sichar. Iohn. 4.

19 And * bought a parcel of grounde, where he pitched his tent, of the chyldren of Hemor Sichems father, for an hundred peeces of money.

20 And he (i) made there an aulter, and called it, The mighty God of Iſrael.

(i) Nowe god had geuen hym ſome reſtyng place: therefore he confeſſeth his fayth by outwarde ſeruice.

¶ The

The.xxxiiij.Chapter.

1 The rauiſhing of Dina. 8 Hemor requireth Dina for a wyfe for his ſonne. 11 The ſonnes of Iacob doo guylefully require the Sichemites to be circumcized. 20 The oration of Hemor to the people. 25 Simeon and Leui doo murther the circumciſed Sichemites. 30 They be blamed of Iacob theyr father.

Here is ſet foorth a very greeuous temptation, wherewith Iacob is proued.

A 1 DINA the daughter of Lea, whiche ſhe bare vnto Iacob, went out (a) to ſee the daughters of the lande.

(a) This vaine curioſitie of this woman was greuouſly puniſhed.

2 Whom when Sichem the ſonne of Hemor the Heuite Lorde of the countrey ſawe, he tooke her, and lay with her, and " forced her.

" Humbled her.

3 And his hart lay vnto Dina the daughter of Iacob, and he loued that damſel, & ſpake " kyndly vnto her.

" To her heart.

4 And Sichem ſpake vnto his father Hemor, ſayeing, Geate me this mayde vnto my wyfe.

5 And Iacob heard that he had defiled Dina his daughter, (his ſonnes beyng with theyr cattel in the feelde) and Iacob (b) helde his peace, vntyl they were comme.

6 And Hemor the father of Sichem, (c) went out vnto Iacob to commune with hym.

7 And when the ſonnes of Iacob (comming out of the feelde) hearde it, it greeued them, and they were not (d) a litle wroth, becauſe he had wrought follie in Iſrael, in that he had laine with Iacobs daughter, whiche thyng ought not to be donne.

(b) This was through great griefe, and not that he mynded reuengement.
(c) A godly father, woulde firſt haue ſene his ſonne corrected.
(d) They had iuſt cauſe of anger: but it paſſed meaſure.

B 8 And Hemor communed with them, ſayeing, The ſoule of my ſonne Sichem, longeth for your daughter, I pray you, (e) geue her hym to wyfe.

(e) The fathers conſent in maryage, was then muche ſet by.

9 And make maryages with vs, and geue your daughters vnto vs, & take our daughters vnto you.

10 And ye ſhal dwel with vs, and the lande ſhalbe before you: dwel, and doo your buſines therein, and haue poſſeſſions therein.

11 And Sichem ſayde vnto her father and vnto her brethren, Let me find grace in your eyes, and whatſoeuer ye appoynt me, that wyl I geue.

12 Aſke freely of me both (f) dowrie & gyftes, and I wyl geue accordyng as ye ſay vnto me, ſo that ye geue me the damſel to wyfe.

(f) The Hebrue worde ſignifieth that whiche was geuen to a mayde in recompence of her virginitie.

C 13 But the ſonnes of Iacob aunſweared to Sichem and Hemor his father, talkyng amongſt them ſelues deceitfully, becauſe he had defiled Dina theyr ſiſter.

(g) Religion is made a pretence for them to ſatiſfie theyr anger.

14 And they ſayde vnto them, We can not doo this thyng, that we ſhoulde geue our ſiſter to one that is (g) vncircumciſed, for that were an abomination vnto vs.

15 But in this wyl we conſent vnto you: yf ye wyl be as we be, and al the " males amongeſt you be (h) circumciſed.

" Or, men chyldren.
(h) They polute the holy ſigne, makyng ſtraungers without reſpect, partakers thereof.

16 Then wyl we geue our daughters vnto you, and take your daughters to vs, and wil dwel with you, and be one people.

17 But and yf ye wyl not hearken vnto vs to be circumciſed, then wil we take our daughter, and goe our wayes.

18 Theyr wordes pleaſed Hemor, and Sichem his ſonne.

D 19 And the young man differred not for to doo the thyng, becauſe he had a luſt to Iacobs daughter: he was alſo moſt ſet by, of al that were in his fathers houſe.

20 Then Hemor and Sichem his ſonne went vnto the (i) gate of theyr citie, and communed with the menne of theyr citie, ſayeing, 21 Theſe menne (k) lyue peaceably among vs, and dwel in the lande, and doo theyr occupation therein: and beholde, the lande is large yenough for them, we wyl take theyr daughters to wyues, and geue them our daughters.

(i) Common aſſembles and iudgementes were then in the gates of cities.
(k) The common ſort are more perſwaded with profite then honeſtie.

22 Only herein wyl they conſent vnto vs for to dwel with vs, and to be one people: yf al the males that are among vs be circumciſed, as they are circumciſed.

23 Shal not theyr goodes & theyr ſubſtaunce, and al their cattel (l) be ours: let vs only conſent vnto them, and they wyl dwel with vs.

24 And vnto Hemor and Sichem his ſonne, (m) hearkened al that went out at the gate of the citie: and al the males were circumciſed, whatſoeuer went out at the gate of the citie.

25 And the thyrde day, whyles they were ſoare, two of the ſonnes of Iacob, Simeon, and Leui Dinaes (n) brethren, tooke eyther of them his ſworde, and went into the citie boldly, and ſlue al that was male,

(l) Euil magiſtrates pretende a common wealth, and yet al is but for theyr owne cauſe.
(m) This lyght receiuing of religion at the magiſtrates worde, without any knowledge, is ſharply puniſhed.
(n) Theſe were captaynes of the bande.

26 And ſlue alſo Hemor, and (o) Sichem his ſonne with the edge of the ſworde, and tooke Dina out of Sichems houſe, and went their way.

(o) The magiſtrates ſinns is puniſhed vpon al the people.

27 And the ſonnes of Iacob comming vpon " the dead, (p) ſpoyled the citie, becauſe they had defiled theyr ſiſter.

28 And tooke theyr ſheepe, Oxen, and Aſſes, and whatſoeuer was in the citie, and alſo in the feeldes.

29 And (q) al their goodes, and al theyr chyldren, and theyr wyues, tooke they captiue.

" The vncleane.
(p) God wold haue al men vnderſtande howe muche he hateth al vncleannes.
(q) To this excelle in puniſhing they fal, that folow theyr owne affections.

and made hauocke of al that was in the houſe.

30 But Iacob ſayde to Simeon and Leui, ye haue troubled me, and made me "to be abhorred of the inhabitours of the lande of the Chanaanite, and the Pherezite: and I beyng fewe in number, they ſhal geather them ſelues togeather agaynſt me, and ſlay me, and ſo ſhal I and my houſe be deſtroyed.

"To ſtincke.

31 And they aunſweared, Should (r) he deale with our ſiſter, as with an harlot?

(r) They fooliſhly defende ſuche barbarous crueltie, donne without authoritie vpon ſo many, vnder godly pretence, to the endaungering of the godly.

The.xxxv.Chapter.

1 God commaundeth Iacob to goe vp into Bethel, and to buylde an aulter. 2 Iacob commaundeth the idols to be taken away. 5 God putteth Iacobs enimies in feare. 6 Iacob commeth into Bethel. 7 The houſe of God. 8 Debora dyeth. 10 God nameth Iacob Iſrael agayne. 12 Chanaan is promiſed hym agayne. 15 Bethel. 16 Rachel bryngyng foorth Beniamin, dyeth. 19 Ephrata. 21 The graue of Rachel. 22 Ruben lyeth with his fathers concubine. 23 The ſonnes of Iacob. 27 Iacob commeth to Iſahac. 29 Iſahac dyeth.

A 1 AND (a) God ſayde vnto Iacob, Aryſe, and geate thee vp to Bethel, and dwel there, and make there an aulter vnto God that appeared vnto thee when thou fleddeſt from the face of Eſau thy brother.

(a) God wyl continually procure the health of his Churche, as he doth Iacobs in this miſerable caſe.

2 Then ſayde Iacob vnto his houſhold, and to al that were with hym, Put (b) away the ſtraunge goddes that are among you, and be cleane, and chaunge your garmentes.

(b) He exhorteth his houſholde to repentaunce, and outwarde profeſſyng of the ſame.

3 For we wyl aryſe, and goe vp to Bethel, and I wyl make an aulter there vnto God, whiche hearde me in the day of my affliction, and was with me in the way whiche I went.

4 And they gaue vnto Iacob al the (c) ſtraunge goddes whiche they had in theyr hand, and al theyr earinges whiche were in theyr eares, and Iacob hyd them vnder an Oke whiche was by Sichem.

(c) Thus one womans folly had polluted almoſt al the Churche.

5 And when they departed, the feare of God fel vpon the cities that were rounde about them, and they dyd not purſue the ſonnes of Iacob.

6 So came Iacob to Luz, whiche is in the lande of Chanaan (the ſame is Bethel) he and al the people that was with hym.

B 7 And he (d) builded there an aulter, & called the place, The God of Bethel, becauſe that God appeared vnto hym there, when he fled from the face of his brother.

(d) After he had purged the Churche of the abuſes, he ſetteth vp the true worſhip appoynted by gods worde.

8 But Debora Rebeccaes nurſe, dyed, and was buried beneath Bethel vnder an Oke: and the name of it was called, the "Oke of lamentation.

"Allon Bachuth.

9 And God appeared vnto Iacob agayne, after he came out of Meſopotamia, and (e) bleſſed hym.

(e) He confirmed his promiſe made vnto hym before.

10 And God ſayde vnto hym, Thy name is Iacob, notwithſtandyng thou ſhalt be no more called Iacob, but Iſrael ſhalbe thy name: and he called his name Iſrael.

11 And God ſayde vnto hym, I am GOD almyghty, be fruiteful and multiplie: a nation, and (f) a multitude of nations ſhal ſpring of thee, yea and kynges ſhal come out of thy loynes.

(f) He meaneth the .xii. tribes of Iſrael: and the congregation of the gentiles who ſprang of the fayth of Iacob.

12 And the lande whiche I (g) gaue Abraham and Iſahac, wyl I geue vnto thee, and vnto thy ſeede after thee wyl I geue that lande alſo.

(g) Gods promiſe is as certayne as the thing that is done already.

13 And ſo God departed from hym, in the place where he had talked with hym.

C 14 And Iacob ſet vp on ende in the place where he talked with hym [euen] a ſtone ſet he vp on ende, and powred drynke offering thereon, and powred alſo oyle thereon.

15 And Iacob called the name of the place where God ſpake with hym, (h) Bethel.

(h) For the idolatrie that was here donne, it was afterwarde called Bethauen, that is, the houſe of vanitie.

16 And they departed from Bethel: and when he was but a feelde breadth from "Ephrath, Rachel began to trauel, and in trauellyng, ſhe was in peril:

"Ephratha.

17 And as ſhe was in paynes of her labour, the midwyfe ſayde vnto her, Feare not, for this ſonne is thyne alſo.

18 Then as her ſoule was in departing, (i) (for ſhe dyed) ſhe called his name "Ben-oni, but his father called hym "Beniamin.

(i) God taketh away his gyftes, for the abuſe of them.

"That is, the ſonne of my ſorowe.

"That is, the ſonne of my ryght hande.

19 And thus dyed Rachel, and was buryed in the way to Ephrath, whiche is Beth-lehem.

D 20 And Iacob (k) ſet vp a ſtone on ende vpon her graue: whiche is called Rachels graueſtone vnto this day.

(k) Only a memorial of her ſepulchre, becauſe of the hope of reſurrection.

21 And Iſrael went thence, and pitched his tent beyonde the towre of Eder.

22 And as Iſrael dwelt in that lande, Ruben went and (l) lay with Bilha his fathers concubine: And it came to Iſraels eare. The ſonnes of Iacob were twelue in number.

(l) Thus the deuil, to ſlaunder the whole Churche, and to vexe the godly, perſwadeth ſome to horrible ſinne.

23 The ſonnes of Lea: Ruben, Iacobs fyrſt borne ſonne, and Simeon, and Leui, and Iuda, and Iſachar, and Zabulon.

24 The ſonnes of Rachel: Joſeph and Beniamin.

25 And the ſonnes of Bilha, Rachels handemayde: Dan and Nepthali.

26 And the ſonnes of Zilpha, Leaes handemayde: Gad and Aſer: Theſe are the ſonnes of Jacob, whiche were borne hym in Meſopotamia.

27 And ſo Jacob came (m) vnto Jſahac his father, to Mamre, vnto Ciriath arba, (n) whiche is Hebron, where Abraham and Jſahac dwelt.

(m) He had bene from him nowe. 43. yeeres: That is, xx. in Meſopotamia, and xxiii. in the lande of Chanaan.

(n) It was afterwards ſo called.

28 And the dayes of Jſahac were an (o) hundred and fourescore yeeres.

(o) Jacob was nowe a hundred and twentie yeeres olde: for he was borne when Jſahac was ſixtie.

29 And Jſahac decayed away and dyed, and was layde vnto his people, beyng olde and ful of dayes: and his ſonnes, Eſau and Jacob buryed hym.

The.xxxvi.Chapter

2 The wyues of Eſau. 6 Eſau dwelleth on mount Seir. 7 Eſau and Jacob ryche men.
9 The generations of Eſau, the father of the Jdumeans. 12 Amalech.

God perfourmeth his worldly promiſe whiche he made by his miniſter Iſahac to Eſau: but al this glorie beyng out of the kyngdome of God, commeth to naught.

1 These are the generations of Eſau, the ſame is Edom.

Gene,26.

5 And Aholibama bare Jehus, and Jalam, & Corah. Theſe are the ſonnes of Eſau whiche were borne him in the lande of Chanaan.

6 And Eſau tooke his wiues, and his ſonnes and daughters, and al the ſoules of his houſe, his goodes, and al his cattel, and al his ſubſtaunce whiche he had got in the lande of Chanaan, and went into a countrey away (c) from the face of his brother Jacob.

(c) He meant not Jacobs commoditie, but his owne: yet God ordered his departure for the benefite of his elect.

7 For their riches was muche, and they could not dwel togeather: and the lande wherein they were ſtraungers could not receiue them, because of their poſſeſſions.

8 Thus dwelt Eſau (d) in mount Seir, the ſame Eſau, is Edom.

24 Theſe are the chyldren of Sebeon, both Aia and Ana: this was that Ana that founde (i) mules in the wyldernesse as ſhe fedde her father Sebeons aſſes.

26 Theſe are the chyldren of Diſon: Hemdan, and Eſban, and Jethran, and Cheran.

The.xxxvii.Chapter.

1 Iacob inhabiteth the lande of Chanaan. 2 Ioſeph accuſeth his brethren. 6 The firſt dreame of Ioſeph. 9 The other dreame of Ioſeph. 18 The brethren of Ioſeph doo conſulte about his death. 22 Ruben deliuereth hym. 23 Ioſeph is caſt into a pit. 26 By the counſel of Iudas he is ſolde to the Iſmaelites. 32 The apparel of Ioſeph imbrewed with the blood of a kyd, is caryed to his father. 34 Iacob lamenteth his ſonne Ioſeph. 36 Ioſeph is ſolde to Putiphar.

A 1 IAcob dwelt in the lande wherein his father was long a ſtraunger, euen in the lande of Chanaan.

2 Theſe are the (a) generations of Iacob, when Ioſeph was ſeuenteene yeeres olde, he kept ſheepe with his brethren, and the ladde was with the ſonnes of Bilha, & with the ſonnes of Zilpha, his fathers wyues. And Ioſeph brought vnto his father (b) their euyl report.

3 But Iſrael loued Ioſeph more then al his chyldren, becauſe he begate hym in his (c) old age: and he made hym a coate of many " colours.

4 And when his brethren ſawe that their father loued hym more then al his brethren, (d) they hated hym, and coulde not ſpeake peaceably vnto hym.

5 Moreouer, when Ioſeph (e) had dreamed a dreame, he tolde it his brethren, whiche hated hym yet the more.

6 And he ſayde vnto them, Heare, I pray you, this (f) dreame whiche I haue dreamed.

9 And he dreamed yet another dreame, and tolde it his brethren, ſayeing, Beholde I haue had one dreame more, and beholde, the ſonne and the moone, and .xi. ſtarres made obeyſaunce to me.

10 And when he had tolde it to his father and his brethren, his father rebuked him, and ſaid vnto hym, What is this dreame that thou haſt dreamed? Shal (h) I, and thy mother, and thy brethren in deede comme to bowe to thee?

11 And his brethren enuyed him: but his father noted the ſayeing.

12 His brethren alſo went to keepe his fathers cattel in Sichem.

13 And (i) Iſrael ſayde vnto Ioſeph, Doo not thy brethren keepe in Sichem, Comme, and I wyl ſende thee to them.

14 He aunſweared, Here am I. And he ſayde vnto him, Goe [I pray thee] ſee whether it be wel with thy brethren and the cattel, and bryng me worde againe. And ſo he ſent hym out of the vale of Hebron, and he came to Sichem.

1 Joſeph is ſolde to Putiphar. 2 God is with Joſeph. 5 God bleſſeth Putiphar for Joſephes ſake. 8 Joſeph denyeth whooredome vnto his Lady his miſtreſſe. 14 Joſeph accuſed of whooredome of his Lady is impriſoned. 21 God taketh compaſſion vpon Joſeph.

A 1 IOſeph was brought vnto Egypt, and Putiphar, a Lorde of Pharaoes, and his cheefe ſtewarde, an Egyptian, bought hym of the Iſmaelites, whiche had brought him thyther.

2 And GOD was with Joſeph, and he became a (a) lucky man, continuyng in the houſe of his maiſter the Egyptian.

3 And his maiſter ſawe that (b) GOD was with hym, and that God made al that he dyd to proſper in his hande.

17 And ſhe tolde hym with theſe wordes, ſayeing, This Hebrue ſeruaunt whiche thou haſt brought vnto vs, came vnto me to doo me ſhame.

18 But aſſoone as I lyft vp my voyce & cried, he leaft his garment with me, and fled out.

1 Joſeph miniſtreth vnto the butler and baker of Pharao. 5 They ſee dreames. 9 The butlers dreame, the whiche Joſeph interpreteth. 16 He expoundeth alſo the dreame of the baker. 20 The feaſt of Pharao on his byrth day. 23 The butler vnthankful.

A 1 AND it came to paſſe after theſe *"thinges, that (a) the butler of the kyng of Egypt and his baker, had offended their lorde the kyng of Egypt.

*" Wordes.
(a) Theſe were two noble men, that were chiefe in theſe offices.

2 And Pharao was angry agaynſt his two officers, agaynſt the chiefe butler, and the chiefe baker.

3 And put them in warde in his chiefe ſtewardes houſe, euen in the pryſon and place, where Joſeph was bounde.

4 And the (b) chiefe ſtewarde gaue Joſeph a charge with them, and he ſerued them, and they continued a ſeaſon in warde.

(b) Joſephes maiſter belike after better aduiſement, was reconcyled to hym.

5 And they dreamed eyther of them in one nyght, both the butler and the baker of the kyng of Egypt, whiche were bounde in the pryſon houſe, eyther of them his dreame, and eche mans dreame of a ſundry interpretation.

6 When Joſeph came in vnto them in the mornyng, and (c) looked vpon them, behold, they were ſadde.

(c) Priſoners are not lighly to be looked vpon and conſidered.

7 And he aſked Pharaoes chiefe officers that were with hym in his maiſters warde, ſayeing, Wherefore looke ye ſo ſadly to day? B

8 They aunſweared hym, We haue dreamed a dreame, and haue no man to declare it.

And

(d) Aſtrologers and witches are condemned.

And Ioſeph ſayde vnto them, Doo not (d) interpretinges belong to God, telle me, I pray you:

10 And in the vyne [were] three braunches, and it was as though it budded, and her bloſſomes ſhot foorth, and the cluſters thereof brought foorth rype grapes.

11 And I had Pharaoes cup in my hande, and tooke of the grapes and preſſed them in Pharaoes cup, and deliuered Pharaoes (e) cup into his hande.

12 And Ioſeph ſayde vnto hym, This is the interpretation of it. The three braunches (f) are three dayes.

13 For within three dayes ſhal Pharao ‖ lift (g) vp thyne head, and reſtore thee into thyne office agayne, and thou ſhalt deliuer Pharaoes cup into his hande after the olde maner when thou were his butler.

14 But (h) thynke on me when thou art in good caſe, and ſhewe mercie [I pray thee] vnto me, and make mention of me to Pharao, and bryng me out of this houſe:

(e) Somme thynke that the kyng proued this way what maner wyne ſhoulde be that yeere.
(f) That is, ſignifie: ſuche manner ſpeaches are often in Moſes in the next chapter, and otherwhere.
‖ Or, number.
(g) That is, take thee out of pryſon.
(h) It was not lawful, for his paynes to deſyre this kyndeneſſe agayne.

C 15 For I was priuily by ſtealth taken away out of the lande of the Hebrewes, & here alſo haue I donne nothyng at al wherefore they ſhoulde haue put me into this dungeon.

16 When the chiefe Baker ſawe that the interpretation was (i) good, he ſayd vnto Ioſeph, Me thought alſo in my dreame that I had three ‖ white wicker baſkettes on my head,

17 And in the vppermoſt baſket there was of al maner bake meates for Pharao, and the byrdes dyd eate them out of the baſket, that was vpon my head.

(i) They that imbrace Gods worde but for lucres ſake, are afterwarde heauy and ſad.
‖ Or, ful of holes.

D 18 And (k) Ioſeph aunſweared and ſaid, This is the interpretation thereof. The three baſkets, are three dayes: For within three dayes ſhal Pharao take thy head from thee, and ſhal hang thee on a tree, and the byrdes ſhal eate thy fleaſhe from of thee.

(k) Teachers muſt ſpeake as God hath reueled, both ſowre and ſweete thinges, and that boldly.

19 And it came to paſſe the thirde day, whiche was Pharaoes byrth day, that he made a feaſt vnto al his ſeruauntes: and he ‖ lyfted vp the head of the chiefe butler, and of the chiefe baker among his ſeruauntes:

‖ Or, recken.

20 And reſtored the chiefe butler vnto his butlerſhip agayne, whiche alſo reached the cup into Pharaoes hande.

21 But he hanged the chiefe baker, euen as Ioſeph (l) had interpreted vnto hym.

22 Neyther did the chiefe butler (m) remember Ioſeph, but (n) forgate hym.

(l) Thus Ioſeph was proued a true prophete of God, as it is. Hie.xxviii.

A 1 AND after (a) two yeeres Pharao dreamed, and beholde, he thought that he ſtoode by a ryuers ſyde.

(a) Ioſeph hoped wel to haue benne ſooner deliuered: but God wyl haue no tyme preſcribed.

2 And there came out of the ryuer ſeuen goodly kyne, and fat fleaſhed, and fedde in a medowe.

3 And ſeuen other kyne came vp after them out of the ryuer, euyl fauoured, and leane fleaſhed, and ſtoode by the other kyne vpon the brynke of the ryuer.

4 And the euyl fauoured and leane fleaſhed kyne dyd eate vp the ſeuen wel fauoured and fat kyne: and Pharao awoke.

5 And he ſleapt agayne, and (b) dreamed the ſeconde tyme: and behold, ſeuen eares of corne grewe vpon one ſtalke, ranke and goodly.

(b) Though the ſpiritual doctrine of lyfe, be the proper treaſure of the Churcche: yet ſomme teaching there is common to the vngodly.

6 And agayne, ſeuen thinne eares blaſted with the eaſt wynde ſprang vp after them.

B 7 And the ſeuen thinne eares deuoured the ſeuen ranke and ful eares. And Pharao awaked: and ſee, [it was] a dreame.

8 And when the mornyng came, his ſpirite was troubled, and he ſent and called for al the ſoothſayers of Egypt, and al the wyſe men thereof: and Pharao tolde them his dreame, but there was (c) none of them that coulde interprete it vnto Pharao.

(c) He was worthy to be ignoraunt, who knowing his dreame to be of God, ſought ſo vayne ſcholemaiſters.

9 Then ſpake the chiefe butler vnto Pharao, ſayeing, I doo remēber my faultes this day:

10 Pharao beeyng angry with his ſeruauntes, put in warde in the chiefe ſtewardes houſe both me, and the chiefe baker.

11 And we dreamed both of vs in one nyght, and eche mans dreame of a ſundry interpretation.

12 And there was with vs (d) a young man, an Hebrewe borne, ſeruaunt vnto the chiefe ſtewarde: to whom when we tolde them, he declared our dreames to vs, accordyng to eyther of our dreames.

(d) This had benne thanke worthy, yf it had not benne for feare another ſhoulde haue tolde it.

13 And as he declared them to vs, euen ſo it came to paſſe: For he reſtored me to myne office agayne, and hanged hym.

C 14 Pharao (e) ſent therfore, and called Ioſeph: and they brought him haſtily out of the dungeon. And he ſhaued him ſelfe, and chaunged his rayment, and came vnto Pharao.

15 And Pharao ſayde vnto Ioſeph, I haue dreamed a dreame, and no man can interprete it: and I haue hearde ſay of thee, that aſſoone as thou heareſt a dreame, thou canſt interprete it.

16 Ioſeph aunſweared Pharao, ſayeing, " Not I, (f) but GOD ſhal geue Pharao an aunſweare of peace.

17 And Pharao ſayde vnto Ioſeph, In my dreame me thought I ſtoode by a riuers ſide, 18 And there ' came out of the ryuer ſeuen fat fleaſhed and wel fauoured kyne, and fedde in a medowe.

19 And then ſeuen other kyne came out after them, poore, and very yl fauoured and leane fleaſhed, ſuche as I neuer ſawe in al the land of Egypt, they were ſo " yl fauoured.

D 20 And the ſeuen leane and yl fauoured kyne, dyd eate vp the firſt ſeuen fat kyne:

21 And when they had " eaten them vp, a man coulde not perceiue that they had eaten them, but they were ſtil yl fauoured as they were at the begynnyng: and I awoke.

22 And I ſawe agayne in my dreame, and beholde, ſeuen eares ſprang out of one ſtalke, ful and fayre.

23 And beholde, ſeuen eares agayne ' withered, thinne, and blaſted with the eaſt wynde, ſprang vp after them.

24 And the thinne eares deuoured the ſeuen good eares: and I haue tolde the ſoothſayers, but there was no man that coulde telle what it meaneth.

25 And Ioſeph aunſweared Pharao, [both] Pharaoes dreames are (g) one. God hath ſhewed Pharao, what (h) he is about to doo.

26 The ſeuen good kyne, are ſeuen yeeres, and the ſeuen good eares are ſeuen yeeres alſo: and it is but one dreame.

27 Lykewyſe the ſeuen thinne and euyl fauoured kyne that came vp after them, are ſeuen yeeres, and the ſeuen emptie and blaſted eares with the eaſt wynde, ſhalbe ſeuen yeeres of famine.

E 28 This worde whiche I haue ſayde vnto Pharao, is it that (i) God is about to doo, and ſheweth it vnto Pharao.

29 Behold there comme ſeuen yeeres of great plenteouſneſſe throughout al the lande of Egypt.

30 And agayne there ſhal aryſe after them ſeuen yeeres (k) of famine, & al the plenteouſnes ſhalbe forgotten in the lande of Egypt: and the famine ſhal conſume the lande.

31 Neyther ſhal the plenteouſneſſe be knowen in the lande, by reaſon of that famine that [ſhal cōme] after, for it ſhalbe exceedyng great.

32 And as concernyng that the dreame was doubled vnto Pharao the ſeconde tyme: behold, the thyng is certainly prepared of God, and God wyl (l) ſhortly bryng it to paſſe.

33 Nowe therefore (m) let Pharao prouide for a man of vnderſtandyng, and wyſedome, and ſet hym ouer the lande of Egypt.

34 And let Pharao doo this alſo, that he make " officers ouer the lande, and take vp the fyft part of the inheritaunce in the land of Egypt in the ſeuen plenteous yeeres.

35 And (n) let them geather al the foode of theſe good yeeres that comme: and lay vp corne vnder the hande of Pharao, & let them keepe foode in the cities.

36 And ſo ſhal that foode be for ſtoare in the lande agaynſt the ſeuen yeeres of famine, whiche ſhal comme in the lande of Egypt, that the land ſhal not periſh through famine.

37 And the ſayeing ſeemed good in the eyes of Pharao, & in the eyes of al his ſeruauntes.

38 Then ſayde Pharao vnto his ſeruauntes, May there be founde a man ſuche as this is, (o) in whom the ſpirite of God is?

39 And Pharao ſayde vnto Ioſeph, Foraſmuche as (p) God hath ſhewed thee al this, there is no man of vnderſtanding or of wiſedome lyke vnto thee.

40 Thou therefore ſhalt be ouer my houſe, and accordyng to thy word ſhal al my people be " ruled: only in the [kynges] ſeate wyl I be aboue thee.

41 And Pharao ſayde agayne vnto Ioſeph, Beholde, I haue ſet thee ouer al the lande of Egypt.

42 And Pharao tooke of his (q) ryng from his hande, and put it vpon Ioſephes hande: and arayed hym in cloth of raynes, and put a golden cheyne about his necke, 43 And ſet hym vpon the beſt " charet he had ſaue one: & they cryed before hym, ( ) Tender father, and made hym ruler ouer al the lande of Egypt.

44 And moreouer Pharao ſayde vnto Ioſeph, (ſ) I am Pharao, and without thee ſhal no man (t) lyft vp his hande or foote in al the lande of Egypt.

45 And Pharao called Ioſephes name " Zaphnath Paaneach, and he gaue hym to (u) wyfe Aſnath the daughter of “ Or, Prince.

46 (And he was (x) thirtie yeeres olde when he ſtoode before Pharao kyng of Egypt) And Joſeph departyng from the preſence of Pharao, (y) went throughout al the lande of Egypt.

(x) So God gaue hym ſpecial grace to beare.13. yeeres ſeruitude: and that he a young man ſhoulde rule without great enuie.

(y) He tooke great paynes in his office hym ſelfe, whē he myght haue donne it by others.

47 And in the ſeuen plenteous yeeres, the earth brought foorth great ſtore for to lay vp.

48 And he geathered vp al the foode of the ſeuen plenteous yeeres whiche were in the lande of Egypt, and layed vp the foode in the cities: the foode of the fieldes that grewe round about euery citie, layed he vp in the ſame.

49 And Joſeph (z) layde vp corne in ſtoare lyke vnto the ſande of the ſea, in multitude out of meaſure, vntyl he leaft numbryng: for it was without number.

(z) A ſinguler care of the cōmon wealth, and very brotherly diligence, appeareth in Joſeph.

50 And vnto Joſeph were borne two ſonnes before the yeeres of famine came: whiche (aa) Aſnath the daughter of Potipherah prieſt of On bare vnto hym.

(aa) She was not his olde maiſters daughter: as the wryting of the names in Hebrue alſo declareth.

51 And Joſeph called the name of the firſt ſonne, “ Manaſſe: for God [ſayde he] hath made me forgeat al my labour, and al my fathers houſholde.

“ That is forgeatfulneſſe.

52 The name of the ſeconde called he “ Ephraim, for (bb) God [ſayd he] hath cauſed me to be fruitful in the lande of my trouble.

“ That is, increaſynges.

(bb) This thankfulneſſe towardes god, he teſtifieth by his ſonnes names.

53 And when the ſeuen yeeres of plenteouſneſſe that was in the lande of Egypt, were ended, 54 Then came the ſeuen yeeres of dearth, accordyng as Joſeph had ſayde, and the dearth was in al landes: but in al the land of Egypt, was there yet foode.

55 And when the lande of Egypt alſo began to hunger, the people cryed to (cc) Pharao for bread. And Pharao ſayde vnto al the Egyptians, Goe vnto Joſeph: and what he ſayth to you, that doo.

(cc) The Prince ſhould be as a common nurſe of his people.

56 And the dearth was throughout al the lande: and Joſeph opened al the barnes wherin was corne, and ſolde vnto the Egyptians: for the famine waxed ſore in the lande of Egypt.

57 And al countreyes came into Egypt to Joſeph, for to bye [corne] becauſe that the famine was ſo ſore in al landes.

The.xlii.Chapter.

1 Jacob ſendeth his ſonnes into Egypt to bye foode. 7 Joſeph knewe his brethren. 9 They are tempted of hym. 17 They be thruſt into priſon. 21 The brethren of Joſeph doo ſubmit them ſelues, as knowledgyng their offences. 24 Joſeph weepeth, Simeon is committed to warde. 29 They returne to their father, to fetche Beniamin. 35 They fynde money in the mouth of their ſackes. 38 Jacob wyl not delyuer Beniamin.

A 1 AND Jacob ſeeyng that there was “ corne in Egypt, ſayde vnto his ſonnes, Why gape ye one vpon another?

“ Breakyng.

2 And he ſayd, Beholde, I haue hearde that there is corne in Egypt, geate you downe thyther, and bye vs corne from thence, that we may liue, and not dye.

3 So went Joſephes ten brethren downe to bye corne in Egypt.

4 But Beniamin Joſephes brother, woulde not Jacob ſende with his other brethren: for he ſayde, Leſt peraduenture deſtruction comme vpon hym.

5 And the ſonnes of Iſrael came to bye corne among other that came: for there was dearth in the lande of Chanaan,

6 And Joſeph was (a) gouernour in the land, and ſolde to al the people of the lande. And Joſephes brethren came and (b) bowed them ſelues with their faces downe to the ground before hym.

(a) Moſes ioyneth togeather Joſephes honour and his fidelitie in dooyng his duetie,

(b) Men not knowyng, fulfyl the propheſies of god. Gene.xxxvii.

7 When Joſeph ſawe his brethren, he knewe them, and made (c) hym ſelfe ſtraunge vnto them, and ſpake (d) roughly vnto them, ſaying, Whence comme ye? They aunſweared, Out of the lande of Chanaan to bye vittaile.

(c) This diſſimulation we muſt not take for an example

(d) Not of anger, nor of mynde to reuenge: but for their tryal and repentaunce.

8 And Joſeph knewe his brethren, but they knewe not hym.

9 And Joſeph remembred his dreames whiche he dreamed of them, and ſayde vnto them, Ye are (e) ſpyes, and to ſee “ where the land is weake, is your commyng.

(e) The Egyptians commonly called the Philiſtines theeues: for they liued muche by ſpoyle and warre.

10 And they ſaide vnto hym, Nay my Lord, but to bye vittaile thy ſeruaunts are comme.

11 We are al one mans ſonnes, and “ meane truely, and thy ſeruauntes are no ſpyes.

“ Are true.

12 And he ſayde vnto them agayne, Nay, but (f) euen to ſee where the lande is weake, is your commyng.

(f) Great menne thinke it ſufficient for them to affirme a thyng without addyng any reaſon.

13 And they ſayde, We thy ſeruauntes are twelue brethren, the ſonnes of one man in the land of Chanaan, and beholde, the youngeſt is this day with our father, and one, no man woteth where he is.

14 And Joſeph ſayd vnto them, (g) That is it that I ſpeake vnto you, when I ſayde, Ye are ſpyes.

(g) Becauſe of the abſence of two of the brethren, it was ſuſpicious.

15 Hereby ye ſhalbe proued: [by] the lyfe [h] of Pharao, ye ſhal not goe hence, except your youngeſt brother comme hither.

[h] It was hard in ſo corrupt a court and countrey, to be altogeather vndefiled

16 Sende out one of you, which may fet your brother, & ye ſhalbe kept in pryſon, that your wordes may be proued whether there be any trueth in you: or els [by] the [i] lyfe of Pharao, ye are but ſpyes.

[i] Cuſtome maketh ſmal faultes not to be thought vpon.

17 And he put them altogeather in warde three dayes.

18 And Ioſeph ſayde vnto them the thirde day: This doo and liue, [for] I [k] feare God.

[k] The feare of God, is the begynnyng of a faythful and ſincere dealing 19 If ye be true men, let one of your brethren be bonde in the houſe of your priſon: and goe ye, carrie corne to put away the famine from your houſholde.

20 But bring your youngeſt brother vnto me, and ſo ſhal your wordes be tried true, and ye ſhal not dye: and they dyd ſo.

D 21 And one ſayde to another: We haue veryly [l] ſinned againſt our brother, in that we ſawe the anguiſhe of his ſoule, when he beſought vs, and we woulde not heare him: and therfore is this [m] trouble comme vpon vs.

[l] Affliction brought them to the conſcience of their ſinne, donne 13. yeeres before.

[m] Sinne is the cauſe of affliction.

22 And Ruben aunſweared them, ſayeing, Sayde I not vnto you, that you ſhoulde not ſinne agaynſt the lad, & ye woulde not heare: and ſee, nowe his blood is required.

23 They were not aware that Ioſeph vnderſtoode them: for he ſpake vnto them by an interpreter.

24 And he turned from them and wept: and turned to them agayne, & communed with them, and toke out Simeon from amongeſt them, and [n] bounde him before their eyes.

[n] This was not of malice, but becauſe he woulde be ſurely certified of the ſtate of his fathers houſe, and of Beniamin.

25 And Ioſeph cōmaunded to fille their ſackes with corne, and to put euery mans money in his ſacke, and to geue them vittayle to ſpende by the way: and thus dyd he vnto them.

26 And they laded their aſſes with the corne, and departed thence.

27 And as one of them opened his ſacke for to geue his aſſe prouender in the [o] Inne, he eſpied his money, for it was in his ſackes mouth.

[o] The Hebrue woorde ſignifieth a place where one abydeth al nyght.

E 28 And he ſaide vnto his brethren, my money is reſtored me agayne, for loe, it is euen in my ſacke. And their hart " fayled them, and they were aſtonned, and ſaid one to another, Why hath [p] God dealt thus with vs?

" Went foorth.

[p] He that hath cōſcience of ſinne, ſeeth that affliction commeth from God.

29 And they came vnto Iacob their father, vnto the lande of Chanaan, and tolde him al that befell vnto them, ſayeing, 30 The man, euen the Lorde of the lande, ſpake roughly to vs, and tooke vs for ſpies of the countrey.

31 And [q] we ſaide vnto him, We meane truely, we neuer were ſpyes.

[q] They telle here, no more then they thought made for their owne honeſtie and fame.

32 We be twelue brethren, ſonnes of our father: one is away, & the youngeſt is this day with our father in the lande of Chanaan.

33 And the Lorde of the countrey ſaide againe vnto vs, Hereby ſhal I know, that ye meane truely: leaue one of your brethren here with me, and take [foode] to put away the famine from your houſholdes, and geate you away,

34 And bring your youngeſt brother vnto me, that I may knowe that you are no ſpies, but meane truely: ſo wyl I deliuer you your brother, and ye ſhal occupie in the lande.

F 35 And as they emptied their ſackes, beholde, euery mans bundel of money was in his ſacke: And when both they and their [r] father ſaw the bundels of money, thei were afraide.

[r] Ioſeph meant not to grieue his father: yet ſo wyſe mens deedes ende otherwyſe then they minded.

36 And Iacob their father ſayd vnto them, [ſ] Ye haue robbed me of my children, Ioſeph is away, and Simeon is away, and ye wyl take Beniamin away: al theſe thinges are agaynſt me.

[ſ] He was alſo tempted with the decay of Gods promiſe, whiche ſhoulde continue in his ſeede, that nowe dayly decayed.

37 Ruben ſayde vnto his father, [t] Slay my two ſonnes, if I bring him not to thee agayne: deliuer him to my hande, and I wil bring him to thee agayne.

[t] Not that he thought his father myght doo ſo lawfully: but that he would take away his fathers ſuſpition.

38 And he ſayde: My ſonne ſhal [v] not goe downe with you, for his brother is dead, and he is leaft alone: if deſtruction comme vpon him by the way, whiche ye goe, ye ſhal bring my gray head with ſorowe vnto the graue.

[v] Affection blyndeth him, that he yet ſeeth not what is beſt to be donne.

The.xliij.Chapter.

1 The brethren of Ioſeph are ſent backe with Beniamin, and gyftes. 6 The troubles of Iacob. 16 Ioſeph commaundeth a bancket to be made ready for his brethren in his houſe. 23 Simeon is brought out of priſon. 24 The feete of Ioſephs brethren be waſhed. 30 Ioſeph weepeth. 32 His brethren doo eate with him. It is vnlawful for the Egyptians to eate with the Hebrewes.

A 1 AND the dearth was great in the lande.

2 And it came to paſſe [a] when they had eaten vp the corne which they had brought out of the lande of Egypt, their father ſaid vnto thē, Goe againe [and] bie vs a litle foode.

[a] This was in the ende of the ſeconde yeere of dearth.

3 Iuda aunſweared him, and ſayd, The man dyd ſolemply proteſt vnto vs, ſayeing, Ye ſhal not ſee my face, except your brother be with you.

4 If thou wylt ſende our brother with vs, we wil goe downe, and bye thee foode.

5 But if thou wilt not ſende him, we wyl not goe downe: for the man ſayde vnto vs, (b) ye ſhal not ſee my face, except your brother be with you.

(b) Moſes leaueth out muche perticuler talke that Ioſeph had.

6 And Iſrael ſayde, Wherfore dealt ye ſo cruelly with (c) me, as to telle the man that ye had yet a brother?

(c) Meanyng though they hated their brother, yet they ſhoulde haue pitied hym.

“ Of vs.

B 7 They aunſweared, The man aſked vs ſtraitely of “ our [ſtate] and of our kinrede, ſaieing, Is your father yet aliue? haue ye [not another] brother? And we tolde him accordyng to the “ tenour of theſe wordes: Could we by any meane know, that he would ſay, Bring your brother downe with you?

“ Mouth.

8 Then ſayde Iuda vnto Iſrael his father, Sende the lad with me, that we may aryſe and goe, and that we may lyue, and not dye, yea both we and thou, and alſo our “ many.

9 (d) I wylbe ſuretie for hym, of my handes ſhalt thou require him: if I bring him not to thee agayne, and ſet him before thine eyes, then let me beare the blame for euer.

(d) He would purge himſelfe & his brethren of the ſuſpition their father had of them: & dooth not warrant him ſelfe of the ſucceſſe.

10 Truely except we had made this taryeing, by this we had returned the ſeconde tyme.

11 And their father Iſrael ſayde vnto them, If it muſte needes be ſo, nowe then doo thus: Take of the “ beſt fruites of the lande in your veſſelles, & bring the man (c) a preſent, a curtſie of bawme, and a curtſie of hony, ſpices and myrre, nuttes and almondes.

“ Of the prayſe of the lande.

(c) This thing had proued wel with him before. Gen.xxxij.

12 And take double (f) money in your hande, and the money that was brought agayne in your ſackes, take it agayne with you, peraduenture it was ſomme ouerſight.

(f) wiſedome and equitie in Iacob.

13 Take alſo your brother with you, and ariſe and goe agayne vnto the man.

C 14 And (g) God almighty geue you mercie in the ſight of the man, that he may deliuer you your other brother, and [this] Beniamin: and thus I am as one that is quite robbed of his chyldren.

(g) Iacob dooth al thinges neceſſarie, yet reſteth vpon God only in a matter betwixt man and man.

15 Thus tooke they the preſent, and twyſe ſo much more money in their hand, with Beniamin, and roſe vp, & went downe to Egypt, and ſtoode before Ioſeph.

16 When Ioſeph ſaw Beniamin with them, he ſayde to the ruler of his houſe, Bryng theſe men home, and ſlay, and make ready, for theſe men ſhal “ dyne with me at noone.

“ Eate.

17 And the man dyd as Ioſeph bade, and brought them into Ioſephes houſe.

18 When the men were brought into Ioſephes houſe, (h) they were afrayde, and ſayde, Becauſe of the money that came in our ſackes mouthes at the firſt tyme, are we brought in, that he may “ ſeke occaſiō againſt vs, & violently lay handes vpon vs, to bryng vs in bondage, and our aſſes alſo.

19 Therefore came they to the man that was the ruler ouer Ioſephes houſe, & communed with hym at the doore of his houſe, 20 And ſayde, Oh ſir, (i) we came downe hyther at the firſt tyme to bye foode.

(i) They woulde ſhewe them ſelues innocent before they be accuſed.

21 And as we came to an Inne, we opened our ſackes, and beholde, euery mans money was in the mouth of his ſacke, [euen] our money in ful weight, and we haue brought it agayne in our hande.

D 22 And other money haue we brought alſo in our handes to bye foode: but we can not telle who put our money in our ſackes.

23 And he ſayde, Peace be vnto you, feare not: your (k) God, and the God of your father, hath geuen you that treaſure in your ſackes: I had your money. And he brought Simeon out to them.

(k) Ioſeph inſtructed his owne familie in the knowledge of God: though he coulde not reforme the whole realme.

24 And the man leade them into Ioſephes houſe, and gaue them water to waſhe their feete, and gaue their aſſes prouender.

25 And they made ready their preſent againſt Ioſeph came at noone: for they hearde [ſay] that they ſhoulde eate bread there.

26 When Ioſeph came home, they brought the preſent into the houſe to hym, which was in their handes, and bowed them ſelues to the grounde before him.

27 And he aſked them of their “ welfare, and ſayde, Is your father, that olde man, whiche ye tolde me of, in good health? and is he yet aliue? E “ Peace.

28 They aunſweared, Thy ſeruaunt our father is in good health, & is yet alyue. And they (l) bowing thē ſelues, made their obeyſaunce.

(l) Thus they fulfil Ioſephs dreame which they mockte before.

29 And he lifting vp his eyes, beheld his brother Beniamin his mothers ſonne, and ſaid, Is this your younger brother of whom ye ſpake vnto me? And he ſaide, God be (m) mercyful vnto thee my ſonne.

(m) He conſydering the troubles of his father, the ſorowes of his mother, and his owne ſeruitude, about the tyme of Beniamins birth, ſpake thus.

30 And Ioſeph made haſte (for his “ hart dyd melt vpon his brother) and ſought [where] to weepe, and entred into his chamber & wept there.

“ Bowels.

31 And he waſhed his face, and came out, and refrayned hym ſelfe, and ſayde, Set bread on the table.

32 And they prepared for hym by hym ſelfe, and for them by them ſelues, and for the Egyptians which dyd eate with him, by them ſelues, becauſe (n) the Egyptians may not eate bread with the Hebrewes: for that is an (o) abomination to the Egyptians.

1 Ioſeph commaundeth his cuppe to be put in the ſacke of Beniamin. 4 The cuppe is attached in the ſacke of Beniamin. 13 Ioſeph accuſeth his brethren of theft. 18 The oration of Iudas vnto Ioſeph.

A 1 ANd he commaunded the ruler of his houſe, saieing, Fylle the mens ſackes with foode, as muche as they can carrie, and put euery mans monei in his ſackes mouth:

2 And put (a) my cup, my ſiluer cup, in the ſackes mouth of the youngeſt, and his corne money alſo. And he dyd according to the woorde that Ioſeph had ſayde.

(a) Simplicitie in dealyng is cõmaunded to euery man: there ſuche examples are not to be folowed, whiche were donne vpon ſomme ſingular motion of God.

3 And in the morning aſſoone as it was light, the men were let goe, they, and their aſſes.

4 And when they were out of the citie, & not yet farre away, Ioſeph ſaide vnto the ruler of his houſe, Up, and folowe after the men, and when thou doeſt ouertake them, thou ſhalt ſay vnto them, Wherefore haue ye rewarded euyl for good?

5 Is not that the cup in the which my Lorde drinketh? and " for the which he(b) conſulteth with the prophecieers? Ye haue euyl donne that ye haue donne.

" In the whiche he prophecieth.
(b) He went not to the cuniurers for any matter: but this is ſayde by diſſimulatiõ to increaſe the enuie.

6 And when he ouertooke them, he ſayde the ſame wordes vnto them.

B 7 And they aunſweared him, (c) Wherefore ſayeth my Lorde ſuche wordes? God forbid that thy ſeruauntes ſhoulde doo ſo.

(c) A good cõſcience maketh them bolde to excuſe them ſelues.

8 Beholde the money whiche we founde in our ſackes mouthes, we brought againe vnto thee, out of the lande of Chanaan: howe then ſhoulde we ſteale out of thy Lordes houſe eyther ſiluer or golde?

9 With whomſoeuer of thy ſeruauntes it be founde, (d) let him dye, and we alſo wil be my Lordes bondmen.

(d) Men ſhould be diſcrete & wyſe, in defendyng their innocencie.

10 And he ſaide, Nowe alſo let it be according vnto your wordes: he with whom it is founde, ſhalbe my ſeruaunt, and ye ſhalbe blameleſſe.

11 And at once euery man tooke downe his ſacke to the grounde, and euery man opened his ſacke.

12 And he(e) ſearched, and began at the eldeſt, and leaft at the youngeſt: and the cup was founde in Beniamins ſacke.

(e) This ſeruaunt was as cloſe a diſſembler as his maiſter.

13 Then they rent their clothes, and laded euery man his aſſe, and went agayne vnto the citie.

C 14 And Iuda and his brethren came to Ioſephes houſe (for he [was] yet there) and they felle before him on the grounde.

15 And Ioſeph ſayde vnto them, What deede is this, that ye haue donne? Wote ye not that ſuche a man as I, " doo conſult with(f) prophecieers?

" or, doo prophecie.
(f) Though he dyd not the thyng: he ſhoulde not haue nouriſhed the opinion that he ſo dyd.

16 Then ſayde Iuda, What ſhal we ſay vnto my Lorde? What ſhal we ſpeake? or howe ſhal we “ cleare our ſelues? (g) God hath found out the wickednes of thy ſeruauntes: beholde, we are my lordes ſeruauntes, both we, yea, & he alſo with whom the cup is founde.

“Iuſtifie.
(g) Men in trouble without any cauſe knowẽ, ought to thinke on the ſecrete iudgementes of God.

17 And he aunſweared, God forbid that I ſhoulde doo ſo: but the man, with whom the cup is founde, he ſhalbe my ſeruaunt, & geate ye hence vp in peace vnto your father.

2 And Joſeph commaunded his ſeruauntes the phiſitians (b) to imbawme his father. And the phiſitians imbawmed Iſrael.

(b) This was to the godly then an outwarde token of incorruption: but to the ignoraunt a vaine ceremonie.

3 And fourtie dayes were continued (for ſo long doth the imbawmyng laſt) and the Egyptians (c) mourned for hym three ſcore and ten dayes.

(c) This was a ceremonial mournyng.

4 And when the dayes of mournyng were ended, Joſeph ſpake vnto the houſe of Pharao, ſaying, If I haue founde fauour in your eyes, ſpeake, I pray you, in the eares of Pharao, ſaying,

24 And Ioſeph ſayde vnto his brethren, I (l) dye, and God wyll ſurely viſite you, and bryng you out of this lande, vnto the lande whiche he ſware vnto Abraham, Iſahac, and Iacob.

(l) The trueth of gods promiſe is immortal, which men muſt looke for paciently, and not preſcribe god a tyme.

8 But there aroſe vp a newe kyng of Egypt, whiche (b) knewe not Joſeph:

9 And he ſayde vnto his folke, Beholde, the people of the chyldren of Iſrael are (c) greater, and mightier then we.

10 Comme on, let vs deale wittily with them, leſt they multiplie, and leſt it comme to paſſe, that yf there be any warre, they ioyne them ſelues vnto our enemies, and fight agaynſt vs, and ſo geate them vp out of the lande.

11 Therefore dyd they ſet taſke maiſters ouer them, to keepe them vnder with burthens: And they built vnto Pharao treaſure cities, Pithom, and Raamſes.

12 But the more they vexed them, the more they (d) multiplied, and grewe: so that they abhorred at the ſyght of the chyldren of Iſrael.

18 And the kyng of Egypt called for the midwyues, and ſayde vnto them, Why haue ye dealt on this manner, and haue ſaued the men chyldren?

19 And the mydwyues aunſweared Pharao, that the Hebrues women are not as the women of Egypt: for they are more lyuely women, and are delyuered ere the mydwyues comme at them.

20 And (g) God dealt wel therefore with the mydwyues: and the people multiplied, and waxed very mighty.

15 And God ſpake further vnto Moſes, Thus ſhalt thou ſay vnto the chyldren of Iſrael, (k) The Lorde God of your fathers, the God of Abraham, the God of Iſahac, and the God of Iacob hath ſent me vnto you: This is my name for euer, and this is my memorial into generation and generation.

The.iiii.Chapter.

1 God geueth three ſignes vnto Moſes, wherewith he may teſtifie vnto Pharao, that he is ſent a deliuerer from God. 3 A rodde turned into a ſerpent, and the ſerpent into the rodde agayne. 6 The hande of Moſes leprous. 10 Moſes layeth for his excuſe ſlowneſſe of tongue. 14 God angred with Moſes geueth hym Aaron for an Oratour. 19 Moſes goeth forewarde into Egypt. 24 God wyl deſtroy Moſes. 25 Sephora circumciſeth her ſonne. 27 By the commaundement of God Aaron goeth agaynſt Moſes to meete him.

1 Moſes aunſweared, and ſayde, (a) See, they wyl not beleue me, nor hearken vnto my voyce: but wil ſay, The Lorde hath not appeared vnto thee.

(a) Though Moſes contemned not gods callyng, yet difficulties thereof, troubled him muche.

3 And he ſayde, Caſt it on the grounde. And he caſt it on the grounde, (b) and it became a ſerpent: and Moſes fled from the ſight of it.

(b) Hereby he was aſſured, that he ſhould be fearful to others, though he were but contemptible in the worlde.

4 And the Lorde ſayde vnto Moſes, Put foorth thy hande, and take it by the tayle. And therefore he put foorth his hande, and caught it: and it became a rodde in his hande.

5 (c) By this thing ſhal they beleue, that the Lord God of their fathers, the God of Abraham, the God of Iſahac, and the God of Iacob hath appeared vnto thee.

(c) Autoritie geuen to Moſes to worke the like ſignes

6 And the Lorde ſayd furthermore vnto him, Thruſt thyne hande into thy boſome. And he thruſt his hande into his boſome: and when he tooke it out agayne, beholde his hande was leprous, euen as ſnowe.

7 And he ſayde, Put thyne hande into thy boſome agayne. And he put his hande into his boſome agayne: and he plucked it out of his boſome, and beholde, it (d) was turned agayne as his [other] fleaſhe.

(d) God ſheweth howe he wil reſtore Moſes and the people to theyr olde dignitie.

8 Therefore yf they wyl not beleue thee, neither heare the voyce of the firſt ſignes, yet wil they beleue for the voyce of the ſecond ſignes.

9 But if they wil not beleue theſe two ſignes, neyther hearken vnto thy voyce: thou ſhalt take of the water of the riuer, and poure it vpon the drye lande, and the water whiche thou takeſt out of the riuer ſhalbe [turned] (e) into blood vpon the drye lande.

(e) They might learne, that it was in gods hande to turne all the commodities of the Egyptians to theyr owne deſtruction.

17 And thou ſhalt take this rodde in thy hand, wherewith thou ſhalt doo miracles.

18 Therefore Moſes went, and returned to Iethro his father in lawe agayne, and ſayde vnto hym, Let me go I pray thee, now, and turne agayne vnto my brethren, whiche are in Egypt, and ſee, whether they be yet alyue. And Iethro ſayde to Moſes, Go in peace.

19 And the Lorde ſaide vnto Moſes in Madian, Go and returne agayne into Egypt: for al the menne are dead, whiche went about to “ kille thee.

20 And Moſes tooke his wife, and his ſonnes, and put them on an aſſe, and went agayne to Egypt: And Moſes tooke the rodde of god in his hande. [k]

21 And the Lorde ſayde vnto Moſes, When thou art entred & comme into Egypt agayne, ſee that thou doo [l] all the wonders before Pharao, whiche I haue put in thyne hande: but I wil holde his heart, and he ſhall not let the people goe.

D 22 And thou ſhalt ſaye vnto Pharao, Thus ſayth the Lorde, Iſrael is my ſonne [euen] my firſt borne ſonne.

23 And I ſayde vnto thee, that thou let my ſonne goe, that he may ſerue me. And yf thou refuſe to let him goe: beholde, I doo ſlay thy ſonne [euen] thy firſt borne.

24 And it came to paſſe by the way in the inne, that the Lorde mette hym, and woulde haue [m] kylled hym.

25 And Sephora tooke a ſtone, and cut away the foreſkin of her ſonne, and caſt it at his feete, and ſayd, A blooddy huſbande art thou vnto me.

26 Then [n] he let hym goe, and ſhe ſayde, A blooddy huſbande, becauſe of her circumciſion.

27 Then ſayde the Lorde vnto Aaron, Goe meete Moſes in the wyldernesse. And he went, and mette hym in the mount of God, and kyſſed hym.

28 And [o] Moſes tolde Aaron al the wordes of the Lorde whiche had ſent him, and al the ſignes whiche he had charged hym withal. E

29 So went Moſes and Aaron, and geathered al the elders of the children of Iſrael.

30 And Aaron tolde al the wordes whiche the Lorde had ſpoken vnto Moſes: and dyd the miracles in the ſyght of the people.

31 And the people beleued. [p] And when they hearde, that the Lorde had viſited the children of Iſrael, and had looked vpon theyr tribulation, they bowed them ſelues, and worſhypped.

The.v.Chapter.

1 Moſes and Aaron goe vnto Pharao. 15 The gouernours ouer Iſrael crye out vnto Pharao. 20 Moſes and Aaron accuſed of the people. 22 Moſes complayneth to God.

A 1 Moſes and Aaron went in afterward and tolde Pharao, Thus ſayeth the Lorde God of Iſrael, Let my people goe, that they may “ holde a feaſte vnto me in the wilderneſſe.

2 And Pharao ſayde, [a] Who is the Lorde that I ſhoulde heare his voyce, and let Iſrael goe? I knowe not the Lorde, neither wyl I let Iſrael goe.

3 And they ſayde, The GOD of the Hebrewes is “ called ouer vs: let vs goe we pray thee three dayes iourney into the deſart, and make ſacrifice vnto the Lorde our God: [b] leſt he ſmyte vs with peſtilence, or with the ſworde.

4 Then ſayde the kyng of Egypt vnto them, Wherefore doo ye Moſes and Aaron let the people from theyr workes? geate you vnto your burthens.

5 And Pharao ſayde furthermore, Beholde, there is muche people nowe in the land, and you make them leaue theyr burthens.

6 And Pharao [c] commaunded the ſame day, the taſkmaiſters whiche were amongeſt the people and the officers, ſaying,

7 Ye ſhal geue the people no more ſtrawe to make bricke withal, as ye did in time paſſed: let them goe and geather them ſtrawe them ſelues. B

8 And the number of brycke whiche they were wont to make in tyme paſſed, lay vnto theyr charges alſo, and miniſhe nothyng thereof: for they be idle, and therefore crye, ſayeing, We wyl goe, and make ſacrifice vnto our God.

9 They muſt haue more worke laide vpon them, that they may labour therein, and not regarde [d] vayne wordes.

10 Then went the taſkmaiſters of the people, and the officers out, and told the people, ſayeing, Thus ſayth Pharao, I wyl geue you no more ſtrawe.

11 Goe your ſelues and geather you ſtrawe, where ye can fynde it: yet ſhall none of your labour be miniſhed.

The.vi.Chapter.

1 God remembreth his promiſes. 5 God promiſeth deliueraunce, and the lande of Chanaan. 9 The peop[illegible] of Iſrael be not contented with the warninges of Moſes. 10 Moſes and Aaron are ſent to Pharao. 14 The diſcentes of Ruben. 16 The diſcent of Leui. 20 Amram the father of Moſes and Aaron. 23 Aaron the father of Nadab and Abiu. 25 Eleazar father of Phinees. 29 Moſes is commaunded to ſpeake to Pharao.

A 1 Then the Lorde ſayde vnto Moſes, Nowe (a) ſhalt thou ſee what I wil doo vnto Pharao: for in a myghty hande ſhal he let them goe, and in a mighty hande ſhal he dryue them out of his lande.

(a) Moſes haſte is gently blamed.

2 And God ſpake vnto Moſes, and ſaide vnto him, I am (b) Iehouah.

(b) By this name of his ſubſtaunce, god declareth, that he is the perfourmer of his promiſſe, and ſo wyl be.

3 I appeared vnto Abraham, Iſahac, and Iacob as an almyghty God: (c) but in my name Iehouah was I not knowen vnto them.

(c) The greater knowledge & lyght this people had: the more redily ſhoulde they haue obeyed.

4 Moreouer (d) I made a couenaunt with them, to geue them the lande of Chanaan, the lande of their pilgremage, wherein they were ſtraungers.

(d) As the couenant was of gods free grace: ſo alſo was this redemption.

5 And therefore I haue alſo hearde the groanyng of the chyldren of Iſrael, whom the Egyptians kepe in bondage, & haue remembred my couenaunt.

6 Wherefore ſay vnto the chyldren of Iſrael, I am Iehouah, I wyl bryng you out from the burthens of the Egyptians, and wyl ryd you out of theyr bondage, and wyl deliuer you in a ſtretched out arme, and in great iudgementes.

B 7 And I wyl take you (e) for my people, and wil be to you a GOD: And ye ſhal knowe that I am the Lord your God whiche bring you out from the burthens of the Egyptians.

(e) The ende of their deliueraunce was in the continuaunce of gods grace.

8 And I wyl bryng you into the lande concernyng the whiche I dyd lyft vp my hand to geue it vnto Abraham, Iſahac, and Iacob, and wyl geue it vnto you for a poſſeſſion: (f) [for] I am Iehouah.

(f) That they might knowe howe his power ouercummeth al lettes and ſtoppes.

(g) It is daungerous in affliction, not to heare gods promiſſes.

10 And the Lord ſpake vnto Moſes, ſayeing,

11 Goe in, and ſpeake vnto Pharao king of Egypt, that he let the chyldren of Iſrael goe out of his lande.

12 And Moſes ſpake before the Lorde, ſayeing, Beholde, the chyldren of Iſrael hearken not vnto me: howe then ſhal Pharao heare me, whiche am of " vncircumcized lippes?

" Or, which haue an impediment in my ſpeache or am rude.

22 (k) And the enchaunters of Egypt dyd lykewyſe with theyr ſorceries, and he hardened Pharaoes hart: neyther dyd he hearken vnto them, as the Lorde had ſayde.

(k) The faithful ouercame this temptation through gods worde confirmed by a heauenly viſion.

23 And Pharao turned hym ſelfe, and went agayne into his houſe, and (l) ſet not his hart therevnto.

(l) Gods workes are not lyghtly to be conſydered.

24 And the Egyptians (m) dygged rounde about the riuer for water to drynke: for they coulde not drynke of the water of the riuer.

(m) Theſe circumſtances declare that this was no vaine illuſion.

25 And it continued ſeuen dayes after that the Lorde had ſmitten the riuer.

The viij. Chapter.

2 Frogges. 8 Pharao prayeth Moſes to pray for hym. 12 Moſes prayeth for Pharao. 15 Pharao is hardened. 16 Lyſe in man and beaſt. 20 Flyes, or al kynde of wylde, fierce, and noyſome beaſtes. 25 Pharao intreateth Moſes to pray for hym. 32 Pharao is hardened.

A 1 The Lord ſpake vnto Moſes, Goe vnto Pharao, & telle him, Thus ſayeth the Lorde, Let my people goe, that they may ſerue me.

2 And yf thou refuſe to let them goe, beholde, I wyl ſmite al thy borders (a) with frogges.

(a) An ignominious puniſhment vpon the contemners of God.

3 And the riuer ſhal ſcraule with frogges, whiche ſhal goe vp, and comme into thyne houſe, and into thy priuie chaumber where thou ſleapeſt, and vpon thy bedde, and into the houſe of thy ſeruauntes, and vpon thy people, and into thyne ouens, and vpon al thy vittayles in ſtore:

4 And (b) the frogs ſhal comme vp vpon thee, and on thy people, & vpon al thy ſeruauntes.

(b) God can arme his creatures at his wyl agaynſt the wicked.

5 And the Lord ſpake vnto Moſes, Say vnto Aaron, Stretche foorth thyne hande with thy rodde ouer the ſtreames, ouer the riuers, and ouer the pondes: and cauſe frogges to comme vpon the lande of Egypt.

The ſeconde plague.

6 And Aaron ſtretched his hand ouer the waters of Egypt, and the frogges came vp, and couered the lande of Egypt.

7 And (c) the ſorcerers dyd lykewyſe with their ſorcerie, and brought frogges vpon the lande of Egypt.

(c) Thus god wyl exerciſe his ſeruauntes with aduerſaries to theyr trial.

8 Then Pharao called for Moſes, & Aaron, and ſayd, Pray (d) ye vnto the Lorde, that he may take away the frogges frõ me, & from my people: and I wyl let the people goe, that they may make ſacrifice vnto the Lorde.

(d) Hypocrites feared with gods iudgement, pretende a certayne repentaunce.

9 And (e) Moſes ſayde vnto Pharao, Glorie herein becauſe of me, and [appoynt] when I ſhal pray for thee, and for thy ſeruauntes, and for thy people, to dryue away the frogges from thee and thy houſes: that they may remayne but in the riuer only.

(e) He is wylled to forſake his arrogancie, and to reioyce in the mercie of god, whiche he ſhould attaine by the prayer of gods ſeruauntes.

10 He ſaid, To morowe. (f) And he ſaid, Euen as thou haſt ſaid: that thou maiſt know, that there is none lyke vnto the Lorde our God.

(f) He meaneth not the differring of Moſes prayer: but to haue reſpite that nyght, for the peoples deliuerie.

11 And ſo the frogges ſhal depart from thee, & from thy houſes, from thy ſeruaũtes, & from thy people: & ſhal remayne in the riuer only.

12 Moſes and Aaron went out from Pharao, and Moſes (g) cryed vnto the Lorde, as touching the frogges, which he had brought agaynſt Pharao.

(g) The wicked are deliuered from temporal puniſhment, by the prayer of the faithful.

13 And the Lorde dyd accordyng to the ſaying of Moſes: and the frogges dyed out of the houſes, out of the courtes, and feeldes.

C 14 And they geathered them togeather vpon heapes, and the lande "had an euil ſmelle [through them.]

15 But when Pharao ſawe that he had reaſt geuen hym, he hardened his hart, and hearkened not vnto them, as the Lorde had ſaid.

16 And the Lorde ſayde vnto Moſes, Say vnto Aaron, Stretche out thy rodde, & ſmite the duſt of the lande, that it may be [turned] (h) to lyſe throughout al the lande of Egypt.

17 And they dyd ſo: for Aaron ſtretched out his hande with his rodde, and ſmote the duſt of the earth, whiche turned to lyſe in man and beaſt: ſo that al the duſt of the lande [turned] (i) to lyſe throughout al the lande of Egypt.

18 And the enchaunters "aſſayed lykewyſe with theyr enchauntmentes to bryng foorth lyſe: (k) but they coulde not: and the lyſe were both vpon men and beaſtes.

19 Then ſayde the enchaunters vnto Pharao, (l) This is the finger of God. And Pharaoes heart remayned obſtinate, and he hearkened not vnto them, euen as the Lorde had ſayde.

20 And the Lorde ſayde vnto Moſes, Ryſe vp early in the mornyng, and ſtande before Pharao, loe, he wyl comme foorth (m) vnto the water, and thou ſhalt ſay vnto hym, Thus ſayeth the Lorde, Let my people goe, that they may ſerue me.

D 21 Els yf thou wylt not let my people goe, beholde, I wyl ſende "al maner of flyes both vpon thee, and thy ſeruauntes, and thy people, and into thy houſes: and the houſes of the Egyptians ſhalbe ful of flyes, and the grounde whereon they are.

22 And the lande of Goſen where my people are, wyl I " cauſe to be wonderful in that day, (n) ſo that there ſhal no flyes be there: whereby thou ſhalt knowe, that I am the Lorde in the middeſt of the earth.

" Stanke.

(h) God moſt eaſily ouerthroweth the ſtrength of man.

The thirde plague.

(i) The ſmalleſt beaſtes haue ſtrength ynough to hurt, beyng armed by god.

" Wrought.

(k) Satans miniſters ſhalbe confounded, when god hath proued the fayth of his ſeruauntes.

(l) They would not ſeeme ouercomme of any man, therefore they confeſſe gods power agaynſt them ſelues.

(m) God would haue al this matter donne publiquely.

" Swarmes of flees.

" Or, ſeparate.

(n) Benefites and plagues are in gods only hande, wherein the falſe goddes can do nothing

23 And I wyl put a "diuiſion betweene my people and thyne: and euen to (o) morowe ſhal this miracle be donne.

24 And the Lorde dyd euen ſo, and (p) there came an intollerable ſwarme of flyes into the houſe of Pharao, and into his ſeruauntes houſes, and into al the lande of Egypt: and the lande was corrupt with theſe flyes.

25 And Pharao called for Moſes and Aaron, and ſayde, (q) Goe, and make ſacrifice vnto your God in this lande.

26 And Moſes aunſweared, It is not meete that we ſo doo: for we muſt offer vnto the Lorde our God, that [whiche is] (r) an abhomination vnto the Egyptians. Loe, yf we ſacrifice that whiche is an abomination vnto the Egyptians before theyr eyes, wyl they not ſtone vs?

27 We wyl goe three dayes iourney into the deſert, and ſacrifice vnto the Lorde our God, as he hath (ſ) commaunded vs.

28 And Pharao ſayde, I wyl let you goe, that ye may ſacrifice vnto the Lorde your God in the wyldernesse: but goe not farre away: (t) pray for me.

29 And Moſes ſayde, Beholde, I wyl goe out from thee, and pray vnto the Lorde, that the flyes may depart from Pharao, and from his ſeruauntes, and from his people, to morowe: but (u) let Pharao from henceforth deale deceitfully no more, that he wyl not let the people goe, to ſacrifice vnto the Lorde.

30 And Moſes went out from Pharao, and (v) prayed vnto the Lorde.

31 And the Lorde dyd accordyng to the ſaying of Moſes: and the flyes departed from Pharao, and from his ſeruauntes, and from his people: and there remayned not one.

32 And Pharao hardened his hart once more (x) at this tyme, and dyd not let the people goe.

" Redemption.

(o) God graunteth a tyme of repentaunce.

(p) This miracle was wrought without the meanes of the rodde.

The fourth plague.

(q) This compelled obedience, robbeth god of a great part of his honour, who ſhould not in one part of the Realme, but in the whole, haue benne truely worſhipped.

(r) The true worſhipping of god, ought not to be made a laughing ſtocke to the gentiles.

(ſ) Gods wil in his worſhipping is only to be folowed.

E

(t) The wicked in theyr neceſſitie pretende great religion.

(u) Moſes conſtantly rebuketh the kyng of his lyes.

(v) Moſes by gods ſpecial motion, promiſed the kynges the relaxation of his puniſhment.

(x) For al gods puniſhmentes, he yet remayned rebellious agaynſt god.

The ix. Chapter.

1 Death of cattel. 8 Boyles. 13 Hayle. 27 Pharao acknowledgeth his offenſe, and beſecheth Moſes to pray for hym. 33 When Moſes prayeth, the hayle ceaſeth.

A 1 THE Lord ſayd vnto Moſes, Goe in vnto Pharao, and thou ſhalt tel hym, Thus ſayeth the Lorde God of the Hebrues, Let my people goe, that they may ſerue me.

2 If thou refuſe to let them goe, and wylt holde them ſtil,

3 Beholde, the (a) hande of the Lorde is vpon thy flocke, whiche is in the feelde, [for] vpon horſes, vpon Aſſes, vpon Cammelles, vpon Oxen, and vpon ſheepe, there ſhalbe a mighty great morayne.

4 And the Lorde ſhal do wonderfully betweene the beaſtes of Iſrael, and the beaſtes of Egypt, ſo that there ſhal nothyng dye of al that perteyneth to the chyldren of Iſrael.

5 And the Lorde (b) appoynted a tyme, ſaying, To morowe the Lorde ſhal finiſhe this

(a) The morren of cattel, commeth of the iuſt iudgement of god, and not of other cauſes.

(b) He was obſtinate in his malice, that no tyme coulde be brought to repentaunce.

worde in the lande.

6 And the Lorde dyd that thyng on the morrowe, (c) and al the cattel of Egypt dyed: but of the cattel of the chyldren of Iſrael, dyed not one.

(c) This ſpeache ſignifieth a very great number or the moſt part.
The fifth plague.

7 And Pharao ſent, and beholde, there was not one of the cattel of the Iſraelites dead: And the hart of Pharao hardened, and he dyd not let the people goe.

B 8 And the Lorde ſayde vnto Moſes and Aaron, Take your handes ful of aſſhes out of the furnace, and Moſes ſhal ſprinckle it vp into the ayre in the ſyght of Pharao:

9 And it ſhalbe duſt in al the lande of Egypt, and ſhalbe ſwellyng ſoares with blaynes, both on man and beaſt throughout al the lande of Egypt.

10 And they tooke aſſhes out of the furnace, and ſtoode before Pharao: and Moſes (d) ſprinkled it vp into the ayre, and there were ſwelling ſoares with blaines, both in menne and in beaſtes:

(d) Seeyng Pharao amended not by monition, god graunting no time, executeth his iudgementes.
The ſixth plague.

11 And (e) the ſorcerers could not ſtande before Moſes becauſe of the blaynes: for there were botches vpon the enchaunters, and vpon al the Egyptians.

(e) Satans miniſters overcomme, yet ceaſſe not, til with ſhame they be driuen away.

12 And the Lorde hardened the hart of Pharao, and he hearkened not vnto them, as the Lorde had ſayde vnto Moſes.

13 And the Lorde ſayde vnto Moſes, Ryſe vp early in the mornyng, and ſtande before Pharao, and thou ſhalt telle hym, Thus ſayeth the Lorde God of the Hebrues, Let my people goe, that they may ſerue me:

C 14 Or els I wyl at this tyme ſende al my plagues vpon thyne hart, and vpon thy ſeruauntes, and on thy people, that thou mayſt knowe that there is none like to me in al the earth.

15 For nowe I wyl ſtretche out my hande, that I may ſmite thee, and thy people with peſtilence, and thou ſhalt periſhe from the earth.

16 And in very deede, (f) for this cauſe haue I “kept thee, for to ſhewe thee my power, and that my name may be declared throughout al the worlde.

(f) God wold haue hym knowe, that he coulde quickely haue deſtroied him, yet for other cauſes he reſerued hym.
“ Made thee ſtande.

17 Yet exalteſt thou thee ſelfe agaynſt my people, that thou wylt not let them goe:

18 Behold, to morowe this tyme I wyl ſend downe a (g) mighty great hayle, euen ſuche a one as was not in Egypt ſince the foundation thereof was layde, vnto this tyme.

(g) The circumſtaunces ſhewe, that this hayle was not natural.

D 19 Sende therefore nowe, and geather thy beaſtes, and al that thou haſt in the feelde: For vpon al the menne, and the beaſtes which are founde in the feelde, and not brought home, ſhal the hayle falle, and they ſhal dye.

20 And as many as (h) feared the word of the Lorde amongſt the ſeruauntes of Pharao, made their ſeruauntes, and their beaſtes flee into the houſes.

(h) This feare came not of true repentaunce and obedience to God.

21 But he that regarded not the worde of the Lorde, leaft his ſeruauntes, and his beaſtes in the feelde.

22 And the Lord ſayd vnto Moſes, Stretche foorth thyne hande vnto heauen, that there may be hayle in al the lande of Egypt, vpon man, and vpon beaſtes, and vpon al the hearbes of the feelde throughout the lande of Egypt.

23 And Moſes ſtretched foorth his rodde vnto heauen, and the Lorde (i) thundred, and hayled, and the fyre ranne a long vpon the grounde, and the Lorde hayled in the lande of Egypt.

The ſeuenth plague.
(i) Al elementes are ready to obey at gods commaundement.

24 So there was hayle, and fyre mingled with the hayle, ſo greeuous, and ſuche as there was none throughout al the lande of Egypt ſince people inhabited it.

25 And the hayle ſmote throughout al the land of Egypt al that was in the feelde, both man and beaſt: and the hayle ſmote al the hearbes of the feelde, and broke al the trees of the feelde.

E 26 Only in the lande of Goſen, where the chyldren of Iſrael were, was there no hayle.

27 And Pharao ſent, and called for Moſes and Aaron, and ſayde vnto them, I (k) haue nowe ſinned: the Lorde is ryghteous, and I and my people are vngodly.

(k) This confeſſion came not of fayth, but of the greatneſſe of gods plague: ſo it was hypocritical.

28 Pray ye vnto the Lorde, that theſe thundrynges of God, and hayle may be ſufficient, and I wyl let you goe, and ye ſhal tarrie no longer.

29 Moſes ſayde vnto hym, (l) Aſſoone as I am out of the citie, I wyl ſpreade abrode my handes vnto the Lord, and the thunder ſhal ceaſſe, neyther ſhal there be any more hayle: that thou mayeſt knowe, howe that the earth is the Lordes.

(l) He ſheweth the kyng, that through his incredulitie, he polluted the place, where he was.

30 But I knowe, that thou and thy ſeruauntes yet feare not the (m) face of the Lorde God.

(m) Moſes ſtoutly condemneth the king, and al his court of vngodlyneſſe.

31 And ſo the flaxe, and the barlye were ſmytten, for the barly was ſhot vp, and the flaxe was bolled:

F 32 But the wheate and the rie were not ſmitten, (n) for they were “late ſowen.

(n) Theſe ſeedes were not ſo forwarde in rypyng as the other.
“ Hydde.

33 And Moſes went out of the citie from Pharao, and ſpread abrode his handes vnto the Lorde: and the thunder, and hayle ceaſſed, neyther rayned it vpon the earth.

34 And when Pharao (o) ſawe, that the raine, and the hayle, and thunder were ceaſſed, he ſinned yet more, and hardened his heart, he and his ſeruauntes:

(o) when gods plagues ceaſſe, the wicked arme them ſelues agayne agaynſt god.

35 And the hart of Pharao was hardened, neyther woulde he let the chyldren of Iſrael goe, as the Lord had ſayde by the hande of Moſes.

The. x. Chapter.

1 God hardeneth Pharao. 4 Moſes threatneth Pharao to plague hym with locuſtes. 16 Pharao acknowledging his ſinne, requireth that prayer be made for hym. 19 Moſes prayeth for Pharao. 21 Darkneſſe ſo groſſe, that it myght be felt.

A 1 AND the Lorde ſayde vnto Moſes, Goe in vnto Pharao: for I haue hardened his hart, and the hart of his ſeruauntes, that I might ſhewe theſe my ſignes before hym,

2 And that thou telle in the audience of thy ſonne, and of thy ſonnes ſonne, what thinges I haue donne in Egypt, and the myracles whiche I haue donne amongſt them: that they may knowe, howe that I am the Lord.

3 And ſo Moſes and Aaron came vnto Pharao, and ſayde vnto hym, Thus ſayeth the Lorde God of the Hebrues, Howe long wilt thou refuſe to ſubmit thee ſelfe vnto me? Let my people goe, that they may ſerue me.

4 Or els yf thou refuſe to let my people goe, beholde, to morowe wyl I bryng greſhoppers into thy coaſtes,

5 And they ſhal couer the face of the earth, that it can not be ſeene: and they ſhal eate the reſidue, whiche remayneth vnto you, and is eſcaped from the hayle, and they ſhal eate euery greene tree, that beareth you fruite in the feelde.

6 And they ſhal fille thy houſes, and al thy ſeruauntes houſes, and the houſes of al the Egyptians, after ſuche a manner, as neyther thy fathers, nor thy fathers fathers haue ſeene ſince the tyme they were vpon the earth vnto this day. And he turned hym ſelfe about, and went out from Pharao.

B 7 And Pharaoes ſeruauntes ſaide vnto him, Howe long ſhal he be " hurtful vnto vs? Let the menne goe, that they may ſerue the Lord their God: knoweſt thou not yet, that Egypt is deſtroyed?

" A ſnare.

8 And Moſes and Aaron were brought agayne vnto Pharao, and he ſayd vnto them, (a) Goe and ſerue the Lorde your God: but who are they, that ſhal goe?

(a) Gods enimies whē they be brydled that they can not haue al their wyl, ſeeke yet ſomme bymeanes to ouerthrowe gods kyngdome.

9 And Moſes aunſweared, We wil goe with our young, and with our olde, yea, and with our ſonnes, and with our daughters, and with our ſheepe, and with our oxen we muſt goe: for we muſt holde a feaſt vnto the Lord.

10 And he ſayde vnto them, Let the Lorde be ſo with you, as I wyl let you goe, and your chyldren: take heede, for ye haue ſome miſcheefe in hande.

11 Nay not ſo, but goe they that are menne, and ſerue the Lorde: for that was your deſyre. (b) And they were thruſt out of Pharaoes preſence.

(b) Moſes is careful to haue gods commaundement in al poyntes duely obſerued, choſyng rather to be hated for gods ſake, then to conſent to a thing vnlawful.

12 And the Lord ſayd vnto Moſes, Stretche out thyne hande ouer the lande of Egypt for greſhoppers, that they may comme vpon the lande of Egypt, and eate al the hearbes of the lande, and al that the hayle leaft behynde.

13 And Moſes ſtretched foorth his rodde ouer the lande of Egypt, and the Lorde brought an (c) Eaſt winde vpon the lande al that day, and al that nyght: and in the mornyng the Eaſt winde brought the greſhoppers.

The eyghth plague.

(c) Hereby we learne, that diſtemperate and noyſome weather, is chiefly to be aſcribed to the iuſt iudgement of god, and not to any natural cauſe.

14 And the greſhoppers went vp ouer al the lande of Egypt, and remayned in al quarters of Egypt very greeuouſly: before them were there no ſuche greſhoppers, neyther after ſhalbe.

C 15 For they couered al the face of the earth, ſo that the lande was darke, and they dyd eate al the hearbes of the lande, and al the fruites of the trees, whatſoeuer the hayle had leaft: there was no greene thing leaft in the trees, and hearbes of the feelde, through al the land of Egypt.

16 Therefore Pharao called for Moſes and Aaron in haſte, and ſayde, I haue ſinned agaynſt the Lorde your GOD, and agaynſt you:

17 And nowe forgeue me my ſinne only this once, and pray vnto the Lorde your GOD, that he may take away from me this death only.

18 And [Moſes] went out from Pharao, and prayed vnto the Lorde.

19 And the Lorde turned a myghty ſtrong weaſt winde, and it tooke away the greſhoppers, and caſt them into the redde ſea: ſo that there was not one greſhopper in al the coaſtes of Egypt.

20 And the Lorde hardened Pharaoes hart, ſo that he woulde not let the chyldren of Iſrael goe.

21 And the Lord ſaide vnto Moſes, Stretche out thy hande vnto heauen, that there may be vpon the lande of Egypt darkneſſe whiche may be felt.

22 And Moſes ſtretched foorth his hand vnto heauen: and there was a " thicke darkneſſe vpon al the lande of Egypt three dayes long.

The nynth plague.
" Palpable darkneſſe.

23 No man ſawe another, neyther roſe vp from the place where he was by the ſpace of three dayes: But al the chyldren of Iſrael had lyght, where they dwelled.

24 And Pharao called for Moſes, and ſayde, Goe, and ſerue the Lord: only let your ſheepe and your oxen abyde, and let your chyldren goe with you.

25 (d) And Moſes ſayde, Thou muſt geue vs alſo offeringes, and burnt offeringes, for to make ſacrifice vnto the Lorde our God.

(d) Moſes wyl not yelde an ynche for any thing that Pharao coulde doo, in ſuche thinges as god commaunded,

26 Our cattel alſo ſhal goe with vs, and there ſhal not one hoofe be leaft behinde, for thereof muſt we take to ſerue the Lorde our GOD: neyther doo we knowe, with what we muſt make ſeruice vnto the Lord, vntyl we comme thyther.

27 But the Lorde hardened Pharaoes hart, and he woulde not let them goe.

28 (c) And Pharao ſayde vnto hym, Geate thee from me, and take heede vnto thee ſelfe, that thou ſee my face no more: for whenſoeuer thou cõmeſt in my ſyght, thou ſhalt dye.

29 And Moſes ſayde, Let it be as thou haſt ſayde, I wyl ſee thy face no more.

(c) The wicked, the nygher they be to theyr deſtruction, the more furious commonly they be. Therefore the godly in ſuche caſes ought to be of good hope.

The xi. Chapter.

1 The Lorde commaundeth the Hebrues to robbe the Egyptians. 4 The death of the fyrſt borne of al thinges.

A 1 AND the Lord ſayd vnto Moſes, Yet wyl I bryng one plague more vpon Pharao, and vpon Egypt, and after that, he wyl let you goe hence: When he ſhal let you goe quite, he ſhal vtterly dryue you hence.

2 (a) Speake thou therfore in the eares of the people, that euery man borowe of his neyghbour, and euery woman of her neyghbour, iewels of ſiluer, and iewels of golde.

(a) We muſt not take this for an example to ſpoyle our neyghbour, this was enioyned by ſpecial commiſſion for the due puniſhment of the Egyptians. Auguſt. 39.q.

3 And the Lorde ſhal geue the people fauour in the ſyght of the Egyptians: Moreouer, Moſes was a very great man in the land of Egypt in the ſyght of Pharaoes ſeruauntes, and in the ſyght of the people.

4 And Moſes ſayde, Thus ſayth the Lorde, At mydnyght wyl I goe out into the myddeſt of Egypt,

5 And al the fyrſt borne in al the lande of Egypt ſhal dye, euen from the fyrſt borne of Pharao, (b) that ſitteth on his ſeate, vnto the fyrſt borne of the mayde ſeruaunt, that is behynde the mylle, and al the fyrſt gendred of the cattel.

(b) That ſucceedeth after him in the imperialcrowne, as heyre apparaunt. For by ſitting, is meant, bearyng rule, or weldyng of any office, as 4.Reg.ii.

6 And there ſhalbe a great crye throughout al the lande of Egypt, ſuche as there was neuer none lyke, nor ſhalbe.

7 But amongſt the chyldren of Iſrael, ſhal not a dogge moue his tongue, from a man vnto a beaſt: that ye may knowe, how that the Lorde putteth a difference betweene the Egyptians and Iſrael. B

8 (c) And theſe thy ſeruauntes ſhal al comme downe vnto me, and fall before me, and ſay, Geate thee out, and all the people that are vnder thee, and then wyl I depart. And he went out from Pharao " with an angrye countenaunce.

(c) Tane deſcendent, a ſuddayne change of ſpeakyng to dyuers perſons: as pſalme.xv.a.

" Or, in a great anger.

9 And the Lorde ſayde vnto Moſes, Pharao ſhal not heare you, that my woonders may be multiplied in the lande of Egypt.

10 And Moſes and Aaron did al theſe woonders before Pharao: And the Lorde hardened Pharaoes hart, ſo that he would not let the chyldren of Iſrael goe out of his lande.

The xii. Chapter.

1 The charge and manner of eatyng of the Paſſouer. 26 A charge is geuen parentes, to teache their chyldren the myſterie of the Paſſouer. 29 The murder of the fyrſt borne of Egypt. 31 Pharao caſteth out the chyldren of Iſrael. 35 The Iewes doo robbe the Egyptians of golden and ſiluer veſſels. 37 The chyldren of Iſrael doo goe out. 40 They dwelt in Egypt foure hundred and thirtie yeeres. 43 The manner of celebrating the Paſſouer.

A 1 AND the Lord ſpake vnto Moſes and Aaron in the lande of Egypt, ſayeing,

2 This mooneth ſhalbe vnto you the begynning of moonethes, and the firſt mooneth of the yeere ſhal it be vnto you.

3 Speake ye vnto al the congregation of Iſrael, ſayeing, In the tenth day of this mooneth, let euery man take vnto him a (a) lambe according to the houſe of the fathers, a lambe throughout euery houſe.

(a) God ordeyned this ſacrifice for a token and pledge of their deliueraunce.

4 If the houſholde be to litle for the lambe, let hym take his neyghbour, whiche is next vnto his houſe, accordyng to the number of the ſoules, euery one of you accordyng to his eatyng, ſhal make your compt for a lambe.

5 And let the lambe of yours be without blemiſhe, a male of a yeere olde [whiche] ye ſhal take out from among the ſheepe, and from among the goates.

6 And ye ſhal keepe him in vntil the fourteenth day of the ſame mooneth: and euery aſſemble of the congregation of Iſrael ſhal kylle hym about the " euen tide.

" Or, Twy lyght.

(b) The Churche is diſtinguiſhed from the ſynagogue of the vnfaythful, by the worde of god, and by the ſacramentes.

7 (b) And they ſhal take of the blood, and ſtryke it on the two [ſyde] poſtes, and on the vpper doore poſt, euen in the houſes, where they ſhal eate hym:

B

8 And they ſhal eate the fleaſhe the ſame nyght roſted with fire, and with vnleauened bread: and with ſowre hearbes they ſhal eate it.

9 See that ye eate not thereof rawe, nor ſodden with water, but roſted with fyre: the head, feete, and purtenaunce thereof.

10 And ye ſhal let nothyng of it remayne vnto the mornyng: That whiche remayneth of it vntyl the morowe, ſhal ye burne with fyre.

11 Of this manner ſhal ye eate it: with your loines gyrded, and your ſhooes on your feete, and your ſtaffe in your hande, (c) and ye ſhal eate it in haſte: for it is the Lordes paſſouer.

(c) This was the paſſeouer of the Iewes: but our paſcal lambe is Chriſte, as witneſſeth Paul. i. cor. v.

12 For I wyl paſſe through the lande of Egypt this ſame nyght, and wyl ſmyte al the fyrſt borne of Egypt, from man to beaſt, and vpon al the goddes of Egypt I wyl execute iudgement: I [am] the Lorde.

13 And the blood ſhalbe vnto you a token in the houſes, wherein you are: and when I ſee the blood, I wyl paſſe ouer you, and the plague ſhal not be vpon you to deſtroy you, when I ſmyte the lande of Egypt.

C 14 And this day ſhalbe vnto you a remembraunce: and you ſhal keepe it an holy feaſte vnto the Lorde throughout your generations, ye ſhal keepe it holy for an ordinaunce for (d) euer.

(d) Euer, is not taken for a tyme without ende, but for a long ſeaſon indefinite, as in Gen. 13. d.

15 Seuen dayes ſhal ye eate vnleauened bread, ſo that euen the fyrſt day ye put away leauen out of your houſe: For who ſo euer eateth leauened bread from the fyrſt day, vntyl the ſeuenth day, that ſoule ſhalbe rooted out of Iſrael.

16 The fyrſt day ſhalbe a holy conuocation, and the ſeuenth day ſhalbe an holy conuocation vnto you: there ſhalbe no manner of worke donne in them, ſaue about that only whiche euery man muſt eate, that only may ye doo.

17 And ye ſhal obſerue the feaſt of vnleauened bread: for this ſame day haue I brought your armies out of the lande of Egypt: therfore ye ſhal obſerue this day, and al your children after you, by an euerlaſtyng decree.

18 The firſt mooneth, and the fourteenth day of the mooneth, at euen tide ye ſhal eate vnleauened bread, vnto the twentie and one day of the ſame mooneth at euen agayne.

19 Seuen dayes ſhal there be no leauened bread founde in your houſes: and whoſoeuer eateth leauened bread, that ſoule ſhalbe rooted out from the congregation of Iſrael, whether he be ſtraunger, or borne in the land. D

20 (e) Ye ſhal eate nothyng leauened: but in al your habitations ſhal ye eate vnleauened bread.

(e) By leauen is meant corruption, either of lyfe or of doctrine, of al ſuche to be eſchewed, as be partakers of the dreadful myſteries, as Mat. xvi. i. Cor. 5. Ga. 5

21 Moſes called for the elders of Iſrael, and ſayde vnto them, Chuſe out, and take you to euery houſholde of you a lambe, and kylle the paſſouer.

22 And take a bunche of hyſope, and dippe it in the blood, that is in the baſon, and ſtryke the vpper poſt of the doore, and the two ſyde poſtes, with the blood, that is in the baſon: and none of you goe out at the doore of his houſe vntyl the mornyng.

23 For the Lord wyl paſſe ouer, to ſmyte the Egyptians: and when he ſeeth the blood vpon the vpper doore poſt, & the two ſide poſtes, he wyl paſſe ouer the doore, & wyl not ſuffer the deſtroyer to comme into your houſe to plague you.

24 Therefore ſhal ye obſerue this thing for an ordinaunce to thee, & thy ſonnes for euer.

25 And when ye be comme to the lande whiche the Lorde wil geue you, accordyng as he hath promiſed, ye ſhal keepe this ſeruice.

26 And when your chyldren aſke you, what manner of ſeruice is this ye doo?

27 Ye ſhal ſay, It is the ſacrifice of the Lordes paſſouer, whiche paſſed ouer the houſes of the children of Iſrael in Egypt, and he ſmote the Egyptians, and ſaued our houſes. And the people bowed them ſelues, and worſhipped.

28 And the chyldren of Iſrael went, and dyd as the Lorde had commaunded Moſes and Aaron, euen ſo dyd they.

29 And at mydnyght the Lord ſmote the fyrſt borne in the lande of Egypt, from the fyrſt borne of Pharao, that ſate on his ſeate, vntyl the fyrſt borne of the captiue, that was in priſon, and al the fyrſt gendred of cattel.

The tenth plague.

30 And Pharao roſe in the nyght, he and his ſeruauntes, and al the Egyptians, and there was a great crye in Egypt: for there was not a houſe, where there was not one dead.

E 31 And he called vnto Moſes and Aaron by nyght, ſayeing, Ryſe vp, and geate you out from amongſt my people, both you, and alſo the chyldren of Iſrael: and goe, and ſerue the Lorde, as ye haue ſayde.

32 And take your ſheepe, and your droaues with you, as ye haue ſayde: and depart, and bleſſe me.

33 And the Egyptians were fierce vpon the people, that they myght ſende them out of the lande in haſte: for they ſayde, We be al [but] dead men.

34 And the people tooke there dowgh before it was ſowred, whiche they had in ſtoare, beyng bounde in clothes vpon theyr ſhoulders.

35 And the chyldren of Iſrael dyd accordyng to the ſayeing of Moſes: and they borowed of the Egyptians iewels of ſiluer, and iewels of golde, and rayment.

36 And the Lorde gaue the people fauour in the ſight of the Egyptians, ſo that they graũted ſuche thinges as they required: And they robbed the Egyptians.

F 37 (f) And the chyldren of Iſrael tooke theyr iourney from Rameſes to Suchoth, ſixe hundred thouſande menne of foote, beſyde chyldren.

38 And a great multitude of ſundry other nations went alſo with them, and ſheepe and oxen, and exceedyng muche cattel.

39 And they baked vnleauened cakes of the dowgh which they brought out of Egypt, for it was not ſowred: For they were thruſt out of Egypt, and coulde not tarrie, neyther had they prepared for them ſelues any prouiſion of meate.

40 The dwellyng of the chyldren of Iſrael which they dwelled in Egypt, was foure hundred and thirtie yeeres.

41 And when the foure hundred and thirtie yeeres were expired, euen the ſelfe ſame day departed al the hoaſtes of the Lorde out of the lande of Egypt.

42 It is a night to be obſerued vnto the Lord, in the whiche he brought them out of the lande of Egypt: This is that nyght of the Lorde, whiche al the chyldren of Iſrael muſt keepe throughout their generations.

43 And the Lorde ſayde vnto Moſes and Aaron, This is the lawe of paſſouer: there ſhal no ſtraunger eate thereof.

44 But euery ſeruaunt, that is bought for money, after that thou haſt circumciſed him, ſhal eate thereof. G

45 A ſtraunger and an hyred ſeruaunt ſhal not eate thereof.

46 In one houſe ſhal it be eaten, thou ſhalt carrie none of the fleaſhe out of the houſe, neither ſhal ye breake a bone thereof.

47 Al the congregation of Iſrael ſhal obſerue it.

48 If a ſtraunger alſo dwelle among you, & wyl holde paſſeouer vnto the Lord, let him circumciſe al that be males, and then let him comme, and obſerue it, and he ſhalbe as one that is borne in the lande: for no vncircumciſed perſon ſhal eate thereof.

49 One manner of lawe ſhalbe vnto hym that is borne in the land, and vnto the ſtraũger that dwelleth among you.

50 And al the chyldren of Iſrael dyd as the Lorde commaunded Moſes and Aaron, euen ſo dyd they.

51 And the ſelfe ſame day, dyd the Lord bring the chyldren of Iſrael out of the lande of Egypt with theyr armies.

(f) If they grewe ſo amongſt theyr enemies, beyng ſo ſmal a number at theyr fyrſt comming to Egypt, let vs alſo be of good hope, that god wyl encreaſe his Churche now likewyſe, be it neuer ſo muche oppreſſed.

The xiii. Chapter.

1 The fyrſt borne thynges muſt be ſanctified vnto God. 3 The remembraunce of the deliueraunce muſt be celebrate. 8 Chyldren muſt be taught that they were deliuered from the tyrannie of Pharao. 12 Al fyrſt borne thinges be Gods. 14 Chyldren muſt be taught why thinges fyrſt borne be ſeparate vnto the vſe of God. 17 Why the Lorde dyd leade about the chyldren of Egypt by the deſert. 19 Moſes caryeth the bones of Ioſeph. 21 The piller of cloude, and of fyre.

A 1 AND the Lorde (a) ſpake vnto Moſes, ſayeing,

2 (b) Sanctifie vnto me al the fyrſt borne, whatſoeuer openeth the wombe among the chyldren of Iſrael, aſwel of man as of beaſt, for it is myne.

3 (c) And Moſes ſaide vnto the people, Ye ought to remember this day, in whiche ye came out of Egypt, out of the houſe of "bondage: for through a myghty hande the Lord brought you from thence: there ſhal no leauened bread be eaten.

4 This day came ye out, in the mooneth (d) Abib.

5 When the Lorde hath brought thee into the lande of the Chanaanites, Hethites, Amorites,

(a) A lawe for the offring of the fyrſt begotten vnto god, who wer deliuered not from death only, but from bondage alſo. Sanctifie. That is, offer. (b) We alſo muſt offer our fyrſt borne vnto God, that is, our firſt and principal care, muſt tende to gods honour & aduauncement of his kyngdome, ſeeyng our deliueraunce farre paſſeth that of the Iewes. (c) If ſo many ceremonies were ordayned for a memorie of theyr deliueraunce: God alſo requireth nothyng more at our handes, then to be myndful of his benefites.

" Seruauntes.

(d) This was about April, when corne beganne to rypen in that countrey.

Amorites, Heuites, and Iebuſites, whiche he ſware vnto thy fathers, that he woulde geue thee, a lande wherin mylke & hony floweth: thou ſhalt keepe this ſeruice in this ſame mooneth.

6 Seuen dayes thou ſhalt eate vnleauened bread, and in the ſeuenth day it is the feaſt of the Lorde.

B 7 Unleauened bread ſhalbe eaten ſeuen daies, and there ſhal no leauened bread be ſeene, nor yet eaten with thee in al thy quarters.

8 (e) And thou ſhalt ſhewe thy ſonne in that day, ſayeing, This is donne, becauſe of that whiche the Lorde dyd vnto me, when I came out of Egypt.

(e) God wylleth the cauſe of the ceremony to be vttered at the celebration therof.

9 (f) And it ſhalbe as a ſigne vnto thee vpon thyne hande, and as a remembraunce betweene thine eyes, that the Lordes law may be in thy mouth: for in a ſtrong hande the Lorde brought thee out of Egypt.

(f) Sacramentes make to this purpoſe: That Gods worde myght be the more deepely rooted in our hartes, ſo that thence myght flowe a ſincere confeſſion of the mouth.

10 Keepe therefore this ordinaunce in his ſeaſon from yeere to yeere.

11 And it wyl come to paſſe, that the Lorde ſhal bryng the lande of the Chanaanites, whiche he ſware vnto thee, and to thy fathers, and ſhal geue it thee.

12 And then thou ſhalt appoynt vnto the Lord al that openeth the matrice, and euery firſtlyng, that commeth of a beaſt, whiche thou haſt: yf it be a male, it ſhalbe the Lordes.

13 And euery firſtlyng of an Aſſe, thou ſhalt redeeme with a lambe: yf thou redeeme hym not, thou ſhalt breake hys necke: Al the firſt borne amongeſt thy chyldren alſo ſhalt thou bye out.

C 14 And when thy ſonne ſhal aſke thee in time to " comme, ſayeing, What is this? Thou ſhalt ſaye vnto hym, With a mighty hande the Lorde brought vs out of Egypt, out of the houſe of bondage.

" to morowe.

15 And when Pharao was very lothe to let vs goe, the Lorde ſlewe al the firſt borne in the lande of Egypt, aſwel the firſt borne of man, as the firſtlyng of beaſt: Therefore I ſacrifice vnto the Lorde al the males, that open the matrice: but al the firſt borne of my chyldren, I redeeme.

16 This ſhalbe as a token vpon thyne hand, and as a remembraunce betweene thyne eyes, that the Lorde brought vs out of Egypt through a myghty hande.

17 It came to paſſe, that when Pharao had let the people goe, God caryed them not through the way of the lande of the Philiſtines, whiche was the more nygh waye. D But God ſayde, Leſt peraduenture the people (g) repent, when they ſee warre, and ſo turne agayne to Egypt.

(g) Repent this worde declareth the great weakenes of the Iſraelites, for al the woonders that were wrought.

18 But God led the people about through the way of the wyldernesſe of the redde ſea, and the chyldren of Iſrael went vp " harneſſed out of the land of Egypt.

" By fyue in a rancke.

19 And Moſes tooke the bones of Ioſeph with him: for he made the children of Iſrael ſweare, ſayeing, God wyl ſurely viſite you, and ye ſhal take my bones away hence with you.

20 And they tooke their iourney from Sucoth, and abode in Etham, in the edge of the wyldernesſe.

21 And the Lorde went before them by day in a pyller of a cloude to leade them the way, & by nyght in a pyller of fire to geue thē light, that they myght goe both by day & nyght.

22 (h) The pyller of the cloude departed not by daye, nor the pyller of fire by nyght, out of the ſight of the people.

(h) God neuer fayleth his people, whō he aydeth beyonde the compaſſe of mans reaſon, euen in their moſt deſperate caſe.

The.xiiii.Chapter.

1 God commaundeth the Iſraelites, to pitche their pauilions in a daungerous place, that he may be the more glorified. 4 God hardeneth the hart of Pharao. 5 Pharao purſueth Iſrael. 10 The Iſraelites diſpayring of deliueraunce, doo grudge. 13 Moſes promiſeth them their ſafetie by god. 15 Moſes crying to god, is commaunded to diuide the ſea with his rodde. 19 The angel folowyng the tentes of Iſrael, they paſſe through the myddes of the ſea. 24 God drowneth Pharao with his armie. 31 The Iſraelites doo feare God, when they ſee the miracle.

A 1 AND the Lorde ſpake vnto Moſes, ſayeing,

2 Speake to the chyldren of Iſrael, that they turne and pitche their tentes before Pi-hahiroth betwene Migdol & the ſea, ouer agaynſt Baal-ſephon, and before that ſhal they pitche by the ſea.

3 For Pharao wyl ſay of the chyldren of Iſrael, They are tangled in the lande, the wyldernesſe hath ſhut them in.

4 And I wyl harden Pharaoes hart, that he ſhal folowe after you, and I wil geate me honour vpon Pharao, & vpon al his hoaſt: The Egyptians alſo ſhal knowe that I am the Lorde. And they dyd euen ſo.

5 And it was tolde the kyng of Egypt, that the people fledde. And the hart of Pharao and of hys ſeruauntes turned agaynſt the people, and they ſaid, Why haue we donne this, that we haue let Iſrael goe out of our ſeruice?

6 And he made ready his charette, and tooke his people with hym.

7 And tooke ſixe hundred choſen charets, and al the charets of Egypt, and capitaines vpon euery one of them.

8 And the Lord hardened the hart of Pharao kyng of Egypt, and he folowed after the chyldren of Iſrael: but the children of Iſrael went out with an hye hande.

9 And the Egyptians folowed after them, & al the horſes and charets of Pharao, and his horſemen, and his hoaſt ouertoke them pytching of their tent by the ſea, beſide Pi-hahiroth before Baal-ſephon.

10 And when Pharao drewe nygh, the chyldren of Iſrael lift vp their eyes, and beholde, the Egyptians folowed after them, and they were ſore afrayde: and the chyldren of Iſrael cryed out vnto the Lorde.

11 But they ſayde vnto Moſes, [a] Becauſe there were no graues in Egypt, haſt thou therefore brought vs away for to dye in the wyldernesse? Wherefore haſt thou ſerued vs thus, for to carrie vs out of Egypt?

12 Dyd not we telle thee this in Egypt, ſayeing, Let vs be in reaſt, that we maye ſerue the Egyptians? For it had benne better for vs to haue ſerued the Egyptians, then for to dye in the wyldernesse.

13 [b] And Moſes ſayde vnto the people, Feare ye not, ſtande ſtyl, and beholde the ſaluation of the Lord, whiche he wyl ſhewe to you this day: For ye that haue ſeene the Egyptians this day, ſhal ſee them no more for euer.

14 [c] The Lorde ſhal fyght for you, and ye ſhal holde your peace.

15 And the Lorde ſayd vnto Moſes, Wherefore [d] cryeſt thou vnto me? ſpeake vnto the chyldren of Iſrael, that they goe forewarde.

16 But lyft thou vp thy rod, and ſtretche out thy hand ouer the ſea, and diuide it a ſunder, and let the children of Iſrael goe on drye grounde through the middes of the ſea.

17 And beholde I [euen] I wyl harden the hart of the Egyptians, and they ſhal folowe after them: and I wyl geate me honour vpon Pharao, and vpon al his hoaſt, and vpon his charets, and vpon his horſemen.

18 [e] And the Egyptians ſhal know, that I am the Lord, when I haue gotten me honour vpon Pharao, vpon his charets, and vpon his horſemen.

19 [f] And the angel of God whiche went before the hoaſt of Iſrael, remoued and went behynde them: and the pyller of the cloude went from before their face, and ſtoode behynde them,

20 And came betweene the tentes of the Egyptians, and the tentes of Iſrael, and it was a cloude and darkneſſe, and gaue lyght by nyght: and al the nyght long the one came not at the other.

21 And Moſes ſtretched out his hande ouer the ſea, and the Lorde cauſed the ſea to goe backe by a very ſtrong eaſt wynde al that nyght, and made the ſea drye [lande] and the waters were diuided. D

22 [g] And the children of Iſrael went into the mideſt of the ſea vpon the drye [grounde,] and the waters were a wall vnto them on the ryght hande, and on their left hande,

23 And the Egyptians folowed, and went in after them [h] to the mideſt of the ſea, euen al Pharaoes horſes, his charets, and his horſemen.

24 [i] And in the mornyng watche, the Lord loked vnto the hoaſt of the Egyptians out of the pyller of the fire, and of the cloude, and troubled the hoaſt of the Egyptians,

25 [k] And tooke of his charet wheeles, and caryed them away violently: So that the Egyptians ſayde, [l] Let vs flee from the face of Iſrael, for the Lord fygheth for them agaynſt the Egyptians.

26 And the Lord ſaid vnto Moſes, Stretche out thyne hand ouer the ſea, that the waters may comme agayne vpon the Egyptians, vpon their charets, & vpon their horſemen.

27 And Moſes ſtretched foorth his hande ouer the ſea, and it came agayne to his courſe early in the mornyng, and the Egyptians fled againſt it: and the Lord ouerthrewe the Egyptians in the middeſt of the ſea.

28 And the water returned, and couered the charets, and the horſemen, and al the hoaſt of Pharao that came into the ſea after them, ſo that there remayned not one of them.

29 But the children of Iſrael walked vpon drye [lande] through the middeſt of the ſea, and the waters were a wall vnto them on the ryght hande of them, and on the left.

30 Thus the Lorde deliuered Iſrael the ſelfe ſame day out of the hande of the Egyptians: and Iſrael ſawe the Egyptians dead vpon the ſea ſyde.

31 [m] And Iſrael ſawe that myghtye power whiche the Lorde ſhewed vpon the Egyptians: And the people feared the Lorde, and beleued the Lorde, and his ſeruaunt Moſes.

The.xv.Chapter.

1 Moſes and the Iſraelites doo geue thankes to God for their conqueſt. 26 God muſt be hearkened vnto. 26 Sicknes. God the healer. 27 They comme into Elim.

A 1 Then Moſes and the chyldren of Iſrael ſange this ſonge vnto the Lord, and ſayde (a) on this manner, I wyl ſing vnto the lord, for he hath triumphed glorioſly: the horſe and hym that rode vpon hym, hath he ouerthrowen in the ſea.

2 The Lorde is my ſtrength and prayſe, and he is becomme my ſaluation: he is my God, and I wyl glorifie hym, my fathers God: and I wyl exalt hym.

3 (b) The Lord is a man of warre, the Lord is his name.

4 Pharaoes charets, and his hoaſt hath he caſt into the ſea: his choſen captaynes alſo are drowned in the red ſea.

5 The deepe waters haue couered them: they ſunke to the bottome as a ſtone.

6 Thy ryght hande Lorde is becomme glorious in power, thy ryght hande Lorde hath al to daſhed the enimie.

7 And in thy great glorie thou haſt ouerthrowen them that roſe vp agaynſt thee: thou ſendeſt foorth thy wrath, whiche conſumed them euen as ſtubble.

B 8 Through the wynde of thy noſethrilles the water geathered togeather, the fluddes ſtood ſtyl as an heape, and the deepe water congeled togeather in the hart of the ſea.

9 (c) The enimie ſayd, I wyl folow [on them] I wyl ouertake [them] I wyl diuide the ſpoyle, & my luſt ſhalbe ſatiſfied vpon them: I wyl drawe my ſworde, myne hande ſhal deſtroy them.

10 Thou diddeſt blowe with thy wynde, the ſea couered them, they ſanke as leade in the mighty waters.

11 Who is lyke vnto thee, O Lord, amongeſt the Gods? Who is lyke thee, ſo glorious in holyneſſe, fearful in prayſes, ſhewyng woonders.

12 Thou ſtretchedſt out thy ryght hande, the earth ſwalowed them.

13 Thou in thy mercie haſt caried this people whiche thou haſt redeemed, & haſt brought them in thy ſtrength vnto thy holy habitation.

14 (d) The nations ſhal heare, and be afraide, ſorowe ſhal comme vpon Paleſtina.

15 Then the dukes of the Edomites ſhalbe amazed, and the myghtyeſt of the Moabites tremblyng ſhal comme vpon them, al the inhabiters of Chanaan ſhal waxe faint harted.

16 Feare and dread ſhal fal vpon them, in the greatneſſe of thyne arme they ſhalbe as ſtyl as a ſtone, tyl thy people paſſe through, O Lorde, tyl this people paſſe through, whiche thou haſt gotten.

17 Thou ſhalt bring them in, and plant them in the mountayne of thyne inheritaunce, the place Lorde whiche thou haſt made for to dwel in, the ſanctuary, O Lorde, whiche thy handes haue prepared.

18 (e) The Lorde ſhal raigne for euer and euer.

19 For Pharao on horſebacke went in with his charettes and horſemen into the ſea, and the Lord brought the waters of the ſea vpon them: But the children of Iſrael went on dry [land] in the middeſt of the ſea.

20 And Miriam a prophetiſſe, the ſyſter of Aaron, tooke a tymbrel in her hande, and al the women came out after her, with tymbrelles and daunces.

21 And Miriam ſang before them: Syng ye vnto the Lorde, for he hath triumphed glorioſly: the horſe and his ryder hath he ouerthrowen in the ſea.

22 And ſo Moſes brought Iſrael from the red ſea, and they went out into the wylderneſſe of Sur: and they went three dayes long in the wylderneſſe, and founde no waters.

23 And when they came to Marah, they could not drynke of the waters of Marah, for they were bytter, therefore the name of the place was called Marah.

24 (f) And the people murmured agaynſt Moſes, ſayeing, What ſhal we drynke?

25 And he cryed vnto the Lord, and the Lord ſhewed “hym a tree, (g) whiche when he had caſt into the waters, the waters were made ſweete: There he made them an ordinaunce and a lawe, and there (h) he proued hym,

26 And ſayde, If thou (i) wylt hearken vnto the voyce of the Lorde thy God, and wylt doo that whiche is ryght in his ſyght, and wilt geue eare vnto his commaundements, and keepe al his ordinaunces: then wyl I put none of theſe diſeaſes vpon thee, whiche I haue brought vpon the Egyptians: For I am the Lorde that healeth thee.

27 And the chyldren of Iſrael came to Elim, where were twelue welles of water, and threeſcore and ten palme trees: and they pitched their tentes there by the waters.

The.xvi.Chapter.

1 They comme into the deſart of Sin. 3 They murmure for foode. 8 He grudgeth agaynſt God, who grudgeth agaynſt his miniſters. 10 God ſpeaketh to Moſes in a cloude. 13 It rayneth quayles and Manna. 20 Manna beyng kept dooth ſtynke and rotte. 22 On the Sabboth it was not lawful ſo muche as to dreſſe meate. 25 In the Sabboth God rayneth not Manna. 28 God rebuketh the Iſraelites, becauſe they kept not the Sabboth. 32 Manna is reſerued for a teſtimonie vnto their ſucceſſours. 36 Gomor, Ephi.

A 1 AND they tooke their iourney from Elim: and al the congregation of the chyldren of Iſrael came to the wyldernesſe of Sin, whiche is betweene Elim & Sinai, the fyfteenth day of the ſeconde moneth after their departyng out of the lande of Egypt.

2 And the whole congregation of the children of Iſrael murmured agaynſt Moſes and Aaron in the wyldernesſe.

3 And the children of Iſrael ſayde vnto them, Woulde God we had dyed by the hande of the Lorde in the lande of Egypt, when we ſate by the fleaſhe pottes, and when we dyd eate bread our bellyes ful: for ye haue brought vs out into this wildernes, to kyl this whole multitude with hunger.

4 Then ſayde the Lorde vnto Moſes, Beholde, I (a) wyl rayne bread from heauen to you, and the people ſhal goe out and geather a certayne rate euery day, that I may proue them, whether they wyl walke in my lawe, or no.

5 (b) The ſixth day they ſhal prepare for them ſelues, that whiche they wyl bryng in, and let it be twyſe as muche as they geather in daily.

6 And Moſes and Aaron ſayde vnto the children of Iſrael, At euentide ye ſhal know that it is the Lord, whiche brought you out of the lande of Egypt.

B 7 And in the mornyng ye ſhal ſee the glorie of the Lorde, becauſe he hath hearde your grudgynges agaynſt the Lorde: And what are we, that ye haue murmured agaynſt vs?

8 And Moſes ſayd, At euentide ſhal the Lord geue you fleaſhe to eate, and in the mornyng bread yenough: for the Lorde hath hearde your murmurynges, whiche ye murmure agaynſt hym: for what are we? Your murmurynges are not agaynſt vs, but agaynſt the Lorde.

9 And Moſes ſpake vnto Aaron, Say vnto al the congregation of the chyldren of Iſrael, Comme foorth before the Lorde: for he hath hearde your grudgynges.

10 And as Aaron ſpake vnto the whole congregation of the chyldren of Iſrael, they looked toward the wyldernesſe, and beholde, the glorie of the Lorde appeared in the cloude.

11 And the Lord ſpake vnto Moſes, ſayeing,

12 I haue hearde the murmurynges of the chyldren of Iſrael: telle them therefore and ſay, At euentide ye ſhal eate fleaſhe, and in the mornyng ye ſhalbe fylled with bread, (c) and ye ſhal knowe that I am the Lorde your God.

13 And at euen the quayles came vp, and couered the tentes, and in the mornyng the dew lay rounde about them.

14 And when the dewe was gonne, behold, vpon the grounde in the wyldernesſe, there lay a ſmal round thyng, as ſmal as the hoare froſt, on the grounde.

15 And when the chyldren of Iſrael ſawe it, they ſayde euery one to his neyghbour, It is “Manna: for they wiſt not what it was. And Moſes ſayde vnto them, This is the bread, whiche the Lorde hath geuen you to eate.

16 This is the worde whiche the Lorde hath commaunded: (d) geather of it euery man for hym ſelfe for to eate, a gomer ful for euery man, according to the number of your ſoules, and take euery man for them, whiche are in his tentes.

17 And the chyldren of Iſrael did euen ſo, and geathered ſomme more, ſomme leſſe.

18 And when they dyd meate it with a gomer, vnto hym that geathered muche, remayned nothyng ouer, and vnto hym that had geathered litle, was there no lacke: euery man geathered ſufficient for his eating.

19 And Moſes ſayde vnto them, (e) See that no man let ought remayne to the mornyng.

20 Notwithſtanding, (f) they hearkened not to Moſes: but ſomme of them leaſt of it vntyl the mornyng, and it wared (g) ful of woormes, and corrupted: and Moſes was angry with them.

21 And they geathered euery mornyng, euery man as muche as ſuffiſed for his eatyng: and aſſoone as the heate of the ſunne came, it moulded awaie.

22 And the ſixth day they geathered twyſe as muche bread, two gomers for one man: and al the rulers of the congregation came and tolde Moſes.

23 He ſayde vnto them, This is that whiche the Lorde hath ſayde, To morowe is the reaſt of the holy ſabboth vnto the Lorde, bake that whiche ye wyl bake to day, and ſeethe that ye wyl ſeethe, and that whiche remayneth, lay vp tyl the mornyng.

24 (h) And they layde it vp tyl the mornyng as Moſes bad: and it dyd not corrupt, neither bred there any woorme therin.

25 And Moſes ſayde, Eate that to day, for it is the ſabboth vnto the Lorde, to day ye ſhal not finde it in the fielde.

26 Sixe dayes ye ſhal geather it, and in the ſeuenth day, whiche is the ſabboth, in it there ſhalbe none.

27 (i) Notwithſtandyng, there went out ſomme of the people in the ſeuenth day for to geather, and they founde none.

28 And the Lorde ſayde vnto Moſes, Howe (k) long refuſe ye to keepe my commaundementes, and my lawes.

29 See, the Lorde hath geuen you a ſabboth: therfore he geueth you the ſixth day, bread for two dayes, abyde therefore euery man at home, and let no man goe out of his place the ſeuenth day.

30 And the people reſted the ſeuenth day.

31 And the houſe of Iſrael called the name thereof (l) Manna: and it was lyke Coriander ſeede, but yet white, and the taſt of it was lyke wafers made with hony.

32 And Moſes ſayde, This is that whiche the Lorde commaundeth, fille a gomer of it, whiche may be kept for your chyldren after you, that they may ſee the bread wherewith I haue fedde you in the wylderneſſe, when I brought you out of the lande of Egypt.

33 And Moſes ſpake vnto Aaron, Take a pot, and put a gomer ful of Manna therein, and lay it vp before the Lorde, to be kept for your chyldren after you.

34 As the Lorde commaunded Moſes, ſo Aaron layde it vp before the teſtimonie to be kept.

A 1 AND al the congregation of the chyldren of Iſrael went on their iourneyes from the wylderneſſe of Sin, after the commaundement of the Lord, & pitched in Raphidim, there was no water for the people to drynke.

2 (a) And the people dyd chyde with Moſes, and ſayde, Geue vs water to drynke. Moſes ſayde vnto them, Why chyde you with me? Wherefore doo you tempt the Lorde?

3 There the people thirſted for water, and the people murmured agaynſt Moſes, and ſayde, Wherefore haſt thou thus brought vs vp out of Egypt, to kyl me, and my children, and my cattel with thirſt?

4 And Moſes cryed vnto the Lord, ſayeing, What ſhal I doo vnto this people, they be almoſt ready to ſtone me?

5 And the Lorde ſayde vnto Moſes, Goe before the people, and take with thee of the elders of Iſrael, and thy rodde wherewith thou ſmoteſt the ryuer, take in thyne hande, and goe.

6 Beholde I ſtand before thee vpon the rocke that is in Horeb, and thou ſhalt ſmyte the rocke, and there ſhal comme water out thereof, that the people may drynke. And Moſes dyd euen ſo before the eyes of the elders of Iſrael.

7 And he called the name of the place (b) Maſſah, and Meribath, becauſe of the chydyng of the children of Iſrael, and becauſe they tempted the Lorde, ſaying, Is the Lorde amongſt vs, or not?

10 Ioſua dyd as Moſes badde hym, and fought with Amelec: and Moſes and Aaron, and Hur went vp to the toppe of the hyl.

11 And it came to paſſe, that when Moſes helde vp his hande, (c) Iſrael had the better: and when he let his hande downe, Amelec had the better.

15 And Moſes made an aulter, and called the name of it: " The Lorde is he, that worketh miracles for me.

The.xviii.Chapter.

1 Iethro commeth to ſee Moſes, and the wyfe and chyldren of Moſes. 8 Moſes declareth the delyueraunce of the chyldren of Iſrael to his father in lawe. 10 Iethro confeſſyng the God of Iſrael, offereth ſacrifice. 15 To ſeeke God. 16 Moſes appoynteth other iudges with hym, and what manner ones they be.

A 1 IEthro the prieſt of Madian, Moſes father in law, heard of al that God had donne for Moſes, & for Iſrael his people, and that the lord had brought Iſrael out of Egypt.

2 Therefore he tooke Sephora Moſes wife, after he had ſent her backe,

3 And her two ſonnes, of whiche the one was called Gerſhom: for he ſayde, I haue benne an aliaunt in a ſtraunge lande:

4 The name of the other was Eliezer: for the God of my father [ſayde he] was myne help, and deliuered me from the ſword of Pharao.

5 And Iethro Moſes father in lawe, came with his two ſonnes, and his wyfe, vnto Moſes into the wyldernesſe, where he abode by the mount of God.

6 And he ſayde vnto Moſes, I thy father in law Iethro am comme to thee, and thy wife alſo, and her two ſonnes with her.

B 7 And Moſes went out to meete his father in law, and dyd obeyſaunce, and kiſſed him: and eche aſked other of his " health, and they came into the tent.

" Peace

8 And Moſes tolde his father in lawe, al that the Lorde had donne vnto Pharao, and to the Egyptians for Iſraels ſake, and al the trauaile that had " comme vpon them by the way, and howe the Lorde delyuered them.

" Had founde them.

9 And Iethro reioyced ouer al the goodneſſe, whiche the Lorde had donne to Iſrael, and becauſe he had deliuered them out of the handes of the Egyptians.

10 And Iethro ſayde, Bleſſed be the Lorde whiche hath delyuered you out of the hande of the Egyptians, and out of the hande of Pharao, whiche hath alſo deliuered his people from the captiuitie of the Egyptians.

11 Nowe I knowe, that the Lorde is greater then al Gods: for in the thyng whereby they dealt cruelly with them, were they deſtroyed them ſelues.

12 And Iethro Moſes father in lawe, tooke burnt offerynges, and ſacrifices, to offer to God: And Aaron and al the elders of Iſrael came to eate bread with Moſes father in lawe, before God.

13 And on the morowe Moſes ſate to iudge the people: and the people ſtoode about Moſes from mornyng vnto euen.

14 And when Moſes father in lawe ſawe al that he dyd vnto the people, he ſayde, What is this, that thou dooeſt vnto the people? Why ſitteſt thou thy ſelfe alone, and al the people ſtande about thee from mornyng vnto euen. C

15 And Moſes ſayde vnto his father in lawe, Becauſe the people comme vnto me to ſeeke the counſel of God.

16 When they haue a matter, they comme vnto me, and I iudge betweene euery man and his neyghbour, and ſhewe them the ordinaunces of God, and his lawes.

17 And Moſes father in law ſayd vnto hym, It is not wel that thou dooeſt.

18 Thou both wearieſt thee ſelfe, and this people that is with thee: For this thyng is of more weight, then thou art able to perfourme thee ſelfe alone.

19 Heare therefore nowe my voyce, and I wil geue thee counſel, and God ſhalbe with thee: Be thou vnto the people to Godwarde, that thou mayeſt bryng the cauſes vnto God.

20 And thou ſhalt teache them ordinaunces and lawes, and ſhewe them the way wherein they muſt walke, and the worke that they muſt doo.

21 Moreouer, thou ſhalt ſeeke out among al the people, menne of actiuitie [and] ſuche as feare God, true menne, hating couetouſneſſe, D and place [of theſe] ouer the [people] rulers of thouſandes, rulers of hundredes, rulers of fyfties, and rulers of tennes.

22 (a) And let them iudge the people at al ſeaſons: and euery great matter that commeth, let them bryng vnto thee, but let them iudge al ſmal cauſes them ſelues, and ſo ſhal it be eaſyer for thee ſelfe, and they ſhal beare a [burthen] with thee.

23 If thou ſhalt doo this thyng, and God charge thee withal, thou ſhalt be able to endure, and yet the people ſhal comme to their place in peace.

(a) Iethroes modeſtie of the godly is to be embraced. For true wiſedome teacheth vs, not to aſcribe to muche to our ſelues, but to ſubmit al our wiſdome, forecaſt and prouidence, vnto God.

24 (b) And ſo Moſes obeyed the voyce of his father in lawe, and dyd al that he had ſayde.

25 And Moſes choſe actiue menne out of al Iſrael, and made them as heades ouer the people, namely, rulers of thouſandes, rulers of hundredes, rulers of fifties, and rulers of tennes, 26 And they iudged the people at al ſeaſons: but brought the harde cauſes vnto Moſes, and iudged al ſmal matters them ſelues.

27 And Moſes let his father in lawe departe: and he went into his owne lande.

(b) Though Iethro were not to be compared, yet Moſes foloweth his counſel. So we alſo muſt folowe wholeſome inſtructions, whoſoeuer putteth them in our mynde.

The.xix.Chapter.

1 They comme to mount Sinai. 5 The people of Iſrael, the people of God. 6 A prieſtly kingdome, an holy nation. 7 Moſes declareth the woorde of God. 9 God woulde that credite ſhoulde be geuen to Moſes woordes. 10 The people is commaunded to be ſanctified. 12. He that toucheth the mountayne, is ſtoned. 14. The people is ſanctified. 16. God appeareth in thunder and lightning, to be feared of the people. 22 The prieſtes are ſanctified. 24 The people and prieſtes may not touche the hyll.

A 1 IN* the thirde moneth when the children of Iſrael were gonne oute of the lande of Egypt, (a) the ſame day came they into the wyldernesse of Sinai.

2 For they were departed from Raphidim, and were comme to the deſert of Sinai, and had pitched their tentes in the wyldernesſe, and there Iſrael camped before the mounte.

3 But Moſes went vp vnto God, and the Lorde called vnto hym out of the mountayne, ſayeing, Thus ſhalt thou (b) ſay vnto the houſe of Iacob, and tel the chyldren of Iſrael,

4 Ye haue (c) ſeene, what I did vnto the Egyptians, and tooke you vp vpon (d) Eagles wynges, and haue brought you vnto mee ſelfe.

5 Now therefore yf ye wyl heare my voyce in deede, and keepe my couenaunt, ye ſhal be [as] a deare " treaſure vnto me aboue al nations: (e) for al the earth is myne.

6 Ye ſhalbe vnto me alſo a (f) kingdome of prieſtes, and an holy people: And theſe are the wordes whiche thou ſhalt ſay vnto the children of Iſrael.

7 Moſes came and called for the Elders of the people, and layde before their faces al theſe woordes, which the Lord commaunded hym.

8 And the people aunſweared altogeather, and ſayde, (g) Al that the Lorde hath ſayde, we wyl doo. And Moſes brought the woordes of the people vnto the Lord.

9 And the Lorde ſayde vnto Moſes, Loe I comme vnto thee in a thicke cloude, (h) that the people maye heare me talkyng with thee, and beleue thee for euer. Moſes ſhewed the woordes of the people vnto the Lorde.

10 And the Lorde ſayde vnto Moſes, Goe vnto the people, and (i) ſanctifie them to day and to morowe, and let them (k) waſhe their clothes.

11 And be ready agaynſt the thirde day, for the thirde daye " the Lorde wyl comme downe in the ſight of al people vpon mount Sinai.

12 (l) And thou ſhalt ſet boundes vnto the people round about, & ſay, Take heede to your ſelues that ye goe not vp into the mount, or touche the border of it: whoſoeuer toucheth the mount, ſhal ſurely dye.

13 There ſhall not an hande touche it, els he ſhalbe ſtoned, or ſhot through: whether it be beaſt, or man, it ſhal not liue: when the " trumpet bloweth long, then may they comme vp into the mountayne.

14 And Moſes went downe from the mount vnto the people, and ſanctified them, and they waſhed their clothes.

17 And Moſes brought the people out of the tentes to meete with God, and they ſtoode at the neather part of the hil.

18 And mount Sinai was altogeather on a ſmoke, becauſe the Lorde deſcended downe vpon it in fyre, and the ſmoke thereof aſcended vp as the ſmoke of a furnace, and al the mount quaked exceedingly.

19 And when the voyce of the trumpet blewe long, and waxed louder and louder, Moſes ſpake, and God aunſweared hym by a voyce.

20 And the Lorde [n] came downe vpon mount Sinai, euen in the top of the hil: and when the Lord called Moſes vp into the top of the hil, Moſes went vp.

[n] God is ſayde to diſcende, becauſe he ſheweth him ſelfe to vs in more ample manner, and geueth manifeſt tokens of his preſence.

22 And let the prieſtes alſo whiche comme to the Lord, ſanctifie them ſelues, leſt the Lord deſtroy them.

24 And the Lorde ſayde vnto him, Away, and geate thee downe, and thou ſhalt comme vp, thou and Aaron with thee: but let not the [q] prieſtes and the people preſume for to comme vp vnto the lord, leſt he deſtroy them.

[q] The prieſtes them ſelues muſt kepe thē within their boundes, who as they paſſe other in dignitie, ſo muſt they geue thē example of ſober lyfe.

16 Thou ſhalt not (v) beare falſe witneſſe agaynſt thy neyghbour.

17 Thou ſhalt not (x) couet thy neyghbours houſe, neyther ſhalt thou couet thy neyghbours wyfe, nor his man ſeruaunt, nor his mayde, nor his oxe, nor his aſſe, nor whatſoeuer thy neyghbour hath.

18 And (y) al the people ſaw the (z) thunder and lightning, & the noyſe of the trumpet, and the mountayne ſmoking: And when the people ſawe it, they remoued, and ſtoode a farre of:

19 And ſaid vnto Moſes, (aa) Talke thou with vs, and we wyl heare: But let not God talke with vs, leſt we dye.

20 And Moſes ſayde vnto the people, Feare not, for God is comme to proue you, and that his feare may be before your eyes, that ye (bb) ſinne not.

(s) And herewith the outwarde acte, the inwarde affection, with al that proceedeth thereof is condemned.

(t) We muſt withdrawe both our handes, our eyes, & our myndes from another mans good. And here al auarice and vnlawful gaynes is diſproued.

(v) Herein cauilles, wrong accuſations, briefly, al falſe language to our neyghbours hinderaunce, is excluded.

(x) There be three degrees in treſpaſſing to be conſydered: the appetite or inclination to euil, the conſent, and the acte, or ful execution of the conſent. The two latter perteyne to the former preceptes. The firſt, that is, naughtie appetite, in this place is condemned. (y) God gaue his commaundementes in open ſight, that no offender myght be excuſed. (z) This terrour that affrayed the people: declareth the office of the lawe: whiche, our weakeneſſe conſydered, can doo nothing but touche vs with extreme horrour, and driue vs to ſeeke that in Chriſte, whiche we want in our ſelues. (aa) Herein therefore God beareth with our frayleneſſe, that ſeeyng we can not abyde to heare hym our ſelues, vſeth the miniſterie of man, for a meane to teſtifie vnto vs his wil. (bb) For nothyng ſo muche frayeth vs from ſinne, as a true and inwarde feelyng of Gods mercie.

21 And the people (cc) ſtoode a farre of: and Moſes went into the (dd) thicke cloude where God was.

22 And the Lorde ſayde vnto Moſes, Thus thou ſhalt ſay vnto the chyldren of Iſrael, Ye haue ſeene that (ee) I haue talked with you from out of heauen.

23 Ye ſhal not make therefore (ff) with me goddes of ſiluer, neyther ſhal ye make ye goddes of golde.

24 (gg) An aulter of earth thou ſhalt make vnto me, and thereon offer thy burnt offeringes, and thy peace offeryngs, thy ſheepe, & thyne oxen: In al places where I ſhal put the remembraunce of my name, thyther I wyl comme vnto thee, and bleſſe thee.

25 And if thou wylt make me an aulter of ſtone, ſee thou make it not of hewen ſtone: els if thou lift vp thy toole vpon it, thou haſt poluted it.

26 Neyther ſhalt thou goe vp by ſteppes vnto myne aulter, that thy (hh) " ſhame be not ſhewed thereon.

(cc) When we once throughly taſte what God is, we can moderate our ſelues of our owne accorde.

(dd) This thicke cloude declareth the incomprehenſible maieſtie, of god, whiche Moſes entering, ſaw God after a ſort, yet not in his bare eſſence.

(ee) This is ſayd, that they myght be attentiue to Gods worde, & not imagine of hym after any earthly manner as appeareth Deut. 4. and by that, that is inferred hereupon.

(ff) They that erecte images, ioyne other gods in felowſhyp with the almighty. For ẏ ſcripture after ẏ phraſe of the people, calleth images Gods.

(gg) whiles the Iſraelites were on their way, God woulde haue one aulter in one place, that myght quickly decay, or be deſtroyed, leſt many aulters might haue cauſed many religions, and beyng leaſt to other, it might haue brought ſuperſtition. (hh) With holineſſe and deuotion, the chiefeſt thing in Gods ſeruice, honeſtie and comlineſſe muſt be ioyned.

The.xxi.Chapter.

2 Of byeing of bondmen. 7 A daughter ſolde for a bondwoman. 12 Manſlaughter. 15 A ſtriker of parentes. 16 Theft. 17 A ſlaunderer of his father. 18 Brawlers. 20 He that ſmyteth his bondman. 22 He that ſtriketh a woman with chylde. 24 The puniſhment of lyke for lyke. 26 He that pulleth out an eye, or ſtriketh out a tooth of bondmen. 28 A puſhing oxe. 33 He that diggeth a pitte whereinto an oxe falleth. 35 An oxe kylling another.

A 1 These (a) are the lawes whiche thou ſhalt ſet before them.

2 * If thou bye a ſeruaunt that is an Hebrue, ſyxe yeeres he ſhal ſerue, and in the ſeuenth, he ſhal goe out free [paying] nothyng.

3 If he came alone, he ſhal goe out alone: and if he came maried, his wife ſhal goe out with hym.

4 (b) And if his maiſter haue geuen hym a wyfe, and ſhe haue borne hym ſonnes or daughters: then the wyfe and her chyldren ſhalbe her maiſters, & he ſhal goe out alone.

5 And yf the ſeruaunt ſay: I loue my maiſter, my wyfe, and my children, I wil not goe out free:

6 (c) His maiſter ſhal bryng hym vnto the iudges, and ſet hym to the doore or the doorepoſt, and his maiſter ſhal bore his eare through with a nalle, and he ſhalbe his ſeruaunt (d) for euer.

(a) That is, the ſixth partition of this booke after the Hebrues, called the iudicial part, that is, orders taken for the diſſoluyng of controuerſies.

Deut.xv.

(b) Albeit god made this law for defenſe of libertie, yet ſo would he haue it kept, that the maiſter myght not be endammaged: for we muſte not doo good to one, with anothers harme.

(c) This myght be donne for two cauſes: firſt, leſt the maiſters ſhoulde reteyne their ſeruauntes at their owne pleaſure, and that al men might knowe that they continued bondemen of their owne accorde. Secondly that many takyng bondage in good part, might feare the lyke reproche, and the more ſet by their libertie.

7 And if a man ſelle his daughter to be a ſeruaunt, ſhe ſhal not goe out as the menne ſeruauntes doo.

8 If ſhe pleaſe not her maiſter, who hath [nowe] promiſed her mariage, then ſhal he let her redeeme her ſelfe: To ſelle her vnto a ſtraunge nation ſhal he haue no power, ſeeing (e) he deſpiſed her.

9 If he haue promiſed her vnto his ſonne to wyfe, he ſhal deale with her as menne doo with their daughters.

10 And if he take hym another wyfe: yet her foode, her rayment, and duetie of mariage ſhal he not miniſhe.

11 And if he doo not (f) theſe three thinges vnto her, then ſhal ſhe goe out free, and pay no money.

12 (g) He that ſmiteth a man, that he dye, ſhal be ſlayne for it.

13 If a man lay not in wayte, but God deliuer [hym] into his hande, then I wyl appoynt thee a * place whyther he ſhal flee.

14 If a man comme preſumptuouſly vpon

(d) The worde in Hebrue dooth not alwayes ſounde perpetuitie, ſometyme it is takē for a long continuaunce, for in this caſe they were neuer ſet free tyl the yeere of Iubilee, whiche was a tyme of generall pardon.

(e) He ſpeaketh of the lothſomeneſſe that folowed the ſatiſfieyng of his luſtes.

(f) That is, if he neyther marrie her to hym ſelfe, nor to his ſonne, nor let her redeeme her ſelf out of bōdage.

(g) Hauing ſpoken of bondage, he entreateth of murder & the penaltie thereof, and of certayne other treſpaſſes puniſhable by death.

*Sanctuarie appoynted for place of refuge.

his neyghbour to ſlay hym with guyle, thou ſhalt take him from mine aulter, that he dye.

" Dye the death.

15 He that ſmyteth his father, or his mother, let hym " be ſlayne for it.

16 He that ſtealeth a man, and ſelleth him, if it be proued vpon him, ſhalbe ſlayne for it.

17 And he that curſeth his father, or mother, ſhalbe put to death for it.

*Of harme donne by occaſion of braules.
" Or, his neighbour.

18 * If menne ſtriue togeather, and one ſmite " another with a ſtone, or with his fiſte, and he dye not, but lye in his bed:

19 And riſe againe, and walke without vpon his ſtaffe, then ſhal he that ſmote hym goe quite, ſaue only he ſhal beare his charges for looſyng his tyme, and ſhal pay for his healyng.

20 If a man ſmite his ſeruaunt, or his maide with a rod, and they dye vnder his hande, he ſhalbe greeuouſly puniſhed.

D 21 And if he continue a day or two, (h) it ſhal not be reuenged, for he is his money.

(h) In theſe ciuile lawes, we muſt not ſeeke for abſolute perfectiō, whiche God tempered accordyng to the rudeneſſe of yͤ people, amongeſt whome many thinges were to be winked at for the tyme.

22 If men ſtryue, and hurt a woman with chylde, ſo that her fruite depart from her, and yet no deſtruction folowe: then he ſhalbe ſore puniſhed, accordyng as the womans huſbād wyll lay to his charge, and he ſhal pay as the dayes menne wyl appoynt hym.

23 And if any deſtruction folowe, (i) then he ſhal geue lyfe for lyfe,

(i) The execution hereof perteyneth to magiſtrates: For priuate reuenge is forbydden. Mat. v.

24 Eye for eye, toothe for toothe, hande for hande, foote for foote,

25 Burning for burning, wound for wound, ſtrype for ſtrype.

26 (k) And if a man ſmyte his ſeruaunt or his mayde in the eye, that it periſhe, he ſhal let them goe free for the eyes ſake.

(k) They that can not rule ſeruauntes with moderatiō, as thought vnworthy of them, muſt let them goe free.

27 Alſo if he ſmite out his ſeruauntes, or his maydes toothe, he ſhall let them goe out free for the toothes ſake.

E 28 If an oxe " goare a man or a woman, that they dye, * then the oxe ſhalbe ſtoned, and his fleaſhe ſhal not be eaten: but the owner of the oxe ſhal goe out quite.

" Puſhe or ſmite with his horne.
Gen, ix,

29 If the oxe were woont to ſtrike with his horne in time paſt, and it haue benne told his maiſter, and he haue not kept hym, but that he hath killed a man or a woman: (l) then the oxe ſhalbe ſtoned, and his owner ſhal die alſo.

(l) So God would doo vs to vnderſtand, how heynous a matter it is for any man to annoy his image.

30 If there be ſet to hym a ſumme of money, then he ſhal geue for the redeemyng of his life whatſoeuer is layde vpon hym.

31 And whether he haue goared a ſonne or a daughter, accordyng to the ſame iudgement ſhal it be donne vnto hym.

32 But if it be a ſeruaunt or a mayde, that the oxe hath goared, then he ſhal geue vnto their maiſter thirtie ſickles, & the oxe ſhalbe ſtoned.

33 If a man open a welle, or digge a pitte, and couer it not, and an oxe or an aſſe falle therein:

34 The owner of the pitte ſhal make it good, and geue money vnto their maiſter, and the dead beaſt ſhal be his.

35 If one mans oxe hurt another, that he dye: F then they ſhal ſelle the lyue oxe, and diuide the money, and the dead oxe alſo they ſhal diuide.

36 Or if it be knowen, that the oxe hath vſed to puſhe in time paſte, & his maiſter hath not kept hym: he ſhal pay oxe for oxe, and the dead ſhalbe his owne.

The.xxii.Chapter.

1 The puniſhment of a theefe. 5 Damage donne. 7 The lawe of it that is left to be kept. 10 Howe it that is leaft with one, ought to be rendred. 14 That whiche is lent, or letten out to hyre. 16 A mayden defiled. 18 Witches. 19 Suche as haue to doo with beaſtes. 20 An idolater. 21 A ſtraunger. 23 A widowe and a pupille. 25 Money geuen to loane. 26 When pledges ought to be rendred. 28 Officers and princes. 30 Firſt fruites, firſtlinges. 31 Fleaſhe torne of beaſtes.

A 1 If (a) a man ſteale an oxe or a ſheepe, and kylle it, or ſelle it: he ſhal reſtore fiue oxen for an oxe, foure ſheepe for a ſheepe.

(a) Puniſhmēt ordeyned for theeues.

2 (b) If a theefe be found breakyng vp, & be ſmitten, that he dye: there ſhal no blood be ſhed for hym.

(b) A kinde of theeues farre worſe then the reſt, for they ioyne fraude with violence: wherefore ſlaughter oftentymes and muche inconuenience dooth enſue: therfore if they breake vp by nyght, it is lawful to kille them: but in yͤ day tyme it is otherwiſe

3 But if the ſunne be vp vpon him, then there ſhalbe blood ſhed for him, for he ſhould make reſtitution. If he haue not wherwith, he ſhalbe ſolde for his theaft.

4 If the theaft be founde in his hande, alyue, whether it be oxe, aſſe, or ſheepe, he ſhal reſtore double.

5 If a man doo hurt fielde or vineyarde, and put in his beaſt to feede in another mans fielde: of the beſt of his owne fielde, and of the beſt of his owne vineyarde, ſhal he make reſtitution.

6 (c) If fire breake out & catche in the thornes, and the ſtackes of corne, or the ſtanding corne, or fielde be conſumed therwith: he that kindled the fire, ſhal make reſtitution.

(c) Yf ought be loſt by fire negligently looked to, it muſt be made good.

B 7 * If a man deliuer his neighbour money or ſtuffe to keepe, & it be ſtolen out of his houſe: if the theefe be founde, let hym pay double:

*A lawe for thinges left in cuſtodie.

8 And if the theefe be not found, then the goodman of the houſe ſhalbe brought vnto the Iudges, that it may be knowen, (d) whether he haue put his hande vnto his neyghbours good.

9 And in al manner of treſpaſſe, whether it be for oxe, aſſe, or ſheepe, rayment, or any manner of loſt thyng, whiche another chalengeth to be his: the cauſe of both parties ſhal come before the Iudges, and whom the Iudges cōdemne, let him pay double vnto his neighbour.

10 (e) If a man deliuer vnto his neyghbour to kepe, aſſe, oxe, ſheepe, or whatſoeuer beaſt it be, and it dye, or be hurt, or taken away by enemies, and no man ſee it:

11 Then ſhal an othe of the Lord be betweene them, that he hath not put his hande vnto his neyghbours good: and the owner of it ſhal take the othe, & the other ſhal not make it good.

12 And if it be (f) ſtolen from him, then he ſhal make reſtitutiō vnto the owner thereof. If it be torne in peeces, then let hym bryng recorde of the tearyng, and he ſhal not make it good.

13 And if a man borowe ought of his neyghbour, and it be hurt, or els dye, and the owner thereof (g) be not by: he ſhal ſurely make it good.

14 But if the owner thereof be by, he ſhal not make it good: if it be an hyred thing, it came for his hire.

15 If a man entiſe a mayde, that is not betrothed, and lye with her, (h) he ſhal endowe her, and take her to his wyfe.

16 (i) And if her father refuſe to geue her vnto hym, he ſhal pay money, accordyng to the dowrie of virgins.

17 Thou ſhalt not ſuffer a (k) witche to lyue.

18 Whoſoeuer lyeth with a beaſt, ſhal (l) be ſlayne for it.

19 He that (m) offereth vnto any goddes, ſaue vnto the Lorde only, ſhalbe kylled.

20 Uexe not a ſtraunger, neither oppreſſe him: for ye were ſtraungers in the lande of Egypt.

21 Ye ſhal trouble no widowe, nor fatherleſſe childe.

22 If ye ſhal euil entreate them, and they crye out vnto me, I wyl ſurely heare their crye.

23 And then wyl my wrath waxe hote, and I wyl kylle you with the ſworde, and your wyues ſhalbe widowes, and your chyldren fatherleſſe.

24 If thou lende money to any of my people, that is poore by thee, thou ſhalt not be as a tyraunt vnto him, *neither ſhalt thou lay vpon hym vſurie.

25 If thou take thy neyghbours (n) rayment to pledge, thou ſhalt deliuer it vnto hym by that the ſunne goe downe.

26 For that is his couering only, euen the rayment for his ſkynne, wherein he ſleapeth: and when he cryeth vnto me, I wyl heare hym, for I am mercyful.

27 Thou ſhalt not (o) rayle vpon the " goddes, neyther blaſpheme the ruler of the people.

28 (p) Thy fruites, whether they be drye, or moyſt, ſee thou kepe them not backe: thy firſt borne ſonne thou ſhalt geue me.

29 Lykewyſe alſo ſhalt thou doo with thyne oxen, and with thy ſheepe: ſeuen dayes it ſhalbe with the damme, and the eyghth day thou ſhalt geue it me.

30 Ye ſhalbe an holy people vnto me, (q) neyther ſhal ye eate any fleaſhe, that is torne of beaſtes in the fielde, but ſhal caſt it to a dogge.

(d) That is, whether he haue ſtolen it.

(e) Before he ſpake of thinges lyueleſſe kept in ones keping, now of thinges that beare lyfe.

(f) Becauſe of falſhod to pretende ſtealing, it woulde not ſerue in this caſe, & it was rather decreed touching lyuing thynges, then thinges lyueleſſe, for that the more part of their goodes ſtandyng in cattel, they were cōpelled oftentymes to commit them one to anothers keping.

(g) For yf the owner be preſent, he may loke to his owne good: but in his abſence, he truſteth to the borower, that many tymes doth abuſe hym.

(h) This was a ciuile ſatiſfaction for the ſafegarde of the maydens honeſtie, in reſpect wherof. Deut. 2. he can not leaue her for his lyfe tyme. But though for the hardneſſe of their hartes this puniſhment then ſuffised in ſo rude a ſtate: yet this neyther minisheth the fault, nor ẏ puniſhment therof before God.

(i) Hereby we ſee, what authoritie the parentes haue in the beſtowing of their daughter, whom it were no reaſon to take hym for their ſonne in lawe againſt their willes, that had wrought them ſo great a villanie.

(k) The worde in Hebrewe ſignifieth a witche, a ſorcerer, or an inchaunter, or any that by diueliſhe meanes hurteth eyther cattel, corne, or menne.

(l) And here alſo the worde ſignifieth not bare kyllyng: but curſing & damnyng, for the more deteſtation therof.

(m) For the ſacrifiſing to falſe gods, is the denyeng of one true God.

*Vſurie forbidden.

(n) Under the name of rayment, is conteyned any thing neceſſarie for the body, whiche he can not wel be without.

" Or, iudges.

(o) A priuate man may reprehende the magiſtrate, ſo it be done with modeſtie: but without rebukes, railing, and euyl ſpeakyng, both for auoydyng diſorder, and conſidering whoſe perſon he repreſenteth.

(p) By this ceremonie they were taught, that al thinges, the vſe wherof is prophane otherwyſe, ought to be halowed, and offred vnto God, as the geuer of al thinges that we haue. Now this ceremonie being taken away, yet this lawe muſt be kept of our partes, in offeryng & geuyng to Gods lyuely image, ẏ poore.

(q) By this lawe, whiche was ceremonial, and for a tyme, they were taught howe farre they ought to be from an heatheniſhe, and prophane conuerſation.

31 And thou ſhalt make the tunicle vnto the ephod, altogeather of blewe ſilke.

32 And there ſhalbe an hole for the head in the middeſt of it, hauyng a bonde of wouen worke round about the coller of it, as it were the coller of a partlet, that it rent not.

33 And beneath vpon the hemme, thou ſhalt make pomegranates of blewe ſilke, and of purple, and of ſcarlet, rounde about the hemme, and (b) belles of golde betweene them rounde about.

34 And let there be euer a golden belle and a pomegranate: a golden belle and a pomegranate rounde about vpon the hemme of the tunicle.

35 And Aaron ſhal haue it vpon hym when he miniſtreth, and the ſounde ſhalbe hearde when he goeth into the holy place before the Lorde, and when he commeth out: and he ſhal not (c) dye.

36 And thou ſhalt make a plate of pure golde, and graue thereon as ſignettes are grauen, The holyneſſe of the Lorde.

38 And it ſhalbe vpon Aarons forehead, that Aaron may (d) beare the ſinne of the holy things, whiche the children of Iſrael halowe in al theyr holy gyftes: and it ſhalbe allwayes vpon his forehead, for the reconciling of them before the Lorde.

39 And thou ſhalt make a coate of white ſilke, embrodered with knottes, and thou ſhalt make a mitre of whyte ſilke, and a gyrdle of needle worke.

40 And thou ſhalt make for Aarons ſonnes alſo coates, and thou ſhalt make for them gyrdles, and bonettes ſhalt thou make for them, glorious and beautiful.

41 And thou ſhalt put them vpon Aaron thy brother, and on his ſonnes with hym, and ſhalt annoynt them (e) and fille theyr handes, and ſanctifie them, that they may miniſter vnto me in the prieſtes office.

42 And thou ſhalt make them linnen ſloppes to couer theyr priuities: from the loynes vnto the thighes they ſhal reache.

43 And they ſhalbe vpon Aaron and his ſonnes when they comme into the tabernacle of the congregation, or when they comme vnto the aulter to miniſter in holines: (f) that they beare no ſinne, and ſo dye. And it ſhalbe a lawe for euer vnto Aaron and his ſeede after hym.

The.xxix.Chapter.

1 The manner to conſecrate prieſtes vnto God, and the rite to offer for them. 18 The continual dayly ſacrifice.

☞ A 1 This thing alſo ſhalt thou doo vnto them, when thou halowest them to be my prieſtes. Thou ſhalt take one young calfe, and two rammes that are without blemyſhe.

2 And vnleauened bread, and cakes vnleauened tempered with oyle, and wafers vnleauened, annoynted with oyle: of wheaten flowre ſhalt thou make them.

3 And thou ſhalt put them in a maunde, and bring them in the maunde with the calfe & the two rammes.

4 And bryng Aaron and his ſonnes vnto the doore of the tabernacle of the congregation, and waſhe them with water.

5 And take the garmentes, and put vpon Aaron the coate, the tunicle of the ephod, and the ephod it ſelfe, and the breſtlap, and gyrd them to hym with the brodered gyrdle whiche is in the ephod.

6 And put the mytre vpon his head: and put the holy crowne vpon the mytre.

B 7 Then ſhalt thou take the annointyng oile, and powre it vpon his head, and annoynt hym,

8 And bryng his ſonnes, and put coates vpon them:

9 And gyrde them with gyrdles, aſwel Aaron, as his ſonnes, and put the bonnettes on them, and the prieſtes office ſhalbe theirs for a perpetual lawe, and thou ſhalt fylle the handes of Aaron, and the handes of his ſonnes.

10 And thou ſhalt cauſe a calfe to be brought before the tabernacle of witneſſe: And Aaron and his ſonnes ſhal put theyr handes vpon the head of the calfe.

11 And thou ſhalt kylle hym before the Lorde, by the doore of the tabernacle of wytneſſe.

12 And take of the blood of the calfe, and put it vpon the hornes of the aulter with thy finger: and poure al [the reſt] of the blood beſide the bottome of the aulter.

13 And take all the fatte that couereth the inwardes, and the calle [that is] on the lyuer, and the two kidneyes, and the fat that is vpon them, and burne them vpon the aulter.

C 14 But the fleaſhe of the calfe, and his ſkyn, and his doung, ſhalt thou burne with fyre without the hoſt: it is a ſinne offeryng.

15 Thou ſhalt alſo take one Ramme, and Aaron and his ſonnes ſhal put their handes vpon the head of the Ramme.

16 And when thou haſt ſlayne the Ramme, thou ſhalt take his blood, and ſprinckle it rounde about vpon the aulter.

17 And cut the Ramme in peeces, and waſhe the inwardes of hym, and his legges, and put them vnto the peeces, and vnto his head.

18 And then burne the whole Ramme vpon the aulter:[for] it is a burnt offering vnto the Lorde for a ſweete ſauour, a ſacrifice made by fyre vnto the Lorde.

19 And take the other Ramme, and Aaron and his ſonnes ſhal put their handes vpon his head.

20 Then ſhalt thou kille him, and take of his blood, and put it vpon the tippe of the ryght eare of Aaron, and vpon the tippe of the right eare of his ſonnes, and vpon the thombe of theyr right handes, and vpon the great toe of theyr ryght foote, and ſprinckle the blood vpon the aulter rounde about.

21 And thou ſhalt take of the blood that is vpon the aulter, and of the annoyntyng oyle, and ſprinckle it vpon Aaron and his veſtimentes, and vpon his ſonnes, and vpon their garmentes with hym, and he ſhalbe halowed and his clothes, and his ſonnes and their clothes, with hym.

D 22 And thou ſhalt take the fat of the Ramme, and his rumpe, and the fat that couereth the inwardes, and the calle of the lyuer, and the two kidneyes, and the fat that is vpon them, and the ryght ſhoulder, for that Ramme is a (a) ful offeryng.

(a) It is the Ramme that was offered at the fyllyng of the hands, & conſecratiō of the high prieſt

23 And a ſymnel of bread, and a cake of oyled bread, and a wafer out of the baſket of vnleauened bread, that is before the Lorde.

24 And put al vpon the handes of Aaron, and on the handes of his ſonnes, and " waue them for a (b) waue offeryng before the Lorde.

" Or, moue.

(b) This ſort of offering after the prieſt had lyfted it vp, was moued into euery ſide of al coaſtes, to ſignifie that god was Lorde of al the earth. It was muche lyke to the manner of bleſſings vſed in papiſtes churches ouer the Chalice.

25 And agayne thou ſhalt take it from of their handes, and burne it vpon the aulter for a burnt offeryng, to be a ſauour of ſweeteneſſe before the Lord: for it is a ſacrifice by fyre vnto the Lorde.

26 And thou ſhalt take the breſt of the Ramme of Aarons conſecration, and waue it for a waue offeryng before the Lorde, and it ſhalbe thy part.

27 And thou ſhalt ſanctifie the breſt of the waue offeryng, and the ſhoulder of (c) the heaue offeryng, whiche is waued and heaued vp of the Ramme of the conſecration for Aaron and for his ſonnes.

(c) The heaue offeryng was lifted vpwarde & downwarde, but not ſidewarde.

28 And it ſhalbe Aarons and his ſonnes by a ſtatute for (d) euer from the chyldren of Iſrael, for it is an heaue offeryng: and it ſhalbe an heaue offeryng from the chyldren of Iſrael of the ſacrifice of theyr peace offerings, euen theyr heaue offering [ſhal it be] vnto the lord.

E

(d) Euer vntil Chriſtes commyng.

29 And the holy garmentes of Aaron ſhalbe his ſonnes after him, to be annoynted therin, and to " fille theyr handes therein.

" Or, conſecrate.

30 And that ſonne, that is prieſt in his ſteede after hym, ſhal put them on ſeuen dayes, when he commeth into the tabernacle of wytneſſe to miniſter in the holy place.

31 And thou ſhalt take the Ramme of the conſecration, and ſeethe his fleaſhe in the holy place.

32 And Aaron and his ſonnes ſhal eate the fleaſhe of the Ramme, and the bread that is in the baſket, euen by the doore of the tabernacle of wytneſſe.

33 And they ſhal eate them, becauſe the attonement was made therewith to fille theyr handes, and to conſecrate them: but a ſtraunger ſhal not eate thereof, becauſe they are holy.

34 And yf ought of the fleaſhe of the conſecration, or of the bread remayne vnto the mornyng, thou ſhalt burne it with fyre: and it ſhal not be eaten, becauſe it is holy.

35 Therefore ſhalt thou doo vnto Aaron and his ſonnes euen ſo, accordyng to al thynges whiche I haue commaunded thee: ſeuen dayes ſhalt thou fil theyr handes. F

36 And thou ſhalt offer euery day a calfe for a ſinne offeryng for to reconcile withal: and thou ſhalt clenſe the aulter when thou reconcileſt vpon it, and thou ſhalt annoynt it, to ſanctifie it.

37 Seuen dayes thou ſhalt reconcile vpon the aulter, and ſanctifie it, and it ſhalbe an aulter moſt holy: and whatſoeuer toucheth the aulter, ſhalbe holy.

38 This is that, whiche thou ſhalt " offer vpon the aulter, euen two lammes of one yeere olde, day by day continually:

" Or, preſent.

39 The one thou ſhalt offer in the mornyng, and the other at euen.

40 And with the one lamme, a tenth deale of flowre myngled with the fourth part of an (e) hyn of beaten oyle: and the fourth part of an an hin of wine for a drynke offeryng.

41 And the other lambe thou ſhalt offer at euen, and ſhalt do thereto accordyng to the meate offering and drinke offering in the morning, to be an odour of a ſweete ſauour, and a ſacrifice by fyre vnto the Lorde.

42 And let this be a continual burnt offeryng amongſt your chyldren after you, before the doore of the tabernacle of witneſſe before the Lorde, where I wil meete you, to ſpeake there vnto thee.

43 There I wil meete with the chyldren of Iſrael, and [the place] ſhalbe ſanctified in my glorie.

44 And I wyl ſanctifie the tabernacle of witneſſe, and the aulter: and I wyl ſanctifie alſo both Aaron and his ſonnes, to be my prieſtes.

45 And I wyl dwelle amongſt the chyldren of Iſrael, and wil be theyr God:

46 And they ſhal knowe, that I am the Lord their God, that brought them out of the land of Egypt, for to dwelle amongſt them [euen] I the Lorde theyr God.

The.xxx.Chapter.

1 The fourme of the aulter of incence. 6 The ſtandyng thereof. 12 The monye to the vſe of the tabernacle. 13 A ſicle. 18 The braſen lauer. 23 The makyng of holy oyle. 35 The makyng of incence.

☞ 1 A AND thou ſhalt make an aulter for ſweete incence: of Sittim wood ſhalt thou make it.

2 A cubite long, and a cubite broade, euen foure ſquare ſhal it be, and two cubites hygh, the hornes therof ſhal proceede out (a) of it.

3 And thou ſhalt ouerlay it with fine golde, both the " ruffe and the walles rounde about, and his hornes alſo: and ſhalt make vnto it a crowne of golde rounde about.

4 And two golden ringes ſhalt thou make to it on eyther ſyde euen vnder the crowne, that they may be as places for the barres to beare it withal.

5 And thou ſhalt make the barres of Sittim wood, and couer them with golde.

6 And thou ſhalt put it before the vayle that is by the arke of " teſtimonie before the mercie ſeate, that is vpon the teſtimonie, where I wyl meete with thee.

B 7 And Aaron ſhal burne theron ſweete incence euery morning, when he dreſſeth the lampes, euen then ſhal he burne it.

8 And likewiſe at euen, when he ſetteth vp the lampes, he ſhal burne incence, and this incencing ſhalbe perpetually before the Lord throughout your generations.

9 Ye ſhal offer no (b) ſtraunge incence theron, nor burnt ſacrifice, nor meate offeryng, neyther powre any drynke offeryng thereon.

10 And Aaron ſhal reconcile vpon the hornes of it once in a yeere, with the blood of the ſinne offering of reconciling, euen once in the yeere ſhal he reconcile vpon it through your generations: it is moſt holy vnto the Lorde.

11 And the Lorde ſpake vnto Moſes, ſayeing,

12 If thou take the ſumme of the chyldren of Iſrael (c) after their number, they ſhal geue euery man " a reconciling of his ſoule vnto the Lorde when thou numbreſt them, that there be no plague amongſt them, when thou numbreſt them.

13 And thus muche ſhal euery man geue, that goeth into the number: halfe a (d) ſicle after the ſicle of the ſanctuarie. A ſicle is twentie " halfepence: an halfe ſicle ſhalbe the heaue offering of the Lorde.

14 All that are numbred from twentie yeeres olde and aboue, ſhal geue an heaue offeryng vnto the Lorde.

15 The riche ſhal not paſſe, and the poore ſhal not goe vnder halfe a ſicle, but ye ſhal geue an heaue offeryng vnto the Lorde, that he may haue mercie on your ſoules.

16 And thou ſhalt take the reconciling mony of the chyldren of Iſrael, and ſhalt put it vnto the vſe of the tabernacle of the congregation, that it may be a memorial vnto the chyldren of Iſrael before the Lorde, that he may haue mercie vpon your ſoules.

17 And the Lorde ſpake vnto Moſes, ſayeing,

18 Thou ſhalt make a lauer of braſſe, and his foote alſo of braſſe, to waſhe withal, and ſhalt put it betweene the tabernacle of the congregation, and the aulter, and put water therein.

C

19 For Aaron and his ſonnes ſhal waſhe their handes, and theyr feete therein.

20 Euen when they goe into the tabernacle of the congregation, or when they goe in to the aulter to miniſter, and to burne the lordes offeryng, they ſhal waſhe them ſelues with water, leſt they dye.

35 And make of them ſweete ſmellyng incence, after the craft of the apoticarie, mingled togeather, pure and holy.

36 And beate it to powder, and put of it before [the arke] of the teſtimonie in the tabernacle of the congregation, where I wil meete with thee: it ſhalbe vnto you moſt holy.

37 And you ſhal not make to your ſelues after the makyng of that incence whiche thou ſhalt make, it ſhalbe vnto you holy for the Lorde.

The.xxxii.Chapter.

1 The Iſraelites doo pray vnto the golden calfe. 7 God warneth Moſes of the ſinne of the people. 9 The people of Iſrael of a ſtyffe necke. 11 Moſes intreateth God for Iſrael, putting hym in mynde of his promiſes. 15 Moſes deſcendeth from the hyl. The tables wrytten of God. 19 Moſes beyng angry breaketh the tables, and the calfe. 21 He chydeth his brother Aaron. 27 The idolaters be murdered of the Leuites at Moſes commaundement. 30 Moſes rebuketh the offence of the people. 31 He wyl be put out of the booke of lyfe, and haue the peoples offence pardoned. 33 They that be written in the boke of God.

A 1 AND when the people ſawe that (a) it was long ere Moſes came downe out of the mountayne, they geathered them ſelues togeather " vnto Aaron, and ſayd vnto him, Up, make vs goddes to goe before vs: for we wote not, what is becomme of this Moſes, the man that brought vs out of the lande of Egypt.

2 And Aaron ſayde vnto them, Plucke of the golden earinges whiche are in the eares of your wiues, of your ſonnes, & of your daughters, and bryng them vnto me.

3 And al the people plucked of the golden earynges whiche they had in theyr eares, and brought them vnto Aaron.

4 And he receiued them of theyr handes, and " faſhioned it with a grauer, and made of it a calfe of moulten metal: & they ſaide, Theſe be thy goddes, O Iſrael, whiche brought thee out of the lande of Egypt.

5 And when Aaron ſawe that, he made an aulter before it, and Aaron made proclamation, ſayeing, To morowe is the holy day of the Lorde.

6 And they roſe vp in the mornyng, and offered burnt offerynges, and brought peace offeringes alſo: and the people ſat them downe to eate and drynke, and roſe vp agayne to play.

B 7 And the Lord ſaid vnto Moſes, Goe, geate thee downe: thy people, whiche thou broughteſt out of the lande of Egypt, hath committed ſinne.

8 They are turned quickly out of the way, whiche I commaunded them: for they haue made them a calfe of moulten metal, and haue worſhypped it, and haue offered therevnto, ſayeing, Theſe be thy goddes, O Iſrael, whiche haue brought thee out of the lande of Egypt.

9 And the Lorde ſayde vnto Moſes, I haue ſeene this people: and beholde, it is a ſtyfnecked people.

10 And nowe ſuffer me, that my wrath may ware hote againſt them, and conſume them: and I wyl make of thee a myghtie people.

11 And Moſes beſought the Lorde his God, and ſayde, O Lorde, why dooth thy wrath ware hote agaynſt thy people, whiche thou haſt brought out of the lande of Egypt with great power, and with a myghtie hande:

12 Wherfore ſhould the Egyptians ſpeake, and ſay, For a myſcheefe dyd he bryng them out, euen for to ſlay them in the mountaines, and to conſume them from the face of the earth: Turne from thy fierce wrath, and repent of this euyl [diuiſe] agaynſt thy people.

13 Remember Abraham, Iſahac, and Iſrael thy ſeruauntes, to whom thou ſwareſt by thyne owne ſelfe, and ſaydeſt vnto them, I wil multiplie your ſeede as the ſtarres of heauen, and al this lande that I haue ſpoken of, wil I geue vnto your ſeede, and they ſhal inherite it for euer.

14 And the Lorde refrayned hym ſelfe from C the euyl whiche he ſayde he woulde do vnto his people.

15 And Moſes turned his backe, and went downe from the hyl, and the two tables of the teſtimonie were in his hande.

16 And the ſame tables were wrytten in both the leaues, [euen] on the one ſide, and on the other, were they wrytten: And theſe tables were the worke of God, and the wrytyng was the wrytyng of God, grauen in the tables.

(a) Ioſuah accompamed Moſes in the mount, although there were not lyke reuelation made to him, as to Moſes.

18 And he aunſweared, It is not the crie of them that haue the maiſterie, nor of them that haue the woorſe: [but] I doo heare the noyſe of them that ſing.

19 And aſſoone as he came nygh vnto the hoaſt, he ſawe the calfe, and the daunſyng: and Moſes wrath wared hote, and he caſte the tables out of his handes, and brake them beneath the hyl.

20 And he tooke the calfe, whiche they had made, and burned it in the fyre, and ſtampt it into powder, and threwe it in the water, and made the chyldren of Iſrael drynke of it.

D 21 And Moſes ſayde vnto Aaron, What dyd this people vnto thee, that thou haſt brought ſo great a ſinne vpon them?

22 And Aaron aunſweared, Let not the wrath of my Lorde ware fierce: thou knoweſt the people, that they are [euen] ſet on miſcheefe.

23 For they ſayde vnto me, Make vs gods to goe before vs, for we wote not what is becomme of Moſes, the man that brought vs out of the lande of Egypt.

24 And I ſayde vnto them, Let them that haue golde, plucke it of: And they brought it vnto me, and I dyd caſt it into the fyre, and thereof came out this calfe.

25 Moſes therefore ſawe, that the people were naked (and that Aaron had made them naked vnto theyr ſhame, amongeſt theyr enimies,)

26 And Moſes ſtoode in the gate of the hoaſt, and ſayde, Who ſo [parteyneth] to the Lorde, [let hym come] vnto me. And all the ſonnes of Leui geathered them ſelues togeather vnto hym.

27 And he ſayth vnto them, Thus ſayth the Lorde God of Iſrael: Put euery man his ſwoorde by his ſide, and goe in and out from gate to gate throughout the hoaſt, and ſlay euery man his brother, and euery man his companion, and euery man his neighbour.

28 And the children of Leui did as Moſes had ſayde: And there felle of the people the ſame day about three thouſande menne. E

29 And Moſes ſayde, " Fille your handes vnto the lord this day, euery man vpon his ſonne, and vpon his brother, that there may be geuen you a bleſſyng this day.

" Or, conſecrate.

30 And on the morowe Moſes ſayde vnto the people, Ye haue ſinned a great ſinne: And nowe I wyl goe vp vnto the Lorde, peraduenture I may purchaſe an attonement for your ſinne.

31 Moſes therfore went againe vnto the lord, and ſayde, [b] Oh, this people haue ſinned a great ſinne, and haue made them goddes of golde.

(b) Moſes proſtrate made his prayer, fourtie dayes and nightes. Deut.ix.

32 And nowe forgeue them theyr ſinne: or yf thou wylt not, wype me, I pray thee, out of thy [c] booke, whiche thou haſt wrytten.

(c) Out of the number of thē that be electe and predeſtinated to lyfe euerlaſtyng.

33 And the Lorde ſayde vnto Moſes, [d] I wil put hym out of my booke, that hath ſinned agaynſt me.

(d) I wil make it knowen, that he was neuer any of the electe.

34 And nowe goe thou, bryng the people vnto the place whiche I ſaide vnto thee, Beholde, mine angel ſhal goe before thee: Neuerthelater, in that day when I viſite, I wyl [e] viſite theyr ſinne vpon them.

(e) I wyl pounyſhe.

35 And the Lorde plagued [f] the people, becauſe they made the Calfe, whiche Aaron made.

(f) In makyng them to wander. 40. yeeres in the wylderneſſe, and neuer to enter the land of promiſſe.

The.xxxiii.Chapter.

1 God geueth the people an angel to guide them. 3 God refuſeth to goe vp with his people, 4 The people mourneth. 7 The tabernacle of the congregation, or of the couenaunt. 9 Moſes talketh with God familierly. 12 He requireth God to be with hym in leadyng the people, and the way to be ſhewed hym. To finde grace before God. 17 Moſes is mercifully hearde. 18 He deſireth to ſee the glorie of God. 22 He is bidden to ſtande in a rocke.

A 1 AND the Lorde ſayde vnto Moſes, Depart & goe vp hence, thou and the people, whiche thou haſt brought out of the lande of Egypt, vnto the lande whiche I ſware vnto Abraham, Iſahac, and Iacob, ſayeing, Unto thy ſeede wyl I geue it.

2 And I wil ſende an angel before thee, and I wil caſt out the Chanaanites, the Amorites, and the Hethites, the Pherezites, the Heuites, and the Iebuſites:

3 Unto a lande, that floweth with [a] mylke and hony. For I wyl not goe amongeſt you mee ſelfe: for ye are a ſtyfnecked people: leſt I conſume thee in the way.

(a) By milke, vnderſtand al neceſſarie thynges: by hony, al delicate, & pleaſaunt thynges.

4 And when the people hearde this heauie tidinges, they ſorowed: and no man dyd put on his beſt rayment.

5 And the Lorde ſpake vnto Moſes, Say vnto the chyldren of Iſrael, Ye are a ſtyfnecked people: I muſt comme once ſuddainly vpon you, and make an ende of you: therfore nowe put thy goodly rayment from thee, that I may wite what to doo vnto thee.

6 And the chyldren of Iſrael layde theyr goodly rayment from them, euen by the mount Horeb.

B 7 And Moſes tooke the tabernacle, and pitched it without the hoaſt, a farre of from the hoaſt, and called it the tabernacle of the congregation: And ſo it came to paſſe, that euery one, whiche woulde pray vnto the Lorde, went out vnto the tabernacle of the congregation, whiche was without the hoaſt.

8 And when Moſes went out vnto the tabernacle, al the people roſe vp, and ſtoode euery man at his tent doore, and looked after Moſes, vntyl he was gonne into the tabernacle.

9 And aſſoone as Moſes was entred into the tabernacle, the cloudy piller deſcended, and ſtoode at the doore of the tabernacle, and he talked with Moſes.

10 And al the people ſawe the cloudy piller ſtande at the tabernacle doore, and they roſe vp and worſhipped euery man in his tent doore.

11 And the Lorde ſpake vnto Moſes [b] face to face, as a man ſpeaketh vnto his freende. And he turned agayne into the hoaſt: but the young man Ioſuah, his ſeruaunt, the ſonne of Nun, departed not out of the tabernacle.

(b) Gentleſly, fauourably, and louingly, for no man can ſee god in this lyfe.

12 And Moſes ſaid vnto the Lord, See, thou ſayeſt vnto me, Leade this people foorth: and thou haſt not ſhewed me, whom thou wylt ſende with me. And thou haſt ſayde moreouer, I knowe thee by name, and thou haſt alſo founde grace in my ſyght.

13 Nowe therefore, yf I haue founde fauour in thy ſyght, then I pray thee ſhewe me thy [c] way, that I may knowe thee, and that I may finde grace in thy ſyght, and conſyder alſo, that this nation is thy people.

(c) The meanes whereby thou wylt keepe & ſaue thy people out of ſo many perils, ſeeyng thou wylt not goe with thē.

14 And he ſayde, My preſence ſhal goe with thee, and I wyl geue thee reaſt.

15 He ſayde vnto hym, If thy preſence goe not with me, carrie vs not hence.

C 16 For howe ſhal it be knowen here, that I and thy people haue founde fauour in thy ſyght, but in that thou goeſt with vs? If thou goe with vs, ſhal not I and thy people haue preeminence before al the people, that are vpon the face of the earth.

17 And the Lorde ſayde vnto Moſes, I wyl doo this alſo, that thou haſt ſayde: for thou haſt founde grace in my ſyght, and I know thee by name.

18 And he ſayde, I beſeeche thee, ſhew me thy glorie.

19 Who aunſweared, I wyl make al my [d] good goe before thee: and I wyl [e] calle in the name of Iehouah before thee: and wil ſhewe mercie, to whom I wyl ſhewe mercie: and wyl haue compaſſion, on whom I wyl haue compaſſion.

(d) Heart and affection to this my people.

(e) Paſſing by, I wyl ſounde with a loude voyce my name Iehouah, whom thou canſt not ſee.

20 And he ſayde furthermore, Thou mayeſt not ſee my face: for there ſhal no man ſee me, and lyue.

21 And the Lorde ſayde, Beholde, there is a place by me, and thou ſhalt ſtande vpon a rocke.

22 And whyle my glorie goeth foorth, I wyl put thee in a clift of the rocke, and wyl put my hande vpon thee, whyle I paſſe by.

23 And I wyl take away myne hande, and thou ſhalt ſee my backe partes: but my face ſhal not be ſeene.

The.xxxiiii.Chapter.

1 God byddeth Moſes to prepare newe tables. 6 The names of God. 8 Moſes entreateth God to goe with the people, commendyng Gods mercie. 11 God promiſeth the lande of Chanaan. 12 Companie keeping with the Gentiles, and idolatrie is forbidden. 17 Gods made of metal. 18 The ſolemnitie of ſweete bread. 19 Of the fyrſt borne. 21 The Sabboth. 22 The feaſt of Pentecoſte, and of tabernacles. 26 The fyrſt fruites. 28 The faſt of Moſes. The ten wordes. 29 The face of Moſes ſhined, as beſette withe beames. 33 A vayle ouer the face of Moſes.

A 1 AND the Lorde ſayde vnto Moſes, Hewe thee two tables of ſtone lyke vnto the fyrſt, and I wyl write vpon the ſame tables, the wordes, that were in the fyrſt tables whiche thou brakeſt.

2 And be ready in the mornyng, and comme vp early vnto the mount of Sinai, and thou ſhalt ‶ ſtande there for me in the toppe of the mount.

‶ Or, wayte.

3 There ſhal no man comme vp with thee: neyther let any man be ſeene throughout al the mount, nor let ſheepe, nor oxen feede before the hyl.

4 And Moſes hewed two tables of ſtone lyke vnto the fyrſt, and roſe vp early in the mornyng, and went vp vnto the mount Sinai, as the Lorde had commaunded hym, and tooke in his hande the two tables of ſtone.

5 And the Lorde deſcended in the cloude, and ſtoode with him there: and he [a] called vpon the

(a) God called in the name of Iehouah: and the wordes, that folowe, be gods wordes, and not Moſes.

the name of the Lorde.

6 And the Lorde paſſed by before hym, and cryed, Lorde, Lorde, God, ſtrong, merciful, and gratious, long ſuffering, and aboundaunt in goodneſſe and trueth,

B 7 And keeping mercie in ſtore for thouſands, forgeuing wickedneſſe, vngodlineſſe and ſinne, and not leauyng one innocent, viſiting the wickedneſſe of the fathers vpon the chyldren, and vpon the childrens chyldren, [euen] vnto the thirde and fourth generation.

8 And Moſes made haſte, and bowed hym ſelfe to the earth, and woorſhipped,

9 And ſayde, If I haue founde grace in thy ſyght, O Lorde, then let my Lorde, I pray thee, goe in the middeſt of vs, for it is a ſtiffe necked people: and thou ſhalt haue mercie vpon our wickedneſſe and our ſinne, and ſhalt take vs for thyne inheritaunce.

10 And he ſayde, Beholde, I make a couenaunt before al thy people, and I wyl doo marueyles, ſuche as haue not benne donne in al the worlde, neither in al nations: and al the people, amongeſt whiche thou art, ſhal ſee the woorke of the Lorde: for it is a terrible thyng, that I wyl doo with thee.

11 Keepe diligently thoſe thinges, that I commaunde thee this day: Beholde, I caſt out before thee, the Amorites, Chanaanites, Hethites, Pherezites, Heuites, and Jebuſites.

12 Take heede to thee ſelfe, leſt thou make any compact with the inhabitours of the land whyther thou goeſt: leſt they be cauſe " of ruine amongſt you:

" Or, offence.

C 13 But ouerthrowe their aulters, and breake theyr images, and cut downe their groaues.

14 Thou ſhalt woorſhip no ſtraunge God: for the Lorde is called (b) ielous, becauſe he is a ielous God.

(b) God is called ielous, because he wil not permit, that any other gods ſhalbe worſhipped with hym: but he alone wyl be loued, and worſhipped for God.

15 Leſt yf thou make any agreement with the inhabitours of the lande, and they goe a whooring after their goddes, and do ſacrifice vnto their goddes, they calle thee,] and thou eate of theyr ſacrifice:

16 And leſte thou take of theyr daughters vnto thy ſonnes, and theyr daughters goe a whooring after their goddes, and make thy ſonnes goe a whooring after theyr goddes alſo.

17 Thou ſhalt make thee no goddes of metal.

18 The feaſt of vnleauened bread ſhalt thou keepe: Seuen dayes thou ſhalt eate vnleauened bread, as I commaunded thee in the tyme of the mooneth Abib: for in the mooneth Abib thou cameſt out of Egypt.

19 Al that openeth the matrice, is myne, and al that breaketh the matrice amongeſt thy catel, if it be male, whether it be oxe or ſheepe.

D 20 But the fyrſtling of the aſſe thou ſhalt bye out with a lambe: and yf thou redeeme hym not, thou ſhalt breake his necke. Al the fyrſt borne of thy ſonnes thou ſhalt redeeme: and ſee that no man appeare before me emptie.

21 Sixe dayes thou ſhalt woorke, and in the ſeuenth day thou ſhalt reaſt, both from earyng and reapyng.

22 Thou ſhalt obſerue the feaſt of weekes, with thy fyrſt fruites of wheate harueſt: and the feaſt of ingeathering at the yeeres ende.

23 Thryſe in a yeere ſhal al your menne chyldren appeare before the Lord Jehouah, God of Iſrael.

24 For I wyl caſt out the nations before thee, and enlarge thy coaſtes: neyther ſhal any man deſyre thy lande, when thou ſhalt goe vp to appeare before the Lorde thy God thryſe in a yeere.

25 Thou ſhalt not offer the blood of my ſacrifice vpon leauen, neyther ſhal ought of the ſacrifice of the feaſt of paſſeouer be leaft vnto the mornyng.

26 The fyrſt rype fruites of thy lande, thou ſhalt bryng vnto the houſe of the Lorde thy God. Thou ſhalt not ſeethe a kyd in his mothers mylke.

27 And the Lorde ſayde vnto Moſes, Write theſe woordes: for after the tenour of theſe woordes, I haue made a couenaunt with thee, and with Iſrael.

28 And he was there with the Lorde fourtie dayes and fourtie nyghtes, and dyd neyther eate bread, nor drynke water: and he wrote vpon the tables the woordes of the couenaunt, [euen] ten " commaundementes.

" Or, woordes.

29 And when Moſes came downe from mount Sinai, the two tables of teſtimonie were in Moſes hand: when he came downe from the mount, Moſes wyſte not, that the ſkynne of his face ſhined, whyle he talked with (c) hym.

(c) That is with God. Or, whyle God talked with hym.

30 And Aaron, and al the chyldren of Iſrael looked vpon Moſes: and behold, the ſkinne of his face ſhined, and they were afrayde to comme nygh hym.

31 And when Moſes had called them, Aaron and al the cheefe of the congregation came vnto hym: and Moſes talked with them.

32 And afterwarde al the chyldren of Iſrael came nygh: and he commaunded them al, that the Lord had ſayde vnto him in mount Sinai.

3 And when Moſes had made an ende of communing with them, he put a (b) couering vpon his face.

(b) This couering ſignifieth the infirmitie of our nature, wherby when we heare or reade the lawe, we heare it not, nor vnderſtande it,

34 And againe when Moſes went in before the Lorde to ſpeake with hym, he tooke the coueryng of, vntil he came out: And he came out, and ſpake vnto the chyldren of Iſrael, that whiche he was commaunded.

35 And the chyldren of Iſrael ſawe the face of Moſes: that the ſkinne of Moſes face ſhined, and Moſes put the coueryng vpon his face agayne, vntil he went in, to commune with hym.

The xxxv. Chapter.

A 1 AND Moſes geathered al the congregation of the chyldren of Iſrael togeather, and ſayde vnto them, Theſe are the woordes, whiche the Lorde hath commaunded, that ye ſhoulde doo them.

2 Sixe dayes ye ſhal woorke: but the ſeuenth day ſhalbe vnto you the holy Sabboth of the Lordes reaſt: whoſoeuer dooth any woorke therein, ſhal dye.

3 Ye ſhal kindle (a) no fyre throughout your habitation vpon the Sabboth day.

(a) Therefore was he put to death that geathered ſtickes to make a fyre on that day.

4 And Moſes ſpake vnto al the congregation of the chyldren of Iſrael, ſayeing, This is the thyng, whiche the Lorde commaunded, ſayeing,

5 [Take from amongeſt you an heaue offering vnto the Lord: Whoſoeuer is of a wyllyng hart, let hym bryng that [heaue offering] to the Lorde, namely golde, ſiluer, and braſſe,

17 And the hanginges of the court, with his pillers, and their ſockettes, and the hangyng in the doore of the court,

18 The pinnes of the tabernacle, & the pinnes of the court with their cordes:

19 The (b) miniſtring garmentes to miniſter in the holy place, and the holy veſtimentes for Aaron the prieſt, and the veſtimentes of his ſonnes, that they may miniſter in the prieſtes office.

(b) Suche as apparteyne to the ſeruice of the tabernacle

D 20 And al the congregation of the chyldren of Iſrael departed from the preſence of Moſes:]

21 And euery one came, as many as theyr hartes encouraged them, & as many as theyr ſpirites made them wyllyng, and brought an heaue offering for the Lorde, to the makyng of the tabernacle of the congregation, and for al his vſes, and for the holy veſtimentes.

22 And they came both menne and women, euen as many as were wyllyng harted, and brought bracelettes, and earinges, ringes and chaynes, whiche iewels were al of gold: and al the menne brought a waue offeryng of golde vnto the Lorde.

23 And euery man, with whom was founde blewe ſilke, purple, ſcarlet, whyte ſilke, and goates heare, and redde ſkinnes of Rammes, and Taxus ſkinnes, brought them.

24 Al that did heaue vp an oblation of gold, and braſſe, brought an heaue offering vnto the Lorde: and al menne with whom was founde Sittim wood for any manner woorke of the miniſtration, brought it.

25 And al the women, that were wyſe harted, dyd ſpinne with theyr handes, and brought the ſpun woorke, both of blew ſilke, purple, ſcarlet, and whyte ſilke.

E 26 And al the women, that excelled in wyſedome of hart, ſpun goates heare.

27 And the lordes brought Onyx ſtones, and 28 And ſpice, and oyle for lyght, and for the annoyntyng oyle, and for the ſweete incenſe.

29 And the chyldren of Iſrael brought a wyllyng offeryng vnto the Lorde, both menne and women, as many as had wyllyng hartes, to bryng for al manner woorkes, whiche the Lorde had commaunded to be made (c) by the handes of Moſes.

(c) Vſyng Moſes as a miniſter therof.

30 And Moſes ſayde vnto the chyldren of Iſrael, Beholde, the Lord hath called by name Beſaleel the ſonne of Uri, the ſonne of Hur, of the tribe of Iuda.

31 And hath filled hym with the ſpirite of God, in wyſdome, and vnderſtandyng, and in knowledge, and in al manner woorke, 33 In the crafte of ſtones, to ſet them, and in caruyng of wood, to make any manner of ſubtile woorke.

34 And he hath put in his hart, that he may (d) teache, both he, and Doliab, the ſonne of Achiſamech, of the tribe of Dan.

1 The makyng of the tabernacle. 3 The peoples ready wyl. 8 The makyng of the curtaynes. 19 Of the coueryng. 20 Of the tables. 31 Of the barres. 35 Of the vayle.

A 1 AND Beſaleel wrought, and Doliab, and al wyſe harted menne, to whom the Lorde gaue wyſedome, and vnderſtandyng, to knowe howe to woorke al manner of woorke for the ſeruice of the ſanctuarie, and al that the Lorde had commaunded.

2 And Moſes called Beſaleel, Doliab, and al the wyſe harted menne, & ſuche as the Lorde had geuen wyſedome vnto, and as many as theyr hartes encouraged to comme vnto that woorke, to woorke it.

3 And they receiued of Moſes al the heaue offeryng, whiche the chyldren of Iſrael hadde brought for the woorke of the ſeruice of the ſanctuarie, to make it withal: And beſyde that, they brought free offeringes vnto it euery day in the mornyng.

4 And al the wyſe menne that wrought al the holy woorke, came euery man from his woorke, whiche they made:

5 And they ſpake vnto Moſes, ſayeing, The people bryng to muche, and more then yenough for the ſeruice, and woorke, whiche the Lorde hath commaunded to be made:

6 And then Moſes gaue commaundement, and they cauſed it to be proclaimed throughout the hoaſt, ſayeing, See, that neither man, nor woman prepare any more woorke for the heaue offeryng of the ſanctuarie: and ſo the people were forbydden to bryng.

B 7 For the ſtuffe they had, was ſufficient for al the woorke to make it, and to muche too.

☞ 8 [All the wyſe harted menne therefore, and they, that wrought for the tabernacle, made ten curtaynes of whyte twyned ſilke, blewe ſilke, purple, and ſcarlet, with Cherubims of brodered woorke made they them.

9 The length of one curtayne was twentie and eight cubites, and the breadth foure: and the curtaynes were al of one ſiſe.

10 And he coupled fiue curtaynes by them ſelues, and other fiue by them ſelues.

11 And he made loupes of blewe ſilke along by the edge of one curtayne, euen in the ſeluedge of the couplyng curtayne: and lykewyſe he made on the ſyde of the couplyng curtayne on the other ſide.

12 Fiftie loupes made he in the one curtayne, and fiftie in the edge of the couplyng curtayne on the other ſide: and the loupes helde one curtayne to another.

13 And he made fiftie taches of gold, and coupled the curtaynes one to another with the taches: [and ſo] was it made one tabernacle. C

14 And he made eleuen curtaynes of goates heare, to be a tent ouer the tabernacle.

15 The length of one curtayne had thirtie cubites, and was foure cubites broade, and they al eleuen of one ſiſe.

16 And he coupled fiue curtaynes by them ſelues, and ſixe by them ſelues.

17 And he made fiftie loupes along by the border of the vttermoſt couplyng curtayne, and fiftie in the edge of the other couplyng curtayne.

18 And he made fiftie taches of braſſe, to couple the tent togeather, that it myght be one.

19 And he made a coueryng vpon the tent of Rammes ſkinnes redde, and yet another of Tarus ſkynnes aboue that.

20 And he made ſtandyng boordes for the tabernacle, of Sittim wood.

21 The length of a boorde, was ten cubites,

the breadth one cubite and a halfe

22 One boorde had two tenons, wherby they were ioyned one to another: and thus made he for al the boordes of the tabernacle.

23 And he made twentie boordes for the south ſide of the tabernacle.

24 And fourtie ſockettes of ſiluer vnder the twentie boordes: two ſockettes vnder one boorde for his two tenons, & two ſockettes vnder another boorde for his two tenons.

25 And for the other ſide of the tabernacle, whiche is towarde the north, he made twentie boordes, 26 And their fourtie ſockettes of ſiluer: two ſockettes vnder one boorde, & two ſockettes vnder the other boorde.

E 27 And towarde the [a] weaſt ende of the tabernacle, he made ſixe boordes.

[a] The ſea.

28 And two other boordes made he in the corners of the tabernacle, for eyther ſide.

29 And they were ioyned cloſe beneath and aboue with a ryng: and thus they dyd to both the corners.

30 And there were eyght boordes, and ſixteene ſockettes of ſiluer: vnder euery boorde two ſockettes.

31 And he made barres of Sittim wood: fiue for the boordes of the tabernacle in the one ſide, 32 And fiue for the boordes of the tabernacle in the other ſide, & fiue barres for the boordes of the tabernacle in the weaſt ende.

33 And he made the myddeſt barre to ſhut through the boordes, euen from the one ende to the other.

F 34 And ouerlayde the boordes with golde, and made rynges of gold to thruſt the barres through, and couered the barres with golde.

35 And he made a vayle of blewe ſilke, purple, ſcarlet, & whyte twined ſilke: euen with Cherubims made he it of brodered worke.

26 And he made thereunto foure pillers of Sittim wood, and ouerlayde them with golde: their knoppes were alſo of golde, and he caſt for them foure ſockettes of ſiluer.

27 And he made an hangyng for the tabernacle doore, of blewe ſilke, purple, ſcarlet, and whyte twined ſilke of needle worke,

38 And the fiue pillers of it, with theyr knops: and ouerlayde the knoppes of them, and the hoopes with golde: theyr fiue ſockettes alſo were of braſſe.

A 1 AND Beſaleel made the arke of Sittim woodde: two cubites and a halfe long, and a cubite and a halfe broade, and a cubite and a halfe hygh.

2 And ouerlayde it with fine golde within and without, and made a crowne of golde to it rounde about.

3 And caſt for it foure ringes of golde for the foure corners of it: two rynges for the one ſyde, and two for the other.

4 And made barres of Sittim wood, and couered them with golde.

5 And put the barres in the rynges, along by the ſyde of the arke, to beare the arke withal.

6 And he made the mercie ſeate of pure golde: two cubites and a halfe was the length therof, and one cubite and a halfe the breadth.

B 7 And he made two Cherubims of thicke golde, vpon the two endes of the mercie ſeat.

8 One Cherub on the one ende, and another Cherub on the other ende, euen of the mercie ſeate made he the (a) Cherubims, namely in the endes thereof.

10 And he made the table of Sittim wood: two cubites [was] the length thereof, and a cubite the breadth, and a cubite and a halfe the heyghth of it.

11 And he ouerlayde it with fine golde, and made thereunto a crowne of golde rounde about.

14 Euen hard by the hoope were the rynges, into the whiche the barres were put, to beare the table withal.

15 And he made the barres of Sittim wood, and couered them with golde, to beare the table withal.

16 And made the veſſels for the table of pure golde, the diſhes, the [incenſe] cuppes, the coueringes, & the bolles to powre out withal.

17 And he made the candelſticke of pure gold, euen of a whole worke made he the candel-

18 Sixe braunches proceeding out of the ſides thereof: three braunches of the candelſticke out of the one ſide thereof, and three braunches of the candelſticke out of the other ſyde thereof.

19 And in one braunche three bolles made lyke vnto almondes, with a knop, and a flowre: and in another braunche three bolles made lyke almondes, with a knop and a flowre: and ſo throughout the ſixe braunches that proceeded out of the candelſticke.

D 20 And vpon the candelſticke it ſelfe, were foure bolles after the faſhion of almondes, with knoppes and flowres.

26 And he couered it with pure golde, both the toppe and the ſides thereof rounde about, and the hornes of it: and made vnto it a crowne of golde rounde about.

27 And he made two rynges of golde for it [euen] vnder the crowne thereof in the two corners of it, & in the two ſydes thereof, to put barres in, for to beare it withal. E

28 And he made the barres of Sittim wood, and ouerlayde them with golde.

(a) The curtaynes of the tabernacle were faſtened with theſe pinnes, to ſtay them, that they were not driuen with the winde hyther and thyther.

(b) The perticuler peeces by number deliuered to the Leuites.

22 And Beſaleel the ſonne of Uri, the ſonne of Hur, of the tribe of Iuda, made al that the Lorde commaunded Moſes:

23 And with hym was Aholiab, ſonne of Ahiſamach, of the tribe of Dan, a cunnyng workeman, an embroderer, and a woorker of needle woorke, in blewe ſilke, purple, ſcarlet, and white twyned ſilke.

24 Al the golde, that was occupied for al the woorke of the holy place, was the gold of the waue offeryng, twentie and nine talentes, and ſeuen hundred and thirtie ſicles, after the ſicle of the ſanctuarie.

The xxxix. Chapter.

1 The deckyng of Aaron. 2 The Ephod, or coueryng of the ſhoulders. 8 The Pettorale, or furniture for the breaſt. 22 The coate. 30 The holy plate. 31 The people offereth to the Lorde al that he commaunded to be donne.

A 1 AND of the blewe ſilke, purple, and ſcarlet, they made veſtimentes of miniſtration, to doo ſeruice in the holy place: & made the holy garmentes for Aaron, as the Lord commaunded Moſes.

2 And he made the Ephod of golde, blewe ſilke, purple, ſcarlet, and whyte twyned ſilke.

3 And they dyd beate the golde into thinne plates, and cut it into wyers to woorke it in the blewe ſilke, purple, ſcarlet, and in the fine whyte with brodered woorke.

4 And they made two ſydes for it, to cloſe them vp by the two edges.

5 And the broderyng of the girdle, that was vpon it, was of the ſame ſtuffe, and after the ſame woorke, of golde, blewe ſilke, purple, ſcarlet, and twyned whyte ſilke, as the Lord commaunded Moſes.

6 And they wrought Onyx ſtones cloſed in ouches of gold, & graued as ſignettes are grauen, with the names of yͤ children of Iſrael.

7 And he put them on the ſhoulders of the Ephod, that they ſhould be ſtones for a remembrance of the chyldren of Iſrael, as the Lord commaunded Moſes. B

8 And he made yͤ breſtlap of brodered woorke lyke the woorke of the Ephod, euen of golde, blewe ſilke, purple, ſcarlet, and twined white ſilke.

9 It was foure ſquare: and they made the breſtlap double, an hande breadth long, and an hande breadth broade.

10 And they filled it with foure rowes of ſtones. The firſt rowe, a Sardius, a Topazius, and a Smaragdus.

11 The ſecond rowe, a Rubie, a Saphire, and a Diamonde.

12 In the thirde rowe, a Lyncurius, an Achates, and an Amethyſt.

13 In the fourth rowe, a Turcas, an Onyx, and a Iaſpis: and they were cloſed in ouches of golde in their incloſers.

14 And the twelue ſtones were grauen as ſig-nettes, with the names of the chyldren of Iſrael, euery ſtone with his name, accordyng to the twelue tribes.

C 15 And they made vpon the breſtlap two faſtenyng chaynes of wrethen woorke, & pure golde.

16 And they made two ouches of golde, and two golde ringes: and put the two ringes in the two corners of the breſtlap.

17 And they put the two chaines of golde in the two ringes in the corners of the breſtlap.

18 And the two endes of the two chaynes they faſtened in the two ouches, and put them on the ſhoulders of the Ephod, vpon the forefront of it.

19 And they made two ringes of golde, and put them on the two corners of the breſtlap vpon the edge of it [whiche was] on the inſide by the Ephod.

D 20 And they made two golden ringes, and put them on the two ſides of the Ephod, beneath on the fore ſide of it, and ouer agaynſt his felowe, aboue vpon the brodering of the Ephod.

21 And they ſtrained the breſtlap by his ringes vnto the ringes of the Ephod with a laſe of blewe ſilke, that it myght be vpon the brodering of the Ephod, and that the breſtlap ſhoulde not be looſed from of the Ephod, as the Lorde commaunded Moſes.

22 And he made the tunicle vnto the Ephod of wouen woorke, altogeather of blew ſilke:

23 And there was an hole in the middeſt of the tunicle, as the coller of a partlet, with a bande rounde about the coller, that it ſhoulde not rent.

24 And in the tunicle they made hemmes with pomegranates of blewe ſilke, purple, ſcarlet, and whyte twyned ſilke.

25 And they made litle belles of pure golde, and put them amongſt the pomegranates rounde about vpon the edge of the tunicle.

26 A belle and a pomegranate, a belle, and a pomegranate rounde about the hemmes of the tunicle to miniſter in, as the Lorde commaunded Moſes.

E 27 And they made coates of fine whyte ſilke of wouen woorke, for Aaron and his ſonnes.

28 And a mitre of fine whyte ſilke, and goodly bonettes of fine whyte ſilke, and lynnen ſloppes of twyned whyte ſilke.

29 And a girdle of twined white ſilke, blewe, purple, and ſcarlet, euen of needle woorke, as the Lorde commaunded Moſes.

30 And they made the plate of the holy crowne of fine golde, and wrote vpon it with grauen woorke, as ſignettes are grauen, The holineſſe of the Lorde.

31 And tyed vnto it a laſe of blewe ſilke, to faſten it on hygh vpon the mitre, as the Lorde commaunded Moſes.

32 Thus was al the woorke of the tabernacle, [euen] of the tabernacle of the congregation finiſhed: and the children of Iſrael dyd accordyng to al, that the Lorde commaunded Moſes, euen ſo dyd they.

33 And they brought the tabernacle vnto Moſes, [euen] the tabernacle, and al the furniture thereof, the taches, the boordes, the barres, the pillers, and the ſockettes:

F 34 The coueryng of Rammes ſkinnes, redde, and the coueryng of Taxus ſkinnes, and the hangyng vayle,

35 The arke of the teſtimonie, and the barres thereof, and the mercie ſeate,

36 The table, and al the veſſels thereof, and the ſhewe bread,

37 The pure candelſticke with the lampes thereof, euen with the lampes to be prepared, & al the veſſels thereof, and the oyle for lyght,

38 The golden aulter, and the annoyntyng oyle, and the ſweete incenſe, and the hanging of the tabernacle doore,

39 And the braſen aulter with his grediron of braſſe, the barres, and al the veſſels, the lauer and his foote,

40 The curtaines of the court with the pillers, and ſockettes: the hanging of the court gate, and the pinnes, and cordes, & al the veſſelles of the ſeruice of the tabernacle, euen of the tabernacle of the congregation,

41 The miniſtring veſtimentes to ſerue in the holy place, and the holy veſtimentes for Aaron the prieſt, & his ſonnes raymentes to miniſter in, in the prieſtes office:

G 42 Accordyng to al, that the Lorde cõmaunded Moſes, euen ſo yͤ children of Iſrael made al the woorke.

43 And Moſes did looke vpon al the woorke: and beholde, they had donne it as the Lorde had commaunded, euen ſo had they donne it: and Moſes bleſſed them.

The.xl.Chapter.

2 The tabernacle is erected. 34 A cloude, the ſigne of the preſence of the Lord couereth the tabernacle.

A 1 AND the Lord ſpake vnto Moſes, ſayeing,

2 In the firſt day of the firſt (a) mooneth, ſhalt thou ſet vp the tabernacle, euen the tabernacle of the congregation.

3 And put therein the arke of the teſtimonie, and couer the arke with the vayle: and thou ſhalt bring in the table, and order it according to the appoyntment thereof:

4 And

(a) In the ſeconde yeere of their comming out of Egypt.

4 And thou ſhalt bryng in the candleſticke, and lyght his lampes,

5 And ſet the incenſe aulter of golde before the arke of the teſtimonie, and put the hangyng at the doore of the tabernacle.

6 And ſet the burnt offeryng aulter before the doore of the tabernacle [euen] of the tabernacle of the congregation.

B 7 And ſet the lauer betweene the tabernacle of the congregation and the aulter, and put water therein.

8 And make the court rounde about, ⁊ hang vp the hangyng at the court gate.

9 And thou ſhalt take the annoyntyng oyle, and annoynt the tabernacle, and al that is therein, and halowe it with al the veſſelles thereof: and it ſhalbe holy.

10 And thou ſhalt annoint the aulter of burnt offeryng and al his veſſels, and ſanctifie the aulter: and it ſhalbe an aulter moſt holy.

11 And thou ſhalt alſo annoynt the lauer, and his foote, and ſanctifie it.

12 And thou ſhalt bryng Aaron ⁊ his ſonnes vnto the doore of the tabernacle of the congregation, and waſhe them with water.

13 And thou ſhalt put vpon Aaron the holye veſtimentes, and annoint him, and ſanctifie hym, that he maye miniſter vnto me in the prieſtes office.

C 14 And thou ſhalt bryng his ſonnes, ⁊ clothe them with garmentes:

15 And annoynt them, as thou dyddeſt annoynt their father, that they maye miniſter vnto me in the prieſtes office: For their annoyntyng ſhalbe an euerlaſtyng prieſthood vnto them throughout al their generations.

16 And Moſes dyd accordyng to al that the Lorde commaunded hym, euen ſo dyd he.

17 Thus was the tabernacle reared vp the fyrſt day in the fyrſt mooneth, in the (b) ſecond yeere.

(b) Of the commyng of the chyldren of Iſrael out of Egypt.

18 And Moſes reared vp the tabernacle, and faſtened his ſockettes, and ſet vp the boordes therof, and put in the barres of it, and reared vp the pyllers:

19 And ſpread abrode the tent ouer the tabernacle, and put the coueryng of the tent on hygh aboue it, as the Lorde commaunded Moſes.

D 20 And he tooke the (c) teſtimonie, and put it in the arke, and ſet the barres to the arke, and put the mercie ſeate on hygh vpon the arke.]

(c) That is, the tables of the lawe.

☞ 21 And he brought the arke into the tabernacle, and hanged vp the vayle, and couered the arke of the teſtimonie, as the Lorde commaunded Moſes.

22 And he put the table in the tabernacle of the congregation in the north ſyde of the tabernacle, without the vayle, 23 And ſet the bread in order before the Lord, [euen] as the Lorde had commaunded Moſes.

24 And he put the candleſticke in the tabernacle of the congregation, ouer agaynſt the table towarde the ſouth ſyde of the tabernacle,

25 And ſet vp the lampes before the Lorde, as the Lorde commaunded Moſes.

26 And he put the golden aulter in the tabernacle of the congregation before the vayle,

27 And burnte ſweete incenſe thereon, as the Lorde commaunded Moſes. E

28 And he hanged vp the hangyng at yͤ doore of the tabernacle,

29 And ſet the burnt offeryng aulter by the entryng in of the tabernacle [that is] the tabernacle of the congregation, and offered burnt offerynges, and meate offerynges thereon, as the Lorde commaunded Moſes.

30 *And he ſet the lauer betweene the tabernacle of the congregation and the aulter, and powred water therein, to waſhe withal. Exo.30.c.

31 And Moſes, Aaron, and his ſonnes, waſhed their handes, and their feete thereat, 32 When they went into the tabernacle of the congregation, and when they went to the aulter, they waſhed them ſelues, as the Lord commaunded Moſes.

33 And he reared vp the courte rounde about the tabernacle, and the aulter, and ſet vp an hangyng at the courte gate: and ſo Moſes finiſhed the woorke.

34 *And the cloude couered the tabernacle of the congregation, and the glory of the Lorde fylled the tabernacle. Num.9.c.

35 And Moſes coulde not enter into the tabernacle of the congregation, becauſe the cloude abode thereon, and the glory of the Lorde filled the tabernacle.

36 And when the cloude was taken vp from of the tabernacle, the chyldren of Iſrael tooke their iourneyes throughout their armies:

37 And when the cloude was not taken vp, they iourneyed not tyl it was taken vp.

38 For the (d) cloude of the Lorde was vpon the tabernacle by day, and fyre by nyght, in the ſight of al the houſe of Iſrael throughout al their armies.

(d) Thus the preſence of God preſerued and guyded them both day and night, tyl they came to the lande of promiſe.

and in the Latine, Exodus.

The thirde booke of Moſes, called in the Hebrue (a) Vaicrah, and in the Latine, Leuiticus.

(a) This booke is ſo named, becauſe that in the ſame is chiefely intreated of the Leuitical ſacrifices, and other ceremonies of the lawe: vpon the whiche the Leuites were committed, & ordeyned by the Lorde.

A 1 AND the Lord (b) called vnto Moſes, & ſpake vnto hym out of the tabernacle of the congregation, ſayeing,

2 Speake vnto the chyldren of Iſrael, and thou ſhalt ſaye vnto them, If a (c) man of you, bryng a (d) ſacrifice vnto the Lorde, ye ſhal bring your ſacrifice from among theſe cattel, euen from among the beefes, and the (e) ſheepe.

3 If his ſacrifice be a burnt offering of beefes, let hym offer a male without blemiſhe, and bryng hym of his owne voluntary wyl, vnto the doore of the tabernacle of the congregation before the Lorde.

4 And he ſhal put his (f) hand vpon the head of the burnte ſacrifice, and it ſhalbe accepted for hym to be his attonement.

5 And he ſhal kylle the bullocke before the Lorde: And the prieſtes, Aarons ſonnes ſhal bryng the blood, and ſprynkle it round about vpon the aulter, that is by the doore of the tabernacle of the congregation.

6 And then ſhal he flaye the burnt offeryng, and hewe it in peeces.

B 7 And the ſonnes of Aaron the prieſt, ſhal put fire vpon the aulter, and put wood vpon the fyre.

8 And the prieſtes, Aarons ſonnes, ſhal lay the partes, euen the head, and the fatte, vpon the wood, that is on the fyre in the aulter.

9 But the inwardes, and the legges thereof, ſhal he (g) waſhe in water, and the prieſt ſhal burne al in the aulter, that they maye be a burnt ſacrifice, an offeryng made by fyre for a ſweete odour vnto the Lorde.

10 And if his ſacrifice be of flockes, namely of ſheepe or goates, let hym bring a male without blemiſhe for a burnt offeryng:

11 And let hym kyl it on the northſyde of the aulter before the Lorde: And the prieſtes, Aarons ſonnes, ſhal ſprynkle the blood round about vpon the aulter.

12 And he ſhal cut it into his peeces, euen with his head and his fatte: and the prieſt ſhal put them vpon the woode, that lyeth vpon the fyre in the aulter.

13 But

(d) That the Leuitical ſacrifices were preachynges of the paſſion and death of Chriſt, and of his Goſpel, whiche ſhould afterwarde be publiſhed thorowe al the worlde. Men haue not dreamed it, but the holy ghoſte hath taught it, and hath confirmed it by many teſtimonies, aſwel of the olde teſtament, as of the newe, as Pſal.49. Eſai.41. John.1. 1.Pet.1. Heb.10.&c.

13 But he ſhal waſhe the inwardes, and the legges with water, and the prieſt ſhal bryng altogeather, & burne it vpon the aulter for a burnt offeryng, an oblation made by fyre for a ſweete ſauour vnto the Lorde.

14 If the burnt offering for the ſacrifice of the Lorde be of fowles, he ſhal bryng his ſacrifice of turtle dooues, or of young pigeons.

15 And the prieſt ſhal bring it vnto the aulter, and (b) wryng the necke of it a ſunder, and burne it on the aulter: but the blood thereof ſhalbe wrong out vpon the ſyde of the aulter.

16 And he ſhal plucke away his croppe with his feathers, and caſt them beſyde the aulter on the eaſt part, in the place of aſſhes.

17 And he ſhal breake the wynges of it, but not plucke them a ſunder: And the prieſt ſhal burne it vpon the aulter, euen vpon the wood, that is vpon the fyre, that it may be a burnt offeryng, an oblation made by fyre for a ſweete ſauour vnto the Lorde.

8 And thou ſhalt bryng the meate offeryng, that is made of theſe thinges, vnto the Lord, and ſhalt delyuer it vnto the prieſt, that he may offer it vpon the aulter.

9 And the prieſt ſhal take from the meate offeryng a memorial thereof, and ſhal burne it vpon the aulter: that it may be a burnt offeryng for a ſweete ſauour vnto the Lorde.

10 And that whiche is leaſt of the meate offeryng, ſhalbe Aarons and his ſonnes: It is a thyng, moſt holy of the offerynges of the lord made by fyre.

15 And thou ſhalt put oyle vpon it, & lay frankincenſe thereon: that it may be a meate offeryng.

(c) By this ceremonie is the nature of Chriſte ſet forth, whiche is fygured in al ſacrifices. For Chriſt is the true and heauenly ſalt, by whom al that beleue in him, be made ſauoury and pleaſaunt vnto God the father, ſo that they ſhal neuer ſo putrify, that they ſhal peryſhe.

5 And Aarons ſonnes ſhal burne them on the aulter, with the burnt ſacrifice, whiche is vpon the wood, that is on the fyre, to be a burnt ſacrifice made by fyre for a ſweete ſauour vnto the Lorde.

6 If he bring a peace offering vnto the Lord from of the flocke, let hym offer male, or female, but without blemiſhe.

B 7 [And] if he offer a lambe for his ſacrifice, he ſhal bryng it before the Lorde,

8 And put his hande vpon his offerynges head, and kylle it before the doore of the tabernacle of the congregation: & Aarons ſonnes ſhal ſprynkle the blood thereof rounde about the aulter,

9 And of the peace offeryng let hym bryng a ſacrifice made by fyre vnto the Lord, the fat thereof, and the rumpe altogeather, whiche they ſhal take of hard by the backe bone: and the fat that couereth the inwardes, and al the fat that is vpon the inwardes.

10 And the two kydneyes, and the fat, that is vpon them, and vpon the flankes, and the calle, that is vpon the lyuer, ſhal he take away with the kydneyes.

12 If his offeryng be a goate, he ſhal bryng it before the Lorde,

13 And put his hand vpon the head of it, and kylle it before the tabernacle of the congregation, and the ſonnes of Aaron ſhal ſprinkle the blood thereof vpon the aulter round about:

14 And he ſhal bryng thereof his offeryng, euen a ſacrifice made by fyre vnto the Lorde, the fat that couereth the inwardes, and al the fat that is vpon the inwardes: C

15 And the two kydneyes, and the fat, that is vpon them, and vpon the flankes, and the calle vpon the lyuer ſhal he take away with the kydneyes.

16 And the prieſt ſhal burne them vpon the aulter, for the foode of the ſacrifice made by fyre, for a ſweete ſauour: Al the fat is the Lordes.

The.iiii.Chapter,

1 The offeryng made for ſynnes donne of ignoraunce. 13 For the whole congregation.
22 For the ruler.

A 1 AND the Lord ſpake vnto Moſes, ſayeing,

2 Speake vnto the children of Iſrael, and ſay, If a ſoule ſhal ſinne through ignoraunce in any of the commaundements of the Lorde, whiche ought not to be donne, but ſhal doo contrary to any of them:

3 As if the prieſt that is annoynted doo ſinne, according to the (a) ſinne of the people, let him bryng for his ſynne whiche he hath ſynned, a young bullocke without blemiſhe, vnto the Lorde, for a ſynne offeryng.

(a) By conuerſation or doctrine to doo any thing, whereby the people ſinne, or els if the people ſinne through the prieſtes fault, their ſinne is required at his handes.

4 And he ſhal bryng the young bullocke vnto the doore of the tabernacle of the congregation before the Lorde, and ſhal put his hande vpon the young bullockes head, and kylle the young bullocke before the Lorde, Leuit.9.c.

5 And the prieſt, that is annoynted, ſhal * take of the young bullockes blood, and bryng it into the tabernacle of the congregation.

6 And the prieſt ſhal dyppe his fynger in the blood, and ſprynkle thereof ſeuen tymes before the Lorde, euen before the vayle of the ſanctuary.

7 And the prieſt ſhal put ſomme of the blood before the Lorde, vpon the hornes of the aulter of ſweete incence, whiche is in the tabernacle of the congregation, and ſhal powre al the blood of the young bullocke vnto the bottome of the aulter of burnt offeryng, whiche is at the doore of the tabernacle of the congregation. B

8 And he ſhal take away al the fat of the bullocke for the ſynne offeryng, the fat that couereth the inwardes, and al the fat, that is about the inwardes,

9 And the two kydneyes, and the fat that is vpon them, and vpon the flankes, and the calle vpon the lyuer, ſhal he take away with the kydneyes,

10 As it was taken away in the bullocke of the peace offerynges: and let the prieſt burne them vpon the aulter of burnt offeryng.

Exo.29.c.

11 * But the ſkynne of the young bullocke, and al his fleaſhe, with his head, and his legges, with his inwardes, and his doung, [ſhal he beare out,]

12 And ſhal carrie the whole bullocke altogeather out of the hoaſt, vnto a cleane place, euen where the aſhes are powred out, and ſhal burne hym there on wood in the fyre, euen by the place where the aſſhes are caſt out, ſhal he be burnt.

13 If the whole congregation of Iſrael ſynne through ignoraunce, and the thyng be hidde from the eyes of the multitude, and haue doone ſomwhat agaynſt any of the commaundementes of the Lorde, whiche ſhould not be donne, and haue offended,

14 When the ſynne whiche they haue ſynned is knowen, the congregation ſhal

C bryng a young bullocke for the ſynne, and bryng hym before the tabernacle of the congregation.

15 And the elders of the multitude ſhal put their handes vpon the head of the bullocke before the Lorde: And the bullocke ſhalbe ſlayne before the Lorde.

16 And the prieſt that is annointed, ſhal bring of the bullockes blood into the tabernacle of the congregation.

17 And the prieſt ſhal dyppe his fynger in the blood, and ſprinckle it ſeuen tymes before the Lorde, euen before the vayle.

18 And ſhal put of the blood vpon the hornes of the aulter, whiche is before the Lord in the tabernacle of the congregation, and ſhal powre al the blood vnto the bottome of the aulter of burnt offeryng, whiche is before the doore of the tabernacle of the congregation.

19 And he ſhal take his fat from hym, and burne it vpon the aulter,

D 20 And ſhal doo with this bullocke, as he did with the bullocke for ſynne, euen ſo ſhal he doo with this: And the prieſt ſhal make an attonement for them, and it ſhalbe forgeuen them.

21 And he ſhal bryng this bullocke without the hoaſt, and burne hym as he burned the fyrſt bullocke: For it is an oblation for the ſynne of the congregation.

22 When a Lorde ſynneth, and committeth through ignoraunce any of theſe thynges, whiche the Lorde his God hath forbydden to be donne in his commaundementes, and hath offended,

23 If his ſynne be (b) ſhewed vnto hym, whiche he hath donne, he ſhal bryng his offeryng, [euen] an hee goate without blemiſhe,

24 And ſhal lay his hande vpon the head of the hee goate, and kylle it in the place, where the burnt offeryng is vſed to be kylled before the Lorde: For it is a ſynne offeryng.

25 And let the prieſt take of the blood of the ſynne offeryng with his fynger, and put it vpon the hornes of the burnt offeryng aulter, and powre his blood vnto the bottome of the burnt offeryng aulter.

26 And burne al his fat vpon the aulter, as the fat of the peace offerynges: And the prieſt ſhal make an attonement for hym, as concernyng his ſynne, and it ſhalbe forgeuen hym.

27 If one of the common people of the lande ſynne through ignoraunce, and commit any of the thynges whiche the Lorde hath forbydden in his commaundementes to be donne, and ſo haue treſpaſſed: E

28 If his ſynne, whiche he hath ſynned, comme to his knowledge, he ſhal bryng for his offeryng a ſhee goate from among the flockes, without blemiſhe for his ſynne whiche he hath ſynned,

29 And ſhal laye his hande vpon the head of the ſynne offeryng, and ſlay the ſynne offeryng, in the place of burnt offerynges.

30 *And the prieſt ſhal take of the blood thereof with his fynger, & put it vpon the hornes of the burnt offeryng aulter, and powre al the blood vnto the bottome of the aulter, Leuit.3.d.

31 And ſhal take away al his fat, as the fat of the peace offeryng is taken away: And the prieſt ſhal burne it vpon the aulter, that it may be a ſweete ſauour vnto the Lorde, and the prieſt ſhal make an attonement for hym, and it ſhalbe forgeuen hym.

32 And yf he bryng a ſheepe for a ſynne offeryng, he ſhal bryng a female without blemiſhe,

33 And lay his hande vpon the head of the ſynne offeryng, and ſlea it for a ſynne offeryng in the place, where they kylle the burnt offeryng. F

34 And the prieſt ſhal take of the blood of the ſynne offeryng with his fynger, and put it vpon the hornes of the burnt offering aulter, and ſhal powre the blood thereof vnto the bottome of the aulter.

35 *And he ſhal take away al the fat thereof, as the fat of the ſheepe of the peace offeryng is wont to be taken awaye: And the prieſt ſhal burne it vpon the aulter, that it may be the Lordes burnt ſacrifice, and the prieſt ſhal make an attonement for his ſynne, that he hath committed, and it ſhalbe forgeuen him. The.v.Chapter.

1 Of othes. 2 The cleanſing of him that toucheth vncleane thynges. 6 The purgation of an othe. 15 And of ſynne donne by ignoraunce.

A

1 IF a ſoule ſynne, and heare the voyce of (a) ſwearyng, and be a witneſſe, whether he haue ſeene, or knowen of it, if he doo not vtter it, he ſhal beare his ſynne.

(a) This is diuerſly expoūded, becauſe yͤ Hebrue worde hath a double ſignification: this is yͤ ſenſe as ſomme thinke. If a Iudge doo miniſter an othe to any priuate man, to declare the trueth of any thyng that he hath ſeene, and dooth it not, he ſinneth: Or this, If any man ſee his neyghbour commit anye ſynne, whiche is by the lawe of God execrable, or deteſtable, & doo conceale, and not open it, as muche as in him dooth lye, he dooth ſinne: ſomme others take it thus. Al ſuche as dyd heare any man curſe, banne, & abuſe the name of god, and dooth not opē it vnto yͤ magiſtrate, dooth ſinne: the firſt ſenſe is beſt lyked.

2 Or if a ſoule touch any vncleane thing, whether it be the carion of an vncleane beaſt, or a carion of vncleane cattel, or a carion of vncleane creepyng thynges, and is not ware of it, beholde, he is vncleane, and hath offended.

3 Or if he touche any vncleanneſſe of man, whatſoeuer vncleanneſſe it be, that a man is wont to be defiled withal, and be not ware of it, and comme to the knowledge of it, he hath treſpaſſed.

4 Or if a ſoule ſweare, and pronounce with his lippes to doo euyl, or to doo good, whatſoeuer it be, that a man ſhal pronounce with an othe, and the thyng be hid from hym, and he commeth to the knowledge of it, & haue offended in one of theſe,

5 When he hath ſynned in one of theſe thinges, he ſhal confeſſe, that he hath ſynned in that thyng.

6 Therefore ſhal he bryng his treſpaſſe offeryng vnto the Lorde, for his ſynne, whiche he hath ſynned, a female from the flocke, a lambe, or a ſhee goate, for a ſynne offeryng: And the prieſte ſhal make an attonement for hym concernyng his ſynne.

Leuit.12.
Luke.2.

7 *And yf he be not able to bryng a ſheepe, he ſhal bring for his treſpaſſe, whiche he hath ſynned, two turtle dooues, or two young pigeons vnto the Lorde: one for a ſynne offeryng, and the other for a burnt offeryng.

8 And he ſhal bryng them vnto the prieſt, whiche ſhal offer the ſinne offering fyrſt, and wring the necke of it a ſunder, but not pluck it cleane of.

9 And he ſhal ſprynckle of the blood of the ſynne offeryng vpon the ſyde of the aulter, and the reſt of the blood ſhal he powre by the bottome of the aulter: for it is a ſynne offeryng.

10 And he ſhal offer the ſeconde for a burnt offeryng, as the manner is: and ſo ſhal the prieſt make an attonement for hym for the ſynne, whiche he hath ſynned, and it ſhalbe forgeuen hym.

11 And if he be not able to bryng two turtle dooues, or two young pigeons, then he that hath ſynned, ſhal bryng for his offeryng the tenth parte of an Epha of fyne floure, for a ſynne offering: but ſhal put none oyle therto, nor put anye frankencenſe thereon: for it is a ſinne offeryng.

12 Then ſhal he bryng it to the prieſt, and the prieſt ſhal take his handful of it for a remembraunce therof, and burne it vpon the aulter, to be a ſacrifice for the Lord made by fyre: for it is a ſynne offeryng.

13 And the prieſt ſhal make an attonement for hym, as touchyng his ſynne, that he hath ſynned in one of theſe, and it ſhalbe forgeuen hym: And the remnaunt ſhalbe the prieſtes, as a meate offeryng.

C

14 And the Lorde ſpake vnto Moſes, ſayeing,

15 If a ſoule treſpaſſe and ſynne thorowe ignoraunce in thynges, that are conſecrated vnto the Lorde, let hym bryng for his treſpaſſe vnto the Lord, a Ramme without blemiſhe out of the flockes, valued in money at two ſicles, after * the ſicle of the ſanctuarie, that it may be for a treſpaſſe offeryng.

Exod.30.

16 And he ſhal make amendes for the harme that he hath donne in the holy thyng, and let hym put the fyft parte more thereto, and geue it vnto the prieſt: And the prieſt ſhal make an attonement for hym, with the Ramme, that is for the treſpaſſe, and it ſhalbe forgeuen hym.

17 If a ſoule ſynne, and commit any of theſe thynges, whiche are forbydden to be donne by the commaundements of the lord, and (b) wyſt it not, and haue offended, and beare his ſynne:

(b) And dooth afterwarde knowledge hym ſelfe to haue offended, and thynketh hym ſelfe to be gyltie of that ſinne.

18 Then ſhal he bryng a Ramme without blemiſhe out of the flocke, that is eſteemed to be worth a treſpaſſe offeryng, vnto the prieſt: And the prieſt ſhal make an attonement for hym, concernyng his ignoraunce, wherin he erred, and was not ware, and it ſhalbe forgeuen hym.

19 This is a treſpaſſe offeryng, for the treſpaſſe committed agaynſt the Lorde.

The.vi.Chapter.

6 The offeryng for ſynnes, whiche are donne wyllyngly. 9 The lawe of the burnt offerynges. 13 The fyre muſt abyde euermore vpon the aulter. 20 The offeryng of Aaron and his ſonnes.

A 1 AND the Lord ſpake vnto Moſes, ſayeing,

2 If a ſoule ſynne and treſpaſſe agaynſt the lord, and denie vnto his neighbour that whiche was taken hym to keepe, or that was put into his handes, or dooth violent robberie or wrong vnto his neyghbour,

3 Or if he haue founde that, whiche was loſt, & denye it, and ſweareth falſely vpon whatſoeuer thyng it be, that a man doothe, and ſynneth therein:

4 If he haue ſo ſinned, and treſpaſſed, he ſhal reſtore againe that he tooke violently away, or the wrong whiche he dyd, or that whiche was deliuered him to keepe, or the loſt thing whiche he founde:

5 And al that, about whiche he hath ſworne falſely, he ſhal reſtore it agayne in the whole B ſumme, and ſhal adde the fyfth parte more thereto, and geue it vnto hym to whom it apparteyneth, the ſame day that he offereth for his treſpaſſe.

6 And let hym bryng for his treſpaſſe vnto the Lorde, a Ramme without blemiſhe out of the flocke, that is eſteemed woorth a treſpaſſe offeryng, vnto the prieſt.

7 And the prieſt ſhal make an attonement for hym before the Lorde, and it ſhalbe forgeuen hym, whatſoeuer thyng it be, that he hath donne and treſpaſſed therein.

8 And the Lorde ſpake vnto Moſes, ſayeing,

9 Commaunde Aaron and his ſonnes, ſayeing, (This is the lawe of the burnt offering. *The burnt offeryng ſhalbe vpon the harth of the aulter al nyght, vnto the mornyng, and the fyre ſhalbe kyndeled on the aulter.)

Exo.29.g.

10 And the prieſt ſhal put on his *lynnen garment, and his lynnen breeches vpon his fleaſh, & take away the aſhes vpon the whiche the fire conſumed the burnt ſacrifice in the aulter, and he ſhal put them beſyde the aulter.

Exo.28.g.

11 And put of his rayment, and put on other, and carry the aſhes out without the hoaſt vnto a cleane place.

12 The fire vpon the aulter ſhal burne ſtyl, and neuer be put out: But the prieſt ſhal lay wood on it euery day in the mornyng, and put the burnt ſacrifice vpon it, and he ſhal burne thereon the fat of the peace offerynges.

13 (a)The fyre ſhal euer burne vpon the aulter, and neuer goe out.

(a) This fire prefigured Chriſte, for as fire dooth purifie, heate, and conſume: ſo Chriſte by his death and paſſion purifieth ſinners, and conſumeth al ſinnes, and by his holy ſpirite heateth and warmeth al the faythful.

C

16 And of the reſt thereof, ſhal Aaron and his ſonnes eate: vnleauened ſhal it be eaten in the holy place, euen in the court of the tabernacle of the congregation they ſhal eate it.

17 It ſhal not be baken with leauen: I haue geuen it vnto them for their portion of my ſacrifices made by fyre: It is moſte holy, as is the ſynne offeryng, and the treſpaſſe offeryng.

18 Al the males among the children of Aaron ſhal eate of it: It ſhalbe a ſtatute for euer in your generations, concernyng the ſacrifice of the Lorde made by fyre: let euery one that toucheth it, be holy,

19 And the Lorde ſpake vnto Moſes, ſayeing,

20 This is the offeryng of Aaron, and of his ſonnes, whiche they ſhal offer vnto the Lord in the day when he is annoynted: The tenth parte of an Epha of floure for a meate offeryng perpetual, halfe of it in the mornyng, and halfe thereof at nyght.

22 And he of his ſonnes that is a prieſt, that is annoynted in his ſteede, ſhal offer it: It is the Lordes ordinaunce for euer, it ſhalbe burnt altogeather.

23 For euery meate offeryng, that is made for the prieſt, ſhalbe burnt altogeather, and ſhal not be eaten.

24 And the Lorde ſpake vnto Moſes, ſayeing,

25 Speake vnto Aaron and vnto his ſonnes, and ſaye, This is the lawe of the ſynne offeryng: In the place where the burnt offeryng is kylled, ſhal the ſinne offeryng be kylled before the Lorde, for it is moſt holy.

Oſee.4.b. 26 *The prieſt that offereth it, ſhal eate it: In the holy place ſhal it be eaten, euen in the court of the tabernacle of the congregation.

27 Whatſoeuer ſhal touche the fleaſhe thereof, ſhalbe holy: and when there droppeth of the blood therof vpon any garment, thou ſhalt waſhe that whereon it droppeth, in the holy place.

Leui.15.d. 28 *But the earthen pot, that it is ſodden in, ſhalbe broken: And yf it be ſodden in a braſen pot, it ſhalbe ſcoured, and renſed in the water.

29 Al the males among the prieſtes ſhal eate thereof, for it is moſt holy.

30 And no ſinne offeryng, whoſe bloode is brought into the tabernacle of the congregation, to reconcile withal in the holy place, ſhalbe eaten: but ſhalbe burnt in the fire.

The.vij.Chapter.

1 Treſpaſſe offerynges. Sinne offerynges. 11 Peace offerynges.
23 The fat and the blood may not be eaten.

A 1 LIkewiſe this is the law (a) of the treſpaſſe offering: it is moſte holye.

(a) Becauſe it was altogeather burnt with fyre, or that the prieſtes only dyd eate it.

2 In the place, where they kylle the burnt offeryng, ſhal they kylle the treſpaſſe offeryng alſo, and the blood therof ſhalbe ſprinckled round about vpon the aulter.

3 Al the fat thereof ſhal he offer, the rumpe, and the fat, that couereth the inwardes,

4 And the two kydneyes, and the fat that is on them, and vpon the flankes, and the calle that is on the liuer, ſhalt thou take awaye with the kydneyes.

5 And the prieſt ſhal burne them vpon the aulter, to be a ſacrifice made by fire vnto the Lorde: for it is a treſpaſſe offeryng.

6 Al the males among the prieſtes ſhal eate thereof: it ſhalbe eaten in the holy place, for it is moſt holy. B

7 As the ſinne offering is, ſo is the treſpaſſe offering: one lawe ſerueth for both: that wherewith the prieſt ſhal make attonement, ſhalbe his.

8 And the prieſt that offereth any mans burnt offeryng, ſhal haue the ſkynne of the burnt offering, whiche he hath offered.

9 And al the meate offering, that is baken in the ouen, and that is dreſſed in the panne, and in the fryeing panne, ſhalbe the prieſtes, that offereth it.

10 And euery meate offering that is mingled with oyle, and that is drye, ſhal parteyne vnto al the ſonnes of Aaron, and one ſhal haue as muche as another.

11 This is the lawe of the peace offeryng, whiche he ſhal offer vnto the Lorde.

12 If he offer it to geue thankes, he ſhal bring vnto his (b) thanke offering vnleauened cakes mingled with oyle, and vnleauened wafers anoynted with oyle, and cakes mingled with oyle of fine floure, fryed.

(b) The Hebrue worde ſignifieth to prayſe, & geue thankes, this ſacrifice they vſed, when any mã knowledged him ſelf to be a ſinner, and confeſſed his ſinnes vnto the lorde, wyllyng to reconcile hym ſelfe vnto him.

13 He ſhal bryng his offering with cakes of vnleauened bread for his peace offeringes, to geue thankes:

14 And of al the ſacrifice he ſhal offer one for an heaue offering vnto the Lord, and it ſhal be the prieſtes, that ſprinckled the blood of the peace offeringes.

15 And the fleaſhe of his peace offeringes for thankes geuing, ſhalbe eaten the ſame day that it is offered: And let him leaue nothing of it vntil the morowe.

16 But if the offeryng of his ſacrifice be a vowe, or of his owne free wil, it ſhalbe eaten the ſame day, that he offereth his ſacrifice: and if ought remayne vntil the morowe, it may be eaten.

17 But as muche of the offered fleaſhe, as remayneth vnto the thirde daye, ſhalbe burnt with fire.

18 And if any of the fleaſhe of his peace offeringes be eaten in the thirde day, then ſhal he that offereth it, obteyne no fauour, neither ſhal it be reckened vnto him, but ſhalbe an abomination: therefore the ſoule that eateth of it, ſhal beare his ſinne.

19 And the fleaſh that toucheth any vncleane thing, ſhal not be eatẽ, but burnt with fire: & of this fleaſh al that be cleane, ſhal eat therof.

20 But if any ſoule eate of the fleaſhe of the peace offering, that parteyneth vnto the lord, hauing his vncleannes vpon him: the ſame ſoule ſhal be cut of from among his people.

21 Moreouer, the ſoule that dooth touche any vncleane thyng, that is of the vncleanneſſe of man, or of any vncleane beaſt, or any abomination, that is vncleane, and then eate of the fleaſhe of the peace offering, whiche parteyneth vnto the Lorde, that ſoule ſhalbe cut of from his people. D

22 And the Lord ſpake vnto Moſes, ſayeing,

23 Speake vnto the children of Iſrael, and ſay, ye ſhal eate no manner fat of beeues, of ſheepe, and of goates. Leuit.3.c.

24 Neuerthelater, the fat of the beaſt, that dyeth alone, and the fat of that whiche is torne with wylde beaſtes, ſhalbe occupied in any maner of vſe: but ye ſhal in no wiſe eate of it.

25 For whoſoeuer eateth the fat of the beaſt, of whiche menne vſe to bryng an offeryng made by fyre vnto the Lorde: that ſoule that eateth it, ſhalbe cut of from his people.

Gen.ix.a. Leui.17.c. and.xix.f. Deut.12.b i.Reg.14.e 26 Moreouer, ye* ſhal eate no manner of blood, whether it be of foule, or of beaſt, in any your dwellynges.

27 Whatſoeuer ſoule it be that eateth any manner of blood, the ſame ſoule ſhalbe cut of from his people.

E 28 And the Lorde talked with Moſes, ſayeing,

29 Speake vnto the chyldren of Iſrael, and ſay, He that bringeth his peace offeryng vnto the Lorde, let hym bryng his gyft vnto the Lorde of his peace offeryng:

30 Let his owne handes bring the offeringes of the Lorde made by fyre: euen the fat with the breaſt ſhal he bryng, that the breaſt may be waued for a waue offeryng before the Lorde.

31 And the prieſt ſhal burne the fat vpon the aulter, and the breaſt ſhalbe Aarons and his ſonnes.

32 And the ryght ſhoulder ſhal ye geue vnto the prieſt for an heaue offeryng, of your peace offerynges.

33 The ſame that offereth the blood of the peace offerynges, & the fat among the ſonnes of Aaron, ſhal haue the ryght ſhoulder for his part:

34 For the* waue breaſt, and the heaue ſhoulder, haue I taken of the chyldren of Iſrael, euen of their peace offerynges, and haue geuen them vnto Aaron the prieſt, and vnto his ſonnes, by a ſtatute for euer from among the chyldren of Iſrael. Num.18.e

35 This is the annoynting of Aaron, and the annoyntyng of his ſonnes, concernyng the ſacrifices of the Lorde made by fyre, in the day, when he offered them to be prieſtes vnto the Lorde. F

36 And theſe be the [portions] whiche the lord commaunded to be geuen them in the day of their annoyntyng from among the chyldren of Iſrael, by a ſtatute for euer in their generations.

37 This is the law of the burnt offering, and of the meate offeryng, and of the ſacrifice for ſynne and treſpaſſe, for conſecrations, and for the peace offeryng:

38 Whiche the Lorde commaunded Moſes in the mount Sinai, when he commaunded the chyldren of Iſrael to offer their ſacrifices vnto the Lorde, in the wylderneſſe of Sinai.

3 And geather thou al the congregation togeather vnto the doore of the tabernacle of the congregation.

4 And Moſes dyd as the Lorde commaunded hym: and the people were geathered togeather vnto the doore of the tabernacle of the congregation.

5 And Moſes ſayde vnto the congregation, This is the thyng whiche the Lorde commaunded to be donne.

6 And Moſes brought Aaron and his ſonnes, and waſhed them with water:

B 7 And put vpon hym the coate, and girded hym with a girdle, and put vpon hym the robe, and put the Ephod thereon, whiche he girded with the brodered garde, that was in the Ephod, & bounde it vnto him therewith.

8 And he put the breaſtplate theron, and put in the breaſtplate the Urim & the Thummim.

9 And he put the cap of eſtate vpon his head, and put vpon the cap, euen vpon the forefront, the golden plate, the holy crowne, as the Lorde commaunded Moſes.

10 *And Moſes tooke the annoyntyng oyle, and annoynted the tabernacle, and al that was therein, and ſanctified them: Exod.30.d

11 And ſprinckled thereof vpon the aulter ſeuen tymes, and annoynted the aulter and al the veſſelles thereof, the lauer and his foote, to ſanctifie them.

12 And he powred of the annoyntyng oyle vpon Aarons head, and annoynted hym, to ſanctifie hym.

13 And Moſes brought Aarons ſonnes, and put coates vpon them, & girded them with girdles, and put bonettes vpon their heades, as the Lorde commaunded Moſes.

14 *And he brought the Bullocke for the ſinne offeryng: and Aaron and his ſonnes put their handes vpon the head of the Bullocke for the ſinne offeryng. C Exod.19.a

15 And Moſes ſlewe him, and tooke the blood, whiche he put vpon the hornes of the aulter rounde about with his finger, and purified the aulter, & powred the blood at the bottome of the aulter, and ſanctified it, to make reconciliation vpon it.

16 And he tooke al the fat, that was vpon the inwardes, and the calle of the liuer, and the two kydneyes, and their fat, and Moſes burned it vpon the aulter.

17 But the Bullocke, & his hyde, his fleaſhe, and his dounge, he burnt with fire without the hoaſt, as the Lord commaunded Moſes.

18 And he brought the Ramme for the burnt offeryng, and Aaron and his ſonnes put their handes vpon the head of the Ramme, 19 Whiche Moſes kylled, and ſprinckled the blood vpon the aulter rounde about.

20 And Moſes cut the Ramme into his peeces, and burnt the head, the peeces, and the fat:

D 21 And waſhed the inwardes, and the legges in water: and Moſes burnt the Ramme euery whit vpon the aulter: for it was a burnt ſacrifice for a ſweete ſauour, and an offeryng made by fire vnto the Lorde, as the Lorde commaunded Moſes.

Exod.29.f 22 *And he brought the other Ramme, namely the Ramme of conſecrations: and Aaron and his ſonnes put their handes vpon the head of the Ramme, 23 Whiche Moſes ſlewe, and tooke of the blood of it, and put it vpon the tip of Aarons ryght eare, and vpon the thumbe of his right hande, and vpon the great toe of his ryght foote.

24 And Moſes brought Aarons ſonnes, and put of the blood on the tippe of the ryght eare of them, and vpon the thumbes of their right handes, and vpon the great toes of their right feete: and Moſes ſprinckled the blood vpon the aulter rounde about.

Exod.29.d 25 *And he tooke the fat, and the rumpe, and al the fat, that was vpon the inwardes, and the calle of the liuer, and the two kydneyes with their fat, and the ryght ſhoulder.

26 And out of the baſket of vnleauened bread, that was before the Lorde, he tooke one vnleauened cake, and a cake of oyled bread, and one wafer, and put them on the fat, and vpon the ryght ſhoulder:

27 And put altogeather vpon Aarons handes, and vpon his ſonnes handes, and waued it a waue offeryng before the Lorde.

28 And Moſes tooke them from of their handes, and burnt them vpon the aulter, for a burnt offeryng: These were conſecrations for a ſweete ſauour, and ſacrifice made by fire vnto the Lorde. E

29 *And Moſes tooke the breaſt, and waued it for a waue offeryng before the Lorde: for of the Ramme of conſecrations, it was Moſes part, as the Lorde commaunded Moſes. Exod.29.c

30 And Moſes tooke of the annoyntyng oyle, and of the blood whiche was vpon the aulter, and ſprinckled it vpon Aaron, and vpon his garmentes, and vpon his ſonnes, and on his ſonnes garmentes with him: and ſanctified Aaron and his veſtures, and his ſonnes, and his ſonnes veſtures with hym.

31 And Moſes ſayd vnto Aaron & his ſonnes, Boyle the fleaſhe at the doore of the tabernacle of the congregation, & there *eate it with the bread, that is in the baſket of conſecration, and as I commaunded, ſayeing, Aaron and his ſonnes ſhal eate it. Exod.29.f

32 And that, whiche remayneth of the fleaſh, and of the bread, ſhal ye burne with fire.

33 And ye ſhal not depart from the doore of the tabernacle of the cõgregation ſeuen daies, vntyl the dayes of your conſecrations be at an ende: for ſeuen dayes ſhal he fylle your hande.

34 As he dyd this day: euen ſo the Lorde hath commaunded to doo, to make an attonement for you.

35 Therefore ſhal ye abyde at the doore of the tabernacle of the congregation day & nyght, ſeuen dayes long, and kepe the watche of the Lorde, and ye ſhal not dye: for ſo I am commaunded.

36 And ſo Aaron & his ſonnes, dyd al thynges, whiche the Lorde commaunded by the hand of Moſes.

The.ix.Chapter.

8 The firſt offerynges of Aaron. 22 Aaron bleſſeth the people. 23 The glorie of the Lorde is ſhewed.

☞ A 1 AND in the eyghth day, Moſes called Aaron and his ſonnes, and the elders of Iſrael:

2 And he ſayde vnto Aaron, Take thee a young Calfe for a ſinne offeryng, and a Ramme for a burnt offeryng, both without blemiſhe, and bring them before the Lorde.

3 And vnto the chyldren of Iſrael thou ſhalt ſpeake, ſayeing, Take ye an hee Goate for a ſinne offeryng, and a Calfe, & a Lambe, both of a yeere olde, without blemiſhe, for a burnt ſacrifice.

4 Alſo a Bullocke and a Ramme for peace offerynges, to offer before the Lorde, and a meate offeryng mingled with oyle: for to day the Lorde wyl appeare vnto you.

5 And they brought that, whiche Moſes commaunded, before the tabernacle of the congregation: and al the congregation came, and ſtoode before the Lorde.

6 And Moſes ſayd, This is the thing, whiche the Lorde commaunded, that ye ſhould doo, and the glorie of the Lorde ſhal appeare vnto you.

B

Heb,v.a. and.vii.d,

7 *And Moſes ſayde vnto Aaron, Goe vnto the aulter, and offer the ſacrifice for thy ſinne, and thy burnt offeryng, and make an attonement for thee and for the people: and thou ſhalt offer the offeryng of the people, and make an attonement for them, as the Lorde commaunded.

8 Aaron therefore went vnto the aulter, and ſlewe the Calfe of the ſinne offeryng, whiche was for him ſelfe.

9 And the ſonnes of Aaron brought the blood vnto hym, & he dypt his fynger in the blood, and put it vpon the hornes of the aulter, and powred the blood at the bottome of the aulter.

10 But the fat and the two kydneys, and the calle of the liuer of the ſinne offeryng he burnt vpon the aulter, as the Lorde commaunded Moſes.

11 The fleaſhe, and the hide he burnt with fire without the hoaſte.

Leuit,ii.a,

12 And he ſlewe the burnt offeryng, *and Aarons ſonnes brought vnto hym the blood, whiche he ſprinckled rounde about vpon the aulter.

13 And they brought the burnt offeryng vnto hym, with the peeces thereof, and the head: and he burnt [them] vpon the aulter.

C

14 And he dyd waſhe the inwardes, and the legges, and burnt them vpon the burnt offeryng in the aulter.

15 And then he brought the peoples offeryng, takyng the Goate, whiche was the ſinne offering for the people, and ſlewe it, and offered it for ſinne, as he dyd the firſt.

16 And brought the burnt offeryng, and offered it as the manner was.

Leui,iiii,a

17 *And he brought the meate offeryng and fylled his hand thereof, and burnt it vpon the aulter, beſyde the burnt ſacrifice of the mornyng.

18 He ſlewe alſo the Bullocke & the Ramme for the peace offeryng, whiche was for the people: and Aarons ſonnes brought vnto hym the blood, whiche he ſprinckled vpon the aulter rounde about:

19 And the fat of the Bullocke, and of the Ramme, the rumpe, and that couereth the inwardes, and the kydneyes, and the calle of the liuer.

D

20 And they put the fat vpon the breaſtes, and he burnt the fat vpon the aulter:

21 But the breaſtes & the ryght ſhoulder, Aaron waued for a waue offeryng before the Lorde, as the Lorde commaunded Moſes.

22 And Aaron lyfted vp his hande ouer the people, and bleſſed them, and came downe from offeryng of the ſinne offeryng, burnt offeryng, and peace offerynges.

23 And Moſes and Aaron went into the tabernacle of the congregation, and came out, and bleſſed the people: and the glorie of the Lorde appeared vnto al the people.

ii,par,vii,a 2,Mac,ii,b

24 *And there came a fire out from before the Lorde, and conſumed vpon the aulter the burnt offeryng and the fat: whiche, when al the people ſawe, they gaue thankes, and felle on their faces.

The.x.Chapter.

1 Nadab and Abihu are ſlayne. 6 Iſrael mourneth for them. 9 The prieſtes are forbydden wyne.

A

Leui.xvi,a Exod,30,b

1 AND *Nadab and Abihu, the ſonnes of Aaron, tooke eyther of them his cenſer, and put fire therein, and put incenſe thervpon, and offered (a) ſtraunge fire before the Lorde, whiche he commaunded them not.

2 And there went a fyre from the Lorde, and conſumed them, and they dyed before the Lorde.

3 Then Moſes ſayde vnto Aaron, This is it, that the Lorde ſpake, ſayeing, I wyl be (b) ſanctified in them, that comme nygh me, and before al the people I wylbe glorified. And Aaron helde his peace.

4 And Moſes called Miſael, and Elſaphan

(a) Sacrifices not appointed by the lawe, though interpriſed of a good zeale, intent, and affectiō, doo yet neuertheleſſe diſpleaſe God. Strãge fire, is called, eyther, becauſe in the burning of the incenſe, ŷ two ſonnes of Aaron tooke not of it, that continually was reſerued vpon the aulter of burnt offeryng, wherof Moſes ſpake before in the.6.Chapter, (for they were wont to take coles therhence, to burne fumes vpon the aulter of incenſe) or els becauſe they tooke vnlawful incenſe. The lawful is deſcribed in the.30.of Exod. But howe ſo euer it were, this thing is euident, that they made vnlawful ſacrifice, whiche was not commaunded by the lawe of God. Beware therefore of worſhippes framed after our owne opinion.

(b) I wylbe ſanctified, that is, I wyl appeare holy. Somme doo ſay, I wyl pouniſhe them that be nygh vnto me. A queſtion is, where God ſpake this, that Moſes allegeth? Somme of the Hebrues doo ſay, in the.19.of Exodus: And let the prieſtes alſo whiche comme vnto the Lorde, ſanctifie them ſelues, leaſt the Lorde deſtroy them. Somme others, when he ſayde to Moſes in the 29.of the ſame booke. And I wyl meete with the chyldren of Iſrael, and the place ſhalbe ſanctified in my glorie. Hereof they vnderſtande this place thus, as though God ſhould ſay: Neyther wyl I ſpare the prieſtes, whiche are nygheſt me, yf they ſtray and doo amiſſe, that is, I wyl pouniſhe them, I wyl pouniſhe others muche more. And thus by ſhewyng his myght and power, he wylbe feared, aduaunced, prayſed, and ſanctified, euen in them, whiche be nygheſt: For I vtterly wyl (ſayeth God) that prieſtes whiche doo the miniſterie of my ſacrifices, do it accordyng to my worde, and not after their owne humane reaſon.

the ſonnes of Oziel, the vncle of Aaron, and ſayde vnto them, Comme neare, carrie your brethren from before the ſanctuarie, out of the hoaſte.

5 And they went to them, and caryed them in their coates out of the hoaſt, as Moſes had ſayde.

6 And Moſes ſayde vnto Aaron, and vnto Eleazar, and Ithamar his ſonnes, (c) Uncouer not your heades, nor rent your clothes, leſt ye dye, and leſt wrath comme vpon al the people: But let your brethren, the whole houſe of Iſrael, bewayle the burnyng, which the Lorde hath kyndled.

(c) Here is the common vſe of lamentyng the dead amongeſt the Iſraelites ſet foorth, whiche Aaron & his ſonnes be forbidden, leſt it might appeare that they dyd grudge againſt Gods iudgement. Of this reade the .xxi. Chapter, the tenth verſe.

7 And goe not ye out from the doore of the tabernacle of the congregation, leſt ye dye: for the annoyntyng oyle of God is vpon you. And they dyd as Moſes ſayde.

B

8 And the Lorde ſpake vnto Aaron, ſayeing,

9 Thou ſhalt not drinke wine, nor ſtrong drinke, neyther thou, nor thy ſonnes, that are with thee, when ye goe into the tabernacle of the congregation, leſt ye dye: Let it be a lawe for euer throughout your generations.

10 And that ye may put difference betweene holy, and vnholy, betweene vncleane, and cleane:

11 And that ye may teache the chyldren of Iſrael al the ſtatutes, whiche the Lorde hath ſpoken vnto them by the handes of Moſes.

12 And Moſes ſayde vnto Aaron, and vnto Eleazar, and Ithamar his ſonnes, that were leaft: Take the meate offeryng, that remayneth of the ſacrifices of the Lorde made by fire, and eate it without leuen beſide the aulter: for it is moſt holy.

13 Ye ſhal eate it in the holy place, becauſe it is thy duetie, and thy ſonnes duetie, of the ſacrifices of the Lorde made by fire: for ſo I am commaunded.

14 And the waue breaſt, and heaue ſhoulder ſhal ye eate in a cleane place, thou, and thy ſonnes, & thy daughters with thee: For they be thy duetie, and thy ſonnes duetie, geuen out of the peace offerynges of the chyldren of Iſrael. C

15 The heaue ſhoulder, and the waue breaſt ſhal they bryng in with the ſacrifices made by fire, of the fat, to waue it for a waue offeryng before the Lorde: and it ſhalbe thine, and thy ſonnes with thee, by a lawe for euer, as the Lorde hath commaunded.

16 And Moſes ſought the goate, that was offred for ſinne, and ſee, it was burnt. And he was angry with Eleazar, and Ithamar the ſonnes of Aaron, whiche were leaft alyue, ſayeing, 17 Wherefore haue ye not eaten the ſinne offeryng in the holy place, ſeeyng it is moſt holy, and God hath geuen it you, to beare the ſinne of the congregation, to make agreement for them before the Lorde.

18 Beholde, the blood of it was not brought in within the holy place: Ye ſhoulde haue eaten it in the holy place, as I commaunded.

19 And Aaron ſayde vnto Moſes, Beholde, this day haue they offered their ſinne offeryng, and their burnt offeryng before the Lorde: (d) and ſuche thynges are comme vnto me, If I had eaten the ſinne offeryng to day, ſhoulde it haue ben accepted in the ſight of the Lorde?

(d) I haue not leafte this vndonne of any contempt or negligence, but both my chyldren be dead: and howe coulde I be mery in ſuche a woful and lamentable caſe of my chyldren.

20 And when Moſes hearde that, he was content.

The.xi.Chapter.

1 Of beaſtes, fiſhes, and byrdes: whiche be cleane, and whiche be vncleane.

☞ A

1 AND the Lorde ſpake vnto Moſes and Aaron, & ſayde vnto them,

2 Speake vnto the chyldren of Iſrael, & ſay, *Theſe are the beaſtes, whiche ye ſhal eate among al the beaſtes, that are on the earth.

Gen.vii.a.
Deut.14.a
Actes,x.c.

3 Whatſoeuer parteth the hoofe, and is clouen footed, & cheweth the cud among the beaſtes, that ſhal ye eate.

4 Neuertheleſſe, theſe ſhal ye not eate, of them that chewe the cud, & diuide the hoofe: [only] as is the Camel, whiche cheweth the cud, but diuideth not the hoofe: therfore is he vncleane vnto you.

5 Euen ſo the Connie, whiche cheweth the cud, but diuideth not the hoofe, is vncleane to you.

6 And the Hare though he chewe the cud, yet becauſe he diuideth not the hoofe, he is therefore vncleane to you.

7 And agayne the Swyne, though he diuide the hoofe, and is clouen footed, yet he cheweth not the cud: he is vncleane to you. B

8 Of their fleaſhe ſhal ye not eate, and their carkaſſes ſhal ye not touche: but let them be vncleane to you.

9 Theſe ſhal ye eate, of al that are in the waters: Whatſoeuer hath finnes and ſkales in the waters, ſeas, and riuers, that ſhal ye eate.

10 And al that haue not finnes, nor ſkales in the the ſea and riuers, of al that moue, and lyue in the waters, let them be abomination vnto you.

11 They, I ſay, ſhalbe an abomination vnto you: ye ſhal not eate of their fleaſhe, but abhorre their carkaſſes.

12 Let al that haue no finnes nor ſkales in the waters, be abominable vnto you.

13 Theſe are they, whiche ye ſhal abhorre among the foules, and that ought not to be eaten, for they are an abomination: The Egle, the Goſſehauke, and the Oſpray,

C 14 The Vultur, and the Kyte after his kynde,

15 And al Rauens after their kinde,

16 The Eſtrich, the nyght Crowe, the Cuckowe, and the Hauke after his kynde,

17 The Falcon, the Cormorant, the great Owle,

18 The Backe, the Pellicane, the Pye,

19 The Storke, the Iay after his kynde, the Lapwyng, and the Swalowe.

20 Let al foules, that creepe, and goe vpon al foure, be an abomination vnto you.

21 Yet theſe may ye eate, of euery creepyng thyng that hath wynges, and goeth vpon foure [feete]: euen thoſe, that haue not bowynges aboue vpon their feete, to leape withal vpon the earth.

D 22 Euen theſe of them ye may eate: the Arbe after his kynde, the Selaam after his kynde, the Hargol after his kinde, and the Hagab after his kynde.

23 Al [other] foules, that creepe, and haue foure feete, ſhalbe abomination vnto you.

24 In ſuche ye be vncleane: and whoſoeuer toucheth the carkaſſe of thē, ſhalbe vncleane vntyll the euentyde.

25 And whoſoeuer beareth the carkaſſe of thē, ſhall waſhe his clothes, and be vncleane vntyl the euen.

26 And euery beaſt, that hath hoofe, and is not clouen footed, nor cheweth the cud, ſuche are vncleane vnto you: euery one that toucheth them ſhalbe vncleane.

27 And whatſoeuer goeth vpon his pawes, among al manner beaſtes, that goe on al foure [feete,] ſuche are vncleane vnto you: and who ſo dooth touche their carkaſſe, * ſhalbe vncleane vntyl the euentyde.

Leuit.v.c.

28 And he that beareth the carkaſſe of them, ſhal waſhe his clothes, and be vncleane vntyl the euen: for ſuche are vncleane vnto you.

E 29 And let theſe alſo be vncleane to you, among the thinges, that creepe vpō the earth: the Weaſel, and the Mouſe, and the Toade after their kinde:

30 The Hedgehogge, the Stellio, the Lacert, the Snayle, and the Molle.

31 Theſe are vncleane to you among al that creepe: whoſoeuer dooth touche them, when they be dead, ſhalbe vncleane vntyl the euentyde.

32 And whatſoeuer any of the dead carkaſſes of them dooth falle vpon, ſhalbe vncleane, whether it be veſſel of wood, or rayment, or ſkinne, or ſacke: or whatſoeuer veſſel it be, that any worke is wrought in, & it muſt be plunged in the water, and it ſhalbe vncleane vntyl the euen, and ſo ſhal it be cleanſed.

33 Al manner of earthen veſſel, wherinto any of them falleth, ſhalbe vncleane, with al that therein is, *and it ſhalbe broken.

Leuit.vi.d

34 Al manner meate alſo, that is vſed to be eaten, yf any ſuche water comme vpon it, ſhalbe vncleane: And al manner drinke, that is vſed to be drunke in al manner ſuche veſſels, ſhalbe vncleane.

35 And euery thyng, that their carkaſſe falleth vpon ſhalbe vncleane: whether it be ouen, or kettle, let it be broken: For they are vncleane, and ſhalbe vncleane vnto you.

F 36 Neuerthelater the fountaynes, and welles, and collection of waters, ſhalbe cleane ſtyl: but that whiche toucheth their carkaſſes, ſhalbe vncleane.

37 If the dead carkaſſe of any ſuche falle vpon any ſeede vſed to be ſowen, it ſhal yet be cleane ſtyl:

38 But yf any water be powred vpon the ſeede, and a dead carkaſſe falle thereon, it ſhalbe vncleane vnto you.

39 If any beaſt, of whiche ye may eate, dye, and any man touche the dead carkaſſe thereof, he ſhalbe vncleane vntyl the euentyde.

40 He that eateth of the dead carkaſſe of it, ſhal waſhe his clothes, and be vncleane vntyl the euen: And he alſo, that beareth the carkaſſe of it, ſhal waſhe his clothes, and be vncleane vntyl the euentyde.

G 41 Let euery creepyng thyng, that creepeth vpon the earth, be an abomination, and not be eaten.

42 Whatſoeuer goeth vpon the breaſt, and whatſoeuer goeth vpon foure, or that hath moe feete among al creepyng thynges, that creepe vpon the earth, of that ſee ye eate not, for they are abominable.

43 Ye ſhal not make your ſoules abominable with any thyng that creepeth, neyther make your ſelues vncleane with them, that ye ſhoulde be defyled thereby.

44 For I am the Lorde your God: Be ſanctified therfore, and ye ſhalbe holy: for I am holy: and ye ſhal not defyle your ſoules with any manner of creepyng thyng, that creepeth vpon the earth:

D 45 For I am the Lorde, that brought you out of the lande of Egypt, to be your God: ye ſhalbe holy therefore, for I am holy.

Leuit.v.e. 46 This is the lawe of beaſtes and foules, and of euery lyuing creature, that moueth in the waters, and of euery creature, that creepeth vpon the earth, 47 That there may be a difference betweene the vncleane, and cleane, and betweene the beaſt, that may be eaten, and the beaſt, that ought not to be eaten.

The.xii.Chapter.

2 A lawe, howe women ſhoulde be purged after their delyueraunce.

1 A AND the Lorde ſpake vnto Moſes, ſayeing,

2 Speake vnto the chyldren of Iſrael, and ſay, If a woman haue conceaued ſeede, and borne a man childe, ſhe ſhalbe vncleane ſeuen dayes: euen accordyng to the dayes of the ſeparation of her infirmitie, ſhal ſhe be vncleane.

3 And in the eyghth day, the fleaſhe of the childes * foreſkinne ſhalbe cut away. Gen.17.b. Luk.ii.d.

4 And ſhe ſhal then continue in the blood of her purifieyng, three and thirtie dayes: She ſhal touche no halowed thyng, nor comme into the ſanctuarie, vntyl the tyme of her purifieyng be out.

5 If ſhe beare a mayde chylde, ſhe ſhalbe vncleane two weekes, accordyng as in her ſeparation: and ſhe ſhal continue in the blood of her purifieyng three ſcore and ſyxe dayes.

6 * And when the dayes of her purifieyng are out, whether it be for a ſonne, or for a daughter, ſhe ſhal bring a lambe of one yeere old for a burnt offeryng, and a young pigeon, or a turtle doue, for a ſinne offering, vnto the doore of the tabernacle of the congregation, vnto the prieſt: Luk.ii.d.

7 Whiche ſhal offer them before the Lorde, and make an attonement for her, and ſhe ſhalbe purged of the iſſue of her blood. * And this is the lawe for her, that hath borne a male, or female. B Leuit.v.b.

8 But if ſhe be not able to bring a lambe, ſhe ſhal bryng * two turtles, or two young pigeons, the one for the burnt offeryng, and the other for a ſinne offeryng: And the prieſt ſhal make an attonement for her, and ſhe ſhalbe cleane. Luk.ii.d.

The.xiii.Chapter.

1 The prieſtes muſt haue a conſyderation, and iudge, who are lepers.
47 Of the leperous garmentes.

1 A AND the Lorde ſpake vnto Moſes and Aaron ſayeing,

2 The man, that ſhal haue in the ſkynne of his fleaſhe, a ſwellyng, eyther a ſcabbe, or a glyſtryng white, and the plague of leproſie be in the ſkynne of his fleaſhe, he ſhalbe brought vnto Aaron the prieſt, or vnto one of his ſonnes the prieſtes.

3 And the prieſt ſhal looke on the ſoare in the ſkynne of his fleaſhe: and when the heare in the ſoare is turned to whyte, and the ſoare alſo ſeemeth to be lower, then the ſkynne of his fleaſhe, it is a plague of leproſie: and the prieſtes ſhal looke on hym, and iudge hym vncleane.

4 If there be a whyte plecke in the ſkynne of his fleaſh, and ſeeme not to be lower then the ſkynne, nor the heare thereof is turned vnto whyte, the prieſt ſhal ſhut vp [hym that hath] the plague, ſeuen dayes.

5 And the prieſt ſhal looke vpon hym againe the ſeuenth day: and yf the plague ſeeme to hym to abyde ſtyl, and the plague growe not in the ſkynne, the prieſt ſhal ſhut vp[him that hath]the plague, ſeuen dayes moe.

6 And the prieſt ſhal looke on him againe the ſeuenth day: Then yf the plague be darker, and not growen in the ſkynne, the prieſt ſhal iudge hym cleane, for it is but a ſcabbe: And he ſhal waſhe his clothes, and be cleane.

7 But if the ſcabbe growe in the ſkinne, after that he is ſeene of the prieſt, & iudged cleane, he ſhalbe ſeene of the prieſt agayne. B

8 If the prieſt ſee, that the ſcabbe be growen abroade in the ſkynne, the prieſt ſhal make hym vncleane:[for] it is a leproſie.

9 When the plague of the leproſie is in a man, he ſhalbe brought vnto the prieſt,

10 And the prieſt ſhal ſee hym: And yf the ſwellyng be whyte in the ſkynne, and haue made the heare whyte, and there be rawe fleaſhe in the ſwellyng,

11 It wylbe an olde leproſie in the ſkynne of his fleaſhe, and the prieſt ſhal make hym vncleane, and ſhal not ſhut him vp, ſeeyng he is vncleane.

12 If a leproſie breake out abrode in the ſkinne, and couer al the ſkynne from his head to his foote, whereſoeuer the prieſt looketh, 13 Then the prieſt ſhal conſyder: and if the leproſie haue couered al his fleaſhe, he ſhal iudge the plague to be cleane, becauſe it is al turned into whiteneſſe, and he ſhalbe cleane.

C 14 But if there be rawe fleaſhe on him, when he is ſeene, he ſhalbe vncleane.

15 And the prieſt ſhal ſee the rawe fleaſhe, and declare hym to be vncleane: for the rawe fleaſhe is vncleane, ſeeyng it is a leproſie.

16 Or yf the rawe fleaſhe turne agayne, and chaunge vnto whyte, he ſhal comme to the prieſt:

17 And the prieſt ſhal ſee hym: and beholde, if the ſoare be chaunged vnto white, the prieſt ſhal iudge the plague cleane, and he ſhalbe cleane.

18 The fleaſhe alſo in the ſkinne wherof there is a byle, and is healed,

19 And in the place of the byle there appeareth a whyte riſing, or a ſhining white, & ſommewhat reddiſhe, it ſhal be ſeene of the prieſt.

20 And if, when the prieſt ſeeth it, it appeare lower then the ſkinne, and the heare therof be chaunged vnto whyte, the prieſt ſhal iudge hym vncleane: for it is a plague of leproſie, broken out of the byle.

D 21 But if the prieſt looke on it, and there be no whyte heares therein, and if it be not lower then the ſkinne, but be darker, the prieſt ſhal ſhut hym vp ſeuen dayes.

22 And if it ſpreade abroade in the ſkynne, the prieſt ſhal make him vncleane, ſeeyng it is a ſoare.

23 But if the ſpot ſtande ſtyl, and growe not, it is a ſcarre of a byle, and therefore the prieſt ſhal declare him to be cleane.

24 If there be any fleaſhe, in the ſkinne wherof there is a hote burnyng, and the quicke fleaſhe, that burneth, haue a whyte ſpot, ſommewhat reddiſhe or whyte,

25 The prieſt ſhal looke vpon it: and if the heare in that bryght ſpot be chaunged to white, and it appeare lower then the ſkynne, it is a leproſie broken out of the burning, and therefore the prieſt ſhal iudge hym vncleane, ſeeyng it is the plague of leproſie.

26 But if the prieſt looke on it, and there be no whyte heare in the bright ſpot, and the place be no lower, then the other ſkynne, but be darker, the prieſt ſhal ſhut hym vp ſeuen dayes.

27 And the prieſt ſhal looke on hym the ſeuenth day: and if it be growen abroade in the ſkynne, the prieſt ſhal iudge hym vncleane, ſeeyng it is the plague of leproſie.

28 And if the ſpot ſtande ſtyl in it, and growe not in the ſkynne, but be darke, it is a ryſyng of the burnyng, and the prieſt ſhal therefore declare hym cleane, ſeeyng it is a ſcarre of the burnyng.

E

29 If man or woman haue a ſoare vpon the head, or the bearde,

30 The prieſt ſhal ſee the ſoare: and if it appeare lower then the ſkinne, and there be in it a yelowe heare, and thynne, the prieſt ſhal iudge hym vncleane, ſeeyng that the ſame freatyng is a token of leproſie, vpon the head or bearde,

31 And if the prieſt looke on the ſoare of the freate, & it ſeemeth not lower, then the ſkinne, and that the heare is not blacke, the prieſt ſhal ſhut vp the freatyng ſoare ſeuen dayes.

32 And in the ſeuenth day the prieſt ſhal looke on the ſoare: and if the freate be not growen, and there be in it no yelowe heare, and the freate ſeeme not lower then the ſkinne,

33 He ſhalbe ſhauen, but the freate ſhal he not ſhaue: and the prieſt ſhal ſhut vp the freate ſeuen dayes moe.

34 And in the ſeuenth day the prieſt ſhal looke on the freate: and if the freate be not growen in the ſkynne nor ſeeme lower then the other ſkinne, the prieſt ſhal clenſe hym: and he ſhal waſhe his clothes, and be cleane.

35 But if the freate growe in the ſkynne after his cleanſing,

36 The prieſt ſhal looke on hym: and yf the freate be growen in the ſkynne, the prieſt ſhal not ſeeke for yelowe heare: for he is vncleane.

F 37 But if he ſee the freate ſtande ſtyl, and that there is blacke heare growen vp therein, the freate is healed, and he ſhalbe cleane, and the prieſt ſhal declare him to be cleane.

38 If there be many whyte ſpottes in the ſkynne of the fleaſhe of man or woman, 39 The prieſt ſhal looke vpon it: and yf the ſpottes in the ſkinne of their fleaſhe be ſomewhat darke and whyte withal, it is a frekel growyng in the ſkynne: therefore he is cleane.

40 And the man, whoſe heare is fallen of his head, is balde, yet cleane notwithſtandyng:

41 And he that hath his heare fallen of on the part of his head towarde his face, is forehead balde, yet cleane notwithſtandyng.

42 If there be in the balde head or balde forehead a whyte reddiſhe ſoare, there is leproſie ſprong vp in his balde head or balde forehead.

43 And the prieſt ſhal looke vpon hym: and yf the ryſyng of the ſoare be whyte reddyſhe in his balde head, or balde forehead, after the maner of leproſie, whiche is in the ſkinne of the fleaſhe,

G

44 Then he is a leprous man and vncleane: And the prieſt ſhal make hym vncleane, for the plague therof is in his head.

45 The leper, in whom the plague is, ſhal haue his clothes rent, and his head bare, and ſhal put a coueryng vpon his lippes, and ſhal crye, vncleane, vncleane.

Num.v.a.
4.Reg.15.a

46 And as long as the diſeaſe laſteth vpon hym, he ſhalbe defiled and vncleane: he ſhal dwelle alone, euen *without the campe ſhal his habitation be.

47 The garment alſo, that the plague of leproſie is in, whether it be a woollen garment, or a lynnen garment,

48 Whether it be in the warpe, or woofe, of lynnen, or of woollen, eyther in a ſkynne, or in any thyng made of ſkinne:

49 If the diſeaſe be lyght greene, or ſommewhat reddiſhe in the garnēt or ſkynne, whether it be in the warpe or woofe, or any thing, that is made of ſkynne, then it is a plague of leproſie, and ſhalbe ſhewed vnto the prieſt.

50 The prieſt therfore ſhal ſee the plague, and ſhut it vp ſeuen dayes.

51 And he ſhal looke on the plague the ſeuenth day: whiche, yf it be increaſed in the garment, whether it be in the warpe or woofe, or in a ſkynne, or in any thyng that is made of ſkinne, it is the leproſie of a freatyng ſoare: it is vncleane.

52 And he ſhal burne that garment, eyther warpe or woofe, whether it be woollen or lynnen, or any thing, that is made of ſkynne, wherein the plague is, for it is a freatyng leproſie: it ſhalbe burnt in the fire.

53 If the prieſt ſee, that the plague is not growen in the garment, either in the warpe or woofe, or in whatſoeuer thing of ſkinne it be,

54 The prieſt ſhal cōmaunde them to waſhe the thing, wherein the plague is, and he ſhal ſhut it vp ſeuen dayes moe.

55 And the prieſt ſhal looke on the plague agayne after that it is waſhed: and yf the plague haue not chaunged his colour, and be ſpreade no further abrode, it is vncleane, thou ſhalt burne it in the fire, for it is freat inward, whether it be balde behynde [in the head] or balde before.

56 And yf the prieſt ſee, that the plague is darker, after that it is waſhed, he ſhal cut it out of the garment, or out of the ſkynne, or out of the warpe, or out of the woofe.

57 And if it appeare ſtil in the garment, either in the warpe, or in the woofe, or in any thing made of ſkynne: it is a ſpreadyng plague: thou ſhalt burne that wherein the plague is, with fire.

58 Moreouer, the garment, eyther warpe or woofe, or whatſoeuer thyng of ſkynne it be, whiche thou haſt waſhed, yf the plague be departed therefrom, it ſhalbe waſhed once agayne, and then it ſhalbe cleane.

59 This is the lawe of the plague of leproſie in a garment, whether it be woollen or lynnen, eyther in the warpe, or in the woofe, or in any thyng of ſkinnes, to make it cleane, or vncleane.

The.xiiii.Chapter.

3 The cleanſyng of the leper, 34 and of the houſe, that he is in.

☞ A

1 AND the Lorde ſpake vnto Moſes, ſaieing,

Mat.viii.a
Mark.i.d.

2 *This is the lawe of the leper in the day of his cleanſyng: He ſhalbe brought vnto the prieſt:

3 And the prieſt ſhal goe out without the campe, and the prieſt ſhal looke vpon hym, and if the plague of leproſie be healed in the leper,

4 Then ſhal the prieſt commaunde him that is cleanſed, to take for hym, two lyue ſparrowes and cleane, and ceder wood, and a ſcarlet [lace] and hyſope.

5 And the prieſt ſhal commaunde, that one of the ſparrowes be kylled in an earthen veſſel, and vpon runnyng water.

6 And he ſhal take the lyuyng birde, with the ceder wood, the ſcarlet [lace] & the hyſope, and ſhal dippe them, and the lyuyng birde in the blood of the ſlayne birde, vpon the runnyng water:

B

7 And he ſhal ſprinckle vpon hym that muſt be cleanſed of his leproſie ſeuen tymes, and cleanſe hym, and ſhal let the liuyng birde goe free into the fielde.

8 And he that is cleanſed ſhal waſhe his clothes, & ſhaue of al his heare, and waſhe hymſelfe in water, that he may be cleane: And after that ſhal he comme into the hoaſt, and ſhal tarrie without his tent ſeuen dayes:

9 But in the ſeuenth day, he ſhal ſhaue of al his heare, [namely] his head, his bearde, and his browes, euen al his heare ſhalbe ſhauen of: And he ſhal waſhe his clothes, and alſo waſhe his fleaſhe in water, and he ſhalbe cleane.

10 In the eyghth day he ſhal take two hee lambes without blemyſhe, and an ewe lambe of a yeere olde without blemiſhe, and three tenth deales of fine flowre, for a meate offeryng myngled with oyle, and a (a) logge of oyle,

11 And the prieſt, that maketh him cleane, ſhal bryng the man, that is to be made cleane, and thoſe thynges, before the Lorde at the doore of the tabernacle of the congregation.

(a) This meaſure in Hebrue called logge, is the quantitie of ſixe egges ful.

12 And the prieſt ſhal take one lambe, and offer hym for a treſpaſſe offeryng, and the logge of oyle, and waue them for a waue offeryng before the Lorde.

13 And he ſhal ſlay the lambe in the place, where the ſinne offeryng, and the burnt offeryng are ſlayne, euen in the holy place: for as the ſinne offeryng is the prieſtes, euen ſo is the treſpaſſe offeryng, ſeeyng it is moſte holy.

C 14 And the prieſt ſhal take of the blood of the treſpaſſe offeryng, and put it vpon the tip of the right eare of him, that is to be cleanſed, and vpon the thumbe of his ryght hande, and vpon the great toe of his ryght foote.

15 The prieſt ſhal take of the logge of oyle, and powre it into the palme of his leaft hande:

16 And he ſhal dippe his ryght fynger in the oyle, that is in his left hande, and ſprinckle of the oyle with his fynger, ſeuen tymes before the Lorde.

17 And of the reſt of the oile, that is in his hand, ſhal the prieſt put vpon the tippe of the right eare of hym that is for to be cleanſed: and vpon the thumbe of his ryght hande, and vpon the great toe of his ryght foote, euen vpon the blood of the treſpaſſe offeryng.

18 And the remnaunt of the oyle, that is in the prieſtes hande, he ſhal powre vpon the head of him, that is for to be cleanſed, and the prieſt ſhal make an attonement for him before the Lorde.

19 And the prieſt ſhal offer the ſinne offeryng, and make an attonement for hym that is to be cleanſed from his vncleanneſſe, and then ſhal he kille the burnt offeryng.

20 And the prieſt ſhal offer the burnt offering, and the meate offeryng vpon the aulter: and the prieſt ſhal make an attonement for hym, and he ſhalbe cleane.

Leuit. v. b

D 21 *If he be poore, and can not geate ſo muche, he ſhal take one lambe for a treſpaſſe offering, to waue it for his attonement, & a tenth deale of fine flowre myngled with oyle, for a meate offeryng, and a logge of oyle,

22 And two turtle doues, or two young pigeons, ſuche as he is able to geate: whereof the one ſhalbe for a ſinne offeryng, and the other for a burnt offeryng.

23 And he ſhal bryng them the eighth day for his cleanſyng, vnto the prieſt before the doore of the tabernacle of the congregation, before the Lorde.

24 And the prieſt ſhal take the lambe that is for the treſpaſſe offeryng, and the logge of oyle, and waue them for a waue offeryng before the Lorde.

25 And he ſhal kylle the lambe for the treſpaſſe offeryng, and the prieſt ſhal take of the blood of the treſpaſſe offeryng, and put it vpon the tippe of his ryght eare, that is to be cleanſed, and vpon the thumbe of his right hande, and vpon the great toe of his ryght foote.

26 And the prieſt ſhal powre of the oyle into the palme of his owne left hande:

27 And the prieſt ſhal with his ryght fynger, ſprinckle of the oyle, that is in his left hande, ſeuen tymes before the Lorde.

28 And the prieſt ſhal put of the oyle, that is in his hande, vpon the tippe of the ryght eare of hym that is to be cleanſed, and vpon the thumbe of his ryght hande, and vpon the great toe of his ryght foote, euen in the place, where the blood of the treſpaſſe offeryng was put. E

29 And the reſt of the oyle, that is in the prieſtes hand, he ſhal put vpon the head of hym, that is to be cleanſed, that he may make an attonement for hym before the Lorde.

30 And he ſhal offer one of the turtle doues, or of the yong pigeons: ſuche as he can geate.

31 Suche [I ſay] as he is able to geate: the one for a ſinne offeryng, and the other for a burnt offeryng, with the meate offeryng: And the prieſt ſhal make an attonement for him, that is to be cleanſed, before the Lorde.

32 This is the lawe of hym, in whom is the plague of leproſie, and whoſe hande is not able to geate that, whiche parteyneth to his cleanſyng.

33 And the Lorde ſpake vnto Moſes and Aaron, ſayeing,

34 When ye be comme vnto the lande of Chanaan, whiche I geue you in poſſeſſion, yf I put the plague of leproſie in a houſe of the lande of your poſſeſſion:

35 He that oweth the houſe ſhal comme and tel the prieſt, ſayeing, Me thynketh that there is as it were a plague in the houſe.

36 Then the prieſt ſhal commaunde them to emptie the houſe, before the prieſt goe into it to ſee the plague, that al that is in the houſe, be not made vncleane: and then muſt the prieſt go in, to ſee the houſe.

37 And he ſhal ſee the plague: and if the plague be in the walles of the houſe, and that there be hollow ſtrakes, greeniſhe or reddiſhe, whiche ſeeme to be lower then the wal it ſelfe:

38 Then the prieſt ſhal goe out of the houſe, to to the doore of the houſe, & ſhut vp the houſe ſeuen dayes.

39 And the prieſt ſhal comme agayne the ſeuenth day, and yf he ſee that the plague be encreaſed in the walles of the houſe,

F 40 Then the prieſt ſhal commaunde them to take away the ſtones in whiche the plague is, and let them caſt them into a fowle place without the citie.

41 And he ſhal commaunde the houſe to be ſcraped within rounde about, and powre out the duſt, that they ſcrape of, without the citie into a foule place.

42 And they ſhal take other ſtones, and put them in the place of thoſe ſtones, and other morter to plaſter the houſe withal.

43 And if the plague come againe, and breake out in the houſe after that he hath taken away the ſtones, and ſcraped the houſe, and after that he hath plaſtered the houſe,

44 Then the prieſt ſhal comme and ſee it: and yf that the plague hath growen further in the houſe, it is a freating leproſie in the houſe, it is therefore vncleane.

45 And he ſhal breake downe the houſe, and the ſtones of it, and the tymber thereof, and al the morter of the houſe: and he ſhal carrie them out of the citie into a fowle place.

46 Moreouer, he that goeth into the houſe al the whyle that it is ſhut vp, ſhalbe vncleane vntil the euentide.

47 He alſo that ſleapeth in the houſe, ſhal waſhe his clothes: he lykewyſe that eateth in the houſe ſhal waſhe his clothes.

48 And yf the prieſt comme and ſee, that the plague hath ſpread no further in the houſe, after that it is newe plaſtered: the prieſt ſhal iudge, that houſe cleane, becauſe the plague is healed. G

49 And let him take to cleanſe the houſe withal, two byrdes, Cedar wood, and a ſcarlet [laſe] and hyſope.

50 And he ſhal kille one of the birdes in an earthen veſſel, and vpon running water:

51 And take the Cedar wood, and the hyſope, and the ſcarlet [laſe] with the lyuyng birde, and dippe them in the blood of the ſlayne bird, and in the runnyng water, and ſprinckle the houſe ſeuen tymes.

52 And he ſhal cleanſe the houſe with the blood of the birde, and with the running water, with the liuyng birde, with the Cedar wood, and the hyſope, and the ſcarlet [laſe.]

53 But he ſhal let the lyuyng birde flee out of the towne into the broade feeldes, & ſo make an attonement for the houſe, and it ſhalbe cleane.

54 This is the lawe for al manner plague of leproſie, and freate.

55 And of the leproſie of garment and houſe,

56 For a ſwellyng, for a ſcabbe, and for a ſhynyng white,

57 To teache, when it muſt be made vncleane, and cleane: this is the lawe of leproſie.

The.xv.Chapter.

2.19. The manner of purgyng the vncleanneſſe both of men and women. 31 The chyldren of Iſrael muſt ſeparate them ſelues from vncleanneſſe.

☞ 1 A AND the Lorde ſpake vnto Moſes and Aaron, ſayeng,

2 Speake vnto the chyldren of Iſrael, and ſay vnto them, Whoſoeuer hath a running iſſue out of his fleaſhe, is vncleane by reaſon of that iſſue.

3 And this ſhalbe his vncleanneſſe in his iſſue: yf his fleaſhe runne, or yf his fleaſhe be ſtopped from his iſſue, then it is vncleanneſſe.

4 Euery bedde whereon he lyeth, that hath the iſſue, is vncleane: and euery thyng whereon he ſitteth, is vncleane.

5 Whoſoeuer toucheth his bedde, ſhal waſhe his clothes, and bathe him ſelfe in water, and be vncleane vntyl the euen.

6 And he that ſitteth on any thyng, whereon he ſate that hath the iſſue, ſhal waſhe his clothes, and bathe him ſelfe in water, and be vncleane vntyl the euen.

7 He that toucheth the fleaſhe of him, that hath the iſſue, ſhal waſhe his clothes, and bathe hym ſelfe in water, and be vncleane vntyl the euen. B

8 If he alſo, that hath the iſſue, ſpit vpon him that is cleane, he ſhal waſhe his clothes, and bathe hym ſelfe in water, and be vncleane vntyl the euen.

9 And what ſaddle ſoeuer he rydeth vpon that hath the iſſue, ſhalbe vncleane.

10 And whoſoeuer toucheth any thyng that was vnder hym, ſhalbe vncleane vnto the euen: And he that beareth any ſuche thinges, ſhal waſhe his clothes, and bathe hym ſelfe in water, and be vncleane vntyl the euen.

11 And whomſoeuer he toucheth that hath the iſſue, and hath not waſhed his handes in water, ſhal waſhe his clothes, and bathe hym ſelfe in water, and be vncleane vntyl the euen.

Leuit,vi.d 12 * The veſſel of earth, that he toucheth whiche hath the iſſue, ſhalbe broken: And al veſſelles of wood ſhalbe renſed in water.

13 When he alſo, that hath any iſſue, is cleanſed of his iſſue, he ſhal number him ſeuen dayes for his cleanſyng, and waſhe his clothes, and bathe his fleaſhe in runnyng water, and ſo ſhal he be cleane.

C 14 And the eighth day he ſhal take to hym two turtle doues, or two young pigions, and comme before the Lorde, vnto the doore of the tabernacle of the congregation, and geue them vnto the prieſt.

15 And the prieſt ſhal offer them, the one for a ſinne offeryng, and the other for a burnt offeryng, and the prieſt ſhal make an attonement for hym before the Lord, as concerning his iſſue.

16 If any mans ſeede depart from hym in his ſleepe, he ſhal waſhe al his fleaſhe in water, and be vncleane vntyl the euen.

17 And euery garment, and euery ſkinne, wherein is ſuche ſeede of ſleepe, ſhalbe waſſhed with water, and be vncleane vntil the euen.

18 And if he that hath ſuche an iſſue of ſeede, doo lie with a woman, they ſhal both waſhe them ſelues with water, and be vncleane vntyl the euen.

19 Alſo yf a woman ſhal haue an iſſue, [and] her iſſue in her fleaſhe ſhalbe blood, ſhe ſhalbe put apart ſeuen dayes: Whoſoeuer toucheth her, ſhalbe vncleane vntyl the euen.

20 And al that ſhe lyeth vpon in the tyme of her ſeparation, ſhalbe vncleane: lyke as euery thyng alſo, that ſhe ſitteth vpon, is vncleane.

D 21 Whoſoeuer toucheth her bedde, ſhal waſhe his clothes, and bathe hym ſelfe with water, and be vncleane vntil the euen.

22 And whoſoeuer toucheth any thyng that ſhe ſate vpon, ſhal waſhe his clothes, and bathe hym ſelfe in water, and be vncleane vntyl the euen.

23 So that whether he touche her bedde, or any veſſel, whereon ſhe hath ſitten, he ſhalbe vncleane vntyl the euen.

24 * And yf a man lye with her, and her ſeparation comme vpon him, he ſhalbe vncleane ſeuen dayes: and al the bedde whereon he lyeth, ſhalbe vncleane. Leuit.18.c

25 Alſo if a woman haue an iſſue of her blood many dayes, out of the tyme of her ſeparation, or yf it runne beyonde her ſeparation, let al the dayes of the iſſue of her vncleanneſſe, be euen as the dayes of her ſeparation, [for] ſhe is vncleane.

26 Euery bedde whereon ſhe lyeth, as long as her iſſue laſteth, ſhalbe vnto her as the bedde of her ſeparation, and whatſoeuer ſhe ſitteth vpon, ſhalbe vncleane, as the vncleanneſſe of her ſeparation.

27 And whoſoeuer toucheth any of theſe, ſhalbe vncleane, and ſhal waſhe his clothes, and bathe hym ſelfe in water, and be vncleane vntyl the euen.

28 But yf ſhe be cleanſed of her iſſue, ſhe ſhal count her ſeuen dayes, and after that, ſhe ſhalbe cleane. E

29 And in the eighth day, ſhe ſhal take vnto her two turtle doues, or two young pigeons, and bryng them vnto the prieſt, before the doore of the tabernacle of the congregation.

30 And the prieſt ſhal offer the one for a ſinne offeryng, and the other for a burnt offeryng, and make an attonement for her before the Lord, as concernyng the iſſue of her vncleanneſſe.

31 Thus ſhal ye ſift the children of Iſrael from theyr vncleanneſſe, that they dye not in their vncleanneſſe: yf they defyle my tabernacle that is among them.

32 This is the lawe of hym that hath an iſſue, and of hym whoſe ſeede runneth from hym in his ſleepe, and is defyled therein:

33 Alſo for her, that for her ſeparation is put apart: and of whoſoeuer hath a runnyng iſſue, whether it be man or woman: and of hym, that lieth with her whiche is vncleane.

2 What Aaron muſt doo. 8 Of the ſcape goate. 14 The cleanſyng of the ſanctuarie. 17 Of the feaſt of the cleanſyng. 21 Aaron confeſſeth the ſinnes of the chyldren of Iſrael.

☞ A Lenit.x,a,

1 AND the Lord ſpake vnto Moſes * after the death of the two ſonnes of Aaron, when they offered before the Lorde and dyed.

2 And the Lord ſaid vnto Moſes, Speake vnto Aaron thy brother, that he comme not at al tymes into the holy place within the vayle, before the mercie ſeate, whiche is vpon the arke, that he dye not: For I wyl appeare in the * cloude vpon the mercie ſeate.

2.Reg.8.b

3 But with this thyng ſhal Aaron comme into the holy place: euen with a young bullocke for a ſinne offering, and with a ramme for a burnt offeryng.

4 He ſhal put the holy lynnen coate vpon him, and ſhal haue linnen breeches vpon his fleaſhe, and ſhalbe gyrded with a lynnen gyrdle, and with a linnen cappe ſhal he be attired. Theſe are holy garmentes: therefore ſhal he waſhe his fleaſhe in water, when he dooth put them on.

5 And he ſhal take of the congregation of the chyldren of Iſrael, two hee goates for a ſinne offeryng, and a ramme for a burnt offeryng.

6 And Aaron ſhal offer his bullocke for his ſinne offering, * and make an attonement for hym and for his houſe.

Heb,ix,b.

B

7 And he ſhal take the two hee goates, and preſent them before the Lorde at the doore of the tabernacle of the congregation.

8 And Aaron ſhal caſt lottes ouer the two goates: one lot ſhalbe for the Lorde, and the other for the ſcape goate, 9 And Aaron ſhal bring the goate, vpon whiche the Lordes lot felle, and offer hym for a ſinne offeryng.

10 But the goate on whiche the lot felle to be the ſcape goate, ſhalbe ſet alyue before the Lorde to reconcile with, and to let hym goe as a ſcape goate into the wylderneſſe.

11 And Aaron ſhal bryng the bullocke for his ſinne offeryng, and reconcile for him ſelfe and for his houſe, and ſhal kylle the bullocke for his ſinne offeryng.

12 And he ſhal take a cenſer ful of burnyng coales from of the aulter before the Lorde, and ſhal fille his hande ful of ſweete incenſe beaten ſmal, and bryng them within the vayle.

13 And put the incenſe vpon the fyre before the Lorde, that the cloude of the incenſe may couer the mercie ſeate, that is vpon the witneſſe, and he ſhal not dye.

C Heb,ix,b. and.x.a.

14 *And he ſhal take of the blood of the bullocke, and ſprinckle it with his fynger vpon the mercie ſeate eaſtwarde: and before the mercie ſeate ſhal he ſprinckle of the blood, with his fynger, ſeuen tymes.

15 Then ſhal he kil the goate that is the peoples ſinne offering, and bring his blood within the vayle, and doo with that blood, as he dyd with the blood of the bullocke, ſprynckelyng it vpon the mercie ſeate, and before the mercie ſeate.

16 And he ſhal reconcile the holy place from the vncleanneſſe of the children of Iſrael, and from theyr treſpaſſes in al theyr ſinnes: And ſo ſhal he doo for the tabernacle of the congregation that is ſet among them, euen among theyr vncleanneſſe.

Luk.i.a.

17 * And let there be no body in the tabernacle of the congregation, when he goeth in to make an attonement in the holy place, vntyl he comme out, and haue made an attonement for hym ſelfe, and for his houſholde, and for al the congregation of Iſrael.

18 And he ſhal goe out vnto the aulter, that is before the Lorde, and reconcile vpon it, and ſhal take of the blood of the bullocke, and of the blood of the goate, and put it vpon the hornes of the aulter rounde about.

19 So ſhal he ſprinckle of the blood vpon it with his fynger ſeuen times, and cleanſe it, and halowe it from the vncleanneſſe of the chyldren of Iſrael.

20 And when he hath made an ende of reconciling the holy place, and the tabernacle of the congregation, and the aulter, he ſhal bryng the lyue goate.

25 And the fat of the ſinne offeryng ſhal he burne vpon the aulter.

The.xvii.Chapter.

4 Al ſacrifice muſt be brought to the doore of the tabernacle. 7 To deuyls may they not offer. 10 They may not eate blood.

☞ A 1 AND the Lord ſpake vnto Moſes, ſayeing,

2 Speake vnto Aaron, and vnto his ſonnes, and vnto al the chyldren of Iſrael, & ſay vnto them, This is the thing, whiche the Lorde hath charged, ſayeing,

3 What man ſo euer of the houſe of Iſrael kylleth an oxe, or lambe, or goate in the hoaſt, or that kylleth it out of the hoaſt,

4 And bryngeeh it not vnto the doore of the tabernacle of the congregation, to offer an offeryng vnto the Lorde before the dwelling place of the Lorde, (a) blood ſhalbe imputed vnto that man, he hath ſhed blood, and that man ſhalbe cut of from among his people.

5 Wherefore, when the chyldren of Iſrael bryng theyr offerynges, that they offer in the wylde feelde, they ſhal bryng them vnto the Lorde, euen vnto the doore of the tabernacle of the congregation by the prieſt, to offer them for peace offerynges vnto the Lorde.

6 And the prieſt ſhal ſprinckle the blood vpon the aulter of the Lorde, whiche is before the doore of the tabernacle of the congregation, and burne the fat for a ſweete ſauour vnto the Lorde.

B 7 And let them no more offer their offeringes vnto deuylles, after (b) whom they haue gonne a whooryng: This ſhalbe an ordinaunce for euer vnto them in theyr generations.

8 And thou ſhalt ſay vnto them, Whatſoeuer man it be of the houſe of Iſrael, or of the ſtraungers, whiche ſoiourne among you, that offereth a burnt offeryng, or ſacrifice,

9 And bryngeth it not vnto the (c) doore of the tabernacle of the congregation, to offer it vnto the Lorde, that man ſhalbe cut of from among his people.

10 And whatſoeuer man it be of the houſe of Iſrael, or of the ſtraungers that ſoiourne among you, that eateth any manner of blood, I wyl ſet my face agaynſt that ſoule, that eateth blood, and wyl cut hym of from among his people:

11 For the lyfe of the fleaſhe is in the blood, and I haue geuen it vnto you vpon the aulter, to make an attonement for your ſoules: for this blood ſhal make an attonement for the ſoule.

12 Therefore I ſaide vnto the chyldren of Iſrael, Let no ſoule of you eate blood, neyther let any ſtraunger, that ſoiourneth among you, eate blood.

13 And

(a) That man ſhalbe charged with as muche, as if he had kylled a man.

(b) Beyng geuen and ready to the worſhipping of them, and to commit idolatrie.

(c) That they might haue no occaſion to commit idolatrie, or to ſwarue from the lawe of God.

13 And whatſoeuer man it be of the chyldren of Iſrael, or of the ſtraungers, that ſoiourne among you, whiche hunteth and catcheth any beaſt or fowle, that may be eaten, let him powre out the blood therof, and couer it with duſt.

C 14 For the lyfe of the fleaſhe is the blood of it [ioyned] with his lyfe: therefore I ſayde vnto the children of Iſrael, * Ye ſhal eate the blood of no maner of fleaſhe, for the lyfe of al fleaſhe is the blood thereof: whoſoeuer eateth it, ſhalbe cut of.

15 And euery ſoule, that eateth it, whiche dyed alone, or that whiche was torne with wylde beaſtes, whether it be one of your owne countrey, or a ſtraunger, he ſhal waſhe his clothes, and bathe hym ſelfe in water, and be vncleane vnto the euen: and then ſhal he be cleane.

16 If he waſhe them not, nor bathe his fleaſhe, he ſhal beare his ſinne.

17 Speake vnto Aaron, and ſay, Whoſoeuer of thy ſeede in theyr generations hath any deformitie, let him not preſſe for to offer bread vnto his God:

2.Reg.v.b

18 * For whoſoeuer hath any blemiſhe, ſhal not comme neare: as yf he be blynd, or lame, or that hath a " bruſed noſe, or that hath any miſhapen member,

" Or, flat

19 Or is broken footed, or broken handed,

D 20 Or croke backt, or bleare eyed, or haue a webbe, or other blemiſhe in his eyes, or be ſkuruy, or ſcabbed, or hath his ſtones broken.

21 No man that hath a blemiſhe, and is of the ſeede of Aaron the prieſt, ſhal comme nigh to offer the ſacrifices of the Lord made by fyre: when he hath a deformitie, let him not preſſe to offer the bread of his God.

22 Let hym eate the bread of his God, euen of the moſt holy, and of the holy:

23 Only let hym not goe in vnto the vayle, nor comme nygh the aulter, becauſe he is deformed, that he pollute not my ſanctuarie: for I am the Lorde, that ſanctifie them.

24 And Moſes tolde it vnto Aaron, and to his ſonnes, and vnto al the chyldren of Iſrael.

The xxii.Chapter.

3 Who ought to abſtayne from eating the thinges, that were offered. 19 Howe, what, and when they ſhoulde be offered.

A 1 AND the Lord ſpake vnto Moſes, ſayeing,

2 Speake vnto Aaron, & his ſonnes, that they be ſeparated from the holy thinges of the chyldren of Iſrael, and that they pollute not my holy name in thoſe thynges, whiche they halowe vnto me: I am the Lorde.

3 Say vnto them, Whoſoeuer he be of al your ſeede among your generations after you, that goeth vnto the holy thynges, whiche the chyldren of Iſrael halowe vnto the Lorde, hauing his vncleanneſſe vpon hym, that ſoule ſhalbe cut of from out of my ſight: I am the Lorde.

Leui,xv.a 4 * What man ſoeuer of the ſeede of Aaron is a leper, or hath a running iſſue, he ſhal not eate of the holy thynges, vntyl he be cleane: And who ſo toucheth any man, that is vncleane [by reaſon] of a dead body, or a man, whoſe ſeede runneth from hym in his ſleepe,

5 Or whoſoeuer toucheth any creeping thing, wherby he may be made vncleane, or a man, of whom he may take vncleanneſſe, whatſoeuer vncleanneſſe he haue,

6 The ſame ſoule that hath touched any ſuche, ſhalbe vncleane vntyl euen, and ſhal not eate of the holy thynges, vntyl he haue waſhed his fleaſhe with water.

B 7 And when the ſunne is downe, he ſhalbe cleane, and ſhal afterwarde eate of the holy thynges, foraſmuche as it is his foode.

Exo.xxii,c 8 * Of a beaſt that dyeth alone, or is rent with wylde beaſtes, whereby he may be defiled, he ſhal not eate: I am the Lorde.

9 Let them keepe therefore mine ordinaunce, leſt they for the ſame lade ſinne vpon them, and dye for it, yf they defyle it: I the Lorde ſanctifie them.

10 There ſhal no ſtraunger eate of the holy thyng, neyther a gheſt of the prieſtes, nor ſhal an hyred ſeruaunt eate of the holy thyng.

11 But yf the prieſt bye any ſoule with money, he ſhal eate of it, lyke as he that is borne in his houſe: they ſhal eate of his meate.

12 If the prieſtes daughter alſo be marryed vnto a ſtraunger, ſhe may not eate of the halowed heaue offeringes:

13 Notwithſtandyng, yf the prieſtes daughter be a wydowe, or diuorſed, and haue no chyld, but be returned vnto herfathers houſe agayne, ſhe ſhal eate of her fathers meate, aſwel as ſhe did it in her youth: But there ſhal no ſtraunger eate thereof.

C 14 If a man eate of the holy thyng vnwyttyngly, he ſhal put the fifth part thereunto, and geue it vnto the prieſte, with the halowed thyng.

15 And the prieſtes ſhal not defyle the holy thynges of the chyldren of Iſrael, whiche they offer vnto the Lorde:

16 To lade them ſelues with miſdooyng and treſpaſſe, whyle they eate theyr holy thynges: for I the Lorde doo halowe them.

17 And the Lorde ſpake vnto Moſes ſayeing,

18 Speake vnto Aaron and his ſonnes, and vnto al the chyldren of Iſrael, and ſay vnto them, Whatſoeuer he be of the houſe of Iſrael, or ſtraunger in Iſrael, that wyl offer his ſacrifice for al his vowes, and for al his freewyl offeringes, whiche they wyl offer vnto the Lorde for a burnt offeryng:

19 Ye ſhal offer at your pleaſure, a male without blemiſhe, of the beefes, of the ſheepe, or of the goates.

20 But whatſoeuer hath a blemiſhe, that ſhal ye not offer: for it ſhal not be acceptable for you. D

21 And whoſoeuer bryngeth a peace offering vnto the Lorde, to accompliſhe his vowe, or a freewyl offering in beefes or ſheepe, it ſhalbe perfite to be accepted: there ſhalbe alſo no blemiſhe therein.

22 Blynde, or broken, or lame, or hauyng a wen, or ſkuruie, or ſcabbed: ye ſhal not offer ſuche vnto the Lorde, nor put a burnt offeryng of any ſuche vpon the aulter vnto the Lorde.

23 A bullocke or a ſheepe, that hath any member ſuperfluous, or lackyng, mayeſt thou offer for a freewyl offering: but for a vowe it ſhal not be accepted.

24 Ye ſhal not offer vnto the Lorde that whiche is bruſed or cruſſhed, or broken, or cut away, neyther ſhal you make any offeryng thereof in your lande.

25 Nor of a ſtraungers hande ſhal ye offer the bread of your God of any ſuche, becauſe their corruption is in them, and they haue deformitie in them ſelues: and therefore ſhal they not be accepted for you.

26 And the Lorde ſpake vnto Moſes, ſayeing,

27 When a bullocke, or a ſheepe, or a goate is brought foorth, it ſhalbe ſeuen dayes vnder the damme: And from the eyghth day, and thencefoorth, it ſhalbe accepted for a burnt ſacrifice vnto the Lorde. E

28 And whether it be cowe, or ewe, ye ſhal not kylle it, and her young, both in one day.

29 When ye wyl offer a thanke offering vnto the Lorde, offer it wyllyngly:

30 And the ſame day it muſt be eaten vp, ſo that ye leaue none of it vntyl the morowe: I am the Lorde.

31 Therefore ſhal ye keepe my commaundementes, and doo them: I am the Lorde.

32 Neyther ſhal ye pollute my holy name, but I wyl be halowed among the chyldren of Iſrael: I am the Lorde whiche halowe you,

33 And that brought you out of the lande of Egypt, to be your God: I am the Lorde.

The xxiii. Chapter.

2 Of the holy dayes. 3 Of the Sabboth. 5 The Paſſouer. 6 The feaſt of vnleauened bread. 10 The feaſt of the fyrſt fruites. 16 Whitſuntide. 24 The feaſt of blowyng trumpettes. 34 The feaſt of tabernacles.

A 1 And the Lorde ſpake vnto Moſes, ſaying,

2 Speake vnto the chyldren of Iſrael, and ſay vnto them, The feaſtes of the Lord which ye ſhal calle holy conuocations, euen theſe are my feaſtes.

Exod.23.b 3 *Sixe dayes ye ſhal worke: but the ſeuenth day is the Sabboth of reaſt, an holy conuocation, ſo that ye doo no worke therin: it is the Sabboth of the Lorde in al your dwellynges.

4 Theſe are the feaſtes of the Lorde, euen holy conuocations, whiche ye ſhal proclayme in theyr ſeaſons.

5 In the fourtienth day of the fyrſt mooneth at euen, is the Lordes * Paſſouer.

Exo.xii.c. Nu.xviii c 6 And on the fiftienth day of the ſame mooneth, is the feaſt of vnleauened bread vnto the Lorde: ſeuen dayes ye muſt eate vnleauened bread.

Exo.xii.b 7 *In the fyrſt day ye ſhal haue an holy conuocation: ye ſhal doo no ſeruyle worke therein.

B 8 But ye ſhal offer ſacrifices made by fyre vnto the Lord throughout theſe ſeuen dates: and in the ſeuenth day is an holy conuocation: ye ſhal doo no ſeruile worke therein.

9 And the Lorde ſpake vnto Moſes, ſaying,

10 Speake vnto the chyldren of Iſrael, and ſay vnto them, * When ye be comme into the lande whiche I geue vnto you, & reape downe the harueſt thereof, ye ſhal bryng a ſheafe of the fyrſt fruites of your harueſt vnto the prieſt: Nu.xv.a.

11 Whiche ſhal waue the ſheafe before the Lorde to be accepted for you: and euen the morowe after the Sabboth, the prieſt ſhal waue it.

12 And ye ſhal offer that day, when ye waue the ſheafe, an hee lambe without blemiſhe of a yeere olde, for a burnt offeryng vnto the Lorde:

13 And the meate offeryng thereof, ſhalbe made of two tenth deales of fine floure myngled with oyle, to be a ſacrifice made by fyre vnto the Lorde for a ſweete ſauour: and the drynke offeryng thereof ſhalbe of wine, euen the fourth deale of an hin.

14 And ye ſhal eate neyther bread, nor parched corne, nor greene eares, vntyl the ſelfe ſame day that ye haue brought an offeryng vnto your God: Let this be a lawe for euer in your generations, and in al your dwellynges. C

15 And ye ſhal count vnto you from the morowe after the Sabboth, euen from the day, that ye brought the ſheafe of the waue offeryng, ſeuen Sabbothes they ſhalbe complet:

16 Euen vnto the morowe after the ſeuenth Sabboth ſhal ye number fiftie dayes, and ye ſhal bryng a newe meate offeryng vnto the Lorde.

17 And ye ſhal bring out of your habitations two waue loaues made of two tenth deales of fine floure, and that are made with leauen, for fyrſt fruites vnto the Lorde.

18 And ye ſhal bryng with the bread * ſeuen lambes without deformitie, of one yeere of age, and one young bullocke, & two rammes, whiche ſhal ſerue for a burnt offering vnto the Lorde, with theyr meate offeryngės, and theyr drinke offeringes, to be a ſacrifice made by fyre for a ſweete ſauour vnto the Lorde. Nu,28,d.

19 Then ye ſhal prepare an hee goate for a ſinne offeryng, and two lambes of one yeere olde for peace offeryngės.

20 And the prieſt ſhal waue them with the bread of the fyrſt fruites for a waue offeryng before the Lorde, and with the two lambes: they ſhalbe holy to the Lorde for the prieſtes. D

21 And ye ſhal proclayme the ſame day, that it may be an holy conuocation vnto you: ye ſhal doo no ſeruile worke therein, let it be a lawe for euer in al your dwellinges throughout your generations.

22 *And when ye reape downe the harueſt of your lande, thou ſhalt not make cleane ryddaunce of the corners of thy feelde, when thou reapeſt, neither ſhalt thou make any after geatheryng of thy harueſt, but ſhalt leaue them vnto the poore, and the ſtraunger: I am the Lorde your God. Leuit.19,b Deu,24,d,

23 And the Lorde ſpake vnto Moſes, ſaying,

24 Speake vnto the chyldren of Iſrael, and ſay, In the ſeuenth mooneth, in the fyrſt day of the mooneth ſhal ye haue Sabboth, *euen the remembraunce of blowyng of trumpets, an holy conuocation. Num,29.a

25 Ye ſhal doo no ſeruile worke therein, but offer ſacrifice made by fyre vnto the Lorde.

26 And the Lorde ſpake vnto Moſes, ſayeing,

Leuit,15.f 27 The* tenth day of the ſelfe ſeuenth mooneth alſo is a day of reconcilyng, therfore ſhal it be an holy conuocation vnto you, & ye ſhal “humble your ſoules, & offer ſacrifice made by fyre vnto the Lorde.

“That is, you ſhal faſt.

E 28 Ye ſhal doo no woorke the ſame day, for it is a day of reconcilyng, to make an attonement for you before the Lorde your God.

29 For whatſoeuer ſoule it be, that humbleth not it ſelfe that day, it ſhalbe cut of from among his people.

30 And whatſoeuer ſoule doo any woorke that day, the ſame ſoule wyl I deſtroy from among his people.

31 Ye ſhal doo no manner woorke therefore: let it be a lawe for euer in your generations, and in al your dwellynges.

32 Let it be vnto you a Sabboth of reaſt, and ye ſhal humble your ſoules in the nienth day of the mooneth at euen: from euen to euen ſhal ye celebrate your Sabboth.

33 And the Lorde ſpake vnto Moſes, ſayeing,

34 Speake vnto the chyldren of Iſrael, and ſay, * The fiftienth day of the ſame ſeuenth mooneth, is the feaſt of tabernacles ſeuen dayes vnto the Lorde.

Num,29 b
2,Eſd,5,e.
2,Mac,1,c.

35 The fyrſt day is an holy conuocation: ye ſhal doo no ſeruyle woorke.

F 36 Seuen dayes ye ſhal offer ſacrifice made by fyre vnto the Lorde, and in the eyghth day ſhalbe an holy conuocation vnto you, and ye ſhal offer ſacrifices made by fyre vnto the Lorde: It is the ſolemne aſſemblie: and ye ſhal doo no ſeruyle woorke therein.

37 Theſe are the feaſtes of the Lorde, whiche ye ſhal calle holy conuocations, for to offer ſacrifice made by fyre vnto the Lorde, burnt offeryng, meate offeryng, ſacrifices, & drynke offerynges, euery thyng vpon his day:

38 Beſyde the Sabbothes of the Lorde, and beſyde your gyftes, beſyde al your vowes, and al your free offerynges whiche ye geue vnto the Lorde.

39 Moreouer, in the fiftienth day of the ſeuenth Mooneth, when ye haue geathered in the fruite of the lande, ye ſhal keepe holy day vnto the Lorde, ſeuen dayes: The fyrſt day ſhalbe a Sabboth, lykewyſe in the eyghth day ſhalbe a Sabboth.

40 And ye ſhal take you in the fyrſt day the fruites of goodly trees, braunches of palme trees, and the bowes of thicke trees, and wyllowes of the brooke, and ſhal reioyce before the Lorde your God, ſeuen dayes.

41 And ye ſhal keepe this feaſt vnto the Lord ſeuen dayes in the yeere: It ſhalbe a lawe for euer in your generations, that ye keepe it in the ſeuenth mooneth.

42 Ye ſhal dwelle in boothes ſeuen dayes: euen al that are Iſraelites borne, ſhal dwelle in boothes: G

43 That your chyldren after you may know, howe that I made the chyldren of Iſrael to dwelle in boothes, when I brought them out of the lande of Egypt: I am the Lorde your God.

44 And Moſes declared vnto the chyldren of Iſrael the feaſtes of the Lorde.

The xxiiii. Chapter.

1 The oyle for the lampes. 15 He that blaſphemeth muſt be ſtoned. 17 He that kylleth, ſhalbe kylled. &c.

A 1 AND the Lord ſpake vnto Moſes, ſayeing,

Exod.27.d 2 *Commaunde the chyldren of Iſrael, that they bryng vnto thee pure oyle Oliue beaten, for the lyght, to cauſe the lampes to burne continually.

3 Without the vayle of witneſſe in the tabernacle of the congregation, ſhal Aaron dreſſe them both euenyng and mornyng before the Lorde allwayes: Let it be a lawe for euer in your generations.

4 He ſhal dreſſe the lampes vpon the pure candelſticke before the Lorde perpetually.

5 And thou ſhalt take fine floure, and bake twelue cakes thereof, two tenth deales ſhalbe in one cake.

6 And thou ſhalt ſet them in two rowes, ſixe on a rowe, vpon the pure table before the Lorde.

7 And put pure frankincenſe vpon the rowes, that they may be bread of remembraunce, and an offering made by fyre vnto the Lord. B

8 Euery Sabboth he ſhal put them in rowes before the Lorde euermore, of the chyldren of Iſrael ſhal they be offered for an euerlaſtyng couenaunt.

9 And they ſhalbe Aarons, and his ſonnes, whiche ſhal eate them in the holy place: For they are moſt holy vnto him of the offeringes of the Lorde made by fyre, by a perpetual ſtatute.

10 And the ſonnes of an Iſraelitiſhe wyfe,

Whoſe father was an Egyptian, went out among the chyldren of Iſrael: And this ſonne of the Iſraelitiſhe wyfe, and a man of Iſrael ſtroaue togeather in the hoaſt.

11 And the Iſraelitiſhe womans ſonne (a) blaſphemed the name of the Lorde, and curſed, and they brought hym vnto Moſes: His mothers name was Selomith, whiche was the daughter of Dibri, of the tribe of Dan.

12 And they * put him in warde, that the minde of the Lord myght be ſhewed them.

13 And the Lorde ſpake vnto Moſes, ſayeing,

14 Bryng the curſed ſpeaker without the hoaſt, and let al, that hearde hym, put theyr handes vpon his head, and let al the multitude ſtone hym.

15 And thou ſhalt ſpeake vnto the chyldren of Iſrael, ſayeing, Whoſoeuer curſeth his God, ſhal beare his ſinne.

16 And who ſo blaſphemeth the name of the Lorde, let hym be ſlayne, and al the multitude ſhal ſtone hym to death: whether he be borne in the lande, or a ſtraunger, when he blaſphemeth the name of the Lorde, let hym be ſlayne.

17 And * who ſo kylleth any man, let hym dye the death. Exo.xxi.b

18 And who ſo kylleth a beaſt, let hym make hym good, beaſt for beaſt.

19 And yf a man cauſe a blemiſhe in his neyghbour: as he hath donne, ſo ſhal it be donne to hym.

20 Broke for broke, * eye for eye, and toothe for toothe: euen as he hath blemiſhed a man, ſo ſhal he be blemiſhed agayne. Mat.v.f. Exo.xxi.c

D 21 And who ſo kylleth a beaſt, let hym reſtore it: and who ſo kylleth a man, let hym dye.

22 Ye ſhal haue one manner of lawe, euen for the ſtraunger aſwel, as for one of your owne countrey: for I am the Lorde your God.

23 And Moſes tolde the chyldren of Iſrael, and they brought hym, that had curſed, out of the hoaſt, and ſtoned hym with ſtones: And the chyldren of Iſrael dyd as the Lorde commaunded Moſes.

(a) This place is diuerſly expounded: but of the moſt learned ſort thus, that is, that the ſonne of the Egyptian curſed the other, and wiſhed him an euyl endyng or ſomme calamitie, and that not ſimply, but by the name of God. He ſayde not onlye, I wiſhe thee an euyl: but added, and in open worde named the name of God, ſayeing, The Lorde geue thee a vengeaunce, or the Lord deſtroye thee euerlaſtingly. Thus to wiſh harme by the name of God, is to miſuſe & prophane the name of god, and is a blaſpheme againſt the fyrſt table and ſeconde commaundement.

The xxv. Chapter.

2 The Sabboth of the ſeuen yeeres, 8 and of the yeere of Iubilee, otherwyſe called the fiftieth yeere. 23 The ſale, and redeeming of landes, houſes, and perſons.

A 1 AND the Lorde ſpake vnto Moſes in mount Sinai, ſayeing,

2 Speake vnto the chyldren of Iſrael, & ſay vnto them, Whē ye be cōme into the land whiche I geue you, the lande ſhal reaſt and keepe Sabboth vnto the Lorde.

3 Sixe yeeres thou ſhalt ſowe thy feelde, and ſixe yeeres thou ſhalt cut thy vineyarde, and geather in the fruite thereof.

Deut.15.a. 4 But the ſeuenth * yeere ſhalbe a Sabboth of reaſt vnto the lande, the Lordes Sabboth it ſhalbe: thou ſhalt neither ſowe thy feelde, nor cut thy vineyarde.

5 That, whiche groweth of the owne accord of thy harueſt, thou ſhalt not reape, neyther geather the grapes, that thou haſt leafte behynde: for it is a yeere of reaſt vnto the land.

6 And the reaſt of the lande ſhalbe meate for you, euen for thee, for thy ſeruaunt, and for thy mayde, for thy hyred ſeruaunt, and for the ſtraunger that ſoiourneth with thee:

7 And for thy cattel, and for the beaſtes, that are in thy lande, ſhal al the encreaſe thereof be meate:

8 And thou ſhalt number ſeuen Sabbothes of yeeres vnto thee, euen ſeuen tymes ſeuen yeeres, and the ſpace of the ſeuen Sabbothes of yeeres wylbe vnto thee nine and fourtie yeeres.

9 And then thou ſhalt cauſe to blowe the trumpet of the Iubilee in the tenth day of the ſeuenth mooneth, euen in the day of attonement ſhal ye make the trumpe blowe thorowe out al your lande. B

10 And ye ſhal halowe that yeere, euen the fiftieth yeere, and proclaime libertie throughout al the lande, vnto al the inhabiters thereof: for it ſhalbe a Iubilee vnto you, and ye ſhal returne euery man vnto his poſſeſſion, and euery man vnto his kynred agayne.

11 A yeere of Iubilee ſhal that fiftieth yeere be vnto you: Ye ſhal not ſowe, neyther reape that whiche groweth of it ſelfe, nor geather the grapes that are leaft:

12 For that yeere of Iubilee ſhalbe holy vnto you: but ye ſhal eate of the encreaſe thereof out of the feelde.

13 In the yeere of this Iubilee ye ſhal returne euery man vnto his poſſeſſion agayne.

14 If thou ſelle ought vnto thy neyghbour, or bye ought of thy neyghbours hande, ye ſhal not oppreſſe one another.

15 But accordyng to the number of yeeres after the Iubilee yeere, thou ſhalt bye of thy neyghbour: and accordyng vnto the num ber of yeeres of the fruites he ſhal ſelle vnto thee.

16 Accordyng vnto the multitude of yeeres he ſhal encreaſe the price thereof, and accordyng to the fewneſſe of yeeres, he ſhal miniſhe the price of it: for the [a] number of fruites dooth he ſelle vnto thee.

17 Oppreſſe not ye therefore euery man his neyghbour, but thou ſhalt feare thy GOD: For I am the Lorde your God.

18 Wherefore ye ſhal doo after myne ordinaunces, and keepe my lawes, & doo them, and ye ſhal dwelle in the lande in ſafetie.

D 19 And the lande ſhal geue her fruite, and ye ſhal eate your fylle, and dwelle therein in ſafetie.

20 And yf ye ſhal ſay, What ſhal we eate the ſeuenth yeere? for we ſhal not ſowe, nor geather in our increaſe:

21 I wyl ſende my bleſſing vpon you in the ſixth yeere, and it ſhal bryng foorth fruite for three yeeres.

22 And ye ſhal ſowe the eyghth yeere, and eate yet of olde fruite vntyl the nienth yeere: euen vntyl her fruites comme, ye ſhal eate of olde ſtoare.

23 The lande ſhal not be ſolde to [b] waſte: for the lande is myne, and ye be but ſtraungers, and ſoiourners with me.

24 In al the lande of your poſſeſſion, ye ſhal [c] graunt a redemption for the lande.

25 If thy brother be waxed poore, and haue ſolde away of his poſſeſſion, and yf any of his kynne comme to redeeme it, let hym bye out that whiche his brother ſolde.

26 And yf he haue no man to redeeme it, and his hande haue gotten, and found as muche, as may be ſufficient to bye it out agayne:

E 27 Then let hym count, howe long it hath benne ſolde, & deliuer the reſt vnto the man, to whom he ſolde it, that he may returne to his poſſeſſion agayne.

28 But yf his hande can not geate ſufficient to reſtoare to the other agayne, then that whiche is ſolde, ſhal remayne in the hand of hym, that hath bought it, vntyl the yeere of Iubilee: and in the Iubilee it ſhal comme out, and he ſhal returne vnto his poſſeſſion agayne.

29 And yf a man ſelle a dwellyng houſe in a walled citie, he may bye it out agayne within a whole yeere after it is ſolde: within a yeere may he redeeme it.

30 But yf he bye it not out agayne within the ſpace of a ful yeere, then the houſe, that is in the walled citie, ſhalbe ſtabliſhed, as tranſlated to hym, that bought it, and to his ſucceſſours after hym: and ſhal not goe out in the Iubilee.

31 But the houſes of vyllages, whiche haue no walles rounde about them, are counted as the fielde of the countrey: and therefore they may be bought out agayne, and ſhal goe out in the Iubilee.

32 Notwithſtandyng, the cities of the Leuites, and the houſes of the cities of theyr poſſeſſion, may the Leuites redeeme at al ſeaſons.

33 And yf a man purchaſe of the Leuites, the houſe, that was ſolde, and the citie of theyr poſſeſſion, ſhal goe out in the yeere of Iubilee: for the houſes of the cities of the Leuites, are theyr poſſeſſion among the chyldren of Iſrael.

34 But the feelde of the ſuburbes of theyr cities may not be ſolde: for it is theyr perpetual poſſeſſion. F

35 If thy brother be waxen poore, and fallen in decay with thee, thou ſhalt relieue hym as a ſtraunger, or ſoiourner, that he may lyue with thee.

36 * And thou ſhalt take none vſurie of hym, or vantage: but thou ſhalt feare thy God, that thy brother may lyue with thee.

Exo.22.d. Deut.23.d Ezec.22.c.

37 Thou ſhalt not geue hym thy money vpon vſurie, nor lende hym thy victuals for encreaſe.

38 I am the Lorde your GOD, whiche brought you out of the lande of Egypt, to geue you the lande of Chanaan, and to be your God.

39 * If thy brother that dwelleth by thee, be waxen poore, and be ſolde vnto thee, thou ſhalt not compel hym to ſerue, as a bond ſeruaunt:

Exod.21.a. Deut.15.c

40 But as an hyred ſeruaunt, & as a ſoiourner he ſhalbe with thee, and ſhal ſerue thee vnto the yeere of Iubilee. G

41 And then ſhal he departe from thee, both he & his chyldren with hym, and ſhal returne vnto his owne kynred agayne, and vnto the poſſeſſion of his fathers ſhal he returne.

42 For they are my ſeruauntes, whiche I brought out of the lande of Egypt, and ſhal not therefore be ſolde as bondmen.

43 Thou ſhalt not rule ouer him cruelly, but ſhalt feare thy God.

44 Thy bond ſeruaunt, and thy bond mayde whiche thou ſhalt haue, ſhalbe of the heathen, that are round about you: of them ſhal ye purchaſe ſeruauntes, and maydes.

45 Moreouer, of the chyldren of the ſtraungers, that are ſoiourners among you, of them ſhal ye bye, and of theyr families, that are

[a] Only he ſelleth vnto thee the profite whiche may ryſe of the grounde, al thoſe yeeres vntyl the yeere of Iubilee.

[b] That is, they may not be quite put from the poſſeſſour, but muſt be reſtored in the yeere of Iubilee.

[c] That the ſeller may redeeme it agayne.

with you, whiche they begate in your lande: theſe ſhalbe your poſſeſſion.

46 And ye ſhal take them as inheritaunce for your chyldren after you, to poſſeſſe them for an inheritaunce, they ſhalbe your bond men for euer: but ouer your brethren, the chyldren of Iſrael, ye ſhal not rule one ouer another cruelly.

47 If a ſoiourner, or ſtraunger ware riche by thee, and thy brother that dwelleth by hym ware poore, and ſelle hym ſelfe vnto the ſtraunger or ſoiourner by thee, or to the ſtocke of the ſtraungers kinne:

48 After that he is ſolde, he may be redeemed agayne: one of his brethren may redeeme hym:

49 Eyther his vncle, or his vncles ſonne may bye hym out: or any that is nygh of kynne vnto hym of his kynred, may redeeme hym: or yf his hande can geate ſo muche, he may be bought out.

50 And he ſhal recken with hym, that bought hym, from the yeere, that he was ſolde in, vnto the yeere of Iubilee: and the price of his being, ſhalbe accordyng vnto the number of yeeres, accordyng to the tyme of an hyred ſeruaunt ſhal he be with hym.

51 If there be yet many yeeres behynde, accordyng vnto them, let hym geue agayne for his deliueraunce, of the money, that he was bought for.

52 If there remayne but fewe yeeres vnto the yeere of Iubilee, let hym count with hym agayne: and according vnto his yeeres, let hym geue him agayne for his redemptiō.

53 And he ſhalbe with hym yeere by yeere as an hyred ſeruaunt: and the other ſhal not raigne cruelly ouer hym in thy ſyght.

54 If he be not redeemed thus, he ſhal goe out in the yeere of Iubilee, both he, and his chyldren with hym.

55 For vnto me the chyldren of Iſrael are ſeruauntes, they are my ſeruauntes whiche I brought out of the land of Egypt: I am the Lorde your God.

The.xxvi.Chapter.

3 They are bleſſed, that keepe thoſe thynges, that God byddeth. 14 A curſe to them that breake them.

A Deut,v,a. 1 Ye ſhal * make you no idols, nor grauen image, neyther reare you vp any piller, nor ye ſhal ſet vp any image of ſtone in your lande, to bowe downe vnto it: for I am the Lorde your God.

2 Ye ſhal keepe my Sabbothes, and reuerence my ſanctuarie: for I am the Lorde.

3 If ye walke in my ordinaunces, and keepe my commaundementes, and doo them:

4 I wyl ſende you raigne in due ſeaſon, and the land ſhal yeelde her increaſe, and the trees of the feelde ſhal geue their fruite:

5 And your threſſhyng ſhal reache vnto the vintage, and the vintage ſhal reache vnto ſowyng tyme: and ye ſhal eate your bread in plenteouſneſſe, and dwelle in your lande ſafely.

6 And I wyl ſende peace in the lande, and ye ſhal lye downe without any man to make you afrayde: And I wyl ridde euyl beaſtes out of the lande, and there ſhal no ſword goe throughout your lande.

B 7 And ye ſhal chaſe your enimies, and they ſhal falle before you vpon the ſworde.

Ioſue,23. 8 * And fiue of you ſhal chaſe an hundred, and an hundred of you, ſhal put ten thouſande to flyght: and your enimies ſhal falle before you vpon the ſworde.

9 For I wyl haue reſpect vnto you, and make you increaſe, and multiplie you, and ſet vp my couenaunt with you.

10 And ye ſhal eate olde ſtoare, and carrie out olde, becauſe of the newe.

11 * And I wyl make my dwellyng place among you, and my ſoule ſhal not lothe you. 2,Cor.6,a.

12 I wyl walke among you, and wylbe your God, and ye ſhalbe my people.

13 I am the Lord your GOD whiche brought you out of the lande of Egypt, that ye ſhoulde not be theyr bondmen, and I haue broken the chaynes of your yoke, and made you goe vpryght. C

14 * But yf ye wyl not hearken vnto me, nor wyl not doo after theſe commaundementes: Deut.28,b Mala,ii,a.

15 And yf ye ſhal deſpiſe myne ordinaunces, or yf your ſoule abhorre my lawes, ſo that ye wyl not doo al my commaundementes, but breake my couenaunt,

16 I alſo wyl doo this vnto you: For I wyl bryng vpon you fearefulneſſe, conſumption, and the burnyng ague, to conſume your eyes, and gender ſorowe of heart: And ye ſhal ſowe your ſeede in vayne, for your enimies ſhal eate it.

Pro.28.a.

17 And I wyl ſet my face agaynſt you, and ye ſhal falle before your enimies: they that hate you, ſhal raigne ouer you, & * ye ſhal flee, when no man foloweth you.

18 And if ye wyl not, yet for al this hearken vnto me, then wil I puniſh you ſeuen times more for your ſynnes:

19 And wyl breake the pride of your power, and I wyl make your heauen as iron, and your earth as braſſe.

D

20 And your labour ſhalbe ſpent in vayne: for your lande ſhal not geue her increaſe, nor the trees of the lande ſhal geue their fruites.

21 And if ye walke contrary vnto me, and wil not hearken vnto me, I wil bring ſeuen tymes more plagues vpon you, accordyng to your ſynnes.

22 I wyl alſo ſende in wylde beaſtes vpon you, whiche ſhal robbe you of your children, and deſtroy your cattel, and make you fewe in number, and cauſe your hygh wayes to be deſolate.

23 And if ye may not be refourmed by theſe thynges, but ſhal walke contrary vnto me:

24 Then wyl I alſo walke contrary vnto you, and wyl puniſhe you yet ſeuen tymes for your ſynnes.

25 And I wyl ſend a ſwoorde vpon you, that ſhal auenge my couenaunt: And when ye are geathered togeather within your cities, I wyl ſende the peſtilence among you, and ye ſhalbe delyuered into the hande of the enimie.

26 And when I haue broken the (a) ſtaffe of your bread, (b) tenne wiues ſhal bake your bread in one ouen, and they ſhal delyuer you your bread agayne by weight, ye ſhal eate, and not be ſatiſfied.

(a) He ſpeaketh thus, becauſe that man is ſuſteyned & ſtrengthened by the bread that he eateth, lyke as a perſon is ſuſteyned by the ſtaf that he leaneth vnto.

(b) The ſcarcitie ſhalbe ſo great, that one little ouen ſhal ſerue for tenne houſholdes.

27 And if ye wyl not yet for al this hearken vnto me, but walke agaynſt me:

28 I wyl walke contrary vnto you alſo in indignation, & wyl chaſtiſe you ſeuen tymes more for your ſynnes.

4.Re.9.g.

E

29 *And ye ſhal eate the fleaſhe of your ſonnes, and the fleaſhe of your daughters ſhal ye deuoure.

30 I wyl deſtroy your hygh places, and cut away your images, and caſt your carkaſſes vpon the bodyes of your idols, and my ſoule ſhal abhorre you.

31 And I wyl make your cities deſolate, and bring your ſanctuary vnto naught, and wyl not ſmelle the ſauour of your ſweete odours.

32 I wyl bryng the lande vnto a wyldernes, and your enimies whiche dwelle therin, ſhal woonder at it.

33 And I wyl ſtrowe you among the heathen, and wyl drawe out a ſwoord after you: and your lande ſhalbe waſte, and your cities deſolate.

34 Then ſhal the land enioy her Sabbothes, as long as it lyeth voyde, and ye ſhalbe in your enimies lande: euen then ſhal the lande reaſt, and enioy her Sabbothes.

35 As long as it lyeth voyde, it ſhal reaſt, becauſe it did not reaſt in your Sabbothes, when ye dwelt vpon it.

F

36 And vpon them that are leaſt aliue of you, I wyl ſende a fayntneſſe into their heartes in the landes of their enimies: and the ſounde of a ſhakyng leafe ſhal chaſe them, and they ſhal flee as fleeyng from a ſwoorde, they ſhal falle, no man folowyng vpon them.

37 They ſhal falle one vpon another, as it were before a ſwoorde, euen no man folowing vpon them, and ye ſhal haue no power to ſtande before your enimies.

38 And ye ſhal periſhe among the heathen, and the lande of your enimies ſhal eate you vp.

39 And they that are leaſt of you, ſhal pyne away in their vnryghteouſneſſe [euen] in your enimies landes, and in the miſdeedes of their fathers, ſhal they conſume with them.

40 And they ſhal confeſſe their miſdeedes, and the miſdeedes of their fathers, for their treſpaſſe, whiche they haue treſpaſſed againſt me, and for that alſo that they haue walked contrary vnto me.

41 Therefore I alſo wyl walke contrary vnto them, and wyl bryng them into the lande of their enimies: And then at the leaſt way their vncircumciſed heartes ſhalbe tamed, and they ſhal wyllingly accept their “ ſynne.

“ That is, the pounyſhment for their ſynne.

42 Then I wyl remember my couenaunt with Iacob, and my couenaunt with Iſahac, and my couenaunt with Abraham wyl I remember, and wyl thynke on the lande.

G

43 The lande alſo ſhalbe leaſt of them, and ſhal enioy her Sabbothes, whyle ſhe lyeth waſte without them: And they ſhal willingly accept their ſynne, becauſe they deſpiſed my lawes, and becauſe their ſoule abhorred my ordinaunces.

Deut.4.c.

44 And yet for al that, when they be in the land of their enimies, * I wyl not caſt them away, neyther wyl I abhorre them to deſtroy them vtterly, and to breake my couenaunt with them: for I am the Lorde their God.

45 I wyl

45 I wyl for their ſakes remember the couenaunt of olde, when I brought them out of the lande of Egypt in the ſyght of the heathen, that I myght be their God: I am the Lorde.

46 Theſe are the ordinaunces, and iudgementes, and lawes, whiche the Lorde made betweene hym and the chyldren of Iſrael in mount Sinai, by the hande of Moſes.

The.xxvii.Chapter.

1 Of diuers vowes, and of tithes. 28 A thyng ſeparate from the vſe of man, can not be ſolde, nor redeemed: but remayneth to the Lorde.

A 1 AND the Lord ſpake vnto Moſes, ſayeing,

2 Speake vnto the chyldren of Iſrael, & ſaye vnto them, If any man wil make a (a) ſinguler vowe of a perſon vnto the lorde, by thy eſtimation,

(a) As of his ſonne, or his daughter.

3 Then thy eſtimation ſhalbe [thus,] Of the male from twentie yeeres olde vnto ſixtie, ſhalbe by thy eſtimation fyftie * ſicles of ſyluer, after the ſicle of the ſanctuary:

Num.3.g.

4 And if it be a female, then thy valuation ſhalbe thirtie ſicles.

5 And from fyue yeeres to twentie, thy valuation ſhalbe of the male, twentie ſicles, and of the female, ten ſicles.

6 And from a mooneth vnto fyue yeeres, thy eſtimation ſhalbe of the male at fyue ſicles of ſiluer, and of the female, at three ſicles of ſyluer.

B 7 And from ſixtie yeeres olde and aboue, if he be a male, then thy price ſhalbe fifteene ſicles, and for the female, ten ſicles.

8 But if he be poorer, then thou haſt eſteemed hym, he ſhal preſent him ſelfe before the prieſt, and the prieſt ſhal value hym: accordyng as the hande of hym that vowed is able to geat, euen ſo ſhal the prieſt value him.

9 If it be a beaſt, of whiche menne bryng an offeryng vnto the Lorde, al that any man geueth of ſuche vnto the Lorde, ſhalbe holy.

10 He ſhal not alter it, nor chaunge it, a good for a badde, or a badde for a good: And if he chaunge beaſt for beaſt, then both the ſame beaſt, and it alſo, wherewith it was chaunged, ſhalbe holy.

11 If it be any manner of vncleane beaſt, of whiche menne doo not offer a ſacrifice vnto the Lorde, he ſhal ſet the beaſt before the prieſt:

12 And the prieſt ſhal value it, whether it be good or badde: and as the prieſt ſetteth it, ſo ſhal it be.

13 But if he wyl bye it agayne, he ſhal geue the fyfth part more aboue that it was ſet at.

C 14 If any man dedicate his houſe to be holy vnto the Lorde, the prieſt ſhal ſet it, whether it be good or badde: and as the prieſt hath ſet it, ſo ſhal it ſtande.

15 And when he that ſanctified it, wyl redeeme his houſe, let hym geue the fyfth part of the money, that it was iudged at, thereto, and it ſhalbe his.

16 If a man halowe a peece of his inherited lande vnto the Lorde, thou ſhalt value it accordyng to the ſeede thereof: An Homer of barly ſeede ſhalbe ſet at fyftie ſicles of ſyluer.

17 If he halowe his fielde immediatly from the yeere of Iubilee, it ſhalbe woorth accordyng as thou doeſt eſteeme it.

18 But if he halowe his fielde after the Iubilee, the prieſt ſhal recken vnto hym the money, accordyng to the number of the yeeres, that remayne, vnto the yeeres of Iubilee folowyng, and it ſhalbe abated by thy eſtimation.

19 If he, that conſecrated the fielde, wyl redeeme it agayne, let hym put the fyfth part of the price, that thou dydſt value it at, thereunto, and it ſhalbe his.

20 And if he wyl not redeeme the fielde, but wyl ſelle the fielde to another man: he [that vowed] may redeeme it no more. D

21 But when the fielde goeth out in the yeere of Iubilee, then it ſhalbe holy vnto the Lord, euen as a fielde ſeparate from common vſes, and it ſhalbe the prieſtes poſſeſſion.

22 If a man ſanctifie vnto the Lord a fielde, whiche he hath bought, and is not of the grounde of his inheritaunce:

23 The prieſt ſhal recken vnto hym, what it is woorth vntyl the yeere of Iubilee, and he ſhal geue the price, that it is ſet at the ſame day, as a thyng conſecrate vnto the Lorde.

24 And in the yeere of Iubilee, the fielde ſhal returne vnto hym, of whom it was bought, to hym, whoſe inheritaunce of lande it was.

25 And al thy valuation ſhalbe accordyng to the ſicle * of the ſanctuary: One ſicle conteyneth twentie Gerahs.

Exod.30.b

26 * But the fyrſt borne of the beaſtes, that is the Lordes fyrſt borne, may no man ſanctifie, whether it be oxe, or ſheepe, for it is the Lordes alreadie.

Deut.15.d

27 If it be an vncleane beaſt, he ſhal redeeme it, as thou ſhalt ſet it at, and geue the fyfth part more thereto: Or if it be not redeemed, it ſhalbe ſolde accordyng to thy eſtimation.

28 Notwithſtandyng, nothing ſeparate from the common vſe, that a man dooth ſeparate vnto the Lorde of al that he hath, whether it be man or beaſt, or lande of his inheritaunce, may be ſolde nor redeemed: for euery thyng ſeparate from the common vſe, is moſt holy vnto the Lorde.

F 29 Nothyng ſeparate from the common vſe, whiche ſhalbe ſeparate from man, ſhalbe redeemed, but dye the death.

30 Euery tithe of the lande alſo, both of the ſeede of the land, and of the fruite of the trees, is the Lordes, & is ſanctified vnto the Lord.

31 And if a man wyl redeeme ought of his tithes, let hym adde the fyfth part thereto.

32 And euery tithe of oxe, and of ſheepe, & of euery beaſt that goeth vnder the [a] rodde, euen euery tenth ſhalbe holy vnto the Lorde.

33 He ſhal not looke if it be good or bad, nor chaunge it: els if he chaunge it, both it, and that it was chaungd withal, ſhalbe halowed, and may not be redeemed.

34 Theſe are the commaundements whiche the Lord commaunded by Moſes, vnto the chyldren of Iſrael in mount Sinai.

[a] That is, euery tenth as it ryſeth by tale, whether it be male or female, without acception, or reſpect.

The ende of the thirde booke of Moſes.

The fourth booke of Moſes, called in the Hebrewe Vaiedabbar, and in the Latin Numeri.

This fourth booke of Moſes, is called the booke of Numbers: becauſe in the beginnyng of it, Moſes and Aaron dyd number the chyldren of Iſrael, and that by their tribes.

The, i, Chapter.

1 Al that are apt for battayle, are numbred. 49 The tribe of Leui muſt miniſter in the tabernacle.

A 1 AND the Lorde ſpake vnto Moſes in the wylderneſſe of Sinai, in the tabernacle of the congregation, the fyrſt day of the ſecond mooneth in the ſeconde yeere after they were comme out of the land of Egypt, ſayeing,

2 * Take ye the ſumme of al the multitude of the chyldren of Iſrael, after their kinredes, and houſholdes of their fathers, with the number of their names, al that are males, head by head.

Exod,30,b Nu,26,a. 2.Re,24,a.

Exod.12.f.
Num.11.c.

47 But the Leuites after the tribes of their fathers, were not numbred among them.

48 For the Lord ſpake vnto Moſes, ſaying,

49 Only thou ſhalt not number the tribe of Leui, nor take the ſumme of them among the chyldren of Iſrael.

50 But thou ſhalt appoynt the Leuites ouer the tabernacle of wytneſſe, and ouer al the veſſels thereof, and ouer al thynges that are in it: Yea, they ſhal beare the tabernacle, and al the veſſels thereof, and they ſhal miniſter in it, and ſhal dwelle rounde about the tabernacle.

51 And when the tabernacle goeth foorth, the Leuites ſhal take it downe: and when the tabernacle is to be pitched, the Leuites ſhal ſet it vp: and if any ſtraunger comme nygh, he ſhal dye.

52 And the chyldren of Iſrael ſhal pitche their tentes, euery man in his owne campe, & euery man vnder his owne ſtanderde throughout their hoaſtes.

53 But the Leuites ſhal pitche rounde about the tabernacle of wytneſſe, that there be no wrath vpon the congregation of the chyldren of Iſrael: and the Leuites ſhal keepe the watche of the tabernacle of wytneſſe.

54 And the chyldren of Iſrael dyd accordyng to al that the Lorde commaunded Moſes, euen ſo dyd they.

32 These are the ſummes of the chyldren of Iſrael throughout the houſes of their fathers, euen al the numbers, that pitched throughout their hoaſtes, ſyxe hundred thouſande, three thouſande, fyue hundred and fyftie.

33 But the Leuites were not numbred among the chyldren of Iſrael, as the Lorde commaunded Moſes.

34 And the chyldren of Iſrael dyd accordyng to al that the Lorde commaunded Moſes, ſo they pitched with their ſtanderdes, and ſo they iourneyed euery one throughout their kinredes, accordyng to the houſholdes of their fathers.

Num.16.g 3 * Theſe are the names of the ſonnes of Aaron, whiche were * prieſtes annoynted, and Leuit.8.a. whoſe hande was conſecrated to miniſter.

4 And Nadab and Abihu dyed before the Lord, when they offered ſtraunge fyre before the Lorde in the wyldernesse of Sinai, and had no chyldren: And Eleazar and Ithamar miniſtred in the ſyght of Aaron their father.

5 And the Lorde ſpake vnto Moſes, sayeing,

6 Bryng the tribe of Leui, and ſet them before Aaron the prieſt, * that they may ſerue hym: Num.16.b and.18.a.

7 And take the charge with hym, euen the B charge of the whole congregation before the tabernacle of the congregation, to doo the ſeruice of the tabernacle.

8 They ſhal keepe al the inſtrumentes of the tabernacle of the congregation, and haue the charge of the chyldren of Iſrael, to doo the ſeruice of the tabernacle.

9 And thou ſhalt geue the Leuites vnto Aaron and to his ſonnes, for they are geuen and delyuered vnto hym of the chyldren of Iſrael.

10 And thou ſhalt appoynt Aaron and his ſonnes to wayte on their prieſtes office: and the ſtraunger that commeth nygh, ſhalbe ſlayne.

11 And the Lord ſpake vnto Moſes, ſayeing,

12 Beholde, I haue taken the Leuites from among the chyldren of Iſrael * for al the firſt Exod.13.a. Num.8.c. borne, that openeth the matrice among the chyldren of Iſrael, and the Leuites ſhalbe myne.

14 And the Lorde ſpake vnto Moſes, in the wyldernesse of Sinai, ſayeing,

15 Number the chyldren of Leui, after the houſes of their fathers in their kynredes: Al that are males from a moneth olde and aboue, ſhalt thou number. C

16 And Moſes numbred them, accordyng to the word of the Lord, as he was commaunded.

17 * And theſe were the chyldren of Leui in their names: Gerſon, and Caath, and Merari.

18 And theſe are the names of the chyldren of Gerſon in their kynredes: Libni, and Semei.

19 The ſonnes of Caath in their kynredes: Amram, Ieſaar, Hebron, and Oziel.

20 And the ſonnes of Merari in their kynredes: Maheli, and Muſi. Theſe are the kynredes of the Leuites, accordyng to the houſes of their fathers.

21 Of Gerſon came the kynred of the Libnites, and the kinred of the Semeites. Theſe are the kynredes of the Gerſonites, 22 And the ſumme of them after the number of al the males, from a moneth olde and aboue, was counted ſeuen thouſande, and fyue hundred.

26 And the hangynges of the court, and the curtayne of the doore of the court, whiche is rounde about the tabernacle, and the aulter, and the cordes of it, for al the ſeruice thereof.

E

27 And of Caath came the kynrede of the Amramites, and the kynred of the Izecharites, the kynred of the Hebronites, and the kynred of the Ozielites: Theſe are the kynredes of the Caathites.

28 And the number of al the males from a mooneth olde and aboue, was eyght thouſande, and ſyxe hundred, hauing the charge of the ſanctuary.

29 And the kynred of the chyldren of Caath, ſhal pitche on the ſouth ſyde of the tabernacle.

33 And of Merari came the kinred of the Mahelites, and the kynred of the Muſites: Theſe are the kynredes of Merari.

34 And the ſumme of them accordyng to the number of al the males, from a mooneth olde and aboue, was ſyxe thouſand, and two hundred.

35 The captayne, and the moſt auncient of their houſe, that were of the kynred of Merari, was Zuriel, the ſonne of Abihael: & theſe ſhal pitche on the north ſide of the tabernacle.

36 And vnder the cuſtodie and charge of the ſonnes of Merari, ſhalbe the boordes of the tabernacle, and the barres, pyllers, and ſockettes thereof, and al the veſſels thereof, and al that ſerueth thereto, 38 But on the forefront of the tabernacle towarde the eaſt, before the tabernacle of the congregation eaſtwarde, ſhal Moſes, and Aaron and his ſonnes pitche, and wayte to keepe the ſanctuary, and to keepe the children of Iſrael: And the ſtraunger that commeth nygh, ſhalbe ſlayne.

39 And the whole ſumme of the Leuites, whiche Moſes and Aaron numbred at the commaundement of the Lorde, throughout their kynredes, euen al the males from a mooneth olde and aboue, was * twentie and two thouſande.

Num.26.g

40 And the Lorde ſayde vnto Moſes, Number al the fyrſt borne that are males among the chyldren of Iſrael, from a mooneth olde and aboue, and take the number of their names.

41 And thou ſhalt appoynt the Leuites to me (for I am the Lord) for al the fyrſt borne of the chyldren of Iſrael, and the cattel of the Leuites for al the fyrſt gendered of the cattel of the chyldren of Iſrael.

42 And Moſes numbred, as the Lorde commaunded hym, al the fyrſt borne of the chyldren of Iſrael.

43 And al the fyrſt borne males, rehearſed by their names, from a mooneth old and aboue, accordyng to their number, were twenty and two thouſande, two hundred, and threeſcore and thirteene.

44 And the Lorde ſpake vnto Moſes, ſayeing,

45 Take the Leuites for al the fyrſt borne of the chyldren of Iſrael, and the cattel of the Leuites for their cattel, and the Leuites ſhalbe myne: I am the Lorde.

46 And for the redeemyng of the two hundred, and threeſcore and thirteene, whiche are moe then the Leuites, in the fyrſt borne of the chyldren of Iſrael, 48 And geue the money wherwith the odde number of them is redeemed, vnto Aaron and his ſonnes.

49 And Moſes tooke the redemption money of them that were redeemed, beeyng moe then the Leuites:

(a) Sicles were of two ſortes: the one common, the other belongyng to the ſanctuarie, and that of the ſanctuarie was double the weyght of the common. The common ſicle weighed two grotes, and the ſanctuarie ſicle foure. The ſcripture in this place, and in the thirtieth of Exodus, and Ezechiel fourtieth and fyue, ſayeth, that the ſanctuary ſicle dooth weigh twentie Gerahs, whiche the Grecians doo cal Obolus, and we in Engliſhe, an halfe pennie. When eyght grotes of our money was an ounce: and the Hebrewes doo thynke that Obolus dooth weigh the weight of ſixteene barly cornes.

50 Of the fyrſt borne of the chyldren of Iſrael tooke he this money: [euen] a thouſand three hundred and three ſcore and fyue ſicles, after the ſicle of the ſanctuary.

51 And Moſes gaue the money of them that were redeemed, vnto Aaron and his ſonnes, accordyng to the worde of the Lorde, euen as the Lorde commaunded Moſes.

The.iii.Chapter.

5. The offices of the Leuites.

A 1 AND the Lord ſpake vnto Moſes and Aaron, ſayeng,

2 Take the ſumme of the children of Caath from among the ſonnes of Leui, after their kynredes and houſes of their fathers:

3 From thirtie yeeres ⁊ aboue, vntyl fyftie, al that enter into the hoaſt for to doo the worke in the tabernacle of the congregation.

4 This ſhalbe the office of the chyldren of Caath, in the tabernacle of the congregation, [about] the moſt holy.

5 And when the hoaſt remoueth, Aaron and his ſonnes ſhal comme, and take downe the coueryng vele, and wrappe the arke of wytneſſe in it:

6 And ſhal put thereon a coueryng of Badgers ſkynnes, and ſhal ſpreade vpon it a cloth that is altogeather of blewe ſylke, and put in the barres thereof.

B 7 And vpon the ſhewe table, they ſhal ſpread abrode a cloth of blewe ſilke, and put thereon the diſhes, [incenſe] cuppes, and goblets, and pots to powre with: and there ſhalbe bread thereon continually.

8 And they ſhal ſpreade vpon them a coueryng of ſkarlet, and couer the ſame with a coueryng of Badgers ſkynnes, and put in the barres thereof.

9 And they ſhal take a cloth of blewe ſylke, and couer the candleſticke of lyght, with his lampes, ſnuffers, and cenſars, and al the oyle veſſels, whiche they occupie about it.

10 And they ſhal put both it, and al the veſſels thereof, within a coueryng of Badgers ſkynnes, and put it vpon a barre.

11 And vpon the golden aulter, they ſhal ſpreade a cloth of blewe ſylke, and couer it with a coueryng of Badgers ſkynnes, and put to the barres thereof.

12 And they ſhal take al the inſtrumentes, wherewith they miniſter in the ſanctuary, and put a cloth of blewe ſylke vpon them, and couer them with a couering of Badgers ſkynnes, and put them on a barre.

13 And they ſhal take away the aſſhes from the aulter, and ſpreade a purple cloth thereon.

C 14 And put vpon it, al the veſſels therof, that they miniſter withal, euen the cole pannes, the fleaſhe hookes, the fyre ſhouelles, the baſens, and the other veſſels of the aulter: and they ſhal ſpreade vpon it a coueryng of Badgers ſkynnes, and put to the barres of it.

15 And when Aaron and his ſonnes haue made an ende of coueryng the ſanctuary, and al the veſſels of the ſanctuary, agaynſt that the hoaſt remoue, then the ſonnes of Caath ſhal comme in for to beare: but they ſhal not touche any holy thyng, leſt they dye. And this is the charge of the ſonnes of Caath, in the tabernacle of the congregation.

16 And to the office of Eleazar the ſonne of Aaron the prieſt, parteyneth the oyle for the light, the ſweete incenſe, the daily meate offeryng, and the annoynting oyle, and the ouerſight of al the tabernacle, and of al that therein is, both in the ſanctuarie, and in al the veſſels thereof.

17 And the Lord ſpake vnto Moſes, and Aaron, ſayeing,

18 Ye ſhal not cut of the tribe of the kynred of the Caathites, from among the Leuites:

19 But thus doo vnto them, that they may liue ⁊ not dye: when they goe vnto the moſt holy thynges, let Aaron and his ſonnes goe in, and appoynt them euery one to his office, and to his charge.

20 But let them not goe in, to ſee when the holy thynges are folden vp, leſt they dye. D

21 And the Lorde ſpake vnto Moſes, ſayeing,

22 Take alſo the ſumme of the chyldren of Gerſon, throughout the houſes of their fathers, and throughout their kynredes.

23 From thirtie yeeres olde, and aboue, vntyl fyftie yeeres ſhalt thou number them, al that enter into the aſſemblie for to doo ſeruice in the tabernacle of the congregation.

24 And this is the ſeruice of the kinred of the Gerſonites, to ſerue, and to beare.

25 They ſhal beare the curtaynes of the tabernacle, and the tabernacle of the congregation, the coueryng thereof, and the coueryng of Badgers ſkinnes, that is on high vpon it, and the vele of the doore of the tabernacle of the congregation:

26 And the curtaynes of the courte, and the vele that is in the entring in of the gate of the court, whiche is neare the tabernacle, and neare the aulter round about, with the cordes, and al the inſtruments that ſerue vnto them, and al that is made for them, and ſo ſhal they ſerue.

27 At the mouth of Aaron and his ſonnes, ſhal al the ſeruice of the chyldren of the Gerſonites be donne, in al their charges, and in al their ſeruice: and ye ſhal appoynt vnto them al their burdens to keepe.

E 28 And this is the ſeruice of the kynred of the chyldren of Gerſon in the tabernacle of the congregation, and their watche ſhalbe vnder the hande of Ithamar the ſonne of Aaron the prieſt.

29 And thou ſhalt number the ſonnes of Merari after their kinredes, and after the houſes of their fathers:

30 From thirtie yeeres olde and aboue, vnto fiftie yeeres ſhalt thou number them, euery one that entreth into the aſſemblie, to doo the ſeruice of the tabernacle of the congregation.

31 And this is their office and charge, accordyng to al their ſeruice in the tabernacle of the congregation: The borders of the tabernacle, with the barres, pyllers, and ſockettes therof.

32 And the pyllers that are rounde about the court, with their ſockets, pinnes, and cordes, and with al the inſtrumentes of it, for al their ſeruice: And by name ye ſhal recken the inſtrumentes of their office and charge.

33 This is the ſeruice of the kynredes of the ſonnes of Merari, accordyng to al their office in the tabernacle of the cōgregation, vnder yͤ hand of Ithamar the ſonne of Aarō the prieſt.

34 And Moſes, and Aaron, and the princes of the multitude, numbred the ſonnes of the Caathites, after their kynredes and houſes of their fathers,

F 35 From thirtie yeeres olde, and aboue, vnto fiftie yeeres, al that enter into the aſſemblie, to doo ſeruice in the tabernacle of the congregation.

36 And the numbers of them throughout their kinredes, were two thouſand, ſeuen hundred, and fiftie.

37 This is the number of the kynredes of Caath, [namely] al that might doo ſeruice in the tabernacle of the congregation, whiche Moſes and Aaron dyd number, accordyng to the commaundement of the Lorde, by the hande of Moſes.

38 Alſo the numbers of the ſonnes of Gerſon throughout their kynredes & houſes of their fathers:

39 From thirtie yeeres olde, and aboue, vnto fiftie yeres, al that enter into the aſſemblie for to doo ſeruice in the tabernacle of the congregation.

40 And the numbers of them throughout their kinredes, & houſes of their fathers, were two thouſande, ſixe hundred, and thirtie.

41 This is the number of the kinredes of the ſonnes of Gerſon, of al that dyd ſeruice in the tabernacle of the congregation, whiche Moſes and Aaron dyd number, accordyng to the commaundement of the Lorde.

G 42 And the numbers of the kinredes of the ſonnes of Merari throughout their kynredes and houſes of their fathers:

43 From thirtie yeeres olde, and vpwarde, vnto fiftie yeeres, al that enter into the aſſemblie, for the ſeruice of the tabernacle of the congregation.

44 And the numbers of them after their kinredes, were three thouſand, and two hundred.

45 Theſe be the ſummes of the kinredes of the ſonnes of Merari, whiche Moſes and Aaron numbred, accordyng to the woorde of the Lorde, by the handes of Moſes.

46 And ſo al the numbers of the Leuites, whiche Moſes, Aaron, and the Lordes of Iſrael numbred after their kinredes and houſeholdes of their fathers:

47 From thirtie yeeres olde and vpwarde, vnto fiftie yeeres, euery one that came to doo his duetie, office, ſeruice, and charge in the tabernacle of the congregatiō. So the numbers of them were ſeuen thouſande, fiue hundred, and foureſcore.

48 According to the woorde of the Lorde did [Aaron] number them by the hand of Moſes, euery one accordyng to their ſeruice & charge: Thus [were] they of that tribe numbred, as the Lorde commaunded Moſes.

☞ A 1 AND the Lorde ſpake vnto Moſes, ſayeng,

2 Commaunde the chyldren of Iſrael, that they * put out of the hoaſt euery leper, & euery one, that hath an iſſue, and whoſoeuer is defiled by the dead:

Leui,13.g.

3 Both male and female ſhal ye put out, euen out of the hoaſt ſhal ye put them, that they defile not their (a) tentes, among whiche I

(a) There were three ſortes of tentes among the Hebrues. The tent of the Lord, that is, the tabernacle: the tent of yͤ Leuites: and the tent of Iſrael. The lepers were excluded from them al: the impure by an iſſue, from the two firſt: & the defiled by the dead, only from the tabernacle of the congregation.

dwelle.

4 And the chyldren of Iſrael dyd ſo, and put them out of the hoaſt: euen as the Lorde ſpake vnto Moſes, ſo dyd the chyldren of Iſrael.

5 And the Lorde ſpake vnto Moſes, ſayeing,

6 Speake vnto the chyldren of Iſrael, When a man or a woman ſhal commit any ſinne that menne commit, and treſpaſſe agaynſt the Lorde: When that perſon ſhal treſpaſſe,

B 7 Then they ſhal knowledge their ſinne whiche they haue donne, and let hym reſtore againe the hurt, that he hath donne, with his principal, and put the fifth part of it more thereto, and geue it vnto him, whom he hath treſpaſſed agaynſt.

8 But if the man haue no (b) kinſeman to reſtore the hurt vnto, let the treſpaſſe be made good vnto the Lorde, & it ſhalbe the prieſtes, beſide the Ramme of the attonemēt, wherby an attonement ſhalbe made for hym.

9 And euery heaue offeryng, that is made of the holy thynges of the chyldren of Iſrael, which they bryng vnto the prieſt, ſhalbe his.

10 And euery mans halowed thynges ſhalbe his: whatſoeuer any man geueth the prieſt, it ſhalbe his.

11 And the Lorde ſpake vnto Moſes, ſayeing,

12 Speake vnto the chyldren of Iſrael, and ſay vnto them, If any mans wyfe goe aſide, and treſpaſſe agaynſt hym,

13 So that another man lie with her fleaſhly, and it be hyd from the eyes of her huſbande, and be kept cloſe, that ſhe is defiled, and there be no witneſſe agaynſt her, neyther ſhe taken with the manner,

C 14 And the ſpirite of gelouſie comme vpon him, ſo that he is gelous ouer his wife, which is defiled: or if the ſprite of gelouſie comme vpon hym, ſo that he is gelous ouer his wife, whiche is yet vndefiled:

15 Then let the man bryng his wyfe vnto the prieſt, and bryng her offeryng with her, the tenth part of an (c) Epha of barly meale: but let hym put no oyle vpon it, nor put frankincence thereon, for it is an offeryng of gelouſie, an offeryng for a remembraunce, cauſing the ſinne to be thought vpon.

16 And the prieſt ſhal bring her, and ſet her before the Lorde.

17 And the prieſt ſhal take holy water in an earthen veſſel, and of the duſt, that is in the floore of the tabernacle, the prieſt ſhal take it, and put it into the water.

18 And let the prieſt ſet the woman before the Lorde, and vncouer the womans head, and put the offeryng of memorial in her handes, whiche is the gelouſie offeryng: and the prieſt ſhal haue bitter and curſed water in his hand.

19 And the prieſt ſhal charge her by an othe, & ſay vnto the woman, If no man haue laine with thee, and if thou haue not gonne aſyde to vncleanneſſe without thy huſbande, then haue thou no harme of theſe bitter and curſed waters.

20 But yf thou haue gonne aſyde from thine huſbande, and be defyled, and ſomme man hath laine with thee beſide thine huſbande:

21 (Then the prieſt ſhal charge the woman with an othe of curſyng, and the prieſt ſhal ſay vnto the woman) The Lorde make thee accurſed, and deteſtable for the othe among the people, when the Lorde dooth make thy thygh to rotte, and thy belly to ſwelle. D

22 Theſe curſed waters goe into the bowels of thee, that they may make thy belly ſwelle, and thy thygh to rotte. And let the woman ſay, Amen, amen.

23 And let the prieſt wryte theſe curſes in a booke, and he ſhal blot them out with the bitter waters:

24 And ſhal geue the woman thoſe bitter and curſed waters to drinke, that thoſe curſed and bitter waters may enter into her.

25 And then the prieſt ſhal take the gelouſie offeryng out of the womans hande, and waue it before the Lorde, and bryng it vnto the aulter.

26 And the prieſt ſhal take an handful of the offeryng for a memorial, and burne it vpon the aulter, and then make the woman drinke the waters:

27 And when he hath made the woman drynke the waters, if ſhe be defiled, and haue treſpaſſed agaynſt her huſbande, then ſhal the curſed and bitter waters goe into her, and her belly ſhal ſwelle, and her thygh ſhal rotte: and the woman ſhalbe a curſe among her people.

28 And if the woman be not defiled, but cleane, ſhe ſhal haue no harme, but ſhal conceiue and beare. E

29 This is the lawe of gelouſie, when a wife goeth aſyde from her huſbande, and is defiled:

30 Or when the ſprite of gelouſie commeth vpon a man, and he beyng gelous ouer his wyfe, dooth bryng her before the Lorde: And the prieſt ſhal doo to her accordyng vnto al this lawe,

The.vj.Chapter.

2 The lawe of the conſecration of the Nazarites. 24 The bleſſing of the people.

A 1 AND the Lorde ſpake vnto Moſes, ſaying,

2 Speake vnto the chyldren of Iſrael, & ſay vnto them, When eyther man, or woman dooth ſeparate thẽ ſelues to vow a vowe of [a] a Nazarite, to ſeparate them ſelues vnto the Lorde:

3 He ſhal ſeparate hym ſelfe from * wine and ſtrong drinke, and ſhal drynke no vineger of wine or of ſtrong drynke, nor ſhal drinke whatſoeuer is preſſed out of grapes, and ſhal eate no freaſhe grapes, neyther yet dryed.

4 As long as his abſtinence endureth, ſhal he eate nothyng, that is made of the vine tree, or of the cornels, or of the huſke of the grape.

5 And as long as he voweth, & is ſeparated, there ſhal no raſure comme vpon his head, vntyl his dayes be out, in the whiche he ſeparateth him ſelfe vnto the Lorde, he ſhalbe holy, and ſhal let the lockes of his heare growe.

6 As long as he ſeparateth hym ſelfe vnto the Lorde, he ſhal comme at no dead body.

B 7 He ſhal not make him ſelfe vncleane at the death of his father, mother, brother, or ſiſter: becauſe that the conſecration of his God is vpon his head.

8 Al the dayes of his ſeparation he is holy vnto the Lorde.

9 And if any man dye ſuddaynly before him, ere he be ware, the head of his conſecration ſhalbe defiled: and he ſhal ſhaue his head the day of his cleanſing, euẽ the ſeuenth day ſhal he ſhaue it.

10 And the eyghth day, he ſhal bryng two turtles, or two young pigeons to the prieſt, before the doore of the tabernacle of the congregation.

11 And the prieſt ſhal offer the one for a ſinne offeryng, and the other for a burnt offeryng: and make an attonement for hym as concernyng that he ſinned by the dead, and ſhal halowe his head the ſame day.

12 And he ſhal conſecrate vnto the Lorde the tyme of his ſeparation, & ſhal bryng a lambe of a yeere olde for a treſpaſſe offeryng: but the dayes that were before are loſt, becauſe his conſecration was defiled.

13 This is the lawe of the Nazarite: When the tyme of his conſecration is out, he ſhalbe brought vnto the doore of the tabernacle of the congregation.

14 And he ſhal bryng his offeryng vnto the Lorde, an hee lambe of a yeere olde without blemiſhe for a burnt offering, and a ſhe lambe of a yeere olde without blemiſhe for a ſinne offering, and a ramme without blemiſh alſo for peace offerynges: C

15 And a baſket of vnleauened bread, euen cakes of fyne floure myngled with oyle, and wafers of vnleauened bread annointed with oyle, with their meate offeringes, and drinke offerynges.

16 And the prieſt ſhal bryng them before the Lorde, and offer his ſinne offeryng, and his burnt offeryng.

17 And ſhal prepare the ramme for a peace offeryng vnto the Lorde, with the baſket of vnleauened bread: and the prieſt ſhal make alſo his meate offeryng, and his drynke offeryng.

18 And the Nazarite ſhal ſhaue the head of his conſecration at the doore of the tabernacle of the congregation, and ſhal take the heare of the head of his conſecration, and put it in the fire, whiche is vnder the peace offeryng.

19 And the prieſt ſhal take the ſodden ſhoulder of the ramme, and one vnleauened cake out of the baſket, and one vnleauened wafer alſo, and put them vpon the handes of the Nazarite, after he hath ſhauen his conſecration.

20 And the prieſt ſhal waue them before the Lorde: And theſe holy thynges ſhalbe the prieſtes, with the waue breaſt, and the heaue ſhoulder: and then the Nazarite may drinke wyne.

21 This is the lawe of the Nazarite, whiche hath vowed his offeryng vnto the Lorde for his conſecration, beſydes thoſe thynges, that his hande can geate, accordyng to the vowe whiche he vowed, euen ſo he muſt doo after the lawe of his conſecration. D

22 And the Lorde ſpake vnto Moſes, ſaying,

23 Speake vnto Aaron and his ſonnes, ſaying, On this wyſe ye ſhal bleſſe the chyldren of Iſrael, and ſay vnto them,

24 The Lorde bleſſe thee, and keepe thee:

25 The Lorde make his face to ſhyne vpon thee, and be mercyful vnto thee:

26 The Lorde lift vp his countenaunce vpon thee, and geue thee peace.

27 And they ſhal put my name vpon the chyldren of Iſrael, and I wyl bleſſe them.

[a] The Lord hath leaft free this vowe to the diſcretion & wyl of perſons, without limiting any certayne tyme for the obſeruation of it. They who kept this vowe, were as the light of godlineſſe, and holyneſſe among other, and holden for the moſt excellent in honour and vertue: & thereof haue they taken the name of Nazarees. 15 After that, ſhal the Leuites goe in, to doo the ſeruice of the tabernacle of the congregation: And thou ſhalt cleanſe them, and waue them for a waue offeryug:

16 For they are geuen and deliuered vnto me from among the chyldren of Iſrael, for ſuche as open euery wombe, euen for the firſt borne of al the children of Iſrael haue I takē them vnto me.

Exod,13.a. Luke,ii.d. 17 * For al the firſt borne of the children of Iſrael are myne, both man & beaſt: ſince the day that I ſmote euery firſt borne in the lande of Egypt, I ſanctified them for my ſelfe.

18 And I haue taken the Leuites for al the firſt borne of the chyldren of Iſrael.

19 And haue geuen the Leuites, as a gyft to Aaron and his ſonnes from among the chyldren of Iſrael, to doo the ſeruice of the childrē of Iſrael in the tabernacle of the cōgregation, and to make an attonement for the chyldren of Iſrael: that there be no plague among the chyldren of Iſrael, if the chyldren of Iſrael comme nygh vnto the ſanctuarie.

25 And from the age of fiftie yeeres, they ſhal ceaſſe waytyng vpon the ſeruice thereof, and ſhal ſerue no more:

2 The paſſeouer. 13 Pouniſhment for ſuche as keepe it not. 15 Of the cloude.

☞ A 1 AND the Lorde ſpake vnto Moſes in the wylderneſſe of Sinai, in the firſt moneth of the ſecond yere, after they * were comme out of the lande of Egypt, ſayeing,

Exo.xij.a. Leuit,23.a Num,28.c Deut,vi.a 2 Let the children of Iſrael celebrate the Paſſeouer at the tyme appoynted therevnto:

3 Euen the fourteenth day of this moneth at euen: ye ſhal keepe it in his ſeaſon accordyng to al the ceremonies of it, and accordyng to al the manners thereof, ſhal ye keepe it.

4 And Moſes ſpake vnto the chyldren of Iſrael, that they ſhould celebrate the Paſſeouer.

5 And they kept the Paſſeouer the fourteenth day of the firſt moneth at euen in the wylderneſſe of Sinai: accordyng to al that the Lorde commaunded Moſes, euen ſo did the children of Iſrael.

6 And certayne men were defiled by a dead man, that they myght not keepe the Paſſeouer the ſame day, & they came before Moſes and Aaron the ſame day.

B 7 And they ſayde vnto hym, We are defyled by a dead man: Wherfore are we kept backe, that we may not offer an offeryng vnto the Lorde in due ſeaſon, among the chyldren of Iſrael:

8 And Moſes ſayde vnto them, Stande ſtyl, and I wyl heare, what the Lorde wyl commaunde, concernyng you.

9 And the Lorde ſpake vnto Moſes, ſayeing,

10 Speake vnto the chyldren of Iſrael, and ſay, If any man be vncleane by the reaſon of a corſe, or be in a way farre diſtaūt from you, and from your generations, he ſhal keepe the Paſſeouer vnto the Lorde.

11 The fourteenth day of the ſeconde moneth at euen let them keepe it: and eate it with vnleauened bread, and ſowre herbes.

12 Let them leaue none of it vnto the mornyng, * nor breake any bone of it: But accordyng to al the ordinaunces of the Paſſeouer, let them keepe it. Exo,xij.g. Iohn,19.f.

13 But the man that is cleane, and is not in a iourney, and yet was negligent to keepe the Paſſeouer, the ſame ſoule ſhalbe cut of from his people, becauſe he brought not the offeryng of the Lorde in his due ſeaſon: that man ſhal beare his ſinne.

C 14 And yf a ſtraunger dwelle among you, and wyl keepe the Paſſeouer vnto the Lord: accordyng to the ordinance of the Paſſeouer and manner thereof, ſo ſhal he doo. Ye ſhal haue one lawe, both for the ſtraunger, and for hym, that was borne in the ſame lande.

15 And the ſame day, that the tabernacle was reared vp, a * cloude couered the tabernacle, [namely] the tabernacle of the teſtimonie: and at euen, there was vpon the tabernacle, as it were the appearaunce of fire, vntyl the mornyng.

Exod. xl.c
3.Reg.8.b

16. So it was allway: the cloude couered it by day, and the appearaunce of fire by nyght.

17 And when the cloude was taken vp from the tabernacle, then the chyldren of Iſrael iourneyed: and in the place, where the cloude abode, there the chyldrẽ of Iſrael pitched their tentes.

18 At the mouth of the Lorde the chyldren of Iſrael iourneyed, and at the mouth of the Lord they pitched: And as long, as the cloude abode vpon the tabernacle, they lay ſtyl:

19 And when the cloude taryed ſtyl vpon the tabernacle long tyme, the chyldren of Iſrael kept the watche of the Lorde, and iourneyed not.

20 And when the cloude abode a fewe dayes vpõ the tabernacle, they abode in their tentes, accordyng to the commaundement of the Lorde: and they iourneyed alſo at the commaundement of the Lorde.

21 And when the cloude abode vpon the tabernacle from euen vnto the mornyng, and was taken vp in the mornyng, then they iourneyed: whether it were by day, or by nyght, that the cloude was taken vp, they iourneyed. D

22 Or if the cloude taried two dayes, or a moneth, or a yeere vpon the tabernacle, and remayned theron, the chyldren of Iſrael remayned ſtil, and iourneyed not: And aſſoone as the cloude was taken vp, they iourneyed.

23 At the mouth of the Lorde they reaſted in the tentes, and at the commaundement of the Lorde they iourneyed, keepyng the watche of the Lorde, at the commaundement of the Lorde, by the hande of Moſes.

6 And if ye blowe the alarme the ſecond time, the hoaſt that lyeth on the ſouth ſyde, ſhal take their iourney: for they ſhal blowe an alarme, when they take their iourneyes.

D 7 But when the congregation is to be geathered togeather, they ſhal blowe without an alarme.

8 And the prieſtes that are Aarons ſonnes, ſhal blowe with their trumpettes, and ye ſhal haue them as a lawe for euer in your generations.

9 And if ye goe to warre in your land againſt your enimies, that vexe you, ye ſhal blowe an alarme with the trumpettes, and ye ſhalbe remembred before the Lorde your God, to be ſaued from your enimies.

10 Alſo in the day of your gladneſſe, and in your feaſt daies, and in the beginning of your monethes, ye ſhal blowe the trumpettes ouer your burnt ſacrifices, and peace offerynges, that they may be a remembraunce for you before your God: I am the Lorde your God.

1 AND when * the people dyd wyckedly, it was a diſpleaſure in the eares of the Lorde: And when the Lorde hearde it, his countenaunce was prouoked to wrath, and the fyre of the Lorde burnt among them, and conſumed them, that were the vttermoſt of the hoſt.

2 And the people cryed vnto Moſes: And when Moſes made interceſſion vnto the Lorde, the fyre quenched.

3 And he called the name of the place Taberah, becauſe the fyre of the Lorde burnt among them.

4 And a number of people, that was among them, felle a luſtyng, and turned them ſelues, and wept (euen as dyd alſo the chyldren of Iſrael) and ſayde, Who ſhal geue vs fleaſhe to eate?

5 We remember the fiſhe, whiche we did eate in Egypt for naught, and the Cucumbers, Melons, Leekes, Onions, and Garleeke.

6 But nowe our ſoule is dryed away: for we can ſee nothyng els, ſaue Manna.

B Exo. 16. g.

7 The Manna was as * Coriander ſeede, and to ſee to, lyke (a) Bedellion.

(a) Somme cal it a whi pretious ſtone, and ſomme a white pearle.

8 And the people went about, and geathered it, and grounde it in milles, or beate it in morters, and baked it in pannes, and made cakes of it: And the taſte of it, was lyke vnto the taſte of freaſhe oyle.

9 And when the dewe felle downe vpon the hoſt in the nyght, the Manna fel vpon it.

10 And when Moſes hearde the people weepe throughout theyr houſholdes, euery man in the doore of his tent, the wrath of the Lorde was kindled exceedingly, and it greeued Moſes alſo.

11 And Moſes ſayde vnto the Lorde, Wherefore haſt thou dealt cruelly with thy ſeruaunt? And wherefore haue I not founde fauour in thy ſight, ſeeing that thou putteſt the weight of al this people vpon me?

12 Haue I conceiued al this people? Or haue I begotten them, that thou ſhouldeſt ſay vnto me, Carrie them in thy boſome, as a nurſe beareth a ſuckyng chylde, vnto the lande, whiche thou ſwareſt vnto theyr fathers?

13 Where ſhould I haue fleaſhe to geue vnto al this people whiche weepe before me, ſaying, Geue vs fleaſhe, that we may eate.

C 14 I am not hable to beare al this people alone, ſeeyng it is to heauy for me.

15 If thou deale thus with me, kyl me, I pray thee, if I haue found fauour in thy ſight, that I ſee not my wretchedneſſe.

Ezec. 8.d. 16 And the Lorde ſayde vnto Moſes, *Geather vnto me threeſcore and tenne menne of the elders of Iſrael, whiche thou knoweſt, that they are the elders of the people, and officers ouer them: and thou ſhalt bryng them vnto the tabernacle of the congregation, that they may ſtande there with thee:

17 And I wyl comme downe, and talke with thee there, and take of the ſpirite whiche is vpon thee, and put it vpon them, and they ſhal beare the burthen of the people with thee, leſt thou be conſtreyned to beare it alone.

Exod.16.c 18 And ſay thou vnto the *people, Be halowed agaynſt to morowe, and ye ſhal eate fleaſhe: for your whynyng is in the eares of the Lorde, ſeeyng ye ſayde, Who ſhal geue vs fleaſhe to eate? We were happy in Egypt: Therefore the Lorde wyl geue you fleaſhe, and ye ſhal eate.

19 Ye ſhal not eate one day nor two, nor fiue dayes, nor ten, nor twentie dayes:

20 But euen a moneth long, vntil it comme out at the noſtrels of you, and it ſhalbe lothſome vnto you, becauſe that ye haue caſt the Lord aſyde, whiche is among you, and haue wepte before hym, ſayeing, Why came we thus out of Egypt?

D Exod. 12.f 21 And Moſes ſayde, *Sixe hundred thouſande footemen are there of the people, among whiche I am: And thou haſt ſayde, I wyl geue them fleaſhe, that they may eate a moneth long.

22 Shal the ſheepe and the oxen be ſlayne for them, to finde them? or ſhal al the fiſhe of the ſea be geathered togeather for them, to ſuffiſe them?

23 And the Lorde ſayde vnto Moſes, Shal *the Lordes hande ware ſhort? Thou ſhalt ſee nowe, whether my woorde ſhal comme to paſſe vnto thee, or not. Eſai. l.a. and. lix.a.

24 And Moſes went out, and tolde the people the ſayeing of the Lorde: and geathered the threeſcore and tenne elders of the people, and ſet them rounde about the tabernacle.

25 And the Lorde came downe in a cloude, and ſpake vnto hym, and tooke of the ſpirite that was vpon hym, and gaue it vnto the threeſcore and ten elders: And when the ſpirite reaſted vpon them, they propheſied, and dyd not ceaſſe.

26 But there remayned two of the menne in the hoſt, the name of the one was Eldad, and the name of the other Medad: And the ſpirite reaſted vpon them, (and they were of them that were wrytten, and went not out vnto the tabernacle) and they propheſied in the hoſt.

27 And there ran a young man, and tolde Moſes, and ſayde, Eldad and Medad do propheſie in the hoſt.

28 And Ioſuah the ſonne of Nun the ſeruaunt of Moſes, one of his young men aunſweared, and ſayde, My lorde Moſes, *forbyd them. E Luk. ix.g.

29 And Moſes ſayde vnto hym, Enuieſt thou for my ſake? *Would God that al the Lordes people coulde propheſie, and that the Lorde woulde put his ſpirite vpon them. Ioel. 2.g. 1 Cor. 14.a

30 And Moſes gate hym into the hoſt, he and the elders of Iſrael.

31 And there went foorth a wynde from the Lorde, and *brought quayles from the ſea, and let them fal about the hoſt, euen a dayes iourney rounde about on euery ſyde of the hoſt, and [they dyd flee in the ayre] as it were two cubites hygh ouer the earth. Exo. 16.d.

32 And the people ſtoode vp al that day, and al that night, and al the next day, and they geathered quayles: And he that geathered litle, geathered ten homers fulle: And they ſpread them abroade for theyr vſe, rounde about the hoſt.

33 *And whyle the fleaſhe was yet betweene theyr teeth, and ere it was chewed vp, the wrath of the Lorde was kindled agaynſt the people, and the Lorde *ſmote the people with an exceedyng great plague. Pſal. 78.d. Pſal. 78.d.

34 And he called the name of the place, The graues of luſt: becauſe they buried the people that luſted there.

Num.33.c 35 And the people tooke theyr * iourney from the graues of luſt vnto Hazeroth, and abode at Hazeroth.

The xii. Chapter.

1 Aaron and Miriam grudge agaynſt Moſes. 10 Miriam is ſtryken with leproſie, and healed at the prayer of Moſes.

A Deu.24.b 1 AND * Miriam and Aaron ſpake agaynſt Moſes, becauſe of the woman of Ethiopia, whiche he had taken: for he had taken to wyfe one of Ethiopia.

2 And they ſayde, Hath the Lorde in deede ſpoken only through Moſes? Hath he not ſpoken alſo by vs? And the Lorde hearde it.

Eccl.45.a. 3 (But Moſes was a very * meeke man aboue al the men of the earth.)

Exo.29.g. 4 And the Lorde ſpake at once vnto Moſes, vnto Aaron, and to Miriam, Comme out ye three vnto the tabernacle of the congregation. And they came out al three.

Pſal.99.b. Exo.29.g. 5 And the Lorde came downe in the * pyller of the cloude, and ſtoode in the doore of the tabernacle, and called Aaron and Miriam. And they went out both of them.

6 And he ſayde, Heare my woordes: If there be a prophete of the Lordes among you, I wyl be knowen of hym in a viſion, and wyl ſpeake vnto hym in a dreame.

B 7 My ſeruaunt Moſes is not ſo, whiche is faythful in al myne houſe.

Exo.33.b. 8 Unto hym wyl I ſpeake mouth to mouth in a viſion, not in darke ſpeaches and ſimilitudes of the Lorde ſhal he ſee: Wherfore then were ye not afrayde to ſpeake agaynſt my ſeruaunt Moſes?

9 And the Lorde was moued vnto wrath againſt them, and he went his way.

10 And the cloude departed from the tabernacle: and beholde Miriam was becomme leprous, as it were ſnowe: And Aaron looked vpon Miriam, and beholde, ſhe was leprous. 2.Par.26.d

11 And Aaron ſayde vnto Moſes, Alas my Lorde, I beſeeche thee, put not the ſinne vpon vs, whiche we haue fooliſhly committed, and ſinned.

12 Oh, let her not be as one dead, of whom the fleaſhe is halfe conſumed, when he commeth out of his mothers wombe.

13 And Moſes cryed vnto the Lorde, ſayeing, Heale her nowe, O God, I beſeeche thee.

C 14 And the Lorde ſayde vnto Moſes, If her father had (a) ſpit in her face, ſhoulde ſhe not be aſhamed ſeuen dayes? Let her be ſhut out of the hoſt ſeuen dayes, and after that, let her be receiued in agayne.

15 And Miriam was ſhut out of the hoſt ſeuen dayes: and the people remoued not, til ſhe was brought in agayne.

Num.23.d 16 * And afterwarde the people remoued from Hazeroth, and pytched in the wylderneſſe of Pharan.

(a) If her father vpon diſpleaſure ſhuld ſpitte in her face, ſhe may not preſume to comme into his preſence by the ſpace of ſeuen dayes: howe muche more ſhal ſhe not preſume to comme vnto me.

The.xiii. Chapter.

Certayne menne are ſent to ſearche the lande of Chanaan. 24 They bryng of the fruite of the lande. 31 Caleb comforteth the people agaynſt the diſcourygyng of the other ſpyes.

A 1 AND the Lord ſpake vnto Moſes, ſayeing,

2 Sende menne out to ſearche the lande of Chanaan, whiche I geue vnto the chyldren of Iſrael: of euery tribe of theyr fathers ſhal ye ſend a man, and let them al be ſuche as are rulers among them.

3 And Moſes at the commaundement of the Lorde, ſent foorth out of the wylderneſſe of Pharan, ſuche menne as were al heades of the chyldren of Iſrael.

C 14 Of the tribe of Nephthali, Nahadi the ſonne of Vaphſi.

15 Of the tribe of Gad, Guel the ſonne of Machi.]

16 Theſe are the names of the menne whiche Moſes ſent to ſpie out the lande: And Moſes called the name of Oſea the ſonne of Nun, Joſuah.

17 And Moſes ſent them foorth to ſpye out the lande of Chanaan, and ſayde vnto them, Geat you vp this way ſouthwarde, that ye may goe vp into the hygh countrey,

8 And ſee the lande, what manner thyng it is, and the people, that dwelleth therein, whether they be ſtrong, or weake, eyther fewe, or many:

19 And what the lande is, that they dwelle in, whether it be good, or bad, and what manner of cities they be, that they dwelle in, whether they dwelle in tentes, or walled townes:

20 And what manner of lande that is, whether it be fat, or leane, and whether there be trees therein, or not. Be of good courage, and bryng of the fruite of the lande: And it was about the tyme that grapes are firſt rype.

D 21 And ſo they went vp, and ſearched out the lande from the wyldernesse of Zin, vnto Rehob, as menne comme to Hemath.

22 And they aſcended vnto the ſouth, and came vnto Hebron, where Ahiman was, and Seſai, and Thalmai, the ſonnes of Anac. Hebron was built ſeuen yeeres before Zoan in Egypt.

23 And they came vnto the riuer of Eſcol, and cut downe there a braunch with one clouſter of grapes, and two menne bare it vpon a ſtaffe: and [they brought] alſo of the pomegranates, and of the figges.

24 And the place was called the riuer of Eſcol, becauſe of the clouſter of grapes, whiche the chyldren of Iſrael cut downe thence.

25 And they turned backe agayne from ſearchyng of the lande, after fourtie dayes.

26 And they went, and came to Moſes and Aaron, and vnto al the multitude of the chyldren of Iſrael in the wyldernesse of Pharan, to Cades, and brought them woord, and alſo vnto al the congregation, and ſhewed them the fruite of the lande.

27 And they tolde hym, and ſayde, We came vnto the lande whither thou ſenteſt vs, and ſurely it floweth with mylke and hony, and here is of the fruite of it.

28 Neuertheleſſe, the people be ſtrong, that dwelle in the lande, and the cities are walled, and exceedyng great: and moreouer we ſaw the chyldren of Anac there. E

29 The Amalechites dwel in the ſouth countrey: and the Hethites, and the Jebuſites, and the Amorites dwel in the mountaynes: and the Chanaanites dwel by the ſea, and by the coaſt of Jordane.

30 And Caleb ſtylled the people before Moſes, ſayeing, Let vs goe vp at once, and poſſeſſe it, for we be hable to ouercomme it.

31 But the menne that went vp with hym, ſayde, We be not hable to goe vp agaynſt the people, for they are ſtronger then we.

32 And they brought vp an euil report of the land, whiche they had ſearched, ſayeing vnto the chyldren of Iſrael, The lande, whiche we haue gonne through to ſearche it out, is a lande that eateth vp the inhabitours therof, and the people that we ſawe in it, are menne of a great ſtature.

33 And there we ſawe alſo giauntes, the chyldren of Anac [whiche comme] of the giauntes: And we ſeemed in our ſyght as it were graſhoppers, and ſo we dyd in theyr ſyght.

The.xiiii.Chapter.

2 The people murmure agaynſt God. 10 And woulde haue ſtoned Caleb and Joſuah.
37 The ſearchers of the lande dye. 45 Amalech kylleth the Iſraelites.

A 1 AND al the multitude of the people cryed out, and wepte throughout that nyght.

2 And al the children of Iſrael murmured agaynſt Moſes and Aaron, and the whole congregation ſayde vnto them, Woulde God that we had dyed in the lande of Egypt, or els that we had died in this wilderneſſe.

3 Wherefore hath the Lorde brought vs vnto this lande, to falle vpon the ſworde, and that our wyues, and our chyldren ſhoulde be a pray? Were it not better that we returne vnto Egypt agayne?

4 And they ſayde one to another, Let vs make a captaine, and returne vnto Egypt agayne.

5 Then Moſes and Aaron fel (a) on theyr faces before al the aſſemblie of the congregation of the chyldren of Iſrael.

(a) Lamenting the people and praying for them.

6 And Joſuah the ſonne of Nun, and Caleb the ſonne of Jephune [whiche were] of them that ſearched the lande, rent theyr clothes:

B 7 And ſpake vnto al the companie of the children of Iſrael, ſayeing, The land whiche we walked through to ſearche it, is a very good lande.

8 If the Lorde haue a loue to vs, he wyl bring vs into this lande, and geue it vs, whiche is ſuche a lande, as floweth with mylke and hony.

Deu. xx. a

(b) we ſhal eaſily ouercomme them.

9 But in any wyſe rebelle not ye agaynſt the Lorde, *neyther feare the people of the lande, for they are but (b) bread for vs: Their ſhield is departed from them, and the Lord is with vs, feare them not therefore.

10 But al the congregation bade ſtone them with ſtones: And the glorie of the Lorde appeared in the tabernacle of the congregation, before al the children of Iſrael.

11 And the Lorde ſayde vnto Moſes, Howe long dooth this people prouoke me, and how long wyl it be ere they beleue me, for al the ſignes which I haue ſhewed among them?

12 I wyl ſmyte them with the peſtilence, and deſtroy them, and wyl make of thee a greater nation, and mightier then they.

13 And Moſes ſayde vnto the Lorde, Then the Egyptians ſhal heare it, (for thou broughteſt this people in thy myght from among them.)

C 14 And it wyl be tolde to the inhabiters of this lande alſo: for they haue hearde lykewyſe, that thou Lorde art among this people, and that thou, Lord, art ſeene face to face, and that thy cloude ſtandeth ouer them, and that * thou goeſt before them by day tyme, in a pyller of a cloude, and in a pyller of fyre, by nyght.

Exod. 13. c.

15 If thou ſhalt kylle al this people, as they were but one man, then the nations, whiche haue hearde the fame of thee, wyl ſay,

16 Becauſe the Lorde is not hable to bring in this people into the lande, whiche he ſware vnto them, therefore he hath ſlayne them in the wylderneſſe.

17 And nowe I beſeeche thee, let the power of my Lorde be great, accordyng as thou haſt ſpoken, ſayeing,

18 It is long ere the Lorde be angry: he is of great mercie, and ſuffereth iniquitie, and ſinne, and leaueth no man innocent, and viſiteth the vnryghteouſneſſe of the fathers, vpon the chyldren, in the thirde and fourth generation.

19 Be merciful, I beſeeche thee, vnto the ſinne of this people, according vnto thy great mercie, as thou haſt forgeuen this people from Egypt, euen vntyl nowe.

20 And the Lorde ſayde, I haue forgeuen it, accordyng to thy requeſt.

21 But as truely as I liue, al the earth ſhalbe filled with the glorie of the Lorde. D

22 But al theſe menne whiche haue ſeene my glorie, and my miracles whiche I dyd in Egypt, and in the wylderneſſe, and haue tempted me nowe theſe ten tymes, and haue not hearkened vnto my voyce:

23 Shal not ſee the lande whiche I ſware vnto theyr fathers, neyther ſhal any of them that prouoked me ſee it.

24 But my ſeruaunt * Caleb, becauſe he had another manner of ſpirite, (and becauſe he hath folowed me vnto the vtmoſt) hym wyl I bryng into the lande whiche he hath walked in, and his ſeede ſhal inherite it.

Ioſue. 13. b

25 And alſo the Amalechites, & Chanaanites, remayne in the valley: To morowe turne you, and geat you into the wylderneſſe, euen by the way of the red ſea.

26 And the Lord ſpake vnto Moſes and Aaron, ſayeing,

27 Howe long dooth this euil multitude murmure agaynſt me? I haue hearde the murmurynges of the children of Iſrael, with the whiche they murmure agaynſt me.

28 Telle them therefore: As truely as I lyue, ſaith the Lorde, I wyl doo vnto you, euen as ye haue ſpoken in myne eares: E

29 Your carkaſſes ſhal falle in the wylderneſſe: And al you that were tolde throughout your numbers from twentie yeeres, and aboue, whiche haue murmured agaynſt me,

30 Shal not comme into the land, ouer whiche I lyfted vp my hande to make you dwel therein, ſaue Caleb the ſonne of Iephune, and Ioſuah the ſonne of Nun.

31 But your children, whiche ye ſayde, ſhould be a pray, them wyl I bryng in, and they ſhal knowe the lande, whiche ye haue refuſed.

32 And your carkaſſes ſhal falle in this wylderneſſe.

33 And your chyldren ſhal wander in the wylderneſſe fourtie yeeres, and ſuffer for your whooredome, vntyl your carkaſſes be waſted in the wylderneſſe.

34 After the number of the dayes, in whiche ye ſearched out the lande, euen fourtie dayes, * euery day for a yeere ſhal ye beare your vnrighteouſneſſe, euen fourtie yeeres, and ye ſhal knowe my breache of promiſe.

Ezec. 4. b.

35 I the Lorde haue ſayde, that I wyl do it vnto al this euil congregation, that are geathered togeather againſt me: For in this wylderneſſe they ſhalbe conſumed, and there they ſhal dye.

36 And the menne whiche Moſes ſent to ſearche the lande, and whiche (when they came agayne) made al the people to mourne agaynſt him, and brought vp a ſlaunder vpon the lande:

37 Euen the ſame men that did bryng vp that ſlaunder vpon it, as though it had benne euil, dyed in a great * plague before the Lorde. i. Cor. x. d

38 But Joſuah the ſonne of Nun, and Caleb the ſonne of Jephune, whiche were of the menne that went to ſearche the lande, liued ſtylle.

39 And Moſes tolde theſe ſayeinges vnto al the children of Iſrael, and the people tooke great ſorowe.

40 And they roſe vp early in the mornyng, and gate them vp into the top of the mountayne, ſayeyng, * Lo, we be here, and wil goe vp vnto the place of whiche the Lorde ſayd, Deut. i. f.

(c) For we haue ſinned.

41 And Moſes ſaide, Wherefore tranſgreſſe ye thus the woorde of the Lorde? it wil not comme wel to paſſe.

(c) They confeſſe, they ſinned by rebellyng agaynſt god: but conſider not, they offend in goeyng vp without gods commaundement.

42 Goe not vp therefore, for the Lorde is not among you: that ye be not ſlayne before your enimies.

43 For the Amalechites, and the Chanaanites (d) are there before you, and ye wyl falle vpon the ſworde, becauſe are ye turned away from the Lorde, and the Lorde wil not be with you.

(d) Be ready to comme agaynſt you.

44 But they preſumed obſtinately to goe vp into the hyl toppe: Neuerthelater, the arke of the couenaunt of the Lorde, and Moſes, departed not out of the hoaſt.

45 Then the Amalechites, & the Chanaanites, whiche dwelt in that hyl, came downe, and ſmote them, and conſumed them euen vnto Horma.

The xv. Chapter.

2 The drinke offeringes of them, that enter into the lande. 30 The punishment of hym that ſinneth of arrogancie, or pryde. 32 Of hym that geathered ſtickes on the Sabboth day.

☞ 1 A AND the Lorde ſpake vnto Moſes, ſayeing,

2 Speake vnto the chyldren of Iſrael, and ſay vnto them, * When ye be comme into the lande of your habitations, whiche I geue vnto you: Leuit. 23. d

3 And wyl make an offeryng by fyre vnto the Lorde, namely a burnt offeryng, or a ſacrifice to fulfyl a vowe, or a free offeryng, or in your principal feaſtes, to make a ſweete ſauour vnto the Lorde, of the hearde, or of the flocke:

4 Then * let hym that offereth his offeryng vnto the Lorde, bryng alſo a meate offeryng of a tenth deale of flowre, myngled with the fourth part of an Hin of oyle. Leuit. 2. a. and, vi. b.

5 And the fourth part of an Hin of wine for a drynke offeryng ſhalt thou prepare with the burnt offeryng, or any other offeryng, for one lambe.

6 Or yf it be a ramme, thou ſhalt prepare for a meate offering, two tenth deales of flowre, mingled with the third part of an Hin of oile.

B 7 And for a drynke offeryng, thou ſhalt offer the thirde part of an Hin of wine, for a ſweete ſauour vnto the Lorde.

8 And when thou prepareſt a bullocke for a burnt offeryng, or for a ſacrifice to fulfyl a vowe, or peace offering vnto the Lorde:

9 Let hym bring with a bullocke, a meate offering of three tēth deales of flowre, mingled with halfe an Hin of oyle.

10 And thou ſhalt bryng for a drynke offering, euen halfe an Hin of wine, for an offeryng made by fyre of a ſweete ſauour vnto the Lorde.

11 After this manner ſhal it be donne for a bullocke, or for a ramme, or for a lambe, or a kyd, 12 Accordyng to the number, that ye ſhal prepare, ſo ſhal ye doo to euery one, accordyng to theyr number.

13 All that are borne of the countrey, ſhal doo theſe thynges after this manner, to offer an offeryng made by fyre of a ſweete ſauour vnto the Lorde.

14 And yf a ſtraunger ſoiourne with you, or whoſoeuer be among you in your generations, and wyl offer an offeryng made by fyre of a ſweete ſauour vnto the Lord: euen as ye doo, ſo he ſhal doo. C

15 One ordinaunce ſhalbe both for you of the congregation, and alſo for the ſtraunger that dwelleth [with you:] It ſhalbe an ordinaunce for euer in your generations: as ye are, ſo ſhal the ſtraunger be before the Lorde.

16 One lawe, and one manner ſhal ſerue, both for you, and for the ſtraunger that ſoiourneth with you.

17 And the Lorde ſpake vnto Moſes, ſayeing,

18 Speake vnto the children of Iſrael, and ſay vnto them, * When ye be comme into the lande, to the whiche I bryng you, Deut. 8. c.

19 Then, when ye wil eate of the bread of the lande, ye ſhal offer vp an heaue offering vnto the Lorde.

20 Ye ſhal offer vp a cake of the firſt of your dowe, for an heaue offeryng: * as ye doo the heaue offeryng of the barne, euen ſo ye ſhal heaue it.

Leuit,23.b

D 21 Of the firſt of your dowe ye ſhal geue vnto the Lorde an heaue offeryng in your generations.

22 And yf ye haue erred, and obſerue not al theſe commaundementes, whiche the Lord hath ſpoken vnto Moſes, 23 Euen al that the Lord hath commaunded you by the hande of Moſes, from the [firſt] day, that the Lorde commaunded Moſes, and hence forewarde among your generations.

24 If ought be committed ignorantly of the congregation, al the multitude ſhal offer a bullocke for a burnt offeryng, to be a ſweete ſauour vnto the Lorde, with the meate offeryng and drynke offeryng thereto, according to the manner, and an hee goate for a ſinne offeryng.

25 And the prieſt ſhal make an attonement for al the multitude of the chyldren of Iſrael, and it ſhalbe forgeuen them, for it is ignorance: And they ſhal bring their offeryng, a ſacrifice made by fyre vnto the Lorde, and theyr ſinne offering before the Lorde for their ignorance.

26 And it ſhalbe forgeuen vnto al the congregation of the children of Iſrael, and vnto the ſtraunger that dwelleth among you, ſeeyng al the people were in ignorance.

Leuit.4.f. 27 *If any one ſoule ſinne through ignorance, he ſhal bryng a ſhee goate of a yeere olde, for a ſinne offeryng.

E 28 And the prieſt ſhal make an attonement for the ſoule that ſinneth ignorantly, when he ſinneth by ignorance before the Lorde, to reconcile hym, and that it may be forgeuen hym.

29 And both thou, that art borne of the chyldren of Iſrael, and the ſtrainger that dwelleth among you, ſhal haue one lawe, who ſo dooth ſinne through ignorance.

30 But the ſoule, that dooth ought (a) preſumptuouſly, whether he be borne in the lande, or a ſtraunger, the ſame blaſphemeth the Lorde: and that ſoule ſhalbe cut of from among his people.

(a) The Hebrewe, by an hygh hande, that is, boldely, arrogantly, and contemptuouſly.

31 Becauſe he hath deſpiſed the woorde of the Lorde, and hath broken his commaundement, that ſoule therefore ſhalbe vtterly cut of, and (b) his ſinne ſhalbe vpon him.

(b) That is, he ſhal ſuffer for his iniquitie.

32 And whyle the chyldren of Iſrael were in the wildernеſſe, they founde a man that geathered ſtickes vpon the * Sabboth day.

Exod,21,c

(c) Seeing it was not decreed, what death he ſhould dye.

35 And the Lorde ſayde vnto Moſes, Let the man dye, and let al the multitude ſtone him with ſtones without the hoſt.

36 And al the multitude brought hym without the hoſt, and ſtoned hym with ſtones, and he dyed, as the Lorde commaunded Moſes.

37 And the Lorde ſpake vnto Moſes, ſayeing,

38 Speake vnto the chyldren of Iſrael, and byd them that they make them fringes in the borders of theyr garmentes, throughout theyr generations, and put vpon the fringe of the borders, a ribande of blewe ſilke.

Deut.22.b

39 And the fringe ſhalbe vnto you to looke vpon, that ye may remember al the commaundementes of the Lorde, and doo them: and that ye ſeeke not after your owne hart, or your owne eyes, after the whiche ye vſe to goe a whooryng.

40 But ye ſhal remember rather, and doo al my commaundementes, and be holy vnto your God.

41 I am the Lord your God, whiche brought you out of the lande of Egypt, for to be your God: I am the Lorde your God.

The.xvi.Chapter.

The rebellion of Corah, Dathan, and Abiram. 31 They periſhe with theyr companie.

A 1 AND * Corah the ſonne of Iſaar, the ſonne of Caath, the ſonne of Leui, went aparte with Dathan and Abiram, the ſonnes of Eliab, and On, the ſonne of Peleth, the ſonne of Ruben:

Eccl,45.c.

2 And they roſe vp before Moſes, with certayne of the chyldren of Iſrael, two hundred and fiftie, whiche were captaines of the multitude, famous in the congregation, and men of renowne.

3 And they geathered them ſelues togeather

agaynſt Moſes and Aaron, and ſayde vnto them, Ye take muche vpon you, ſeeyng al the multitude are holy euery one of them, and the Lorde is among them: Why lyft you your ſelues vp aboue the congregation of the Lorde?

4 And when Moſes hearde it, he felle vpon his face,

5 And ſpake vnto Corah, ⁊ vnto al his companie, ſayeing, To morowe the Lorde wyl ſhewe, who are his, who(a) is holy, and who ought to approche nigh vnto hym: ⁊ whom he hath choſen, he wil cauſe to comme neare vnto hym.

(a) Who is the hygh prieſt, that he may cauſe hym to comme vnto hym.

6 This doo therefore: Take ye firepannes, both Corah and al his companie,

B 7 And put fire therein, and put incence in them before the Lorde to morowe: And the man, whom the Lorde dooth chooſe, the ſame ſhalbe holy: ye take muche vpon you, ye ſonnes of Leui.

Num.3.b. 8 And Moſes ſayde vnto Corah, *Heare I pray you, ye ſonnes of Leui, 9 Seemeth it but a ſmal thyng vnto you, that the God of Iſrael hath ſeparated you from the multitude of Iſrael, and brought you to hym ſelfe, to doo the ſeruice of the tabernacle of the Lord, and to ſtande before the multitude, and to miniſter vnto them?

10 He hath taken thee to hym, and al thy brethren the ſonnes of Leui with thee: and ſeeke ye the office of the prieſt alſo?

11 For whiche cauſe both thou and al thy companie are geathered togeather agaynſt the Lord: And what is Aaron, that ye murmure agaynſt hym?

12 And Moſes ſent, and called Dathan and Abiram the ſonnes of Eliab: whiche ſayde, We wyl not comme vp.

13 Is it a ſmal thing that thou haſt brought vs out of the lande that floweth with milke and honie, to kille vs in the wilderneſſe, except thou make thee ſelfe lorde and ruler ouer vs alſo?

C 14 Moreouer, thou haſt not brought vs into a lande that floweth with mylke and honie, neyther geuen vs inheritaunce of feeldes and vineyardes: wilt thou put out the eyes of theſe men? We wyl not comme vp.

15 And Moſes waxed very angry, and ſayde vnto the Lorde, Turne not thou vnto theyr offeryng: I haue not taken ſo muche as an aſſe from them, neyther haue I hurt any of them.

16 And Moſes ſayd vnto Corah, Be thou and al thy companie before the Lorde, both thou, they, and Aaron to morowe.

17 And take euery man his cenſer, and put incenſe in them, and bring ye before the Lord euery man his cenſer, euen two hundred and fiftie cenſers: thou alſo and Aaron, euery one his cenſer.

18 And they tooke euery man his cenſer, and put fyre in them, and layde incence thereon, and ſtoode in the doore of the tabernacle of the congregation with Moſes and Aaron.

19 And Corah geathered al the congregation agaynſt them, vnto the doore of the tabernacle of the congregation: And the glory of the Lord appeared vnto al the congregation.

20 And the Lorde ſpake vnto Moſes and Aaron, ſayeing,

21 Separate your ſelues from among this congregation, that I may conſume them at once. D

22 And they felle vpon theyr faces, and ſayde, *O God, the God of ſpirites of al fleaſhe, hath not one man ſinned? wilt thou be wroth with al the multitude? Num.17.a

23 And the Lorde ſpake vnto Moſes, ſayeing,

24 Speake vnto the congregation, and ſay, Geat you away from about the tabernacle of Corah, Dathan, and Abiram.

25 And Moſes roſe vp, and went vnto Dathan and Abiram: and the elders of Iſrael folowed hym.

26 And he ſpake vnto the congregation, ſayeing, Depart, I pray you, from the tentes of theſe wicked menne, and touche nothyng of theyrs, leſt ye periſhe in al theyr ſinnes.

27 And ſo they gate them from the tabernacle of Corah, Dathan, and Abiram, on euery ſide: and Dathan and Abiram came out, and ſtoode in the doore of theyr tentes, with theyr wyues, theyr ſonnes, and theyr lytle chyldren.

28 And Moſes ſayde, Hereby ye ſhal knowe, that the Lorde hath ſent me to doo al theſe workes, for I haue not done them of myne owne mynde. E

29 If theſe men dye the common death of al menne, or if they be viſited after the viſitation of al menne, then the lord hath not ſent me:

30 But yf the Lorde make a (b) newe thyng, and the earth open her mouth, and ſwallowe them vp with al that they haue, and they goe downe quicke into the pit: then ye ſhal vnderſtande that theſe men haue prouoked the Lorde.

(b) That is, if the Lord doo a thing not ſeene before.

31 And aſſoone as he had made an ende of ſpeaking al theſe woordes, *the ground cloue aſunder, that was vnder them:

Deut.xi.a
Num.26.b
Pſal.21.c.

32 And the earth opened her mouth, and ſwallowed them vp, and theyr houſes, and al the menne that were with Corah, and al theyr goodes.

33 And they, and al that they had, went downe alyue vnto the pit, and the earth cloſed vpon them: and they periſhed from among the congregation.

34 And al Iſrael, that were about them, fled at the crye of them: And they ſayde, Leſt the earth ſwalowe vs vp alſo.

35 And there came out a fyre from the Lord, and conſumed the two hundred and fiftie menne that offered incenſe.

36 And the Lorde ſpake vnto Moſes, ſayeing,

37 Speake vnto Eleazar the ſonne of Aaron the prieſt, that he take vp the cenſers out of the burnyng, and ſcatter the fyre here & there, for they are halowed,

38 The cenſers of theſe ſinners (b) agaynſt theyr owne ſoules: let them make of them broade plates for a couerying of the aulter: For they offered them before the Lorde, and therefore they are halowed, and they ſhalbe a ſigne vnto the chyldren of Iſrael.

(b) That haue deſtroyed them ſelues by their owne ſinnes, beyng the cauſers of theyr owne deathes.

39 And Eleazar the prieſt tooke the braſen cenſers, whiche they that were burnt had offered, and made broade plates for a (c) couerying of the aulter,

(c) To be a remembraunce vnto the chyldren of Iſrael, of gods mighty hande agaynſt rebellion.

40 To be a remembraunce vnto the chyldren of Iſrael, that no ſtraunger whiche is not of the ſeede of Aaron, comme neare to offer incenſe before the Lorde, that he be not lyke vnto Corah, and his companie, as the Lorde ſayde to hym by the hande of Moſes.

G 41 But on the morowe, al the multitude of the chyldren of Iſrael murmured agaynſt Moſes and Aaron, ſayeing, ye haue kylled the people of the Lorde.

42 And when the multitude was geathered agaynſt Moſes and Aaron, they looked towarde the tabernacle of the congregation: And beholde, the cloude couered it, and the glorie of the Lorde appeared.

43 And Moſes and Aaron came before the tabernacle of the congregation.

44 And the Lorde ſpake vnto Moſes, ſayeing,

45 Geat you from among this congregation, that I may conſume them quickly. And they felle vpon their faces.

46 And Moſes ſayde vnto Aaron, Take a cenſer, and put fyre therein out of the aulter, and powre on incenſe, and goe quickly vnto the congregation, and make an attonement for them: For there is wrath gone out from the Lorde, and there is a plague begonne.

47 And Aaron tooke as Moſes commaunded hym, and ranne into the middes of the congregation: and beholde, the plague was begonne among the people, and he put on incenſe, and made an attonement for the people.

48 And when he ſtoode betweene the dead and them, that were alyue, the plague was ſtayed.

49 They that dyed in the plague, were fourteene thouſande, and ſeuen hundred, beſyde them that dyed about the conſpiracie of Corah.

50 And Aaron went agayne vnto Moſes before the doore of the tabernacle of the congregation, and the plague was ſtayed.

The xvii. Chapter.

9 Aarons rodde buddeth, and beareth bloſſoms, whereby his prieſthood is confirmed.

A 1 And the Lorde ſpake vnto Moſes, ſayeing,

2 Speake vnto the chyldren of Iſrael, and take of euery one of them a rodde, after the houſes of theyr fathers, of al theyr princes, accordyng to the familie of theyr fathers, euen twelue roddes: and write euery mans name vpon his rodde.

3 And write Aarons name vpon the rodde of Leui: for euery rodde ſhalbe for the head of the houſe of theyr fathers.

4 And put them in the tabernacle of the congregation, before [the arke] of the teſtimonie, where I wyl declare my ſelfe vnto you.

5 And the mans rodde, whom I choſe, ſhal bloſſome: And I wyl make ceaſſe from me the grudgynges of the chyldren of Iſrael, whereby they grudge agaynſt you.

6 And Moſes ſpake vnto the chyldren of Iſrael: and al the princes gaue hym a rodde, one rodde for euery prince, accordyng to their fathers houſes, euen twelue roddes: and the rodde of Aaron was among theyr roddes.

7 And Moſes put the roddes before the Lord in the tabernacle of witneſſe. B

8 And on the morowe, Moſes went into the tabernacle of witneſſe: and beholde, * the rodde of Aaron for the houſe of Leui was budded, and brought foorth buddes, bare bloſſomes, and rype almondes.

Heb.ix.a.

9 And Moſes brought out al the roddes from before the Lorde, vnto al the chyldren of Iſrael: and they looked vpon them, and tooke euery man his rodde.

10 And the Lorde ſayde vnto Moſes, Bryng Aarons rodde agayne before the witneſſe, to be kept for a token to the rebellious children, and that theyr murmuring may ceaſſe from me, and that they dye not.

11 And Moſes dyd as the Lorde commaunded hym, euen ſo dyd he.

12 And the chyldren of Iſrael ſpake vnto Moſes, ſayeing, Beholde, we are waſted away, and periſhed, we al comme to nought.

13 Whoſoeuer commeth nygh, or approcheth to the tabernacle of the Lord, ſhal dye: Shal we vtterly conſume away, and dye?

The xviii. Chapter.

1 The office of the Leuites. 8 The tithes and fyrſt fruites muſt be geuen them.
20 Aarons heritage.

A 1 AND the Lord ſayd vnto Aaron, Thou and thy ſonnes, and thy fathers houſe with thee, ſhal beare the iniquitie of the ſanctuarie: And thou and thy ſonnes with thee, ſhal beare the iniquitie of your prieſtes office.

Num.4.b 2 * And thy brethren of the tribe of Leui, and of thy fathers houſholde thou ſhalt bryng with thee, that they may be ioyned vnto thee, and miniſter vnto thee: but thou and thy ſonnes with thee [ſhal miniſter] before the tabernacle of witneſſe.

3 They ſhal keepe thy charge, euen the charge of al the tabernacle: only let them not comme nygh the veſſelles of the ſanctuarie, and the aulter, that they and ye alſo dye not.

4 And they ſhalbe ioyned with thee, & keepe the charge of the tabernacle of the congregation for al the ſeruice of the tabernacle: and let no ſtraunger comme nygh vnto you.

5 Therefore ſhal ye keepe the charge of the ſanctuarie, and the charge of the aulter, that there falle no more wrath vpon the chyldren of Iſrael:

6 Beholde, I haue taken your brethren the Leuites from among the chyldren of Iſrael, whiche, as a gyft of yours, are geuen vnto the Lorde, to doo the ſeruice of the tabernacle of the congregation.

B 7 Therefore ſhalt thou and thy ſonnes with thee, keepe your prieſtes office for al thinges that parteyne vnto the aulter, and within the vele: And ye ſhal ſerue: for I haue geuen your prieſtes office vnto you as a gyft: and therefore the ſtraunger that commeth nygh, muſt be ſlayne.

8 And the Lorde ſpake vnto Aaron, Behold, I haue geuē thee the keeping of mine heaue offerynges, of al the halowed thinges of the chyldren of Iſrael [euen] vnto thee I haue geuen them for the annoyntyng, and to thy ſonnes for an ordinaunce for euer.

9 This ſhalbe thyne of the moſt holy thinges [reſerued] from the fyre [of the aulter.] Al theyr ſacrifices for al theyr meate offerynges, ſinne offerynges, or treſpaſſe offerynges, whiche they bryng vnto me, that ſhalbe moſt holy vnto thee, and to thy ſonnes.

10 In the moſt holy place ſhalt thou eate it, and al that are males ſhal eate of it, let it be holy vnto thee.

11 And this alſo is thyne: * the heaue offeringes of theyr gyftes, throughout al the waue offerynges of the chyldren of Iſrael: I haue geuen them vnto thee, and thy ſonnes, and thy daughters with thee, to be a duetie for euer: and al that are cleane in thy houſe, ſhal eate of it. Leui.6.d.

12 Al the (a) fat of the oyle, and al the fat of the wine, and of the wheate, whiche they ſhal offer vnto the Lord for fyrſt fruites, the ſame haue I geuen vnto thee.

(a) That is, the cheefeſt, and the beſt.

13 And whatſoeuer is fyrſt rype in theyr land, whiche they bryng vnto the Lorde, ſhalbe thyne, and al that are cleane in thyne houſe, ſhal eate of it. C

14 Al thynges ſeparate from the common vſe in Iſrael, ſhalbe thyne.

15 Al that breaketh the matrice in al fleaſhe, that menne bryng vnto the Lorde, whether it be of menne or beaſtes, ſhalbe thyne: Neuerthelater, the fyrſt borne of man ſhalt thou redeeme, & the fyrſt borne of vncleane beaſtes ſhalt thou redeeme.

16 Thoſe that are to be redeemed, ſhalt thou redeeme from the age of a mooneth, accordyng to thyne eſtimation, for the money of fiue ſicles, after the ſicle of the ſanctuarie, whiche is twentie Gerahs.

17 But the fyrſt borne of a cowe, ſheepe, and goate, ſhalt thou not redeeme, for they are holy: therefore thou ſhalt ſprinckle theyr blood vpon the aulter, and ſhalt burne theyr fat, as a ſacrifice made by fyre, for a ſweete ſauour vnto the Lorde. Leui.7.d.

18 And the fleaſhe of them is thyne, * as the waue breaſt, and the ryght ſhoulder: theſe are thyne.

19 Al the heaue offerynges of holy thynges, whiche the chyldren of Iſrael offer vnto the Lorde, haue I geuen thee, and thy ſonnes, and thy daughters with thee, to be a duetie for euer: let it be a(b) ſalted couenaunt for euer before the Lorde, both vnto thee, and to thy ſeede with thee.

Deut.18.a.
Eccle.43.g.

20 And the Lord ſpake vnto Aaron, *Thou ſhalt haue no inheritaunce in theyr lande, neyther ſhalt thou haue any part among them: I am thy part, and thy inheritaunce among the chyldren of Iſrael.

D 21 Beholde, I haue geuen the children of Leui al the tenth in Iſrael to inherite, for the ſeruice, whiche they ſerue in the tabernacle of the congregation.

22 Neyther muſt the chyldren of Iſrael henceforth comme nigh the tabernacle of the congregation, leſt they beare ſinne, and dye.

23 But the Leuites ſhal doo the ſeruice in the tabernacle of the congregation, and beare theyr ſinne: It ſhalbe a lawe for euer in your generations, that among the chyldren of Iſrael they poſſeſſe no inheritaunce.

24 But the tithes of the chyldren of Iſrael, whiche they pay as an heaue offeryng vnto the Lorde, I haue geuen the Leuites to inherite: and therefore I haue ſayde vnto them, Among the children of Iſrael ye ſhal poſſeſſe no inheritaunce.

25 And the Lorde ſpake vnto Moſes, ſayeing,

26 Speake vnto the Leuites, and ſay vnto them, When ye take of the chyldren of Iſrael the tithes, whiche I haue geuen you of them for your inheritaunce, ye ſhal take an heaue offeryng of the ſame for the Lorde, euen the tenth part of that tithe.

E 27 And this your heaue offeryng ſhalbe reckened vnto you, euen as though it were of the corne of the barne, or as the fulneſſe of the wineppreſſe.

28 Of this manner ye ſhal therefore offer an heaue offeryng vnto the Lorde, of al your tithes whiche ye receiue of the chyldren of Iſrael, and ye ſhal geue thereof the Lordes heaue offeryng to Aaron the prieſt.

29 Of al your giftes ye ſhal offer al the Lordes heaue offeryng, euen al the fat of the ſame, [to wite] the holy thinges thereof.

30 Therfore thou ſhalt ſay vnto them, When ye haue taken away the fat of it from it, it ſhalbe counted vnto the Leuites, as yf it were the increaſe of the corne floore, or the increaſe of the wineppreſſe.

31 And ye ſhal eate it in al places, both ye and your houſholdes: for it is your rewarde for your ſeruice in the tabernacle of the congregation.

32 And ye ſhal beare no ſinne by the reaſon of it, when ye haue offered from it the fat of it: neyther ſhal ye pollute the holy thynges of the chyldren of Iſrael, leſt ye dye.

The, xix, Chapter.

2 Of the redde Cowe. 14 The lawe of hym, that dyeth in a tent, 16 and of hym alſo, that toucheth any vncleane thyng.

A 1 AND the Lord ſpake vnto Moſes ⁊ Aaron, ſayeing,

2 This is the ordinaunce of the lawe whiche the Lorde hath commaunded, ſayeing, Speake vnto the chyldren of Iſrael, that they bring thee a redde Cowe without ſpot, and wherein is no blemiſhe, and vpon whiche neuer came yoke.

Hebr.13.e.

3 And ye ſhal geue her vnto Eleazar the prieſt, that he may bryng * her without the hoaſt, and cauſe her to be ſlayne before his face:

4 And let Eleazar the prieſt take of her blood with his finger, and ſprinckle it directly before the tabernacle of the congregation ſeuen tymes.

Leuit.4.c.

5 And cauſe the Cowe to be burnt in his ſight, with * her ſkynne, fleaſhe, and blood: and the doung of her ſhal he burne alſo.

6 And let the prieſt take Cedar wood, and hyſope, and ſcarlet [laſe] ⁊ caſt it in the middes of the burnyng of the Cowe.

7 Then let the prieſt waſhe his clothes, and he ſhal bathe his fleaſhe in water, and then comme into the hoſt, and the prieſt ſhalbe vncleane vntyl the euen.

B 8 And he that burneth her, ſhal waſhe his clothes in water, and bathe his fleaſhe in water, and be vncleane vntyl the euen.

9 And a man that is cleane, ſhal geather vp the aſſhes of the Cowe, and lay them without the hoſt in a cleane place, and it ſhalbe kept for the multitude of the chyldren of Iſrael * for a water of ſeparation: It is a ſinne offeryng.

Num.3.b.

10 Therefore he that geathereth the aſſhes of the Cowe, ſhal waſhe his clothes, ⁊ remayne vncleane vntyl the euen: And it ſhalbe vnto the chyldren of Iſrael, and vnto the ſtraunger that dwelleth among them, a ſtatute for euer.

11 * He that toucheth the dead body of any man, ſhalbe vncleane ſeuen dayes.

12 And he ſhal purifie hymſelfe with this water the thyrde day, and the ſeuenth day he ſhalbe cleane: But yf he purifie not him ſelfe the thyrde day, then the ſeuenth day he ſhal not be cleane.

13 Whoſoeuer toucheth the dead corſe of any man, that is dead, and purgeth not him ſelfe, defileth the tabernacle of the Lorde, and that ſoule ſhalbe cut of from Iſrael, becauſe the water of ſeparation was not ſprinckled vpon hym: he ſhalbe therefore vncleane, his vncleanneſſe is yet vpon hym.

C 14 This is the lawe of a man that dyeth in a tent: All that comme into the tent, and al that is in the tent, ſhalbe vncleane ſeuen dayes.

15 And al the veſſels that be open, whiche haue no couering bounde vpon them, ſhalbe vncleane.

16 And whoſoeuer toucheth one that is ſlaine with a ſworde in the feeldes, or a dead perſon, or a bone of a dead man, or a graue, ſhalbe vncleane ſeuen dayes.

17 Therfore, for an vncleane perſon they ſhal take of the burnt aſſhes of the ſinne offeryng, and runnyng water ſhalbe put thereto in a veſſel.

Pſal.li.b. 18 And let a cleane perſon * take hyſope, and dippe it in the water, and ſprinckle it vpon the tent, and vpon al the veſſels, and on the perſons that were therein, and vpon hym that touched a bone, or a ſlayne perſon, or a dead body, or a graue.

19 And the cleane perſon ſhal ſprinckle vpon the vncleane the thirde day, and the ſeuenth day: And the ſeuenth day he ſhal purifie hym ſelfe, and waſhe his clothes, and bathe hym ſelfe in water, and ſhalbe cleane at euen.

D 20 But the man, that is vncleane, and purifieth not hym ſelfe, the ſame ſoule ſhalbe cut of from among the congregation: becauſe he hath defiled the ſanctuarie of the Lorde, and the water of ſeparation hath not benne ſprinckled vpon hym, therefore ſhal he remayne vncleane.

21 And it ſhalbe a perpetual lawe vnto them, that he that ſprinckleth the water of ſeparation, ſhal waſhe his clothes: and he that toucheth the water of ſeparation, ſhalbe vncleane vntyl the euen.

22 And whatſoeuer the vncleane perſon toucheth, ſhalbe vncleane: And the ſoule that toucheth [the thing that was touched of the vncleane perſon] ſhalbe vncleane vntyl the euen.

The.xx.Chapter.

1 Mirian dyeth. 2 The people murmure. 8 They haue water euen out of the rocke. 12 Moſes and Aaron ſhal not goe into the lande of promiſe. 14 Edom denyeth the Iſraelites paſſage through his Realme. 25 The death of Aaron, in whoſe rowme Eleazar ſucceedeth.

A 1 AND the chyldren of Iſrael came with the whole multitude into the deſert * of Zin, in the fyrſt mooneth, & the people abode at Cades: And there dyed Miriam, and was buried there. Num.33.d

2 But there was no water for the multitude: and they geathered them ſelues togeather agaynſt Moſes and Aaron.

3 And the people chod with Moſes, & ſpake, ſayeing, Woulde GOD that we had periſhed, when our brethren dyed before the Lorde.

4 Why haue ye brought the congregation of the Lorde into this wyldernesse, that both we, and our cattel ſhoulde dye in it?

Exo.17.a. 5 * Wherfore haue ye made vs to comme vp out of Egypt, to bryng vs into this euyl place, which is no place of ſeede, nor of figges, nor of vines, nor of pomgranates: neyther is there any water to drynke?

6 And Moſes and Aaron went from the preſence of the congregation, vnto the doore of the tabernacle of the congregation, and felle vpon theyr faces, and the glorie of the Lorde appeared vnto them.

7 And the Lorde ſpake vnto Moſes, sayeing, B

8 Take the rodde, and geather thou and thy brother Aaron, the congregation togeather, and ſpeake vnto the rocke before theyr eyes, and it ſhal geue foorth his water: And thou ſhalt bryng them water out of the rocke, to geue the companie drynke, and their beaſtes alſo.

9 * And Moſes tooke the rodde from before the Lorde, as he commaunded hym. Exo.17.c.

10 And Moſes and Aaron geathered the congregation togeather before the rocke, and [Moſes] ſayde vnto them, Heare ye rebelles: muſt we fetche you water out of this rocke?

11 And Moſes lyft vp his hande, and with his * rodde he ſmote the rocke two tymes, and the water came out aboundauntly, and the multitude dranke, and theyr beaſtes alſo. Pſal.78.b.

12 And the Lorde ſpake vnto Moſes and Aaron, Becauſe ye beleued me not, to ſanctifie me in the eyes of the chyldren of Iſrael, therfore ye ſhal not bryng this congregation into the lande, whiche I haue geuen them.

C 13 This is the water of ſtrife, becauſe the chyldren of Iſrael ſtroue with the Lorde, and he was ſanctified in them.

Iud,xi,c. 14 And Moſes* ſent meſſengers from Cades vnto the kyng of Edom: thus ſayth thy brother Iſrael, Thou knoweſt al the trauaile that we haue had.

15 Our fathers went downe into Egypt, and we haue dwelt in Egypt a long tyme: and the Egyptians vexed vs, and our fathers.

16 And when we cryed vnto the Lorde, he hearde our voyce, and ſent an angel, & hath fet vs vp out of Egypt: And beholde, we are in Cades, euen in the vttermoſt citie of thy border.

17 Let vs paſſe I pray thee through thy countrey: but * we wyl not goe through the feeldes, or vineyardes, nor we wyl drynke of the water of the fountaynes: we wyl goe by the kynges hygh way, and neither turne vnto the ryght hande, nor to the leaſt, vntyl we be paſt thy borders. Num,21.c.

18 And Edom aunſweared him, Thou ſhalt not goe by me, leſt I comme out agaynſt thee with the ſworde.

D 19 The chyldren of Iſrael ſayde vnto hym, We wyl goe by the beaten way: and yf I & my cattel drynke of thy water, I wyl pay for it: I wyl but only (without any harme) goe through on my feete.

20 He aunſweared, Thou ſhalt not goe thorowe. And Edom came out agaynſt hym with muche people, and with a myghty power.

21 And thus Edom denyed to geue Iſrael paſſage through his countrey: wherefore Iſrael turned away from hym.

22 And the chyldren of Iſrael departed from Cades, and came vnto mount Hor, with al the congregation.

23 And the Lorde ſpake vnto Moſes and Aaron in mount Hor, harde by the coaſt of the lande of Edom, ſayeing, 24 Aaron ſhalbe geathered vnto his people: for he ſhal not comme into the land which I haue geuen vnto the chyldren of Iſrael, becauſe ye diſobeyed my mouth at the water of ſtryfe.

25 Take Aaron and Eleazar his ſonne, and bryng them vp into mount Hor.

26 And cauſe Aaron to put of his garmentes, and put them vpon Eleazar his ſonne: and Aaron ſhalbe geathered vnto his people, and ſhal dye there.

27 And Moſes dyd as the Lorde commaunded: and they went vp into mount Hor, in the ſyght of al the multitude. D

28 And Moſes tooke of Aarons clothes, and put them vpon Eleazar his ſonne, * and Aaron died there in the toppe of the mount: And Moſes and Eleazar came downe out of the mount. Deut,x,b.

29 When al the multitude ſawe that Aaron was dead, they mourned for Aaron thyrtie dayes, al the houſholde of Iſrael.

The xxi. Chapter.

1 Iſrael vanquiſcheth kyng Arad. 6 The firy ſerpentes ſtyng them. 24 The kynges, Sehon and Og, are ouercomme in battayle.

A 1 AND when kyng * Arad the Chanaanite, whiche dwelt towarde the ſouth, hearde telle that Iſrael came by ye way, that the ſpyes hadde found out, he fought agaynſt Iſrael, and tooke ſomme of them priſoners. Nu.33.d.

2 And Iſrael vowed a vowe vnto the Lord, and ſayde, If thou wylt deliuer this people into my hande, I wyl vtterly deſtroy theyr cities.

3 And the Lorde hearde the voyce of Iſrael, and deliuered them the Chanaanites: And they deſtroyed them and theyr cities, and called the name of the place,* Horma. Iud,i,d.

Deut,11,a. 4 * And they departed from mount Hor, by the way of the redde ſea, to compaſſe the land of Edom: and the ſoule of the people was ſore greeued, becauſe of the way.

5 And the people ſpake agaynſt GOD, and agaynſt Moſes: * wherfore haue ye brought vs out of Egypt, for to dye in the wildernes: for here is neyther bread nor water, and our ſoule lotheth this lyght bread. Num,xi,a

6 * Wherefore the Lorde ſent firy ſerpentes among the people, whiche ſtong them: and muche people of Iſrael dyed. 1.Cor,x,a. Sapi,xvi,a 7 Therefore the people came to Moſes, and ſayde, We haue ſinned, for we haue ſpoken agaynſt the Lorde, and agaynſt thee: * make interceſſion to the Lorde, that he take away the ſerpentes from vs. And Moſes made interceſſion for the people: B Exo,8,b. 3.Reg.13.b Actes.8.d.

8 And the Lorde ſayde vnto Moſes, Make thee a firy ſerpent, and ſet it vp vpon a pole:

that as many as are bitten, may looke vpon it, and lyue.

Iohn.iii.b 4.Re.18.a. 9 * And Moſes made a ſerpent of braſſe, and ſet it vpon a pole: and when the ſerpent had bitten any man, he behelde the ſerpent of braſſe, and lyued.

Num.33.c 10 * And the children of Iſrael departed thence, and pitched in Oboth.

11 And they departed from Oboth, and pitched at the heapes of Abarim, euen in the wyldernesſe, whiche is before Moab, on the eaſt ſyde.

12 And they remoued thence, and pitched vpon the riuer of Zared.

13 And they departed thence, and pitched on the other ſyde of Arnon, whiche is in the wyldernesſe, and commeth out of the coaſtes of the Amorites: for Arnon is the border of Moab, betweene Moab and the Amorites.

C 14 Wherefore, it ſhalbe ſpoken in the booke of the warres of the Lorde, what thyng he dyd in the redde ſea, and in the riuers of Arnon, 15 And at the ſtreame of the riuers, that goeth downe to the dwellyng of Ar, and lyeth vpon the border of Moab.

16 From thence [they returned] vnto Beer: The ſame is the wel, wherof the Lord ſpake vnto Moſes, Geather the people togeather, and I wyl geue them water.

17 Then Iſrael ſang this ſong, Spring vp wel: ſyng ye vnto it:

18 The princes digged this wel, the captaines of the people digged it with the lawe geuer, and with theyr ſtaues. And from the wyldernesſe they went to Mathana:

19 And from Mathana to Nahaliel, & from Nahaliel to Bamoth,

20 And from Bamoth of the valley that is in the feelde of Moab, vnto the toppe of the hyl, that looketh towarde Ieſimon.

D 21 And Iſrael ſent meſſengers vnto Sehon kyng of the Amorites, ſayeing, Nu.20.c. Deut.ii.c. 22 * Let me paſſe through thy lande, we wyl not turne into the feeldes or vineyardes, neyther drynke of the waters of the wel: but we wyl goe along by the kynges hygh way, vntyl we be paſt thy countrey.

Deu.29.b. 23 * But Sehon woulde geue Iſrael no licence to paſſe through his countrey: but geathered al his people togeather, and went out agaynſt Iſrael into the wyldernesſe: And he came to Iaza, and fought agaynſt Iſrael.

24 * And Iſrael ſmote him in the edge of the ſword, and conquered his lande from Arnon vnto Iabok, vnto the chyldren of Ammon: For the border of the chyldren of Ammon was * ſtrong. Deut.i.a. Ioſue.4.a. Deut.2.d.

25 And Iſrael tooke al theſe cities, and dwelt in al the cities of the Amorites in Heſbon, and in al the townes that belong thereto.

26 For Heſbon was the citie of Sehon the kyng of the Amorites, whiche fought before againſt the king of the Moabites, and tooke al his lande out of his hande, euen vnto Arnon.

27 Wherefore they that ſpeake in prouerbes, ſay, Comme to Heſbon, and let the citie of Sehon be buylt, and repayred.

28 For there is a fyre gonne out of Heſbon, and a flame from the citie of Sehon, and hath conſumed Ar in Moab, and the lordes of Bamoth in Arnon. E

29 Wo to thee Moab: O ye people of Chamos, ye are vndonne: he hath ſuffered his ſonnes to be purſued, and his daughters to be in captiuitie vnto Sehon the kyng of the Amorites.

30 Theyr empire is loſt from Heſbon vnto Dibon, and we are made a wyldernesſe euen vnto Nopha, whiche reacheth vnto Medaba.

31 And thus Iſrael dwelt in the lande of the Amorites.

32 And Moſes ſent to ſearche out Iaezer, and they tooke the townes belongyng thereto, and rooted out the Amorites, that were therin.

33 * And they turned, and went vp towarde Baſan: And Og the kyng of Baſan came out agaynſt them, he and al his people to fyght at Edrai. Deut.3.a. and.29.b.

34 And the Lorde ſayde vnto Moſes, Feare hym not: for I haue deliuered hym into thy hande, and al his people, and his lande: and thou ſhalt doo to hym, as thou dyddeſt vnto Sehon the kyng of the Amorites, whiche dwelt at Heſbon. F

35 They ſmote hym therefore, and his ſonnes, and al his people, vntyl there was nothyng leaft hym: and they conquered his lande.

The xxij. Chapter.

1 Kyng Balac ſendeth for Balaam, whoſe name in the Hebrues is written Bileam.
12 God forbiddeth Balaam to curſe the Iſraelites. 21 The angel ſtandeth in his way.
28 Balaams Aſſe ſpeaketh.

A 1 AND the children of Iſrael departed, and pitched in yͤ feeldes of Moab, on the other ſide of Iordane from Iericho.

Iosue.24.b

2 And * Balac the ſonne of Ziphor, ſawe al that Iſrael had donne to the Amorites.

3 And the Moabites were ſore afrayde of the people, becauſe they were many, and they were ſtroken with feare of the chyldren of Iſrael.

4 And Moab ſaide vnto the elders of Madian, Nowe ſhal this companie " lycke vp al that are rounde about vs, as an Oxe licketh vp the graſſe of the feelde. And Balac the ſonne of Ziphor, was kyng of the Moabites at that tyme.

" Hebre. with lickyng to eſcape away.

Deut.23. 2.Pet.2.c.

5 He ſent meſſengers therefore vnto * Balaam the ſonne of Beor, to Pethor, whiche is by the riuer of the lande of the chyldren of his folke, to calle hym, ſayeing, Beholde, there is a people comme out of Egypt, & beholde they couer the face of the earth, and dwelle (a) ouer agaynſt me.

(a) Not farre from me, euen harde by me.

6 Comme nowe therefore, I pray thee, and curſe me this people: for they are to mighty for me, ſo peraduenture I myght be able to ſmite them, & to driue them out of the lande: For I wote, that he, whom thou bleſſeſt, is bleſſed: and he, whom thou curſeſt, is curſed.

B 7 And the elders of Moab, and the elders of Madian departed, hauyng the [rewarde] of the ſoothſayeing in theyr hande: And they came vnto Balaam, & tolde hym the wordes of Balac.

8 He aunſweared them, Tarrie here this nyght, and I wyl bryng you worde, euen as the Lord ſhal ſay vnto me. And the lordes of Moab abode with Balaam.

9 And God came vnto Balaam, and ſayde, What menne are theſe with thee?

10 And Balaam ſayde vnto God, Balac the ſonne of Ziphor, kyng of Moab, hath ſent vnto me [ſayeing,]

11 Beholde, there is a people comme out of Egypt, and couereth the face of the earth: Comme nowe therefore, and curſe them for my ſake: yf ſo peraduenture I may be able to ouercomme them in battayle, and to driue them out.

12 And God ſayde vnto Balaam, Goe not thou with them, neyther curſe the people: for they are bleſſed.

13 And Balaam roſe vp in the mornyng, and ſayde vnto the lordes of Balac, Geat you vnto your lande: for the Lorde wyl not ſuffer me to goe with you. C

14 And the lordes of Moab roſe vp, and went vnto Balac, and ſayde, Balaam would not comme with vs.

15 And Balac ſent agayne a greater companie of lordes, and more honorable then they,

16 Whiche came to Balaam, and tolde him, Thus ſayth Balac the ſonne of Ziphor, Oh let nothyng let thee, but comme vnto me:

17 For I wil greatly promote thee vnto great honour, and wyl doo whatſoeuer thou ſayeſt vnto me: comme, I pray thee, curſe this people for my ſake.

18 And Balaam aunſweared, and ſaide vnto the ſeruauntes of Balac, If Balac woulde geue me his houſe ful of ſiluer and golde, I can not goe beyonde the worde of the Lord my God, to doo leſſe, or more:

Num.23.e

19 Nowe therefore I pray thee, tarrie ye here this nyght, that I may wite what the Lorde wyl ſay vnto me more. D

20 And God came vnto Balaam by nyght, and ſayde vnto hym, If the menne comme to calle thee, ryſe vp, and goe with them: but looke, what I ſay vnto thee, that ſhalt thou doo.

21 And Balaam roſe vp early, and ſadled his Aſſe, and went with the lordes of Moab.

22 And the wrath of God was kyndled, becauſe he went: And the angel of the Lorde ſtoode in the way to be agaynſt hym, as he rode vpon his Aſſe, and his two ſeruauntes were with hym.

(b) He went more to hurt and damage the chyldren of Iſrael, and for his hyer, & lucre ſake, then for any affection he had to obey God, as after 32 verſe.

23 And when the Aſſe ſawe the angel of the Lorde ſtande in the way, and hauyng his ſworde drawen in his hande, the Aſſe turned aſide out of the way, and went out into the feelde: And Balaam ſmote the Aſſe, to turne her into the way.

24 But the angel of the Lorde ſtoode in a path betweene the vineyardes, & there was a wal on the one ſide, & another on the other.

25 And when the Aſſe ſawe the angel of the Lorde, ſhe thruſt her ſelfe vnto the wal, and cruſht Balaams foote agaynſt the wal: and he ſmote her agayne.

26 And the angel of the Lorde went further, and ſtoode in a narowe place, where was no way to turne, eyther to the ryght hand, or to the leaſt.

27 And when the Aſſe ſawe the angel of the Lorde, ſhe fel downe vnder Balaam: and Balaam was wroth, and ſmote the Aſſe with a ſtaffe.

E 28 And the Lorde opened the mouth of the Aſſe, and ſhe ſaid vnto Balaam, What haue I donne vnto thee, that thou haſt ſmitten me nowe three times?

29 And Balaam ſayd vnto the Aſſe, Becauſe thou haſt mocked me: I woulde alſo there were a ſworde in myne hande, for euen now woulde I kylle thee.

30 And the Aſſe ſayde vnto Balaam, Am not I thyne Aſſe, whiche thou haſt rydden vpon ſince the fyrſt tyme vnto this day? Was I euer wont to doo ſo vnto thee? He ſaid, Nay.

31 And the Lorde opened the eyes of Balaam, and he ſawe the angel of the Lorde ſtandyng in the way, hauyng his ſworde drawen in his hande: He bowed hym ſelfe therefore, and fel flat on his face.

32 And the angel of the Lord ſayd vnto him, Wherefore haſt thou ſmitten thyne Aſſe theſe three times? Beholde, I came out to withſtande thee, becauſe [thyne hart] hath declined out of the way before me.

33 And the Aſſe ſawe me, and turned from me nowe three tymes: or els yf ſhe had not turned fro me, I had ſurely ſlayne thee, and ſaued her aliue.

34 Balaam ſaid vnto the angel of the Lord, I haue ſinned: for I wiſt not, that thou ſtoodeſt in the way agaynſt me: Nowe therfore yf it diſpleaſe thee, I wyl turne home againe. F

35 The angel of the Lorde ſayde vnto Balaam, Goe with the menne: but what I ſay vnto thee, that ſhalt thou ſpeake. And ſo Balaam went with the lordes of Balac.

36 And when Balac hearde that Balaam was comme, he went out to meete hym, vnto a citie of Moab, whiche is in the border of Arnon, euen in the vtmoſt coaſt.

37 And Balac ſayde vnto Balaam, Dyd I not ſende for thee to calle thee? And wherefore cameſt thou not vnto me? Am I not able in deede to promote thee vnto honour?

38 And Balaam made anſweare vnto Balac, Loe, I am comme vnto thee, and can I nowe ſay any thyng at al? The worde that God* putteth in my mouth, that ſhal I ſpeake. Num.23,c 39 And Balaam went with Balac, and they came vnto a citie of ſtreates.

40 And Balac offered oxen and ſheepe, and ſent [thereof] to Balaam, and to the lordes that were with hym.

41 And on the morowe Balac tooke Balaam, and brought hym vp into the hygh places of Baal, that thence he myght ſee the vtmoſt part of the people.

The xxiij. Chapter.

1 Balaam cauſeth Balac to builde aulters. 9 Balaam bleſſeth the people.

A 1 AND Balaam ſayde vnto Balac, Buylde me here ſeuen aulters, and prepare me here ſeuen oxen, and ſeuen rammes.

2 And Balac dyd as Balaam ſayde: And Balac and Balaam offered on euery aulter an oxe, and a ramme.

3 And Balaam ſayde vnto Balac, Stande by thy ſacrifice, and I wyl goe, yf happily the Lorde wyl meete me: and whatſoeuer he ſheweth me, I wyl tel thee. And he went vp hyer:

4 But God met Balaam, and [Balaam] ſaid vnto hym, I haue prepared ſeuen aulters, and haue offered vpon euery aulter, an oxe, and a ramme.

5 And the Lorde put a ſayeing in Balaams mouth, and ſayde, Goe agayne to Balac, & ſay on this wyſe.

6 And when he went agayne vnto hym, loe, he ſtoode by his burnt ſacrifice, he and al the lordes of Moab.

7 And he tooke vp his parable, and ſayde, *Balac the kyng of Moab hath brought me from Meſopotamia, out of the mountaines of the eaſt, [ſayeing,] Comme, curſe Iacob for my ſake, comme and defie Iſrael. B Nu.22,a.

8 Howe ſhal I curſe hym, whom God hath not curſed? or howe ſhal I defie him, whom God hath not defied?

9 For from the toppe of the rockes I ſee him, and from the hilles I beholde hym: loe, the people ſhal dwelle by them ſelues, and ſhal not be reckened among the nations.

10 Who can telle the (a) duſt of Iacob, and the number of the fourth part of Iſrael? I pray God that my ſoule may dye the death of the righteous, & that my laſt end may be like his.

11 And Balac ſayde vnto Balaam, What haſt thou donne vnto me? I tooke thee to curſe myne enimies, and beholde thou haſt bleſſed them altogeather.

(a) That is, the multitude of the chyldre of Iſrael.

12 He aunſweared and ſayde, Muſt I not take heede to ſpeake that, whiche the Lorde hath put in my mouth?

13 And Balac ſayde vnto hym, Comme, I pray thee, with me vnto another place, whence thou mayſt ſee them, and thou ſhalt ſee but the vtmoſt part of them, and ſhalt not ſee them al: curſe them out of that place for my ſake.

C 14 And he brought hym into a fielde, where menne might ſee farre of, euen to the toppe of an hyl, and buylt ſeuen aulters, and offred an oxe and a ramme, on euery aulter.

15 And he ſayde vnto Balac, Stande here by thy burnt ſacrifice, whyle I meete [the Lord] yonder.

Num.22.g 16 And the Lorde met Balaam, and * put a woorde in his mouth, and ſayde, Goe agayne vnto Balac, and ſay thus.

17 And when he came to hym, beholde he ſtoode by his burnt ſacrifice, and the lordes of Moab with hym. And Balac ſayde vnto hym, What hath the Lorde ſayde?

18 And he tooke vp his parable, and anſweared, Ryſe vp Balac, and heare, and hearken vnto me thou ſonne of Ziphor.

1,Cor.1.b. and,10,c. 19 * God is not a man, that he ſhoulde lye, neyther the ſonne of a man, that he ſhould repent: ſhould he ſay, and not doo? or ſhould he ſpeake, and not make it good?

20 Behold, I haue taken vpon me to bleſſe: for he hath bleſſed, and it is not in my power to alter it.

21 He behelde no vanitie in Jacob, nor ſawe transgreſſion in Iſrael: The Lorde his God is with hym, and the ioyful ſhout of a kyng is among them. D

22 God brought them out of Egypt, they haue ſtrength as an Unicorne.

23 For there is no ſorcerie in Jacob, nor ſoothſayeing in Iſrael, (b) accordyng to this tyme it ſhalbe ſayde of Jacob, and Iſrael, What hath God wrought? Nu.24.b.

24 Beholde, the people ſhal ryſe vp as a Lion, and heaue vp him ſelfe as a young Lion: He ſhal not lye downe (c) vntyl he eate of the pray, and drynke the blood of them that are ſlayne.

(b) As it is ſpoken at this time what wonderous workes the Lorde hath done for Iſrael, ſo ſhal it be in tyme to come.

(c) Untill he hath taken the ſpoyle from his enemies, and ouercome them.

25 And Balac ſayde vnto Balaam, neyther curſe them, nor bleſſe them at al.

26 But Balaam anſweared, and ſayde vnto Balac, Tolde not I thee, ſayeing, Al that the Lorde ſpeaketh, that I muſt doo.

27 And Balac ſaid vnto Balaam, Comme, I pray thee, and I wyl bryng thee yet vnto another place, if at al it wyl pleaſe God, that thou mayeſt thence curſe them for my ſake.

28 And Balac brought Balaam vnto the toppe of Peor, that looketh toward Jeſimon.

29 And Balaam ſayde vnto Balac, Make me here ſeuen aulters, and prepare me here ſeuen oxen, and ſeuen rammes.

30 And Balac did as Balaam had ſayd, and offered an oxe and a ramme, on euery aulter.

10 And Balac was wroth with Balaam, and (d) ſmote his handes togeather, and Balac ſayde vnto Balaam, I ſent for thee to curſe myne enimies, and beholde thou haſt bleſſed them theſe three tymes.

C 14 And nowe behold, I goe vnto my people: Comme therefore, and I wyl aduertiſe thee, what this people ſhal doo to thy folke in the latter dayes.

15 And he tooke vp his parable and ſayde, Balaam the ſonne of Beor hath ſayde, The man whoſe eye is open, hath ſayde, 17 Whiche may goe (f) out & in before them, and leade them out and in, that the congregation of the Lorde be not as ſheepe whiche haue not a ſheepehearde.

18 And the Lorde ſayde vnto Moſes, Take thee Joſuah, the ſonne of Nun, a man in whom is the ſpirite, and put thyne handes vpon hym, 19 And ſet hym before Eleazar the prieſt, and before al the congregation: and geue hym a charge in their ſyght.

(b) Brethren are here taken for kinſmen.

(f) To rule and gouerne them, to leade them foorth to battayle, and to bryng them backe.

(g) Of thy auctoritie, or thy dignitie, that the people may haue him in the greater reuerence, and yeelde them ſelues more to his obedience.

(h) That is, of the prieſtes owne iudgement, to whõ God reueled his wil. Some vnderſtand by Urim, certaintie, and illumination.

And accordyng vnto his woorde ſhal they goe [f] out and in, both he and al the chyldren of Iſrael with hym, and al the congregation.

22 And Moſes dyd as the Lorde commaunded hym: and he tooke Ioſuah, and ſet hym before Eleazar the prieſt, and before al the congregation:

23 * And put his handes vpon him, and gaue hym a charge, as the Lorde commaunded through the hande of Moſes.

1 What muſt be offered on euery feaſt day.

A 1 AND the Lord ſpake vnto Moſes, ſayeing,

7 And let the drynke offering of the ſame be the fourth parte of an Hin for one lambe, and in the holy place ſhalt thou commaunde the wyne to be powred vnto the Lorde:

8 And the other lambe thou ſhalt offer at euen, after the manner of the meate offeryng, and the drynke offeryng of the mornyng, a ſacrifice made by fyre, ſhalt thou offer for a ſweete ſauour vnto the Lorde.

9 And on the Sabboth day, two lambes of a yeere olde without ſpot, & two tenth deales of floure for a meate offering mingeled with oyle, and the drynke offeryng thereto.

10 This is the burnt offeryng of euery Sabboth, beſyde the dayly burnt offering, and the drynke offeryng.

11 And in the beginning of your moonethes, ye ſhal offer a burnt offeryng vnto the Lord: two young bullockes and a ramme, and ſeuen lambes of a yeere olde without ſpot,

12 And three tenth deales of floure for a meate offering mingled with oyle for one bullocke, and two tenth deales of floure for a meate offeryng myngeled with oyle for one ramme,

13 And a tenth deale of floure myngeled with oyle for a meate offeryng vnto one lambe, for a burnt offeryng of a ſweete ſauour, and a ſacrifce made by fyre vnto the Lorde.

14 And their drynke offerynges ſhalbe halfe an Hin of wyne vnto one bullocke, and the thirde parte of an Hin of wyne vnto a ramme, and the fourth parte of an Hin vnto a lambe: This is the burnt offeryng of euery mooneth, throughout the moonethes of the yeere: C

15 And one hee goate for a ſinne offeryng vnto the Lord ſhalbe offered, beſydes the dayly burnt offeryng, and the drynke offeryng.

17 And in the fifteenth day of the ſame mooneth is the feaſt: ſeuen dayes long ſhal vnleauened bread be eaten.

18 In the * fyrſt day ſhalbe an holy conuocation, ye ſhal doo no manner of ſeruile woorke therein. Leui.23.b.

[f] By goeyng out and commyng in, is meant, in enterpriſing of thinges, and ceaſſing from enterpriſes.

[a] The Iewes doo ſay, that by the beaſt that is ſacrificed, the ſynner is vnderſtood. For when the beaſt is ledde to be killed, the treſpaſſer ought (ſaye they) to thynke as though he for his offence were lead vnto the ſame, and thus to confeſſe: O Lorde I am gilty of death: I haue deſerued to be ſtoned for this treſpaſſe, and not this beaſt: or to be ſtrangled for this tranſgreſſion, or to burnt for this crime. But theſe ſacrifices doo by ſhadow ſignifie Chriſte the true lambe of God, who woulde afterwarde cleanſe our ſinnes, and pay the price for them. Howe greeuous therefore ſhoulde we acknowledge & confeſſe our ſinnes to be, for the whiche no beaſt, but the innocent ſonne of God hath dyed: For the father ſparyng vs, hath yeelded his ſonne vnto death.

[b] Accompting ſeuen weekes betwene Eaſter and whitiontide, as Leuit.13.

27 But offer a burnt offeryng for a ſweete ſauour vnto the lorde, two young bullockes, a ramme, and ſeuen lambes of a yeere olde,

Deut.23.d 2 *If a man vowe a vowe vnto the Lorde, or ſweare an othe to bynde his ſoule, he ſhal not goe backe with his worde, but ſhal fulfyl al that is proceeded out of his mouth.

3 If a woman alſo vowe a vowe vnto the Lorde, and bynde her ſelfe, beyng in her fathers houſe in the tyme of her youth:

4 And her father heare her vowe and bond, whiche ſhe hath made vpon her ſoule, and hold his peace thereto, then al her vowes and bondes whiche ſhe hath made vpon her ſoule, ſhal ſtande in effect.

5 But if her father diſallowe her the ſame day, that he heareth al her vowes & bondes, whiche ſhe hath made vpon her ſoule, they ſhal not be of value, and the Lorde ſhal forgeue her, becauſe her father (a) diſallowed her.

6 If ſhe had an huſbande, when ſhe vowed or pronounced ought out of her lippes, wherwith ſhe bounde her ſoule, B

7 And her huſbande hearde it, and helde his peace thereat, the ſame day he hearde it: then her vowes ſhal ſtand, and her bondes, wherwith ſhe bound her ſoule, ſhal ſtand in effect.

8 And if her huſbande diſallowe her the ſame day, that he hearde it, then he ſhal make her vowe, whiche ſhe hath vpon her, and the openyng of her lippes, wherewith ſhe bound her ſoule, of none effect, and the Lord ſhal forgeue her.

9 But euery vowe of a wydowe, and of her, that is diuorſed, that they haue bounde their ſoule withal, ſhal ſtande in effect with them.

10 If ſhe vowed in her (b) huſbandes houſe, or bounde her ſoule with an othe,

11 And her huſbande hearde it, and helde his peace, concernyng her, and diſallowed her not, then al her vowes ſhal ſtande, and euery bonde, wherewith ſhe bounde her ſoule, ſhal ſtande.

12 But if her huſbande diſannulled them the ſame day, that he hearde them, then nothyng that proceedeth out of her lippes in vowes and bondes, wherewith ſhe bound her ſoule, ſhal ſtande in effect: for her huſbande hath diſannulled them, and the Lorde ſhal forgeue her.

13 Al vowes and othes, that bynde to (c) humble the ſoule, may her huſband ſtabliſhe, or breake.

C 14 But if her huſbande holde his peace from one

(f) Your voluntarie ſacrifices.

(a) Agreed not to her vowe.

(b) Her huſband lyuyng, or before ſhe be diuorſed.

(c) Through mortification, by abſtinence, or bodily exerciſe.

(d) one day to another, then he ſtabliſheth al her vowes and bondes, whiche ſhe had vpon her: he confirmeth them, becauſe he helde his peace, concernyng her the ſame day, that he hearde them.

15 But (e) if he breake them, after that he hath hearde them, he ſhal beare her ſinne him ſelfe.

16 Theſe are the ordinances, whiche the Lord commaunded Moſes, betweene a man and his wyfe, and betweene the father and his daughter, beeyng yet a damſel in her fathers houſe.

(d) Not diſannullyng her vowe the ſame day that he heareth it.

(e) Any day after the firſt day, that he hearde them.

The.xxxii.Chapter.

2 To Ruben and Gad, and to halfe the tribe of Manaſſes, is promiſed the poſſeſſion beyonde Iordane eaſtwarde. 7 The Rubenites, and the Gaddites be rebuked of Moſes. 16 Their promiſſes vnto Moſes.

A 1 THE chyldren (a) of Ruben and the chyldren of Gad had an exceedyng great multitude of cattel: And when they ſawe the lande of Iazer, and the lande of Gilead, that it was an apt place for cattel,

(a) Ruben was the ſonne of Lea Iacobs wyfe, & Gad was ſonne to Zilpha her handmayde.

2 The chyldren of Ruben, and the chyldren of Gad, came and ſpake vnto Moſes and Eleazar the prieſt, and vnto the lordes of the congregation, ſayeing,

3 The land of Ataroth, and Dibon, Iazer and Nenrah, Heſbon, and Elealeh, Sabam, and Nebo, and Beon:

4 Whiche countrey the Lorde ſmote before the congregation of Iſrael, is a land meete for cattel, and we thy ſeruantes haue cattel.

5 Wherefore, ſayde they, If we haue founde grace in thy ſight, let this lande be geuen vnto thy ſeruantes to poſſeſſe, and bryng vs not ouer Iordane.

6 And Moſes ſayde vnto the children of Gad & Ruben, Shal your brethren goe to warre, and ſhal ye ſit here?

B 7 Wherfore diſcourage ye the hart of the chyldren of Iſrael, that they ſhoulde not goe ouer into the lande, whiche the Lorde hath geuen them?

Num.13,b 8 *Thus did your fathers, when I ſent them from Cades Bernea to ſee the lande.

9 For when they went vp euen vnto the riuer of Eſchol, and ſaw the land, they diſcouraged the hart of the chyldren of Iſrael, that they ſhoulde not goe into the lande, whiche the Lorde hath geuen them.

10 And the Lordes wrath was kyndled the ſame tyme, and he ſware, ſayeing,

11 None of yͤ menne that came out of Egypt, from twentie yeeres olde and aboue, ſhal ſee the lande, whiche I ſware vnto Abraham, Iſaac, & Iacob, becauſe they haue not wholy folowed me:

12 Saue Caleb the ſonne of Iephune the Keneſite, and Ioſuah the ſonne of Nun: for they haue conſtantly folowed the Lorde.

13 And the Lorde was very angry with Iſrael, and made them wander in the wylderneſſe fourtie yeeres, vntyl al the generation, that had donne euyl in the ſight of the Lorde, were conſumed.

C 14 And behold, ye are riſen vp in your fathers ſteede, as an increaſe of ſinful menne, to augment the fierce wrath of the Lorde towarde Iſrael:

15 For if ye turne away from after hym, he wyl yet agayne leaue the people in the wylderneſſe, (b) and ye ſhal deſtroy al this folke.

(b) ye ſhalbe the cauſe, that they ſhal periſhe.

16 And they went neare hym, and ſayde, We wyl buylde ſheepe foldes here for our ſheepe, and for our cattel, and [walled] cities for our chyldren:

17 But we our ſelues wyl goe ready armed before the chyldren of Iſrael, vntyl we haue brought them vnto (c) their place: And our chyldren ſhal dwelle in the fenſed cities, becauſe of the inhabiters of the lande.

(c) Into the lande of promiſſe.

18 We wil not returne vnto our houſes, vntil the chyldren of Iſrael haue inherited, euery man his inheritance:

19 Neyther wyl we inherite with them on yonder ſide Iordane forewarde, becauſe our inheritance is fallē to vs on this ſide Iordane, eaſtwarde.

20 And Moſes ſayde vnto them, If ye wyl doo this thing, and goe harneſſed (d) before the Lorde to warre, (d) Before the arke.

D 21 And wil goe al of you in harneſſe ouer Iordane before the Lorde, vntyl he haue caſt out his (e) enimies from his ſight,

(e) The inheritance of Chanaan.

22 And vntyl the lande be ſubdued before the Lorde: then ye ſhal returne, and be without ſinne (f) before the Lorde, and before Iſrael, and this lande ſhalbe your poſſeſſion before the Lorde.

(f) God wyl geue you the lande, that ye deſire.

23 But if ye wyl not doo ſo, Beholde, ye haue ſinned againſt the Lorde: and be ſure (g) your ſinne wyl finde you out.

(g) You ſhal not goe vnpuniſhed for your ſinne.

24 Nowe therefore, builde cities for your chyldren, and foldes for your ſheepe, and doo that ye haue ſpoken.

25 The chyldren of Gad, and the chyldren of Ruben ſpake vnto Moſes, ſayeing, Thy ſeruauntes wil doo as my Lorde cōmaundeth.

26 Our chyldren, our wyues, our ſheepe, and our cattel, ſhal remayne here in the cities of Gilead:

27 But thy ſeruauntes wyl goe al harneſſed for the warre, and vnto battayle before the Lorde, as my Lorde ſayth.

E 28 And for their ſakes, Moſes commaunded Eleazar the prieſt, and Ioſuah the ſonne of Nun, and the chiefe fathers of the tribes of the chyldren of Iſrael,

29 And Moſes ſayde vnto them, If the chyldren of Gad, and the chyldren of Ruben wyl goe with you ouer Iordane, al armed, to fight before the Lorde, then when the lande is ſubdued before you, ye ſhal geue them the lande of Gilead to poſſeſſe:

30 But (h) if they wyl not goe ouer with you in harneſſe, they ſhal haue their poſſeſſions among you, in the lande of Chanaan.

(h) Ouer Iordane.

31 And the chyldren of Gad, and the chyldren of Ruben, anſweared, ſaieing, As (i) the Lord hath ſayd vnto thy ſeruantes, ſo wyl we doo:

(i) That, whiche is ſpoken by Gods meſſenger, is ſayd to be ſpoken by God.

32 We wil goe harneſſed before the Lorde into the lande of Chanaan, that the poſſeſſion of our inheritance may be geuen vs on this ſide Iordane.

33 And Moſes gaue vnto the children of Gad, and to the chyldren of Ruben, and vnto halfe the tribe of Manaſſe the ſonne of Ioſeph, the kyngdome of Sehon kyng of the (k) Amorites, and the kingdome of Og kyng of Baſan, the lande with the cities thereof, in the coaſtes & cities of the countrey rounde about.

(k) Thoſe Amorites that dwelt on this ſide of Iordane. Somme of them dwelt by Iordane, of whom mention is made Ioſue.x.

34 And the children of Gad built Dibon, and Ataroth, and Aroer,

35 And Atoth, Sophan, Iaaſer, and Iogbea,

F 36 Bethnimra, and Betharan, fenſed cities: and they builded foldes for the ſheepe.

37 And the chyldren of Ruben buylt Heſbon, Eleale, Kiriathaim,

38 Nebo, Baalmeon, & turned their names, and Sibama alſo: & gaue other names vnto the cities, whiche they buylded.

39 And the chyldren of Machir, the ſonne of Manaſſe went to Gilead, and tooke it, and put out the Amorites, that dwelt therein.

40 And Moſes gaue Gilead vnto Machir, the ſonne of Manaſſe, and he dwelt therein.

Deut.iii.b

41 And *Iair the ſonne of Manaſſe went, and tooke the ſmalle townes thereof, and called them (l) Hauoth Iair.

(l) That is to ſay, the villages of Iair.

42 And Nobah went and tooke Kenath, and the townes belonging thereto, and called it Nobah, after his owne name.

3 And *your ſouth quarter ſhalbe from the wyldernesse of Zin, along by the coaſt of Edom, ſo that your ſouth quarter reache vpon the ſyde of the (b) ſalt ſea eaſtwarde.

(b) Otherwiſe, the dead ſea.

4 And fet a compaſſe from the ſouth vp to Acrabim, and Recahe to Zinna: And goe out from the ſouth to Cades Barnea, & goe out alſo to Hazar Adar, and goe along to Azmon.

5 And fet a compaſſe agayne from Azmon, vnto the (c) riuer of Egypt, and ſhal goe out at the ſea.

(c) By which riuer ſomme thinke Nilus to be meant: ſomme others Rhinocorura called medetaraneum.

6 And let your weaſt quarter be the great ſea, let the ſame ſea be your weaſt coaſt.

B

7 And this ſhalbe your north quarter: ye ſhal compaſſe your border from the great ſea, vnto (d) mount Hor.

(d) Hor, a litle hyl, but not that, whereon Aaron dyed.

8 And from mount Hor, ye ſhal deſcribe your border, tyl it comme vnto Hemath, and the ende of the coaſt ſhalbe at Zedada.

9 And the coaſt ſhal reache out to Ziphron, & goe out at Hazar Enan: This ſhalbe your north quarter.

10 And ye ſhal deſcribe your eaſt quarter from Hazar Enan, to Sepham.

11 And the coaſt ſhal goe downe frō Sepham to Ribla on the eaſt ſide of Ain: And the ſame border ſhal deſcende and goe out at the ſide of (e) the ſea of Cenereth eaſtwarde.

(e) Whiche is in the Goſpel called the lake of Genezareth.

12 And then goe downe along by Iordane, & leaue at yͤ ſalt ſea: And this ſhalbe your lande, with the coaſtes thereof rounde about.

13 And Moſes commaunded the chyldren of Iſrael, ſayeing, This is the lande whiche ye ſhal inherite by lot, and whiche the Lorde cōmaunded to geue vnto nine tribes & an halfe.

15 Two tribes & an halfe haue receiued their inheritance on the other ſide of Iordane, ouer agaynſt Iericho eaſtwarde.

16 And the Lorde ſpake vnto Moſes, ſaieing,

17 These are the names of the menne whiche ſhal diuide the lande vnto you: Eleazar the prieſt, and Ioſuah the ſonne of *Nun.

Deut.iij.d

Ioſu.14.a.

18 And ye ſhal take alſo a (f) Lorde of euery tribe, when ye diuide the lande.

(f) One of the chiefe men of euery tribe.

19 The names of the menne are theſe: Of the tribe of Iuda, Caleb the ſonne of Iephune.

20 Of the tribe of the chyldren of Simeon, Semuel the ſonne of Amiud.

D

21 Of the tribe of Beniamin, Elidad the ſonne of Ciſlon.

22 Of the tribe of the chyldren of Dan, the lorde Bucki, the ſonne of Iogli.

23 From among the chyldren of Ioſeph, for the tribe of the children of Manaſſe, the lorde Haniel, the ſonne of Ephod.

24 Of the tribe of the chyldren of Ephraim, the lorde Camuel, the ſonne of Siphtan.

25 Of the tribe of the ſonnes of Zabulon, the lorde Eliſaphan, the ſonne of Pharnach.

26 Of the tribe of the chyldren of Iſachar, the lorde Palthiel, the ſonne of Azan.

27 Of the tribe of the ſonnes of Aſer, the lorde Ahihud, the ſonne of Salomi.

28 Of tribe of the chyldren of Nephthali, the lorde Pedael, the ſonne of Ammihud.

29 These are they, whom the Lorde commaunded to diuide the inheritance vnto the chyldren of Iſrael in the lande of Chanaan.

The.xxxv.Chapter.

2 Unto the Leuites are geuen cities and ſuburbes. 11 The cities of refuge. 16 The lawe of manquellyng. 30 For one mans witneſſe ſhal no man be condempned.

A 1 AND the Lorde ſpake vnto Moſes in the fieldes of Moab by Jordane ouer agaynſt Jericho, ſayeing,

2 Commaunde the chyldren of Iſrael, that they geue vnto the Leuites of the[a] inheritance of their poſſeſſion, * cities to dwelle in: And ye ſhal geue alſo vnto the cities of the Leuites, ſuburbes harde by their cities rounde about them.

[a] For that ỹ Leuites had no heritage in the lande of Chanaan.

Ioſu.xxi.a

3 The cities ſhal they haue to dwelle in, and the ſuburbes for their cattel, and for their poſſeſſion, and al manner of beaſtes of theirs.

4 And the ſuburbes of the cities, whiche ye ſhal geue vnto the Leuites, ſhal reache from the wal of the citie outwarde, a thouſand cubites rounde about.

5 And ye ſhal meaſure without the citie of the Eaſt ſide, two thouſande cubites: and of the South ſide, two thouſande cubites: and of the Weſt ſide, two thouſande cubites: and of the North ſide, two thouſande cubites alſo, and the citie ſhalbe in the middes: & theſe ſhalbe the ſuburbes of their cities.

6 And from among the cities, whiche ye ſhal geue vnto the Leuites, * there ſhal be ſixe cities for refuge, whiche ye ſhal appoint [to that intent] that he, whiche kylleth, may flee thyther: And to them ye ſhal adde fourtie & two cities moe.

Ioſu.xx.a.

B 7 So that al the cities, whiche ye ſhal geue the Leuites, may be fourtie and eyght: them [ſhal ye geue] with their ſuburbes.

8 And theſe cities, whiche ye ſhal geue, ſhalbe out of the poſſeſſion of the chyldren of Iſrael. They that haue many, ſhal geue many: but of them, that haue fewe, ye ſhal take fewe. Euery one ſhal geue of his cities vnto the Leuites, according to the inheritance, whiche he inheriteth.

9 And the Lorde ſpake vnto Moſes, ſayeing,

10 Speake vnto the children of Iſrael, and ſay vnto them, * When ye be comme ouer Jordane into the lande of Chanaan:

Deut.19.a
Ioſu.xx.a.

11 Ye ſhal appoynt you cities, to be cities of refuge for you: that he, whiche ſleaeth a perſon vnwares, may flee thyther.

12 And theſe cities ſhalbe vnto you a refuge from the[b] auenger of blood: that he, whiche kylleth, dye not, vntyl he ſtande before the[c] congregation in iudgement.

[b] The next of kinne to the partie ſlayne, whiche ought to folowe the ſuite.

[c] The Hebrues vnderſtande by the congregation, ỹ Senatours and chiefe Judges in the citie.

13 And of theſe cities, whiche ye ſhal geue, ſixe cities ſhal ye haue for refuge.

14 Ye ſhal geue three[d] on this ſide Jordane, and three in the lande of Chanaan, whiche ſhalbe cities of refuge.

C

[d] In the poſſeſſion of ỹ Rubenites, Gadites, and the halfe tribe of Manaſſes.

15 And theſe ſixe cities ſhalbe a refuge, both for the chyldren of Iſrael, and for the ſtraunger, and for hym that dwelleth among you: that al they, whiche kylle any perſone vnwares, may flee thyther.

16 * And if any man ſmyte another with an inſtrument of iron, that he dye, then is he a murtherer: and the murtherer ſhal dye for it.

Exod.21.d

17 If he ſmite him with throwing a[e] ſtone, that a man may dye with, and if he dye, he that ſmote hym is a murtherer: let the ſame murtherer be ſlayne therefore.

[e] So daungerous, that a man may dye thereof.

18 Or if he ſmyte hym with a handweapon of wood, that a man may die with, then if he dye, he is a murtherer: let the ſame murtherer be ſlayne therefore.

19 [f] The reuenger of blood him ſelfe ſhal ſlay the murtherer: when he meeteth him, he ſhal ſlay hym.

[f] He that is next to his kin to hym that is murthered.

20 But if he thruſt him of hate, or hurle at him by layeing of wayte, that he dye,

21 Or ſmyte hym with his hande of enmitie, that he dye, he that ſmote hym ſhal dye the death, for he is a murtherer: the reuenger of the blood ſhal ſlay the murtherer, when he meeteth hym.

D

22 But if he puſshed hym vnaduiſedly, and not of hate, or caſt vpon him any thyng, and not in layeing of wayte,

23 Or any manner of ſtone that a man may dye with, and ſawe him not, and he cauſed it to falle vpon hym, and he dye, and was not his enimie, neyther ſought hym any harme:

24 Then the congregation ſhal iudge betweene the ſlayer, and the reuenger of blood, accordyng to theſe lawes.

25 And the congregatiõ ſhal deliuer the ſlayer out of the hande of the reuenger of blood, and the congregation ſhal reſtore hym to the citie of his refuge, whyther he was fledde: and he ſhal abyde there vnto the death of[g] the high prieſt, whiche was annoynted with the holy oyle.

[g] This was a figure of Chriſte, by whoſe death our ſinnes are pardoned.

26 But if the ſlayer comme without the borders of his citie of refuge, whyther he was fled:

27 And the reuenger of blood finde him without the borders of the citie of his refuge, and the reuenger of blood kille the ſlayer, he ſhalbe gyltleſſe:

28 Becauſe he ſhoulde haue bydden in the towne of his refuge vntyl the death of the hygh prieſt: and after the death of the hygh prieſt, the ſlayer ſhould returne vnto the land of his poſſeſſion.

29 So theſe thinges ſhalbe[h] a law of iudgement vnto you, throughout your generations, in al your dwellynges.

(h) That is, to iudge wylful or caſuall murtherers.

30 Whoſo killeth any perſone, the [Iudge] ſhal put ye murtherer to death thorowe witneſſes: but one witneſſe ſhal not teſtifie agaynſt any perſone, to cauſe hym to dye.

31 Moreouer ye ſhal take no recompenſe for the lyfe of the murtherer, whiche is worthy to dye: but he ſhalbe put to death.

32 And ye ſhal take no recompenſe for hym that is fledde to the citie of his refuge, that he ſhoulde comme agayne, & dwelle in the land, before the death of the hygh prieſt.

33 So ye ſhal not pollute the lande whiche ye ſhal dwelle in, for blood defileth the land: and the land can not be cleanſed of the blood that is ſhead therein, but by the blood of hym, that ſhead blood.

34 Defile not therefore the lande, whiche ye ſhal inhabite, for I am in the middes thereof: [euen] I the Lorde dwelle among the chyldren of Iſrael.

The. xxxvi. Chapter.

1 An order for the mariage of the daughters of Zelaphead. 7 The inheritance coulde not be geuen from one tribe to another.

1 A AND the chiefe fathers of the families of the children of Gilead, the ſonne of Machir, the ſonne of Manaſſe, of the kynred of the ſonnes of Ioſeph, came foorth & ſpake before Moſes, and before the princes the chiefe fathers of the chyldren of Iſrael,

2 And ſaide, The Lorde commaunded[a] my Lorde to geue the lande to inherite by lot to the chyldren of Iſrael: and my Lorde was commaunded by the Lorde, to geue the inheritance of Zelaphead our brother, vnto his daughters.

(a) He meaneth Moſes.

3 If they be maryed to any of the ſonnes of[b] the other tribes of the chyldren of Iſrael, then ſhal their inheritance be taken from the inheritance of our fathers, and ſhalbe put to the inheritance of the tribe whiche they are receaued into, and ſo ſhal it be taken from the lot of our inheritance.

(b) To any of another tribe then of Manaſſes.

4 And when the Iubilee of the chyldren of Iſrael commeth, then ſhal their inheritance be put vnto the inheritance of the tribe wherinto they are receaued, and ſo ſhal their inheritance be taken away from the inheritance of the tribe of our fathers.

5 And Moſes commaunded the chyldren of Iſrael, accordyng to the worde of the Lorde, ſayeing, The tribe of the ſonnes of Ioſeph haue[c] ſayde wel.

(c) For ye tribe could not haue continued, if their inheritance had ben taken from them.

6 This therfore dooth the Lord commaunde the daughters of Zelaphead, ſayeing, Let them be wyues, to whom they them ſelues thinke beſt: only to the familie of the tribe of their father ſhal they marrie.

7 B So ſhal not the inheritance of the chyldren of Iſrael remoue from tribe to tribe: for euery one of the chyldren of Iſrael ſhal ioyne hym ſelfe to the inheritance of the tribe of his fathers.

8 And euery daughter that poſſeſſeth any inheritance[d] in any tribe of the chyldren of Iſrael, ſhalbe wyfe vnto one of the kynred of the tribe of her father, that the chyldren of Iſrael may enioy euery man the inheritance of his father.

(d) Whiche ſhalbe when there is no male chylde to inherite.

9 Neyther ought the inheritance to goe from one tribe to another: but euery one of ye tribes of the chyldren of Iſrael, ſhalbe ioyned to his owne inheritance.

10 And as the Lorde commaunded Moſes, euen ſo dyd the daughters of Zelaphead:

11 For Mahela, Thirza, Hagla, Milcha, and Noa the daughters of Zelaphead, were maryed vnto their fathers brothers ſonnes.

12 They were wiues vnto the families of the ſonnes of Manaſſe, the ſonne of Ioſeph, and ſo their inheritance remayned in the tribe of the kynred of their father.

13 These are the[e] commaundementes and lawes, whiche the Lorde commaunded by the hande of Moſes vnto the chyldren of Iſrael, in the fieldes of Moab, by Iordane [towarde] Iericho.

(e) That is, concerning the ceremonial & iudicial lawes.

¶ The ende of the fourth booke of Moſes.

The fifth booke of Moſes, called in the Hebrew, Elle haddebarim, and in the Greke, Deuteronomium.

The.i.Chapter.

1 A breefe rehearſal of thinges donne before, from Horeb vnto Cades Barnea. 32 Moſes reproueth the people for theyr incredulitie. 44 The Iſraelites are ouercomme by the Amorites, becauſe they fought agaynſt the commaundement of the Lorde.

A 1 These be the wordes, which Moſes ſpake vnto al Iſrael on (a) the other ſide of Iordane in the wylderneſſe, in the playne ouer agaynſt the red ſea, betweene Pharan & Thophel, Laban, Hazeroth, and Diſahab.

(a) In the countrey of Moab: and this wylderneſſe was betwene the plaine of Moab & the ſea.

2 There are eleuen dayes iourney from (b) Horeb, by the way of mount Seir, vnto Cades Barnea.

(b) Moſes repeteth agayne the lawe whiche was geuē fourtie yeeres before, ſo that the youth of his people, were either vnborne, or to young to iudge: for whiche ſecond repetitiō, this booke is called in greke Deuteronomium. that is, the ſeconde lawe.

3 And it came to paſſe in the firſt day of the eleuenth moneth, in the fourtie yeere, that Moſes ſpake vnto the chyldren of Iſrael, accordyng vnto al that the Lorde had geuen hym in commaundement vnto them:

4 After he had ſlayne Sehon the kyng of the Amorites, whiche dwelt in Heſbon, and Og king of Baſan, whiche dwelt at Aſtaroth in Edrai,

5 On the other ſyde of Iordane in the land of Moab, began Moſes to declare this lawe, ſayeing,

6 The Lorde our GOD ſpake vnto vs in (c) Horeb, ſayeing, Ye haue dwelt long yenough in this mount.

(c) In the ſecond yeere, & ſeconde moneth.

B 7 Turne you, and take your iourney, and goe to the mount of the Amorites, and vnto al the places nygh thereunto, both vnto the playne, and hilles, and dales, to the ſouth, to the ſeas ſyde, to the lande of Chanaan, and vnto Libanon, euen vnto the great riuer, the riuer Euphrates.

8 Beholde, I haue ſet the lande before you: Goe in, and poſſeſſe the lande whiche the lord ſware vnto your fathers, Abraham, Iſahac, and Iacob, to geue vnto them, and to theyr ſeede after them.

Gen. 15.d. and, 17.b.

9 And (d) I ſpake vnto you in the ſame tyme, ſayeing, I am not hable to beare you my ſelfe alone.

(d) By the counſel of Iethro my father in lawe.

10 For the Lorde your God hath multiplied you: ſo that you be this day as the ſtarres of heauen in number.

11 (The Lorde God of your fathers make you a thouſande tymes ſo many moe as ye are, and bleſſe you, as he hath promiſed you.)

12 Howe can * I my ſelfe alone, (e) beare your cumbraunce, your charge, and your ſtryfe, that is among you?

Exo. 18.c.

(e) Meaning that Moſes had an harde gouernance among them.

13 Bryng you menne of wiſdome, and of vnderſtandyng, and expert, accordyng to your tribes, & I wil make them rulers ouer you.

C 14 And ye aunſweared me, and ſayde, That which thou haſt ſpoken, is good for vs to do.

15 And ſo out of your tribes (f) I tooke the cheefe menne of wyſdome, and that were expert, and made them rulers ouer you, captaynes ouer thouſandes, and captaynes ouer hundredes, captaynes ouer fiftie, & captaines ouer ten, and officers among your tribes.

(f) To ſignifie, that expert and knowen men in godlyneſſe, ought to be taken to gouerne.

16 And I charged your iudges that ſame time, ſayeing, Heare the cauſe of your brethren, and * iudge ryghteouſly betweene euery man and his brother, and the ſtraunger, that is with hym.

Ioſu. 7.d.

17 Ye ſhal haue no reſpect of any perſone in iudgement, but you ſhal heare the ſmal aſwel as the great: You ſhal not feare the face of any man: for the iudgement (g) is Gods. And the cauſe that is to harde for you, referre it vnto me, and I wyl heare it.

Leut. 19.c. Prou. 24.e

(g) And man is but gods miniſter.

18 And I commaunded you the ſame ſeaſon, al the thinges, whiche ye ſhoulde doo.

19 And when we departed from Horeb, we went through al that great and terrible wylderneſſe, as ye haue ſeene by the way of the mountayne of the Amorites, as the Lorde our God commaunded vs: and we came to Cades Barnea.

20 And (h) I ſayd vnto you, Ye are comme vnto the mountayne of the Amorites, whiche the Lorde our God dooth geue vnto vs.

(h) So that it is to be imputed to them ſelues, that they enioyed not the inheritance.

D 21 Beholde, the Lorde thy God hath ſet the lande before thee: goe vp, and poſſeſſe it, as the Lorde God of thy fathers hath ſayde vnto thee: feare not, neyther be diſcouraged.

Deut. 20.a

22 And ye came vnto me euery one, and ſaid, * We wil ſend menne before vs, to ſearche vs out of the lande, and to bryng vs woorde agayne, what way we muſt goe vp by, and vnto what cities we ſhal comme.

Num. 14.a

23 And the ſayeing pleaſed me wel: and I tooke twelue menne of you, of euery tribe one,

24 Whiche departed, and went vp into that mountayne, and came vnto the (m) valley Eſchol, and ſearched it out.

(m) Otherwiſe, vnto the valley of grapes.

25 And tooke of the lande in theyr handes, and brought it vnto vs, and brought vs woorde agayne, and (n) ſayde, It is a good lande, whiche the Lorde our God dooth geue vs.

(n) To wite, Caleb, and Ioſuah.

26 Notwithſtandyng, ye woulde not goe vp, but were diſobedient vnto the woorde of the Lorde your God,

27 And murmured in your tentes, and ſayd, Becauſe the Lord (o) hateth vs, therfore hath he brought vs out of the lande of Egypt, to deliuer vs into the hande of the Amorites, and to deſtroy vs.

(o) This ſheweth the ingratitude of the Iewes, whiche turned ſuche bountie, to ſounde to them, as his hatred.

Nu.13.d.

28 Whither ſhal we goe vp? Our brethren haue diſcouraged our hart, ſayeing, * The people is greater and taller then we, the cities are great, and walled euen vp to heauen, and moreouer we haue ſeene the ſonnes of the (p) Anakims there.

(p) That is, the race of the giantes, as in Num.13.23.

29 Then I ſayde vnto you, Dreade not, nor be ye afrayde of them.

30 The (q) Lorde your God whiche goeth before you, he ſhal fyght for you, accordyng to al that he did vnto you in Egypt before your eyes:

(q) He ſheweth that the true boldnes, & that whiche god approueth, is, to renounce our own ſtrength, and to repoſe our ſelues wholy on him, walking conſtantly in the vocation, to whiche he hath called vs

31 And in the wyldernesse, where thou haſt ſeene, how that the Lord thy God bare thee, euen as a man dooth beare his ſonne, in al the way whiche ye haue gonne by, vntyl ye came vnto this place:

32 And yet in this thing ye did not beleue the Lorde your God.

33 He went in the way before you, to ſearche you out a place to pitche your tentes in, * in fyre by nyght, that ye might ſee what way to goe, and in a cloude by day.

Exo,13.d.

34 And the Lorde hearde the voyce of your woordes, & was wroth, and ſware, ſayeing,

35 * There ſhal not one of theſe menne, and of this frowarde generation, ſee that good lande, whiche I ſware to geue vnto your fathers: E

Nu.14.d. and,26.g.

36 Saue Caleb the ſonne of Iephune: he ſhal ſee it, * and to him wil I geue the lande, that he hath troden vpon, and to his chyldren, becauſe he hath folowed the Lorde.

Ioſu,14.c.

37 * Alſo the Lorde was angry with me for your ſakes, ſayeing, Thou alſo ſhalt not goe in thyther.

Num.20.c and,37.c.

38 But Ioſuah the ſonne of Nun, whiche (r) ſtandeth before thee, he ſhal goe in thyther. Encourage hym therefore: For he ſhal cauſe Iſrael to inherite the lande.

(r) Miniſtreth vnto thee.

39 Moreouer, (s) your chyldren, whiche ye ſayd ſhould be a pray, and your ſonnes, whiche in that day had no knowledge betweene good and euyl, they ſhal goe in thyther, and vnto them wil I geue it, and they ſhal enioy it.

(s) whiche were vnder xx. yeeres olde.

40 But as for you, turne your face, and take your iourney into the wyldernesse, euen by the way of the read ſea.

41 Then ye aunſweared, and ſayde vnto me, * We haue ſinned agaynſt the Lorde: (t) we wyl goe vp and fyght, accordyng to al that the Lorde our God commaunded vs. And when ye had girte on euery man his weapons of warre, ye were ready to goe vp into the hyl.

Num,14.g

(t) This dooth declare, what is the nature of man, which wil doo that, whiche god forbiddeth, & wil not doo that, whiche god commaundeth.

42 And the Lorde ſayde vnte me, Say vnto them, Goe not vp, neither fyght: for (v) I am not amōg you: leſt ye fal before your enimies.

(v) He ſheweth that our ſtrength ſtandeth in gods aſſiſtance.

43 And I tolde you theſe thynges, and you woulde not heare, but diſobeyed the woorde of the Lorde, and went preſumptuouſly vp into the hyl.

44 And the Amorites, whiche dwelt in that mountayne came out agaynſt you, and chaſed you, as bees vſe to doo, and deſtroyed you in Seir, euen vnto Horma.

45 And ye came agayne, and wept before the Lorde: but the Lorde (x) woulde not heare your voyce, nor hearken vnto you.

(x) The cauſe was, for that they lamented not their ſinne, but the loſſe of theyr brethren, and ſo were hypocrites in theyr lamenting.

46 And ſo ye abode in Cades a long ſeaſon, accordyng vnto the tyme, that ye remayned [before.]

The.ij.Chapter.

The rehearſal of al that was donne from the time they departed from Cades Barnea, vnto the battayle agaynſt the kynges, Sehon, and Og.

A 1 THen we (a) turned our face, and tooke our iourney into the (b) wyldernesse, euen by the way of the red ſea, as the Lorde ſpake vnto me: And we compaſſed (c) mount Seir a long tyme.

(a) They ſhewed their obedience after gods chaſtiſyng.

(b) The deſart of Zin.

(c) This mountayne apperteyneth to ye Idumeans, whiche came of Eſau.

2 And the Lorde ſpake vnto me, ſayeing,

3 Ye haue compaſſed this mountayne long yenough: turne you northwarde.

4 And warne thou the people, ſayeing, Ye ſhal goe through the (d) coaſt of your brethren, the chyldren of Eſau, whiche dwelt in Seir, and they ſhalbe afrayde of you.

(d) At theyr returne thyther, for before they were repelled by the Idumeans. Nu.20.21.

5 Take ye good heede vnto your ſelues therfore: Ye ſhal not prouoke them, for I wyl not geue you of theyr lande, no not ſo muche as

Gen. 23. b.

as a foote breadth, * becauſe I haue geuen mount Seir vnto Eſau to poſſeſſe.

6 Ye ſhal bye meate of them for money, to eate, and ye ſhal procure water of them for money, to drinke.

B 7 For the Lorde thy God hath bleſſed thee in al the woorkes of thy hande, and (e) knoweth thy walkyng through this great wylderneſſe this fourtie yeeres, and the Lorde thy God hath benne with thee, ſo that thou haſt lacked nothyng.

(e) Knowyng is here taken for fauouring, as in many other places of ſcripture.

8 And when we were departed from our brethren the chyldren of Eſau, whiche dwelt in Seir, through the way of the wylderneſſe from Elath, and from Ezion Gaber, we turned and went by the way of the wylderneſſe of Moab.

9 And the Lorde ſaide vnto me, *Thou ſhalt not fyght agaynſt the Moabites, neyther prouoke them to battayle: for I wil not geue thee of theyr lande to poſſeſſe, becauſe I haue geuen Ar vnto the chyldren of Loth to poſſeſſe.

10 The (f) Enims dwelt therin in times paſt, a people great, many, and tal, as the (g) Anakims,

(f) Giantes, the woord ſignifieth terrible menne. (g) Giantes whiche came of one Anak. Num. 13. 23.

11 Whiche alſo were taken for giantes, as the Anakims, whom the Moabites cal Emims.

12 The Horims alſo dwelt in Seir before tyme, whom the chyldren of Eſau chaſed out, and deſtroyed them before them, & dwelt in theyr ſteede, as Iſrael dyd vnto the lande of his poſſeſſion, whiche the Lorde gaue them.

13 Nowe ryſe vp [ſayde I] and geat you ouer the riuer Zared: and we went ouer the riuer Zared.

C 14 The ſpace in whiche we came from Cades Barnea, vntil we were comme ouer the riuer Zared, was thirtie & eight yeeres, vntyl al the generation of the menne of warre were waſted out from among the hoaſt, as the Lorde ſware vnto them.

15 * For in deede the hande of the Lorde was agaynſt them, to deſtroy them from among the (h) hoſt, tyl they were conſumed.

(h) That were of the age of xx. yeeres and vpwarde.

19 And ſo it came to paſſe, that al the menne of warre were conſumed and dead from among the people.

17 And the Lorde ſpake vnto me, ſayeing,

18 Thou ſhalt goe thorowe Ar, the coaſt of Moab, this day:

19 And when thou commeſt nygh vnto the children of Ammon, thou ſhalt not lay ſiege vnto them, nor moue warre agaynſt them: For I wil not geue thee of the lande of the children of Ammon any poſſeſſion, but I haue geuen it vnto the children of Loth to poſſeſſe.

20 That alſo it, was taken for a lande of giauntes, and giauntes dwelt therein in olde tyme, whom the Ammonites cal (i) Zamzummims,

(i) Called Zamzūmims, that is to ſay, wicked and abominable. But they couered theyr wickedneſſe with a godly name, callyng them ſelues Rephaims, that is, Phiſitions or preſeruers, to cure and reforme vices.

21 A people that was great, many, and tal, as the Anakims: But the Lord deſtroyed them before them, and they ſucceeded them in their inheritance, and dwelt in theyr ſteede:

22 As he dyd for the children of *Eſau, whiche dwel in Seir, for whom he deſtroyed the Horims before them, and they poſſeſſed them, and dwelt in theyr ſteede vnto this day.

Gen. 36. b.

23 And the Auims, whiche dwelt in Hazarim, euen vnto Azza, the (k) Caphthorims, whiche came out of Capthor, deſtroyed them, and dwelt in theyr ſteede.

(k) These are men of Cappadocia, as ſomme men ſay, Ioſeph ſayth, that this people is vnknowen.

24 Ryſe ye vp therefore, and take your iourney ouer the ryuer Arnon: Beholde, * I haue geuen into thy hande Sehon the Amorite, king of Heſbon and his lande: begin to poſſeſſe it, and prouoke him to battayle.

Num. 21. f.

25 This day wyl I beginne to ſende the feare and dread of thee vpon al nations that are vnder al the heauen, ſo that they, whiche heare ſpeake of thee, ſhal tremble and quake before thee.

26 And ſo I ſent meſſengers out of the wilderneſſe of Kedemoth, vnto Sehon king of Heſbon, with woordes of peace, ſayeing,

Num. 21. e. Deut. 20. e.

28 Thou ſhalt ſelle me meate for money, for to eate, & geue me water for money, for to drink: Only I wyl goe through on my feete, 29 As the (l) chyldren of Eſau, whiche dwel in Seir, and the Moabites whiche dwel in Ar, dyd vnto me, vntyl I be comme ouer Iordane, into the lande, whiche the Lord our God geueth vs.

(l) Becauſe Sehon coulde be moued neither with examples, nor with requeſtes, his deſtruction was moſt iuſt.

30 But Sehon the king of Heſbon would not let vs paſſe by him: for the Lorde thy GOD hardened his ſpirite, and made his hart obſtinate, becauſe he woulde delyuer him into thy hande, as it is comme to paſſe this day.

31 And the Lorde ſayde vnto me, Beholde, I haue begonne to geue Sehon and his lande before thee: beginne to poſſeſſe and inherite his lande.

32 *Then both Sehon and al his people came out agaynſt vs to fyght at Iaza.

Num. 21. e. Deu. 20. e.

33 And the Lorde ſet hym before vs, and we ſmote hym, and his ſonnes, and al his people.

The.iii.Chapter.

The rehearſal of thinges, that chaunced from the victorie of the two kynges, Sehon, and Og, vnto the inſtitution of Joſuah in Moſes ſteede.

A 1 Then we turned, and went vp the way to Baſan: *And Og the kyng of Baſan came out agaynſt vs, he and al his people, to fyght at Edrai.

Num.21.g Deut.29.b

2 And the Lorde ſaide vnto me, Feare hym not: for I wyl deliuer hym, and al his people, and his lande, into thy hande, and thou ſhalt do vnto hym, as thou dyddeſt vnto Sehon king of the Amorites, whiche dwelt at Heſbon.

3 And ſo the Lorde our God delyuered into our handes, Og alſo the kyng of Baſan, and al his folke: And we ſmote him vntil none was leaſt hym alyue.

4 And we tooke al his cities the ſame ſeaſon, neither was there a citie which we tooke not from them, euen threeſcore cities throughout the region of Argob, of the kyngdome of Og in Baſan.

5 Al theſe cities alſo were made ſtrong with hygh walles, gates, and barres, beſyde vnwalled townes a great many,

6 And we vtterly deſtroyed them, as we dyd vnto Sehon kyng of Heſbon, and bringyng to nought al the cities, with menne, women, and (a) chyldren:

(a) As god commaunded them.

B 7 But al the cattel, and the ſpoile of the cities, we tooke for our ſelues.

8 And thus we tooke the ſame ſeaſon out of the hande of two kynges of the Amorites, the lande that was on the other ſyde of Jordane, from the ryuer of Arnon, vnto mount Hermon:

9 (Whiche Hermon the Sidons cal Sirion, and the Amorites cal it Senir.)

10 Al the cities, that lay in the playne, and al Gilead, and al Baſan vnto Selcha & Edrai, cities of the kyngdome of Og in Baſan:

11 For only Og kyng of Baſan, remayned of the remnant of the giauntes, whoſe bed was a bed of (b) iron: And is it not yet at Rabbath among the chyldren of Ammon? Nine cubites dooth the length thereof contayne, and foure cubites the breadth of it, after the cubite of a (c) man.

(b) The greater this giant was, the more was gods goodnes and power to be magnified for the conqueſt.
(c) Of the cōmon ſtature.

Num.32.f. Deu.29.b Ioſu.12.b.

13 And the reaſt of Gilead, & al Baſan of the kyngdome of Og, gaue I vnto the halfe tribe of Manaſſe: euen al the region of Argob, with al Baſan, whiche is called the lande of giauntes.

15 And I gaue Gilead vnto Machir.

16 And vnto the Rubenites & Gadites I gaue Gilead, vnto the riuer of Arnon, halfe the valley, & beyonde, euen vnto the riuer (e) Jabock, whiche is the border of the chyldren of Ammon:

(e) whiche deuideth the Ammonites from the Amorites.

18 *And I commaunded you the ſame tyme, ſayeing, The Lorde your God hath geuen you this lande to enioy it: ye ſhal goe harneſſed before your brethren the chyldren of Iſrael, al that are meete for the warre.

Num.32.d

19 Your wyues only, your children, and your cattel (for I knowe, that ye haue muche cattel) ſhal abyde in your cities whiche I haue geuen you,

21 *And I commaunded Joſuah hym ſelfe the ſame tyme, ſayeing, Thyne eyes haue ſeene al that the Lord your God hath donne vnto theſe two kynges: euen ſo ſhal he doo vnto al kingdomes whither thou goeſt.

D Nu.27.d.

22 Ye ſhal not feare them: for the Lorde your God ſhal fyght for you.

23 And I beſought the Lorde the ſame time, ſayeing,

24 O Lorde God, thou haſt begonne to ſhew thy ſeruaunt thy greatneſſe, and thy myghty hande: for where is there a God in heauen or in earth, that can doo after thy woorkes, and lyke to thy power?

25 I pray thee let me goe ouer, and ſee the good lande, that is beyonde Iordane, that goodly (h) mountayne, and Libanon.

(h) Of Moriah, or Sion, where the temple was builded.

26 But the Lorde was angry with me for your ſakes, and woulde not heare me. And the Lord ſayd vnto me, Be content: ſpeake no more vnto me of this matter.

27 *Geat thee vp into the top of the hyl, and lyft vp thyne eyes weaſtwarde, northward, ſouthwarde, and eaſtwarde, and beholde it with thyne eyes: for thou ſhalt not goe ouer this Iordane.

Num.27.c

27 But charge Ioſuah, and encourage hym, and bolden him: *For he ſhal goe before this people, and he ſhal diuide vnto them the land whiche thou ſhalt ſee.

The.iiij.Chapter.

1 An exhortation to obſerue the lawe, without addyng or diminiſhyng. 6 Therein ſtandeth our wyſdome. 9 We muſt teach it to our chyldren. 15 No image ought to be made to woorſhyp. 26 Threatnynges agaynſt them that forſake the lawe of God. 37 God choſe the ſeede, becauſe he loued theyr fathers. 43 The three cities of refuge.

(a) He ſheweth that this doctrine ſtandeth in practiſe, and not in bare knowledge.

2 (b) Ye ſhal put nothyng vnto the woorde, whiche I commaunde you, neither ſhal you take ought from it, that ye may keepe the commaundementes of the Lorde your God, whiche I commaunde you.

(b) God wyl be ſerued according to his woorde.

5 Beholde I haue taught you ordinances and lawes, ſuche as the Lord my God commaunded me, that ye ſhoulde doo euen ſo in the lande, whyther ye goe to poſſeſſe it.

6 Keepe them therfore, and doo them, for that is (e) your wyſdome, and vnderſtandyng in the ſyght of the people, that they may heare al theſe ordinances, and ſay, Surely it is a wyſe and vnderſtandyng people: it is a great nation.

(e) He ſheweth the true meane to great wiſdome, whiche the vertue menne naturally doo moſt deſyre.

B 7 For what other nation is ſo great, that goddes comme ſo nygh vnto it, as the Lord our God, is nygh (f) vnto vs in al thynges, as oft as we calle vnto him?

(f) Succouryng vs, & delyuering vs from al trouble.

8 Yea, and what nation is ſo great, that hath ordinances, and lawes ſo ryghteous, as al this lawe whiche I ſet before you this day?

9 Take heede to thy ſelfe therefore, and keepe thy ſoule diligently, that thou forgeat not the thynges, whiche thyne eyes haue ſeene, and that they depart not out of thy hart al the dayes of thy life: but *teache them thy ſonnes, and thy ſonnes ſonnes.

Deut.vi.d

10 Specially the day that thou ſtoodeſt before the Lorde thy GOD in Horeb, when the Lorde ſayde vnto me, Geather me the people togeather, and I wyl make them heare my woordes, that they may learne to feare me, al the dayes, that they ſhal lyue vpon the earth, *and that they may teache theyr chyldren.

Ephe.xi.a

C 14 And the Lorde commaunded me the ſame ſeaſon, that I ſhoulde teache you ordinances and lawes, whiche ye ought to doo in the lande, whyther ye goe to poſſeſſe it.

Gen.i.b.

20 But the Lorde hath taken you, & brought you out of the (i) iron furnace, euen out of Egypt, to be vnto hym a people, and inheritance, as ye be this day.

(i) Moſte harde & cruel bondage.

D 21 Furthermore, the Lorde was angry with me for your woordes, & ſware, that I ſhould not goe ouer Jordane, and that I ſhould not goe in vnto that good lande, whiche the Lorde thy God geueth thee for thyne inheritance.

22 But I muſt dye in this lande, and ſhal not goe ouer Jordane: But ye ſhal goe ouer, and poſſeſſe that good lande.

23 Take heede vnto your ſelues, that ye forgeat not the appoyntment of the Lorde your God, whiche he made with you, and that ye make you no grauen (k) image or lykeneſſe, that the Lorde thy GOD hath forbydden thee.

24 For the Lorde thy God is a (l) conſuming fyre, and a (m) ielous God.

(k) To repreſent god, or to worſhyp it, this ſo often forbidding of images declareth, how deteſtable idolatrie is in gods ſight: & alſo, that god dyd foreſee, that the people ſhoulde yeelde them ſelues to ſuche wickednesſe.

(l) To them that comme not to hym in reuerence and feare, but contrariwiſe reſiſt hym.

26 I cal heauen and earth to recorde agaynſt you this day, that ye ſhal ſhortly periſhe from of the lande whereunto you goe ouer Jordane, to poſſeſſe it: Ye ſhal not prolong your dayes therin, but ſhal vtterly be deſtroyed:

27 And the Lorde ſhal ſcatter you among the people, and ye ſhalbe leaſt fewe in number among the nations, whither the Lorde ſhal bryng you.

E 28 And there ye ſhal ſerue goddes, whiche are the woorke of mans hande, wood, and ſtone, whiche neither ſee, nor heare, nor eate, nor ſmelle.

Deu.30.a.

29 * If from thence thou ſhalt ſeeke the Lorde thy God, thou ſhalt finde hym, yf thou ſeeke hym with al thy hart, and with al thy ſoule.

30 When thou art in tribulation, and when al theſe thynges, that be here ſpoken of, are comme vpon thee, euen in the latter dayes, if thou turne to the Lorde thy God, and ſhalt be obedient vnto his voyce:

Leu. 26.g.

(n) God confirmeth his promiſes by an othe, to the ende we may be the more certified of the hope of our ſaluation.

32 For aſke of the dayes that are paſt, whiche were before, and ſince the day, that god created man vpon the earth, and [aſke] from the one ſide of heauen vnto the other, if euer there came to paſſe ſuche a great thing, or whether any ſuche lyke thyng hath benne hearde as this.

33 Dyd euer any people heare the voyce of god ſpeakyng out of the middes of a fyre, as thou haſt hearde, and yet liued?

34 Or, hath God aſſayed to goe and take him a people from among nations, by temptations, by ſignes, by wonders, by warre, by a myghty hande, by a * ſtretched out arme, and by great ſyghtes, accordyng vnto al that the Lorde your God dyd vnto you in Egypt before your eyes?

Pſal.136.b.

F 35 Unto thee it was ſhewed, that thou mighteſt knowe that the Lorde is God, and that there is none other but he.

36 * Out of heauen he made thee heare his voyce, that he might inſtruct thee: and vpon earth he ſhewed thee his great fyre, and thou heardeſt his woorde out of the middes of the fyre.

Exo.19.c.

37 And becauſe he (o) loued thy fathers, he choſe theyr ſeede after them, and brought thee out in his ſyght with his myghty power out of * Egypt,

(o) Of his meere mercie, not of theyr merites.

Exo.13.c.

38 To thruſt out nations greater and myghtier then thou art, before thee, and to bring thee in, and to geue thee theyr lande to inheritance, as it is comme to paſſe this day.

44 And ſo this is the lawe, whiche Moſes ſet before the chyldren of Iſrael:

5 Moſes is the meane betweene God and the people. 6 The lawe is repeated. 23 The people are afrayde at Gods voyce. 29 The Lorde wiſheth that the people woulde feare hym. 32 They muſt decline neyther to the ryght hande, nor to the lefte.

A 1 AND Moſes called al Iſrael, and ſaide vnto them, Heare O Iſrael the ordinances ⁊ lawes, whiche I ſpeake in your eares this day, that ye may learne them, and (a) fulfyl them in deede.

(a) Gods doctrine cōſiſteth in practiſe, ⁊ not in ſpeculation.

33 But walke in al the wayes, whiche the Lorde your God hath commaunded you, that ye may lyue, and that it may goe wel with you, & that ye may prolong your dayes in the lande, whiche ye ſhal poſſeſſe.

The. vi. Chapter.

1 An exhortation to feare God, and keepe his commaundementes. 5 Whiche is to loue hym with al thyne hart. 7 The ſame muſt be taught to the poſteritie. 16 Not to tempt God. 25 Righteouſneſſe is conteyned in the lawe.

A 1 Theſe are the commaundementes, and ordinances, and lawes, whiche the Lorde your GOD commaunded me to teache you, that ye myght doo them in the lande, whither ye goe to poſſeſſe it:

Deu, x, c.

2 Namely, that thou myghteſt * feare the Lorde thy God, and keepe al his ordinances, and his commaundementes whiche I commaunde thee, thou and thy ſonne, and thy ſonnes ſonne, al the dayes of thy lyfe: that thy dayes may be prolonged.

3 Heare therefore, O Iſrael, and take heede, that thou doo it, that it may goe wel with thee, and that ye may encreaſe mightily, euen as the Lord God of thy fathers hath promiſed thee, a lande that [a] floweth with mylke and honie.

(a) whiche hath great ſtoare of al things perteyning to mans life.

4 Heare, O Iſrael: the Lorde our God is Lorde only.

Mar, xii, c.

5 And * thou ſhalt loue the Lorde thy God with al thine hart, and with al thy ſoule, and with al thy myght.

6 * And theſe woordes whiche I commaund thee this day, ſhalbe in thyne hart:

Deut, xi, d

B 7 And thou ſhalt ſhewe them vnto thy chyldren, and ſhalt talke of them, when thou art at home in thyne houſe, and as thou walkeſt by the way, and when thou lieſt downe, and when thou ryſeſt vp.

8 And thou ſhalt binde them for a ſigne vpon thyne hande, and they ſhalbe as frontlettes betweene thine eyes,

9 And thou ſhalt write them vpon the [b] poſtes of thy houſe, and vpon thy gates.

(b) By theſe kyndes of ſpeache, he meaneth nothyng but continual meditation of the lawe.

10 And when the lord thy God hath brought thee into the lande whiche he ſware vnto thy fathers, Abraham, Iſahac, and Iacob, and ſhal geue to thee great and goodly cities, whiche thou buildedſt not,

11 Houſes ful of al manner of goodes, whiche thou filledſt not, and welles dygged, whiche thou dyggedſt not, vineyardes, and Oliue trees, whiche thou plantedſt not: and when thou haſt eaten, and art ful, 12 Then beware, leſt thou forget the Lorde, whiche brought thee out of the lande of Egypt, from the houſe of bondage.

13 Thou

Deut,x,d. 13 * Thou ſhalt feare the Lorde thy GOD, and ſerue hym, and ſhalt (c) ſweare by his name.

(c) By laweful ſwearing that the Lord is our God.

C 14 See that ye walke not after ſtraunge goddes, the goddes of the nations, which are about you:

15 (For the Lord thy God is a ielous GOD among you) leſt the countenaunce of the Lorde thy God be moued to wrath agaynſt thee, and deſtroy thee from the face of the earth.

Mat.iiii,b. 16 * Ye ſhal not tempt the Lorde your God, as ye dyd in the place of temptation.

17 But you ſhal diligently keepe the commaundementes of the Lorde your God, and his teſtimonies, and his ordinances, whiche he hath commaunded thee:

18 And thou ſhalt doo that, whiche is ryght and good in the (d) ſight of the Lorde: that thou mayſt proſper, and that thou mayſt goe in, and poſſeſſe that good lande, whiche the Lorde ſware vnto thy fathers,

(d) Here God wylleth vs to ſerue hym accordyng to his worde, not accordyng to our owne inuentions.

19 To caſt out al thyne enimies before thee, as the Lorde hath ſayde.

20 And (e) when thy ſonne aſketh thee in tyme to comme, ſayeing, What meane theſe teſtimonies, ordinances, and lawes, whiche the Lord our God hath commaunded you:

(e) We muſt not only ſerue God our ſelues duryng our lyfe, but alſo endeuour that our chyldren may doo the ſame after vs.

21 Then thou ſhalt ſay vnto thy ſonne, We were Pharaos bondmen in Egypt, and the Lorde brought vs out of Egypt with a mighty hande:

22 And the Lorde ſhewed ſignes and wonders, great, and euil vpon Egypt, vpon Pharao, and vpon al his houſholde, before our eyes: D

23 And brought vs out from thence, to bryng vs in, and to geue vs the lande whiche he ſware vnto our fathers.

24 And he hath commaunded vs to doo al theſe ordinances, and to feare the Lorde our God for our wealth, al the dayes of our lyfe, as it is comme to paſſe this day.

25 Moreouer, this ſhalbe our (f) ryghteouſneſſe before the Lorde our God, yf we take heede, & keepe al theſe commaundementes, as he hath commaunded vs.

(f) No man can perfitely fulfil the law: therefore we muſt haue recourſe to Chriſte by fayth, in whō we are reputed for iuſt.

The.vii.Chapter.

1 The Iſraelites may make no couenaunt with the Gentiles. 5 They muſt deſtroy theyr idols. 8 The election dependeth on the free loue of God. 19 The experience of the power of God ought to confirme vs. 25 To auoyde al occaſion of idolatrie.

A 1 When the Lorde thy God ſhal bryng thee into the lande, whyther thou goeſt to poſſeſſe it, and hath caſt out many nations before thee: Namely the Hethites, the Gergeſites, the Amorites, the Chanaanites, the Pherezites, the Heuites, and the Iebuſites, ſeuen nations, greater, and mightier then thou:

Exo,xiii.c 2 * And when the Lorde thy God hath ſet them before thee, thou ſhalt ſmite them, and vtterly deſtroy them, and make no couenant with them, nor haue compaſſion on them.

3 Thou ſhalt make no mariages with them: neyther geue thy daughter vnto his ſonne, nor take his daughter vnto thy ſonne.

4 For they wyl deceiue thy ſonne, that he ſhoulde not folowe me, and they ſhal ſerue ſtraunge goddes: and then wyl the wrath of the Lord ware hot agaynſt thee, and deſtroy thee ſodainly.

5 But thus ye ſhal deale with them: (a) Ye ſhal ouerthrowe their aulters, and breake downe their pillers, and cutte downe theyr groues, and burne their grauen images with fyre.

(a) God wold haue his ſeruice pure, without al ſuperſtition.

Deu.xiii.a 6 * For thou art an holy people vnto the Lord thy God: * the Lorde thy God hath choſen thee, to be a ſpecial people vnto hym ſelfe, aboue al nations, that are vpon the earth.

Exo.xix.a.

7 The Lorde dyd not ſet his loue vpon you, nor choſe you becauſe ye were moe in number, then any people (for ye were the feweſt of al people.) B

8 But becauſe the Lorde loued you, and becauſe he woulde keepe the * othe, whiche he had ſworne vnto your fathers, therefore hath the Lorde brought you out through a mighty hande, and deliuered you out of the houſe of bondage, euen from the hande of Pharao kyng of Egypt.

Gen.22.e.

9 Underſtande therefore, that the Lorde thy God is God, and that a true God, * whiche keepeth appoyntment & mercie vnto them, that loue hym and keepe his commaundementes, euen throughout a thouſande generations:

Exo.xx.a.

10 And rewardeth them that hate hym to theyr (b) face, ſo that he bryngeth them to nought, and dooth not deferre the tyme, but rewardeth hym, that hateth hym before his face.

(b) Manifeſtly, or in this lyfe.

11 Keepe thou therefore the commaundementes, and ordinances, and lawes, whiche I commaunde thee this day, that thou doo them.

12 If ye hearken vnto theſe lawes, and obſerue and doo them: the Lorde thy (c) God alſo ſhal keepe vnto thee the appoyntment, and the mercie, whiche he ſware vnto thy fathers.

(c) This couenaunt is grounded vpõ his free grace: therefore in recompenſyng their obedience, he hath reſpect to his mercie, and not to theyr merites.

13 He wyl loue thee, and bleſſe thee, and multiplie thee: he wyl alſo bleſſe the fruite of thy wombe, and the fruite of thy land, thy corne, thy wine, and thyne oyle, and the increaſe of thy kinne, and the flockes of thy ſheepe, in the lande whiche he ſware vnto thy fathers to geue thee.

C 14 Thou ſhalt be bleſſed aboue al nations: there ſhalbe neyther man nor woman vnfruiteful among you: nor any of your cattel ſhalbe barren.

Exo,23.d.

15 Moreouer, the Lord wyl* take away from thee al manner infirmities, & wyl put none of the euil diſeaſes * of Egypt (whiche thou knoweſt) vpon thee: but wyl ſend them vpon al them, that hate thee.

Exo,ix,a,

16 Thou ſhalt conſume al the nations whiche the Lorde thy God ſhal deliuer thee: thyne eye ſhal haue no pitie vpon them, nor ſhalt thou ſuffer their goddes, for that ſhalbe thy decay.

17 If thou ſay in thyne hart, Theſe nations are moe then I, howe can I caſt them out?

Deut,20.a
Ioſue.8,a.

18 * Thou ſhalt not feare them: but remember, what the Lord thy God dyd vnto Pharao, and vnto al Egypt.

19 The great temptations, whiche thyne eyes ſawe, and the ſignes and wonders, and the myghty hande, and ſtretched out arme, whereby the Lorde thy God brought thee out: euen ſo ſhal the Lorde thy God doo vnto al nations of whom thou art afrayde.

D

Exo,23,d.
Ioſue,24.c

20 * Moreouer, the Lorde thy God wyl ſend (d) hornettes among them, vntyl they that are leaſt, and hide them ſelues from thee, be deſtroyed.

(d) There is not ſo ſmal a creature, whiche I wyl not arme to fight on thy ſide agaynſt them.

21 Thou ſhalt not feare them: for the Lorde thy God is among you, a myghty God, and a terrible.

Fxo,23,d,

22 For the Lorde thy God wyl put out theſe nations before thee by a litle and a litle: * thou mayeſt not conſume them at once, leſt the (e) beaſtes of the feelde increaſe vpon thee.

(e) So that it is your commoditie, that God accompliſheth not his promiſſe ſo ſoone as ye would wiſhe.

23 But the Lorde thy God ſhal geue them ouer before thee, and ſhal deſtroy them with a mighty deſtruction, vntyl he haue brought them to nought.

Ioſue.x,

24 * And he ſhal deliuer theyr kinges into thyne hande, and thou ſhalt deſtroy theyr name from vnder heauen: There ſhal no man be able to ſtande before thee, vntyl thou haue deſtroyed them.

Ioſue.7.a.
2,Mac,12.f

25 The grauen images of theyr goddes ſhalt thou burne with fyre: and * couet not the gold and ſiluer that is on them, nor take it vnto thee, leſt thou be (f) ſnared therein: for it is an abomination before the Lorde thy God.

(f) And be intiſed to idolatrie,

26 Bryng not therefore abomination into thyne houſe, leſt thou be a curſed thyng, as it is: but vtterly defie it, and abhorre it: for it is a curſed thing.

The.viij.Chapter.

2 God humbleth the Iſraelites, to trye, what they haue in theyr hart. 5 God chaſtiſeth them as his chyldren. 14 The hart ought not to be proude for Gods benefites. 19 The forgeatfulneſſe of Gods benefites causeth deſtruction.

A 1 AL the cõmaundementes, whiche I commaunde thee this day, ſhal ye keepe for (a) to doo them, that ye may liue, and multiplie, and goe in, and poſſeſſe the land, whiche the Lord ſware vnto your fathers.

(a) Shewing that it is not yenough to heare the worde, except we expreſſe it by example of lyfe.

2 And thou ſhalt remember al the way whiche the Lorde thy God lead thee theſe fourtie yeeres in the wyldernesſe, for to humble thee, and to (b) proue thee, and to knowe, what was in thyne hart, whether thou wouldeſt keepe his commaundementes, or no.

(b) whiche is declared in affliction, eyther by patience, or by grudgyng agaynſt Gods viſitation.

Exo,16,d.

3 * He humbled thee, and ſuffered thee to hunger, and fedde thee with Manna, whiche neyther thou, nor thy fathers knewe of, to make thee knowe, that a * man dooth not lyue by bread only: but by euery [worde] that proceedeth out of the mouth of the Lorde, dooth a man lyue.

5 This alſo ſhalt thou conſyder in thyne hart: that as a man chaſtiſeth his ſonne, euen ſo the Lorde thy God chaſteneth thee.

6 Therefore ſhalt thou keepe the commaundementes of the Lorde thy God, that thou walke in his wayes, and feare hym.

B 7 For the Lorde thy God bryngeth thee into a good lande, a lande, in the whiche are riuers of water, and fountaynes, and deepes that ſpring out of valleys, and hylles:

8 A land, wherein is wheate and barlie, vineyardes, figtrees, and pomegranates: a lande, wherein is oyle oliue, and honie:

9 A land, wherein thou ſhalt eate bread without ſcarceneſſe: neither ſhalt thou lacke any thing: a lande, the (d) ſtones whereof are iron, and and out of the hilles wherof thou ſhalt digge braſſe.

(d) whiche hath mines of metal.

10 When thou haſt eaten (e) therefore ⁊ filled thee ſelfe, thou ſhalt bleſſe the Lord thy God for the good land whiche he hath geuen thee.

11 Beware that thou forget not the Lord thy God, that thou wouldeſt not keepe his commaundementes, his lawes, and his ordinances, whiche I commaunde thee this day:

12 * Yea, and when thou haſt eaten and filled thee ſelfe, and haſt buylt goodly houſes, and dwelt therein:

13 And when thy beaſtes and thy ſheepe are waxen many, and thy ſiluer and golde is multiplied, and al that thou haſt is increaſed:

14 Then beware leſt thyne (f) hart ryſe, and thou forgeat the Lorde thy GOD, whiche brought thee out of the lande of Egypt, and from the houſe of bondage:

15 And whiche was thy guyde in the great and terrible wyldernesſe [wherein were] firy ſerpentes, and ſcorpions, and drouth without any water: But he brought out water for thee, euen out of the rocke of flint.

17 Leſt thou ſhouldeſt ſay in thyne hart, * My power, (g) and the myght of myne owne hande hath prepared me this abundance:

18 But remember the Lorde thy God: for it is he, whiche geueth thee power to geat (h) ſubſtance, for to make good the promiſſe, whiche he ſware vnto thy fathers, as appeareth this day.

19 And yf thou forgeat the Lord thy GOD, and walke after ſtraunge* goddes, and ſerue them, and woorſhip them: I teſtifie (i) vnto you this day, that ye ſhal ſurely periſhe.

20 As the nations, whiche the Lord deſtroyed before your face, euen ſo ye ſhal periſhe, becauſe ye woulde not be obedient vnto the voyce of the Lorde your God.

The ix. Chapter.

4 God dooth them good, not for theyr owne ryghteouſneſſe, but for his owne ſake.
7 Moſes putteth them in remembrance of their ſinnes. 17 The two tables are broken. 26 Moſes prayeth for the people.

A 1 Heare O Iſrael, thou paſſeſt ouer Iordane (a) this day, to goe in and poſſeſſe nations greater ⁊ myghtier then thee ſelfe, cities great and walled vp to heauen:

2 A people great and talle, euen the chyldren of the Anakims, whiche thou knoweſt of, and of whom thou haſt heard ſay, Who wil ſtande before the chyldren of Anac?

3 Vnderſtand therfore this day, that the Lord thy God is euen he, whiche goeth ouer before thee, as a conſuming (b) fyre, he ſhal deſtroy them, and he ſhal bryng them downe before thy face: So thou ſhalt caſte them out, and bryng them to nought quickly, as the Lorde hath ſayde vnto thee.

4 (c) Speake not thou in thyne hart, after that the Lorde thy God hath caſt them out before thee, ſayeing, For my ryghteouſneſſe the Lorde hath brought me in, to poſſeſſe this lande: but for the wickedneſſe of theſe nations the Lorde hath caſt them out before thee.

5 It is not for thy righteouſneſſe ſake, or for thy ryght hart, that thou goeſt to poſſeſſe theyr lande: * But for the wickedneſſe of theſe nations, the Lorde thy GOD dooth caſt them out before thee, euen to perfourme yͤ woorde, whiche the Lorde thy God ſware vnto thy fathers, Abraham, Iſahac, and Iacob.

10 And the Lorde deliuered me two tables of ſtone, written with the (f) finger of God, and in them were conteyned al the woordes, whiche the Lord ſayd vnto you in the mou̅t out of the middes of fyre, in the day, when ye came togeather.

C 13 Furthermore, the Lorde ſpake vnto me, ſayeing, I haue ſeene this people, and behold, it is a ſtifnecked people.

(h) Meaning, that godly mens prayers doo ſtay gods vengeance.

14 (h) Let me alone, that I may deſtroy them, and put out the name of them from vnder heauen: and I wyl make of thee a mighty nation, and greater then they be.

15 And I turned me, and came downe from the hyl, euen from the hyl that burnt with fyre, & the two tables of the couenant were in my handes.

21 And I tooke your ſinne, the calfe whiche ye had made, & burnt hym with fyre, & ſtamped him, and grounde hym very ſmal, euen to duſt: and I threwe the duſt thereof into the brooke, that deſcended out of the (l) mount.

The.xj.Chapter.

1 An exhortation to loue God, and to keepe his lawes. 10 The prayſes of Chanaan.
18 To haue in minde continually the woorde of God. 19 To teache it vnto the chyldren. 26 Bleſſing and curſyng.

A

1 THerfore thou ſhalt (a) loue the Lorde thy God, and keepe his obſeruances, his ordinances, his lawes, & his commaundements alway.

(a) Loue is the firſt point of the true keping of the lawe.

2 Knowe you this day, (for I ſpeake not to your chyldren whiche haue neither knowen, nor ſeene) the chaſtiſement of the Lorde your God, his greatneſſe, his myghty hande, and his ſtretched out arme,

3 His miracles, and his actes, whiche he dyd in the middes of Egypt, euen vnto Pharao the kyng of Egypt, and vnto al his lande:

Exod.14.f.

4 And what he dyd vnto the hoſt of Egypt, vnto theyr horſes and charettes:* howe he brought the water of the redde ſea vpon them, as they purſued you behynd: and how the Lord hath brought them to nought vnto this day:

(b) As who ſhoulde ſay, ye whiche haue ſeene with your eyes the thinges that god hath donne.

5 And (b) what he dyd vnto you in the wyldernеſſe, vntyl ye came vnto this place.

Nu.xvi.c.

6 And what he dyd vnto *Dathan and Abiram the ſonnes of Eliab, the ſonne of Ruben: howe the earth opened her mouth, and ſwalowed them, with theyr houſholdes and theyr tentes, and al their ſubſtance, that was in theyr poſſeſſion, in the middes of Iſrael.

B

7 Doubtleſſe, your eyes haue ſeene al the great actes of the Lorde, whiche he wrought.

8 Therefore ſhal ye keepe al the commaundementes, whiche I commaunde thee this day, that ye may (c) be ſtrong, and goe in, and poſſeſſe the lande, whyther ye goe to poſſeſſe it:

(c) As wel in ſhewyng you fauour, as in executyng his iuſt iudgemẽt agaynſt you for your ſinnes.

9 And that ye may prolong your dayes in the lande whiche the Lorde ſware vnto your fathers, to geue vnto them, and to their ſeede, a lande that floweth with milke and honie.

Deu.8.d.

10 *For the lande whyther thou goeſt to poſſeſſe it, is not as the lande of Egypt, that ye came out of, where thou ſowedſt thy ſeede, and (d) wateredſt it with thy feete, as a gardine of herbes.

(d) God promiſeth rewarde to them that keepe his lawe, not that they deſerue any, but to encourage them.

11 But the lande whyther ye goe ouer to poſſeſſe it, is a lande that hath hylles and valleyes, and drynketh water of the rayne of heauen.

12 This lande dooth the Lorde thy God care for, and the eyes of the Lorde thy God are alwayes vpon it, from the beginnyng of the yeere,(e) vnto the ende of the yeere.

(e) As by making gutters and pipes to conueigh water out of Nilus: for they were woont to haue no raine in Egypt.

13 If you ſhal hearken therefore vnto my commaundementes, whiche I commaund you this day, that ye loue the Lord your god, and ſerue hym with al your hart, and with al your ſoule:

C

14 I alſo wyl geue rayne vnto your land in due ſeaſon, the (f) fyrſt rayne and the later, that thou mayeſt geather in thy corne, thy wine, and thyne oyle.

(f) In the ſeede tyme.

15 And I wyl ſende graſſe in thy feeldes for thy cattel, that thou mayſt eate, & fil thy ſelfe.

16 But beware, that your (g) hart deceiue you not, and ye turne aſyde, and ſerue ſtraunge goddes, and woorſhip them:

(g) By fallyng to blynde deuotion, proceedyng of your owne inuentions.

17 Leſt then the Lorde beyng wroth agaynſt you, * ſhutte vp the heauen, that there be no raine, and that your land yeelde not her fruit, and leſt ye periſhe quickly from of the good lande, whiche the Lorde geueth you.

Deu.28.c.

and.28.a.
Amos.4.b

18 Therefore ſhal ye put vp theſe my woordes in * your hart, and in your ſoule, & bynde them for a ſigne vpon your hande, that they may be as a frontlet betweene your eyes.

Deu.vi.b.
Pro.iii.a.

19 And ye ſhal * teache them your chyldren, that they may talke of them, when thou ſitteſt in thyne houſe, and when thou walkeſt by the way, when thou lyeſt downe, and when thou ryſeſt vp.

Deut.vi.b
Pro.iii.a.

D

20 Yea, and thou ſhalt write them vpon the doore poſtes of thyne houſe, and vpon thy gates:

21 That your dayes may be multiplied, and the dayes of your chyldren, in the lande whiche the Lorde ſware vnto your fathers to geue them, as long as the dayes of heauen laſt vpon the earth.

22 For yf ye keepe al theſe commaundements, whiche I commaunde you, ſo that ye doo them: namely, that ye loue the Lorde your God, and walke in al his wayes, and cleaue vnto hym:

23 Then wyl the Lorde caſt out al theſe nations before you, and ye ſhalbe the heyres of great nations, and of them that are myghtier then your ſelues.

24 Al (h) the places whereon the ſoles of your feete ſhal treade, ſhalbe yours: euen from the wyldernеſſe, and from Libanon, and from the riuer Euphrates, euen vnto the vttermoſt ſea ſhal (i) your coaſt be.

Iosue.i.a.

(h) This was fulfilled in Dauid and Salomons raigne.

25 There ſhal no man be able to ſtand before you: for the Lorde your God ſhal caſt the feare & dreade of you vpon al the lande, that ye ſhal treade vpon, as he hath ſayde vnto you.

(i) He deſcribeth the largeneſſe of theyr kingdome, when it floriſhed moſt.

26 * Beholde, I ſet before you this day, a bleſſing and a curſe:

Deut.30.c

27 * A bleſſyng, yf ye obey the commaundementes of the Lorde your God, whiche I commaunde you this day:

Deut.28.a

28 And a curſe, yf ye wyl not obey the commaundementes of the Lorde your God, but turne out of the way, whiche I commaunde you this day, to goe after ſtraunge goddes, whiche ye haue (k) not knowen.

(k) The very certaintie of dooing wel, is to folowe the woord of god, and not the inuention of man.

29 When the Lorde thy God therefore hath brought thee into the lande, whyther thou goeſt to poſſeſſe it, thou ſhalt put the bleſſing vpon mount Garizim, and the curſe vpon mount Ebal.

30 Are not theſe mountaynes on the other ſide Iordane, on that part of the way, where the ſunne goeth downe, in the lande of the Chanaanites, whiche dwelle in the playne ouer agaynſt Gilgal beſide the groue of Moreh?

31 For ye ſhal paſſe ouer Iordayne, to goe in and poſſeſſe the lande, whiche the Lord your God geueth you, and ye ſhal poſſeſſe it, and dwel therein.

32 Take heede therefore, that ye doo al the commaundementes and lawes, whiche I ſet before you this day.

The.xij.Chapter.

1 To deſtroy the idolatrous places. 5. 8. To ſerue God where he commaundeth, and as he commaundeth, and not as men fantaſie. 19 The Leuites muſt be nouriſhed. 31 Idolaters burnt their chyldren to their goddes. 32 To adde nothyng to Gods woorde.

A 1 Theſe are the ordinances and lawes, which ye ſhal obſerue and doo in the land, whiche (a) the Lord God of thy fathers geueth thee to poſſeſſe it, as long as ye liue vpon the earth.

(a) we are warned hereby, to ſeeke the true god only, and none other.

2 * Ye ſhal deſtroy al places, wherein the nations, whiche ye ſhal poſſeſſe, ſerued their goddes, vpon hygh mountaynes, on hylles, and vnder euery greene tree.

Deu.vii.a

3 You ſhal ouerthrowe theyr aulters, and breake theyr pillers, and burne their (b) groues with fyre, and you ſhal hewe downe the grauen images of the gods, that they haue,

(b) when they made ſacrifice to theyr falſe goddes.

and bryng the names of them to nought out of that place.

4 Ye ſhal (c) not doo ſo vnto the Lorde your God:

(c) God is to be ſerued in trueth, and not in ſuperſtition.

5 But ye ſhal ſeeke the place, which the Lord your God ſhal chooſe out of al your tribes, to put his name there, and there to dwelle, and *thyther thou ſhalt comme:

Exo.14.b. and,xvi.b.

6 And thyther ye ſhal bryng your burnt ſacrifices, your offerynges, your tithes, and heaue offerynges of your hande, your vowes, your freewel offerynges, & the fyrſt borne of your kyne, and of your ſheepe.

7 And there ye ſhal eate (d) before the Lorde your GOD, and ye ſhal reioyce in al that ye put your hande vnto, both ye & your houſeholdes, wherein the Lorde thy GOD hath bleſſed thee.

(d) In the place where the arke is.

B 8 Ye ſhal not doo after al (e) the thynges that we doo here this day, euery man what ſeemeth hym good in his owne eyes.

(e) He meaneth not, that they now ſerued god after their owne inuentions, but that neuertheleſſe they ſhoulde ſerue hym yet more purely in the lande of Chanaan.

9 For ye are not yet comme to reaſt, and to the inheritance, whiche the Lord your God geueth you.

10 But when ye goe ouer Jordane, and dwel in the lande, whiche the Lorde your God hath geuen you to inherite, and when he hath geuen you reaſt from al your enimies rounde about, and ſhal dwelle in ſafetie:

11 Then vnto the place, whiche the Lorde your god hath choſen, to put his name there, ye ſhal bryng al that I commaunde you: namely, your burnt ſacrifices, your offerynges, your tithes, the heaue offeryng of your hande, and al your ſpecial vowes, whiche ye vowe vnto the Lorde.

12 And ye ſhal reioyce before the Lorde your God, you and your ſonnes, and your daughters, your ſeruauntes, and your maydens, and the Leuite, that is within your gates, *foraſmuche as he hath no part nor inheritance with you.

Deut.x.b. and.xviii a

C 13 Take heede, that thou offer not thy burnt offerynges in euery place, that thou ſeeſt:

14 But in the place, whiche the Lorde ſhal (f) chooſe in one of thy tribes, there thou ſhalt offer thy burnt offerynges, and there thou ſhalt doo al that I commaunde thee.

(f) This was not accompliſhed, tyl the temple was buylt in mount Sion.

15 Notwithſtandyng, thou mayeſt kille and eate fleaſhe in al thy cities, whatſoeuer thy ſoule luſteth after, (g) accordyng to the bleſſyng of the Lorde thy God, whiche he hath geuen thee: both the vncleane & the cleane may eate thereof, euen of the Roe bucke, and of the Hart.

(g) Accordyng to the habilitie that he hath geuen thee.

16 Only ye ſhal not (h) eate the blood, but powre it vpon the earth, as water.

(h) This prohibition was made, that menne might learne to abhorre crueltie.

17 Thou mayeſt not eate within thy gates the tithe of thy corne, of thy wine, and of thy oyle, and the firſt borne of thy kine, and of thy ſheepe: neyther any of thy vowes, whiche thou voweſt, nor thy freewyl offerynges, or heaue offeryng of thyne hande:

18 But thou muſt eate them before the Lord thy God, in the place, whiche the Lorde thy God hath choſen, thou and thy ſonne, and thy daughter, thy ſeruaunt, and thy mayde, and the Leuite that is within thy gates: and thou ſhalt reioyce before the Lorde thy God, in al that thou putteſt thy hande vnto.

19 *Beware that thou forſake not the Leuite, as long as thou liueſt vpon the earth.

Eccle.7.a.

D

20 If when the Lorde thy God ſhal enlarge thy border as he hath promiſed thee, thou ſay, I wyl eate fleaſhe (becauſe thy ſoule longeth to eate fleaſhe) thou mayeſt eate fleaſhe, whatſoeuer thy ſoule luſteth.

21 If the place, whiche the Lorde thy God hath choſen to put his name there, be to farre from thee, then thou ſhalt kille of thy oxen, and of thy ſheepe, whiche the Lorde hath geuen thee, as I haue commaunded thee, and thou ſhalt eate in thyne owne citie, whatſoeuer thy ſoule luſteth.

22 *And as the Rowe bucke, and the Hart is eaten, euen ſo thou ſhalt eate them: both the cleane, and the vncleane ſhal eate of them.

Deu.xv.d

23 But be ſtrong, that thou eate not the (i) blood: for the blood is the life, and thou mayeſt not eate the lyfe with the fleaſhe.

(i) Thus he ſayeth, for that their lyfe conſiſteth in their blood.

24 Thou ſhalt not eate it, but powre it vpon the earth, as water.

25 Thou ſhalt not eate it, that it may goe wel with thee, and with thy chyldren after thee: but thou ſhalt doo that, which is right in the ſyght of the Lorde.

26 But thy holy (k) thinges which thou haſt, and thy vowes, thou ſhalt take, and comme vnto the place which the Lord hath choſen.

(k) Thinges conſecrated to God, or that are appoynted for ſacrifice.

27 And thou ſhalt offer thy burnt offeringes, both fleaſhe and blood vpon the aulter of the Lorde thy God: and the blood of thyne offerynges ſhalbe powred out vpon the aulter of the Lorde thy God, and thou ſhalt eate the fleaſhe.

E

28 Take heede, and heare al theſe wordes, whiche I commaunde thee, that it may goe wel with thee, and with thy chyldren after thee for euer, yf thou doo that, which is good and ryght in the ſight of the Lorde thy God.

29 When the Lorde thy God ſhal deſtroy the nations before thee, whyther thou goeſt to poſſeſſe them, and thou ſucceedeſt in theyr inheritance, aud dwelleſt in theyr lande:

(l) By falling into their idolatrie and ſuperſtition.

30 Beware that thou be not taken in (l) a ſnare, after them, after that they be deſtroyed before thee, & that thou aſke not after their goddes, ſayeing, Howe doo theſe nations ſerue theyr goddes? I wyl doo ſo lykewyſe.

Deut.18.e

31 * Nay, thou ſhalt not doo ſo vnto the Lord thy God: for al abominations, and that, whiche the Lorde hateth, the ſame haue they donne vnto theyr goddes.

32 For they haue (m) burned both their ſonnes and theyr daughters with fyre before theyr goddes. Therfore whatſoeuer I commaund you, take heede ye doo it: & * put thou nought thereto, nor take ought therefrom.

(m) This declareth the extreme horrour of idolatrie, by whiche the paynims committed moſt vnnatural villanie.

Ioſue.i.d, Deut.4.a, Ioſue.23.b Pro.30.a.

The.xiij.Chapter.

5 The inticers to idolatrie muſt be ſlayne, ſeeme they neuer ſo holy, 6 ſo neare of kinred or frendſhip, 12 or great in multitude or power.

A

(a) That is, yf there be founde one amongſt you that pretendeth to be one of the number of the faithful.

1 If there ariſe among (a) you a prophete, or a dreamer of dreames, and geue thee a ſigne, or a woonder,

2 And that ſigne or woonder, whiche he hath ſayde, comme to paſſe, & then ſay, Let vs (b) goe after ſtraunge goddes (whiche thou haſt not knowen) and let vs ſerue them:

(b) He declareth who be the falſe prophetes: euen thoſe that woulde turne vs from God.

Deu.viii.a

3 Hearken not thou vnto the wordes of that prophete or dreamer of dreames: for the Lord thy God proueth you, to knowe, whether (c) ye loue the Lorde your God with al your hart, and with al your ſoule.

(c) The cauſe why men are ſo eaſily deceiued, is, that they haue not the lawe of God in them.

4 Ye ſhal walke after the Lorde your God, & feare hym, keepe his commaundementes, and hearken vnto his voyce: you ſhal ſerue hym, and cleaue vnto hym.

5 And that prophete, or dreamer of dreames ſhal dye ((d) becauſe he hath ſpoken to turne you away from the Lord your God, whiche brought you out of the lande of Egypt, and deliuered you out of the houſe of bondage, to thruſt thee out of the way, whiche the Lord thy god commaunded thee to walke in) and therefore thou ſhalt put the euil away from thee.

(d) After that he hath benne conuicted by witneſſe, and hath had ſentence of death pronounced on hym by the Iudge.

6 If (e) thy brother, the ſonne of thy mother, or thyne owne ſonne, or thy daughter, or the wyfe that lyeth in thy boſome, or thy freende, whiche is as thyne owne ſoule vnto thee, entice thee ſecretly, ſayeing, Let vs goe and ſerue ſtraunge goddes (whiche thou haſt not knowen, nor yet thy fathers:)

(e) Gods glorie muſt be preferred before natural affection.

B

7 And they be any of the goddes of the people, whiche are rounde about you: whether they be nygh vnto thee, or farre of from thee, from the one end of the earth vnto the other:

8 Thou ſhalt not conſent vnto him, nor hearken vnto hym: thyne eye ſhal not pitie him, neyther ſhalt thou haue compaſſion on hym, nor keepe him ſecrete:

Deut.17.b

9 * But cauſe hym to be ſlayne: (f) Thyne hande ſhalbe firſt vpon hym to kylle hym, and then the handes of al the people.

(f) Thou ſhalt caſt the firſt ſtone at hym.

10 And thou ſhalt ſtone him with ſtones that he die: becauſe he hath gonne about to thruſt thee away from the Lorde thy God, whiche brought thee out of the lande of Egypt, and from the houſe of bondage.

11 And al Iſrael ſhal heare and feare, and ſhal doo no more any ſuch wickedneſſe, as this is among you.

12 If thou ſhalt heare ſay in one of thy cities, whiche the Lorde thy God hath geuen thee to dwelle in,

13 That certaine menne beyng the chyldren of Belial, are gonne out from among you, and haue moued the inhabiters of their citie, ſayeing, Let vs goe & ſerue ſtraunge goddes, whiche ye haue not knowen:

C

14 Then thou muſt ſeeke, and make ſearche, and enquire diligently: And beholde, yf it be true, and the thing of a ſuretie, that ſuche abomination is wrought among you:

15 Then thou ſhalt ſmite the dwellers of that citie with the edge of the ſworde, and deſtroy it vtterly, and al that is therein, and euen the very cattel therof, with the edge of the ſword:

16 And geather al the ſpoyle of it into the middes of the ſtreate thereof, and burne with fyre both the citie and al the ſpoyle therof euery whyt for (g) the Lorde thy God: and it ſhalbe an heape for euer, and ſhal not be built agayne.

(g) In the honour of god, ſhewyng, that god is honoured, in deſtroying them, that robbe hym of his honour.

17 And (h) there ſhal cleaue nought of the damned thyng in thyne hande, that the Lorde may turne from the fierceneſſe of his wrath, and ſhewe thee mercie, and haue compaſſion on thee, and multiplie thee, as he hath ſworne vnto thy fathers.

(h) Thou ſhalt ſaue no part of that ſpoyle.

Exo.19.a.

18 * Therefore ſhalt thou hearken vnto the voyce of the Lorde thy God, to keepe al his commaundementes, whiche I commaund thee this day, that thou doo that, whiche is ryght in the eyes of the Lorde thy God.

6 And al beaſtes that cleaue the hoofe, and cleaue the clift into two clawes, and chewe the cud, them ye ſhal eate.

B 7 Neuertheleſſe, theſe ye ſhal not eate: of them that chewe the cud, and of them that diuide and cleaue the hoofe only, the Camel, the Hare, and the Conie: for they chewe the cud, but diuide not the hoofe, therfore they are vncleane vnto you.

(a) This is ſpoken in fauour of thoſe detters that were poore, or not able to pay

3 Yet of a ſtraunger thou mayeſt cal it home agayne: *but he that is thy brother, hym ſhal thyne hande remit.

Eccle.4.a.

35 The Lord ſhal ſmite thee in the knees and legges with a miſcheuous botche that can not be healed, euen from the ſols of thy foote, vnto the top of thy head.

(h) Gods wrath hath benne ſo: as for example, Manaſſes, Joachim, and Zedechias.

64 And the Lorde ſhal ſcatter thee among al nations, from the one ende of the world vnto the other: and there thou ſhalt ſerue ſtraunge goddes, whiche neyther thou nor thy fathers haue knowen, euen wood and ſtone.

65 And among theſe nations thou ſhalt finde no eaſe, neyther ſhal the (q) ſole of thy foote haue reaſt: But the Lord ſhal geue thee there an vnquiet hart, and daſing eyes, and ſorowe of mynde.

(q) Thou ſhalt be a vagabonde

66 And thy life ſhal hang in doubt before thee, and thou ſhalt feare both day and nyght, and ſhalt haue no ne aſſurance of thee lyfe.

67 In the mornyng thou ſhalt ſay, Woulde God it were nyght: And at nyght thou ſhalt ſay, Woulde God it were mornyng, for feare of thyne hart, whiche thou ſhalt feare, and for the ſight of thyne eyes, whiche thou ſhalt ſee.

68 And the Lorde ſhal bring thee into Egypt agayne with (r) ſhippes by the way, whiche I ſayde to thee, thou ſhalt ſee it no more agayne: And there ye ſhalbe ſolde vnto your enimies for bondmen, and bondwomen, and no man ſhal by you.

(r) Becauſe they were vnthankeful to God for his miraculous deliuering of them by the partyng aſunder of the red ſea.

The. xxx. Chapter.

1 Mercie ſhewed when they repent. 6 The Lorde dooth circumciſe the hart. 11 Al excuſe of ignorance is taken away. 19 Lyfe and death is ſet before them. 20 The Lorde is theyr lyfe whiche obey hym.

A 1 When al theſe woordes are comme vpon thee, the bleſſyng and the curſe, whiche I haue ſet before thee, thou ſhalt (a) turne vnto thyne hart, among al the nations, whyther the Lorde thy God hath dryuen thee,

(a) By bringing to minde both his fauour and his diſpleaſure.

2 And comme agayne vnto the Lorde thy God, and hearken vnto his voyce in al theſe thynges that I commaunde thee this day, thou, and thy chyldren, with al thyne hart, and al thy ſoule:

3 And the Lorde thy God (b) wyl turne thy captiuitie, and haue compaſſion vpon thee, and wyl turne and fetche thee agayne from al the nations among whiche the Lord thy God had ſcattered thee.

(b) That is, wyl change his purpoſe, wyl reconcile hym ſelfe to thee.

4 Though thou were caſt vnto the extreme partes of heauen: euen from thence wyl the Lord thy God geather thee, and from thence wyl he fetche thee:

5 And the Lorde thy God wyl bryng thee into the lande, whiche thy fathers poſſeſſed, and thou ſhalt enioy it: And he wyl ſhewe thee kyndneſſe, and multiplie thee aboue thy fathers.

6 And the Lorde thy God wyl (c) circumciſe thyne hart, and the hart of thy ſeede, that thou mayeſt loue the Lorde thy God, with al thine hart, and al thy ſoule, that thou mayeſt lyue.

(c) Wyl cut away thy vngodly luſtes & affections.

B 7 And the Lorde thy God wyl put al theſe curſes vpon thine enimies, and on them that hate thee, and that perſecute thee.

8 But thou ſhalt turne, and hearken vnto the voyce of the Lorde, and doo al his commaundementes, whiche I commaund thee this day:

9 (And the Lorde thy God wyl make thee plenteous in al the woorkes of thyne hande, in the fruite of thy body, and in the fruite of thy cattel, and in the fruite of thy lande, for thy wealth: * For the Lord wil turne againe and (d) reioyce ouer thee to doo thee good, as he reioyced ouer thy fathers.

Iere. 32.f

(d) Not that god is ſubiect to affections: but hereby is ſet foorth his fauour toward repentant ſinners.

10 If thou hearken only vnto the voyce of the Lorde thy GOD, to keepe his commaundementes and his ordinances, whiche are written in the booke of this law, and if thou turne vnto the Lorde thy God with al thyne hart and al thy ſoule.)

11 * For the commaundement, whiche I commaunde thee this day, is (e) not hidden from thee, neyther farre of.

Rom 10.b

(e) Somme reade, not ſeparate from thee. He meaneth, that the lawe is ſo playne, that none can pleade ignorance.

12 It is not in heauen, that thou needeſt to ſay, Who ſhal goe vp for vs to heauen, and bryng it vnto vs, that we may heare it, and doo it?

13 Neyther is it beyonde (f) the ſea, that thou ſhouldeſt ſay, Who ſhal goe ouer the ſea for vs, and bryng it vnto vs, that we may heare it, and doo it?

(f) By heauen and ſea, he meaneth places very farre of.

C 14 But the woorde is very nygh vnto thee, euen in thy mouth, and in thyne hart, that thou doo it.

15 * Beholde I haue ſet before thee this day, (g) lyfe and good, death and euil:

Deut. 11.d.

(g) He ſheweth that obedience to gods woorde bryngeth lyfe, and diſobedience bryngeth death

16 For where as I commaunde thee this day, to loue the Lorde thy God, to walke in his wayes, and to keepe his commaundements, his ordinances, and his lawes, [if thou ſo doo] thou ſhalt lyue and multiplie, and the Lorde thy God ſhal bleſſe thee in the land, whither thou goeſt to poſſeſſe it.

17 But yf thyne hart turne away, ſo that thou wylt not heare, but ſhalt goe aſtray, & woorſhyp ſtraunge goddes, and ſerue them:

18 I pronounce vnto you alſo this day, that ye ſhal ſurely periſhe, and that ye ſhal not prolong your dayes vpon the lande, whither thou paſſeſt ouer Iordane, to goe and poſſeſſe it.

19 * I cal heauen and earth to recorde this day agaynſt you, that I haue ſet before you, lyfe and death, bleſſing and curſyng: Therefore (h) chooſe lyfe, that both thou and thy ſeede may lyue:

Deut. 4.d.

(h) That is to ſay, ſhewe thy loue and obedience to god: whiche is not perfourmed by our owne ſtrength, but by gods grace woorkyng in his elect.

20 That thou mayeſt loue the Lord thy God, and be obedient to his voice, and cleaue vnto hym: For he is thy lyfe, and the length of thy dayes, that thou mayeſt dwelle vpon the (i) earth, whiche the Lorde ſware vnto thy fathers, Abraham, Iſahac, and Iacob, to geue them.

(i) whereby is not only meant the land of Chanaan; but alſo the heauenly inheritance, whereof the other was a figure.

The.xxxi.Chapter.

2.7 Moſes preparyng hym ſelfe to dye, appoynteth Ioſuah to rule the people. 9 He geueth the lawe to the Leuites, that they ſhoulde reade it to the people. 19 God geueth them a ſong as a witneſſe betweene hym and them. 23 God confirmeth Ioſuah. 29 Moſes ſheweth them, that they wyl rebelle after his death.

A 1 AND Moſes went and ſpake theſe woordes vnto al Iſrael,

2 And ſayde vnto them, I am an hundred and twentie yeeres olde this day, and can no more (a) goe out and in: Alſo the Lorde hath ſayde vnto me, Thou (b) ſhalt not goe ouer this Iordane.

(a) Can no lenger perfourme the charge committed vnto me.

(b) That is, into the lande of Chanaan: for Iordane in the coaſt of Moab, is the bounde of the lande of Chanaan.

3 The Lorde thy GOD wyl goe ouer before thee, and he wyl deſtroy theſe nations before thee, and thou ſhalt poſſeſſe them: And Ioſuah ſhal goe before thee, as the Lorde hath ſayde.

4 And the Lorde ſhal doo vnto them, as he dyd to * Sehon and Og kynges of the Amorites, and vnto the lande of them, whom he deſtroyed.

Nu. 20.c.

5 And the Lorde ſhal geue them ouer (c) before your face, that ye may doo vnto them accordyng vnto al the commaundementes, whiche I haue commaunded you.

(c) Into your power.

6 Plucke vp your heartes therefore, and be ſtrong, dreade not, nor be afrayde of them: for the Lorde thy God hym ſelfe dooth goe with thee: he ſhal not fayle thee, nor forſake thee.

B 7 And Moſes called vnto Ioſuah, and ſayd vnto him in the ſight of al Iſrael, * Be ſtrong and of good courage, for thou muſt goe with this people vnto the lande whiche the Lorde hath ſworne vnto their fathers to geue them: and thou ſhalt geue it them to inherite.

Ioſu. 1.b. 3. Reg. 2.a.

8 And the Lorde dooth goe before thee: he ſhalbe with thee, he ſhal not fayle thee, neyther forſake thee: feare not therefore, nor be diſcomfited.

9 And (d) Moſes wrote this lawe, and deliuered it vnto the prieſtes the ſonnes of Leui,

Whiche

(d) Before Moſes tyme the doctrine whiche conteined ÿ manner of ſeruyng god, was not put in wrytyng, but only delyuered by woorde of mouth, by the fathers to the chyldren, from one generation to another.

whiche bare the arke of the teſtament of the Lorde, and vnto al the elders of Iſrael.

10 And Moſes commaunded them, ſayeing, Euery (e) ſeuenth yeere, in the ſolemnitie of the free yeere, euen in the feaſt of tabernacles,

11 When al Iſrael is comme to appeare before the Lorde thy God in the place whiche he hath choſen: thou ſhalt reade this lawe before al Iſrael, that they may heare it.

(e) Notwithſtandyng this ſolemne lecture of the lawe at the ende of euery ſeuen yeeres, they had in ye meane tyme ordinarie exerciſes in the ſame.

12 Geather the people togeather, menne, women, and chyldren, and the ſtraunger that is within thy gates, that they may heare, and learne, and feare the Lorde your GOD, and keepe and obſerue al the woordes of this lawe,

13 And that theyr chyldren, whiche knowe (f) nothyng, may heare, and learne to feare the Lorde your God, as long as ye lyue in the lande, whyther ye goe ouer Iordane to poſſeſſe it.

(f) whiche were vnborne at the geuyng of the lawe.

C 14 And the Lorde ſayde vnto Moſes, Beholde, thy dayes are comme that thou muſt dye: Calle Ioſuah therefore, and ſtande ye in the tabernacle of the congregation, that I may geue hym a charge: And Moſes and Ioſuah went and ſtoode in the tabernacle of the congregation.

15 And the Lorde appeared in the tabernacle, euen in the piller of the cloude: and the * piller of the cloude ſtoode ouer the doore of the tabernacle.

Exo.33.d.

16 And the Lorde ſayde vnto Moſes, Beholde, thou ſhalt ſleepe with thy fathers: and this people wyl ryſe vp, & goe (g) a whooring after ſtraunge goddes of the lande, whyther they goe, and wyl forſake me, and breake the appointment, whiche I haue made with them.

(g) Forſaking god, to whom they had plight theyr trouth, as to theyr ſpouſe.

17 And then my wrath wil ware hote againſt them in that day, and I wyl forſake them, and wyl (h) hyde my face from them, and they ſhalbe conſumed, and muche aduerſitie and tribulation ſhal comme vpon them: ſo that then they wyl ſay, Are not theſe troubles comme vpon me, becauſe GOD is not with me?

(h) I wyl turne my face from them: as it is ſayd, that god ſheweth vs his countenance, when he dooth fauour vs.

18 And I alſo wyl ſurely hyde away my face in that day, for al the euils ſake whiche they ſhal haue wrought, in that they are turned vnto ſtraunge goddes.

19 Nowe therefore, wryte ye this ſong for you, and teache it the chyldren of Iſrael, and put it in theyr mouthes, that this ſong may be my witneſſe agaynſt the chyldren of Iſrael.

20 For I wyl bryng them into the land, whiche I ſware vnto theyr fathers, that floweth with mylke and hony: and they ſhal eate, and fyl them ſelues, and ware fat, and turne vnto ſtraunge goddes, and ſerue them, and blaſpheme me, and breake my couenaunt.

21 And when muche miſcheefe and tribulation is comme vpon them, this ſong ſhal (i) anſweare them as a witneſſe: For it ſhal not be forgotten out of the mouthes of theyr ſeede: for I knowe theyr imagination, whiche they goe about euen nowe, before I haue brought them into the lande whiche I ſware.

D

(i) Shal teſtifie to the, that are thus plagued for departyng from me.

22 Moſes therefore wrote this ſong the ſame day, and taught it the chyldren of Iſrael.

23 And he gaue Ioſuah the ſonne of Nun a charge, and ſayde, * Be bolde and ſtrong, for thou ſhalt bryng the chyldren of Iſrael into the lande, whiche I ſware vnto them: and I wyl be with thee.

Ioſu.1.a.
3.Reg.2.b

24 And when Moſes had made an ende of writing the woordes of this law in a booke, vntyl he had finiſhed them,

25 Moſes commaunded the Leuites, whiche bare the arke of the couenant of the lord, ſayeing, 26 Take ye the booke of this lawe, * and put it in the (k) ſyde of the arke of the couenaunt of the Lorde your God, that it may be there for a (l) witneſſe agaynſt thee.

Deut.x.a.

(k) To declare the maieſtie of the doctrine conteyned therin, as proceeding from God.

(l) Of thy lacke of fayth, when thou ſhalt fal to idolatrie.

27 For I knowe thy rebellion * and thy ſtiffe necke: whyle I am yet alyue with you this day, ye haue benne diſobedient vnto the lord: and howe muche more after my death?

4.Re.17.e

28 Geather vnto me al the elders of your tribes, and your officers, that I may ſpeake theſe woordes in theyr eares, and cal heauen and earth to recorde agaynſt them.

29 For I am ſure, that after my death, ye wyl vtterly be corrupt, and turne from the way, whiche I haue commaunded you: and tribulation wil comme vpon you in the latter dayes, becauſe ye ſhal haue wrought wyckedneſſe in the ſyght of the Lord, to prouoke hym through (m) the woorkes of your handes.

(m) By worſhipping images, whiche your handes haue made.

30 And Moſes ſpake in the eares of al the congregation of Iſrael the woordes of this ſong, vntyl he had ended them.

The.xxxii.Chapter.

7 The ſong of Moſes concernyng Gods benefites towarde the people. 15 And theyr ingratitude towarde hym. 20 God menaceth them, 21 And ſpeaketh of the vocation of the Gentiles. 46 Moſes commaundeth to teache the lawe to the chyldren. 48 God forewarneth Moſes of his death.

1 Heare ye, O ye [a] heauens, and I ſhal ſpeake: and let the earth heare the words of my mouth.

(a) As witneſſes of the vnthankfulneſſe of this moſt incenſible people.

2 My doctrine ſhal drop as dooth the rayne: and my ſpeache ſhal flowe as dooth the dewe, as the ſhowre vpon the herbes, & as the droppes vpon the [b] graſſe.

(b) Not vpon the ſtones, but vpon ẏ graſſe, that is, tractable and obedient people.

3 For I wil publiſhe the name of the Lorde: Aſcribe ye honour vnto our God.

4 Perfite is the worke of the moſt myghty “ God: for al his wayes are iudgement: He is a GOD of trueth, without wickedneſſe, ryghteous, and iuſt is he.

“ Hebrewe. rocke. This declareth Gods ſtrength and ſtedfaſtneſſe in his promiſſes.

Iob.8.b.

8 When the hygheſt diuided to the nations theyr inheritance, and when he ſeparated the ſonnes of Adam, he put the borders of the nations accordyng to the number of the children of Iſrael:

9 For the Lords part is his people, and Iacob is the portion of his inheritance.

10 He founde hym in a deſart lande, in a voide grounde, and in a roaryng wylderneſſe: He lead hym about, he gaue hym vnderſtandyng, and kept hym as the apple of his eye.

11 As an Egle, that ſtirreth vp her neſt, and flittereth ouer her young, and ſpreadeth her wynges, taketh them, and beareth them on her wynges:

12 The Lorde alone was his guide, and there was no ſtraunge god with hym.

13 He caryed hym vp to the hygh places of the earth, that he myght eate the encreaſe of the feeldes: * And he fedde hym with honie out of the rocke, and with oyle out of the moſte harde ſtone:

15 But he that ſhoulde haue benne vpryght, when he waxed fat, ſpurned with his heele: Thou art wel fed, thou art growen thicke, thou art euen laden with fatneſſe: And he forſooke God his maker, and regarded not the God of his ſaluation.

16 They prouoked him to anger with ſtraunge goddes, euen with abominations prouoked they hym.

20 And he ſayde, I wyl hyde my face from them, and wyl ſee, what theyr ende ſhalbe: For they are a very frowarde generation, chyldren in whom is no fayth.

D

21 They haue angred me with that, whiche is no god, and prouoked me with their vanities: * And I alſo wil prouoke them with thoſe, whiche are no people, I wyl anger them with a fooliſhe nation.

48 And the Lord ſpake vnto Moſes the ſame day, ſayeing,

8 And vnto Leui he ſayde, (f) Thummim & Urim ſhalbe with thee, and with euery one that is godly in thee: Thou dyddeſt proue hym alſo in the temptation, & ſtriuedſt with hym at the waters of ſtrife.

9 He that hath ſayd (g) vnto his father and to his mother (I haue not ſeene hym) and he that knewe not his brethren, nor knewe his owne chyldren, thoſe are they that haue obſerued thy worde, and ſhal keepe thy couenaunt.

° Or, ſweeteneſſe of heauen: meaning the ſweete dewes and rayne, that comme from heauen. Looke Geneſis. 49.

(h) God that appeared to Moſes in a buſhe.

17 His firſt borne ore hath beautie, and his hornes are as the hornes of an Unicorne, and with them he ſhal trouble the nations togeather, euen vnto the endes of the worlde: Theſe are alſo ten thouſandes of Ephraim, and the thouſandes of Manaſſes.

18 And vnto Zabulon he ſayd, Reioyce Zabulon in thy goeyng out, and thou Iſachar in thy tentes.

19 They ſhal calle the people vnto the hyl, and there they ſhal offer offerynges of ryghteouſneſſe: For they ſhal ſucke of the abundance of the ſea, and of treaſure hyd in the ſande.

20 And vnto Gad he ſayde, Bleſſed be he that inlarged Gad: he dwelleth as (i) a Lion, that catcheth for a pray the arme with the head.

(i) Meaning that this tribe ſhoulde be victorious.

D 21 He looked to hym ſelfe at the beginnyng, becauſe there was a portion of the (k) lawegeuer hid, and he came with the heades of the people, and executed the ryghteouſneſſe of the Lorde, and his iudgementes with Iſrael.

23 And vnto Nephthali he ſayde, O Nephthali, ſatiſfied with Gods fauour, and fulle with the bleſſing of the Lorde, poſſeſſe thou the weaſt and the ſouth.

24 And to Aſer he ſayde, Aſer ſhalbe bleſſed with chyldren, he ſhalbe acceptable vnto his brethren, and ſhal dippe his foote in oyle.

25 Thy ſhoes ſhalbe iron and braſſe, and thy ſtrength ſhal continue as long as thou liueſt.

26 There is none lyke vnto the God of Iſrael, whiche though he ſyt vpon the heauen [as vpon an horſe] yet is he thine helper, whoſe glorie is in the celeſtial places.

27 The eternal God is thy refuge, and vnder the armes of the euerlaſtyng God ſhalt thou lyue: He ſhal caſt out the enimie before thee, and ſay, Deſtroy them.

28 Iſrael then ſhal dwel in ſafetie, and alone, and the fountayne of Iacob ſhalbe vpon a land of corne and wine, and his heauens ſhal droppe the dewe. E

29 Happy art thou, O Iſrael: Who is like vnto thee, O people, that art ſaued in the Lorde, whiche is the ſhielde of thy helpe, and ſword of thy glorie: Thine enimies haue loſt their ſtrength to thee warde, and thou ſhalt treade vpon their hygh places.

4 And this is the cauſe, why Ioſuah circumciſed al the people, euen the males that came out of Egypt: becauſe that al the menne of warre dyed in the wyldernesſe by the way, after they came out of Egypt.

5 For al the people that came out, were circumciſed: but al the people that were borne in the wyldernesſe by the way after they came out of Egypt, were not (d) circumciſed.

(d) They coulde not doo it without daunger, in that troubleſome vncertayne ſtate they were in, in theyr iourney.

6 For the chyldren of Iſrael walked fourtie yeeres in the wyldernesſe, til al the people of the menne of warre, that came out of Egypt, were conſumed: becauſe they hearkened not vnto the voyce of the Lorde: Unto whom the Lorde ſware, that he woulde not ſhewe them the land, * which the Lord ſware vnto their fathers, that he woulde geue vs, euen a lande, * that floweth with mylke and hony.

Num,14,f

Num.13,e.

7 And their chyldren, whom he ſet vp in their ſteede, them Ioſuah circumciſed: for they were vncircumciſed: becauſe they circumciſed them not by the way.

8 And when they had circumciſed al the people, they abode in their places in the campe tyl they were whole. B

9 And the Lorde ſayde vnto Ioſuah, This day haue I taken away the (e) ſhame of Egypt from you: Wherefore the name of the ſame place is called Gilgal, vnto this day.

(c) Before they were like to the vncircumciſed Egyptians: whom though they ſerued, yet they diſdained, and iudged them prophane and ſhameful.

10 And the chyldren of Iſrael abode in Gilgal, * and helde the feaſt of Paſſeouer the fourteenth day of the (f) mooneth at euen, in the plaine of Iericho.

Exo,xii,a.

(f) The fyrſt mooneth afore ſpoken of. Chap.4.

11 And they dyd eate of the corne of the lande on the morowe after the Paſſeouer, ſweete cakes, & parched corne, in the ſelfe ſame day.

12 For the Manna ceaſed on the morowe after they had begonne to eate of the corne of the lande: neither had the chyldren of Iſrael Manna any more, but dyd eate of the fruite of the lande of Chanaan that yeere.

13 And when Ioſuah was nygh to Iericho, he lyft vp his eyes, and looked: and beholde, there ſtoode a man agaynſt hym, hauyng a ſworde drawen in his hande: And Ioſuah went vnto hym, and ſayde vnto hym, Art thou on our ſyde, or on our aduerſaries? C

14 And he ſayde, Nay: but as a captayne of the hoſt of the Lorde am I nowe comme. And Ioſuah felle on his face to the earth, and dyd (g) worſhip, and ſayd vnto hym, What ſayth my Lorde vnto his ſeruant?

(g) In that, that Ioſuah worſhippeth hym, he acknowledgeth him to be god: and in that, that he calleth hym ſelfe the Lordes captayne, he declareth him ſelfe to be Chriſte.

15 And the captayne of the Lordes hoſt ſayde vnto Ioſuah, * Put thy ſhoe (h) of thy foote: for the place, whereon thou ſtandeſt, is holy. And Ioſuah dyd ſo.

(h) That is, geue ouer thy clayme of thy ſelfe, and of thy affections

The,vi.Chapter,

1 God geueth the citie of Iericho vnto Ioſuah. 6 Ioſuah with the prieſtes doo inuade Iericho. 7 Ioſuah commaundeth the Rubenites, the Gadites, and the Manaſſites, to goe before the arke in armes. 20 Iericho is taken. 22 Rahab is ſaued. 24 Iericho is burned. 25 Rahab and her houſhold doo d'wel among the children of Iſrael. 25 The buylder agayne of Iericho is curſed.

A 1 AND Iericho was (a) ſhut vp & (b) cloſed, becauſe of the chyldren of Iſrael: neyther myght any man goe out, or in.

(a) That none could goe out. (b) That none coulde comme in.

2 And the Lord ſaide vnto Ioſuah, Beholde, I haue geuen Iericho into thyne hand, and the kyng therof, and the ſtrong menne of warre.

3 And ye ſhal compaſſe al the citie, al ye that be menne of warre, and goe rounde about it once: and ſo ſhal you doo ſixe dayes.

4 And ſeuen prieſtes ſhal beare before the arke ſeuen trumpettes of (c) rammes hornes: And the ſeuenth day ye ſhal compaſſe the citie ſeuen tymes, and the prieſtes ſhal blowe with the trumpettes.

(c) The conqueſt myght not be aſſigned to mans power, but to the mercie of god, whiche with moſt weake thinges can ouercomme that, whiche ſeemeth moſt ſtrong.

5 And when they make a long blaſt with the rammes horne, and ye heare the ſound of the horne, al the people ſhal ſhoote with a great ſhoote: And then ſhal the wal of the citie falle downe, and the people ſhal aſcende vp, euery man ſtreyght before hym.

6 And Ioſuah the ſonne of Nun, called the prieſtes, and ſayde vnto them, Take vp the arke of the couenant, and let ſeuen prieſtes beare ſeuen trumpettes of rammes hornes before the arke of the Lorde.

7 And he ſayde vnto the people, (d) Goe, and compaſſe the citie, and let hym, that is harneſſed, goe before the arke of the Lorde.

(d) This is chiefly meant by the Rubenits, Gadites, and the halfe tribe of Manaſſes.

B 8 And when Ioſuah had ſpoken vnto the people, the ſeuen prieſtes bare the ſeuen trumpettes of rammes hornes, and went foorth before the arke of the Lorde, and blewe with the trumpettes: and the arke of the couenant of the Lorde folowed them.

9 And the menne of armes went before the prieſtes, that blewe with the trumpettes: and the (e) geatheryng hoſt came after the arke, as they went, and blewe with trumpettes.

(e) Meanyng the rearewarde, wherin was the ſtandarde of the tribe of Dan. Num.x.

10 And Ioſuah had commaunded the people, ſayeing, Ye ſhal not ſhoote, nor make any noyſe with your voyce, neyther ſhal any woorde proceede out of your mouth, vntyl the day I byd you ſhoot, then ſhal ye ſhoote.

11 And ſo the arke of the Lorde compaſſed the citie, and went about it (f) once: and they returned into the hoſt, and lodged there.

(f) For that day.

12 And Ioſuah roſe early in the mornyng, and the prieſtes tooke vp the arke of the Lorde.

13 And ſeuen prieſtes bare ſeuen trumpettes of rammes hornes, and went before the arke of the Lorde: and goyng, blewe with the trumpettes. And the menne of armes went before them: but the (g) geathering hoſt came after the arke of the Lorde, whiche went before with the blowyng of the trumpettes. C

(g) The tribe of Dan was ſo called, becauſe it marched laſt, and geathered vp whatſoeuer was leaſt of others.

14 And the ſeconde day they paſſed the citie once, and returned agayne into the hoſt: and ſo they dyd ſixe dayes.

15 And when the ſeuenth day came, they roſe early [euen] with the dawnyng of the day, and compaſſed the citie after the ſame maner (h) ſeuen tymes: only that day they compaſſed the citie ſeuen tymes.

(h) Beſides euery day once, for the ſpace of ſixe dayes.

16 And at the ſeuenth tyme when the prieſtes blewe with the trumpettes, Ioſuah ſayde vnto the people, Shoote, for the Lorde hath geuen you the citie.

17 And the citie ſhalbe (i) accurſed, and al that are therein, vnto the Lorde: only Rahab the harlot ſhal liue, and al that are with her in the houſe, becauſe ſhe * hyd the meſſengers that we ſent.

(i) Condemned vtterly to be deſtroyed.

Ioſuah.2.a

18 And in any wyſe be ye ware of the accurſed thynges, leſt ye make your ſelues accurſed, and take of the accurſed thynges, and make the hoſt of Iſrael * accurſed, and trouble it.

Leuit.27. Num.21.a Deu.13.d.

19 But al the ſiluer, golde, and veſſelles of braſſe and iron, ſhalbe (k) conſecrate vnto the Lorde, and al ſhal comme into his treaſurie.

(k) Man and beaſt beyng deſtroyed, and al other thynges that could not by fire be moulten and transfourmed: al metals are ſo reſerued to the Lordes vſe, that they ſhoulde neuer be conuerted to any priuate vſe.

20 And the people ſhooted, and blewe with trumpettes: And when the people heard the ſounde of the trumpe, they ſhooted with a great ſhoote, and the wal * fel downe flat, ſo that the people went vp into the citie, euery man ſtreyght before hym, and * tooke the citie:

Heb.xi.f. 2.Mac.xii

21 And they vtterly deſtroyed al that was in the citie, both man and woman, young and olde, Oxe, Sheepe, and Aſſe, with the edge of the ſworde.

22 But Ioſuah had ſayd vnto the two men that had ſpyed out the countrey, Goe into the harlottes houſe, and bring out thence the woman, and al that ſhe hath, * as ye ſware vnto her.

Ioſuah.2.c

23 And the young menne that were ſpyes, went in, and brought out Rahab, and her father and mother, and her brethren, & al that ſhe had: and they brought out al her kynred, and put them (l) without the hoſt of Iſrael.

(l) For it was not lawful for ſtraungers to dwel among the Iſraelites, tyl they were purged.

24 And they burnt the citie with fyre, and al that was therein: only the ſyluer & the golde, and the veſſelles of braſſe and iron, they put vnto the treaſure of the (m) houſe of the Lord.

(m) Meaning the tabernacle.

25 And Ioſuah ſaued Rahab the harlot, and her fathers houſholde, and al that ſhe had: & (n) ſhe dwelt in Iſrael euen vnto this day, becauſe ſhe hid the meſſengers whiche Ioſuah ſent to ſpye out Iericho.

(n) For ſhe was maryed to Salmon, prince of the trybe of Iuda. Math. i.

26 And Ioſuah ſware at that tyme, ſayeing, Curſed be the man before the Lorde, that ryſeth vp, and buyldeth this citie Iericho: He ſhal lay the (o) foundation thereof in his eldeſt ſonne, and in his youngeſt ſonne ſhal he ſet vp the gates of it.

(o) He ſhal buylde it to the deſtruction of al his ſtocke, whiche thyng was fulfilled in Hiel of Bethel. i. Reg. 6.

27 And ſo the Lorde was with Ioſuah, and his fame was noyſed throughout al landes.

The. vii. Chapter.

1 Achan vſurpeth parte of the iewels of Iericho. 2 Ai is ſearched. 4 The people of Ai ſmyteth Iſrael. 6 Ioſuah weepeth before the Lorde. 7 Ioſuah complayneth before the Lorde, that Iſrael is ouercomme. 15 God commaundeth the theefe of the iewels of Iericho, to be burnt. 21 What thynges Achan had conueyghed of thoſe thynges whiche ought to haue benne burnt. 25 Achan is ſtoned, and al his goodes are burnt for ſtealyng of the iewels of Iericho.

A 1 But yet the chyldren of Iſrael treſpaſſed in the * (a) forbydden thyng: for Achan the ſonne of Charmi, the ſonne of Zabdi, the ſonne of Zareth, of the tribe of Iuda, tooke of the forbidden thyng: And the wrath of the lord waxed hot againſt the children of Iſrael.

Deut. 7. d.

(a) By taking that whiche was cōmaunded to be deſtroyed.

2 And Ioſuah ſent menne from Iericho, to (b) Ai, which is beſyde Bethauen, on the eaſt ſyde of Bethel, & ſpake vnto them, ſayeing, Geat you vp, and viewe the countrey. And the menne went vp, and viewed Ai,

(b) There were cities, the name of one Ai of the Amorites, whiche was the greater, and is here deſcribed: the other of the Ammonites. Ierem. 49.

3 And returned to Ioſuah, and ſayde vnto hym, Let not al the people goe vp: but let as it were two or three thouſande menne goe vp, and ſmyte Ai: and make not al the people to labour thyther, for they are but fewe.

4 And ſo there went vp thyther of the people about three thouſand menne, and they fledde before the menne of Ai.

5 And the menne of Ai (c) ſmote of them vpon thirtie and ſyxe menne: for they chaſed them from before the gate, euen vnto Sebarim, & ſmote them in the goeyng downe: Wherefore the hartes of the people for feare melted away lyke water.

(c) God would by this ouerthrowe, make them more earneſt to ſearche out and punyſhe the ſinne committed.

6 And Ioſuah (d) rent his clothes, & felle to the earth vpon his face before the arke of the lord vntyl the euentyde, he and the elders of Iſrael, and put earth vpon their heades,

(d) It was the geſture of mourners and of ſuche as ſorowed in miſerable caſes, that ſeemed to tende to the reproche of Gods name.

B

7 And Ioſuah ſayde, Alas, O Lorde God, wherefore haſt thou brought this people ouer Iordane, to delyuer vs into the hande of the Amorites, and to deſtroy vs? Would god we had benne content, & dwelt on the other (e) ſyde of Iordane.

(e) Ioſuah here is redy to diſtruſt the manifeſt promiſe of God: whiche declareth that there is no ſtay in man, without the continual aſſiſtaunce of God.

8 Oh Lorde, what ſhal I ſay, when Iſrael turneth their backes before their enimies?

9 Surely the Chanaanites, and al the inhabitantes of the lande ſhal heare of it, and ſhal conſpire agaynſt vs, and deſtroy the name of vs out of the worlde: And what wylt thou doo vnto thy myghty (f) name?

(f) For the enemies wil ſay that thou were not hable to kepe promiſe with vs, and to ouercomme them: and ſo blaſpheme thy holy name.

10 And the Lorde ſayde vnto Ioſuah, Geat thee vp: Wherefore lyeſt thou thus vpon thy face?

11 Iſrael hath ſynned, and they haue tranſgreſſed myne appoyntment, whiche I commaunded them: for they haue taken of the excommunicate thynges, and haue alſo ſtollen, and diſſembled alſo, and put them vnto their owne ſtuffe.

12 And therefore is it, that the chyldren of Iſrael can not ſtande before their enimies, but ſhal turne their backes before their enimies, becauſe they be excommunicate: Neyther wyl I be with you any more, except ye (g) deſtroy the excommunicate from among you.

(g) What it is to ſuffer wickedneſſe vnpouny ſhed.

13 * Up [therfore] and ſanctifie the people, and ſay, Sanctifie your ſelues againſt to morow, for ſo ſayde the Lord God of Iſrael, There is a ⁿ dampned thyng among you, O Iſrael: and therefore ye can not ſtande agaynſt your enimies, vntyl ye haue put the dampned (h) thyng from among you.

Exod. 19. a.

ⁿ Or accurſed.

(h) Meaning the man that toke of the thyng forbidden.

14 To morowe in the mornyng therefore ye ſhalbe brought accordyng to your tribes: and the tribe whiche the Lorde (i) taketh, ſhal comme accordyng to the kynredes thereof: And the kynrede whiche the Lorde ſhal fynde gylty, ſhal comme by houſeholdes: And the houſholde whiche the Lord ſhal fynde faulty, ſhal comme man by man.

(i) The maner of takyng as ſomme iudge, was by Urim and Thummim: other ſay, it was by lottes.

15 And he that is founde with the accurſed thyng, ſhalbe burnt with fyre, he, and al that he hath, becauſe he hath tranſgreſſed the couenant of the Lorde, and wrought follie in Iſrael.

16 And ſo Ioſuah roſe vp early in the mornyng, and brought Iſrael by their tribes, and the tribe of Iuda was caught.

17 And he brought the kynreds of Iuda, and tooke the kynrede of the Zarehites: And he brought the kynrede of the Zarehites, man by man, and Zabdi was caught.

18 And he brought his houſholde man by man, & Achan the ſonne of Charmi, the ſonne of Zabdi, the ſonne of Zared of the tribe of Iuda, was caught.

19 And Ioſuah ſaide vnto Achan, My ſonne, I beſeeche thee geue glory to the Lorde God of Iſrael, and (k) make confeſſion vnto hym, and ſhewe me what thou haſt donne, hide it not from me.

(k) God is glorified, when the truth is confeſſed.

D 20 And Achan anſweared Ioſuah and ſayde, Of a trueth I haue ſynned againſt the Lord God of Iſrael, and thus and thus haue I donne.

21 I ſawe among the ſpoyles a goodly babiloniſhe garment, and two hundred ſicles of ſyluer, and a tonge of golde of fyftie ſicles weighte, and I coueited them, & tooke them, & beholde they lye hid in the earth in the middeſt of my tent, and the ſiluer is there vnder.

22 And ſo Ioſuah ſent meſſengers: Whiche when they ranne vnto his tent, beholde they were hid in his tent, and the ſyluer there vnder.

23 Therfore they tooke them out of the middeſt of his tent, and brought them vnto Ioſuah, and vnto al the chyldren of Iſrael, and layde them out (l) before the Lorde.

(l) That is before the ark of the Lorde.

24 And Ioſuah tooke Achan the ſonne of Zareth, and the ſyluer, and the garment, and the (m) tonge of golde, and his ſonnes, and his daughters, and his oxen, and his aſſes, and his ſheepe, and his tent, and al that he had: and al Iſrael with hym brought them vnto the valley of Achor.

(m) Somme read a wedge, others a plate, and ſomme a rodde.

25 And Ioſuah ſayd, In (n) as muche as thou haſt troubled vs, the Lorde ſhal trouble thee this day. And al Iſrael ſtoned hym with ſtones, and burned them with fire, and ouerwhelmed them with ſtones.

(n) what ſharpe iudgement and greeuous pounyſhment they ought to haue, that by wickedneſſe drawe Gods wrath vpon the multitude.

26 And they caſt vpon hym a great heape of ſtones vnto this day: And ſo the Lorde turned from the wrath of his indignation. And the name of the place is called the valley of (o) Achor vnto this day.

(o) That is, the valley of trouble.

The.viii.Chapter.

1 God geueth the citie of Ai into the handes of Ioſuah. 3 Ioſuahes armie beyng ſet in array, goeth to Ai. 15 Ioſuah fayneth a runnyng away. 18 God geueth counſel vnto Ioſuah hym ſelfe, what he hath to doo. 20 Ai is ſette on fyre. 21 The people of Ai is ſlayne. 23 The kyng of Ai beyng attached, is brought vnto Ioſuah, twelue thouſande ſlayne. 27 The pray is diuided. 29 The kyng of Ai is hanged. 30 An aulter of ſtone is buylte, in the whiche the Deuteronomie is wrytten. 34 Ioſuah bleſſeth the people of Iſrael.

A 1 AND the Lorde ſayde vnto Ioſuah, * Feare not, neyther be thou faynt harted: Take al the menne of warre with thee, and vp, & geat thee to Ai. Behold, I haue geuen into thy hande the kyng of Ai, and his people, his citie, and his land:

Deut.7.c.

2 And thou ſhalt doo to Ai, and her kyng, as thou dyddeſt vnto * Iericho, and her kyng. Neuertheleſſe, the ſpoyle and * cattel thereof, ſhal ye take vnto your ſelues: Thou ſhalt lye in wayte agaynſt the citie, on the (a) backſide thereof.

Ioſu.6.d.

Deu,20.c.

(a) Meanyng on the weaſt ſyde.

3 And ſo Ioſuah aroſe, and al the menne of warre, to goe vp agaynſt Ai: And Ioſuah choſe out thirtie thouſande ſtrong menne, and valiant, and ſent them away by nyght:

4 And he commaunded them, ſayeing, Behold, ye ſhal lye in wayte agaynſt the towne on the backſyde thereof: Goe not very farre from the citie, but be al ready:

5 And I, and al the people that are with me, wyl approche vnto the citie: And when they comme out agaynſt vs, as they dyd at the fyrſt tyme, then wyl we flee before them:

6 For they wyl comme out after vs, tyl we haue brought them out of the citie. For they wyl ſay, They flee before vs, as at the fyrſte tyme: and we wyl flee before them.

7 In the meane tyme ſhal ye ryſe vp from lyeing in waite, & deſtroy the citie: for the lord your God wyl delyuer it into your hande. B

8 And when ye haue taken the citie, ye ſhal ſet it on fyre: accordyng to the commaundement of the Lorde ſhal ye doo. Beholde, I haue charged you.

9 Ioſuah therefore ſent them foorth, and they went to lye in wayte, and abode betweene Bethel and Ai, on the weaſt ſyde of the citie of Ai: But Ioſuah lodged that nyght (b) among the people.

(b) That is, with the reſt of the armie.

10 And Ioſuah roſe vp early in the mornyng, and (c) numbred the people, and went vp, he and the elders of Iſrael before the people, agaynſt Ai.

(c) That is, muſtred them, and ſet them in aray.

11 And al the menne of warre that were with hym, went vp, and drue nygh, and came agaynſt the citie, and pitched on the northſide of Ai: and there was a valley betweene them and Ai.

12 And he tooke about fiue thouſand menne, and (d) ſet them to lye in wayte betweene Bethel and Ai, on the weaſtſyde of the citie.

(d) He ſet theſe fewe, that the other whiche laye in ambuſh might not be diſcouered.

13 And the people ſet al the hoſt, that was on the northſide, againſt the citie, and them that lay in wayte on the weaſt, agaynſt the citie: And Ioſuah walked the ſame nyght in the myddes of the valley.

C 14 And when the kyng of Ai ſawe it, they haſted and roſe vp early, and the menne of the citie went out agaynſt Iſrael to battaile, he and al his people at a tyme appoynted, euen before the plaine: and wiſt not that there were ſomme that lay in wayte againſt hym on the backſyde of the citie.

15 And Ioſuah and al Iſrael, (e) as beaten before them, fled by the way of the wyldernes.

(e) As they whiche feyned them ſelues to flee for feare.

16 And al the people of the towne were called togeather, to folowe after them: And they folowed after Ioſuah, and were drawen away from the citie.

17 And there was not a man leaft in Ai and in Bethel, that went not out after Iſrael: And they leaft the citie open, and folowed after Iſrael.

18 And the Lorde ſayde vnto Ioſuah, (f) Stretch out the ſpeare, that is in thine hand, towarde Ai, for I wyl geue it into thy hand. And Ioſuah ſtretched out the ſpeare that he had in his hande, towarde the citie.

(f) Or, lyft vp the baner, to ſignifie when they ſhal inuade the citie.

19 And they that lay in wayte, aroſe quickly out of their place, and ranne aſſoone as Ioſuah had ſtretched out his hande: and they entred into the citie, and tooke it, and haſted, and ſet the citie on fyre.

D 20 And when the menne of Ai looked backe after them, they ſawe the ſmoke of the citie aſcend vp to heauen, and they had no " place to flee, eyther this way, or that way: and the people that fledde to the wyldernesse, turned backe agayne vpon the folowers.

" Or power.

21 And when Ioſuah and al Iſrael ſaw, that they that lay in wayte, had taken the citie, and that the ſmoke of it aſcended, they turned agayne, and ſlue the menne of Ai.

22 And the other iſſued out of the citie againſt them, and ſo were they in the myddeſt of Iſrael: for theſe were on the one ſyde of them, & the reſt on the other ſyde. And they layd vpon them, ſo that they let none of them eſcape, nor remayne:

23 And the kyng of Ai they tooke alyue, and brought hym to Ioſuah.

Deut.7.a.

24 And when Iſrael had made an ende of ſlayeing al the inhabitantes of Ai in the fielde of the wyldernesse, where they chaſed them, and when they were al fallen on the edge of the ſword, vntyl they were waſted, al the Iſraelites returned vnto Ai, and (g) ſmote it with the edge of the ſworde.

(g) For the fyring of the citie was not to deſtroy it: for they ſhould take the ſpoyle thereof for a pray: but was to ſignifie to Ioſuah, that they were entred.

25 And al that felle that day, both of menne and women, were twelue thouſande, euen al the menne of Ai.

26 For Ioſuah plucked not his hande backe agayne, whiche he ſtretched out vpon the ſpeare, vntyl he had vtterly deſtroyed al the iuhabiters of Ai.

ii.Sa,xxi,a

3 *And the inhabiters of Gibeon heard what Joſuah had donne vnto Jericho, and to Ai,

4 And they wrought wylyly, and went and made them ſelues embaſſadours, and tooke olde ſackes vpon their aſſes, and wyne bottels olde, both rent and (c) bounde vp:

(c) Becauſe they were al worne.

5 And olde clowted ſhoes vpon their feete, and their raiment was olde: and al their prouiſion of bread was dryed vp, and hoared.

6 And they came vnto Joſuah into the hoaſt to Gilgal, and ſayde vnto hym & vnto al the menne of Iſrael, We be comme from a farre countrey, & nowe make ye agreement with vs.

B 7 And the menne of Iſrael ſayde vnto the Heuite, It may be, thou dwelleſt among vs, and then how can I make peace with thee?

8 And they ſayde vnto Joſuah, We are thy ſeruantes. And Joſuah ſayde vnto them agayne, What are ye, and whence comme ye?

9 They anſweared him, From a very farre countrey thy ſeruauntes are comme, for the name (d) of the Lorde thy God: for we haue heard the fame of hym, and al that he did in Egypt,

(d) Euen the idolaters for feare of death, wyl pretende to honour the true God, and receiue his religion.

10 And al that he dyd to the two * kynges of the Amorites, that were beyonde Jordane, Sehon kyng of Heſbon, and Og kyng of Baſan, whiche were at Aſtaroth.

Num.21,f.

11 Wherefore our elders, and al the inhabiters of our countrey, ſpake vnto vs, ſayeing, Take vittailes with you to ſerue by the way, and goe meete them, & ſay vnto them; We are your ſeruauntes: And nowe make ye a couenant of peace with vs.

12 This our foode of bread we tooke with vs out of our houſes hot, the day we departed to comme vnto you: But nowe beholde, it is dryed vp, and hoared.

13 And theſe bottelles of wyne, whiche we fylled, were newe, and ſee, they be rent: And theſe our garmentes, and ſhoes, are worne for oldeneſſe, by the reaſon of the exceedyng long iourney.

14 And the menne tooke of their (e) vittailes, & counſeled not with the mouth of the Lord.

(e) As ſomme wyl, to trye the oldeneſſe, and what taſte it had beyng ſo olde: ſomme other ſay, it was to confyrme the league accordyng to the maner, that they dyd eate of their vittayles.

15 And Joſuah made peace with them, and * made a couenant with thē, that they ſhoulde be ſuffered to lyue: And the princes of the congregation ſware vnto them.

2,Reg,21,a

16 But at the ende of three dayes, after they had made a league with them, they hearde, that they were their neyghbours, and that they dwelt among them.

17 And the chyldren of Iſrael tooke their (f) iourney, and came vnto their cities the third day: and their cities were Gibeon, and Caphira, Beroth, and Kiriathiarim.

(f) From Gilgal.

18 And the children of Iſrael ſlewe them not, becauſe the princes of the congregation had ſwoorne vnto them by the Lorde God of Iſrael: and al the (g) multitude murmured agaynſt the princes.

(g) The multitude is commonly inclined to maligne their magiſtrates, and to conſtrue their doinges to the worſe part.

19 But al the princes ſayde vnto al the congregation, We haue ſworne vnto them by the lorde God of Iſrael, and therfore we may not hurt them.

20 But this we wyl doo to them, we wyl let them lyue, leſt wrath be vpon vs becauſe of the othe, whiche we ſware vnto them.

21 And the princes ſayde vnto them agayne, Let them lyue, and hewe wood, and drawe water vnto al the congregatiō, [and they did] as the princes ſayde vnto them.

22 And Joſuah called for them, and talked with them, and ſayde, Wherefore haue ye beguyled vs, ſayeing, We dwel farre from you:

When

when ye dwel among vs.

23 And nowe are ye curſed, and there ſhal not ceaſſe to be of you bondmenne, and hewers of wood, & drawers of water for the (h) houſe of my God.

24 And they anſweared Ioſuah, and ſayd, It was tolde thy ſeruantes howe that the Lord thy God hadde * commaunded his ſeruante Moſes, to geue you al the lande, and to deſtroy al the inhabitours thereof out of your ſyght, and therefore we were exceedyng ſoare afrayde for our lyues at the preſence of you, and haue donne this thyng.

25 And beholde, we are in thyne hande: as it ſeemeth good and ryght in thyne eyes to doo vnto vs, ſo doo.

26 And euen ſo dyd he vnto them, and rydde them out of the hande of the chyldren of Iſrael, that they ſlue them not.

27 And Ioſuah made them that ſame day hewers of wood, and drawers of water for the congregation, & for the (i) aulter of God, vnto this day, in the place, whiche he ſhould chooſe.

The.x.Chapter.

1 Fyue kynges make warre agaynſt Gibeon, whom Ioſuah diſcomfiteth. 11 The Lorde raigned hayleſtones, and ſlue many. 12 The ſunne ſtandeth at Ioſuahs prayer. 26 The fyue kynges are hanged. 29 Many moe kynges and cities are deſtroyed.

A 1 NOWE when Adonizedec kyng of Hieruſalem had heard, howe Ioſuah had taken Ai, & had deſtroyed it: (and how that,* as he had donne to Iericho and her kyng, euen ſo he had donne to Ai & her kyng) and howe the inhabitours of Gibeon hadde made peace with Iſrael, and were among them:

2 They feared exceedingly, for Gibeon was a great citie, as any citie of the kingdome, and was greater then Ai, and al the menne thereof were very myghty.

3 Wherfore Adonizedec kyng of Hieruſalem, ſent vnto Hoham king of Hebron, and vnto Pira kyng of Iarmuth, and vnto Iaphia kyng of Lachis, and vnto Dabir kyng of Eglon, ſayeing,

4 Comme vp vnto me, and helpe me, that we may ſmyte Gibeon: for they haue made peace with Ioſuah, and with the chyldren of Iſrael.

5 Therefore the fiue kynges of the Amorites, the kyng of Hieruſalem, the kyng of Hebron, the kyng of Iarmuth, the kyng of Lachis, & the kyng of Eglon, geathered them ſelues togeather, and went vp, they with al theyr hoſtes, and beſieged Gibeon, and made warre agaynſt it.

6 And the menne of Gibeon ſent vnto Ioſuah to the hoſt in Gilgal, ſayeing, withdraw not thy hande from thy ſeruantes, comme vp to vs quickly, and ſaue vs, & helpe vs: for al the kynges of the Amorites, whiche dwel in the mountaynes, are geathered togeather (a) agaynſt vs.

7 And ſo Ioſuah aſcended from Gilgal, he and al the people of warre with hym, and al the menne of myght.

8 And the Lorde ſayde vnto Ioſuah, Feare them not: for I haue deliuered them into thyne hande, neyther ſhal any of them ſtand agaynſt thee. B

9 Ioſuah therefore came vnto them ſodainely, and went vp from Gilgal al nyght.

10 And the Lorde troubled them before Iſrael, and ſlue them with a great ſlaughter at Gibeon, and chaſed them along the waye that goeth vp to Bethoron, and ſmote them to Azeka, and Makeda.

11 And as they fledde from before Iſrael, and were in the goeyng downe to Bethoron, the Lorde caſt downe great ſtones from heauen vpon them, vntyl Azeka, and they dyed: There were moe dead with hayle (b) ſtones, then they were, whom the chyldren of Iſrael ſlue with the ſworde.

12 Then ſpake Ioſuah to the Lorde in the day, when the Lord deliuered the Amorites before the chyldren of Iſrael, and he ſayde in the ſyght of Iſrael,* Sunne, ſtand thou ſtyl vpon Gibeon, and thou Moone in the valley of Aiaton.

13 And the ſunne aboade, and the moone ſtood ſtyl, vntyl the people hadde auenged them ſelues vpon theyr enimies. Is not this wrytten in the booke of the (c) ryghteous? So the ſunne [I ſaye] aboade in the myddeſt of heauen, & haſted not to goe downe by the ſpace of a whole day.

14 And there was no day lyke that, before it or after it, that the Lorde hearde the voyce of a man: for the Lorde (d) fought for Iſrael.

15 And Ioſuah returned, and al Iſrael with hym, vnto the campe to Gilgal.

16 But the fyue kynges fledde, and were hyd in a caue at Makeda.

17 And it was tolde Ioſuah [of one] ſayeing, The fyue kinges are founde hidde in a caue, whiche is at Makeda.

(h) whiche was the tabernacle vnto the tyme of Solomon, and after that the temple at Hieruſalem.

(h) As ſoone as thou makeſt a league with the chyldren of God, by regeneration: then ſhalt be ſure to haue the wicked children of the worlde in thy toppe.

(c) The Hebrue woord is Iaſher, that is, ryghteous: therefore ſome iudge, it meaneth Moſes booke, and the Chaldee text readeth, the booke of the lawe: but others thinke Iaſher to be the verye name of the booke, whiche is loſt, and nowe not extant.

(d) By taking away the enimies hartes, & deſtroyeng them with hayleſtones.

18 And Ioſuah ſayde, Rolle great ſtones vpon the mouth of the caue, and ſet menne by it, for to keepe it.

19 And ſtand ye not ſtyl, but folow after your enimies, and ſmyte al the hyndemoſt, & ſuffer them not to enter into theyr cities: for the Lorde your God hath delyuered them into your hande.

20 And when Ioſuah and the chyldren of Iſrael had made an end of ſlayeing them with an exceedyng great ſlaughter, tyl they were waſted: the reaſt that remayned of them, entred into walled cities.

21 And al the people returned to the hoſt to Ioſuah at Makeda in peace, neyther dyd anye man moue his tongue agaynſt the chyldren of Iſrael.

22 Then ſayde Ioſuah, Open the mouth of the caue, and bryng out theſe fyue kynges vnto me out of the caue.

23 And they dyd ſo, and brought thoſe fyue kynges vnto him out of the caue, [euen] the kyng of Hieruſalem, the kyng of Hebron, the kyng of Iarmuth, the kyng of Lachis, and the kyng of Eglon.

24 And when they hadde brought out thoſe kynges vnto Ioſuah: Ioſuah called for al the menne of Iſrael, and ſayde vnto the chiefe of the menne of warre whiche went with hym: Comme neare, and put your feete vpon the (e) neckes of theſe kynges. And they came neare, and put theyr feete vpon the neckes of them.

(e) By this Ioſuah woulde encourage his capitaynes, and ſignifie vnto them, what victorie they ſhoulde looke for of the reaſt of theyr enimies: ſeeyng kynges are thus by them ſerued.

25 And Ioſuah ſayde vnto them, Ye ſhal not feare, nor be faynt harted: but be ſtrong, and plucke vp your hartes, for thus ſhal the lorde doo to al your enimies, agaynſte whom ye fyght.

26 And then Ioſuah ſmote them, & ſlue them, and hanged them on fyue trees: And they hanged ſtyl vpon the trees vntyl the euenyng.

E 27 And at the goeyng downe of the ſunne, Ioſuah gaue commaundemente: And they tooke them downe of the * trees, and caſte them into the caue, wherein they had benne hydde, and layed great ſtones in the caues mouth, [whiche remayne] vntyl this day.

Deu.21.d. Ioſue.8.f.

28 And that ſame day, Ioſuah tooke Makeda, and ſmote it with the edge of the ſword, and the kyng thereof alſo deſtroyed he vtterly, with " al the ſoules, that were therein, and let none remayne: and he did to the king of Makeda, * as he dyd vnto the kyng of Iericho.

Ioſue.6.d.

29 Then Ioſuah went from Makeda, and al Iſrael with hym, vnto Libna, and fought agaynſt Libna.

30 And the Lorde delyuered it, and the kyng therof into the hande of Iſrael: and he ſmote it with the edge of the ſworde, and al the " ſoules, that were therein: He let none remaine in it, but dyd vnto the kyng thereof, as he dyd vnto the kyng of Iericho.

31 And Ioſuah departed from Libna, and al Iſrael with hym vnto Lachis, and beſieged it, and aſſaulted it.

32 And the Lorde delyuered Lachis into the hande of Iſrael, whiche tooke it the ſeconde day, & ſmote it with the edge of the ſworde, and al the ſoules, that were therein, dooyng accordyng to al, as he had donne to the citie of Libna. F

33 Then Horam kyng of Geſer came vp to helpe Lachis: and Ioſuah ſmote hym and his people, vntyl none remayned of hym.

34 And from Lachis Ioſuah departed vnto Eglon, and al Iſrael with him: and they beſieged it, and aſſaulted it.

35 And tooke it the ſame day, & ſmote it with the edge of the ſworde: and al the ſoules, that were therein, he vtterly deſtroyed the ſame day, accordyng to al that he had done to Lachis.

36 And Ioſuah departed vp from Eglon, and al Iſrael with hym, vnto Hebron: and they fought agaynſt it.

37 And when they had taken it, they ſmote it with the edge of the ſworde, and the kyng thereof, and al the townes, that parteyned to it, and al the ſoules, that were therin, and he leaft none remaynyng: but dyd accordyng to al, as he had donne to Eglon, and deſtroyed it vtterly, and al the ſoules, that were therein.

38 And Ioſuah returned, and al Iſrael with hym to Dabir, and fought agaynſt it.

38 And when he hadde taken it, and the kyng thereof, and al the townes, that parteyned thereto, they ſmote them with the edge of the ſword, and vtterly deſtroied al the ſoules, that were therein, neyther ſuffered he any to remayne: Euen as he dyd to Hebron, ſo he dyd to Dabir, and the king therof, as he had donne alſo to Libna and her kyng.

40 Ioſuah therfore ſmote al the hil countreys, and the ſouth countreyes, and the valleyes, and the downes, and al theyr kynges, and let none remayne of them, but vtterly deſtroyed al that * breathed, as the Lorde God of Iſrael had commaunded.

The.xvi.Chapter.

1 The lot or part of Ephraim. 10 The Chanaanites dwelled among them.

A 1 And the lot of the chyldren of Ioſeph felle from Iordane by Iericho, vnto the water of Iericho Eaſtwarde, and to the wildernes, that goeth vp frō Iericho throughout mount Bethel:

2 And goeth out from (a) Bethel to Luz, & runneth along vnto the borders of Archiataroth:

(a) Luz is thought to be a citie at the ende of mount Bethel, which is alſo named Bethel. Gen.28.d. And ſo Bethel is the name both of a citie, and of a mount.

3 And goeth downe againe weaſtward euen to the coaſt of Iaphleti, and vnto the coaſt of Bethhoron the neather, and to Gazer, and the endes of their coaſtes leaue at the weaſt ſea.

4 And ſo the chyldren of Ioſeph, Manaſſes, and Ephraim, tooke their inheritance.

5 And the border of the chyldren of Ephraim was by their kynredes. Their border on the Eaſt ſide was Ataroth Adar, euē vnto Bethhoron the vpper,

6 And went out weaſtwarde to Machmethath on the North ſide, and returneth Eaſtwarde vnto Thaanath Silo, and paſt it on the Eaſt ſyde vnto Ionoah,

8 And their border went from Thaphuah weaſtwarde vnto the riuer Kanah, and the endes were the weaſt ſea. This is the inheritance of the tribe of the chyldren of Ephraim by their kynredes.

9 And the cities ſeparate for the children of Ephraim, were among the inheritance of the chyldren of Manaſſes, euen the cities with their villages.

10 And they draue not out the Chanaanites, that dwelt in Gazer: but the Chanaanites dwelt among the Ephraites vnto this day, and ſerue vnder tribute.

The.xvij.Chapter,

1 The portion of the halfe tribe of Manaſſe. 3 Salphaad is geuen for a poſſeſſion to his daughters. 13 Chanaanites are tributaries vnto the Iſraelites. 14 The ſonnes of Ioſeph, Manaſſe and Ephraim, doo require a larger poſſeſſion.

A 1 This was the lotte of the tribe of Manaſſes, which was the * eldeſt ſonne of Ioſeph, to wite of Machir the eldeſt ſonne of Manaſſes, whiche was the father of Gilead: now becauſe he was a man of warre, he had Gilead and Baſan.

2 This is the poſſeſſion of the (a) reſt of ẏ childrē of Manaſſes by their kinredes: [Namely] of the chyldren of Abiezer, the chyldren of Helek, the chyldren of Ariel, the chyldren of Sichem, the chyldren of Hepher, the chyldren of Semida: for theſe were the male chyldren of Manaſſes, the ſonne of Ioſeph by their kynredes.

(a) For the other halfe tribe had their portiō beyond Iordane.

3 *But Selaphead the ſonne of Hepher, the ſonne of Gilead, the ſonne of Machir, ẏ ſonne of Manaſſes, had no ſonnes, but daughters: Whoſe names are theſe, Mahala, Noa, Hagla, Melcha, and Thirſa:

Num.26.d 27.a.& 36.a

4 Whiche came before Eleaſar the prieſt, and before Ioſuah the ſonne of Nun, and before the Lordes, ſayeing, The Lorde commaunded Moſes to geue vs an inheritance amōg our (b) brethren.

(b) Among them of our tribe.

5 And therefore, accordyng to the commaundement of the Lorde, he gaue them an inheritance among the brethren of their father. And there felle tenne portions to Manaſſes, beſide the lande of Gilead and Baſan, which were on the other ſide of Iordane:

6 Becauſe the daughters of Manaſſes dyd inherite among his ſonnes: And Manaſſes other ſonnes had the lande of Gilead.

B 7 And the coaſt of Manaſſes was from Aſer to Machmathath, that lieth before Sichem, and went along on the right hande, euen vnto the inhabitantes of Entaphuah,

8 And the lande of Thaphuah belonged to Manaſſes: which (c) Thaphuah is beſyde the border of Manaſſes, beſide the border of the chyldren of Ephraim.

(c) Meanyng the citie it ſelf.

9 And the coaſt deſcended vnto the [u] riuer Canah Southwarde, euen to the riuer: Theſe cities of Ephraim, are among the cities of Manaſſes. The coaſt of Manaſſes went alſo on the North ſyde to the riuer, and the endes of it goe out at the ſea:

[u] or, brooke of reedes.

10 So that the ſouth parteyned to Ephraim, and the north to Manaſſes, and the ſea is his border: And they mette togeather in (e) Aſer northwarde, and in Iſachar eaſtwarde.

(e) In the tribe of Aſer and tribe of Iſachar.

11 And Manaſſes had in Iſachar and in Aſer, Bethſean, and her townes, Iiblean and her townes, and the inhabitours of Dor, with the townes parteynyng to the ſame, and the inhabitours of Endor with yͤ townes of the ſame, & the inhabitours of Thaanach with her townes, and the inhabitours of Magedo with the townes of the ſame, euē three countreys.

12 Yet the chyldren of Manaſſes could (f) not ouercomme thoſe cities: but the Chanaanites preſumed to dwelle in the ſame lande.

13 Neuertheleſſe, as ſoone as the childrē of Iſrael were waxed ſtrong, thei put the Chanaanites vnder tribute, but expelled them not.

(f) For at the firſt they were not courageous: and after agreed with them on condition, contrary to Gods commaundement.

C 14 And the chyldrē of Ioſeph ſpake vnto Ioſuah, ſayeing, Why haſt thou geuen me but one lotte, and one portion to inherite, ſeeyng I am a great people, and foraſmuche as the Lorde hath (g) bleſſed me hytherto?

(g) According to my father Iacobs prophesie. Gen.48.d.

15 And Ioſuah anſweared them, If thou be muche people, then geat thee vp to the wood [countrey] and prepare for thee ſelf there in the lande of the Pherezites and (h) of the Giantes, if mount Ephraim be to narowe for thee.

(h) If this mount be not large enough, why dooſt not thou geat more by deſtroieing gods enmies, as he hath commaunded.

16 And the chyldren of Ioſeph ſayde, The hyl is not yenough for vs: And al the Chanaanites, that dwelle in the lowe countrey haue charettes of iron, & ſo haue they that inhabite Bethlean and the townes of the ſame, and they alſo that dwelle in the valley of Iezreel.

17 And Ioſuah ſaid vnto the houſe of Ioſeph, Ephraim, and Manaſſes, Ye be muche people, and haue great power, and ſhal not therefore haue one lotte.

18 Therefore the hyl ſhalbe yours, and ye ſhal cut downe the wood that is in it: & the endes of it ſhalbe yours, if ye caſt out the Chanaanites, whiche haue iron charrettes, and are very ſtrong.

9 And the menne departed, & walked through the lande, and diuided it by cities into ſeuen partes in a booke, and returned to Ioſuah into the hoſt at Silo.

3 Ye haue not leaft your brethren of a long ſeaſon vnto this day, but haue kept the commaundement of the Lorde your God.

The.iij.Chapter.

1 The Chanaanites were leaſt to trie Iſrael. 9 Othoniel deliuereth Iſrael. 21 Ahud kylleth kyng Eglon. 23 Samgar kylleth the Philiſtines.

A 1 These are the nations, whiche the Lorde leaſte, that he myght proue Iſrael by them: (euen as many of Iſrael as had not knowen al the (a) warres of Chanaan:

2 Only for the learnyng of the generations of the chyldren of Iſrael, that he alſo myght teache them warre, onlye ſuche as before knewe nothyng thereof.)

3 Of thoſe whom he leaſt, there were fiue lordes of the Philiſtines, and al the Chanaanites, and the Sidonites, and the Heuites, that dwelt in mount Libanon, euen from mount Baal Hermon, vntil one comme to Hamath.

4 These remayned to proue Iſrael by, and to wyte whether they woulde hearken vnto the commaundementes of the Lord, whiche he commaunded theyr fathers by the hande of Moſes.

5 And the chyldren of Iſrael dwelt among the Chanaanites, Hethites, Amorites, Pherezites, Heuites, and Iebuſites,

6 And tooke the daughters of them to be (b) theyr wiues, and gaue theyr owne daughters to theyr ſonnes, and ſerued their goddes.

B 7 And the chyldren of Iſrael dyd wickedly in the ſyght of the Lorde, and forgate the Lorde theyr God, and ſerued Baalim, and (c) Aſtharoth.

8 Therefore the Lorde was angry with Iſrael, and he ſolde them into the handes of Chuſan Riſathaim kyng of Meſopotamia: and the chyldren of Iſrael ſerued Chuſan Riſathaim eyght yeeres.

9 And when the chyldren of Iſrael cryed vnto the Lorde, the Lorde ſtirred vp a ſaueour to the chyldren of Iſrael, and ſaued them, euen Othoniel the ſonne of Kenes, Calebs younger brother.

10 And (d) the ſpirite of the Lorde came vpon hym, and he iudged Iſrael, and went out to warre: And the Lorde deliuered Chuſan Riſathaim, kyng of Meſopotamia into his hande, and his hande preuayled agaynſt Chuſan Riſathaim.

11 And the lande had reaſt fourtie yeeres: and Othoniel the ſonne of Kenes dyed.

12 And the chyldren of Iſrael agayne committed wickedneſſe in the ſyght of the Lord: And the Lorde (e) ſtrengthened Eglon the kyng of the Moabites, agaynſt the chyldren of Iſrael, becauſe they had committed wickedneſſe before the Lorde.

13 And this [Eglon] geathered vnto hym the chyldren of Ammon, and the Amalekites, and went and ſmote Iſrael, and poſſeſſed the citie of Palme trees.

C 14 And ſo the chyldren of Iſrael ſerued Eglon the kyng of Moab, xviii. yeeres.

15 But when they cryed vnto the Lorde, the Lorde ſtirred them vp a ſaueour, Ahud the ſonne of Gera, the ſonne of Gemini, a man lame of his 〃 ryght hande: and by hym the chyldren of Iſrael ſent a preſent vnto Eglon the kyng of Moab.

16 But Ahud made hym a dagger with two edges, of a cubite length, and he dyd gyrde it vnto his rayment vpon his ryght thygh,

17 And caryed the preſent vnto Eglon the kyng of Moab: (And Eglon was a very fat man.)

18 And when he had preſented the preſent, he ſent the people that bare it, away.

19 But he him ſelfe turned agayne (from the place of grauen images, that was by Gilgal) and ſayde, I haue a ſecrete errande vnto thee, O kyng. Whiche ſayde, Keepe ſcilence. And al that ſtood before him, went out from hym.

D 20 And Ahud came vnto hym, and in a ſommer parler, whiche he had, ſate he hym ſelfe alone: and Ahud ſayde, I haue a meſſage vnto thee from God. And he aroſe out of his ſeate.

21 And Ahud put foorth his leaſt hande, and tooke the dagger from his ryght thygh, and thruſt it into his belly.

22 And the hafte went in after the blade: and the fatte cloſed the haft, ſo that he myght not drawe the dagger out of his belly, but the dyrt came out.

23 Then Ahud gate him out into the porche, and ſhut the doores of the parler vpon hym, and locked them.

24 When he was gonne out, his ſeruantes came: And when they ſawe that the doores of the parler were locked, they ſaid, Surely he (f) couereth his feete in his ſõmer chamber.

25 And they taryed tyl they were aſhamed, & ſeeing he opened not the doores of the parler, they tooke a key, and opened them: And beholde, theyr lorde was fallen downe dead on the earth.

26 And Ahud eſcaped, whyle they taryed, and was gonne beyonde, to the place of the gra-

27 And when he was comme, *he blewe a trumpet in mount Ephraim: And the chyldren of Iſrael went downe with hym from the hyl, and he went before them.

28 And he ſayde vnto them, Folowe me: for the Lorde hath deliuered your enimies the Moabites into your hande. And they deſcended after hym, and tooke the paſſages of Iordane towarde Moab, and ſuffered not a man to paſſe ouer.

The.iiij.Chapter,

1 Iſrael ſinneth, and are geuen into the handes of Iabie. 4 Debora iudgeth Iſrael, and exhorteth Barac to deliuer the people. 15 Siſara fleeth. 17 And is kylled by Iael.

A 1 AND the chyldren of Iſrael began agayne to doo wickedly in the ſyght of the Lorde, when Ahud was dead.

2 And the Lord ſold them into the hande of (a) Iabin kyng of Chanaan, that raigned in (b) Hazor, whoſe captayne of warre was called Siſara, whiche dwelt in Haroſeth of the gentiles.

(a) This was one of the poſteritie of Iabin, whom Ioſuah ſlue. Ioſ. 11.b. nowe hauing recouered ſtrength to reuenge.
(b) whiche was by Ioſuah deſtroied: but after recouered, & buylded by the enimies.

3 And the chyldren of Iſrael cryed vnto the Lorde (for he had niene hundred charettes of iron: and twentie yeeres he troubled the children of Iſrael very ſore.)

4 And Debora a prophetiſſe, the wife of Lapidoth, iudged Iſrael the ſame tyme.

5 And the ſame Debora dwelt vnder a palme tree, betweene Ramath & Bethel, in mount Ephraim: And the chyldren of Iſrael came vp to her for iudgement.

Iud,v.b.

6 And ſhe ſent, and called *Barac the ſonne of Abinoam, out of Kedes Nephthalim, and ſayde vnto hym, Hath not the Lorde God of Iſrael (c) commaunded, ſayeing, Goe, and drawe towarde mount Thabor, and take with thee tenne thouſand menne of the children of Nephthalim, and of the chyldren of Zabulon?

(c) It ſhould appeare, that ſhe had donne this meſſage vnto him afore: and now calleth vpon hym for the ſame afore the whole multitude.

Pſal,83.b.

7 And I wyl bryng vnto thee to the *riuer Kiſon, Siſara the captayne of warre vnto Iabin, with his charettes and his people, and wyl deliuer him into thyne handes.

B 8 And Barac ſayde vnto her, (d) If thou wylt goe with me, I wyl goe: But yf thou wylt not comme with me, I wyl not goe.

(d) Although his fayth now at the firſt be weake, and therefore deſireth the preſence of the prophetiſſe: yet after it became ſo ſtrong that it is commended by the teſtimonie of the holy ghoſt. Hebre.11.f.

9 She ſaide, I wyl ſurely goe with thee, but this iourney, that thou takeſt ſhal not be for thyne honour: for the Lorde ſhal ſelle Siſara into the hande of a woman. And Debora aroſe and went with Barac to Kedes.

10 And Barac called Zabulon and Nephthalim to Kedes, & lead after hym ten thouſande menne: & Debora went vp with him.

10 (But Haber the Kenite, whiche was of the chyldren of *Hobab, the father in law of Moſes, remoued from the Kenites, and pitched his tent (e) vnto the playne of Zaanaim, whiche is by Kedes.)

Num,x.b.

(e) This large roome, that he occupieth, argueth his ſubſtance to be great: whiche ſhoulde ſeeme to be the cauſe why he departed from the other Kenites.

12 And they ſhewed Siſara, that Barac the ſonne of Abinoam was gonne vp to mount Thabor.

13 And Siſara geathered togeather al his charettes, euen niene hundred charettes of iron, & al yͤ people, that were with him from of Haroſeth of yͤ gentiles, vnto the riuer of Kiſon.

14 And Debora ſaide vnto Barac, Up, for this is the day whiche yͤ Lord hath deliuered Siſara into thine hand: Is not the lord gone out before thee? And ſo Barac went downe frō mount Thabor, and ten thouſand menne after him.

15 But the Lord deſtroyed Siſara & al his charettes, & al his hoſt with the edge of yͤ ſword, before Barac: ſo that Siſara lighted downe of his charet, and fled away on his feete.

Pſal,83,b.

16 But *Barac folowed after the charettes, and after the hoſt, euen vnto Haroſeth of the gentiles: And al the hoſt of Siſara fel vpon the edge of the ſworde, and there was not a man leaſt.

17 Howbeit Siſara fled away on his feete to the tent of Iael the wyfe of (f) Haber the Kenite (for there was peace betweene Iabin the kyng of Hazor, and the houſholde of Haber the Kenite.)

(f) He was of the familie of Iethro Moſes father in lawe, and his anceſtoures ioyned them ſelues to Iſrael in the true worſhipping of God.

18 And Iael went out to meete Siſara, & ſayd vnto him, Turne in my lord, turne in to me, feare not. And when he had turned in vnto her into her tent, ſhe couered hym with a mantel.

19 And he ſaid vnto her, Geue me, I pray thee, a litle water to drinke, for I am thirſty. And ſhe opened *a bottel of mylke, and gaue him drinke, add couered hym.

Iud,v.

20 And agayne he ſaide vnto her, Stande in the doore of the tent, & when any man dooth comme and enquire of thee, whether there be any man here, thou ſhalt ſay, Nay.

21 Then Iahel Habers wyfe, tooke a nayle of the tent, and an hammer in her hand, and went ſoftly vnto hym, and ſmote the nayle into the temples of his head, and faſtened it into the grounde (for he ſlumbred ſore, and was weary) and ſo he dyed.

22 And beholde, as Barac folowed after Siſara, Iael came out to meete hym, and ſayd vnto him, Comme, & I wyl ſhewe thee the man, whom thou ſeekeſt. And when he came in to her tent, beholde Siſara lay dead, and the nayle was in his temples.

23 And ſo GOD brought Iabin the king of Chanaan into ſubiection that day before the chyldren of Iſrael.

24 And the hande of the chyldren of Iſrael proſpered, and preuayled agaynſt Iabin the kyng of Chanaan, vntyl they had deſtroyed Iabin kyng of Chanaan.

The.v.Chapter.

1 The ſong and thankeſgeuyng of Debora and Barac after the victorie.

A 1 Then Debora and Barac yͤ ſonne of Abinoam ſang the ſame day, ſayeing,

2 Prayſe yee the Lorde, for the auengyng of Iſrael, and for the (a) people, that became ſo wyllyng.

3 Heare O ye kynges, hearken O ye princes: I, euen I wyl ſyng vnto the Lorde, I wyl prayſe the Lorde God of Iſrael.

Deut.4.b Dent.2.a. 4 Lorde, when thou wenteſt out of Seir, when thou departedſt out of the feelde of Edom, the earth trembled, and the heauens rayned, the cloudes alſo dropped water:

Pſal.97.a. Exod.19.c 5 The mountaynes melted before the Lord, euen as dyd Sinai before the Lorde God of Iſrael.

6 In the dayes of* Samgar the ſonne of Anath, in the dayes of* Iahel, the high wayes were (b) vnoccupied, and the trauellers walked through by wayes.

B 7 The inhabitantes of the townes were gonne, they were gonne in Iſrael, vntyl I Debora came vp, whiche came vp a (c) mother in Iſrael.

8 They choſe new goddes, and then had they the enimie in the gates: was there a ſhielde or ſpeare ſeene among fourtie thouſande of Iſrael?

9 My hart loueth the gouerners of Iſrael, and them that are wyllyng among the people: O prayſe ye the Lorde.

10 Speake (d) ye, that ryde on fayre aſſes, ye that dwelle by (e) Middin, and that walke by the wayes.

11 For the noyſe of the archers among the (f) drawers of water ceaſſed, there ſhal they ſpeake of the ryghteouſneſſe of the Lorde, his ryghteouſneſſe in his vnfenſed townes in Iſrael: Then ſhal the people of the Lorde goe downe to the gates.

12 Vp Debora vp, geat thee vp, and ſyng a ſong: Aryſe Barac, and leade (g) thy captiuitie captiue, thou ſonne of Abinoam.

13 Then ſhal they that remayne, haue dominion of the proudeſt of the people: The Lord hath geuen me dominion ouer the mighty.

14 Out of Ephraim was there a (h) roote of them agaynſt Amalek, & after thee (i) Beniamin among thy people: Out of Machir came rulers, and out of Zabulon they, that handle the penne of the writer.

15 And of Iſachar there were princes with Debora: and Iſachar, and alſo Barac: he was ſent on foote into the valley: for the diuiſions of Ruben [were] great (k) thoughtes of hart.

16 Why abodeſt thou among the ſheepe foldes, to heare the bletinges of the flockes? for the diuiſions of Ruben, were great thoughtes of hart.

17 (l) Gilead alſo abode beyonde Iordane: and why dooth Dan remayne in ſhippes? Aſer continued on the ſea ſhore, and taried in his decayed (m) places.

18 [But] the people of Zabulon haue ieoperded theyr liues euen vnto yͤ death, like as dyd Nephthalim in the hygh places of the feelde.

19 The kinges came and fought, then fought the kynges of Chanaan in Thanach by the waters of Megiddo, and wanne no money.

20 They fought from heauen, euen the ſtarres in their courſes fought agaynſt Siſara.

21 The riuer of Kiſon ſwept them away, that ancient riuer, the riuer Kiſon: O my ſoule, thou haſt marched valiantly.

22 Then were the horſe hoofes ſmitten aſunder by the meanes of the praunſinges that theyr myghty menne made.

23 Curſe ye the citie of (n) Meros (ſayde the angel of the Lorde) curſe the inhabitantes thereof: becauſe they came not to helpe the Lord, to helpe the Lord againſt the mighty.

24 Iael the wyfe of Haber the Kenite, ſhal be bleſſed aboue other women, bleſſed ſhal ſhe be aboue other women in the tent.

25 He aſked water, and ſhe gaue him mylke, ſhe brought foorth butter in a lordly diſhe.

28 The mother of Siſara looked out at a windowe, and cryed through the latteſſe: Why is his charret ſo long a comming? Why tarie the wheeles of his charettes?

The.vj.Chapter.

1 Iſrael is oppreſſed of the Madianites for their wickedneſſe. 14 Gedeon is ſent to be their deliuerer. 37 He aſked a ſigne.

A 1 AND the chyldren of Iſrael committed (a) wickedneſſe in yͤ ſight of the lord: And the Lorde deliuered them into (b) the handes of Madian ſeuen yeeres.

2 And the hande of Madian preuayled agaynſt Iſrael: and (c) becauſe of the Madianites, the chyldren of Iſrael made them dennes in the mountaynes and caues, and ſtrong holdes.

3 And when Iſrael had ſowen, then came vp the Madianites, the Amalechites, and they of the eaſt, and came vp agaynſt them,

4 And pitched theyr tentes agaynſt them, & deſtroyed the increaſe of the earth, euen tyl thou comme vnto Azah, & leaft no ſuſtenãce for Iſrael, neyther ſheepe, nor oxe, nor aſſe.

5 For they went vp, they and theyr cattel, and came with theyr tentes as a multitude of graſſehoppers, ſo that both they and alſo their camelles were without number: And they entred into the lande to deſtroy it.

6 And ſo was Iſrael exceedyngly impoueriſhed (d) in the ſight of the Madianites, and cryed vnto the Lorde.

7 And when the (e) chyldren of Iſrael cryed vnto the Lord, becauſe of the Madianites,

8 The Lord ſent vnto them a prophete, whiche ſayde vnto them, Thus ſayth the Lorde God of Iſrael, I fet you from Egypt, and brought you out of the houſe of bondage.

B

9 And I ryd you out of the hande of the Egyptians, and out of the hande of al that oppreſſed you, and caſt them out before you, and gaue you theyr lande:

10 And I ſayde vnto you, I am the Lorde your God: * feare not the goddes of the Amorites, in whoſe lande you dwel. But you haue not obeyed my voyce.

11 And the angel of the Lorde came, and ſate vnder an Oke, which was in Ephrah, that perteyned vnto Ioas the father of the Ezrites: And his ſonne Gedeon threaſhed wheate by the wineppreſſe, to hyde it from the Madianites.

12 And the angel of the Lorde appeared vnto hym, and ſayde vnto hym, The Lorde is with thee, thou myghty man.

13 And Gedeon anſweared hym, (f) Oh my Lord, yf the Lord be with vs, why is al this comme vpon vs? Yea, and where be al his miracles, whiche our fathers tolde vs of, and ſayde, Dyd not the Lorde bryng vs out of Egypt? But nowe the Lorde hath forſaken vs, and deliuered vs into the handes of the Madianites.

C

14 And the (g) Lorde looked vpon hym, and ſayde, Goe hence in this thy (h) myght, and thou ſhalt deliuer Iſrael out of the handes of the Madianites: Haue not I ſent thee?

15 And he anſweared him, Oh Lorde, wherewith ſhal I ſaue Iſrael? Beholde my kynred is poore in Manaſſes, and I am litle in my fathers houſe.

16 The Lorde ſayde vnto hym, I wyl be with thee, and thou ſhalt ſmite the Madianites, as they were but one man.

17 And he anſweared hym, Oh, yf I haue found grace in thy ſyght, then ſhewe me a (i) ſigne, that it is thou, that talkeſt with me:

18 Depart not hence, I pray thee, vntil I comme vnto thee, and tyl I bryng myne offering, and haue ſet it before thee. And he ſaid, I wyl tarrie vntyl thou comme agayne.

19 And Gedeon went in, and made ready a kyd, & ſweete cakes of an (k) Epha of floure, and put it with the fleaſhe in a baſket, and put the broth in a pot, and brought it out vnto hym vnder the Oke, and preſented it.

20 And the angel of GOD ſayde vnto hym, Take the fleaſhe and the ſweete cakes, and lay them vpon his rocke, and powre out the broth. And he dyd ſo.

Exo.33.d. Iud.13.d.

23 And the Lorde ſayde vnto hym, Peace be vnto thee: feare not, thou ſhalt not dye.

24 Then Gedeon made an aulter there vnto the Lord, & called it, The Lorde of peace. And vnto this day it is yet in Ephrath, that perteyneth vnto the father of the Eſrites.

25 And the ſame nyght the Lord ſayde vnto hym, Take thy fathers young bullocke, and an other bullocke of ſeuen yeeres olde, and (l) deſtroy the aulter of Baal, that thy father hath, and cut downe the groue, that is by it:

(l) Firſt idolatrie is to be deſtroyed, and true religion to be reſtored: and then the deliuerie of the people, or ciuile gouernance of the ſame to be taken in hande.

26 And make an aulter vnto the Lorde thy God vpon the top of this rocke in a conuenient place: and take the ſeconde bullocke, and offer burnt ſacrifice vpon the wood of the groue, whiche thou ſhalt cut downe.

E 27 Then Gedeon tooke tenne menne of his ſeruantes, and dyd as the Lorde bade hym: But becauſe he feared to doo it by day for his fathers houſholde and the menne of the citie, he dyd it by nyght.

28 And when the menne of the citie aroſe early in the mornyng, beholde the aulter of Baal was broken, and the groue cut downe, that was by it, and the (m) ſeconde bullocke offered vpon the aulter, that was made.

(m) whiche was of ſeuen yeres feeding, and kept to be offered to Baal.

29 And they ſayde one to another, Who hath donne this thing? And when they enquired and aſked, they ſayde, Gedeon the ſonne of Joas hath donne this thing.

30 Then the menne of the citie ſayd vnto Joas, Bryng out thy ſonne, that he may dye: becauſe he hath deſtroied the aulter of Baal, and cut downe the groue that was by it.

31 And Joas ſaid vnto al, that ſtoode by him, Wyl ye pleade Baals cauſe? or wyl ye ſaue hym? He that wyl contende for hym, let him dye ere the mornyng. If he be a God, let him pleade for him ſelfe agaynſt hym, that hath caſt downe his aulter.

32 And from that day, was Gedeon called Jerobaal: becauſe his father had ſayde, Let Baal pleade for hym ſelfe, becauſe he hath broken downe his aulter.

33 Al the Madianites therefore, and the Amalekites, and they of the eaſt, were geathered togeather, and went and pitched in the valley of Jeſrael:

34 But the ſpirite of the Lorde came vpon Gedeon, and he blewe a trumpet, and (n) Abiezer was ioyned with hym.

(n) That is, the famille of Abiezer.

35 And he ſent meſſengers throughout al Manaſſes, whiche alſo was ioyned with hym: and he ſent meſſengers vnto Azar, Zabulon, & Nephthalim, & they came to meete them.

36 And Gedeon ſaid vnto God, yf thou wilt ſaue Iſrael by myne hand, as thou haſt ſaid:

F 37 Behold, I wyl put a fleeſe of wool in the threaſhing place: And yf the dewe comme on the fleeſe only, and it be dry vpon al the earth beſyde, then ſhal I be ſure, that thou wylt ſaue Iſrael by myne hande, as thou ſaydeſt.

38 And it came ſo to paſſe: For he roſe vp early on the morowe, and thruſt the fleeſe togeather, and wrong the dewe thereout, and filled a bole of water.

39 And Gedeon ſayde agayne vnto God, Be not angry with me, that I ſpeake once more: for I wyl proue once agayne by the fleeſe. Let it be drye only vpon the fleeſe, and dewe vpon al the grounde.

40 And God dyd ſo that ſame nyght: For it was drye vpon the fleeſe only, and there was dewe on al the grounde.

The.vij.Chapter.

1 The Lorde commaundeth Gedeon, to ſende away a great part of his companie. 22 The Madianites are diſcomfited by a woonderous ſort. 25 Oreb and Zeeb are ſlayne.

A 1 Then Jerobaal (who is Gedeon) and al the people, that were with hym, roſe vp early, and pitched beſyde the wel of Harad: ſo that the hoſt of the Madianites was on the north ſide of them by the hyl of Moreh in yͤ valley.

2 And the Lorde ſayde vnto Gedeon, The people that are with thee, are to many for me, to geue the Madianites into theyr handes, leſt Iſrael make theyr (a) vaunt agaynſt me, & ſay, Myne owne hand hath ſaued me.

(a) God wyl not, that any creature depriue hym of his glorie.

3 Nowe therefore make a proclamation in the eares of the people, and ſay, * If any man dread or be afearde, let hym returne, and depart early from mount Gilead. And there returned of the people twentie and two thouſande, and there aboade ten thouſande.

Deu.xx.b i.Mal.3.g.

4 And the Lorde ſayde vnto Gedeon, The people are yet to many: bryng them downe vnto the water, and there I wyl trye them vnto thee. And of whom I ſay vnto thee, This man ſhal goe with thee, the ſame ſhal goe with thee. And of whom ſoeuer I ſay vnto thee, This man ſhal not goe with thee, the ſame ſhal not goe.

5 So he brought downe the people vnto the water: And the Lorde ſayde vnto Gedeon, As many as lappe the water with theyr tongues, as a dogge lappeth, them put by them ſelues, and [ſo doo] them that kneele downe vpon theyr knees (b) to drynke.

(b) They ſhal depart as vnmeete for this enterpriſe.

6 And the number of them, that put theyr handes to theyr mouthes and lapped, were three hundred menne: But al the remnant of the people kneeled downe vpon theyr knees to drynke water.

B 7 And the Lorde ſayde vnto Gedeon, By theſe three hundred menne that (c) lapped, wyl I ſaue you, and deliuer the Madianites into thyne hande: And let al the (d) other people goe, euery man vnto his place.

(c) Drunke water, by putting their handes to theyr mouthes, and by lappyng.
(d) Whiche were in number, and parted at two times. xxxi. M and. vii. C.

8 They therefore of the people tooke vitailes with them, and theyr trumpettes: And he ſent al the reſt of Iſrael, euery man vnto his tent, and reteyned thoſe three hundred men: And the hoſte of Madian was beneath him in a valley.

9 And the ſame nyght the Lorde ſayde vnto hym, Aryſe, geat thee downe vnto the hoſt: for I haue deliuered it into thyne hande.

10 But yf thou feare to goe downe, then goe, thou & Phara thy ladde downe to the hoſte.

11 And thou ſhalt hearken what they ſay, and ſo ſhal thyne handes be ſtrong to goe downe vnto the hoſte. Then went he downe, and Phara his ladde, vnto the outſide of the men of armes, that were in the hoſte.

Iud.6.c.

12 And the Madianites, and the Amalekites, and al they of the eaſt lay along in the valley lyke a multitude of graſſehoppers, and theyr camelles were without number, euen as the ſande by the ſea ſyde in multitude.

13 And when Gedeon was comme, beholde, there was a man, that tolde a dreame vnto his neyghbour, and ſayde, Beholde, I dreamed a dreame: and me thought, that a cake of barley bread tumbled into the hoſt of Madian, and came vnto a tent, and ſmote it that it felle, and ouerturned it, that the tent laye along.

C 14 And his felowe anſweared, and ſayde, This is nothyng els but the ſworde of Gedeon, the ſonne of Ioas, a man of Iſrael: for into his hande hath God deliuered Madian, and al the hoſte.

15 When Gedeon hearde the telling of the dreame, and the interpretation of the ſame, he worſhipped, and returned vnto the hoſte of Iſrael, and ſayde, Up, for the Lorde hath deliuered into your hand the hoſt of Madian.

16 And he diuided the three hundred menne into three companies, and gaue euery man a trumpet in his hand, with empty pitchers, and (e) lampes therein,

(e) Theſe weake meanes God vſed, to ſignifie that the whole victorie came of hym.

17 And ſayde vnto them, Looke on me, and doo lykewyſe: that when I comme to the ſyde of the hoſte, euen as I doo, doo you the lyke.

18 When I blowe with a trumpet, and al that are with me, blowe ye with trumpets alſo on euery ſyde of the hoſte, and ſay, For the Lorde, and for Gedeon.

19 So Gedeon and the hundred menne that were with hym, came vnto the outſyde of the hoſte in the begynnyng of the myddle watche, and rayſed vp the watchemenne: And they blewe with theyr trumpettes, and brake the pitchers that were in theyr handes.

20 And the three companies blew with trumpettes, and brake the pitchers, and helde the lampes in their left handes, and the trumpettes in theyr ryght, to blowe withal: And they cryed, The ſworde of the Lorde, and of Gedeon. D

21 And they ſtoode ſtil, euery man in his place rounde about the hoſte: And al the hoſte " ranne, and cryed, and fled.

" Or, Brake theyr array.

22 And the three hundred blewe with trumpettes: and the Lord ſet * euery mans ſworde vpon his (f) neyghbour throughout al the hoſte: and the hoſte fled to Bethhaſitah, to Zererath, and to the edge of the playne of Meholah, vnto Tabbath.

The.viii.Chapter.

1 Ephraim murmureth agaynſt Gedeon, 2 who appeaſeth them. 4 He paſſeth Jordane. 15 He reuengeth hym ſelfe on them of Sucoth and Phanuel. 27 He maketh an Ephod, whiche was the cauſe of idolatrie. 30 Of Gedeons ſonnes, and of his death.

A 1 AND the menne of Ephraim ſaide vnto hym, Why haſt thou ſerued vs thus, that thou calledſt vs not, when thou wenteſt to fyght with the Madianites? And they chode with hym ſharpely.

2 And he ſayde vnto them, What deede haue I donne lyke vnto (a) yours? Is not the (b) gleanyng of the grapes of Ephraim better, then the vinetage of Abiezer?

3 God hath deliuered into your handes the lordes of Madian, Oreb and Zeb. And what was I hable to doo lyke as you haue donne? And then theyr ſprites abated from of hym, when he had ſayde that.

4 And Gedeon came to Jordane, to paſſe ouer, he and the three hundred menne that were with him weary: and yet folowed the chaſe.

5 And he ſayd vnto the menne of (c) Sucoth, Geue, I pray you, cakes of bread vnto the people, that folowe me, for they be faynty: that I may folowe after Zebah, and Zalmana, kynges of Madian.

6 And the lordes of Sucoth ſayde, Are the handes of Zebah and Zalmana nowe in thyne (d) handes, that we ſhoulde geue bread vnto thyne armie.

7 Gedeon ſayde, Therefore, when the Lorde hath deliuered Zebah and Zalmana into myne hande, I wyl teare the fleaſhe of you with the thornes of the wyldernesse, & with bryers.

B 8 And he went vp thence to Phanuel, & ſpake vnto them lykewyſe: And the menne of Phanuel anſweared hym, as dyd the menne of Sucoth.

9 And he ſaid alſo vnto the menne of Phanuel, When I comme agayne (e) in peace, I wyl breake downe this towre.

10 Zebah and Zalmana were in Carcor, and their hoſtes with them, vpon fifteene thouſande menne, whiche were al that were leaft of al the hoſtes of them of the eaſt: For there were ſlayne an hundred and twentie thouſande menne that drewe ſwordes.

11 And Gedeon went through them that dwelt in tabernacles on the eaſt ſyde of Nobah and Jegbahah, and ſmote the hoſte: for the hoſte dyd caſt no perilles.

12 And when Zebah and Zalmana fled, he folowed after them, and tooke the two kynges of Madian, Zebah and Zalmana, and diſcomfited al the hoſte.

13 And Gedeon the ſonne of Joas, returned from batayle afore the ſunne was vp,

C 14 And caught a ladde of the menne of Sucoth, and enquired of hym: And he wrote him of the lordes and elders of Sucoth threeſcore and ſeuentiene menne.

15 And he came vnto the menne of Sucoth, and ſayde, Beholde Zeba and Zalmana, with whom ye dyd caſt me in the teeth, ſaying, Are the handes of Zebah and Zalmana already in thyne hande, that we ſhould geue bread vnto thy faynty menne.

16 And he tooke the elders of the citie, and thornes of the wyldernesse, and bryers, and dyd teare the menne of Sucoth with them.

17 And he brake downe the towre of Phanuel, and ſlue the menne of the citie.

18 And then ſayde he vnto Zebah and Zalmana, What manner of menne were they, whom ye ſlue at Thabor? And they anſweared, The likeneſſe of thee and them is al one, euen after the faſhion of the chyldren of a kyng.

19 And he ſaid, They were my brethren, euen my (f) mothers chyldren: As truely as the Lorde liueth, yf ye had ſaued theyr liues, I woulde not ſlay you.

D 20 And he ſayde vnto Jether his eldeſt ſonne, Up, and ſlay them. But the ladde drue not his ſworde: for he feared, becauſe he was yet but young.

21 Then Zebah and Zalmana ſayde, Ryſe thou, and falle vpon vs: for as (g) the man is, ſo is his ſtrength. And Gedeon aroſe, and ſlue Zebah and Zalmana, and tooke away the ornamentes, that were on their camelles neckes.

22 Then the menne of Iſrael ſaide vnto Gedeon, Raigne thou ouer vs, both thou, and thy ſonne, and thy (h) ſonnes ſonne, for thou haſt deliuered vs out of the hand of Madian.

23 And Gedeon ſayde vnto them, I wyl not raigne ouer you, neyther ſhal my chylde raigne ouer you: but the Lord ſhal (i) raigne ouer you.

24 And againe Gedeon ſayde vnto them, I would deſyre a requeſt of you, euen that you woulde geue me euery man the earynges of his pray. For they had golden earynges: becauſe they were Iſmaelites.

25 And they anſweared, We wyl geue them.

(a) Whiche haue ſlayne two princes Oreb & Zeb.

(b) This laſt act of the whole tribe, is more famous then the enterpriſe of one man of one familie.

(c) A citie beyonde Jordane in the tribe of Gad, whiche Jacob buylded, when he parted frō ſaluting his brother Eſau.

(d) They can not beleue, that Gedeon is able to ouercomme the princes, and therefore they mocke hym, and churliſhly denye hym reliefe.

(e) Hauyng gotten the victorie.

(f) Euen nature forceth me to reuenge their deathes.

(g) Meaning, that they woulde be ryd out of theyr payne at once: or that they thought it diſhonour, to be put to death by a boy.

(h) That is, thy poſteritie.

(i) By ſuche a one as he ſhal chooſe, accordyng to the ſentence of his holy worde, to rule and to mayntayne his true religion.

And they ſpread a mantel, and dyd caſt therein euery man the earinges of his pray.

26 And the weight of the golden earinges that he required, was a thouſande and ſeuen hundred ſicles of golde, beſide chaynes and iewels, and purple rayment, that was on the kinges of Madian, and beſide the chaynes, that were about their camelles neckes.

E 27 And Gedeon made an (k) Ephod thereof, and put it in his citie Ephrah: And al Iſrael went a whooryng after it in the ſame place: Whiche thing became a ruine vnto Gedeon, and to his houſe.

(k) To be a teſtimonie of this victorie: But afterwarde abuſed to idolatrie.

28 Thus was Madian brought lowe before the chyldren of Iſrael, ſo that they lyfted vp theyr heades no more: and the countrey was in quietneſſe fourtie yeeres in the dayes of Gedeon.

29 And Ierobaal the ſonne of Ioas, went and dwelt in his owne houſe.

30 And Gedeon had threeſcore and ten ſonnes of his body begotten: for he had many wiues.

31 And his concubine, that was in Sichem, bare him a ſonne alſo, whoſe name he called Abimelech.

32 And Gedeon the ſonne of Ioas dyed in a good age, and was buried in the ſepulchre of Ioas his father, euen in Ephrah, that perteyned vnto the father of the Eſrites.

33 But as ſoone as Gedeon was dead, the chyldren of Iſrael turned away, and went a whooryng after Baalim, and made a couenant with Baal, to be theyr God.

34 And the chyldren of Iſrael thought not on the Lorde theyr God, whiche had deliuered them out of the handes of al theyr enemies on euery ſide:

35 Neyther (l) ſhewed they mercie on the houſe of Ierobaal [otherwyſe called] Gedeon, accordyng to al the goodneſſe, whiche he had ſhewed vnto Iſrael.

(l) An Ebrue phraſe, whereby is meant, that they were neither thankful, nor kynde, nor louyng, nor beneficial to the chyldre of Ierobaal.

The.ix.Chapter.

1 Abimelech vſurpeth the kyngdome, and putteth his brethren to death. 7 Ioatham propoſeth a parable. 23 Hatred betweene Abimelech, and the Sichemites. 26 Gaal conſpireth agaynſt hym, and is ouercomme. 53 Abimelech is wounded to death by a woman.

A 1 ABimelech the ſonne of Ierobaal went to Sichem vnto his mothers brethrē, & communed with them, and with al the kynrede of the houſe of his mothers father, ſayeing,

2 Say, I pray you, in the eares of al the men of Sichem, whether is better for you, that al the ſonnes of Ierobaal, (whiche are threeſcore and ten perſons) raigne ouer you: or that one raigne ouer you? Remember, that I am of your bone, and of your fleaſhe.

3 And his mothers brethren ſpake of hym in the audience of al the menne of Sichem al theſe wordes: and their hartes were moued to folowe Abimelech: For they ſayde, He is our brother.

4 And they gaue hym threeſcore and tenne peeces of ſiluer out of the houſe of Baal Berith: wherewith Abimelech hyred vayne & lyght perſones, whiche went with hym.

5 And he went vnto his fathers houſe at Ephrah, and (a) ſlue his brethren, the ſonnes of Ierobaal, beyng threeſcore & ten perſones vpon one ſtone: Notwithſtandyng, yet Ioatham the youngeſt ſonne of Ierobaal eſcaped: for he hyd hym ſelfe.

(a) The deſire of ſoueraintie, where it rooteth, ſhedeth the innocent blood that is founde in his way, as a woolfe deuoureth lambes.

6 And al the menne of Sichem geathered togeather, and al the houſe of Mello, and came and made Abimelech kyng in the playne, where the ſtone was in Sichem.

7 And when they tolde it to Ioatham, he went and ſtoode in the top of mount Garizim, and lyfted vp his voyce, and cryed, and ſayde vnto them, Hearken vnto me you menne of Sichem, that God may hearken vnto you. B

8 (b) The trees went foorth to annoint a king ouer them, and ſayde vnto the Oliue tree, Raigne thou ouer vs.

9 But the Oliue tree ſaid vnto them, Should I leaue my fatneſſe, wherewith by me they honour (c) God and man, and be promoted ouer the trees?

10 And the trees ſaid to the figge tree, Comme thou, and be kyng ouer vs.

11 The figge tree anſweared them, Shoulde I forſake my ſweeteneſſe, & my good fruite, and goe to be promoted ouer the trees?

12 Then ſaid the trees vnto the vine, Comme thou, and be kyng ouer vs.

13 The vine ſayd vnto them, Should I leaue my wine, whereby I cheare both (d) God & man, and goe to be promoted ouer the trees?

14 Then ſayde al the trees vnto the bryer, Comme thou, and raigne ouer vs.

15 And the bryer ſayde vnto the trees, If it be true, that ye wyl annoynt me kyng ouer you, then comme, and put your truſt vnder my ſhadowe: If no, the (e) fyre comme out of the bryer, & waſte the Cedar trees of Libanō.

16 Now therefore, yf ye doo truely, & vncorruptly, to make Abimelech king, & if ye haue

18 And ye are ryſen vp agaynſte my fathers houſe this day, and haue ſlayne his chyldren, beyng threeſcore and tenne perſons, vpon one ſtone, and haue made Abimelech the ſonne of his mayde ſeruant, kyng ouer the menne of Sichem, becauſe he is your brother.)

19 If ye then haue dealt truely & purely with Ierobaal, & with his houſe this day, then reioyce ye with Abimelech, and let him reioyce with you.

D 20 But if you haue not dealt truely, then let a fyre comme out of Abimelech, & conſume the menne of Sichem, and the houſe of Mello: & let there comme out a fyre from among the menne of Sichem, and out of the houſe of Mello, and conſume Abimelech.

21 And Ioatham ranne away and fledde, and went to Beer, and dwelt there, for feare of Abimelech his brother.

22 When Abimelech had raigned three yeeres ouer Iſrael,

23 God(g) ſent an euyl ſpirite betweene Abimelech, and the menne of Sichem: and the citizens of Sichem brake their promiſe to Abimelech,

24 That the wickedneſſe donne to the three ſcore and tenne ſonnes of Ierobaal myght comme on him, and that God might lay the blood of them vnto Abimelech their brother, which ſlue them, and vpon the other menne of Sichem whiche aided him in the kylling of his brethren.

25 And the citizens of Sichē ſet menne to lay in waite for thē in the top of ỹ mountaynes: which menne robbed al that came along the way by them: And it was tolde Abimelech.

26 And Gaal the ſonne of Obed came with his brethren, and they gate them to Sichem: & the menne of Sichem put their confidence in hym.

E 27 And they went out into the fieldes, & geathered in their grapes, and trode them, and made meary, & went into the houſe of their god, and did eate & drink, & curſed Abimelech.

28 And Gaal the ſonne of Obed ſayde, What is Abimelech? and what is Sichem, that we ſhould ſerue hym? Is he not the ſonne of Ierobaal? and is not Zebul his officer? Serue ſuche as comme of Hemor the father of Sichem: for what reaſon is it, that we ſhoulde ſerue hym?

29 Woulde God this people were vnder my hande: then would I take Abimelech out of the way. And he ſpake agaynſt Abimelech, Make thyne hoſt greater, and goe out.

30 And when Zebul the ruler of the citie hearde the woordes of Gaal the ſonne of Obed, he was wroth:

31 And ſent meſſengers vnto Abimelech priuily, ſayeing, Beholde, Gaal the ſonne of Obed, and his brethren, be comme to Sichem, & beholde they fortifie the citie agaynſt thee.

32 Nowe therfore vp by night, thou and the people that is with thee, and lye in wayte in the fielde.

33 And ryſe early in the mornyng, as ſoone as the ſunne is vp, and falle vpon the citie: And if he & the people that is with hym, comme out agaynſt thee, doo to hym, what thyne handes ſhalbe hable. F

34 And Abimelech roſe vp, and al the people, that were with hym, by nyght, and they lay in wayte agaynſte Sichem in foure companies.

35 And Gaal the ſonne of Obed went out, & ſtoode in the entryng of the gate of the citie: And Abimelech roſe vp, and the folke, that were with hym, from lyeing in wayte.

36 And when Gaal ſawe the people, he ſayd to Zebul, Behold, there come people downe from the toppe of the mountaynes. And Zebul ſayde vnto hym, (h) The ſhadowe of the hylles ſeeme menne vnto thee.

37 And Gaal anſweared agayne, and ſayde, See, there comme folke downe by the midle of the lande, & an other companie commeth along by the playne of the charmers.

38 Then ſayde Zebul vnto hym, Where is nowe thy mouth, that ſayde, What felowe is Abimelech, that we ſhoulde ſerue hym? Is not this the people that thou haſt deſpiſed? Goe out nowe, and fyght with them.

39 And Gaal went out before the citizens of Sichem, and fought with Abimelech. G

40 And Abimelech chaſed hym, that he fled before hym, and many were ouerthrowen & wounded, euen vnto the entryng of the gate.

41 And Abimelech dwelt at Arumah: and Zebul thruſte out Gaal & his brethren, that they ſhoulde not dwel in Sichem.

42 And on the morowe the people went out into the fielde: And they tolde Abimelech.

43 And he tooke the people and diuided them into three companies, and laye in wayte in the fielde, and looked, and beholde the people were comme out of the citie, and he ran vpon them, and ſmote them.

44 And Abimelech, and the companies, that

(g) Becauſe the people conſented with the king in ſhedding innocent blood: therefore God deſtroyed both the one and the other.

(h) By theſe woordes he mocked Gaal, for the bragge he made before agaynſt Abimelech.

that were with him, ruſhed forward, & ſtood in the entring of the gate of the citie: and the two other companies ranne vpon al the people, that were in the fieldes, and ſlue them.

45 And when Abimelech had fought againſt the citie al that day, he tooke it, and ſlue the people that was therein, and deſtroyed the citie, and ſowed (i) ſalte in it.

46 And when al the menne of the towre of Sichem heard that, they entred into an hold of the houſe of the god (k) Berith.

47 And it was tolde Abimelech, that al the menne of the towre of Sichem were geathered togeather.

48 And Abimelech gate him to mount Zelmon, both he & al the people that were with hym, and tooke axes with hym, & cut downe bowes of trees, & tooke them & bare them on his ſhoulder, & ſaide vnto the folke that were with him, What ye haue ſeene me doo, ſpeed your ſelues, & doo likewiſe as I haue donne.

49 And al the menne that were among the people, cut downe bowes, and folowed Abimelech, and put them into the holde, and ſet the holde a fyre by them: ſo that al the menne of the towre of Sichem dyed alſo, aboute a thouſande menne and women.

50 Then went Abimelech to Thebez, and beſieged it, and tooke it.

51 But there was a ſtrong towre within the citie, and thither ranne al the menne and womenne, & al the chiefe that were in the citie, and ſhut it to them, and gate them vp to the toppe of the towre.

52 And Abimelech came vnto the towre, and fought agaynſt it, & went harde to the doore of the towre to ſet it on fyre.

53 And a certayne woman * caſt a peece of a mylſtone vpon his head, and al to brake his brayne panne.

54 Then Abimelech called haſtyly vnto the young man that bare his harneſſe, and ſayde vnto hym, Drawe thy ſworde, and ſlay me, that menne ſay not of me, A woman ſlue hym: And his ladde thruſt hym thorowe, and he dyed.

55 And when the menne of Iſrael ſawe that Abimelech was dead, they departed euery man vnto his owne houſe.

56 Thus God rendred the wickedneſſe of Abimelech, whiche he dyd vnto his father, in ſlaieng his ſeuentie brethren.

57 And therto al the wickednes of the menne of Sichem, did god bring vpon their heades: & vpon them came the (l) curſe of Ioatham the ſonne of Ierobaal.

10 And the chyldren of Iſrael cryed vnto the Lord, ſayeing, We haue ſinned agaynſt thee, for we haue forſaken our owne God, & haue ſerued Baalim.

11 And the Lorde (d) ſayde vnto the chyldren of Iſrael, Dyd not I rydde you from the Egyptians, and from the Amorites, and from the Philiſtines?

12 The Sidonites alſo, and the Amalekites, and the Moanites dyd oppreſſe you, and ye cryed to me, and I deliuered you out of their handes.

14 Goe & crye vnto the goddes, which ye haue choſen, and let them ſaue you in the tyme of your tribulation.

15 And the chyldren of Iſrael ſayde vnto the Lorde, We haue ſynned, doo thou vnto vs, whatſoeuer pleaſeth thee, deliuer vs only, we pray thee this day.

16 And they put away the ſtraunge goodes from them, and ſerued the Lorde: And his ſoule had pitie on the miſerie of Iſrael.

17 Then the chyldren of Ammon geathered togeather, and pitched in Gilead: And the children of Iſrael geathered them togeather, and pitched in Miſpah.

18 And the people & lordes of Gilead ſayd eche to other, Whoſoeuer wil beginne the batayle agaynſt the chyldren of Ammon, the ſame ſhalbe head ouer al yͤ inhabitantes of Gilead.

The.xj.Chapter.

2 Iephthah being chaſed away by his brethren, was after made captayne ouer Iſrael. 30 He maketh a raſhe vowe. 32 He vanquiſheth the Ammonites. 39 And ſacrificeth his daughter accordyng to his vowe.

1 AND there was one Iephthah a Gileadite, a ſtrōg man, the ſonne of an harlot.

2 And Gilead begate Iephthah: and Gileads wife bare him ſōnes, whiche when they were comme to age, thruſt out Iephthah, and ſayde vnto hym, Thou ſhalt not inherite in our fathers houſe: for thou art the ſonne of a (a) ſtraunge woman.

3 Then Iephthah fledde from his brethren, and dwelt in the lande of (b) Tob: And there geathered idle menne to Iephthah, & (c) went out with hym.

(a) Neuer receiued to the priueledge of a wyfe.

4 And in proceſſe of tyme, the chyldren of Ammon made warre agaynſt Iſrael.

5 And when the chyldren of Ammon fought thus agaynſte Iſrael, the elders of Gilead wēt to fet Iephthah out of the land of Tob,

6 And ſayd vnto hym, Comme, and (d) be our captayne, that we may fyght with the chyldren of Ammon.

(d) God can bring the caſtaway, to haue rule ouer his oppreſſours: Let no man therefore exalt hym ſelfe, and deſpiſe any man of Gods creation.

7 Iephthah anſweared the elders of Gilead: Dyd not ye hate me, and expel me out of my fathers houſe? howe then comme you vnto me nowe in tyme of your troubles?

B

8 And the elders of Gilead ſayd vnto Iephthah, Therefore we turne agayne to thee nowe, that thou mayeſt goe with vs, & fight agaynſt the chyldren of Ammon, and be our head ouer al the inhabitantes of Gilead.

9 And Iephthah ſaid vnto yͤ elders of Gilead, If ye bring me home agayn to fight againſt the chyldren of Ammon, then yf the Lorde delyuer them before me, ſhal I be your head?

10 And the elders of Gilead ſaid to Iephthah, The Lorde be witneſſe betweene vs, if we doo not accordyng to thy wordes.

11 Then Iephthah went with the elders of Gilead, and the people made hym head and captaine ouer thē: And Iephthah rehearſed al his wordes before the Lorde in Miſpah.

12 And Iephthah ſent meſſengers vnto the kyng of the chyldren of Ammon, ſayeing, What haſt thou to doo with me, that thou art comme againſt me, to fight in my land?

13 The kyng of the chyldren of Ammon anſweared vnto the meſſengers of Iephthah, Becauſe Iſrael tooke away my land, when they came out of Egypt, euen from Arnon vnto Iabok, and vnto Iordane: Now therfore reſtore thoſe landes agayne " with fayre meanes.

" Hebre, In peace.

C

14 And Iephthah ſent meſſengers agayne vnto the kyng of the chyldren of Ammon,

15 And ſayd vnto him, Thus ſaid Iephthah, * Iſrael tooke not away the lande of Moab, nor the lande of the chyldren of Ammon.

Deut,2,b.

16 But when Iſrael came vp from Egypt, and walked thorow the wylderneſſe, euen vnto the red ſea, they came to Cades:

17 And Iſrael ſent meſſengers vnto the king of Edom, ſayeing, Let me, I pray thee, goe thorowe thy lande: But the kyng of Edom would not agree therto. And in lyke manner they ſent vnto yͤ king of Moab: but he would not conſent. And Iſrael abode ſtyl in Cades.

18 And then they went along thorow the wilderneſſe, and compaſſed the lande of Edom, and the lande of Moab, and came along by the eaſtſide of the land of Moab, and pitched on the other ſyde of Arnon, and woulde not comme within the coaſt of Moab: for Arnon was the border of Moab.

19 And then Iſrael * ſent meſſengers vnto Sehon king of the Amorites, & king of Heſbon, & ſaide vnto him, Let vs paſſe we pray thee thorow thy lād vnto our own countrey.

Deut,2,c.

20 But Sehon conſented not to Iſrael, that he ſhould goe thorow his coaſt: but geathered al his people togeather, and pitched in Iaſa, and fought with Iſrael.

D

21 And the Lorde God of Iſrael deliuered Sehon, and al his folke into the handes of Iſrael, & they ſmote them: So Iſrael ſmote them, and poſſeſſed al the lande of the Amorites the inhabitantes of that countrey.

22 And they poſſeſſed al the coaſtes of the Amorites from Arnon vnto Iabok, and from the wylderneſſe vnto Iordane.

23 So nowe, ſeeyng the Lorde God of Iſrael hath caſt out the Amorites before his people Iſrael, ſhouldeſt thou poſſeſſe it?

24 Nay, but what people Camos thy God driueth out, that lande poſſeſſe thou: Euen ſo whatſoeuer nation the [e] lord our God expelleth before vs, that land ought we to enioy.

25 And art thou better then Balac the ſonne of Zephor kyng of Moab? Did he not ſtriue with Iſrael, and fyght agaynſte them,

26 All the whyle Iſrael dwelt in Heſbon and her townes, in Aroer and her townes, and in al the cities, that be along by the coaſtes of Arnon three hundred yeeres? Why did ye not recouer them in al that ſpace?

E 27 Wherfore I haue not ſinned againſt thee, but thou dooeſt me wrong to warre againſt me: The Lorde therefore, whiche is a iudge, be iudge this day betweene the chyldren of Iſrael, and the chyldren of Ammon.

28 Howbeit, the kyng of the chyldren of Ammon hearkened not vnto the woordes of Iepthath, whiche he ſent hym.

29 Then the [f] ſpirite of the Lorde came vpon Iepthath, and he paſſed ouer to Gilead, and to Manaſſes, and came to Miſpah that lyeth in Gilead, & from thence vnto the chyldren of Ammon.

30 And Iepthath vowed a vowe vnto the Lorde, and ſayde, If thou ſhalt deliuer the children of Ammon into my handes, 31 Then that thing, that commeth out of the doores of my houſe agaynſt me, when I comme home in peace from the chyldren of Ammon, ſhalbe the Lordes, and I wyl offer it vp for a burnt offeryng.

32 And ſo Iepthath went vnto the chyldren of Ammon to fyght agaynſt them, and the Lorde delyuered them into his handes.

33 And he ſmote them from Aroer, tyl thou comme to Mennith, euen twentie cities, and ſo foorth to the playne of the vineyardes, with an exceedyng great ſlaughter: And thus the chyldren of Ammon were brought vnder, before the chyldren of Iſrael. F

34 When Iepthath came to Miſpah vnto his houſe, beholde, his daughter came out agaynſt hym, with [g] timbrelles, and daunces, and ſhe was his only chylde, ſo that beſyde her, he had neyther ſonne nor daughter.

35 And when he ſawe her, he [h] rent his clothes, and ſayd, Alas my daughter, thou haſt brought me lowe, and art one of them that trouble me: For I haue opened my mouth vnto the Lorde, and cannot goe backe.

36 And ſhe ſaid vnto hym, My father, if thou haue opened thy mouth vnto the Lord, then doo with me accordyng to it, that proceeded out of thy mouth, for as muche as the Lorde hath auenged thee of thyne enimies the chyldren of Ammon.

37 And ſhe ſayde vnto her father, Doo thus muche for me: Let me alone two monethes, that I may goe to the mountaynes, and [i] bewayle my virginitie, I and my felowes.

38 And he ſayde, Goe. And he ſent her away two monethes: And ſo ſhe went with her companions, and lamented her maydenhed vpon the mountaynes.

39 And after the ende of two monethes, ſhe turned agayne vnto her father, whiche dyd with her accordyng to his vowe, whiche he vowed, and ſhe had knowen no man: and it grewe to a cuſtome in Iſrael, 40 The daughters of Iſrael came yeere by yeere to lament the daughter of Iepthath the Gileadite, foure dayes in a yeere.

The.xii.Chapter.

6 Iepthath kylleth two and fourtie thouſand Ephraimites. 8 After Iepthath ſucccedeth Ibſan, 11 Elon, 13 and Abdon.

A 1 AND the men of Ephraim geathered thē ſelues togeather, and went [a] northward, and ſayd vnto Iepthath, Wherefore wenteſt thou to fyght [b] agaynſt the chyldren of Ammon, and dyddeſt not cal vs to goe with thee? We wyl therefore burne thyne houſe vpon thee with fyre.

2 And Iepthath ſayde vnto them, I and my people were at great ſtryfe with the chyldren of Ammon: and when I called you, ye deliuered me not out of their handes.

3 And when I ſaw that ye deliuered me not, [c] I put my lyfe in my handes, and went vpon the children of Ammon: and the Lord delyuered them into my handes: Wherefore then are ye comme vpon me nowe, to fight agaynſt me?

4 Iepthath therefore geathered togeather al the menne of Gilead, and fought with the Ephraites. And the menne of Gilead ſmote the Ephraites, becauſe they ſaide, Ye Gileadites are but vagabundes of Ephraim, among the Ephraites and the Manaſſites.

5 Moreouer, the menne of Gilead tooke ỷ paſſages of Iordane before the Ephraites: And when 15 He dyed, and was buryed in Pharathon, in the lande of Ephraim, in the mount of the Amalekites.

2 And there was a man in Zaraah of the kynrede of Dan, named Manoah, whoſe wyfe was barren, and bare not.

3 And the angel of the Lorde appeared vnto the woman, and ſayde vnto her, Beholde, nowe thou art barren, & beareſt not, but thou ſhalt conceiue, and beare a ſonne.

4 And nowe therefore, beware that thou drynke no wyne, nor ſtrong drynke, neyther eate any vncleane thyng:

5 For loe, thou ſhalt conceiue & beare a ſonne, & there may no * raſour comme on his head, for the ladde ſhalbe (a) a Nazarite vnto God, euen frõ his byrth: And he ſhal begin to ſaue Iſrael out of the handes of the Philiſtines.

8 Then Manoah made interceſſion to the Lorde, and ſayde, I pray thee, my Lorde, let the man of god which thou ſendedſt, comme againe vnto vs, and teach vs, what we ſhal doo vnto the ladde, when he is borne.

9 And God heard the voyce of Manoah, and the angel of god came againe vnto the wife, as ſhe ſate in the fielde: but Manoah her huſbande was not with her.

2 Samſon deſyreth to haue a wyfe of the Philiſtines. 6 He kylleth a Lion. 12 He propoundeth a ryddle. 19 He kylleth thirtie. 20 His wyfe forſaketh hym, and taketh another.

A 1 SAmſon went downe to Thamnath, and ſawe a woman in Thamnath of the daughters of the Philiſtines:

“ Heb, take her for me to wyfe.

3 Then his father and mother ſayde vnto hym, (a) Is there neuer a woman among the daughters of thy brethren, and among al my people, but that thou muſt goe, & take a wife of ye vncircumciſed Philiſtines? And Samſon ſayde vnto his father, Geue me this woman, for ſhe pleaſeth me wel.

4 But his father and mother (b) wyſt not, that it was the Lordes dooyng, and that he ſought an occaſion agaynſt the Philiſtines: for at that tyme the Philiſtines raigned ouer Iſrael.

(b) At the firſt: but it is lyke, they had vnderſtanding of Gods wyl afore they dyd conſent.

5 Then went Samſon and his father and his mother downe to Thamnath, and came to the vineyardes of Thamnath: & beholde, a young Lion roared vpon hym.

6 And the ſpirite of the Lorde (c) came vpon hym, and he tare hym, as he woulde haue rent a kydde, & yet had nothyng in his hand, neyther tolde he his father and mother what he had donne,

B 7 And he went downe and talked with the woman, which ſeemed wel fauoured in the ſyght of Samſon.

8 And within a ſhorte ſpace after, as he went thyther agayne to take her to wife, he turned out of the way, to ſee the carkaſſe of the Lion: & beholde, there was a ſwarme of Bees, and hony in the carkaſſe of the Lion.

9 And he tooke thereof in his handes, & went eatyng, and came to his father and mother, and gaue them alſo, and they dyd eate: But he tolde not them that he had taken the hony out of the carkaſſe of the Lion.

10 And ſo his father went downe vnto the woman, and Samſon made there (d) a feaſt: for ſo vſed the young menne to doo.

11 And when they ſawe hym, they brought thirtie companions to be with him.

13 But if you can not declare it me, then ſhal ye geue me thirtie ſheetes, and thirtie change of (f) garmentes: And they anſweared him, Put foorth thy riddle, that we may heare it.

14 And he ſayde vnto them, Out of the eater came meate, & out of the ſtrong came ſweeteneſſe. And they coulde not in three dayes expounde the ryddle.

15 And when the (g) ſeuenth day was comme, they ſayde vnto Samſons wyfe, Flatter thyne huſbande, that he may declare vs the ryddle, leſt we burne thee, and thy fathers houſe with fyre: Haue ye called vs hither to make vs beggers? is it not ſo?

(g) Of the weeke, whiche was the fourth day of the feaſt.

16 And Samſons wyfe wept before him, & ſayde, Surely thou hateſt me, and loueſt me not: for thou haſt put foorth a riddle vnto the chyldren of my folke, and haſt not told it me. And he ſayde vnto her, Beholde, I haue not tolde it my father, and my mother, and ſhal I telle it thee?

17 And Samſons wyfe wept before hym ſeuen dayes, whyle the feaſt laſted: And the ſeuenth day he tolde her, becauſe ſhe lay ſo ſore vpon hym. And ſhe tolde the ryddle to the chyldren of her folke.

18 And the menne of the citie ſayd vnto hym the ſeuenth daye, before the ſunne went downe, What is ſweeter then hony? & what is ſtronger then a Lion? Then ſayd he vnto them, If ye had not plowed with my (h) heyfer, ye had not founde out my ryddle.

19 And the ſpirite of the Lorde came vpon hym, and he went downe to (l) Aſkalon, and ſlue thirtie menne of them, and ſpoyled them, and gaue change of garmentes vnto them, whiche expounded the ryddle: And he was wroth, and went vp to his fathers houſe.

D 20 But Samſons wife was geuen to one of his cõpanions, that he had taken vnto hym.

The.xv.Chapter.

4 Samſon tyeth fyrebrandes to the foxes tayles. 6 The Philiſtines burnt his father in lawe and his wyfe. 15 With the iawe bone of an aſſe he kylleth a thouſande menne. 19 Out of a great tooth in the iawe bone, God gaue hym water.

A 1 BUt within a whyle after, euẽ in the time of wheat harueſt, Samſon viſited his wyfe with a kydde, ſayeing, I wyl (a) goe in to my wyfe into the chãmber. But her father woulde not ſuffer him to goe in.

2 And her father ſayde, I thought that thou haddeſt hated her, and therfore gaue I her to thy companion: Is not her younger ſyſter fayrer then ſhe? Take her, I pray thee, in ſteede of the other.

3 Samſon ſaid vnto hym, Now am I more (b) blameleſſe then the Philiſtines, and therfore I wyl doo them diſpleaſure.

4 And Samſon went out, and caught three hundred foxes, and tooke fyrebrandes, and turned them tayle to tayle, and put a fyrebrande in the myddes betweene two tayles.

5 And when he had ſet the brandes on fyre, he ſent them out into the ſtandyng corne of the Philiſtines, and burnt vp both the reaped corne, and alſo the ſtandyng, with the vyneyardes and oliues.

6 Then the Philiſtines ſayde, Who hath donne this? And they anſweared, Samſon the ſonne in lawe of the Thamnite, becauſe he had taken his wyfe, and geuen her to his companion. And the Philiſtines came vp, and (c) burnt her, and her father with fyre.

7 And Samſon ſayde vnto them, Though ye haue donne this, yet wyl I be auenged of you, and then wyl I ceaſe.

8 And he ſmote them legge and thygh with a myghty plague, and then he went & dwelt in the toppe of the rocke Etam.

B 9 Then the Philiſtines came vp, and pitched in Iuda, and camped in Lehi.

10 And the menne of Iuda ſayde, Why are ye comme vp vnto vs? They anſweared, To bynde Samſon are we comme vp, and to doo to hym, as he hath donne to vs.

11 Then three thouſand menne of Iuda went to the toppe of the rocke of Etam, and ſayde to Samſon, Woteſt thou not that the Philiſtines are rulers ouer vs? Wherefore then haſt thou donne thus vnto vs? He anſweared them, As they haue donne vnto me, ſo haue I donne vnto them.

12 And they ſayd vnto hym agayne, We are comme to bynde thee, and to delyuer thee into the hand of the Philiſtines. And Samſon ſayde vnto them, Sweare vnto me, that ye wyl not falle vpon me your ſelues.

13 They anſweared hym, ſayeing, No, but we wyl bynd thee, and (d) delyuer thee vnto their handes, but we wyl not kylle thee. And they bound him with two new cordes, & brought hym from the rocke.

C 14 And when he came to Lehi, the Philiſtines ſhooted agaynſt hym: And the ſpirite of the Lorde came vpon hym, and the cordes that were vpon his armes, became as flaxe that is burnt with fyre, for the bandes looſed from of his handes.

15 And he founde (e) a newe iawe bone of an aſſe, and put foorth his hande, and caught it, and ſlue a thouſande menne therewith.

16 And Samſon ſayde, With the iawe of an aſſe, heapes vpon heapes, with the iaw of an aſſe haue I ſlayne a thouſande menne.

17 And when he had leaft ſpeakyng, he caſt away the iawe bone out of his hande, and called the place (f) Ramath Lehi.

18 And he was ſore a thyrſt, and called on the Lorde, and ſayde, thou haſt geuen this great victorie in the hande of thy ſeruant: and now I muſt dye for thyrſt, and fal into the handes of the vncircumciſed.

19 But God brake a great tooth that was in the iawe, & there came water thereout, and when he had drunke, his ſpirit came againe, and he was refreaſhed: Wherefore the name therof was called vnto this day, The wel of the caller on, whiche came of the iawe.

The.xvi.Chapter.

1 Samſon carryeth away the gates of Azzah. 18 He was deceiued by Dalila. 30 He pulleth downe the houſe vpon the Philiſtines, and dyeth with them.

A 1 Then went Samſon to Azzah, and ſawe there an harlot, and went in vnto her.

2 And it was tolde the Azathites, ſaieing, Samſon is comme hither. And they went about, & layd waite for hym there al night in the gate of the citie, and were ſtyl al the night, ſayeing, In the mornyng when it is day, we ſhal kylle hym.

3 And Samſon tooke his reaſt til midnight, and aroſe at midnyght, and tooke the doores of the gate of the citie, and the two poſtes, and rente them of with the barre and al, and put them vpon his ſhoulders, and caried them vp to the toppe of an hyl, that is before Hebron.

" Or playne.

4 And after this, he loued a woman by the " ryuer of Sorek, whoſe name was Dalila.

5 Unto whom came the lordes of the Philiſtines, and ſaid vnto her, (a) Perſwade him, and ſee wherein his great ſtrength lyeth, and by what meanes we may ouercomme him, that we may bynde hym, and pouniſh him: and euery one of vs ſhal geue thee a leuen hundred ſyluerlynges.

(a) Entiſe hym by fayre meanes, to telle wherein his ſtrength conſiſteth.

6 And Dalila ſaide to Samſon, Oh, telle me, where thy great ſtrength lyeth, & howe thou myghteſt be bounde, and brought vnder.

B 7 Samſon anſweared vnto her, If they bynde me with ſeuen greene withs, that were neuer dryed, I ſhalbe weake, and be as an other man.

8 And then the lordes of the Philiſtines brought her ſeuen wyths that were yet greene, and neuer dryed, and ſhe bounde him therewith.

9 (Notwithſtandyng ſhe had menne lyeing in wayte with her in the chamber: And ſhe ſayde vnto hym, The Philiſtines be vpon thee, Samſon. And immedialy he brake the cordes, as a ſtryng of towe breaketh when it feeleth the fyre. And ſo his ſtrength was not knowen.

10 And Dalila ſaid vnto Samſon, See thou haſt mocked me, and tolde me lyes, Nowe therefore telle me, wherewith thou mighteſt be bounde.

11 He anſweared her, If they bynde me with newe ropes, that neuer were occupyed, I ſhalbe weake, and be as an other man.

12 Dalila therefore tooke newe ropes, and bounde hym therewith, and ſayd vnto him, The Philiſtines be vpon thee, Samſon. (And there were that lay in waite in the chãber.) And he brake them from of his armes, as they had benne but a threade.

13 And Dalila ſayde vnto Samſon, Hytherto thou haſt beguyled me, and tolde me lyes: yet telle me howe thou mighteſt be bound. He ſayde vnto her, If thou platte the ſeuen lockes of my head with the threedes of the wooffe.

C 14 And ſhe faſtened it with a pinne, and ſaid vnto hym, The Philiſtines be vpon thee Samſon. And he awaked out of his ſleepe, & went away with the pynne of the webbe and the wooffe.

15 And ſhe ſayde vnto hym agayne, Howe canſt thou ſaye, (b) I loue thee, when thyne hart is not with me: Thou haſt mocked me theſe three times, and haſt not told me wherin thy great ſtrength lyeth.

(c) For ſo thou vſeſt to ſaye, and wouldeſt haue me to beleue it

16 And as ſhe lay vpon hym with her woordes, continually (c) vexing of hym, his ſoule was encumbred euen vnto the death.

(c) What wretched and miſerable thraldome are they in, that can not refraine the companie of the harlottes.

17 And ſo he tolde her al his hart, and ſayde vnto her, There neuer came raſour vpon myne head, for I haue benne a Nazarite vnto God euen from my mothers wombe: therefore when I am ſhauen, my ſtrength wyl goe from me, and I ſhal waxe weake, and be lyke al [other] menne.

18 And when Dalila ſawe that he had tolde her al his hart, ſhe ſent & called for the lordes of the Philiſtines, ſayeing, Comme vp yet this once, for he hath ſhewed me al his hart. Then the lordes of the Philiſtines came vp vnto her, and brought the money in their handes.

19 And ſhe made hym ſleepe vpon her knees, and ſhe ſent for a man, and he dyd ſhaue of the ſeuen lockes of his head, and began to vexe hym, and his ſtrength (d) was gon from hym.

(d) Not for the loſſe of his heare, but for the contempt of the ordinance of God.

D 20 And ſhe ſayde, The Philiſtines be vpon thee Samſon. And he awooke out of his ſleepe, and ſayde, I wyl goe out nowe as at other tymes before, and ſhake mee ſelfe. And he wyſt not that the Lorde was departed from hym.

21 But the Philiſtines tooke hym, and put out his eyes, and brought hym downe to * Azzah, and bound him with fetters of braſſe, and he dyd grynde in the pryſon houſe.

22 Howbeit, the heare of his head began (e) to growe agayne, after that he was ſhauen.

(e) And ſo did his ſtrength by his repentaunce, praier, and reconciliation to God.

23 Then the lordes of the Philiſtines geathered them togeather, for to offer a ſolemne offeryng vnto Dagon their God, and to reioyce. For thei ſaid, Our God hath deliuered Samſon our enimie into our handes.

24 And when the people ſaw him, they praiſed their God: for they ſayde, Our God hath deliuered into our handes our enimie, and deſtroyer of our countrey, whiche ſlue many of vs.

25 And when their hartes were meary, they ſayd, Sende for Samſon, that he may make vs laugh. And they fet Samſon out of the priſon houſe, and he played before them: and they ſet hym betweene the pyllers.

26 And Samſon ſayde vnto the ladde, that lead hym by the hande, Set me, that I may touche the pyllers, that ỷ houſe ſtandeth vpō, and that I may leane to them.

27 And the houſe was ful of menne, and women: and there were al the lordes of the Philiſtines: And there were vpon the roofe, about three thouſande menne and women, that behelde whyle Samſon " played.

28 And Samſon called vnto the Lorde, and ſayd, O Lorde God, I pray thee thinke vpon me, and ſtrengthen me, I beſeche thee, at this tyme only, O God, that I may be " at once auenged of the Philiſtines for my two eyes.

D

29 And Samſon caught the two middle pyllers, on which the houſe ſtoode, and on which it was borne vp, the one in his ryght hande, and the other in his left.

30 And Samſon ſayde, My ſoule ſhal dye with the Philiſtines: and he bowed them with al his myght, and the houſe felle vpon the lordes, and vpon al the people, that were therein: And ſo the dead, whiche he ſlue at his death, were moe, then they, whiche he ſlue in his lyfe.

31 And then his brethren, and al the houſe of his father came downe, and tooke him vp, and brought him, and buryed him betweene Zarah and Eſthaol, in the buryeing place of Manoah his father: And he iudged Iſrael twentie yeeres.

The.xvij.Chapter.

3 Michas mother, accordyng to her vowe, made her ſonne two idols. 5 He made his ſonne a prieſt for his idoles. 10 And after he hired a Leuite.

A 1 There was a man of mount Ephraim, named Micah.

2 And he ſaide vnto his mother, The ſeuen hundred (a) ſiluerlynges, that were taken from thee, about which thou curſedſt, and ſpakeſt it in myne eares, behold the ſiluer is with me: I tooke it away. And his mother ſayde, Bleſſed be thou, my ſonne, in the Lorde.

3 And when he had reſtored, the eleuen hundred ſyluerlynges to his mother, his mother ſaid, I had dedicated the ſyluer vnto the lorde of myne hande for thee my ſonne, that thou ſhouldeſt make a grauen ⁊ moultē (b) image: Nowe therefore I wyl geue it thee agayne.

4 And whē he reſtoared the money vnto his mother, his mother tooke two hundred ſyluerlynges, ⁊ gaue them to the founder, which made thereof a grauen and moulten image, and it was in the houſe of Micah.

5 And ỷ man Micah had an houſe of goddes, and made an (c) Ephod and (d) Theraphim, and " conſecrated one of his ſonnes, whiche became his prieſt.

6 In thoſe daies there was no king in Iſrael, but euery man did that, whiche was good in his owne eyes.

B

7 And there was a young man out of Bethlehem Iuda, of the kynrede of Iuda, whiche young man was a Leuite, ⁊ ſoiourned there.

8 And the man departed out of the citie of Bethlehem Iuda, to goe to dwelle where he could finde [a conuenient place]: And he came to mount Ephraim, to the houſe of Micah as he iourneyed.

9 And Micah ſayde vnto him, Whence commeſt thou? The Leuite anſweared hym, I am of Bethlehem Iuda, and I goe to dwel where I may (e) fynde [a place].

10 And Micah ſayd againe vnto him, Dwel with me, and be vnto me a father, ⁊ a prieſt, and I wyl geue thee ten ſyluerlynges by the yeere, two garmentes, and thy meate and drinke. So the Leuite went in.

11 And the Leuite was (f) content to dwelle with the man, and was vnto him as one of his owne ſonnes.

12 And Micah conſecrated the Leuite, and the young man became his prieſt, and was in the houſe of Micah.

13 Then ſayde Micah, Nowe I am ſure, that the Lorde wyl be (g) good vnto me, ſeeyng I haue a Leuite to my prieſt.

" Heb. filled the hande.

(e) In this, that the Leuite wandereth to ſeeke a liuing, it is manifeſt, that Gods lawe ⁊ true religion, which prouide for ỷ Leuite, was vtterly neglected and out of place.

(g) When men in religion wander beſide Gods woorde, they thinke they pleaſe God, when in deede they offende hym.

The.xviij.Chapter.

2 The chyldren of Dan ſende menne to ſearche the lande. 11 Then come the ſixe hundred, and take the goddes, and the prieſt of Micah a way. 27 They deſtroy Lais. 28 They builde it agayne. 30 And ſet vp idolatrie.

A

1 IN thoſe dayes there was (a) no king in Iſrael: and in thoſe dayes the tribe of Dan ſought them an inheritance to dwel in: For vnto that time al their inheritance had not fallen vnto them among the tribe of Iſrael.

(a) So that it was no marueile, that religion was corrupt, and al thinges out of order: ſeeyng there was no magiſtrate to puniſhe offenſes.

2 And the children of Dan ſent of their kinred fyue actiue menne in feates of warre, out of their coaſtes, euen out of Zaraah & Eſthaol, to viewe the land, and ſearche it out, and ſaid vnto them, Goe, & ſearche out the land. Whoe whan they came to mount Ephraim, euen to the houſe of Micah, they lodged there.

3 And when they were in the houſe of Micah, they knewe (b) the voyce of the young man the Leuite: And when they turned in thither, they ſayde vnto hym, Who brought thee hyther? What makeſt thou in this place? and what haſt thou here?

(b) That is, they knewe hym by his ſpeache.

4 And he anſweared them, Thus and thus dealeth Micah with me, and hath hyred me, and I am becomme his prieſt.

5 And they ſayd vnto him againe, Aſke counſel nowe of God, that we may knowe, whether the way, whiche we goe, ſhalbe proſperous, or no.

6 And the prieſt ſayde vnto them, (c) Goe in peace: for the Lord guideth your way, which ye goe.

(c) Thus god wyl ſende to ſuche as loue not the truth, ſtrong deluſion, whereby they are confirmed in their errour to their deſtruction.

B

7 Then the fyue menne departed, and came to Lais, and ſawe the people, that were therein, how they dwelt careleſſe, after the manner of the Sidons, ſtyl, and without caſtyng of perilles, and that no man “made any trouble in the lande, or vſurped any dominion: but were farre from the Sidons, and had no buſineſſe with other menne.

“ Hebr. made them aſhamed.

8 And they came agayne vnto their brethren to Zaraah and Eſthaol, and their brethren ſayde vnto them, What haue ye donne?

9 And they anſweared, Aryſe, that we may goe vp agaynſt them: for we haue ſeene the lande, ſurely a very good lande. And doo ye ſit ſtyl? Be not ſlouthful to goe and entre to poſſeſſe the lande.

10 If ye wyl goe, ye ſhal comme vnto a people, that caſteth no perylles: and it is a very large countrey, whiche God hath geuen into your handes: It is alſo a place, whiche dooth lacke nothyng that is in the worlde.

11 And there departed thence of the kynred of the Danites, euen out of Zaraah & Eſthaol, ſixe hundred menne appoynted with inſtrumentes of warre.

12 And they went vp, and pitched in Kiriath iarim, whiche is in Iuda: Wherfore they called the place, Mahaneh Dan, vnto this day, and it is on the backſyde of Kiriath iarim.

13 And they went thence vnto mount Ephraim, and came vnto the houſe of Micah.

C

14 Then anſweared the fyue men that went to ſpye out the countrey of Lais, and ſaid vnto their brethren, Wote ye not, that there is in theſe houſes an Ephod, Theraphim, and a grauen, & a moulten image? Nowe therfore (d) conſyder, what ye haue to doo.

(d) For it were expedient that we ſhould take them away to our owne vſe.

15 And they turned thytherwarde, and came to the houſe of the young man the Leuite, euen vnto the houſe of Micah, and ſaluted hym peaceably.

16 And the ſixe hundred menne girded with weapons of warre, whiche were of the chyldrē of Dan, ſtoode by the entryng of the gate.

17 And the fiue menne that went to ſpye out the lande, went in thyther, and (e) tooke the grauen image, and the Ephod, and the Theraphim, and the moulten image: (And the prieſt ſtoode in the entryng of the gate, with the ſixe hundred menne that were appoynted with weapons of warre,)

(e) Suche is their blindeneſſe, that thei beleue, that theſe idoles, which by robberie, and violence thei take away, may helpe them.

18 Whyle the other went into Micahs houſe, & fet the carued image, the Ephod, the Theraphim, and the moulten image: Then ſayde the prieſt vnto them, What doo ye?

19 They anſweared hym, Holde thy peace: lay thyne hande vpon thy mouth, and comme with vs, to be our father and prieſt: It is better for thee to be a prieſt vnto the houſe of one man, then to be a prieſt vnto a tribe or kynred in Iſrael?

20 And the prieſtes hart (f) was glad, & tooke the Ephod, and Theraphim, and the grauen image, & went (g) in the middeſt of the people.

(f) For he regarded neyther Gods honour, nor his owne honeſtie: but al his care was for his belly.

D

(g) with his idoles, folowyng the manner of the carriage of ẏ arke of the Lorde.

21 And they turned, and departed, and put the chyldren, the cattel, and their other ſubſtance before them.

22 And when they were a good way from the houſe of Micah, the menne that were in the houſes neare to Micahs houſe, geathered togeather, & folowed after the children of Dan, 23 And called vnto them: and they turned their faces, and ſayde vnto Micah, What ayleth thee, that thou makeſt an outcrye?

24 And he ſayde, Ye haue taken away my goddes, which I made and alſo the prieſt, & goe your wayes: and (h) What haue I more? How then ſay ye vnto me, What ayleth thee?

25 And the chyldren of Dan ſayde vnto hym, Let not thy voyce be hearde among vs, leſt “angry felowes runne vpon thee, & thou loſe thy lyfe, with the liues of al thyne houſholde.

26 And ſo yͤ children of Dan wēt their waies: And when Micah ſawe, that they were to ſtrong for hym, he turned, and went backe vnto his houſe.

27 And they tooke yͤ (i) thinges, which Micah had made, and the prieſt, whiche he had, and came vnto Lais, euen vnto a people, that were at reaſt, and without miſtruſt, & ſmote them with the edge of the ſworde, and burnt the citie with fire.

28 And there was no man to “helpe, becauſe (k) Lais was farre from Sidon, and they had no medling with any other man: And it was in the valley that lyeth by Bethrehob.

29 And they built them there a citie, and dwelt therein, and called it Dan, after the name of Dan their father, which was borne vnto Iſrael: Howbeit, the name of the citie was Lais at the beginning.

30 And the chyldren of Dan ſet them vp the grauen image: And Ionathan the ſonne of Gerſom, the ſonne of Manaſſes, and his ſonnes were the prieſtes in the tribe of Dan, vntyl the day of the (l) captiuitie of the lande.

31 And they ſet them vp the carued image, whiche Micah made, al the while that the houſe of God was in Silo.

1 Of the Leuite, whoſe wyfe was villanouſly kylled in Gibea.

A 1 ALſo in thoſe daies, *when there was no kyng in Iſrael, a certayne Leuite ſoiournyng on the ſyde of mount Ephraim, tooke to wyfe a concubine out of Bethlehem Iuda.

2 And his concubine played the whoore by hym, and went away from hym vnto her fathers houſe to Bethlehem Iuda, and there continued foure monethes.

3 And her huſbande aroſe, and went after her, to ſpeake “frendly vnto her, and to bring her agayne, hauing his lad with hym, & a couple of aſſes: And ſhe brought hym vnto her fathers houſe, & when the father of the damoſel ſawe hym, he reioyced of his comming.

4 And his father in lawe, the damoſels father, retayned hym, and he abode with hym three dayes: and ſo they dyd eate and drynke, and lodged there.

5 The fourth day, when they aroſe early in the mornyng, the man ſtoode vp, to depart. And the damoſels father ſaid vnto his ſonne in lawe, Comfort thyne hart with a morſel of bread, and then goe your way.

6 And they ſate downe, and dyd eate & drinke both of them togeather. And the damoſels father ſayde vnto the man, Be content, I pray thee, and tarrie al nyght, and let thyne hart be meary.

B 7 And when the man ſtoode ready to depart, his father in lawe compelled him: therfore he returned, and tarried al nyght there.

8 And he roſe vp early the fifth day to depart, and the damoſels father ſayd, Comfort thine (a) hart, I pray thee. And they tarried vntyl after midday: and they dyd eate both of them togeather.

9 And when the man aroſe to depart with his concubine and his lad, his father in lawe the damoſels father, ſayde vnto hym, Beholde nowe, the day goeth faſt away, and draweth toward euen, I pray you tarrie al night: Beholde “the ſunne goeth to reaſt, lodge here, that thine hart may be meary: and to morow geat you early vpon your way, that thou mayeſt geat thee to thy (b) tent.

10 Neuerthelater the man woulde not tarrie, but aroſe and departed, and came as farre as Iebus (whiche is Hieruſalem) and his two aſſes laden, and his concubine with hym.

11 And when thei were faſt by Iebus, the day was ſoare ſpent, and the young man ſayde vnto his maiſter, Comme, I pray thee, and let vs turne in into this citie of the Iebuſites, and lodge al night there.

12 His maiſter anſweared hym, We wyl not turne into a (c) ſtrange citie, that are not of the childrē of Iſrael: We wil goe foorth to Gibea.

13 And he ſayde vnto his lad, Goe forewarde, & let vs drawe neare to one of theſe places to lodge al night, eyther in Gibea, or in Rama.

14 And they went foreward vpō their way, & the ſunne went downe vpon them, when they were faſt by Gibea, whiche belongeth to them of Beniamin.

15 And they returned thytherwarde to goe in, and lodge al nyght in Gibea: And when he came, he ſate hym downe in a ſtreate of the citie, for there was no man that “tooke them into his houſe to lodging.

16 And behold, there came an olde man from his worke, out of the fielde at euen, whiche was alſo of mount Ephraim, and dwelt as a ſtraunger in Gibea: But the men of the place

14 Neuerthelater, the chyldren of Beniamin would(c) not hearken vnto the voyce of their brethren the chyldren of Iſrael: But the chyldren of Beniamin geathered them ſelues togeather out of the cities vnto Gibea, to come out and fyght againſt the chyldren of Iſrael.

C

(c) Therein makyng them ſelues gylty of the wickednes committed, & therfore iuſtly partakers of yͤ pouniſhment.

15 And the children of Beniamin were numbred at that tyme out of the cities, twentie & ſixe thouſande menne that drewe ſwoordes, beſyde the inhabitantes of Gibea, whiche were numbred ſeuen hundred choſen menne.

16 And among al theſe folke, were ſeuen hundred choſen menne being left handed, whiche euery one coulde ſlyng ſtones at an heare breadth, and not miſſe.

17 And the chyldren of Iſrael beſyde Beniamin, were numbred foure hundred thouſand menne that drewe ſwoordes, and were al menne of warre.

18 And the chyldren of Iſrael roſe, and went vp to(f) the houſe of God, and aſked of God, ſayeing, (g) Whiche of vs ſhal goe vp firſt to the batayle agaynſt the chyldren of Beniamin? And the Lorde ſayde, Iuda ſhal begin.

(f) That is, the tabernacle, wherein yͤ arke of God was, whiche then was in Silo.
(g) They preſume ſo muche of their number & ſtrength, that they aſke no counſel of God for the victorie: they fynde therfore ſucceſſe therafter.

19 And the chyldren of Iſrael ſtoode vp early, and camped agaynſt Gibea.

20 And the menne of Iſrael went out to batayle agaynſt Beniamin, and the menne of Iſrael put thē ſelues in aray to fight agaynſt them, beſide Gibea.

D 21 And the chyldren of Beniamin came out of Gibea, & deſtroyed downe to the grounde of the Iſraelites, that day twentie and two thouſande menne.

22 And the people the menne of Iſrael plucked vp their hartes, & ſet their batayle againe in aray in the ſame place, where they dyd the firſt day.

23 (And the chyldren of Iſrael went vp, and wept before the Lorde vntyl euen, and aſked of the Lorde, ſayeing, Shal we goe agayne to batayle againſt the children of Beniamin our brethren? And the Lorde ſayde, Goe vp agaynſt them.)

24 And yͤ children of Iſrael came neare againſt the children of Beniamin the ſeconde day.

25 And yͤ children of Beniamin went againſt them out of Gibea the ſeconde day, and deſtroyed to the earth of the chyldren of Iſrael once agayne eightiene thouſand menne that drewe ſwordes euery man of them.

26 Then al the chyldren of Iſrael, and al the people, went vp and came vnto the houſe of God, and wept, & ſate there before the Lorde, and faſted the ſame day vntyl euen, and offered burnt offerynges and peace offeringes before the Lorde.

27 And the chyldren of Iſrael aſked the lord: (for there was the arke of the appoyntment of God, in thoſe dayes:

E 28 And Phinehes the ſonne of Eleazar, the ſonne of Aaron(h) ſtood before it at that time) ſayeing, Shal I geat me vp to goe out any more to batayle agaynſt the children of Beniamin my brethren, or ſhal I ceaſſe? The lord ſayde, Goe vp, for to morowe I wyl delyuer them into your handes.

(h) That is, ſerued in the prieſtes office.

29 And Iſrael ſet menne to lye in waite round about Gibea.

30 And the children of Iſrael went vp againſt the chyldren of Beniamin the thirde tyme, and put them ſelues in aray agaynſt Gibea, as twyſe before.

31 And the chyldren of Beniamin came out agaynſt the people, & (i) were drawen away from the citie: and they began to ſmyte of the people dead, as they had donne twyſe before, by two hygh wayes in the feelde (of whiche one goeth vp to the houſe of God, & the other to Gibea) vpon thirtie menne of Iſrael.

(i) By the policie of the chyldren of Iſrael.

32 (And the children of Beniamin ſaid, They are fallen before vs, as at the firſt. But yͤ children of Iſrael ſaid, Let vs flee, & plucke them away from the citie, vnto the hygh wayes.)

33 And al the menne of Iſrael roſe vp out of their place, & put them ſelues in aray at Baal Thamar: And likewiſe they that lay in wait of Iſrael came foorth out of their places, euen out of the medowes that were about Gibea,

34 And came agaynſt Gibea ten thouſande choſen menne out of al Iſrael, and there was a ſoare batayle: But(k) they wyſt not that (l) euyl was neare them.

(k) To wite, yͤ Beniamites
(l) Thei knew not, that gods iudgemēt was at hand, to deſtroy them.

F

35 And the Lorde plagued Beniamin before Iſrael, and the chyldren of Iſrael deſtroyed of the Beniamites the ſame day twentie and fyue thouſande, and an hundred menne, that drewe ſwoordes euery one of them.

36 And the chyldren of Beniamin ſawe, that they were put to the ſtrikyng downe: for the menne of Iſrael (m) gaue place to the Beniamites, becauſe they truſted vnto thē that lay in wayte, which they had layd beſide Gibea.

(m) Retired to drawe them after.

37 And they that lay in waite, haſted, & brake foorth agaynſt Gibea, and the embuſhment ″ drewe them ſelues along, and ſmote al the citie with the edge of the ſwoorde.

″ or, made along ſounde, with a trumpet.

38 And an appoyntment had the menne of Iſrael from them that lay in wayt, that they ſhoulde make a great flame [and] ſmoke ſhoulde ryſe vp out of the citie.

39 And when the menne of Iſrael retyred in the bataile, Beniamin began (n) to ſmite dead of the childrē of Iſrael about thirtie perſones, and ſayde, Surely they are ſtriken downe before vs, as in the firſt batayle.

(n) Being encouraged by the two former victories.

40 But when there began to ariſe out of the citie a flame, as a pyller of ſmoke, the Beniamites looked backe, and beholde the flame of the whole citie began to aſſende vp to heauē.

41 When the menne of Iſrael alſo turned (o) agayne, yͤ menne of Beniamin were abaſhed: for they ſawe that euyl approched them:

(o) To withſtande their enimies.

F 42 And therfore they turned their backes before the men of Iſrael vnto the way, that leadeth to the wyldernеſſe, but the batayle ouertooke them: And beſyde that, they whiche came out of the citie, deſtroyed them (p) in the middle of them.

(p) For they had compaſſed them rounde about.

43 And thus they compaſſed the Beniamites about, and chaſed them at Menuha, & ouerranne them, euen ouer agaynſt Gibea on the eaſt ſyde.

44 And there were ſlayne of Beniamin eyghtiene thouſande menne, whiche were menne of warre.

45 And they turned, and fledde to the wilderneſſe warde, and vnto the rocke of Rimmon: and they (q) gleaned by the way of the reſt of them, fyue thouſand menne: and purſued after them, vntil they came to Gidom, and ſlue two thouſande menne of them.

(q) They ſlue them here and there, as they founde them ſcattered abrode.

46 So that al, that were ſlaine that ſame day of Beniamin, (r) were twentie and fiue thouſande menne that drewe ſwoordes, whiche were al menne of warre:

(r) Beſides eleuen hundred, that had benne ſlayne in the former batayles.

47 Onely ſixe hundred menne turned & fledde to the wylderneſſe, vnto the rocke of Rimmon, & abode in the rocke of Rimmon foure monethes.

48 And the menne of Iſrael turned backe agayne vnto the chyldren of Beniamin, and ſmote them with the edge of the ſwoorde in the citties, both man and beaſt, & al that came to hande, and ſet on fyre al the (ſ) cities, that they coulde comme by.

(ſ) If they belonged to the Beniamites.

The.xxi.Chapter.

2 The Iſraelites ſweare that they wyl not marrie their daughters to the Beniamites.
10 They ſlay them of Iabes Gilead, and geue their virgins to the Beniamites.

A 1 AND the menne of Iſrael (a) ſware in Miſpah, ſayeing, Ther ſhal none of vs geue his daughter vnto any of Beniamin to wife.

(a) This othe came to raſhneſſe: for afterwarde they brake it, by a ſubtile diuiſe.

2 And the people came to the houſe of God, & abode there tyl euen before God, and lyfted vp their voyces, and wept ſore,

3 And ſayde, O Lorde God of Iſrael, why is this come to paſſe in Iſrael, that there ſhould be this day one tribe lackyng in Iſrael?

4 And on the morowe the people roſe vp betime, and made there an (b) aulter, and offered burnt offerynges, and peace offerynges.

(b) That they myght conſult with the lord, and geue God thankes for the victorie.

5 And the chyldren of Iſrael ſayde, Who is he among al the tribes of Iſrael, that came not vp with the congregation vnto the Lorde? for they had made a great othe concernyng hym that came not vp to the Lorde to Miſpah, ſayeing, He ſhal ſurely dye.

6 And the chyldren of Iſrael (c) had pitie on Beniamin their brethren, and ſayde, There is one tribe cut of from Iſrael this day:

(c) Or, repented, that they had deſtroyed their brethren.

B 7 What ſhal we doo vnto the remnant of them, that they may haue wyues? we haue ſworne by the Lorde, that we wyl not geue them of our daughters to wyues.

8 And they ſayde, Is there any of the tribes of Iſrael, that (d) came not vp to Miſpah to the Lord? And behold, there came none of Iabes Gilead vnto the hoſt and congregation.

(d) Condemnyng them to be fautours of vice, whiche would not put their hande to pouniſhe it.

9 For the people were viewed: and beholde there were none of the inhabitantes of Iabes Gilead there.

10 And the congregation ſent thyther twelue thouſande menne of the ″ ſtrongeſt, and commaunded them, ſayeing, Goe and ſmyte the inhabitantes of Iabes Gilead with the edge of the ſwoorde, both women and children.

″ Heb. children of ſtrength.

11 *And this is it, that ye ſhal doo: Ye ſhal vtterly deſtroy al the males, and al the women, that haue layne by menne.

Num.31.c.

12 *And they found among the inhabitantes of Iabes Gilead foure hundred damoſelles, virgins, that had knowen no man, by lieing with any male: And they brought them vnto the hoſt to Silo, whiche is in the lande of Chanaan.

13 And the whole congregation ſent & (e) ſpake

(e) By embaſſadours ſent to them about foure monethes after the diſcomfiture.

with the children of Beniamin, that were in the rocke of Rimmon, and called peaceably vnto them.

C 14 And Beniamin came againe at that time, and they gaue them wiues, whiche they had ſaued aliue of the women of Iabes Gilead: But they(f) ſuffiſed them not.

(f) For there lacked two hundred.

15 And the people were ſoary for Beniamin, becauſe that the Lorde had made a breache in the tribes of Iſrael.

16 And then the elders of the cõgregation ſaid, what ſhal we doo to the remnant of them, to geat them wiues: ſeeyng al the women of Beniamin are deſtroyed:

17 And they ſayde, There muſt be(g) an inheritance for thẽ, that be eſcaped of Beniamin, that a tribe be not deſtroyed out of Iſrael.

(g) Beniamin muſt be reſerued to haue the twelfth portion of the inheritance of Iacob.

18 Howbeit, we may not geue them wyues of our daughters. For the chyldren of Iſrael had ſworne, ſaieing, Curſed be he, that geueth a wyfe to Beniamin.

19 Then they ſayd, Beholde, there is a feaſt of the Lorde yeerely in Silo, whiche is on the north ſide of Bethel, and on the eaſt ſide of the way, that goeth from Bethel to Sichem, & ſouth from Libanon.

20 Therefore they commaunded the children of Beniamin, ſayeing, Goe, and lye in waite in the vineyardes.

21 And when ye ſee, that the daughters of Silo comme out to daunce in daunces, then comme ye out of the vineyardes, and catche you euery man a wyfe of the daughters of Silo, and goe to the lande of Beniamin. D

22 And when their fathers or brethren comme vnto vs to complayne, we wyl ſay vnto thẽ, Haue pitie on vs for their ſakes: becauſe we reſerued not to eche man his wyfe in time of warre, neither haue ye geuen vnto them, that ye ſhoulde ſinne at this tyme.

23 And the children of Beniamin did euen ſo, & tooke them wiues according to ẏͤ numbre of them that daunced, whom thei caught, & thei went, and returned vnto their inheritance, and repayred the cities, and dwelt in them.

24 And the children of Iſrael departed thence at that tyme, & went euery man to his tribe, and to his kinred, and went out from thence euery man to his inheritance.

25 *In thoſe dayes there was no kyng in Iſrael: but euery man dyd that, whiche ſeemed ryght in his owne eyes.

¶ The ende of the booke of Iudges, called in the Hebrue Sophtim.

The booke of Ruth.

The firſt Chapter.

1 Elimelech goeth with his wyfe and chyldren into the lande of Moab. 3 And his ſonnes dye. 19 Naomi and Ruth comme to Bethlehem.

A 1 IT came to paſſe, that when the iudges “ruled, there fel a dearth in the(a) lande, and a certayne man of Bethlehem(b) Iuda went for to ſoiourne in the countrey of Moab, he & his wife, and his two ſonnes.

“Hebr. Iudged.

(a) That is, the lande of Chanaan.

(b) In ẏͤ tribe of Iuda: for there was an other Bethlehem in ẏͤ tribe of Zabulon.

2 The name of the man was Elimelech, and the name of his wife Naomi, and the names of his two ſonnes were Mahlon, & Chilion, Ephraites out of Bethlehem Iuda. And when they came into the land of Moab, they continued there.

3 And Elimelech Naomies huſbande dyed, and ſhe remayned with her two ſonnes,

4 which tooke them wiues, (c) Moabiteſſes, of the Moabites: the name of the one was Orpha, and the others name, Ruth: And they dwelled there about ten yeeres.

(c) By this woonderful prouidence of God, Ruth became one of Gods houſehold, of whom Chriſte came

5 And Mahlon and Chilion dyed alſo, euen both of them, and the woman was leaft(d) deſtitute of her two ſonnes & of her huſbande.

(d) A woful caſe: & yet this and the lyke the worlde is ful of, whiche the children of menne do loue ſo muche.

6 Then ſhe aroſe with her daughters in law, and returned from the countrey of Moab: for ſhe had hearde ſay in the countrey of Moab, howe that the Lorde had viſited his people, and geuen them bread.

B 7 Wherefore ſhe departed out of the place, where ſhe was, and her two daughters in lawe with her: And they went on their way to returne vnto the lande of Iuda.

8 And Naomi ſayd vnto her two daughters in lawe, Goe, and returne eche of you vnto your mothers houſe: and the Lorde deale as kyndly with you, as ye haue dealt with the(e) dead, and with me:

(e) Declaryng by your kyndneſſe to me, their mother, howe dearely you loued thẽ, when they were alyue, and what affection you bare towardes them, and the remembrance of them nowe that they are dead.

9 And the Lord geue you, that you may find reaſt, eyther of you in the houſe of her(f) huſbande. And when ſhe kiſſed them, they lifted vp their voyce, and wept,

(f) She wiſheth thẽ neither riches, nor wealth, nor gyft of ſole lyfe: but matrimonie agreeable to Gods inſtitution.

10 And ſaid vnto her, Surely we wil returne with thee vnto thy folke.

11 And Naomi ſayde, Turne agayne my daughters: for what cauſe wyl you goe with me? Are there any moe children in my wõbe, to be your huſbandes?

12 Turne agayne my daughters, goe your way: For I am to olde to haue an huſbande: And if I ſayde, I haue hope, if I tooke a man alſo this night, yea and though I had already borne ſonnes:

13 Woulde ye tarrie for them, tyl they were of age? or woulde ye for them ſo long refrayne frõ takyng of huſbandes? Not ſo my daughters: for it greeueth me " muche for your ſakes, that the hande of the Lorde is gonne out(g) agaynſt me.

" Or, more then you.

(g) By taking away my two ſonnes, that were your huſbandes.

C 14 And they lyfted vp their voyces, and wept agayne: and Orpha (h) kyſſed her mother in lawe: but Ruth abode ſtyl by her.

(h) Takyng her leaue and departing.

15 And Naomi ſayde, See, thy ſiſter in lawe is gonne backe agayne vnto her people, and vnto her goddes: returne thou after her.

16 And Ruth anſweared, Entreate me not to leaue thee, and to returne from after thee: for whyther thou goeſt, I wil goe alſo: & where thou dwelleſt, there I wil dwel: Thy people, ſhalbe my people, and thy god, my God:

17 Where thou dieſt, there wil I dye, and there wyl I be buried: The Lord doo ſo to me and more alſo, yf ought but death depart thee and me.

18 When ſhe ſawe, that ſhe was ſtedfaſtly mynded to goe with her, ſhe leaft ſpeakyng vnto her.

19 And ſo they went both, vntyl they came to Bethlehem: And when they were comme to Bethlehem, it was(i) noiſed of them thorow al the citie, and they ſaid, Is not this Naomi?

20 And ſhe anſweared them, Calle me not " Naomi: but calle me " Mara: for the almighty hath made me very bitter.

(i) Wherby it appeareth, that ſhe was of a great familie, & of good reputation.

" Or, beawtiful.

" Or, bitter.

D 21 I went out ful, and the Lord hath brought me home agayne emptie: Why then calle ye me Naomi, ſeeyng, the Lorde hath humbled me, and the almyghtie hath brought me vnto aduerſitie?

22 And ſo Naomi with Ruth the Moabiteſſe her daughter in lawe, returned out of the countrey of Moab, and came to Bethlehem, in the begynnyng of(k) barlie harueſt.

(k) Whiche was in yͤ moneth Niſan, that conteyneth part of Marche and part of Aprile

The.ij.Chapter.

1 Ruth geathereth corne in the fieldes of Booz. 15 The gentilneſſe of Booz towarde her.

A 1 AND Naomies huſbande had a(a) kinſman, a man of power & wealth [which was] of the kynred of Elimelech, named Booz.

(a) By the prouidence of God, whiche ſhoulde ſtirre vp ſeede to Elimelech beyng dead, accordyng to the lawe.

2 And Ruth the Moabiteſſe ſayde vnto Naomi: Let me nowe goe to the fielde, and geather eares of corne after any man, in whoſe ſight I finde grace. And ſhe ſayd vnto her, Goe my daughter.

3 And ſhe went, and came to the fielde, and geathered after the reapers: and ſo it was, that the ſame fielde parteyned vnto Booz, which was of the kinred of Elimelech.

4 And behold, Booz came from Bethlehem, and ſayde vnto the reapers, The Lorde be with you. And they anſweared hym, The Lorde bleſſe thee.

5 Then ſayde Booz vnto his young " man, " that ſtoode by the reapers? Whoſe damoſel is this?

" Or, ſeruant.

" Or, was appoynted ouer the reapers.

6 And the young man, that ſtoode by the reapers anſweared, and ſayde, It is the Moabitiſhe damoſel, that came with Naomi out of the countrey of Moab,

B 7 And ſhe ſayde vnto vs, I pray you let me gleane and geather after the reapers, amongſt the ſheaues: and ſo ſhe came, and hath continued euen from the mornyng vntyl nowe, ſaue that ſhe taried a litle in the houſe.

8 Then ſayde Booz vnto Ruth, Heareſt thou my daughter? Goe to no other fielde to geather, neyther goe from hence, but abyde here by my maydens.

9 Let(b) thine eies be on the fielde, that they do reape, and goe thou after the [maydens:] Haue I not charged the young menne, that they ſhal doo thee no hurt? Moreouer, when thou art a thirſt, goe vnto the veſſels, and drinke of that,(c) whiche the laddes haue drawen.

(b) That is, marke what fielde they doo reape.

(c) That is, of the water whiche they haue drawen.

10 Then ſhe felle on her face, and bowed her ſelfe to the grounde, and ſaid vnto him, How is it that I haue founde grace in thyne eyes, and that thou ſhouldeſt knowe me, ſeeyng I am(d) a ſtraunger.

(d) One of the Moabites, whiche are enimies to Gods people.

11 And Booz anſweared and ſayde vnto her, Al is tolde & ſhewed me, that thou haſt donne vnto thy mother in lawe ſence the death of thyne huſbande: howe thou haſt leaft thy father and thy mother, & the lande, where thou were borne, & art come vnto a people, whiche thou kneweſt not in tyme paſſed.

12 The lord quite thy woorke, & a ful rewarde be geuen thee of the lord God of Iſrael, vnder whoſe(e) wynges thou art comme to truſt.

(e) Of mercie might, protection, and prouidence.

13 Then ſhe ſayd, Let me finde fauour in thy ſight my lord, thou that haſt comforted me, & ſpoken “comfortably vnto thy maid, whiche yet am not lyke vnto one of thy maydens.

“ Heb, To hart.

14 Booz ſayde vnto her agayne, At the meale time comme thou hither, & eate of the bread, and dyp thy morſel in the vineger. And ſhe ſate beſyde the reapers: and he reached her parched corne, and ſhe dyd eate, and was ſuffiſed, and leaft (f) part:

(f) whiche ſhe brought home to her mother in lawe.

15 And when ſhe was ryſen vp, to geather, Booz commaunded his yong men, ſayeing, Let her geather euen among the ſheaues, & (g) rebuke her not,

(g) By forbiddyng her.

16 And leaue her ſomme of the ſheaues for the nonce, and let it lye, that ſhe may geather it vp, and rebuke her not.

17 And ſo ſhe geathered in the feelde vntyl euen, and threaſhed that ſhe had geathered: & it was in meaſure vpon an * Epha of barlie.

Exo.xvi.g

18 And ſhe tooke it vp, and went into the citie: & when her mother in lawe had ſeene, what ſhe had geathered, ſhe plucked out alſo, and gaue to her, that ſhe had reſerued, when ſhe had eaten yenough.

19 And her mother in lawe ſayde vnto her, Where haſt thou geathered to day? & where wroughteſt thou? bleſſed be he that knewe thee. And ſhe ſhewed her mother in lawe, howe ſhe had wrought with hym, and ſayd, The mans name, with whom I wrought to day, is Booz.

20 And Naomi ſayde vnto her daughter in lawe, Bleſſed be he of the Lord, for he ceaſeth not to doo *good to the liuing, & to the (h) dead. And Naomi ſayde agayne vnto her, The man is nygh vnto vs, and of our affinitie.

Tob.2.b.

(h) They are ſayde to doo good to the dead, whiche doo good to theyr frendes beyng alyue, for their ſakes.

21 And Ruth the Moabiteſſe ſayd, He ſaid vnto me alſo, Thou ſhalt be with my young menne vntil they haue ended al my harueſt.

22 And Naomi anſweared vnto Ruth her daughter in lawe, It is beſt my daughter, that thou goe out with his maydens, that they come not againſt thee in any other feeld.

23 And ſo ſhe kept her by the maydens of Booz to geather, vnto the ende of barlie harueſt, and of wheate harueſt alſo, and dwelt with her mother in lawe.

The.iij.Chapter.

i Naomi geueth Ruth counſel. 8 Shee ſleepeth at Booz feete. 12 He acknowledgeth hym ſelfe to be her kinſman.

A 1 Then Naomi her mother in lawe ſayde vnto her, My daughter, ſhal I not ſeeke (a) reaſt for thee, that thou mayeſt proſper?

(a) Meaning, that ſhe would prouide her of an huſbande, with whom ſhe myght lyue quietly.

2 And is not Booz our kynſman, with whoſe maidens thou were? Behold, he winnoweth barlie to night in the threaſhyng “ floore.

“ Or, in the barne.

3 Waſhe thee ſelfe therfore, and annoynt thee, and put thy rayment vpon thee, and geate thee downe to the floore: but let not the man knowe of thee, vntyl he haue leaft eatyng and drynkyng.

4 And when he goeth to ſleepe, marke the place, where he layeth hym downe, and then goe, and lyft vp the clothes, that are on his feete, and lay thee downe there: and he ſhal tel thee, what thou ſhalt doo.

5 And ſhe anſweared her, All that thou biddeſt me, I wyl doo.

6 And ſhe went downe vnto the floore, and dyd accordyng to al that her mother in lawe bad her.

B 7 And when Booz had eaten and drunken, and cheared his hart, he went to lye downe at the ende of the heape of corne: and ſhe came ſoftly, and lyfted vp the clothes of his feete, and layed her downe.

8 And at mydnyght, the man was afrayde, and caught holde: and beholde, a woman lay at his feete.

9 And he ſayde, What art thou? She anſweared, I am Ruth thyne handemayde: Spreade the wyng of thy [garment] ouer thyne handmayde, for thou art the kinſman.

10 He ſayde, Bleſſed be thou in the Lorde, my daughter: for thou haſt ſhewed more goodneſſe in the latter ende, then at the begynnyng, inaſmuche as thou foloweddſt not young menne, whether they were poore, or ryche.

11 And nowe my daughter, feare not: I wyl doo to thee al that thou requireſt: for al the citie of my people dooth knowe, that thou art a woman of vertue.

12 And it is true, that I am of thy next kinne: howebeit there is one nygher then I.

13 Tarrie this nyght, and when mornyng is comme, yf he wyl (b) perfourme the part of a kynſman vnto thee, it is good: let hym doo the kinſmans part: but yf he wyl not doo the kynſmans part, then wyl I doo the duetie of a kynſman, as the Lorde lyueth: ſleepe vntyl the mornyng.

(b) That is, yf he wyl take thee to be his wyfe by the title of affinitie, accordyng to gods lawe. Deut. 25.a.

C 14 And ſhe lay at his feete vntyl the mornyng: and ſhe aroſe vp before one coulde knowe another. And he ſayde, Let no man knowe, that there came any woman into the floore.

15 And he ſayde agayne, Bring the mantel that thou haſt vpon thee, and holde it. And when ſhe helde it, he meatte in ſixe meaſures of barlie, and laide it on her: And ſhe gate her into the citie.

16 And when ſhe came in, to her mother in lawe, ſhe ſayde, Who art thou my daughter? And ſhe tolde her al, that the man had donne to her, 17 And ſayde, Theſe ſixe meaſures of barlie gaue he me, and ſaid, Thou ſhalt not comme empty vnto thy mother in lawe.

18 Then ſayde ſhe, My daughter, ſit ſtil vntyl thou knowe, howe the mater wyl fal: for the man wyl not be in reaſt, vntyl he haue finiſhed the thyng this ſame day.

2 And he tooke ten menne of the elders of the citie, and ſayde, Sit ye downe here. And they ſate downe.

3 And he ſayde vnto the kynſman, Naomi, that is comme agayne out of the countrey of Moab, wyl ſel a parcel of lande whiche was our brother Elimelechs.

4 And I thought to doo thee to wite, and bid thee bye it before the inhabitantes & elders of my people. If thou wilt redeeme it, redeeme it: but yf thou wilt not redeeme it, then telle me, that I may knowe: For there is none to redeeme it, [c] ſaue thou, and I next to thee. And the other anſweared, I wyl redeeme it.

(c) which art the next of the kinne.

5 Then ſaide Booz, What day thou byeſt the feelde of the hande of Naomi, thou muſt bye it alſo of Ruth the Moabite, the wyfe of the dead, to ſtirre vp the name of the dead vpon his [d] inheritance.

(d) That his inheritance myght beare his name, that is dead.

6 The kinſman anſweared, I can not redeeme it, for marring of mine owne inheritance: redeeme thou my right to thee: for I can not redeeme it.

B 7 Nowe this was the manner of olde tyme in Iſrael, concernyng redeemyng and changyng, for to ſtabliſhe al thynges: that a man muſt plucke of his ſhoo, & geue it his neyghbour: And this was a ſure [e] witnes in Iſrael.

10 And moreouer, Ruth the Moabite the wife of Mahalon, haue I purchaſed to be my wyfe, to ſtyrre vp the name of the dead vpon his inheritance, and that the name of the dead be not put out from among his brethren, and from the gate of his [f] place: ye are witneſſes this day.

11 And al the people, that were in the gate, and the elders, ſayde, We are witneſſes: The Lord make the woman, that is comme into thyne houſe, lyke Rahel and Lea, whiche twayne dyd buylde the houſe of Iſrael: and that thou mayeſt doo worthily in [g] Ephrata, and be famous in Bethlehem.

(g) Ephrata and Bethlehem are both one.

12 Thy houſe be lyke the houſe of Pharez (whom Thamar bare vnto Iuda) euen of the ſeede, whiche the Lorde ſhal geue thee of this young woman.

13 And ſo Booz tooke Ruth, and ſhe was his wife: And when he went in vnto her, the lord gaue, that ſhe conceiued, and bare a ſonne.

14 And the women ſayde vnto Naomi, Bleſſed be the Lorde, the whiche hath not leaft thee this day without a kynſman, and his name ſhalbe continued in Iſrael: C

15 And that ſhal bryng thy lyfe agayne, and chearyſhe thyne olde age: For thy daughter in lawe, whiche loueth thee, hath borne vnto hym, and ſhe is better to thee then [h] ſeuen ſonnes.

19 And Naomi tooke the chylde, and layde it in her lappe, and became nurſe vnto it.

17 And the women her neyghbours gaue it a name, ſaying, There is a child borne to Naomi: and called it Obed: the ſame is the father of Iſai, the father of Dauid.

18 Theſe are the generations of Pharez, Pharez begate Hezron,

The firſt booke of Samuel, called the firſt booke of the kinges.

The firſt Chapter.

1 The genealogie of Elkana the father of Samuel. 2 His two wiues. 11 Hanna was barren, and prayed to the Lorde. 15 Her anſweare to Eli. 20 Samuel is borne. 24 She dooth dedicate him to the Lorde.

A 1 There was a man of one of the two (a) Ramathaim Zophim, of mount Ephraim, named * Elkana, the ſonne of Jeroham, the ſonne of Elihu, the ſonne of Thohu, the ſonne of Zuph, an Ephrathite:

(a) There were two Ramathes, ſo that in this citie in mount Ephraim were Zophim. that is, the learned men & prophetes.

1.Par.6.c.

2 Whiche had (b) two wyues, the one called Hanna, and the other Phenenna: And Phenenna had children, but Hanna had no children.

(b) with the promiſſe of multiplication of ſeede, came in the priuilege of two wyues: The promiſſe performed and ended in Chriſte, the priuilege ceaſeth, and Gods lawe taketh place, which ioyneth two in one fleaſhe, and no more.

Gene.2.d.

3 And this man went vp out of his citie euery yeere, to woorſhyp and to ſacrifice vnto the Lorde of hoſtes in Silo, where were the two ſonnes of Eli, Hophni and Phinehes, the Lordes prieſtes.

4 And it fel on a day, that Elkana offered, and gaue to Phenenna his wyfe, and to al her ſonnes and daughters, portions.

5 But vnto Hanna he gaue a (c) woorthy portion: for he loued Hanna, and the Lorde had made her barren.

(c) To cheare her: for he knewe, that ſhe was ſorowful, becauſe ſhe was barren.

6 And her enimie [Phenenna] vexed her ſoare, forasmuch as ſhe vpbrayded her, becauſe the Lorde had made her barren.

7 (And ſo did he yeere by yeere) and as oft as ſhe went vp to the houſe of the Lorde, thus ſhe vexed her, that ſhe wept, and did not eate. B

8 Then ſayde Elkana her huſbande to her, Hanna, why weepeſt thou? and why eateſt thou not? and why is thy hart troubled? Am not I better to thee, then ten (d) ſonnes?

(d) Let this ſuffiſe thee, that I loue thee no leſſe, then yf thou haddeſt many chyldren.

9 So Hanna roſe vp after that they had eaten and drunken in Silo. (And Eli the prieſt ſate vpon a ſtoole by one of the poſtes of the temple of the Lorde.)

10 And ſhe was troubled in her mynde, and prayed vnto the Lorde, and wept ſoare,

11 And vowed a vowe, and ſayde, O Lord of hoſtes, if thou wylt looke on the trouble of thyne handemayde, and remember me, and not forgeat thine handmaide, but geue vnto thyne handemayde a man chyld, I wil geue him vnto the Lorde al the dayes of his lyfe, and there ſhal no raſour comme vpon his head.

12 And as ſhe continued prayeing before the Lorde, Eli marked her mouth.

13 For Hanna ſpake in her hart, and her lippes did but moue only: but her voyce was not hearde: and therefore Eli thought ſhe had benne drunken.

C 14 And Eli ſayde vnto her, Howe long wylt thou be drunken? Put away from thee “ the wine, that thou haſt.

15 Hanna anſweared, and ſayde, Not ſo my lord: I am a woman of a “ ſorowful hart: I haue drunke neither wine nor ſtrong drinke, but haue powred out my ſoule before the Lorde:

16 Count not thyne handmayde “ for a wycked woman: for out of the abundance of my heauineſſe and greefe, haue I ſpoken hytherto.

17 Eli anſweared her agayne, and ſayd, Goe in peace: the god of Iſrael graunt thee thy petition, that thou haſt aſked of hym.

18 She ſayde, Let thyne handmayde fynde (e) grace in thy ſyght. And ſo the woman went her way, and did eate, and looked no more ſadde.

19 And they roſe vp early, and woorſhypped before the Lorde, and then returned, & came to theyr houſe to Ramath: and when Elkana knewe Hanna his wyfe, the Lorde (f) remembred her.

20 For in proceſſe of tyme it came to paſſe, that ſhe conceiued, and bare a ſonne, and called his name Samuel, [ſayeing,] Becauſe I haue aſked hym of the Lorde.

21 And the man (g) Elkana, and al his houſe, went vp to offer vnto the Lorde the yeerely ſacrifice, and alſo his vowe. D

22 Neuertheleſſe, Hanna went not vp, but ſayde vnto her huſbande, I wyl tarie vntil the ladde be weaned, and then I wyl bryng hym, that he may appeare before the Lorde, and there abyde for euer.

23 Elkana her huſband anſweared her, Doo what ſeemeth thee beſt, tarrie at home vntil thou haue weaned hym, and I beſeeche the Lord to make good (h) his ſayeing. And ſo the woman aboade, and gaue her ſonne ſucke, vntyl ſhe weaned hym.

24 And when ſhe had weaned him, ſhe tooke hym with her, with three bullockes, and an Epha of flowre, & a bottel of wine, & brought hym vnto the houſe of the Lorde in Silo, and the chylde was “ young.

25 And they ſlue a bullocke, and brought in the lad to Eli.

26 And ſhe ſaid, Oh my Lorde, as thy (i) ſoule lyueth, my Lorde, I am the woman, that ſtoode before thee heare prayeing vnto the Lorde.

27 For this lad I prayed, and the Lorde hath geuen me my deſyre, which I aſked of him:

28 And therfore I haue geuen hym vnto the Lorde, as long as he liueth, he ſhalbe geuen to the Lorde. And he (k) woorſhypped the Lorde there.

The .ii. Chapter.

1 The ſong of Hanna. 12 The ſonnes of Eli are wicked. 13 The newe cuſtoume of the prieſtes. 18 Samuel miniſtreth before the Lorde. 20 Eli bleſſeth Elkana and his wife. 23 Eli reprooueth his ſonnes. 27 God ſendeth a prophete to Eli. 31 Eli is menaced for not chaſtiſyng his chyldren.

A 1 AND Hanna prayed, and ſayde, My hart reioyceth in the Lorde, and myne (a) horne is exalted in the Lorde: My mouth is (b) wyde open ouer myne enimies: for I reioyce in thy ſaluation.

2 There is none holy, as the Lorde: for without thee is nothing: neyther is there any of ſtrength, as is our God.

3 Talke no more proudly, let not arrogancie comme out of your mouthes: for the Lorde is a God of knowledge, and his purpoſes comme to paſſe.

4 The bowes with the mighty menne are broken, and they that were weake, haue girt them ſelues with ſtrength.

5 They that were ful, haue hyred out them ſelues for (c) bread: and they that were hungry, (d) ceaſſe, til the barren hath borne “ ſeuen: and ſhe, that had many chyldren, is waxed feeble.

8 He rayſeth vp the poore out of the duſt, and lyfteth vp the beggar from the doung hyl, to ſet them among (e) princes, and to make them inherite the ſeate of glorie: for the pyllers of the earth are the Lordes, and he hath ſet the worlde vpon them.

11 And Elkana went to Ramath to his houſe, and the lad dyd miniſter vnto the Lord (g) before Eli the prieſt.

12 But the ſonnes of Eli were chyldren of (h) Belial, and (i) knewe not the Lorde.

13 And the prieſtes cuſtoume toward the people was, that whenſoeuer any man offered any offeryng, the prieſtes lad came, whyle the fleaſhe was a ſeethyng, & a fleaſhhooke with three teeth in his hande:

14 And thruſt it into the panne, kettle, caldren, or pot: and (k) al that the fleaſhhooke brought vp, that the prieſt tooke for hym ſelfe: And ſo they dyd vnto al the Iſraelites, that came thyther to Silo.

17 And the ſinne of the young menne was very great before the Lorde: For menne (n) abhorred the offeryng of the Lorde.

18 But the chylde Samuel miniſtred before the Lorde, gyrded with a lynnen Ephod.

19 Moreouer, his mother made hym a lytle coate, and brought it to hym from yeere to yeere, when ſhe came vp with her huſbande to offer the yeerely ſacrifice.

21 And the Lorde viſited Hanna, ſo that ſhe conceiued, and bare three ſonnes, and two daughters: And the chylde Samuel grewe (p) before the Lorde.

22 Eli was very olde, and hearde al that his ſonnes dyd vnto Iſrael, and howe they lay with the women, that wayted at the doore of the tabernacle of the congregation.

23 And he ſayde vnto them, Why doo ye ſuche thynges? For of al theſe people I heare euil reportes of you.

24 Oh, nay my ſonnes: For it is no good report, that I heare, howe that ye make the Lordes people to treſpaſſe.

25 If one man ſinne agaynſt another, the iudge ſhal iudge it: But yf a man ſinne agaynſt the Lorde, who wil be his (q) dayſeman? Notwithſtandyng, they hearkened not vnto the voice of theyr father, becauſe the Lorde woulde ſlay them.

26 (The childe Samuel profited, and grewe, and was in fauour both with the Lorde and alſo with menne.)

27 And there came a man of God vnto Eli, and ſayde vnto him, Thus ſayth the Lorde, Dyd not I playnely appeare vnto the houſe of thy father, when they were in Egypt in Pharaoes houſe?

28 And I choſe (r) him out of al the tribes of Iſrael to be my prieſt, for to offer vpon myne aulter, and to burne incenſe, * and to weare an Ephod before me: and I gaue vnto the houſe of thy father, al the offeryngs made by fyre of the chyldren of Iſrael.

29 Wherefore (s) treade ye downe my ſacrifice, and mine offeringes whiche I (t) commaunded in the tabernacle, and honoureſt thy chyldren aboue me, to make your ſelues fat of the firſt fruites of al the offerynges of Iſrael my people?

30 Wherefore the Lorde God of Iſrael ſayth, I ſayde, that thy houſe and the houſe of thy father, ſhoulde (v) walke before me for euer: But nowe the Lorde ſayth, That thyng be farre from me: For them that worſhip me, I wyl worſhip: And they that deſpiſe me, ſhal comme to ſhame.

4 And the Lorde called Samuel. And he anſweared, I am here.

5 And he ranne vnto Eli, and ſayde, Here am I, for thou calledſt me. And he ſayde, I called thee not, goe againe and ſleepe. And he went, and layde hym downe to ſleepe.

6 And the Lorde called once agayne, Samuel. And Samuel aroſe, and went to Eli, and ſayde, I am here, for thou dyddeſt calle me. And he anſweared, I called thee not, my ſonne, goe agayne and ſleepe.

9 Therefore Eli ſayde vnto Samuel: Goe and ſleepe, and if he cal thee, then ſay, Speake Lorde, for thy ſeruant heareth thee. So Samuel went and ſleapt in his place.

10 And the Lorde came, and ſtoode and called as before, Samuel, Samuel. Then Samuel anſweared, Speake, for thy ſeruant heareth.

14 And therefore I haue ſworne vnto the houſe of Eli, that the wyckedneſſe of Elies houſe ſhal not be pourged with ſacrifice, nor offeryng, for euer.

15 Samuel ſleapt vntyl the mornyng, and opened the doores of the houſe of the Lorde: and Samuel feared to ſhewe Eli the viſion.

ʺ Or, to crye out.

20 And about the tyme of her death, the women that ſtoode about her, ſayde vnto her, Feare not, for thou haſt borne a ſonne. But ſhe anſweared not, nor regarded it.

21 And ſhe named the chylde (k) Ichabod, ſayeing, The glory is departed from Iſrael, (becauſe the arke of GOD was taken, and becauſe of her father in lawe and her huſbande.)

(k) Whiche is by interpretation, no glorie, or where is the glorie.

22 And ſhe ſayde agayne, The glory is gonne from Iſrael: for the arke of God is taken.

The v.Chapter.

2 The Philiſtines bryng the arke into the houſe of Dagon. 6 The men of Aſdod are plagued. 8 The arke is caryed into Gath, and after to Acaron.

A 1 And the Philiſtines tooke the Arke of God, and caried it from the Eben ezer vnto Aſdod.

2 Yea the Philiſtines tooke the arke of God, and brought it into the houſe of Dagon, and ſet it by (a) Dagon.

(a) Whiche was theyr cheefe idole, and from the nauel downewarde lyke a fyſhe, and vpwarde, lyke a man.

3 And when they of Aſdod were vp in the next day in the mornyng, beholde, Dagon was fallen vpon his face on the earth before the arke of the Lorde: And they tooke Dagon, and ſet hym in his place agayne.

4 And when they were comme early in the next mornyng, beholde Dagon was fallen vpon his face on the grounde, before the arke of the Lorde, and his head, and his two handes were cut of vpon the threſhold, that only the ſtumpe of Dagon was leaſt to hym.

5 And therefore is it, that neither the prieſtes of Dagon, nor any man that commeth into Dagons houſe, (b) treadeth on the threſholde of Dagon in Aſdod, vnto this day.

(b) Proceeding from one ſuperſtition to another.

6 But the hande of the Lorde was heauy vpon them of Aſdod, and he deſtroyed them, and ſmote them with emerodes, both Aſdod, and al the coaſtes thereof.

B 7 And when the menne of Aſdod ſawe that it was ſo, they ſayde, The arke of the God of Iſrael ſhal not abyde here with vs: for his hande is ſoare vpon vs, and vpon (c) Dagon our God.

(c) This is a lamentable blindnes: they cleaue ſtyl to that ydole whiche lieth vpon the grounde lyke a blocke, & is not hable to helpe, neyther them, nor it ſelfe.

8 They ſent therefore, and geathered al the lordes of the Philiſtines vnto them, and ſaid, What ſhal we doo with the arke of the God of Iſrael? They anſweared, Let the arke of the god of Iſrael be caried about vnto Gath. And they caryed the arke of the God of Iſrael about.

9 And when they had caryed it about, the hand of the Lord was agaynſt the citie with a very great deſtruction: and he ſmote the menne of the citie both ſmal and great, and they had emerodes in theyr ſecrete partes.

10 Therefore they ſent the arke of God to Acaron: and as ſoone as the arke of God came to Acaron, the Acaronites cryed out, ſayeing, They haue brought the arke of the God of Iſrael to vs, to ſlay vs, and our people.

11 And ſo they ſent, and geathered togeather al the lordes of the Philiſtines, & ſayd, Sende (d) away the arke of the God of Iſrael, to goe agayne to his owne place, that it ſlay vs not, and our people. For there was a deſtruction and death throughout al the citie: and the hande of God was exceedyng ſoare there.

(d) Affliction worketh not lyke effect in the wycked & in the godly: In the one grudge, and deſperation, in the other repentance and reconciliation.

12 And the men that dyed not, were ſmitten with the emerodes: And the crye of the citie went vp to heauen.

The vj. Chapter.

1 The time that the arke was with the Philiſtines. The arke is ſent home agayne with a gyft. 12 It commeth to Bethſames. 17 The Philiſtines offer golden emerodes. 19 The men of Bethſames are ſtriken for looking into the arke.

A 1 AND the arke of the Lorde was in the countrey of the Philiſtines ſeuen monethes.

2 And the Philiſtines called for the prieſtes and the ſoothſaiers, ſaying, What ſhal we doo with the arke of the Lord? Tel vs wherwith we ſhal ſende it home againe?

3 They ſayde, If you ſende away the arke of the GOD of Iſrael, ſende it not empty: but rewarde it with a ſinne (a) offeryng: and then ye ſhalbe whole, and it ſhalbe knowen to you, why his hande departeth not from you.

(a) For that you haue preſumed, to carie it away from Iſrael.

4 Then ſayde they, And what ſhalbe the ſinne offeryng, whiche we ſhal rewarde hym with? They anſweared, Fyue golden emerodes, and fyue golden myſe, accordyng to the number of the princes of the Philiſtines: For one plague was on you al, and on your princes.

5 Wherefore ye ſhal make images lyke to your emerodes, and images lyke to your myſe, that corrupt the lande, and ye ſhal geue glorie vnto the God of Iſrael, that he may take his hand from of you, and from of your (b) goddes, and from of your lande.

(b) Here they are forced to knowledge the true lyuing God, & his myghty hand: and yet becauſe of their idolatrie haue not the grace, to conuert & worſhyp hym.

6 Wherefore doo ye harden your hartes, as the Egyptians and Pharao hardened theyr hartes? Whiche when he wrought wonderfully among them, did they not let the people goe, and they departed?

7 Nowe therefore, make a newe cart, and take two milche kine, on whom there hath comme no yoke, and tye the kyne to the cart, and bryng the calues home from them. B

8 And take the arke of the Lorde, and lay it vpon the cart, and put the iewels of golde, whiche ye rewarde hym with for a ſinne offering, in a coffer by the ſyde thereof, and ſend it away, that it may goe.

9 And yf ye ſee, that he goeth vp by the way of his owne coaſt to Bethſames, then it is he, that dyd vs this great euyl: If no, we ſhal knowe then, that it is not his hande, that ſmote vs, but it was a (c) chance that happened vs.

(c) The wycked attribute almoſt al thynges to fortune and chaunce: whereas in deede there is nothing donne without gods prouidence and decree.

10 And the menne dyd euen ſo: And tooke two kyne that gaue mylke, and tyed them to the cart, and kept the calues at home.

11 And they layde the arke of the Lorde vpon the cart, and the coffer with the myſe of gold, and with the images of theyr emerodes.

12 And the kyne tooke the ſtreight way to Bethſames, and went on the ſtreyght way: and as they went, they lowed, and turned neyther to the right hande, nor to the left: And the princes of the Philiſtines went after them, vnto the (d) borders of Bethſames.

(d) For the trial of the matter.

13 And they of Bethſames were reaping their wheate harueſt in the valley: and they lyfted vp theyr eyes, and ſpyed the arke, and reioyced, when they ſawe it.

C 14 And the carte came into the feelde of one Iehoſua, a Bethſamite, and ſtoode ſtil there. There was alſo a great ſtone: And [e] they claue the wood of the carte, and offered the kyne a burnt offeryng vnto the Lorde.

(e) To wyte, the menne of Bethſhemes, whiche were Iſraelites.

15 And the Leuites tooke downe the arke of the Lorde, and the coffer, that was with it, wherein the [f] iewels of golde were, and put them on the great ſtone: And the menne of Bethſames ſacrificed burnt ſacrifice, and offered offeringes the ſame day vnto the Lord.

(f) Meaning, the golden emorodes, and the golden miſe.

16 And when the fiue princes of the Philiſtines had ſeene it, they returned to Acaron the ſame day.

17 And theſe are the golden emerodes, whiche the Philiſtines gaue for a ſinne offeryng to the Lorde: for [g] Aſdod one, for Gaza one, for Aſcalon one, for Gath one, and for Acaron one,

(g) Theſe were the fiue principal cities of the Philiſtines, which were not al conquered vnto the tyme of Dauid.

18 And golden myſe, accordyng to the number of al the cities of the Philiſtines [belongyng] to the fiue lordes, both of walled townes, and of townes vnwalled, euen vnto the great [ſtone] of Abel, whereon they ſet downe the arke of the Lorde vnto this day, in the feelde of Iehoſua the Bethſamite.

19 And he ſmote of the menne of Bethſames, becauſe they had [h] looked on the arke of the Lorde: and he ſlue among the people fiftie thouſande and threeſcore and tenne menne: And the people lamented, becauſe the Lorde had ſlayne the people with ſo great a ſlaughter.

(h) For it was not lawful to any other, to touche or to ſee into it: ſaue only to Aaron and his ſonnes. Num. 4. b.

20 Wherefore the menne of Bethſames ſaid, Who is able to ſtande before this holy Lorde God? And [i] to whom ſhal he goe from vs?

D (i) For what people wyl receiue it, to be thus plagued by receiuing therof.

21 And they ſent meſſengers to the inhabitantes of Kiriathiarim, ſaying, The Philiſtines haue brought agayne the arke of the Lorde: comme ye downe, & ſet it vp to you.

The. vii. Chapter.

1 The arke is brought to Kiriathiarim. 3 Samuel exhorteth the people to forſake theyr ſinne, and turne to the Lorde. 10 The Philiſtines fight agaynſt Iſrael, and are ouercomme. 16 Samuel iudgeth Iſrael.

A 1 AND ſo the menne of [a] Kiriathiarim came and ſet vp the arke of the Lorde, & *brought it into the houſe of Aminadab in yͤ hyl, & ſanctified Eleazar his ſonne, to keepe the arke of the Lorde.

(a) A citie in the tribe of Iuda, called alſo Kiriath baal. Ioſu. 13. 2. Reg. 6. a.

2 And whyle the arke abode in Kiriathiarim, the time was long, for it was twentie yeeres: and al the houſe of Iſrael [b] lamented after the Lorde.

(b) Repented them of theyr ſinnes, and ſought after the Lorde.

3 And Samuel ſpake vnto al the houſe of Iſrael, ſayeing, If ye be comme agayne vnto the Lorde with al your hartes, then *put away the ſtrange goddes, and Aſtaroth from among you, & prepare your hartes vnto the Lorde, and ſerue hym *only: For he ſhal ryd you out of the hande of the Philiſtines.

Ioſu. 24. a. Deut. 6. c. Mat. 4. b.

4 Then the chyldren of Iſrael dyd put away Baalim, and Aſtaroth, and ſerued the Lorde only.

5 And Samuel ſayde, Geather al Iſrael to [c] Miſpah, and I wyl pray for you vnto the Lorde.

(c) For Siloh was nowe deſolate, becauſe the Philiſtines had taken thence the arke.

6 And they geathered togeather to Miſpah, and [d] drewe water, and powred it out before the Lorde, and faſted the ſame day, and ſayd there, We haue ſinned againſt the Lord. And Samuel iudged the chyldren of Iſrael in Miſpah.

(d) After the expoſition of ſomme of the learned, it meaneth, that they wept before the Lord.

7 When the Philiſtines heard, that the chyldren of Iſrael were geathered togeather to Miſpah, the princes of the Philiſtines went vp agaynſt Iſrael: And when the chyldren of Iſrael hearde that, they were afrayde of the Philiſtines.

B

8 And the chyldren of Iſrael ſayde to Samuel, [e] Ceaſe not to crye vnto the Lorde our GOD for vs, that he may ſaue vs out of the hande of the Philiſtines.

Eccl. 46. b (e) Now they haue learned, not to truſt in them ſelues, but in God: and to ſeeke helpe, not at the arke, but at his hand alone.

9 And Samuel tooke a ſucking lambe, and offered it altogeather for a burnt offering vnto the Lorde, and cryed vnto the Lorde for Iſrael: and the Lorde hearde hym.

10 And as Samuel offered the burnt offering, the Philiſtines came to fyght agaynſt Iſrael: but the Lorde thundred a great thunder the ſame day among the Philiſtines, & ſcattered them, that they were ſlayne before Iſrael.

11 And the menne of Iſrael went out of Miſpah, and purſued the Philiſtines, and ſmote them, vntyl [they came] vnder Bethchar.

12 And then Samuel tooke a ſtone, and pitched it betweene Miſpah and [f] Shen, and called the name thereof Eben ezer, ſayeing, Hitherto hath the Lorde helped vs.

Ioſua. 24. f. (f) Whiche was a great rocke ouer agaynſt Miſpah.

13 And ſo the Philiſtines were brought vnder, and they came no more into the coaſte of Iſrael: and the hande of the Lorde, was agaynſt the Philiſtines al the dayes of Samuel.

C 14 Thereto the cities, whiche the Philiſtines had taken from Iſrael, were reſtored to Iſrael, euen from Acaron to Gath, and the coaſtes of the ſame did Iſrael deliuer out of yͤ handes of the Philiſtines: And there was peace betweene Iſrael and the [g] Amorites.

[g] Meaning the Philiſtines.

15 Samuel iudged Iſrael al the dayes of his lyfe:

16 And went about yeere by yeere to Bethel, Gilgal, and Miſpah, and iudged Iſrael in al thoſe places.

17 And came agayne to Rama: for there was his houſe: and there he iudged Iſrael alſo: & there he buylt an [h] aulter vnto the Lorde.

[h] Whiche was not contrary to the lawe: for as yet a certayne place was not appoynted.

The, viij. Chapter,

1 Samuel maketh his ſonnes iudges ouer Iſrael: who folowe not his ſteppes. 5 The Iſraelites aſke a kyng. 11 Samuel declareth in what ſtate they ſhould be vnder the king. 19 Notwithſtandyng they aſke one ſtil: and the Lord wylleth Samuel to graunt vnto them,

A 1 When Samuel was olde, he [a] made his ſonnes iudges ouer Iſrael.

[a] Becauſe he was not hable to trauaile, and take the paynes in his olde age.

2 The name of his eldeſt ſonne was [b] Joel, and the name of the ſeconde Abia, and they were iudges in Beerſeba.

[b] Who was alſo called Vaſhni. 1.Chro.6.b.

3 And his ſonnes [c] walked not in his wayes, but turned aſyde after lucre, & tooke rewarde, and peruerted the ryght.

[c] That is, they obſerued not the iuſtice, equitie, vpryghtneſſe, and godlines, of their father.

4 Then al the elders of Iſrael geathered them togeather, & came to Samuel vnto Rama,

5 And ſayd vnto hym, Behold, thou art olde, & thy ſonnes walke not in thy wayes: Now therefore * make vs a kyng to iudge vs, as al other nations [haue.]

6 But the thyng dyſpleaſed Samuel, when they ſayde, Geue vs a kyng to iudge vs: And Samuel prayed vnto the Lorde.

B 7 And the Lorde ſayd vnto Samuel, Heare the voyce of the people in al that they ſay vnto thee: For they haue not caſt thee away, but they haue caſt me away, that I ſhoulde not raigne ouer them.

8 And as they haue euer dōne ſence I brought them out of Egypt vnto this day, and haue forſaken me, and ſerued other goddes, euen ſo doo they vnto thee.

9 Nowe therefore hearken vnto theyr voyce: howebeit yet teſtifie vnto them * and ſhewe them the manner of yͤ kyng that ſhal raigne ouer them.

Deu.17.e.

10 And Samuel tolde al the woordes of the Lorde vnto the people that aſked a kyng of hym,

11 And he ſayde, This ſhal be the [d] manner of the kyng, that ſhal raigne ouer you: * he wyl take your ſonnes, and put them to his charettes, and make his horſemen of them, to runne before his charet,

[d] Excepte ſuche as ſhal haue the feare of god before theyr eyes, & wyl folow his ſtatutes and lawes, as Dauid, Salomō, Ezechias, and Joſias.

12 And wyl make hym of them captaynes ouer thouſandes, and ouer fifties, & wyl ſette them to eare his grounde, and to geather in his harueſt, and to make inſtrumentes of warre, and thynges that ſerue for his charettes.

13 And he wyl take your daughters, & make them apothecaries, cookes, and bakers.

C 14 And he ſhal take your fieldes, * & your vineyardes, and your beſt Oliue trees, and geue them to his ſeruantes.

3.Re.21.a.

15 And he ſhal take the tenth of your ſeede, and of your vineyardes, and geue it to his chamberlaynes, and to his ſeruantes.

16 And he ſhal take your men ſeruantes, and mayde ſeruantes, young menne, & the cheefe of your aſſes, and put them to his woorke.

17 And he ſhal take the tenth of your ſheepe, and ye ſhalbe his ſeruantes.

18 And ye ſhal crye out at that tyme, becauſe of your kyng, whiche ye ſhal haue choſen you: and the Lorde wyl [e] not heare you at that day.

[e] Becauſe you repent not for your ſinnes.

19 Neuertheleſſe, the people would not heare the voyce of Samuel, but ſayde, Nay, not ſo: But there ſhalbe a kyng ouer vs.

D 20 That we may be lyke other nations, and that our kyng may iudge vs, & goe out before vs, and fyght our battayles.

21 Therefore when Samuel hearde al the woordes of the people, he rehearſed them in the eares of the Lorde.

22 And the Lorde ſayde to Samuel, Hearken vnto theyr voyce, & make them a kyng. And Samuel ſaide vnto the menne of Iſrael, Goe euery man vnto his citie.

The.ix.Chapter.

1 Saul ſeekyng his fathers aſſes, by the counſel of his ſeruant goeth to Samuel.
9 The Prophetes called Seers. 15 The Lorde reueileth Sauls comming vnto Samuel, cōmaundyng him to annoynt hym kyng. 22 Samuel bryngeth Saul to the feaſt.

A 1 There was a man of Beniamin named Cis, ẏ ſonne of (a) Abiel, the ſonne of Zeror, the ſonne of Bechorath, the ſōne of Aphiah, the ſonne of a man that was a Ieminite, (b) mighty in power.

2 And the ſame had a ſonne called Saul, a goodly young man & a fayre, ſo that among the chyldren of Iſrael, there was none goodlier then he: From the ſhoulders vpwarde, he was hygher then al the other people.

3 And the aſſes of this Cis Sauls father were loſt: and Cis ſayde to Saul his ſonne, Take one of the laddes with thee, and aryſe, goe and ſeeke the aſſes.

4 And he went through mount Ephraim, and paſſed through the lande of Saliſa: but they founde them not. Then they went thorowe the lande of Salim, & there they were not. When they went alſo through the lande of Iemini, they founde them not.

5 At the laſt, when they were comme to the lande of (c) Zuph, Saul ſayde to his ladde, that was with hym, Comme, let vs returne, leſt my father leaue caryng for the aſſes, and take thought for vs.

6 He ſayde vnto hym, Behold, there is in this citie a man of God, and he is an honourable man: al that he ſayth, commeth ſurely to paſſe: Nowe then let vs goe thyther, yf ſo be he can ſhewe vs, what way we may goe.

B 7 Then ſayde Saul to his ladde, If we wyl goe, what ſhal we bryng the man? For the ″ bread is ſpent in our veſſelles, and there is no other preſent to bryng the man of GOD: What haue we?

8 And the ladde anſweared Saul againe, and ſayde, Beholde, I haue founde about me the fourth part of a (d) ſicle of ſiluer: that wyl I geue the man of God, to tell vs our way.

9 (Before time in Iſrael when a man went to ſeeke an anſweare of GOD, thus wyſe he ſpake, Comme, and let vs goe to the (e) Seer: For he that is now called a prophete, was in the olde tyme called a Seer.)

10 Then ſayde Saul to his ladde, Wel ſayde of thee: Cōme, let vs goe. And ſo they went vnto the citie, where the man of God was.

11 And as they went theyr way vp the hyl to the citie, they met with damoſels, that came out to drawe water, and ſayde vnto them, Is there here a Seer?

12 And the maydens anſweared them, and ſayde, Yea, beholde, he is before you, make haſte nowe, for he came this day to the citie: for there is an (f) offeryng of the people this day in the hyl.

13 When ye be comme into the citie, ye ſhal finde hym ſtreyght way ere he goe vp to the hyl to eate: for the people wyl not eate vntyl he comme, becauſe he dooth (g) bleſſe the offeryng: & then eate they that be bydden to the feaſt: Nowe therefore geat you vp, for this day ſhal ye finde hym.

14 And they went vp into the citie: And when they were comme into the middes of the citie, behold Samuel came out agaynſt them, for to goe vp to the hyl. C

15 But the Lorde had tolde Samuel in his eare (a day before Saul came) ſayeing,

16 To morowe this tyme, I wyl ſende thee a man out of the land of Beniamin: him ſhalt thou annoynt to be captayne ouer my people Iſrael, that he may ſaue my people out of the handes of the Philiſtines: for I haue looked (h) vpon my people, & theyr (i) crye is comme vnto me.

17 When Samuel therefore ſawe Saul, the Lorde anſweared hym, See, this is the man whom I ſpake to thee of: this ſame ſhal raigne ouer my people.

18 Then went Saul to Samuel in the middle of the gate, and ſayde, Telle me, I praye thee, where the Seers houſe is?

19 Samuel anſweared Saul, and ſayd, I am the Seer: Goe vp before me vnto the hyl: for ye ſhal eate with me to day: and to morowe I wyl let thee goe, and wyl telle thee al, that is in thyne (k) hart.

20 And as for thyne aſſes, that were loſt three dayes agoe, care not for them, for they are founde: And (l) whoſe ſhal the beautiful thinges of Iſrael be? Belong they not to thee, and vnto al thy fathers houſe? D

21 But Saul anſweared and ſayde, Am not I the ſonne of a Ieminite, of the ſmalleſt tribe of Iſrael? and my kinred is the leaſte of al the kynredes of the tribe of Beniamin? Wherefore then ſpeakeſt thou ſo to me?

22 And Samuel tooke Saul and his ladde, and brought them into the (m) parler, & made them ſitte in the cheefeſt place among them that were bidden, which were about thirtie perſons.

12 And one of the ſame place anſweared, and ſayde, Who is theyr (g) father? And thereof came the prouerbe, What, is Saul alſo among the (h) prophetes?

(g) Meanyng that propheſie commeth not by ſucceſſion: but is geuen to whom it pleaſeth god.
(h) Notyng therby hym, that commeth from lowe degree, ſuddaynly to honour.

13 And when he had made an ende of propheſyeing, he came to the hygh place.

14 And Sauls vncle ſayde vnto hym, and to his ladde, Whyther went ye? He ſayd, To ſeeke the aſſes: And when we ſaw, that they were no where, we came to Samuel.

15 And Sauls vncle ſayde, Telle me, I pray thee, what Samuel ſayde vnto you?

16 Saul anſweared his vncle, He tolde vs playnely, that the aſſes were founde. But of the kingdome, wherof Samuel ſpake, tolde he hym not.

17 And Samuel called the people togeather vnto the Lord to Miſpah,

18 And ſaid vnto the children of Iſrael, Thus ſayd the Lord God of Iſrael, I brought Iſrael out of Egypt, & deliuered you out of the hande of the Egyptians, & out of the handes of al kyngdomes that trouble you.

19 And ye haue this day caſt away your God, who only delivereth you out of al your aduerſities and tribulations. And ye haue ſayd vnto hym, No, but make a kyng ouer vs. Nowe therefore ſtande ye before the Lorde by your tribes, and your thouſandes.

D 20. And when Samuel had aſſembled togeather al the tribes of Iſrael, the tribe of Beniamin was[i] taken.

21 When he had aſſembled togeather the tribe of Beniamin by theyr kynredes, the kynred of Matri was taken, & at the laſt, Saul the ſonne of Cis was caught: And when they ſought hym, he coulde not be founde.

22 Therefore they aſked the Lorde further, yf the man ſhoulde yet comme thyther? And the Lorde anſweared, Beholde[k] he hath hyd hym ſelfe among the ſtuffe.

23 And they ranne, and fet him thence, and when he ſtoode among the people, he was higher then any of the people from the ſhoulders vpwarde.

24 And Samuel ſayde to al the people, See ye not hym, whom the Lorde hath choſen, & howe there is none lyke hym among al the people? And al the people ſhooted, and ſayde, God " ſaue the kyng.

25 Then Samuel tolde yͤ people[l] the duetie of the kyngdome, and wrote it in a booke, & layde it before the Lorde, and ſent al the people away, euery man to his houſe.

26 And Saul alſo went home to Gibea, and there folowed hym a bande of menne, whoſe hartes God had touched.

E 27 But the chyldren of Belial ſayde, Howe ſhal he ſaue vs? And they deſpiſed hym, and brought hym no preſentes: And he[m] helde his tongue.

The.xi.Chapter.

1 Nahas the Ammonite warreth agaynſt Iabes Gilead. Iabes aſketh helpe of the Iſraelites. 6 Saul promiſeth helpe. 11 The Ammonites are ſlayne. 14 The kingdome is renued.

A 1 Then[a] Nahas the Ammonite came vp, and beſieged Iabes in Gilead: And al the menne of Iabes ſayde vnto Nahas, Make a couenant with vs, & we wyl be thy ſeruantes.

2 And Nahas the Ammonite anſweared them, In this wyl I make a couenant with you, if I may[b] thruſt out al your right eyes, and bryng that ſhame vpon al Iſrael.

3 To whom the elders of Iabes ſayde, Geue vs ſeuen dayes reſpite, that we maye ſende meſſengers vnto al the coaſtes of Iſrael: and then yf there be no man to deliuer vs, we wil comme out to thee.

4 Then came the meſſengers to Gibea of Saul, and tolde this tidynges in the eares of the people: And al the people lifted vp theyr voyces, and wept.

5 And beholde, Saul came folowyng the cattel out of the feelde, and Saul ſayde, What ayleth this people, that they weepe? And they tolde him the tydinges of the men of Iabes.

6 And the ſpirite of God[c] came vpon Saul, when he heard this tidynges, and he was exceedyng angry,

7 And tooke a yoke of Oxen, & hewed them in peeces, and ſent them throughout al the coaſtes of Iſrael by the handes of meſſengers, ſayeing, Whoſoeuer cõmeth not foorth after[d] Saul and after Samuel, ſo ſhal his Oxen be ſerued. And the feare of the Lorde felle on the people, and they came out " with one conſent.

8 And when he numbred them in Bezek, the chyldren of Iſrael were three hundred thouſande menne, and the menne of Iuda thirtie thouſande.

9 And[e] they ſayde vnto the meſſengers that came, So ſay vnto the men of Iabes in Gilead, To morowe by that tyme the ſunne be hote, ye ſhal haue helpe. And the meſſengers came, and ſhewed it to the menne of Iabes, whiche were glad.

10 Therefore the menne of Iabes ſayde, To morowe we wyl comme[f] out vnto you, & ye ſhal doo with vs al that pleaſeth you.

11 And on the morowe Saul put the people in three partes, & they came in vpon the hoſte in the morning watche, and ſlue the Ammonites vntil the heate of the day: And they that remained, were ſcattered ſo, that two of them were not leaſt togeather.

12 And the people ſayd vnto Samuel[g] Who is he that ſaide, Shal Saul raigne ouer vs? bryng thoſe menne, that we may ſlay them.

13 And Saul ſayd, There ſhal no man[h] dye this day: For to day the Lord hath ſaued Iſrael.

14 Then ſayde Samuel vnto the people, Comme, that we may goe to Gilgal, and renue the kyngdome there.

15 And al the people went to Gilgal, & made Saul kyng there before the Lorde in Gilgal, and there they offered[i] peace offeryngs before the Lorde: And there Saul and al the menne of Iſrael reioyced exceedyngly.

The.xii.Chapter.

i Samuel declaryng to the people his integritie, reproueth theyr ingratitude. 19 God by myracle cauſeth the people to confeſſe theyr ſinne. 20 Samuel exhorteth the people to folowe the Lorde.

A

(a) I haue graunted your petition.

1 AND Samuel ſayde vnto al Iſrael, Beholde, I haue (a) hearkened vnto your voyce in al that ye ſayde vnto me: and haue made a kyng ouer you.

(b) To gouerne you in peace and warre.

2 Nowe therefore, your kyng walketh before (b) you: and I am olde, and graye headed, and beholde, my ſonnes are with you: and I haue walked before you from my chyldehoode vnto this day.

(c) That is. Saul.

(d) God wold, that this confeſſion ſhoulde be a paterne for al them, that haue any office.

3 Beholde, here I am: beare recorde of me before the Lorde, and before his (c) annoynted: (d) Whoſe Oxe haue I taken? or whoſe Aſſe haue I taken? Whom haue I donne wrong to? Whom haue I hurt? or of whoſe hande haue I receiued any bribe, to blynde myne eyes therewith? and I wyl reſtoare it you.

4 They ſayde, Thou haſt donne vs no wrong, nor hurt vs: neyther haſt thou taken ought of any mans hande.

5 He ſayde vnto them agayne, The Lorde is witneſſe agaynſt you, and his annoynted is witneſſe this day, that ye haue found nought in my handes. And they anſweared, He is witneſſe.

(e) That is, exalted them, and indued them with his ſpirite to deliuer you.

6 And Samuel ſayde vnto the people, It is the Lorde, that (e) made Moſes and Aaron, and that brought your fathers out of the land of Egypt.

10 And they cryed vnto the Lorde, and ſayde, We haue ſinned, becauſe we haue forſaken the Lord, and haue ſerued Baalim, and Aſtaroth: Now therefore deliuer vs out of the handes of our enimies, & we wyl ſerue thee.

11 And the Lorde ſent Ierobaal, (g) * Bedan, * Iephthah, and * Samuel, and deliuered you out of the handes of your enimies on euery ſyde: and ye dwelled ſafe.

12 And for al that, when you ſawe that Nahas the kyng of the chyldren of Ammon came agaynſt you, ye ſayd vnto me, Not ſo, but a kyng ſhal raigne ouer vs: when yet the Lorde your God was your kyng.

C

13 Nowe therefore beholde the kyng, whom ye haue choſen, and whom ye haue deſyred: loe, the Lorde hath ſet a kyng ouer you.

(h) ye ſhalbe preſerued, as they, that folowe the Lordes wyl.

14 If ye wyl feare the Lorde, and ſerue hym, and heare his voyce, & not diſobey the woord of the Lord, both ye, and the kyng, that raigneth ouer you, ſhal (h) folowe the Lorde your God.

(i) That is, your gouernours.

15 If ye wyl not hearken vnto the voyce of the Lorde, but diſobey the Lordes mouth, then ſhal the hande of the Lorde be vpon you, and on (i) your fathers.

16 Nowe alſo ſtand, and ſee this great thing, whiche the Lord wyl doo before your eyes.

(k) In that you haue forſaken hym, who hath al power in his hande, for a mortal man.

17 Is it not nowe wheate harueſt? I wyl calle vnto the Lorde, and he ſhal ſende thunder and rayne, that ye may perceaue and ſee, how that your wickedneſſe is (k) great, whiche ye haue donne in the ſyght of the Lord, in aſkyng you a kyng.

18 And ſo Samuel called vnto the Lord, and the Lorde ſent thunder and rayne the ſame day: And al the people feared the Lord & Samuel exceedyngly.

19 And al the people ſayde vnto Samuel, Pray for thy ſeruantes vnto the Lorde thy God, that we dye not: for we haue ſinned in aſking vs a king, beſide al our [other] ſinnes.

D

(l) For with the Lord there is mercie, and forgeueneſſe of ſinnes in ſtore for ſuche as wyl repent.

20 And Samuel ſayd vnto the people, Feare not, (Ye haue in deede donne al this wickedneſſe, yet (l) depart not from folowyng of the Lorde, but ſerue the Lorde with al your hartes:

21 Neyther turne ye away: for [then ye goe] after vayne thynges, whiche are not hable to profite you, nor deliuer you, for they are but vanitie.)

22 For the Lord wyl not forſake his people, becauſe of his great names ſake: becauſe it hath pleaſed the Lorde to make you (m) his people.

23 Moreouer, God forbyd, that I ſhoulde ſinne agaynſt the Lorde, and ceaſe prayeyng for you: but I wyl ſhewe you the good and ryght way.

24 Therefore feare you the Lorde, and ſerue him in the trueth, and with al your (n) hartes: and conſyder howe great thynges he hath donne for you.

25 But yf ye doo wickedly, then ſhal ye periſhe, both yee and your kyng.

The.xiij.Chapter.

3 The Philiſtines are ſmitten by Saul and Ionathan. 13 Saul beyng diſobedient to Gods commaundement, is ſhewed of Samuel that he ſhal not raigne. 19 The great ſlauerie, wherein the Philiſtines kept the Iſraelites.

A 1 Saul now had benne king (a) one yeere, (and he raigned two yeeres ouer Iſrael.)

2 And Saul choſe hym three thouſande menne of Iſrael: Two thouſande were with Saul in Michmas, & in mount Bethel, and a thouſande with Ionathan in Gibea Beniamin: and the reſt of the people he ſent euery man to his tent.

3 And Ionathan ſmote the gariſon of yͤ Philiſtines, that was in the (b) hyl: and it came to the Philiſtines eares: And Saul blewe the (c) trumpet throughout al the lande, ſayeing, Let the Hebrues heare.

4 And al Iſrael hearde ſay, howe that Saul had deſtroyed a gariſon of the Philiſtines: Wherefore Iſrael was had in abomination with the Philiſtines. And the people geathered togeather after Saul to Gilgal.

5 The Philiſtines alſo geathered them ſelues togeather to fyght with Iſrael, thirtie thouſande charettes, & ſixe thouſande horſemen, with other people lyke the ſande by the ſeas ſyde in multitude, and came vp, and pitched in Michmas, eaſtward from (d) Bethauen.

6 And when the menne of Iſrael ſawe it, they were in a ſtrayte (and the people were in a diſtreſſe) & the people hyd them ſelues in caues, and in holdes, and in rockes, & in hygh places, and in pittes.

7 And ſomme of the Hebrues went ouer Iordane to goe vnto the lande of (e) Gad, and Gilead: And Saul was yet in Gilgal, and al the people, beyng afrayde, folowed hym.

B 8 And he taryed ſeuen dayes, euen vnto the tyme that Samuel hadde appoynted: But Samuel came not to Gilgal, and the people were therefore (f) ſcattered from hym.

9 And Saul ſayde, Bryng a burnt ſacrifice to me, and peace offerynges. And he offered a burnt ſacrifice.

10 And as ſoone as he had made an ende of offeryng the burnt ſacrifice, beholde Samuel came, and Saul went agaynſt hym to “ ſalute hym.

11 And Samuel ſayd, What haſt thou donne? Saul ſayde, Becauſe I ſawe, that the people ſkattered from me, and that thou cameſt not within the dayes appoynted, and that the Philiſtines geathered them ſelues togeather to Michmas:

12 Therefore ſayde I, The Philiſtines ſhal comme downe nowe vpon me to Gilgal, and I haue not made ſupplication vnto the Lorde: I was bolde therefore, and offered a burnt offeryng.

13 And Samuel ſayde to Saul, Thou art become a foole: thou haſt not kept yͤ commaundement of the Lorde thy (g) God, whiche he commaunded thee: For at this tyme woulde the Lorde haue ſtabliſhed thy kingdome vpon Iſrael for euer.

C 14 But nowe, thy kyngdome ſhal not continue: The Lorde hath ſought hym a (h) man after his owne hart: and the Lord hath commaunded hym to be captayne ouer his people, becauſe thou haſt not kept that, whiche the Lorde commaunded thee.

15 And Samuel aroſe, and gate him vp from Gilgal (i) in Gibea of Beniamin, and Saul numbred the people that were founde with hym, and they were about ſixe hundred men.

16 And Saul and Ionathan his ſonne, and the people, that were founde with them, had theyr abydyng in Gibea of Beniamin: but the Philiſtines pitched in Michmas.

17 And there came out of the hoſt of the Philiſtines three companies to deſtroy: one companie turned vnto the way, that leadeth to Ophra, vnto the lande of Sual:

18 And another companie turned the way to Bethoron: And the thyrde companie turned to the way of the coaſte, that is ſeene about the valley of Zeboim towarde the wylderneſſe.

19 There was no ſmyth founde throughout al the lande of Iſrael: For the Philiſtines ſayd, Leſt the Hebrues make them ſwordes, or ſpeares.

D 20 But al the Iſraelites went downe to the Philiſtines, to mende euery man his ſhare, his mattocke, his axe, and weedyng hooke.

21 Yet they had a file for the ſhares, for the mattockes, for the pickforkes, and for the axes, and for to ſharpen theyr goades.

22 And ſo in tyme of battaile, there was neyther (k) ſworde, nor ſpeare founde in the handes of any of the people, that were with Saul and Ionathan: But with Saul and Ionathan his ſonne was there founde.

23 And the gariſon of the Philiſtines came out to goe ouer vnto Michmas.

The xiiii. Chapter.

14 Ionathan and his harneſſe bearer put the Philiſtines to flyght. 24 Saul byndeth the people by an othe, not to eate tyl euenyng. 32 The people eate with the blood. 38 Saul woulde put Ionathan to death. 45 The people deliuer hym.

A 1 THen on a tyme Ionathan the ſonne of Saul, ſayd vnto his young man, that bare his harneſſe, [a] Comme, and let vs go ouer to the Philiſtines gariſon, that are yonder on the other ſyde: and he tolde not his father.

(a) This fact of Ionathan is ſinguler, and donne in fayth, by the inſtinction of gods ſpirite: and therefore not to be folowed by the diſcipline of warre.

2 And Saul taryed in the vttermoſt part of Gibea, vnder a Pomegranate tree, whiche is in Migron: and the people that were with hym, were vpon ſixe hundred menne.

3 And Ahia the ſonne of Ahitop, Ichabods brother, the ſonne of Phinehes, the ſonne of Eli, was the Lordes [b] prieſt in Silo, and ware an Ephod: And the people wiſt not that Ionathan was gonne.

(b) For the prieſthoode was not yet taken away from the houſe of Eli: but continued vntyl the tyme of Zadok.

4 And in the middes of the paſſage, by whiche Ionathan ſought to goe ouer vnto the Philiſtines gariſon, there was a ſharpe rocke on the one ſyde, and a ſharpe rocke on the other ſyde: the one called Bozez, and the other Sene.

5 The forefront of the one leaned northward toward Michmas, and the other was ſouthward towarde Gibea.

6 And Ionathan ſayde to the young man that bare his harneſſe, Comme, and let vs goe ouer vnto the gariſon of theſe vncircumciſed, it may be, that the Lorde wyl woorke with vs: for it is ″ no hardneſſe with the Lorde, to ſaue eyther in many, or in fewe.

″ Or, none can let the Lorde.

B 7 And his harneſſe bearer ſayde vnto hym, Doo al that is in thyne hart: Goe where it pleaſeth thee, behold I am with thee as thine hart luſteth.

8 Then ſayde Ionathan, Beholde, we goe ouer vnto theſe menne, and ſhal ſhewe our ſelues vnto them.

9 Yf they ſay on this wyſe to vs, Tarrie vntyl we comme to you: then we wyl ſtande ſtyl in our place, and not goe vp vnto them.

10 But yf they ſay, Comme vp vnto vs, then we wyl goe vp, for the Lorde hath [c] deliuered them into our handes: And this ſhalbe a ſigne vnto vs.

(c) This he learned neyther of diuiners, nor of ſoothſayers: but of the ſpirite of God, confirmyng his fayth by ſignes preſcribed by the ſame ſpirite.

11 And they both ſhewed them ſelues vnto the gariſon of the Philiſtines. And the Philiſtines ſayde, See, the Hebrues comme out of the [d] holes, where they had hydde them ſelues in.

(d) That they ſpake contemptuouſly, and by deriſion.

12 And the menne of the gariſon anſweared Ionathan and his harneſſe bearer, and ſayd, Comme vp to vs, and we wyl ſhewe you a thyng. And Ionathan ſayde to his harneſſe bearer, Comme vp after me, for the Lorde hath deliuered them into the hande of Iſrael.

13 And Ionathan clymed vp vpon [e] handes and feete, and his harneſſe bearer after hym: And they felle before Ionathan, and his harneſſe bearer ſlue them after hym.

(e) Becauſe of the ſteepnes of the rocke, where they dyd clime vp.

14 And that firſt ſlaughter which Ionathan & his harneſſe bearer made, was vpon twentie menne, within the compaſſe as it were about an halfe aker of lande, whiche two [oxen plowe.] C

15 And there was a feare in the hoſte, in the feelde, and among al the people: inſomuche, that they that were gonne out of ẏ gariſon to robbe, were afrayde alſo, and the [f] earth trembled, for the feare that was ſent of God.

(f) It is an hyperbolical ſpeache, wherby is ſignified, that the feare whiche god ſent vpon the hoſte of the Philiſtines, was exceedyng great.

16 And the watchmen of Saul in Gibea Beniamin, ſawe: And behold, the multitude was diſcomfited, and were ſmitten as they went.

17 Then ſayde Saul vnto the people that was with him, Searche, & ſee who is gonne away from vs. And when they had numbred, beholde, Ionathan and his harneſſe bearer were not there.

18 And Saul ſayde vnto Ahia, Bryng hyther the [g] arke of God. (For the arke of God was at that time with ẏ chyldren of Iſrael.)

(g) By whiche is meant the Ephod which was ſet vp with the arke, whiche ẏ prieſt ſhoulde put on to aſke counſel, and to telle of thynges to comme. Num. 27. d.

19 And whyle Saul talked vnto the prieſte, the noyſe that was in the hoſte of the Philiſtines, ſpread farther abrode, and encreaſed. And Saul ſayde vnto the prieſte, [h] Withdrawe thyne hande.

(h) Let the Ephod alone, for I haue no leyſure nowe to aſke counſel of God.

20 And Saul ioyned hym ſelfe vnto al the people that were with hym, and they came to the battayle, and beholde, * euery mans ſworde was agaynſt his felowe, and there was a very great diſcomfiture.

Iud. 7. f.

D

21 Moreouer, the Hebrues that were with the Philiſtines before that tyme, & were comme with them into al partes of the hoſte, turned to be with the Iſraelites, that were with Saul and Ionathan.

22 And al the menne of Iſrael alſo, whiche had hydde them ſelues in mount Ephraim, as ſoone as they hearde howe that the Philiſtines were fled, they folowed after them in the batayle.

23 And ſo the Lorde ſaued Iſrael that day: and the batayle continued vnto Bethauen.

24 And when the menne of Iſrael were kept downe with hunger that day, Saul charged the people with an othe, ſayeing, [i] Curſed be the man, that eateth any foode vntyl nyght, tyl I be auenged of myne enimies. And ſo none of the people taſted any ſuſtenance.

25 And al they of the lande came to a woode where hony lay vpon the grounde.

26 And the people came into the wood: And beholde, the hony dropped, and no man moued his hande to his mouth, for the people feared the [k] othe.

27 But Jonathan hearde not, when his father charged the people with the othe: wherfore he put foorth the ende of the rodde that was in his hand, & dipt it in an hony combe, and put his hande to his mouth, and his [l] eyes receiued ſyght.

E 28 Then anſweared one of the people, and ſayde, Thy father made the people to ſweare, ſayeing, Curſed be the man, that eateth any ſuſtenance this day. And the people were " faynt.

29 Then ſayd Jonathan, My father hath [m] troubled the lande: See how mine eyes hath receiued ſyght, becauſe I taſted a litle of this hony.

30 Howe muche more then to day, if the people had eaten of the ſpoyle of their enimies, which they found? And had there not benne then a muche greater ſlaughter among the Philiſtines?

31 And they ſmote the Philiſtines that day, from Michmas to Aialon: And the people were exceedyng faynt.

32 And the people gate them to the ſpoyle, and tooke ſheepe, oxen, and calues, and ſlue them on the ground, and the people dyd eate them with the blood.

F 33 Then menne told Saul ſayeing, Behold, the people ſynne agaynſte the Lorde, in that they eate with the blood. And he ſayde, Ye haue treſpaſſed: Rolle a [n] great ſtone vnto me this day.

34 And Saul ſayde agayne, Goe abroade among the people, and byd them bryng me euery man his oxe, and euery man his ſheepe, and ſlay them here, and eate, and ſynne not agaynſt the Lord in eatyng with the blood. And the people brought euery man his oxe in his hande that nyght, and ſlue them there.

35 And Saul made an aulter vnto the Lord: And that was the " fyrſt aulter, that he made vnto the Lorde.

36 And Saul ſayde, Let vs goe downe after the Philiſtines by nyght, and ſpoyle them, vntyl it be day in the mornyng, & let vs not leaue one man of them. And they ſayde, Doo whatſoeuer thou thynkeſt beſt. Then ſayde the prieſt, Let vs [o] come hyther vnto God.

37 And Saul aſked of God, Shal I goe downe after the Philiſtines? Wylt thou deliuer them into the handes of Iſrael? But he anſweared hym not at that tyme.

38 And Saul ſayde, Let al the " chiefe of the people come hyther, and knowe, and ſee by whom this ſynne is donne this day.

39 For as the Lorde liueth, whiche ſaued Iſrael, though it be in Jonathan my ſonne, he ſhal dye the death. But there was no man among al the people, that anſweared hym.

40 Then he ſayde vnto al Iſrael, Be ye on one ſyde, and I & Jonathan my ſonne wylbe on the other ſyde. And the people ſaid vnto Saul, What thou thynkeſt beſt, that doo. G

41 Therefore Saul ſaid vnto the Lord God of Iſrael, geue a [p] perfite lot. And Saul and Jonathan were caught: but the people eſcaped free.

42 And Saul ſayde, Caſt lot betweene me & Jonathan my ſonne. And Jonathan was caught.

43 Then Saul ſayd to Jonathan, Telle me what thou haſt donne. And Jonathan tolde hym, and ſayde, I taſted a litle hony with the ende of the rod, that was in myne hand, and loe, [q] I muſt dye.

44 Saul anſweared,* God doo ſo and more alſo to me, thou ſhalt dye ye death Jonathan.

45 And the people ſayde vnto Saul, Shal Jonathan dye, whiche hath ſo mightyly delyuered Iſrael? God forbyd. As the Lorde lyueth,* there ſhal not one heare of his head fal to the grounde, for he hath wrought with God this day. And ſo the people delyuered Jonathan, that he dyed not.

46 And then Saul departed vp from folowing the Philiſtines: And the Philiſtines wēt to their owne place.

47 And ſo Saul helde the kyngdome ouer Iſrael, and fought agaynſt al his enimies on euery ſyde, agaynſt Moab, agaynſt the chyldren of Ammon, againſt Edom, agaynſt the kynges of Zoba, & agaynſt the Philiſtines: And whyther ſoeuer he turned hym ſelfe, he put them to the woorſe.

1.Reg.9.c.

(a) Becauſe he hath preferred thee to this honour, thou art bounde to obey hym.

1 SAmuel alſo ſayde vnto Saul, * The Lorde ſente me to annoynt thee, to be king ouer his people, ouer Iſrael: Nowe therefore (a) hearken thou vnto the voyce of the woordes of the Lorde.

Exo.17.d.

4 And Saul geathered the people togeather, and * numbred them in Telaim, two hundred thouſande foote men, and ten thouſand men of Juda.

7 And Saul ſmote the Amalekites, from Heuila, as thou commeſt to Sur, that lyeth before Egypt.

8 And tooke Agag the kyng of the Amalekites alyue, and vtterly deſtroyed al the people, with the edge of the ſwoorde.

Nu.24.b.

(e) Againſt the commaundement of god by Samuel.

10 Then came the woorde of the Lord vnto Samuel, ſayeing,

Gen.vi.c.

11 It * repenteth me that I haue made Saul kyng: For he is turned from me, and hath not performed my commaundementes. And Samuel was heauie in hart, and cryed vnto the Lorde al nyght.

12 And when Samuel roſe early to meete Saul in the mornyng, it was tolde Samuel, that Saul was comme to Carmel, and beholde, he hath made hym there a place, and is returned, and departed, and gonne downe to (f) Gilgal.

(f) There to offer vp ſacrifice for the victorie gotten.

13 And Samuel came to Saul, and Saul ſayde vnto hym, Bleſſed be thou in the lord: I haue fulfylled the (g) commaundement of the Lorde.

(g) This is the manner of hypocrites, when they folowe theyr owne deuiſes, to ſay, they haue fulfilled Gods commaundementes.

14 Samuel ſayde, What meaneth then the bleating of the ſheepe in myne eares, and the lowyng of the oxen, whiche I heare?

C

15 Saul anſweared, They haue brought them from the Amalekites: For the people ſpared the beſt of the ſheepe, and of the oxen, to ſacrifice them vnto the lorde thy God, and the remnante haue we deſtroyed vtterly.

16 Samuel ſayde to Saul, Let me telle thee what the Lorde hath ſayd to me this night. And he ſayde vnto hym, Say on.

17 Samuel ſayde, When thou were (h) litle in thyne owne ſyght, were thou not made the head of the tribes of Iſrael? And hath not the Lorde annoynted thee king ouer Iſrael?

(h) Acknowledgyng thee ſelfe to be of the leaſte tribe of Iſrael, and of the leaſt familie of the tribe of Beniamin.

18 And the Lorde ſent thee on a iourney, and ſayde, Goe, and vtterly deſtroy thoſe ſinners, the Amalekites, and fight agaynſt them vntyl thou deſtroy them.

19 And wherefore haſt thou not hearkened vnto the voyce of the Lorde? but haſt turned to the pray, and haſt donne that, whiche is wicked in the ſyght of the Lorde?

D

20 And Saul ſayde vnto Samuel, Yea, I haue hearkened vnto the voyce of the Lord, and haue gonne the way whiche the Lorde ſent me vnto, and haue brought Agag the kyng of Amalek, and haue deſtroyed the Amalekites.

21 But the people tooke of the ſpoyle, ſheepe, and oxen, & the chiefeſt of the things whiche ſhoulde haue benne deſtroyed, to offer vnto the Lorde thy God in Gilgal.

22 And Samuel ſayde, Hath the Lorde as great pleaſure in burnte ſacrifices and offerynges, as when the voyce of the Lorde is obeyed? Beholde, to obey, is better then ſacrifice: and to hearken, is better then the fatte of rammes.

23 For (i) rebellion is as the ſynne * of witchcraft, and ſtubburneſſe is as the wyckedneſſe of idolatrie: Becauſe thou haſt caſt away the woorde of the Lorde, therefore he hath caſt away thee alſo from beyng kyng.

Exo.22.c.

(i) God hateth nothyng more, then the diſobedience of his commaundement, though thentent ſeeme neuer ſo good to man.

24 And Saul ſayde vnto Samuel, I haue ſinned: For I haue gone farther then the ſayeing of the Lorde, & thy woords, becauſe I feared the people, and obeyed their voyce.

25 Nowe therefore I pray thee, take away my (k) ſynne, and turne againe with me, that I may woorſhyp the Lorde.

(k) This was not true repentaunce, but diſſimulation, fearyng the loſſe of his kyngdome.

26 And Samuel ſayde vnto Saul, I wyl not returne with thee: For thou haſt caſt away the woorde of the Lorde, and the Lord hath caſt away thee, that thou ſhalt not be kyng ouer Iſrael.

D 27 And as Samuel turned hym ſelfe to goe away, he caught the lappe of his coate, and it rent.

28 And Samuel ſaide vnto hym, The Lord hath rent the kyngdome of Iſrael from thee this day, and hath geuen it to a (l) neyghbour of thyne, that is better then thou.

(l) That is to Dauid.

29 The (m) ſtrength of Iſrael wil not beguiſe, nor repent: for he is not a man, that ſhould repent.

(m) Meaning God, who maynteyneth, and defendeth his.

30 He ſayde, I haue ſynned: But nowe honour me before the elders of my people, and before Iſrael, and turne agayne with me, that I may woorſhip the Lord thy God.

31 And ſo Samuel turned agayne, & folowed Saul: and Saul woorſhypped the Lorde.

32 Then ſayde Samuel, Bryng you hyther to me Agag the kyng of the Amalekites. And Agag came vnto hym delicately, and Agag ſayd, Truely the (n) bytterneſſe of death is paſt. E

(n) Either becauſe he had good hope of continuance of lyfe, or for that he was mortified, and redy to dye.

33 And Samuel ſayde, As thy ſwoorde hath made women chyldeleſſe, ſo ſhal thy mother be chyldeleſſe aboue other women. And Samuel hewed Agag in peeces before the Lord in Gilgal.

34 And then * Samuel departed to Rama, and Saul went home to his houſe to Gibea Saul.

1.Reg.7.d.

35 And Samuel came no more to (o) ſee Saul, vntyl the day of his death: Neuertheles, Samuel mourned for Saul: & the lord repented, that he had made Saul king ouer Iſrael.

(o) Though Saul came where Samuel was. Chap.19.d.

The.xvi.Chapter.

1 Samuel is reproued of God, and is ſent to annoynt Dauid. 7 God regardeth the hart.
13 The ſpirite of the Lorde commeth vpon Dauid. 14 The wicked ſpirite is ſent vpon Saul. 19 Saul ſendeth for Dauid.

A 1 The Lorde ſayd vnto Samuel, Howe long wylt thou mourne for Saul, (a) ſeeing I haue caſt him away frõ raigning ouer Iſrael? Fylle thyne (b) horne with oyntmente, & comme, that I may ſende thee to Iſai the Bethlehemite: for I haue prouided me a kyng among his ſonnes.

(a) Gods wil ought to be a ſufficient cauſe of comfort vnto vs, in al afflictions, acknowledgyng that he dooth al thinges for the beſt.

(b) A weake frayle vial was vſed in the annoyntyng of Saul: but nowe an horne: wherby may be ſignified the ſtrength and continuance of the kyngdome of Dauid.

2 And Samuel ſayde, Howe can I goe? For if Saul heare it, he wyl kylle me. The Lord anſweared, Take an heifer with thee, (c) and ſaye, I am comme to offer to the Lorde.

(c) That is, to make a peace offering, whiche might be donne though the arke were not there.

3 And calle Iſai to the offeryng, and I wyl ſhewe thee what thou ſhalt doo. And thou ſhalt annoynt vnto me (d) hym, whom I name vnto thee.

(d) Here is fulfilled the prophecie of Iacob, for the princely ſcepter to begin in the tribe of Iudah. Gen.49.b.

4 And ſo Samuel did as the Lord bad him, and came to Bethlehem: & the elders of the towne were (e) aſtonied at his commyng, & ſayde, Commeſt thou peaceably?

(e) Fearyng leaſt ſomme greeuous crime had benne committed, and that he came to pouniſh the ſame.

5 He anſweared, Yea: I am comme to offer vnto the Lord: * Sanctifie your ſelues, and comme with me to the offeryng. And he ſanctified Iſai and his ſonnes, and bad them to the offeryng.

Numme.11.d.

6 And when they were comme, he looked on Eliab, and ſayde, Surely the Lordes (f) annoynted is before hym.

(f) Thinking that Eliab had benne appoynted of God to be made kyng.

7 But the Lorde ſaid vnto Samuel, Looke not on his faſhion, or on the heigth of his ſtature, becauſe I haue refuſed hym: For [God ſeeth] not as man ſeeth. For man looketh on the outwarde appearance, but the Lorde beholdeth the hart. B

8 Then Iſai called Abinadab, and made him comme before Samuel, and he ſayde, Neyther hath the Lorde choſen this man.

9 Then Iſai made Samma comme, and he ſayde, Neyther yet hath the Lorde choſen hym.

10 Agayne, Iſai made ſeuen of his ſonnes to comme before Samuel: and Samuel ſayde vnto Iſai, The Lorde hath choſen none of theſe.

11 And Samuel ſayde vnto Iſai, Are here al thy chyldren? He ſayde, There is yet a litle one behynde, that keepeth the (g) ſheepe. And Samuel ſayd vnto Iſai, Send, and fet him: for we wyl not ſyt downe, tyl he be comme hyther.

(g) The ſhepheard of the ſheepe, is taken to be made ſhepheard of Iſrael.

12 And he ſent, and brought hym in: And he was ruddy, and of an excellent beautie,* and wel fauoured in ſyght. And the Lorde ſayde, Aryſe, and annoynt hym: For this is he.

Gen. 19. b.

13 Therefore Samuel tooke the horne with the annointment, and annoynted him in the myddes of his brethren. And the (h) ſpirite of the Lorde came vpon Dauid from that day forewarde: And Samuel roſe vp, and went to Rama.

(h) whereby he proſpered in al that he tooke in hand.

C 14 But the ſpirite of the Lord departed from Saul, and an euyl ſpirite, [ſent] of the (i) lord vexed hym.

(i) To vexe the minde of Saul, with anguyſhe of an euyl cõſcience, whereby blacke choler and phrenſie is ingendred.

15 And Sauls ſeruantes ſayd vnto hym, Beholde, an euyl ſpirite [ſent] of God, vexeth thee.

16 Let our Lorde therefore commaunde thy ſeruants (that are before thee) to ſeeke a man that is a cunning player with an harpe: that when the euil ſpirite of God commeth vpon thee, he may play with his hande, and thou ſhalt be eaſed.

17 Saul ſayde vnto his ſeruantes, Prouide me a man then, that can play wel, and bryng hym to me.

18 Then anſweared one of his ſeruantes and ſayde, Beholde, I haue ſeene a ſonne of Iſai the Bethlehemite, that can play vpon inſtrumentes, and is ſtrong, and valiant, & a man of warre, and prudent in dooyng of feates, & wel made, and the Lorde is with hym.

19 Wherefore Saul ſent meſſengers vnto Iſai, and ſayde, Sende me Dauid thy ſonne, whiche is with the ſheepe.

D 20 And Iſai tooke an aſſe [laden] with bread, and a flacket of wyne, and a kyd, and ſent them by Dauid his ſonne vnto Saul.

21 And (k) Dauid came to Saul, and * ſtoode before hym, and he (l) loued hym very wel, and he was made his harneſſe bearer.

22 And Saul ſent to Iſai, ſayeing, Let Dauid nowe remayne with me, for he hath founde fauour in my ſyght.

23 And ſo when the [euyl] ſpirite of God came vpon Saul, Dauid tooke an harpe, & played with his hande: and ſo Saul was (m) refreaſhed, and dyd amende, and the euil ſpirite departed from hym.

(k) By gods prouidence, that he myght be traded in princely and warlike affayres, before he ſhoulde take vpon hym the office of a prince.

* Or, ſerued hym.

(l) His minde not yet corrupted with enuie, whiche quencheth loue, as water dooth fyre.

(m) Whiche benefite to his greater condemnation he recompenſed with crueltie and hatred.

The xvii. Chapter.

1 The Philiſtines make warre agaynſt Iſrael. 10 Goliath defyeth Iſrael. 17 Dauid is ſent to his brethren. 34 The ſtrength and boldneſſe of Dauid. 47 The Lord ſaueth not by ſwoorde nor ſpeare. 50 Dauid kylleth Goliath, and the Philiſtians flee.

A 1 The Philiſtines geathered their hoſt to batayle, and came togeather to Socho, whiche is in Iuda, & pitched betweene Socho and Azekah, in the coſt of * Dammim.

* Or, Ephes Dammia.

2 And Saul and the menne of Iſrael came togeather, and pitched in the valley of * Elah, and put them ſelues in batayle array, to meete the Philiſtines.

* Or, of the oke.

3 And the Philiſtines ſtoode on a mountaine on the one ſide, and Iſrael ſtoode on a mountayne on the other ſide, and there was a valley betweene them.

4 And there came a man betweene them (a) bothe, out of the tentes of the Philiſtines, named Goliath, of Gath: (b) ſyxe cubites and a hand breadth long:

5 And he had an helmet of braſſe vpon his head, & a coate of mayle about hym. And the weight of his coate of maile, was fiue thouſand (c) ſicles of braſſe.

6 And he had bootes of braſſe vpon his legges, and a ſhield of braſſe vpon his ſhoulders.

(a) That is, betweene the two campes.

(b) A man of fyue cubites is a woonder in the worlde: this Goliath is a cubite and a hand breadth more then a woonder.

(c) That is, 156. lib. 4. ounces, after halfe a nounce the ſicle, and 600. ſicles weight amounteth to 18. lib. 3. quarters.

B 7 And the ſhaft of his ſpeare was lyke a weauers beame, and his ſpeares head wayed ſixe hundred ſicles of iron: And one bearyng a ſhielde went before hym.

8 And he ſtoode and cryed againſt the hoſt of Iſrael, & ſaid vnto them, Why are ye comme to ſet your batayle in array? am not I a Philiſtine, and you ſeruantes to Saul? chooſe you a man for you, & let him comme downe to me.

9 And if he be hable to fyght with me, and to * kylle me, then wyl we be your ſeruantes: But if I can ouercomme hym, & beate him, then ſhal ye be our ſeruantes, and ſerue vs.

* Or, ſmite.

10 And the Philiſtine ſayde, I defie the hoſt of Iſrael this day, geue me a man, that we may fyght togeather.

11 When Saul and al Iſrael hearde thoſe woordes of the Philiſtine, they were diſcouraged, and greatly (d) afrayde.

12 Dauid was the ſonne of an Ephrathite of Bethlehem Iuda, named Iſai, whiche had eight ſonnes: and this * man was taken for an olde man in the dayes of Saul.

13 And the three eldeſt ſonnes of Iſai went, and folowed Saul to the batayle: And the names

(d) For the ſpirite of courage, & ryght handeling of matters was taken away from Saul.

* Or, he was counted among them, that bare office.

the names of his three ſonnes that went to batayle, were: Eliab, the eldeſt, and the next, Abinadab, and the thirde, Samma:

C 14 And Dauid was the leaſte, and the three eldeſt went after Saul.

15 Dauid alſo went, and departed from Saul, to (e) feede his fathers ſheepe at Bethlehem.

16 And the Philiſtine came foorth in the mornyng, and euenyng, and continued fourtie dayes.

17 And Iſai ſayde vnto Dauid his ſonne, (f) Take for thy brethren an Epha of this parched corne, and theſe ten loaues, & runne to the hoſt to thy brethren.

18 And carrie theſe tenne freaſhe cheeſes vnto the captayne, and looke howe thy brethren fare, and fet out their (g) pledge.

19 And Saul and they, and al the menne of Iſrael were in the valley of Elah, fyghtyng with the Philiſtines.

D 20 And Dauid roſe vp early in the mornyng, & leaft the ſheepe with a keeper, and tooke, and went as Iſai had commaunded him, and came within the compaſſe of the hoſt: and the hoſt went out in array, and ſhooted in the batayle.

21 For Iſrael & the Philiſtines had put them ſelues in array, armie agaynſt armie.

22 And Dauid leaft the thynges, whiche he bare, vnder the handes of the keeper of the veſſels, and ran into the hoſt, and came, and ſaluted his brethren.

23 And as he talked with them, behold, there ſtoode a man in the myddes (Goliath the Philiſtine by name, of Gath) out of the armie of the Philiſtines, and ſpake (h) ſuche woordes: And Dauid hearde it.

24 And al the people of Iſrael, when they ſaw the man, ranne away from hym, and were ſoare afrayde.

25 And euery man of Iſrael ſayde, Sawe ye not this man, that commeth vp? euen to reuile Iſrael is he comme: *And to hym that kylleth hym, wyl the king geue great riches, and wyl geue hym his daughter thereto, yea and make his fathers houſe (i) free in Iſrael.

26 And Dauid ſpake to the menne that ſtood by, and ſayd, What ſhalbe donne to the man, that kylleth this Philiſtine, and taketh away the ſhame from Iſrael? And what is this vncircumciſed Philiſtine, that he ſhould reuile the hoſt of the lyuyng God?

E 27 And the people anſweared hym (after this manner) ſayeing, So ſhal it be donne to the man that kylleth hym.

28 And Eliab his eldeſt brother heard, when he ſpake vnto the menne, and Eliab was angry with Dauid, and ſaid, Why cameſt thou downe hyther? And with whom haſt thou leaft thoſe fewe ſheepe in the wylderneſſe? I knowe thy pryde, and the malice of thyne harte, that thou art comme downe to ſee the batayle.

29 And Dauid ſayd, And what haue I now donne? is there not a (k) cauſe?

30 And he departed from hym into the preſence of another, and ſpake of the ſame manner: and the people anſweared hym agayne, as before.

31 And they that hearde the woordes whiche Dauid ſpake, rehearſed them before Saul, whiche cauſed hym to be fet.

32 And Dauid ſayde to Saul, Let no mans hart fayle him, becauſe of him: Thy ſeruant, wyl goe, and fyght with yonder Philiſtine.

33 And Saul ſayde to Dauid agayne, Thou art (l) not hable to goe agaynſt yonder Philiſtine, to fyght with hym: For thou art but a chylde, but he is a man of warre, euen from his youth. F

34 Dauid anſweared vnto Saul, Thy ſeruant kept his fathers ſheepe, and there came *a lion, and likewiſe a beare, & tooke a ſheepe out of the flocke:

35 And I went out after him, and ſmote him, and tooke it out of his mouth: And when he aroſe againſt me, I caught him by the beard, and ſmote hym, and ſlue hym.

36 And ſo thy ſeruant ſlue both the lion, and the beare: And truely this vncircumciſed Philiſtine ſhalbe as one of them, ſeeyng he hath rayled on the hoſt of the lyuyng God.

37 And Dauid ſpake moreouer, The Lorde that deliuered me out of the hand of the lion, and out of the hande of the beare, he ſhal deliuer me alſo out of the hād of this Philiſtine. And Saul ſayde vnto Dauid, (m) Goe, and the Lorde [ſhal] be with thee.

38 And Saul put his rayment vpon Dauid, and put an helmet of braſſe vpon his head, & put a coate of mayle vpon hym,

39 And gyrded Dauid with his own ſwoorde vpon his raiment, and he aſſayed to goe, and becauſe he had neuer proued it before, Dauid ſayde vnto Saul, I can not goe with theſe thynges, for I haue not vſed mee ſelfe therto. And Dauid put them of hym, G

40 And tooke his (n) ſtaffe in his hande, and choſe him fiue ſmooth ſtones out of a brooke, & put them in a ſhepheardes bagge, whiche he had, that is in a ſcrippe, and his ſling was in his hande, and he went to the Philiſtine.

(e) The three eldeſt ſonnes of Iſai are taken foorth as valiant menne with Saul to warre: But Dauid, as vnable, is left to keepe ſheepe.

(f) Iſai by this meſſage meaneth to releue the neceſſitie of his ſonnes: But god worketh thereby the deliuerance of his people.

(g) If they haue layd any thing to gage for their neceſſitie, redeeme it out.

(h) As are aboue rehersed.

Ioſu,15.c.

(i) From taxes, and paymentes.

(k) For he came at his fathers cōmaundement, & was alſo moued by Gods ſpirite to take that enterpriſe agaynſt Goliath.

(l) Dauid about to perfourme the worke of God, and motien of his ſpirite, is tempted by the miniſters of Sathan: the enuie of his brother, and the infidelitie of Saul.

Iud.14.b.

(m) For by theſe examples, he ſawe, that the power of God was with hym.

(n) As the weapon, that he coulde beſt handle.

41 And the Philiſtine came and drue neare agaynſt Dauid, and the man that bare the ſhielde went before hym.

42 And when the Philiſtine looked about, and ſawe Dauid, he diſdeyned hym, for he was but young, ruddy, and of a comely face.

43 And the Philiſtine ſaid vnto Dauid, Am I a dogge, that thou commeſt to me with ſtaues? And the Philiſtine (o) curſed Dauid in the name of his goddes.

(o) So that he was terrible, not onlye by ſtature, ſtrength, and armour: But alſo by rayling, curſing, and threatening woordes.

44 And yͤ Philiſtine ſayd to Dauid, Comme to me, and I wyl geue thy fleaſhe vnto the foules of the ayre, and to the beaſtes of the fielde.

45 Then ſaid Dauid to the Philiſtine, Thou commeſt to me with a ſwoord, a ſpeare, and a ſhielde: But I comme to thee in the name of the Lorde of hoſtes, the God of the hoſt of Iſrael, whom thou haſt rayled vpon.

46 (p) This day ſhal the Lorde cloſe thee into my hande, and I ſhal ſmite thee, and take thyne head from thee, and wyl geue the carkaſſes of the hoſt of the Philiſtines this day vnto the foules of the ayre, and to the beaſtes of the earth, that al they whiche be in the worlde may knowe, that there is a God in Iſrael:

(p) This fayth is ſo conſtant, that neyther frende nor foe, is able to make him doubt of the victorie, that Gods ſpirite had aſſured him of.

47 And al this congregation ſhal know, that the Lorde saueth not with ſwoorde, & ſpeare, (For the batayle is the Lordes) and he ſhal geue you into our handes.

48 And when the Philiſtine aroſe to comme, and draw nigh to Dauid, Dauid haſted and ranne to fyght agaynſt the Philiſtine.

49 And Dauid put his hande in his bagge, and tooke out a ſtone, and ſlang it, and ſmote the Philiſtine in his forhead, that the ſtone ſuncke into his forhead, * and he felle grouelyng to the earth.

Eccle. 17. a

50 And ſo Dauid ouercame the Philiſtine with a ſlyng and a ſtone, and ſmote the Philiſtine and ſlue hym, euen when Dauid had no ſwoorde in his hande.

The xviii. Chapter.

3 The amitie of Ionathan and Dauid. 8 Saul enuieth Dauid for the prayſes, that the women gaue hym. 11 Saul woulde haue ſlayne Dauid. 17 He promiſeth hym Merab to wyfe, but geueth hym Michol. 27 Dauid delivereth to Saul two hundred foreſkinnes of the Philiſtines. 29 Saul feareth Dauid, ſeeyng that the Lorde is with hym.

A 1 AND when he had made an ende of ſpeakyng to Saul, the (a) ſoule of Ionathan was knitte with the ſoule of Dauid, and Ionathan loued hym as his owne ſoule.

(a) His affection was fully bent towarde hym.

2 And Saul tooke hym that day, and would let hym goe no more home to his fathers houſe.

3 Then Ionathan & Dauid made a couenãt, becauſe he loued hym as his owne ſoule.

4 And Ionathan put of the robe that was vpon hym ſelfe, and gaue it to Dauid, and therto his garmentes, euen to his ſword, and to his bowe, and to his gyrdle.

5 And Dauid went out whither ſoeuer Saul ſent hym, and behaued hymſelfe (b) wyſely: And Saul ſet him ouer his menne of warre, and he was accepted in the ſyght of al the people, and in the ſyght of Sauls ſeruantes.

(b) That is, he proſpered in al his dooinges.

6 And as they came agayne, when Dauid was returned from the ſlaughter of the (c) Philiſtine, the women came out of al cities of Iſrael, ſyngyng and daunſyng to meete kyng Saul, with tymbrels, with ioy, & with [inſtrumentes of] muſike.

8 And Saul was exceeding (e) wroth, and the ſayeing diſpleaſed hym, and he ſayde, They haue aſcribed vnto Dauid ten thouſand, and to me, but one thouſande: and what can he more haue, ſaue the kyngdome?

9 Wherefore Saul had an eye ouer Dauid from that day forwarde.

10 And on the morowe the euyl ſpirite ſent of God came vpon Saul, and he (f) propheſied in the myddes of the houſe: and Dauid played with his hande lyke as at other tymes: and there was a iauelyn in Sauls hand.

11 And Saul tooke the iauelin, and ſayde, I wyl nayle Dauid to the walle with it. And Dauid auoided out of his preſēce two times.

12 And Saul was afrayde of Dauid, becauſe the Lorde was with hym, and was departed from Saul.

13 Therefore Saul put hym from hym, and made hym a (g) captayne ouer a thouſand, and he went out and in before (h) the people.

14 And Dauid behaued hym ſelfe wyſely in al his wayes, and the Lord was with hym.

15 Wherefore when Saul ſawe, that he was ſo exceedyng wyſe, he was afrayde of hym.

16 But al Iſrael and Iuda loued Dauid, becauſe he went out and in before them.

C 17 And Saul ſayde to Dauid, Beholde, my eldeſt daughter Merob, her I wyl geue thee to wyfe: Onely be a valiant ſonne vnto me, and fyght the Lordes batayles. For Saul thought: Mine hande ſhal not be vpon him, but the hande of the Philiſtines ſhalbe vpon hym.

18 And Dauid anſweared Saul, What am I? and what is my life, or the kynred of my father in Iſrael, that I ſhoulde be ſonne in lawe to the kyng?

19 Howbeit, when the tyme was comme that Merob Sauls daughter ſhoulde haue benne geuen to Dauid, ſhe was geuen vnto (i) Adriel a Meholathite to wyfe.

20 Howbeit, Michol Sauls daughter loued Dauid: and they ſhewed Saul, & the thyng pleaſed hym.

21 And Saul ſayd, I wyl geue hym her, that ſhe may be a ſnare to him, and that the hand of the Philiſtines may be agaynſte hym. Wherfore Saul ſayde to Dauid, Thou ſhalt this day be my ſonne in law in the one of the twayne. D

22 And Saul commaunded his ſeruantes to commune with Dauid ſecretly, and to ſay, Beholde, the kyng hath a fauour towardes thee, and al his ſeruantes loue thee, be nowe therefore the kynges ſonne in lawe.

23 And Sauls ſeruantes ſpake thoſe woordes in the eares of Dauid. And Dauid ſayde, (k) Seemeth it to you a lyght thyng, to be a kynges ſonne in lawe? ſeeyng that I am a poore man, and of ſmal reputation?

24 And the ſeruantes brought Saul woorde agayne, ſayeing, Of this manner ſpake Dauid.

25 And Saul ſayd, This wyſe ſhal ye ſaye to Dauid, The kyng careth for no other dowrie, but for an hundred foreſkynnes of the Philiſtines, to be auenged of the kynges enimies. But Saul thought to make Dauid fal into the handes of the Philiſtines.

26 And when his ſeruantes told Dauid theſe woordes, (l) it pleaſed Dauid welle to be the kynges ſonne in lawe: And the dayes were not expired.

27 Afterward Dauid aroſe with his menne, and went and ſlue of the Philiſtines two hundred menne, and Dauid brought their foreſkynnes, and (m) they gaue them wholy to the kyng, that he myght be the kynges ſonne in lawe*: wherfore Saul gaue hym Michol his daughter to wyfe.

28 And Saul ſawe, and vnderſtoode, howe that the Lorde was with Dauid, and that Michol his daughter loued hym:

29 And he was the more (n) afrayd of Dauid, and Saul became alway Dauids enimie.

30 The lordes of the Philiſtines vſed to goe foorth: and when they went foorth, Dauid behaued hym ſelfe more wyſely, then al the ſeruantes of Saul, ſo that his name was muche ſet by.

3 And I wil goe out, and ſtand by my father, in the fielde where thou art, and wyl commune

5 For he dyd put his lyfe in “ his hande, and ſlue the Philiſtine, and the Lorde brought to paſſe a great health for al Iſrael: Thou ſaweſt it, ⁊ thou reioycedſt: Wherefore then wylt thou ſynne agaynſt innocent blood, and ſlay Dauid without a cauſe?

C

15 And Saul ſent the meſſengers agayne to ſee Dauid, ſayeing, Bryng hym to me bed and al, that I may ſlay hym.

16 And when the meſſengers were come in, behold, there lay an image in the bed with a pyllowe of goates heare vnder the head of it.

17 And Saul ſayde vnto Michol, Why haſt thou mocked me ſo, and ſent away myne enimie, that he is eſcaped? Michol anſwered Saul, For he ſayd vnto me, Let me goe, or els I wyl kylle thee.

The.xx.Chapter.

2 Jonathan comforteth Dauid. 3 They renue their league. 33 Saul would haue kylled Jonathan. 38 Jonathan aduertiſeth Dauid by three arrowes, of his fathers furie.

A 1 AND Dauid fledde from Naioth, which is in Rama, and came, and ſayde before Jonathan, What haue I donne? Wherin I am faulty? What is the ſinne that I haue cōmitted before thy father, that he ſeeketh my lyfe.

2 He ſayde vnto hym, God forbid, thou ſhalt not dye: Behold, my father wyl doo nothing either great or ſmal, but that he wyl “ ſhewe it me: And how ſhoulde my father hide this thyng from me? He wyl not doo it.

“ Heb. Reuele it in mine eare.

3 And Dauid ſware agayne, and ſayde, Thy father knoweth that I haue founde grace in thyne eyes, and therefore he thynketh, Jonathan ſhal not knowe it, leſt he be ſoary: And in very deede, euen as the Lorde lyueth, and as thy ſoule lyueth, there is but a (a) ſteppe betweene me and death.

(a) That is, I am in great daunger of death.

4 Then ſaid Ionathan vnto Dauid, Whatſoeuer thy ſoule "deſireth, that I wyl doo vnto thee.

"Heb. ſayth.

5 And Dauid ſaide vnto Ionathan, Behold, to morowe is the (b) begynnyng of the moneth: & I should ſit with the king at meate: But let me goe, that I may hyde my ſelfe in the fieldes vntyl the thirde day at euen.

(b) And therfore a ſolemne feaſt, and ſolēne ſacrifices belōging therto. Num.28.b

6 If thy father ſpeake of me, then ſay, Dauid aſked leaue of me, that he might goe to Bethlehem to his owne citie: for there is holden a yeerely feaſt for al the kynred.

B 7 And if he ſay, It is wel donne, then thy ſeruant ſhal haue peace: But if he be angry, then be ſure that wickedneſſe is vtterly concluded of hym.

8 And then thou ſhalt ſhewe mercie vnto thy ſeruant: for thou haſt ioyned thy ſeruant into a (c) couenant of the Lorde with thee: Notwithſtanding, if there be in me iniquitie, ſlay me thee ſelfe? for why ſhouldeſt thou bryng me to thy father?

(c) Becauſe it conſiſted in al godly and honeſt matters, and for that it was confirmed of both parties by an oth in the name of the Lorde.

9 And Ionathan anſweared, God keepe that from thee: For if I knewe, that wickedneſſe were (d) concluded of my father to comme vpon thee, woulde not I telle it the?

(d) That he were fully determined to kylle thee.

10 Then ſaid Dauid to Ionathan, Who ſhal telle me? howe [ſhal I knowe] if thy father anſweare thee cruelly?

11 And Ionathan ſayd vnto Dauid, Comme, and let vs goe out into the fielde. And they went out both of them into the fielde.

12 And Ionathan ſayd vnto Dauid, O Lord God of Iſrael, when I haue groped my fathers minde, as this time to morow, or within theſe three daies, & if it be wel with Dauid, & I then ſend not vnto thee, and ſhew it thee:

13 The Lorde doo ſo, (e) and muche more vnto Ionathan. But if my father haue pleaſure to doo thee euyl, I wyl ſhewe thee alſo, and ſend thee away, that thou maieſt go in peace: and the Lorde be with thee, as he hath benne with my father.

(e) That is, the Lord puniſhe me moſt greuouſly.

C 14 And [I require] not, whyles I lyue, [for I doubt not] but thou wylt ſhewe me the mercie of the Lorde, that I dye not:

15 But [I require] that thou cut not of thy mercie from my houſe for euer: no not when the Lorde hath deſtroyed the enimies of Dauid, euery one from the face of the earth.

16 And ſo Ionathan made a bonde with the houſe of Dauid, [ſayeing.] Let the Lorde require it at the handes of Dauids enimies.

17 And Ionathan ſware agayne vnto Dauid, becauſe he loued hym (For he loued hym as his owne ſoule)

18 Then ſayde Ionathan to Dauid, To morowe is the firſt day of the moone, and thou ſhalt be " miſſed, becauſe the place where thou were wont to ſit, ſhalbe empty.

" Or, mentioned

19 Therefore thou ſhalt hyde thee ſelfe three dayes: [then] thou ſhalt goe downe quickly, and comme to the place, where thou diddeſt hide thee ſelfe, when ẏ buſineſſe was in hand, and ſhalt remayne by the ſtone "Eſel.

"Hebr. Of the way, becauſe it ſerued as a ſigne, to ſhew the way.

20 And I wil ſhoote three arowes on the ſide therof, as though I ſhoote them at a marke,

21 And I wyl ſende a lad, and byd hym goe ſeeke the arowes. And if I ſay vnto the lad, See, the arowes are on this ſyde thee, bryng them: then comme thou: for it is peace, and no hurt, as the Lorde liueth: D

22 But if I ſay vnto the lad, Behold ẏ arowes are beyond thee: goe thy way: for the (f) lorde hath ſent thee away.

(f) Uſing me as his inſtrument, to geue thee warnyng to make away

23 And as touchyng this, whiche thou and I haue ſpoken, beholde the Lorde be betweene thee and me for euer.

24 And ſo Dauid hyd him ſelfe in the fielde: And when the new moone was comme, the kyng ſate hym downe to eate meate.

25 And the kyng ſate as at other tymes vpon his ſeate, euen vpon his ſeate by the wal: And Ionathan aroſe, and Abner ſate by Sauls ſyde, and Dauids place was empty.

26 Neuertheleſſe, Saul ſaide nothing al that day: For he thought, Somme thyng hath befallen hym, (g) though he were cleane.

(g) Yet he might haue ſomme buſines to let him.

27 But on the morowe, whiche was the ſeconde day of the newe moone, Dauids place was empty agayne: And Saul ſayde vnto Ionathan his ſonne, Wherefore commeth not that ſonne of (h) Iſai to meate, neyther yeſterday, nor to day?

(h) He calleth hym the ſonne of Iſai, by contempt, and diſdeyne.

E 28 And Ionathan anſweared vnto Saul, Dauid aſked licence of me, to goe to Bethlehem.

29 For he ſayde, Let me goe, I pray thee, for our kynred dooth holde an offeryng in the citie, and my brother hath ſent for me: and therfore if I haue founde fauour in thyne eyes, let me goe, I pray thee, & ſee my brethren. This is the cauſe, that he commeth not vnto the kynges table.

30 Then was Saul angry with Ionathan, and ſayde vnto hym, Thou (i) ſonne of the wicked rebellious woman, do not I know, that thou haſt choſen the ſonne of Iſai vnto thine owne rebuke, and vnto the rebuke, and ſhame of thy mother?

(i) Thou foloweſt the maner of thy mother, whiche neuer obeyed me.

31 For as long as the ſonne of Iſai liueth vpō the earth, thou ſhalt not be ſtabliſhed, nor yet thy kyngdome: Wherefore nowe ſende, and fet him vnto me: for he is the child of (k) death.

(k) In Hebrue phraſe, in meanyng, he ſhal ſurely die.

32 And Jonathan anſweared vnto Saul his father, and ſayde to hym, wherfore ſhould he dye? What hath he donne?

33 And Saul lyfted vp a ſpeare to hit hym: Whereby Jonathan wiſt wel that it was vtterly determined of his father, to ſlay Dauid.

34 And ſo Jonathan aroſe from the table in a great anger, and dyd eate no meate the ſeconde day of the moneth: for he was ſoary for Dauid, becauſe his father had donne him ſhame.

F 35 On the next mornyng, Jonathan went out into the fielde, at the (l) tyme appoynted with Dauid, and a litle lad with hym.

(l) For this was the third day, as it was agreed vpon.

36 And he ſayde vnto his boye, Runne, and ſeeke out myne arowes, which I ſhoote. And as the boy ranne, he ſhot an arowe beyonde hym.

37 And when the ladde was comme to the place, whyther Jonathan had ſhot ẏ arowe, Jonathan cryed after the lad, and ſayde, Is not the arowe beyonde thee?

38 And Jonathan cryed after the lad agayne: Make (m) ſpeede, haſte thee, and ſtande not ſtyl. And Jonathans lad geathered vp the arowes, and came to his maiſter.

(m) By theſe wordes ſpoke to the boy, he admoniſheth Dauid what he ſhal doo.

39 But the ladde wiſt nothing of the matter: onely Jonathan and Dauid wiſt it.

40 And Jonathan gaue his (n) inſtrumentes vnto the lad, that was with hym, and ſayde vnto hym, Goe, & carrie them to the towne.

(n) That is, his bowe, and his arowes.

41 And as ſoone as the lad was gonne, Dauid aroſe out of a place, that was toward the ſouth, and felle on his face to the ground, and bowed him ſelfe three tymes: And they kiſſed eyther other, and wept togeather, ſo long tyl Dauid (o) exceeded.

(o) In weepyng.

42 And Jonathan ſayde to Dauid, Goe in peace: And the thynges, whiche we haue ſworne both of vs in the name of the Lorde, ſayeing, The lorde be betweene thee and me, and betweene thy ſeede and myne, let them ſtand for euer. And he aroſe, and departed: And Jonathan went into the towne.

The.xxi.Chapter.

1 Dauid fleeth to Nob to Ahimelech the prieſt. 6 He geateth of hym the ſhewe bread to ſatiſfie his hungre. 7 Doeg Sauls ſeruant was preſent. 10 Dauid fleeth to king Achis, 13 and there fayneth him ſelfe mad.

A 1 Then came Dauid to (a) Nob to Ahimelech the prieſt: & Ahimelech was aſtonyed at the meetyng of Dauid, and ſayd vnto hym, Why art thou alone, & no mã with thee?

(a) Where the arke then was, to aſke counſel of the Lorde.

2 And Dauid ſayde to Ahimelech the prieſt, The king hath commaunded me a certaine thyng, and hath ſayde vnto me, Let no man know, where about I ſend thee, and what I haue cõmaunded thee: And I haue appoynted my ſeruantes to ſuche and ſuche places.

3 Nowe therefore, if thou haue ought vnder thyne hand, *geue me fiue loaues of bread, or what commeth to hande.

1.Reg.25.b

4 And the prieſt anſweared Dauid, and ſaid, There is no common bread vnder myne hand: but here is halowed bread: if the young menne haue kept them ſelues, ſpecially from women.

5 Dauid anſweared the prieſt, and ſaide vnto hym, Of a trueth, women haue beene ſeparated from vs theſe two or three dayes, ſince I came out, and the (b) veſſels of the young menne were holy: Howbeit, this way is vnpure: and how muche more ſhal there be holineſſe in the veſſel?

(b) That is, their bodies.

6 And ſo the prieſt gaue hym halowed bread: for there was none other bread there, ſaue the ſhewe bread, that was taken from before the Lorde, to put freaſhe bread there the day, that it was taken away.

7 (And there was there the ſame day a certayne man, of the ſeruantes of Saul, (c) abyding before the Lord, named Doeg, an Edomite, the chiefeſt of Sauls heardmen.)

B

(c) Taryeing to worſhip before the arke.

8 And Dauid ſayde vnto Ahimelech, Is not here vnder thine hand either ſpeare, or ſworde? for I haue neyther brought my ſworde, nor my harneſſe with me: becauſe the kynges buſineſſe required haſte.

9 And the prieſt ſayde, The ſworde of Goliath the Philiſtine, whom thou ſlueſt in the valley of Elah, beholde it is here wrapt in a cloth behynde the (d) Ephod: If thou wylt take that, take it: for there is no other, ſaue that here. And Dauid ſayde, There is none to that: geue it me.

(d) That is, behinde the place, where the hygh prieſtes garment lay.

10 And Dauid aroſe, and fled the ſame day from the (e) preſence of Saul, and went to Achis the kyng of Gath.

(e) That is, out of his reache, and dominion.

11 And the ſeruantes of Achis ſaide vnto him, Is not this Dauid the kyng of the land? Did they not ſyng vnto hym in daunſes, ſayeing, Saul hath ſlayne his thouſande, and Dauid his tenne thouſande?

12 And Dauid (f) put thoſe woordes into his hart, and was ſoare afraide of Achis the king of Gath.

(f) An Hebrue phraſe, wherbi is meant, that he weighed & conſidered thoſe wordes.

13 And he changed his ſpeache before them, and fayned hym ſelfe mad in their handes, &

(g) After the manner of fooles.

C 14 Then ſayd Achis vnto his ſeruantes, Lo, ye ſee, that this man is beſide him ſelfe: wherfore then haue ye brought him to me?

3 And Dauid went thence to Miſpah in the lande of (b) Moab, and ſayd vnto the kyng of Moab: Let my father and my mother (I pray thee) come foorth vnto you, til I know, what God wyl doo for me.

(b) For there was an other ſo called in Juda.

4 And (c) he brought them before the kyng of Moab: and they dwelt with hym al the while, that Dauid kept him ſelfe in yͤ (d) hold.

(c) To auoyde yͤ rage & crueltie of Saul.

(d) That is, in Miſpah, whiche was a ſtrong hold.

5 And the prophete Gad ſayde vnto Dauid, Abide not in the holde, but depart, and goe into the lande of Juda. Then Dauid departed, and came into the foreſt Hareth.

6 And Saul heard that Dauid was diſcouered, and alſo the menne that were with hym: & Saul ſate in Gibea vnder a tree in Rama, hauyng his ſpeare in his hande, and al his menne ſtoode about hym.

B 7 And Saul ſayde vnto his ſeruantes that ſtood about him, Heare I pray you, ye ſonnes of (c) Jemini: Wyl the ſonne of Iſai geue euery one of you fieldes, and vineyardes, & make you al captaynes ouer thouſandes, and ouer hundredes,

(c) ye that are of my tribe and linage.

8 That ye haue alſo conſpired agaynſt me: & there is none that telleth me, that my ſonne hath made a couenãt with the ſonne of Iſai: and there is none of you that is ſoary for me, or ſheweth me, that my ſonne hath ſtirred vp my ſeruant to lye in wayte againſt me [as appeareth] this day?

9 Then anſweared Doeg yͤ Edomite (which was appoynted by the ſeruantes of Saul,) & ſayd, I ſawe the ſonne of Iſai, when he came to Nob to Ahimelech the ſonne of Ahitob,

10 Which aſked counſel of the Lord for him, and gaue hym vitayles, and the ſworde of Goliath the Philiſtine alſo.

11 Then the kyng ſent, & called for Ahimelech the prieſt, the ſonne of Ahitob, & al his fathers houſe [that is to ſay] the (f) prieſtes, that were in Nob: And they came al to the kyng.

(f) which were the remnant of the houſe of Eli, whoſe houſe God threatened to pouniſhe.

12 And Saul ſayde, Heare nowe thou ſonne of Ahitob. He anſweared, Here I am my lorde.

13 And Saul ſayde vnto hym, Why haue ye conſpired agaynſt me, thou, and the ſonne of Iſai, in that thou haſt geuen him vitaile, and a ſworde, and haſt aſked counſel of God for hym, that he ſhoulde aryſe agaynſt me, and lye in wayte for me [as appeareth] this day?

C 14 Ahimelech anſweared the kyng, and ſaid, Who is ſo faithful among al thy ſeruantes, as Dauid, and thereto the kinges ſonne in lawe: and goeth at thy byddyng, and is had in honour in thyne houſe?

15 Haue I this day begon firſt (g) to aſke counſel of God for hym? That be farre from me: Let not the king impute any thing vnto his ſeruant, nor to al the houſe of my father: For thy ſeruant knewe nothyng of al this, eyther leſſe, or more.

(g) when he went about thy affaires.

16 The kyng ſayde, Thou ſhalt ſurely dye Ahimelech, thou, and al thy fathers houſe.

17 And the king ſayd vnto the footemen, that ſtoode about hym, Turne, & ſlay the prieſtes of the Lorde: both becauſe their hand is with Dauid, and becauſe they knewe, when Dauid fled, and ſhewed it not to me. But the ſeruantes of the kyng (h) woulde not moue their handes, to falle vpon the prieſtes of the Lord.

(h) Becauſe they feared to ſhead innocent blood.

18 And the king ſaid to Doeg, Turne thou, & falle vpon the prieſtes. And Doeg the Edomite turned, and ranne vpon the prieſtes, and ſlue that ſame day fourescore & fiue perſones, that dyd weare a lynnen Ephod.

19 And Nob the citie of the prieſtes, ſmote he with the edge of the ſword, both menne and women, chyldren and ſucklynges, oxen and aſſes, and ſheepe, with the edge of the ſworde.

20 And one of the ſonnes of Ahimelech, the ſonne of Ahitob, named Abiathar, eſcaped, & fled to Dauid.

D 21 And Abiathar ſhewed Dauid howe that Saul had ſlayne the Lordes prieſtes.

22 And Dauid ſayde vnto Abiathar, I wiſt it the ſame day, when Doeg the Edomite was there, that he woulde telle Saul: and I am cauſe of the death of al the perſons of thy fathers houſe.

23 Abyde thou with me, and feare not: For he that ſeeketh my lyfe, he ſhal ſeeke thyne alſo: With me thou ſhalt be in ſafegarde.

The.xxiii.Chapter.

5 Dauid chaſeth the Philiſtines from Keila. 13 Dauid departeth from Keila, and remayneth in the wylderneſſe of Ziph. 16 Jonathan comforteth Dauid. 28 Sauls enterpriſe is broken in purſueing Dauid.

A 1 Then they tolde Dauid, ſaieing, Behold, the Philiſtines fyght agaynſt (a) Keila, & ſpoile the barnes.

2 Therfore Dauid aſked counſel of the Lorde, ſaieing, Shal I goe, & ſmyte theſe Philiſtines: And the Lorde anſweared vnto Dauid, Goe, and ſmite the Philiſtines, and ſaue Keila.

3 And Dauids menne ſayde vnto hym, See, we be afrayde here (b) in Juda: Howe muche more then, if we comme to Keila againſt the hoſt of the Philiſtines?

4 Then Dauid aſked counſel of the Lorde agayne. And the Lorde anſweared hym, and ſayde, Aryſe, and goe downe to Keila: for I wyl deliuer the Philiſtines into thyne hande.

5 And ſo Dauid, & his menne, went to Keila, and fought with the Philiſtines, & brought away their cattel, and ſmote them with a great ſlaughter: and ſo Dauid ſaued the inhabitantes of Keila.

6 And whē Abiathar the ſonne of Ahimelech fled to Dauid to Keila, he brought an (c) Ephod with hym in his hande.

7 And it was tolde Saul, that Dauid was comme to Keila: And Saul ſayd, God hath deliuered him into myne hand: For he is ſhut in, nowe that he is comme into a towne, that hath gates and barres.

B 8 And Saul called al the people togeather to warre, for to goe downe to Keila, and to beſiege Dauid, and his menne.

9 And Dauid hauing knowledge, that Saul imagined miſchiefe agaynſt hym, ſayde to Abiathar the prieſt, (d) Bryng the Ephod.

10 Then ſayde Dauid, O Lorde GOD of Iſrael, thy ſeruant hath hearde, that Saul is about to comme to Keila, to deſtroy the citie for my ſake:

11 Wyl the lordes of Keila deliuer me into his hand? And wyl Saul comme downe, as thy ſeruant hath heard, O Lorde God of Iſrael? I beſeeche thee telle thy ſeruant. And the lorde ſayde, He wyl comme downe.

12 Then ſaid Dauid, Wyl the lordes of Keila deliuer me, and the menne that are with me, into the hande of Saul? And the Lorde ſayd, They wyl deliuer thee vp.

13 Then Dauid and his menne, which were vpon ſixe hundred, aroſe and departed out of Keila, and went (e) whyther they coulde: And it was told Saul, that Dauid was fled from Keila, and he let the iourney alone.

C 14 Dauid abode in the wylderneſſe in ſtrong holdes, and remayned in a mountayne in the wylderneſſe of Ziph: And Saul ſought him euery day, but God (f) deliuered him not into his hande.

15 And Dauid ſawe, that Saul was comme out to ſeeke his lyfe: And Dauid was in the wilderneſſe of Ziph in the wood.

16 And Jonathan Sauls ſonne aroſe, & went to Dauid into the wood, and comforted his (g) hande in God,

17 And ſayde vnto hym, Feare not: for the hand of Saul my father ſhal not fynde thee: and thou ſhalt be kyng ouer Iſrael, & I ſhal be next vnto thee: and that dooth Saul my father knowe.

18 And they made a bonde bothe of them togeather before the Lorde: And Dauid taried ſtyl in the wood, and Jonathan went to his houſe.

19 Then came the Ziphites to Saule to Gibea, ſaieing, Dooth not Dauid hide him ſelfe faſt by vs in ſtrōg holdes, in the wood, in the hil of Hachila, on the right ſide of " Ieſimon?

20 Nowe therefore, O kyng, thou mayeſt comme downe according to al the luſt of thy ſoule, and our part ſhalbe to deliuer hym into the kynges hande.

D 21 And Saul ſayde, Bleſſed are ye in the lord: for ye haue compaſſion on me:

22 Goe, I pray you, and prepare yet better: know and ſee, where his (h) foote hath benne, and who hath ſeene hym there: for it is tolde me, that he is very ſubtyle.

23 See therefore, and knowe al the lurkyng places, where he hydeth him ſelf, and comme ye agayne to me with the certayntie: and I wyl goe with you: And if he be in the (i) land, I wyl ſearche hym out throughout al the thouſandes of Juda.

24 And they aroſe, and went to Ziph before Saul: But Dauid and his menne were in the wylderneſſe of Maon, in the playne, that is on the right hande of Ieſimon.

25 Saul alſo and his menne went to ſeeke hym: And they tolde Dauid: Wherefore he came downe vnto a rocke, and abode in the 26 And Saul and his menne went on the one ſyde of the mountayne, and Dauid and his menne on the other ſyde of the mountayne: And Dauid made haſte to geat from the preſence of Saul. For Saul and his menne, compaſſed Dauid and his menne rounde about, to take them.

27 But there came a meſſenger to Saul, ſaieng, Haſt thee and comme, for the Philiſtines haue inuaded the lande.

E 28 Wherfore Saul returned from perſecuting Dauid, and went agaynſt the Philiſtines: And therefore they called that place, (l) Sela Hannahlekoth. And Dauid went thence, and dwelt in ſtrong holdes at Engadi.

5 And afterward Dauids hart ſmote him, becauſe he had cut of the lap of Sauls garmēt.

8 Dauid alſo aroſe afterwarde, and went out of the caue, and cried after Saul, ſaieing, My lorde kyng. And when Saul looked behinde hym, Dauid ſtooped [with] his face to the earth, and bowed hym ſelfe.

9 And Dauid ſayd to Saul, Wherfore geueſt thou an eare to mens woordes, that ſay, Beholde, Dauid ſeeketh euyl agaynſt thee?

10 Behold, this day thine eyes haue ſeene, how that the Lorde hath deliuered thee this day into myne hande in the caue: And ſomme bade me, kylle thee: but I had compaſſion on thee, and ſayde, I wyl not lay myne handes on my maiſter: for he is the Lordes annoynted.

11 And moreouer, my father, beholde and ſee yet the lap of thy garment in my hande: In ſomuche as I kylled thee not, when I cut of the lap of thy garment, vnderſtand therfore, and ſee, that there is neither euyl nor wickedneſſe in me, ⁊ that I haue not ſinned agaynſt thee: And yet thou hunteſt after my ſoule, to take it.

12 The Lord be iudge betweene thee and me, and the Lorde auenge me of thee: but myne hande be not vpon thee.

17 And ſaide to Dauid, Thou art more righteous, then I: for thou haſt rewarded me with good: where as I haue rewarded thee with euyl.

18 And thou haſt ſhewed this day, howe that thou haſt dealt wel with me: foraſmuche as, when the lord had cloſed me in thine handes, thou kylledſt me not.

20 And nowe beholde, I wote wel, that thou ſhalt be kyng, and that the kyngdome of Iſrael ſhalbe ſtabliſhed in thyne hande:

The.xxv.Chapter.

1 Samuel dyeth. 3 Nabal and Abigail. 38 The Lorde kylleth Nabal. 43 Abigail and Ahinoam Dauids wyues. 44 Michol is geuen to Phalti.

A 1 AND *Samuel dyed, and al the Iſraelites geathered togeather, and lamented hym, and buryed hym in his owne (a) houſe at Rama. And Dauid aroſe, and went downe to the wylderneſſe of Pharan.

*1,Re.28,a.

(a) That is, among his owne kinred.

2 And there was a man in (b) Maon, whoſe poſſeſſion was in Carmel, and the man was exceedyng myghty, and had three thouſande ſheepe, and a thouſande goates: And he was ſhearyng his ſheepe in Carmel.

(b) Maon and Carmel, were cities in the tribe of Iuda. Carmel the mountayne was in Galilee.

3 The name of the man was Nabal, and the name of his wyfe was Abigail, and ſhe was a woman of a ſingular wiſedome, and beautiful: But the man was chorliſhe, and of ſhrewde conditions, and was of the kynred of Caleb.

4 And Dauid hearde in the wylderneſſe, that Nabal dyd ſheare his ſheepe.

5 And Dauid ſent out ten young menne, and ſaid vnto them, Geat you vp to Carmel, and goe to Nabal, and “greete hym in my name.

“Hebr. aſke him in my name of peace.

6 And ye ſhal ſay, So mayeſt thou liue: peace be to thee: peace be to thyne houſe: and peace be vnto al that thou haſt.

B 7 Beholde I haue hearde ſay, that thou haſt ſhearers: Now, thy ſhepheardes (c) were with vs, and we dyd them no ſpite, neyther was there ought miſſing vnto them al the while, they were in Carmel:

(c) That is, were conuerſant with vs in the wylderneſſe.

8 Aſke thy laddes, and they wyl ſhewe thee: Wherefore let theſe young menne finde fauour in thyne eyes (for we comme in a good “ſeaſon) and geue I pray thee whatſoeuer (d) commeth to thine hande vnto thy ſeruantes, and to thy ſonne Dauid.

“Heb. In a good day, that is, the day that thou makeſt a feaſt for thy ſhearers.

(d) That is, whatſoeuer thou haſt ready for vs.

9 And when Dauids young men came, they tolde Nabal al thoſe woordes in the name of Dauid: and helde their peace.

10 And Nabal anſweared Dauids ſeruantes, and ſayde, (e) Who is Dauid? and who is the ſonne of Iſai? There is plentie of ſeruantes nowe a dayes, that breake away euery man from his maiſter.

(e) Nabal lacketh no welth nor rycheſſe: but yet by this his anſweare, it appeareth, that he lacketh wyſdome and honeſtie.

11 Shal I then take my bread, my water, and my fleaſhe, that I haue kylled for my ſhearers, and geue it vnto menne whom I wote not, whence they be?

12 And ſo Dauids ſeruantes turned their way, and went agayne, and came, and tolde him al thoſe ſayeinges.

13 And Dauid ſayd vnto his menne, Gyrde euery man his ſword about him. And they girded euery man his ſword about him: and Dauid was girded with his ſworde: And there folowed Dauid vpon foure hundred menne, & two hundred abode by the ſtuffe.

14 But one of the laddes tolde Abigail Nabals wyfe, ſayeing, Behold, Dauid ſent meſſengers vnto our maiſter out of the wylderneſſe, to ſalute hym: and he rayled on them. C

15 And yet the menne were very good (f) vnto vs, and dyd vs no diſpleaſure, neyther miſſed we any thyng as long as we were conuerſant with them, whē we were in the fieldes.

(f) When we kept our ſheepe in the wylderneſſe of Pharan.

16 They were (g) a wal vnto vs both by night and day, al the whyle we were with them keepyng ſheepe.

(g) That is, in ſteede of a wal.

17 Nowe therefore take heede, and ſee, what thou ſhalt doo: for ſurely euyl wyl comme vpon our maiſter, and al his houſholde: for he is ſo wicked, that a man can not ſpeake to hym.

18 Then Abigail made haſte, and tooke two hundred “loaues, and two bottels of wyne, and fiue ſheepe ready dreſſed, and fiue meaſures of parched corne, & an hundred “frailes of reaſines, & two hundred “cakes of figges, and laded them on aſſes,

19 And ſayde vnto her young menne, Goe before me: beholde I comme after you. But ſhe tolde her huſbande Nabal nothyng thereof.

20 And as ſhe rode on her aſſe, ſhe came priuily downe the ſide of the hyl: and beholde Dauid and his menne came downe agaynſt her, and ſhe met them.

21 And Dauid ſayde, Surely in vayne haue I kept al, that this felowe hath in the wylderneſſe, ſo that nothyng was miſſed of al that parteyned vnto hym: and he hath quited me euyl for good. E

22 So and more alſo doo God vnto the enimies of Dauid, if I leaue of al that parteyne to hym by the dawnyng of the day, any that (h) piſſeth agaynſt the wal.

(h) This ſpeach is vſed of ỷ Hebrues, to ſignifie an vtter deſtruction, of great and ſmal.

23 And when Abigail ſaw Dauid, ſhe haſted and lighted of her aſſe, and felle before Dauid on her face, & bowed her ſelfe to the grounde, 24 And felle at his feete, and ſayde, Let this iniquitie be counted myne, my lorde: and let thyne hadmayde, I pray thee, ſpeake in thine "audience, & heare the woordes of thy handemayde.

" Heb. in thyne eare.

25 Let not my lorde, I pray thee, regarde this wicked " man Nabal: For as his name is, ſo is he: Nabal is his name, and folie is with hym: But I thyne handmayde ſawe not the young menne of my Lorde, whom thou ſendedſt.

" Or, foole.

26 Nowe therefore my lorde, as the Lorde liueth, & as thy ſoule liueth, euen the Lorde that hath withholden thee from cõmyng to [ſhed] blood, and ſaued thee thyne (i) hande: So nowe, I pray God that thyne enimies, and they that intende to doo my lorde euyl, may be as Nabal.

(i) Innocent, and cleane from blood.

27 And nowe this " bleſſyng, whiche thyne handmayde hath brought vnto my lorde, let it be geuen vnto the young men, that folowe my lorde.

" Or, preſent.

E 28 I praye thee forgeue the treſpaſſe of thyne handmayde: for the Lorde wyl make my lorde a (k) ſure houſe: becauſe my lord fighteth the battayles of the Lorde: and there coulde none euyl be founde in thee al thy dayes.

(k) That is, wyl confirme his kyngdome to his poſteritie.

29 And yet a (l) man hath ryſen to perſecute thee, and to ſeeke thy ſoule: but the ſoule of my lorde ſhalbe bounde (m) in the bundel of the lyuing with the Lorde thy God, and the ſoules of thy enimies ſhal God caſt out, euen as out of the myddle of a ſlyng.

(l) To wite, Saul.

(m) Shalbe preſerued by Gods protection from al dangers, that he may lyue long.

30 And when the Lorde ſhal haue donne to my lord al ẏ good that he hath promiſed thee, and ſhal haue made thee ruler ouer Iſrael:

31 Then ſhal it be no griefe vnto thee, nor offence of mynde vnto my lorde, that thou haſt not ſhed blood cauſeleſſe, and that my lorde hath not auenged hym ſelfe: But when the Lord ſhal haue dealt wel with my lord, then thynke on thyne handmayde.

32 And Dauid ſayde to Abigail, Bleſſed be the Lorde God of Iſrael, which ſent thee this day to meete me.

33 Bleſſed is thy ſayeing, and bleſſed art thou, which haſt kept me this day from comming to ſhed blood, and from auengyng mee ſelfe with myne owne hande.

34 For in very deede, as the Lorde God of Iſrael lyueth, whiche hath kept me backe from hurting thee, except thou haddeſt haſted and met me, ſurely there had not beene left vnto Nabal by the dawning of the day any, that piſſeth agaynſt the wal.

F 35 And ſo Dauid receiued of her hande that whiche ſhe had brought hym, and ſayd vnto her, Goe vp in peace to thine houſe: behold I haue heard thy voice, and haue graunted thy petition.

36 And Abigail came to Nabal, and beholde, he helde a feaſt in his houſe lyke the feaſt of a kyng: and Nabals hart was mery within hym, for he was very drunken: Wherefore ſhe tolde (n) hym nothyng, neyther leſſe, nor more, vntyl the morowe mornyng.

(n) As a man, that had no reaſon to conſyder the danger.

37 But in the mornyng, when the wine was gonne out of Nabal, his wife tolde him theſe woordes, and his hart dyed within hym, and he became as a ſtone.

38 And vpon ten dayes after, the Lord ſmote Nabal, that he dyed.

39 And when Dauid heard, that Nabal was dead, he ſayd, Bleſſed be the Lorde, that hath "iudged the cauſe of my rebuke of the hande of Nabal, & hath kept his ſeruant from euyl: For the Lord hath recompenſed the wickedneſſe of Nabal vpõ his owne head. And Dauid ſent to commune with Abigail, to take her to his wyfe.

" Or, reuenged.

40 And when the ſeruantes of Dauid were comme to Abigail to Carmel, they ſpake vnto her, ſayeing, Dauid ſent vs vnto thee, to take thee to his wyfe. And ſhe aroſe, & bowed her ſelfe on her face to the earth, and ſayd, Behold, let thy handmaid be a ſeruant, to waſhe the feete of the ſeruantes of my lorde.

41 And Abigail haſted, and roſe, and gate her vpon an aſſe, with fiue damoſels of hers, that (o) went at her feete, and ſhe went after the meſſengers of Dauid, and became his wyfe.

(o) An Ebrue phraſe, whereby is meant, folowed her.

42 Dauid alſo tooke Ahinoam of Iezrael: and they were both his wyues.

43 But Saul had geuẽ *Michol his daughter, Dauids wyfe, to Phalti ẏ ſonne of Lais, whiche was of (p) Gallim.

5 And Dauid aroſe, and came to the place, where Saul had pitched: and Dauid beheld the place, where Saul lay, & Abner, the ſonne of Ner, whiche was his cheefe captayne: for Saul lay in the fort, and the people pitched rounde about hym.

6 Then anſweared Dauid, and ſpake, to Abimelech the Hethite, and to Abiſai the ſonne of Zaruia, and brother to Ioab, ſayeing, Who wyl goe downe with me to Saul to the hoſt? And Abiſai ſayde, I wyl goe downe with thee.

9 And Dauid ſayde to Abiſai, Deſtroy hym not: For who can lay his hand on the Lordes annoynted, and be guyltleſſe?

10 And Dauid ſayd furthermore, As the lorde lyueth, the Lorde ſhal ſmyte hym, or his day ſhal comme to die, or he ſhal deſcend into battayle, and periſhe.

11 The Lorde keepe me from layeing myne hande vpon the Lordes annoynted: But, I pray thee, take thou nowe the ſpeare that is at his head, and the cruſe of water: and let vs goe.

2 Dauid fleeth to Achis king of Gath, who geueth hym Ziklag. 8 Dauid deſtroyeth certayne of the Philiſtines. 10 Achis is deceiued by Dauid.

A 1 AND Dauid ſayde in his hart, I ſhal periſh one day by the hand of Saul: therfore is there nothing better for me, then to flee and ſaue mee ſelfe in the lande of the Philiſtines, & Saul ſhal ceaſe, and ſeeke me no more in al the coaſtes of Iſrael: and ſo ſhal I eſcape out of his hande.

4 And it was tolde Saul, that Dauid was fled to Gath: and he ſought no more for hym.

5 And Dauid ſayde vnto Achis: If I haue nowe founde grace in thyne eyes, (a) let them geue me a place in ſome towne in the countrey, that I may dwel there: For why ſhould thy ſeruant dwel in the head citie of the kingdome with thee?

6 Then Achis gaue him (b) Ziklag, that ſame day: for whiche cauſe, Ziklag parteineth vnto the kynges of Iuda vnto this day.

B 7 And the tyme, that Dauid dwelt in the countrey of the Philiſtines, was foure monethes, and certayne dayes.

8 And Dauid and his menne went vp, and inuaded the Geſſurites, the Gerzites, and the Amalekites: for thoſe nations were from the beginning the inhabitantes of the lande, as men goe to Sur, vnto the land of Egypt.

9 And Dauid ſmote the lande, and leaſt neyther man, nor woman aliue, and droue away the ſheepe, the oxen, the aſſes, camelles, and clothes, and returned, and came to Achis.

10 And Achis ſayde, Where haue ye benne a rouing this day? And Dauid anſweared, Agaynſt the ſouth of Iuda, and agaynſt the ſouth of the (c) Ierameelites, and agaynſt the ſouth of the (d) Kenites.

11 And Dauid ſaued neither man nor woman aliue to bring tidinges to Gath, ſayeing, Leſt they ſhould tel on vs, ſaying, So did Dauid, and ſo wyl be his maner al the whyle, he dwelleth in the countrey of the Philiſtines.

12 And Achis beleued Dauid, ſayeing, He hath made his people Iſrael vtterly to abhorre him: & therfore he ſhalbe my ſeruant for euer.

The.xxviii.Chapter.

2 Dauid hath the cheefe charge promyſed about Achis. 8 Saul conſulteth with a witche, and ſhe cauſeth hym to ſpeake with Samuel. 18 Who declareth his ruine.

A 1 AND in thoſe dayes, the Philiſtines gathered their hoſt togeather to warre, to fight with Iſrael: And Achis ſayd to Dauid, Be ſure thou ſhalt goe out with me to battaile, thou and the menne that are with thee.

2 And Dauid ſayde to Achis, Surely thou ſhalt knowe, what thy ſeruant can doo. And Achis ſayde to Dauid, Then I wyl make thee keper of my head for euer.

3 Samuel was then dead, and al Iſrael had lamented hym, and buryed hym in Rama his owne citie: And Saul had put (a) away the ſorcerers, & the ſoothſayers out of the land.

4 And the Philiſtines geathered togeather, and came, & pytched in Sunem: And Saul geathered al Iſrael togeather, and they pytched in Gilboa.

5 And when Saul ſawe the hoſt of the Philiſtines, he was afrayde, and his hart was ſoare aſtonied.

6 And when Saul aſked counſel of the lord, the Lorde anſweared hym not, neither by dreames, nor by Urim, nor yet by prophetes.

B 7 Then ſaid Saul vnto his ſeruants, Seeke me a woman that hath a familier ſpirit, that I may goe to her, and aſke of her. And his ſeruantes ſayde to him, Beholde, there is a woman, that hath a familier ſpirite at Endor.

8 And Saul changed him ſelfe, & put on other rayment, and then went he & two men with him, and they came to the woman by night, and he ſaide, I pray thee coniecture vnto me by thy familier ſpirite, and bring me him vp, whom I ſhal name vnto thee.

9 And the woman ſaid vnto Saul, Behold, thou knoweſt what Saul hath donne, how he hath deſtroyed the ſorcerers, & the ſoothſaiers out of the land: wherfore then layeſt thou a ſnare for my ſoule, to cauſe me to dye?

10 And Saul ſware to her by the Lorde, ſayeing, As the Lorde liueth, there ſhal no harme comme to thee for this thing.

11 Then ſaid the woman, Whom ſhal I fetche vp vnto thee? He anſweared, Bring me vp Samuel.

12 When the woman ſawe Samuel, ſhe cryed with a loude voyce, and ſpake to Saul, ſayeng, Why haſt thou deceiued me? for thou art Saul.

13 And the king ſaid vnto her, Be not afraid: What ſaweſt thou? The woman ſaide vnto Saul, I ſawe ʺ goddes aſcending vp out of the earth.

ʺ Or, an excellent perſone.

C 14 He ſayde vnto her agayne, What faſhion is he of? She anſweared, There commeth vp an olde man with a mantel vpon hym. And Saul perceiued that it was [b] Samuel, and he ſtowped with his face to the ground, and bowed hym ſelfe.

(b) To his imagination: albeit it was Sathan in deede.

15 And Samuel ſaid to Saul, Why haſt thou vnquieted me, to make me be brought vp? Saul anſweared, I am ſore encumbred: for the Philiſtines make warre againſt me, and God is departed from me, and anſwereth me no more, neyther by prophetes, nor by dreames: And therfore I haue called thee, that thou mayeſt [c] tel me, what I ſhal doo.

(c) Saul diſobeyed, and regarded not his doctrine, while he was alyue: But now he would learne of hym beyng dead, contrary to gods woord.

16 Then ſayd Samuel, Wherfore dooeſt thou aſke of me, while the Lorde is gonne from thee, and is becomme thyne enimie?

17 Truely the lord hath donne to [d] him, euen as he ſpake by my ʺ hande: *For the Lorde hath rent the kyngdome out of thyne hande, and geuen it thy neyghbour Dauid.

(d) That is, to Dauid.

ʺ Or, miniſterie.

18 Becauſe thou obeyedſt not the voyce of the Lorde, nor executedſt his fierce wrath vpon the Amalekites, therefore hath the lord donne this vnto thee this day.

19 And moreouer the Lord wil deliuer Iſrael with thee into the handes of the Philiſtines: *To morowe ſhalt thou and thy ſonnes be [e] with me, and the Lorde ſhal geue the hoſt of Iſrael into the handes of the Philiſtines.

(e) That is, you ſhalbe dead.

20 Then Saul fel ſtrayght way al along on the earth, and was ſoare [f] afrayde, becauſe of the woordes of Samuel. And there was no ſtrength in hym: for he had eaten no bread al the day, nor al the nyght.

(f) And yet had no grace to repent, and turne to the Lorde.

D 21 And the woman came vnto Saul, & ſawe, that he was ſoare troubled, & ſaide vnto him, See, thyne handemayde hath obeyed thy voice, *and [g] haue put my ſoule in my hand, and haue hearkened vnto thy woordes, whiche thou ſaydeſt vnto me.

22 Nowe therefore, I pray thee, hearken thou alſo vnto the voyce of thine handmayde, and let me ſet a morſel of bread before thee, that thou mayeſt eate, and geat thee ſtrength, and then goe on thy iourney.

23 He refuſed, and ſayde, I wyl not eate. But his ſeruants and the woman togeather compelled hym, and he hearkened vnto theyr voyce: And ſo he aroſe from the earth, and ſate on a bed.

24 The woman had a fat calfe in the houſe: and ſhe haſted, and killed it, and tooke floure, and kneaded it, and bakte vnleauened bread thereof:

25 And brought them before Saul, and before his ſeruantes: And when they had eaten, they ſtoode vp, and went away the ſame nyght.

The.xxix.Chapter.

4 The princes of the Philiſtines cauſe Dauid to be ſent backe from the battayle agaynſt Iſrael, becauſe they miſtruſted hym.

A 1 SO the Philiſtines were geathered togeather with al their armies in Aphec: and the Iſraelites pytched by ʺ Ain, whiche is in Iezrael.

3 Then ſayde the princes of the Philiſtines, What doo theſe Ebrues [here]? Achis ſayde vnto the princes of the Philiſtines: Is not this Dauid, the ſeruant of Saul the kyng of Iſrael, which hath ben with me theſe dayes, or theſe yeeres, and I haue founde no fault in him, ſince he fel vnto me, vnto this day?

4 And the princes of the Philiſtines were wroth with hym, and the princes of the Philiſtines ſayde vnto hym, Make this felowe returne, that he may goe agayne to his place, whiche thou haſt appoynted hym, and let hym not goe downe with vs to battayle, leſt in the battayle he be an aduerſarie to vs: For wherewith ſhoulde he obteyne the fauour of his maiſter? ſhoulde it not be with the [b] heades of theſe menne?

9 Achis anſweared & ſaid to Dauid, I know, that thou art (d) good in my ſyght, as an angel of God: Notwithſtandyng, the princes of the Philiſtines haue ſayde, Let hym not goe vp with vs to battaile.

The .xxx. Chapter.

1 The Amalekites burne Ziklag, 5 Dauids two wyues are taken priſoners. 6 The people would ſtone hym. 8 He aſked counſel of the Lorde, and pourſueyng his enimies, recouereth the pray. 24 He diuideth it equally. 25 And ſendeth part to his freendes.

(a) That is, deſtroyed the citie.

2 And had taken the women, that were therin, priſoners, both ſmal and great: but ſlue not a man, but caryed them away, and went theyr wayes.

3 So Dauid and his menne came to the citie: and behold it was burnt with fyre: and their wyues, theyr ſonnes, and theyr daughters were taken priſoners.

4 Then Dauid & the people, that were with hym, lyfted vp theyr voyces and wept, vntil they coulde weepe no more.

5 And Dauids two wyues were taken priſoners alſo, Ahinoam the Jezrahelite, and Abigail the wyfe of Nabal the Carmelite.

6 And Dauid was in great encumbrance: For the people (b) entended to ſtone hym, becauſe the hartes of al the people were vexed, euery man for his ſonnes, and for his daughters. But Dauid tooke a good courage to him in the Lorde his God,

(c) When there is no place leaft for hope, and in mans reaſon, god hath in ſtoare meanes of deliuerance for ſuche as truſt in hym.

11 And they founde an Egyptian in the feeld, and brought hym to Dauid, *and gaue him bread, and he dyd eate, and water to drynke,

12 And gaue hym a few figges, & two cluſters of reaſines: And when he had eaten, his ſpirite came agayne to hym: For he had eaten no bread, nor drunke any water in three dayes, and three nyghtes.

13 And Dauid ſayde vnto him, To whom belongeſt thou? and whence art thou? He ſaid, I am a young man of Egypt, and ſeruant to an Amalekite: and my maiſter leaft me, becauſe three dayes agoe I fel ſicke.

C 14 We came a roauing vpon the ſouth of Chretus, and vpon the [coaſt] belongyng to Juda, and towarde the ſouth of Caleb, and we burnt Ziklag with fyre.

15 And Dauid ſayd to hym, Canſt thou bring me to this companie? And he ſayde, (d) Sweare vnto me by God, that thou wylt neyther kylle me, nor delyuer me into the handes of my maiſter: and I wyl bryng thee to this companie.

(d) Upon an oth, he is content to commit his lyfe to his handes: ſuche was the reuerence of an oth among the heathen.

16 And when he had brought hym thyther, beholde they lay ſcattered abroade vpon al the earth, (e) eatyng, and drynkyng, & daunſyng: becauſe of al the great praye, that they had carried away out of the lande of the Philiſtines, and out of the lande of Juda.

(e) They caſt no peril, nor conſyder not the deſtruction, that hangeth ouer their head: this is the manner of the wicked.

17 And Dauid laide vpon them from the twilyght, euen vnto the euening of the next morow: ſo that there eſcaped not a man of them, ſaue foure hundred young men, whiche rode vpon cammelles, and fled.

18 And Dauid recouered al, that the Amalekites had carryed away, and Dauid reſcued his two wyues:

19 So that there was nothyng lackyng to them, ſmal or great, ſonne or daughter, or of the ſpoyle of al that they had taken away. Dauid recouered them al.

20 And Dauid tooke al the ſheepe, & the oxen, and they draue them before his cattayle, and ſayde, This is Dauids (f) pray.

(f) Whiche the Amalekites had taken of others, and Dauid from them, beſyde the goddes of Ziklag.

21 And Dauid came to the two hundred men, that were to weery for to folowe Dauid, whom they had made alſo to abyde at the riuer Beſor: And they came to meete Dauid and the people that were with hym: And when Dauid came to the people, he ſaluted them.

22 Then anſweared al the wicked and the vnthriftes of the men, that went with Dauid, and ſayde, Becauſe they went not with vs, therefore wil we geue them none of the pray, that we haue recouered: But let euery man take his wife and his children: thoſe let them carrie away, and depart.

23 Then ſayde Dauid, Ye ſhal not doo ſo my brethren with that, whiche the Lorde hath geuen vs, who hath preſerued vs, and delyuered the company, that came agaynſt vs, into our handes.

24 For who wyl hearken vnto you in this mater? But as his part is that goeth downe and fyghteth, ſo ſhal his part be, that taryeth by the ſtuffe: they ſhal part alyke.

25 And ſo from that day forewarde, was that made a ſtatute and lawe in Iſrael, vnto this day.

2,Reg. 3.f,

12 And they mourned, and wept, and faſted vntyl euen for Saul, & Ionathan his ſonne, and for the people of the Lorde, and for the houſe of Iſrael, becauſe they were ouerthrowen with the ſworde.

13 And Dauid ſayd vnto the young man, that brought hym theſe tydynges, Whence art thou? He anſweared, I am the ſonne of an aliant, an Amalekite.

14 And Dauid ſayde vnto hym, Howe is it, that thou were not afraide, to lay thyne hand on the lordes annoynted, to deſtroy him? C

15 And Dauid called one of his young men, and ſayde, Goe to, and fal vpon hym. And he ſmote hym, that he dyed.

16 Then ſayde Dauid vnto hym, Thy blood (d) be vpon thine owne head: For thine owne mouth hath teſtified agaynſt thee, ſayeing, I haue ſlayne the Lordes annoynted.

(d) By ſheadyng of blood, thou haſt deſerued, that thy blood be ſhedde.

17 And Dauid mourned with this lamentation ouer Saul, and ouer Ionathan his ſonne,

18 (Alſo he bade them teach the children of Iuda the (e) vſe of the bowe: And beholde, it is written in the booke of " the ryghteous:)

(e) That they might be hable to defende them ſelues from their enimies.

" Or, Iaſher.

19 O noble Iſrael, (f) he is ſlaine vpon thy high places. Howe are the myghty ouerthrowen?

(f) Meaning Saul.

20 Tel it not in Gath, nor publiſhe it in the ſtreetes of Aſkalon, leſt the daughters of the Philiſtines reioyce, and leſt the daughters of the vncircumciſed make triumph.

21 Ye mountaynes of Gilboa, vpon you be neyther dewe, nor rayne, nor (g) feeldes of offerynges. For there the ſhielde of the myghty is caſt downe, the ſhielde of Saul, as though he had not ben annoynted with oyle. D

(g) Let theyr fertile feeldes be barren and bryng foorth no fruite to offer to the Lorde.

22 The bow of Ionathan neuer turned backe, neither did the ſworde of Saul returne empty from the blood of the ſlayne, and from the fat of the myghty.

23 Saul and Ionathan were louely and pleaſant in theyr lyues, and in theyr deathes they were not diuided: They were ſwyfter then Eagles, and ſtronger then Lions.

24 Ye daughters of Iſrael weepe ouer Saul, whiche clothed you in ſcarlet with (h) pleaſures, and hanged ornamentes of golde vpon your apparel.

(h) As riche garmentes, and coſtly iewels.

25 Howe were the myghty ſlayne in the middeſt of the battayle? O Ionathan, Thou were ſlayne in thyne hygh places.

26 Wo is me for thee, my brother Ionathan: very kynde haſt thou benne vnto me: Thy loue to me was wonderful, paſſing the loue of [i] women.

27 O howe are the mighty ouerthrowen, and the weapons of warre deſtroyed.

The.ii.Chapter.

4 Dauid is annoynted kyng in Hebron. 9 Abner maketh Iſboſeth kyng ouer Iſrael.
15 The battaile of the ſeruantes of Dauid and Iſboſeth. 32 The burial of Aſahel.

A 1 AFter this, Dauid [a] aſked counſayle of the lord, ſayeing, Shal I goe vp into any of the cities of Iuda? And the Lorde ſayd vnto him, Goe vp. And Dauid ſaid, Whither ſhal I goe? He anſweared, Unto [b] Hebron.

2 And ſo Dauid went thyther with his two wiues, Ahinoam the Iezraelite, and Abigail Nabals wyfe, the Carmelite.

3 And the menne that were with [c] hym, did Dauid carrie vp alſo, euery man with his houſholde: And they dwelt in the townes of Hebron.

4 And the menne of Iuda came, and there they annoynted Dauid kyng ouer the houſe of Iuda: And they tolde Dauid, ſayeing, They were the menne of Iabes Gilead that buried Saul.

5 And Dauid ſent meſſengers vnto the men of Iabes Gilead, and ſayde vnto them, Bleſſed are ye vnto the lord, that ye haue ſhewed ſuche kindneſſe vnto your lorde Saul, and haue buryed hym.

6 And nowe the Lorde ſhewe mercie and [d] trueth vnto you: And [e] I wil doo you alſo ſuche kyndneſſe, as ye haue donne in this thyng:

7 Therfore nowe let your handes be ſtrong, and " play ye the menne: For your maiſter Saul is dead, and they that are of the houſe of Iuda, haue annointed me king ouer them.

8 But Abner the ſonne of Ner, that was captayne of Sauls hoſt, tooke Iſboſeth the ſonne of Saul, and brought hym to [f] Mahanaim, 9 And made hym king ouer Gilead, and ouer the Aſſurites, and ouer Iezrahel, Ephraim, Beniamin, and ouer [g] al Iſrael.

10 And Iſboſeth Sauls ſonne was fourtie yeeres olde, when he began to raigne ouer Iſrael: and raigned two yeeres: But the houſe of Iuda folowed Dauid.

11 (And the tyme whiche Dauid raigned in Hebron ouer the houſe of Iuda, was ſeuen yeeres, and ſixe monethes.)

12 And Abner the ſonne of Ner, and the ſeruantes of Iſboſeth the ſonne of Saul, went out of Mahanaim to Gibeon.

13 And Ioab the ſonne of Zaruia, and the ſeruantes of Dauid, went out, and met one another by the poole of Gibeon: And they ſate downe, the one on the one ſyde of the poole, and the other on the other ſyde.

14 And Abner ſayde to Ioab: Let the young men nowe aryſe, and [h] play before vs. And Ioab ſayde, Let them aryſe.

C

15 Then there aroſe, and went ouer, twelue of Beniamin by number, whiche perteyned to Iſboſeth the ſonne of Saul, and twelue of the ſeruantes of Dauid.

16 And euery one caught his felowe by the head, and thruſt his ſworde in his felowes [i] ſyde, & ſo they fel downe togeather. Wherefore the place was called " Helkath hazzurim, whiche is in Gibeon.

17 And there was an exceedyng cruel [k] battayle that ſame day: For Abner and the men of Iſrael felle before the ſeruantes of Dauid.

18 And there were three ſonnes of Zaruia there: Ioab, Abiſai, and Aſahel: And Aſahel was as lyght of foote, as a wylde Roe.

19 And Aſahel folowed after Abner, and in goeyng he turned neyther to the ryght hand, nor to the leaſt, from Abner.

20 Then Abner looked behynde him, and ſaid, Art thou Aſahel? He anſweared, Yea.

D

21 Abner ſayde, Turne thee either to the ryght hande, or the leaſt, & catche one of the young men, and take his " weapons. But Aſahel woulde not depart from hym.

22 And Abner ſayde agayne to Aſahel, Depart from me: [l] Wherfore ſhoulde I ſmyte thee to the grounde, and not be hable to holde vp my face to Ioab thy brother?

23 Howebeit, when he woulde in no wyſe depart, Abner with the hinder ende of the ſpeare ſmote hym vnder the [m] fyft ribbe, that the ſpeare came out behynde hym, that he felle downe in the ſame place, and dyed there: And as many as came to the place where Aſahel fel downe and dyed, ſtoode ſtyl.

24 Ioab alſo and Abiſai purſued after Abner: And the ſunne went downe when they were comme to the hil Amma that lieth before Giah, by the way of the wyldeneſſe of Gibeon.

25 And the chyldren of Beniamin geathered them ſelues togeather after Abner, and were on a heape, and ſtoode on the top of an hyl.

26 Then Abner called to Ioab, and ſayd, Shal the [n] ſworde deuoure for euer? Knoweſt

The. iij. Chapter.

1 Long warre betweene the houſes of Saul and Dauid. 2 The chyldren of Dauid in Hebron. 12 Abner turneth to Dauid. 27 Joab killeth hym.

A 1 THere was then (a) long warre betwene the houſe of Saul, and the houſe of Dauid: But Dauid waxed ſtronger & ſtronger, & the houſe of Saul waxed weaker & weaker.

(a) For it endured two yeeres. whiche was the whole raigne of Iſboſeth.

2 And vnto Dauid were chyldren borne in Hebron: his eldeſt ſonne alſo was Amnon of Ahinoam, the Jezraelite:

3 The ſecond, (b) Cheleab of Abigail, the wife of Nabal, the Carmelite: the third, Abſalom the ſonne of Maacha the daughter of Thalmai, the kyng of Geſſur:

(b) whiche is alſo called Daniel. 1. Chro. 3. a.

4 The fourth, Adonia the ſonne of Haggith: the fifth, Sephatia the ſonne of Abital:

5 And the ſixth, Jethream, by Egla Dauids wyfe. Theſe were borne to Dauid in (c) Hebron.

(c) within the ſeuen yeeres & ſixe monethes, that he raigned ouer Juda in Hebron.

6 And whyle there was warre betweene the houſe of Saul, and the houſe of Dauid, Abner " helde vp the houſe of Saul.

" Heb. Fortified hym ſelfe for the houſe of Saul.

7 And Saul had a concubine named Riſpha the daughter of Ahia. And Iſboſeth ſayde to Abner, Wherefore haſt thou gonne in vnto my fathers concubine?

B 8 Then was Abner very wroth for the wordes of Iſboſeth, and ſayde, Am I (d) a dogges head, whiche, againſt Juda, doo ſhew mercy this day vnto the houſe of Saul thy father, and to his brethren and freendes: and haue not deliuered thee into the hande of Dauid: and thou fyndeſt a fault in me this day for this woman?

(d) Dooeſt thou eſteeme me no more, then a dogge, for al my ſeruice donne to thy fathers houſe?

9 So doo God to Abner, and more alſo, except as the Lorde hath ſworne to Dauid, euen ſo wyl I doo to hym,

10 To bryng the kyngdome from the houſe of Saul, that the throne of Dauid may be ſtabliſhed ouer Iſrael, and ouer Juda, euen from Dan to Beerſeba.

11 And he coulde geue Abner neuer a worde to anſweare, becauſe he feared hym.

12 And Abner ſent meſſengers to Dauid ſecretely, ſayeing, Whoſe is the lande? Who ſhoulde [alſo] ſay, Make a bonde with me: and beholde my hande is with thee, to bring al Iſrael vnto thee.

13 He ſayde, Wel, I wyl make a bonde with thee: But one thing I require of thee, that is, that thou ſee not my face, except thou firſte bryng Michol Sauls daughter, when thou commeſt to ſee me.

C 14 And Dauid ſent meſſengers to Iſboſeth Sauls ſonne, ſayeing, Deliuer me my wyfe Michol, whiche I married for an hundred foreſkinnes of the Philiſtines.

15 And Iſboſeth ſent, and tooke her from her huſbande Phalti, the ſonne of Lais.

16 And her huſband went with her, and came weeping behinde her, til they came to Bahurim. Then ſayde Abner vnto hym, Goe and returne. And he returned.

17 And Abner had communication with the elders of Iſrael, ſaying, Ye ſought for Dauid in times paſt, that he might be your king:

18 Nowe then doo it: for the Lorde hath ſpoken of Dauid, ſayeing, By the hande of my ſeruant Dauid, I wyl ſaue my people Iſrael out of the handes of the Philiſtines, and out of the hande of al their enimies.

19 And Abner ſpake in the eares of Beniamin: and afterwarde Abner went to ſpeake in the (e) eares of Dauid in Hebron, al that Iſrael was content with, & the whole (f) houſe of Beniamin.

(e) An Hebrue manner of ſpeakyng, whiche ſignifieth to ſpeake to.

(f) who chalenged the kingdome becauſe of Saul.

20 And ſo Abner came to Dauid to Hebron, hauing twentie menne with hym: and Dauid made hym, & the menne that were with him, a feaſt.

D 21 And Abner ſayde vnto Dauid, I wyl vp, and goe geather al Iſrael vnto my lorde the kyng, that they may make an appoyntment with thee, & that thou mayeſt raigne ouer al, that thyne hart deſireth. And when Dauid had let Abner depart, he went in ″ peace.

″ Or, without harme.

22 And beholde, the ſeruantes of Dauid and Joab came from the (g) campe, and brought a great pray with them: (But Abner was not with Dauid in Hebron: for he had ſent hym away, to depart in peace.)

(g) From war agaynſt the Philiſtines.

23 When Joab and al the hoſt that was with hym, were comme, menne tolde Joab, sayeing, Abner the ſonne of Ner came to the kyng: and he hath ſent hym away, that he is gonne in peace.

24 Then Joab came to the kyng, and ſayde, (h) What haſt thou donne? Beholde, Abner came vnto thee: and why haſt thou ſent him away, and he is quite gonne?

(h) As though he would ſay, Thou haſt donne fooliſhly.

25 Thou knoweſt Abner the ſonne of Ner: for he came to deceiue thee, and to knowe thy outgoeyng, and ingoeyng, and to knowe al that thou dooeſt.

26 And when Joab was comme out from Dauid, he ſent meſſengers after Abner which brought hym agayne from the wel of Sira, vnknowen to Dauid.

27 And when Abner was comme agayne to Hebron, Joab tooke him aſyde in the gate to ſpeake with hym ″ peaceably, & ſmote hym vnder the fyſt ribbe, that he died, for the blood of Aſahel his brother,

″ Or, ſecretely.

E

28 And when afterwarde it came to Dauids eare, he ſayde, I and my kyngdome are (i) giltleſſe before the Lorde for euer, concerning the blood of Abner the ſonne of Ner.

(i) Being innocent, neither knowing, nor conſenting to his death.

29 Let the blood fal on the head of Joab, and on al his fathers houſe, that the houſe of Joab be neuer without one or other, that hath runnyng iſſues, or leper, or that leaneth on a ſtaffe, or that dooth fal on the ſworde, or that lacketh bread.

30 (So Joab and (k) Abiſai his brother ſlue Abner, becauſe he had ſlayne theyr brother Aſahel at Gibeon in battayle.)

(k) As one that conſented to the murther.

31 And Dauid ſayde to Joab, and to al the people, that were with hym, Rent your clothes, and put on ſackcloth, and mourne (l) before Abner. And kyng Dauid hym ſelfe folowed the beere.

(l) Meaning before the corpes.

32 And when they buried Abner in Hebron, the king lifted vp his voyce, and wept beſide the ſepulchre of Abner, and al the people wept.

33 And the king lamented ouer Abner, & ſayde, Dyed Abner as a (m) foole dyeth?

(m) He declareth, that Abner dyed not as a wretche, or vile perſon: but as a valiant man might do, being trayterouſly deceiued by the wicked.

34 Thy handes were not bounde, nor thy feete brought into fetters of braſſe: but as a man falleth before wicked childrē, ſo felleſt thou. And al they, that were of the people, wept yet more ouer hym.

F

35 And when al the people came to cauſe Dauid (n) eate meate, whyle it was yet day, Dauid ſware, ſayeing, So doo God to me, and more alſo, yf I taſte bread, or ought els, tyl the ſunne be downe.

(n) Accordyng to theyr cuſtome, which was to banket at burials.

36 And al the people wiſt it, & it pleaſed them: as, whatſoeuer the kyng dyd, pleaſed al the people.

37 For al the people, and al Iſrael vnderſtoode that day, howe that it was not the kynges dede, that Abner the ſonne of Ner was ſlaine.

38 And the kyng ſayde vnto his ſeruantes, Knowe ye not, howe that there is a prince, and a great man fallen this day in Iſrael?

39 And I am this day tender, and newely anoynted kyng: and theſe menne the ſonnes of Zaruia be to harde for me: The Lorde rewarde the dooer of euyl, accordyng to his wickedneſſe.

The. iiij. Chapter.

5 Baanah and Rechab ſlay Iſboſeth the ſonne of Saul. 12 Dauid commaunded them to be ſlayne.

A

1 AND when Sauls (a) ſonne hearde, that Abner was dead in Hebron, his handes were (b) feeble, and al the Iſraelites were afrayde.

(a) That is, Iſboſeth.

(b) Meaning, that he was diſcouraged, as one whoſe helpe was gonne.

2 And Sauls ſonne had two menne, that were captaynes of bandes, the one called Baanah, & the other Rechab, the ſonnes of Rimmon a Berothite, of the chyldren of Beniamin: (for (c) Beroth was reckened to Beniamin:

(c) The citie Beroth was in the tribe of Beniamin.

3 And theſe Berothites fled to (d) Githaim, and ſoiourned there vntyl this day.)

(d) After the death of Saul, for feare of the Philiſtines.

4 And Jonathan Sauls ſonne had a ſonne, that was lame on his feete, and was fyue yeeres olde, when the tydings came of Saul and Jonathan out of Ieſrael: And his nurſe tooke hym vp, and fled away, & as ſhe made haſte to flee, the chylde fel, and began to halt, and his name was Miphiboſeth.

5 And the ſonnes of Rimmon the Berothite, Rechab and Baanah, went and came in the heat of the day to the houſe of Iſboſeth (which ſlept on a bed at noone.)

6 And beholde, they came into the middes of the the houſe, as though they (e) woulde haue fet wheate: and Rechab, and Baanah his brother ſmote hym vnder the fyfth ribbe, and fledde.

(e) Faynyng them ſelues to be marchauntes commyng to bye wheate.

B 7 For when they came into the houſe, he ſlept on his bedde in his bedde chamber, and they ſmote hym and ſlue him, and beheaded him, and tooke his head, and gate them away, through the " plaine, al the nyght.

" Or, wylderneſſe.

8 And they brought the head of Iſboſeth vnto Dauid to Hebron, and ſayde to the kyng, Behold, there is the head of Iſboſeth Sauls ſonne thyne enimie, whiche ſought after thy lyfe: and the Lorde hath auenged my lorde the kyng this day of Saul, and of his ſeede.

9 And Dauid anſwered Rechab and Baanah his brother, the ſonnes of Rimmon the Berothite, and ſayd vnto them, As the Lord lyueth, whiche hath deliuered my ſoule out of al aduerſities:

10 When one tolde me and ſayde, that Saul was dead (thynkyng to haue brought good tydynges) I caught hym, and ſlue hym in Ziklag: whiche thought that I woulde haue geuen hym a rewarde for his tydynges bryngyng:

11 Howe muche more when wicked menne haue ſlayne a ryghteous perſon, in his owne houſe, and vpon his bed? Shal I not nowe therefore (f) require his blood of your hande, and take you from the earth?

(f) The iudgement of the wicked blynded with ambition and couetouſneſſe, differeth farre frõ the iudgement of the godly. That which the one iudgeth worthy thankes, and rewarde, the other iudgeth worthy death.

12 And Dauid cõmaunded his young menne, and they ſlue them, & cut of theyr handes and feete, & hanged them vp ouer the poole in Hebron: But they tooke yͤ head of Iſboſeth, and buried it in the ſepulchre of Abner in Hebron.

The.v.Chapter.

3 Dauid is made kyng ouer al Iſrael. 7 He taketh the forte of Zion. 19 He aſketh counſel of the Lorde. 20 And ouercommeth the Philiſtines twyſe.

A 1 Then came al the tribes of Iſrael * to Dauid vnto Hebron, and ſayde thus, Beholde, we are thy (a) bone, and thy fleaſhe.

* i, Par. x, a.

(a) We are thy kynrede and moſt neare ioyned vnto thee.

2 And in tyme paſt, when Saul was our king, thou leddeſt Iſrael in and out: and the Lord hath ſayde to thee, Thou ſhalt feede my people Iſrael, and thou ſhalt be a captayne ouer Iſrael.

3 And ſo al the elders of Iſrael came to the * kyng to Hebron, and kyng Dauid made a couenant with them in Hebron (b) before the Lorde: and they (c) annoynted Dauid kyng ouer Iſrael.

* ii, Re, ii, c.

(b) That is, takyng the Lorde to witneſſe, for the arke was as yet in Abinadabs houſe.

(c) That is, the third tyme that Dauid was annoynted.

4 Dauid was thirtie yeeres olde, when he began to raigne, and he raigned fourtie yeeres.

5 In Hebron he raigned ouer Iuda ſeuen yeeres and ſixe monethes: and in Hieruſalem he raigned thirtie and three yeeres ouer al Iſrael and Iuda.

6 The kyng alſo and his menne went to Hieruſalem vnto the Iebuſites, the inhabitantes of the lande, whiche ſpake vnto Dauid, ſayeing, Except thou take away the blynde and the lame, thou ſhalt not comme in hyther: For they ſayde, Thou art not hable to comme in hyther.

B 7 Neuertheleſſe, Dauid tooke the ſtrong hold of Sion: the ſame is the citie of Dauid.

8 And Dauid ſayd the ſame day, Whoſoeuer ſmiteth the Iebuſites, and geateth vp to the gutters of the houſes, and ſmiteth the lame and the blynde, hated of Dauids ſoule, [I wil preferre hym.] Wherfore they ſayd, The blind & the lame ſhal not comme into that houſe.

9 And ſo Dauid dwelt in the towre, and called it the citie of Dauid, and buylt rounde about it, from Millo, and inwarde.

10 And Dauid proſpered and grewe, and the Lorde God of hoſtes was with hym.

11 And Hiram kyng of Tyre ſent meſſengers to Dauid, and Cedar trees, and carpenters, and maſons for walles: and they buylt Dauid an houſe.

12 And Dauid perceiued that the Lorde had ſtabliſhed hym kyng ouer Iſrael, and that he had exalted his kyngdome for his people Iſraels ſake.

C 13 And Dauid tooke hym moe concubines and wiues out of Hieruſalem, after he was comme from Hebron, and moe ſonnes and daughters were yet borne to Dauid.

14 * And theſe be the names of the ſonnes that were borne vnto hym in Hieruſalem: Samua, Sobab, Nathan, and Salomon,

* i, Pa, iii, b.

15 Ibhar alſo, and Eliſua, Nepheg, and Iaphia,

16 Eliſama, Eliada, and Eliphelet.

17 But when the Philiſtines heard, that they had annoynted Dauid kyng ouer Iſrael, they came al vp to (d) ſeeke Dauid: And as ſoone as Dauid hearde of it, he gate hym to an holde.

(d) That is, they came to fight agaynſt Dauid.

18 And when the Philiſtines came, they ſpread them ſelues in the valley of Raphaim.

19 And Dauid (e) aſked counſel of the Lord, ſayeing, Shal I goe vp to the Philiſtines? Wylt thou deliuer them into my handes? And the Lorde anſweared vnto Dauid, Goe vp: for I wyl doubtleſſe deliuer the Philiſtines ſtines into thy handes.

20 And Dauid came to Baal Perazim, and ſmote them there, and ſayde, The Lord hath diuided myne enimies aſunder before me, as waters be diuided aſunder: And therefore he called the name of that place ⁎ Baal Perazim.

⁎ Or, the playne of diuiſions.

21 And there they leaft their images: and Dauid, and his menne burnt them.

22 And the Philiſtines came yet agayne, and layde them ſelues in the valley of Rephaim.

23 And when Dauid aſked counſel of the lord, he anſweared, Thou ſhalt not goe vp: but compaſſe them on the backſyde, and comme vpon them ouer agaynſt the Mulberie trees.

24 And when thou heareſt the noiſe of a thing goeing in the toppe of the Mulbery trees, then remoue: for then ſhal the Lorde goe out before thee, to ſmite the hoſte of the Philiſtines.

25 And Dauid dyd as the Lorde had commaunded hym: and ſmote the Philiſtines from Geba, vntyl thou comme to (f) Gazer.

(f) whiche was in the tribe of Beniamin: but the Philiſtines dyd poſſeſſe it.

The vi. Chapter.

A 1 AGayne, Dauid geathered togeather al the choſen menne of Iſrael, euen thirtie thouſande.

2 And aroſe, & went with al yͤ folke, that were with hym, frō (a) Baala of Iuda, to fet away from thence the arke of GOD, whoſe name is called by the name of yͤ Lord of hoſtes, that dwelleth vpon it betweene the Cherubims.

3 And they put the arke of God vpon a newe cart, and brought it out of the houſe of Abinadab, that was (b) in Gibea: And Uzza and Ahio the ſonnes of Abinadab draue the newe carte.

(b) whiche was an hygh place in the citie of Kiriathiarim.

4 And when they brought the arke of God out of the houſe of Abinadab, that was at Gibea, Ahio went before the arke.

5 And Dauid and al the houſe of Iſrael played before the Lorde, on ſundry inſtrumentes made of Cedar wood, with Harpes, Psalteries, Tymbrelles, Hornettes, and Cymbales.

9 And when they came to Nachons threaſſhyng floore, Uzza put his hande to the arke of God, & helde it, for the oxen dyd ſhake it.

B 7 And the Lorde was wroth with Uzza, and GOD ſmote him in the ſame place for his (c) fault, and there he dyed before the arke of God.

(c) His intent ſeemed to reaſon to be good, but beyng contrary to gods woorde, it was a fault.

8 And Dauid was diſpleaſed, because the Lorde had ſmitten Uzza: And he called the name of the place " Perez Uzza, vntyl this day.

" Or, the diuiſion of Uzza.

9 And Dauid was then afraide of the Lord, and ſayde, Howe ſhal the arke of the Lorde comme to me?

10 And ſo Dauid woulde not bryng the arke of the Lorde vnto hym ſelfe into the citie of Dauid: but Dauid caryed it into the houſe of Obed Edom, a (d) Gethite.

(d) Who beyng a Leuite, had dwelt in Githaim. 1.Chro.15.a.

11 And the arke of the Lorde continued in the houſe of Obed Edom the Gethite three monethes: and the Lord bleſſed Obed Edom, and al his houſholde.

12 And one tolde kyng Dauid, howe that the Lorde had bleſſed the houſe of Obed Edom, and al that perteyned vnto hym, becauſe of the arke of God. And Dauid went, and (e) brought the arke of God from the houſe of Obed Edom, into the citie of Dauid with gladneſſe.

(e) Meaning, he cauſed the Leuites to beare it accordyng to the lawe.

13 And when they, that bare the arke of the Lord, had gonne ſixe paſes, he offered an oxe, and a fat beaſt.

C 14 And Dauid daunced before the Lord with al his myght, and was gyrded with a linnen (f) Ephod.

15 So Dauid & al the houſe of Iſrael brought the arke of the Lorde with ſhooting & trumpet blowyng.

(f) With a garment lyke the prieſtes garment.

16 And as the arke of the Lorde came into the citie of Dauid, Michol Sauls daughter looked through a windowe, & ſawe kyng Dauid ſpring, and daunce before the Lord: and ſhe (g) deſpiſed hym in her hart.

(g) As one, that had by lyght behauiour diſgraſed hym ſelfe, and played a fooliſhe part, as ſhe thought.

17 And when they brought in the arke of the lord, they ſet it in his place, euen in yͤ middes of the tabernacle, that Dauid had pitched for it: and Dauid offered burnt offeringes, and peace offerines before the Lorde.

18 And as ſoone as Dauid had made an end of offering burnt offeringes, and peace offeringes, he bleſſed the people in the name of the Lorde of hoſtes,

19 And gaue among al the folke, euen among yͤ whole multitude of Iſrael, aſwel to yͤ women as to yͤ men, to euery one a cake of bread, & a peece of fleaſh, & a flacket of wine: And ſo al the people departed euery one to his houſe.

20 Then Dauid returned to [h] bleſſe his houſeholde, & Michol the daughter of Saul came out to meete Dauid, and ſayde, O how glorious was the kyng of Iſrael this day, whiche was vncouered to day in the eyes of the maydens of his ſeruantes, as a foole vncouereth hym ſelfe?

(h) That is, to pray for his houſe, as he had donne for the people.

21 And Dauid ſaide vnto Michol, It was before the [i] Lord, whiche choſe me rather then thy father, and al his houſe, and commaunded me to be ruler ouer al the people of the Lorde, euen ouer Iſrael, and therefore wyl I play before the Lorde.

(i) whoſe glorie is to be eſteemed more then the pleaſing of menne.

22 And wyl yet be more vile then ſo, and wyl be meeke in myne owne ſyght. And of the very ſame mayd ſeruantes, which thou haſt ſpoken of, ſhal I be had in honour.

23 Therefore Michol the daughter of Saul had [k] no chylde vnto the day of her death.

(k) For puniſhment, becauſe ſhe mocked the ſeruant of God.

The.vij.Chapter.

2 Dauid woulde buylde God an houſe, but is forbydden by the prophete Nathan. 8 God putteth Dauid in minde of his benefites. 12 He promiſeth continuance of his kyngdome and poſteritie.

A 1 After warde, when the kyng ſate in his houſe, & the Lord had geuen him reaſt rounde about from al his enimies,

2 The kyng ſayde vnto Nathan the prophete, Beholde, I dwelle nowe in an houſe of Cedar trees: but the arke of God dwelleth within the [a] curtaynes.

(a) That is, within the tabernacle couered with ſkynnes.

Act.26.b.

3 And Nathan ſayde to the kyng, Goe, and doo al that is in thyne hart: for the Lorde is with thee.

4 And the ſame nyght, the woorde of the Lorde came vnto Nathan, ſayeing,

5 Goe, and telle my ſeruant Dauid, Thus ſayth the Lorde, [b] Shalt thou buylde me an houſe to dwelle in?

(b) Meanyng he ſhould not: although afore without counſel of the Lord he had permitted hym.

6 For I haue not dwelt in any houſe ſence the tyme, that I brought the chyldren of Iſrael out of Egypt, vnto this day: but haue walked in a tent and tabernacle.

7 In al the places, wherein I haue walked with al the chyldren of Iſrael, ſpake I one woord with any of the tribes of Iſrael, when I commaunded [the iudges] to feede my peopeople Iſrael, ſayeing, Why buylde ye not me an houſe of Cedar trees?

B 8 Nowe therefore, ſo ſay vnto my ſeruant Dauid, Thus ſayth the Lorde of hoſtes, I tooke thee fro the ſheepe coate, as thou were folowyng ſheepe, that thou myghteſt be ruler ouer my people of Iſrael.

9 And I was with thee in al that thou wenteſt too, and haue deſtroyed al thyne [c] enimies out of thy ſyght, and haue made thee a great [d] name, lyke vnto the name of the great menne that are in the earth.

(c) Both outwarde, as the Philiſtines: & inwarde, as Saul and his houſe.

(d) For thy noble actes, and the largeneſſe of thy kyngdome.

10 (Alſo, I wyl appoynt a place for my people Iſrael, and wyl plant it, that they may dwelle in a place of their owne, and [e] moue no more: neyther ſhal wicked people trouble them any more, as before tyme,

(e) He promiſeth them quietneſſe, yf they wyl walke in his feare and obedience.

11 And ſence the tyme, that I ſet iudges ouer my people of Iſrael.) And I wyl geue thee reaſt from al thyne enimies: And the Lorde telleth thee that he wyl make thee an houſe.

12 And when thy dayes be fulfilled, thou ſhalt ſleepe with thy fathers: and I wyl ſet vp thy ſeede after thee, whiche ſhal proceede out of thy body, and wyl ſtabliſhe his kyngdome.

13 He ſhal buylde an houſe for my name, and I wyl ſtabliſhe the throne of his kyngdome for euer.

C 14 I wyl be his father, and he ſhalbe my ſonne: If he ſinne, I wyl chaſten hym with the [f] rodde of menne, and with the plagues of the chyldren of menne.

(f) That is gently, as fathers vſe to chaſtiſe their chyldren.

15 But my mercie ſhal not depart away from hym, as I tooke it from Saul, whom I put away before thee.

16 And thyne houſe, and thy kyngdome ſhalbe ſtabliſhed for euer before thee, [euen] thy [g] throne ſhalbe ſtabliſhed for euer.

(g) This was begunne in Salomon, as a figure, but accompliſhed in Chriſte.

17 Accordyng to al theſe woordes, and accordyng to al this viſion, ſo dyd Nathan ſpeake vnto Dauid.

18 Then went kyng Dauid in, and ſet hym downe before the Lorde, and ſayd, Who am I, O Lorde God? and what is my houſe, that thou haſt brought me [h] hyther to?

(h) That is, to ſo great dignitie.

19 And this was yet a ſmal thyng in thy ſight, O Lorde God: but thou haſt ſpoken alſo of thy ſeruantes houſe for a great whyle: but " dooth this perteyne to man, O Lorde God?

" Hebr. Is this the lawe of man.

20 And what can Dauid ſay more vnto thee? for thou, Lorde God, knoweſt thy ſeruant.

21 Euen for thy woordes ſake, and according to thyne owne hart, haſt thou doone al theſe great thynges, to make them knowen vnto thy ſeruant.

22 Wherefore thou art great, O Lorde God: for there is none lyke thee, neyther is there any God beſides thee, accordyng to al that we haue heard with our eares.

(i) O Iſrael.

23 And what one people in the earth is lyke thy people, lyke Iſrael, whoſe God went and redeemed them to him ſelfe, that they might be his people, and that he myght make hym a name, and doe for you (i) great thinges and terrible, for thy lande, O Lorde, [euen] for thy people, * whiche thou redeemedſt to thee out of Egypt, [euen] from the (k) nations, and theyr goddes.

Exo.13.d.
(k) From the Egyptians, and their idols

(l) Of thy free election.

24 For thou haſt (l) ordeyned thy people Iſrael to be thy people for euer, and thou Lorde art becomme theyr God.

25 And nowe, Lorde God, the woorde that thou haſt ſpoken, concernyng thy ſeruant and his houſe, make it good for euer, and doo as thou haſt ſayde:

26 And let thy name be magnified for euer of menne that ſhal ſay, The Lorde of hoſtes is the God ouer Iſrael: and let the houſe of thy ſeruant Dauid be ſtabliſhed before thee.

27 For thou, O Lorde of hoſtes, God of Iſrael, (m) haſt tolde in the eare of thy ſeruant, ſayeing, I wyl buylde thee an houſe: And therefore hath thy ſeruant founde in his hart to pray this prayer vnto thee.

(m) In the hebrue phraſe, in meanyng, thou haſt reueiled to thy ſeruant.
Deu.23.f.

28 * Therefore nowe, Lorde God, (thou art God, & thy woordes be true: thou that haſte tolde this goodneſſe vnto thy ſeruant.)

29 Therefore nowe let it pleaſe thee to bleſſe the houſe of thy ſeruant, that it may continue for euer before thee: for thou Lord God haſt ſpoken it, and with thy bleſſyng let the houſe of thy ſeruant be bleſſed for euer.

A 1 ANd Dauid ſayd, Is there yet anye man leaſt of the houſe of Saul? For I wyl ſhewe hym mercie for (a) Jonathans ſake.

2 And there was of the houſeholde of Saul a ſeruaunt, whoſe name was Ziba: and when they had called hym vnto Dauid, the kyng ſayde vnto hym, Art thou Ziba? He ſayde, Thy ſeruant is he.

(d) Dauid thought by this meanes to cloke his fault.

10 Whiche when they had tolde Dauid, ſayeing, Vrias went not downe vnto his houſe: Dauid ſayde vnto Vrias, Cameſt thou not from thy iourney? Why dyddeſt thou not goe downe then vnto thyne houſe?

11 Vrias anſweared Dauid, The arke, & Iſrael, and Iuda dwelle in pauilions, and my lorde Ioab, and the ſeruantes of my lorde abyde in the open feeldes: and ſhal I then goe into myne houſe, to eate, and drynke, and lye with my wyfe? By thy lyfe, and by the lyfe of thy ſoule, I wyl not doo this thyng.

12 And Dauid ſayd vnto Urias, Tarrie here this day alſo, and to morowe I wyl let thee departe. And ſo Urias aboade in Hieruſalem that day, and the morowe.

13 And when Dauid had called hym, he dyd eate and drynke before hym, & he made hym (f) drunke: And at euen he went out, to lye on his couche with the ſeruantes of his lorde, but went not downe to his houſe.

24 And the ſhooters ſhotte from the walles vpon thy ſeruantes, & ſomme of the kynges ſeruantes be dead, and thy ſeruant Urias the Hethite is dead alſo.

26 And when the wyfe of Urias hearde, that her huſbande was dead, ſhe mourned for hym.

The.xiii.Chapter.

14 Amnon Dauids ſonne, defileth his ſiſter Thamar. 19 Thamar is comforted by her brother Abſalom. 29 Abſalom therefore kylleth Amnon.

A 1 After this, ſo it was, that Abſalom ye ſonne of Dauid hadde a fayre ſiſter, named (a) Thamar, whom Amnon the ſonne of Dauid loued.

(a) Thamar was Abſaloms ſiſter both by father and mother, and Ammons only by father.

2 And he was ſo ſoare vexed, that he felle ſicke for his ſiſter Thamar: for ſhe was a (b) virgine, and he thought it harde for hym to doo any thing to her.

(b) And therfore kept in her fathers houſe, as virgins were accuſtomed.

3 But Amnon had a freende called Ionadab, the ſonne of Simah, Dauids brother: And Ionadab was a very ſubtile man.

4 And he ſayd vnto hym, How commeth it that thou beyng the kynges ſonne, art thus conſumed from day to day? Wylt thou not telle me? Amnon anſweared hym, I loue Thamar my brother Abſaloms ſyſter.

5 Jonadab ſayde vnto hym, (c) Laye thee downe on thy bed, and make thee ſelfe ſicke: And when thy father is comme to thee, ſaye vnto hym, I praye thee, let my ſyſter Thamar comme, and geue me meate, and dreſſe it in my ſight, that I may ſee it, and eate it of her hande.

6 And ſo Amnon lay downe, and made hym ſelfe ſicke: And when the kyng was comme to ſee hym, Amnon ſayde vnto the kyng, I pray thee let Thamar my ſyſter comme, and make me a coople of (d) cakes in my ſyght, that I may eate of her hande.

B 7 Then Dauid ſent home to Thamar, ſayeing, Goe now to thy brother Amnons houſe, and dreſſe hym meate.

8 So Thamar went to her brother Amnons houſe, and he was layde downe: & ſhe tooke floure and kneaded it, and made cakes in his ſyght, and dyd bake them.

9 And tooke a panne, and (e) powred them out before hym: but he woulde not eate. And Amnon ſayde, Haue out al menne from me. And they went al out from hym.

10 And Amnon ſayd vnto Thamar, Bring the meate into the chamber, that I may eate of thine hand. And Thamar tooke the cakes whiche ſhe had made, and brought them into the chamber to Amnon her brother:

11 And when ſhe had ſet them before hym to eate, he tooke her, and ſaid vnto her, Comme, lye with me my ſyſter.

12 And ſhe anſweared him, Nay my brother, doo not force me, for there hath no ſuche thing benne donne in Iſrael: Doo not thou this follie.

13 And I, * whyther ſhal I cauſe my ſhame to goe? And thou ſhalt be as one of the fooles in Iſrael: Nowe therfore, I pray thee, ſpeake vnto the kyng, and he wyl not denie me vnto thee.

C 14 Howbeit, he would not hearken vnto her voyce, but beyng ſtronger then ſhe, * forced her, and lay with her,

15 And then Amnon hated her exceedyngly, ſo that the hatred wherewith he hated her, was greater then the loue, with whiche he before loued her: And Amnon ſayd vnto her, Vp, and geat thee hence.

16 She anſweared hym, * There is no cauſe: This euyl that thou putteſt me away, is greater, then yͤ other, that thou dyddeſt vnto me, Neuertheleſſe, he would not heare her:

17 But called his * boye that ſerued hym, & ſayde, Put away this woman from me, and bolte the doore after her.

18 And ſhe had a garment of (f) diuers colours vpon her: for with ſuche were the kynges daughters (that were virgins) apparelled. Then his ſeruant brought her out, and locked the doore after her.

19 And Thamar tooke, and put aſhes on her head, and rent her garment of diuers colours that was on her, and layed her hande on her head, and ſo went, and as ſhe went, cryed.

D 20 And Abſalom her brother ſayde vnto her, Hath Amnon thy brother benne with thee? Nowe yet be ſtyl my ſyſter, he is thy brother, let not this thyng greeue thyne harte. And ſo Thamar remayned deſolate in her brother Abſaloms houſe.

21 But when kyng Dauid hearde of al theſe thynges, he was very wroth.

22 And Abſalom ſayde vnto his brother Amnon neyther good, nor bad: Howbeit, Abſalom hated Amnon, becauſe he had forced his ſyſter Thamar.

23 And after the time of two yeeres, Abſalom had * ſheepe ſhearers in the playne of Hazor beſyde Ephraim, and bade al the kynges ſonnes.

24 And came to the king, and ſayde, Behold, thy ſeruant hath ſheepe ſhearers, I pray thee, that the kyng with his ſeruantes, comme to thy ſeruant.

25 The kyng anſweared Abſalom, Nay my ſonne, I pray thee, let vs not goe al, leſt we be chargeable vnto thee. And Abſalom laye ſoare vpon hym, howbeit he would not goe, but * bleſſed hym.

26 Then ſayde Abſalom, But I praye thee, ſhal not my brother (g) Amnon goe with vs? And the king anſweared hym, what nedeth it, that he goe with thee?

E 27 But Abſalom made ſuche inſtance, that he let Amnon, and al the kinges children goe with hym.

28 Nowe had Abſalom commaunded his young menne, ſayeing, Marke when Amnons (h) hart is meary with wyne, and when I byd you ſmyte Amnon: then kyl hym, and feare not: haue I not bydden you? be bolde therefore. and play the menne.

29 And the ſeruantes of Abſalom dyd vnto Amnon, euen as Abſalom hadde commaunded: And al the kynges ſonnes aroſe, and euery man gate him vp vpon his mule, and fled.

30 And whyle they were yet in the waye, tydynges came to Dauid, ſayeing, Abſalom

16 And the kyng departed, and al his houſeholde, (i) at his feete: And the king leaft tenne concubines to keepe the houſe.

(i) That is, after hym.

17 And the kyng went foorth, and al the people at his feete, and taried in a place, that was (k) farre of.

(k) To wit, from Hieruſalem.

18 And al his ſeruantes went aboute hym: and al the Cerethites, and al the Phelethites, & al the Gethites, euen ſyxe hundred menne which were comme " after him from Geth, went before the kyng.

" Heb. At his feete.

19 Then ſaide the kyng to Ithai the Gethite, Wherfore commeſt thou with vs? Returne, and abide with the king, for thou art a ſtranger, depart therefore to thy place.

D

20 Thou cameſt yeſterday, and ſhould I vnquiet thee to day, to goe with vs? I wyl goe whyther I can: Therefore returne thou, and carrie agayne thy (l) brethren: mercy & trueth be with thee.

(l) That is, the ſouldiers that be with thee.

21 And Ithai anſweared the kyng, and ſayd, As the Lorde lyueth, & as my lorde the kyng lyueth, in what place my lord the kyng ſhalbe, whether in death, or in life, euen there alſo wyl thy ſeruant be.

22 And Dauid ſayde to Ithai, Comme then, and goe forewarde. And Ithai the Gethite went foorth, & al his menne, and al the chyldren that were with hym.

23 And al the countrey wepte with a loude voyce, & al the people went ouer. The kyng alſo him ſelfe paſſed ouer the brooke Cedron, and al the people went ouer toward the way that leadeth to the wylderneſſe.

24 And loe, Sadoc alſo & al the Leuites were with hym, and (m) bare the arke of the appoyntmente of God, and they ſet downe the arke of God, and Abiathar (n) went vp, vntil the people were al comme ouer out of the citie.

(m) Whiche was the charge of the Caathites. Num. 4. a.

(n) To ſtande by the arke.

25 And the kyng ſayde vnto Sadoc, Carrie the arke of God agayne into the citie: If I ſhal finde fauour in the eyes of the Lorde, he wyl bryng me agayne, and ſhewe me both it, and the tabernacle thereof.

26 But if he thus ſaye, I haue no luſte vnto thee, beholde (o) here am I? let hym doo with me, what ſeemeth good in his eyes.

(o) Gods wyl is a comforte and a cauſe of contentation to the faythful in al aduerſities.

E

27 The kyng ſayde alſo vnto Sadoc the prieſte, Art not thou a Seer? Returne into the citie in peace, & take your two ſonnes with you, Ahimaaz thy ſonne, and Ionathan the ſonne of Abiathar.

28 Beholde, I wyl tarrie in the fieldes of the wylderneſſe, vntyl there comme ſomme woorde from you to be tolde me.

29 Sadoc therefore, and Abiathar carried the arke of God agayne to Hieruſalem, and they tarried there.

30 And Dauid went vpon mount Oliuet, & wept as he went vp, and had his head (p) couered, and went bare foote, and al the people, that was with hym, had euery man his head couered, and as they went vp, they wept.

(p) With aſhes and duſt, after the maner of them that be in ſorowe.

31 And one tolde Dauid, ſayeing, Ahithophel is one of them that haue conſpired with Abſalom. And Dauid ſayde, O Lorde, I pray thee turne the (q) counſel of Ahithophel into fooliſhneſſe.

(q) Terrible is the councel of the wicked worldly wyſe, agaynſt the innocent: except God, who oft turneth it to folly, do fruſtrate and diſappoynt the ſame.

32 When Dauid was comme to the toppe of the mount, he worſhypped God, and beholde, Huſai the Arachite came againſt him, with his coate torne, and hauing earth vpon his head.

33 Unto whom Dauid ſayde, If thou goe with me, thou ſhalt be a burthen vnto me.

34 But if thou returne to the citie, and ſay vnto Abſalom, I wil be thy ſeruant O king, as I haue thus long benne thy fathers ſeruant, ſo am I nowe thy ſeruant, thou mayſt “ for my ſake deſtroy the counſel of Ahithophel.

35 And haſt thou not there with thee Sadoc and Abiathar the prieſtes? therefore whatſoeuer thou ſhalt heare out of the kings houſe, thou ſha[illegible]ew to Sadoc and Abiathar the prieſtes.

36 And beholde, they haue there with them their two ſonnes, Ahimaaz Sadocs ſonne, and Ionathan Abiathars ſonne: by them alſo ſhal ye ſende me al that ye can heare.

37 And ſo Huſai Dauids frende went to the citie, and Abſalom entred into Hieruſalem.

The.xvi,Chapter.

1 The infidelitie of Ziba. 5 Semei curſeth Dauid. 16 Huſai commeth to Abſalom. 21 The counſel of Ahithophel for the concubines.

A 1 AND when Dauid was a litle paſt the (a) toppe [of the hyl] beholde, Ziba the ſeruante of Miphoboſeth mette hym with a coople of aſſes ſadled, and vpon them two hundred loues of bread, and one hundred bunches of reſines, and an hundred of dryed “ fygges, & a bottel of wyne.

2 And the kyng ſayd vnto Ziba, What meaneſt thou with theſe thynges? And Ziba ſayde, They be aſſes for the kinges houſhold to ryde on, and bread and fruite for the young menne to eate, & wyne, that ſuche as be faynt in the wyldernesſe, may drynke.

3 And the kyng ſayde, Where is thy maiſters ſonne? Ziba anſweared vnto the kyng, Beholde, he taryeth ſtyl at Hieruſalem: For he ſayde, This day ſhal the houſe of Iſrael reſtore me the kyngdome of my father.

4 Then ſayde the kyng to Ziba, Beholde, thyne are al that parteyned vnto Miphiboſeth. And Ziba ſaid, I humbly “ beſeech thee, that I may finde grace in thy ſight, my lord, O king.

5 And when kyng Dauid came to (b) Bahurim, beholde, thence came out a man of the kinred of the houſe of Saul, named Semei, the ſonne of Gera, and he came out curſyng.

6 And he caſt ſtones at Dauid, and at al the ſeruantes of Dauid: And al the people and al the menne of warre were on his (c) ryght hande, and on his leaſt.

B 7 And thus ſayde Semei, when he curſed, Comme foorth, comme foorth thou “ bloodſheader, and thou man of “ Belial.

8 The Lorde hath brought vpon thee al the (d) blood of the houſe of Saul, in whoſe ſteed thou haſt raigned, and the Lord hath deliuered the kyngdome into the hande of Abſalom thy ſonne: And beholde, thou art comme to thy miſchiefe, becauſe thou art a bloodſheader.

9 Then ſaide Abiſai the ſonne of Zaruia vnto the kyng, Why dooth this dead dog curſe my lord the kyng? let me goe now, & take of the head of hym.

10 And the kyng ſayde, What haue I to doo with you, ye ſonnes of Zaruia? for he curſeth euen becauſe the Lorde hath bydden hym (e) curſe Dauid: Who dareth thẽ ſay, Wherefore haſt thou donne ſo?

11 And Dauid ſayde to Abiſai, and to al his ſeruantes, Behold, my ſonne which came of myne owne bowels, ſeeketh my lyfe: Howe muche more then may this ſonne of Iemini do it? Suffer hym to curſe, for the Lord hath bidden hym.

12 It may be, that the Lorde wyl looke on myne “ affliction, and (f) doo me good for his curſyng this day.

13 And as Dauid and his menne went by the way, Semei went along on the hilles ſyde ouer agaynſt hym, and curſed as he went, and threwe ſtones at hym, and caſt duſt.

14 And the king, and al that were with him, came weary, and refreſhed them ſelues (g) there.

C 15 And Abſalom, and al the people, the menne of Iſrael came to Hieruſalem, and Ahithophel was with hym.

16 And as ſoone as Huſai the Arachite, Dauids frend, was comme vnto Abſalom, Huſai ſayde vnto Abſalom, God ſaue the kyng, “ God ſaue the kyng.

17 And Abſalom ſayde to Huſai, Is this the kindneſſe to thy (h) frend? Why wenteſt thou not with hym?

18 Huſai anſweared vnto Abſalom, Nay, not ſo: But whom the Lorde and this people, and al the menne of Iſrael chooſe, his wyl I be, and with hym wyl I dwelle.

19 And “ moreouer, vnto whom ſhal I doo ſeruice?

“ Hebr. To me, that is, to my commoditie.

(d) This he ſayde, becauſe of the death of Iſboſeth and Abner, ſuſpectyng Dauid to be gyltie to the ſame.

(e) Dauid felt that this was the iudgement of God for his ſinne, and therefore humbleth hym ſelfe to his rod.

“ Ye, the ſecond tyme.

ſeruice: not to his ſonne, and as I was ſeruant before thy father, ſo wil I be before thee.

D 20 Then ſpake Abſalom to Ahithophel, Geue counſel what we ſhal doo.

21 And (i) Ahithophel ſayde vnto Abſalom, Geat thee in vnto thy fathers concubines, whiche he hath leaft to keepe the houſe, and al Iſrael ſhal heare, that thou art abhorred of thy father: then ſhal the handes of al that are with thee, be ſtrong.

(i) Suſpecting the poſſibilitie of reconciliation betwixt the father, and the ſonne, and conſequently his owne deſtruction: he geueth ſuche counſel that is lyke to barre frendſhip for euer.

22 And ſo they ſpread Abſalom a tent vpon the toppe of the houſe. And Abſalom went in vnto his fathers concubines in the ſyght of al Iſrael.

23 And the counſel of Ahithophel, whiche he counſelled in thoſe dayes, was as a man had aſked counſel (k) at the oracle of God, euen ſo was al the counſel of Ahithophel, both with Dauid, and with Abſalom.

(k) It was ſo eſtemed for the ſucceſſe thereof.

The.xvii.Chapter.

7 Ahithophels counſel is ouerthrowen by Huſai. 14 The Lorde had ſo ordeyned. 19 The prieſtes ſonnes are hid in the wel. 22 Dauid goeth ouer Iordane. 23 Ahithophel hangeth hym ſelfe. 27 They bryng vittayles to Dauid.

A 1 Ahithophel alſo ſaide vnto Abſalõ, (a) Let me chooſe out nowe twelue thouſande menne, and I wyl vp, and folowe after Dauid this nyght:

(a) As though he would ſay, geue me auctoritie to chooſe.

2 And I wyl comme vpon hym, while he is weary and weake handed, & wyl feare hym: And al the people that are with hym, ſhal flee, and ſo wyl I ſmyte the kyng only,

3 And wyl bryng agayne al the people vnto thee: and when al ſhal returne, the (b) man, whom thou ſeekeſt [beyng ſlayne] al the people ſhalbe in peace.

(b) Meaning Dauid.

4 And the ſayeing “ pleaſed Abſalom wel, and al the elders of Iſrael.

“ Heb. Was ryght in the eyes of Abſalom.

5 Then ſayde Abſalom, Calle nowe Huſai the Arachite alſo, and let vs heare lykewyſe “ what he ſayth.

“ Hebr. What is in his mouth.

6 When Huſai was comme to Abſalom, Abſalom ſpake vnto hym, ſayeing, Ahithophel hath geuen · ſuche counſel: Shal we doo after his ſayeing, or no: telle thou.

· Or, Spoken thus.

B 7 Huſai anſweared vnto Abſalom, The counſel that Ahithophel hath geuen, is not good at this tyme.

8 For ſayde Huſai, Thou knoweſt thy father and his menne, howe that they be ſtrong menne, and they be chafed in their myndes, & are euen as a Beare robbed of her whelpes in the fielde: Thy father is a man alſo practiſed in warre, and wyl not · lodge with the people.

· Or, Tary al nyght.

9 Beholde he is hyd nowe in ſomme caue, or in ſomme other place: And though ſomme of his menne be ouerthrowen at the firſt brunt, yet they that heare it, wyl ſay, The people that foloweth Abſalom, be “ put to yͤ woorſe.

“ He, Haue a breache or ruyne.

10 And he alſo that is valiant, whoſe hart is as the hart of a lion, ſhal “ ſhrynke & faynte: for al Iſrael knoweth, that thy father is a mighty man, and they whiche be with him, are “ ſtout menne.

“ Hebr. Melt.

“ Hebr. The chyldren of fortitude.

11 Therefore my counſel is, that al Iſrael be geathered vnto thee from Dan to Beerſeba, as the ſande of the ſea in number, and that thou goe to batayle in thyne owne perſone.

12 For ſo ſhal we comme vpon hym in one place or other, where we ſhal fynde hym, and we wyl fal vpon hym, euen as thicke as the dewe falleth on the grounde: And of al the menne that are with hym, we ſhal not leaue hym one.

12 Moreouer, if he be gotten into a towne, then ſhal al the menne of Iſrael bryng ropes to that citie, and we wyl draw it into the ryuer, vntil there be not one ſmal ſtone found there.

14 And Abſalom and al the menne of Iſrael ſayde, The counſel of Huſai the Arachite, is better then the counſel of Ahithophel. For · it was euen the Lordes determination to deſtroy the (c) good counſel of Ahithophel, that the Lorde myght (d) bryng euyl vpon Abſalom. C

· Or, The Lorde hath commaunded.

(c) Good to haue brought to paſſe that wicked purpoſe he went about.

(d) For by the counſel of Huſai, he went to the battel where he was deſtroyed.

15 Then ſayde Huſai vnto Sadoc and Abiathar the prieſtes, Of this and that manner dyd Ahithophel & the elders of Iſrael counſel Abſalom, and thus & thus haue I counſelled.

16 Nowe therefore ſend quickly, and ſhewe Dauid, ſayeing, Tarie not this nyght in the fieldes of the wyldernеſſe, but geat thee (e) ouer, leſt the kyng be deuoured, and al the people that are with hym.

(e) That is, ouer Iordane.

17 Nowe Ionathan and Ahimaaz abode by the wel Rogel: (for they myght not be ſeene to comme into the citie) and a wench went, and (f) tolde them: And they went, and ſhewed kyng Dauid.

(f) The meſſage from their fathers.

18 Neuertheleſſe, a lad ſawe them, and told it to Abſalom: But they went both of them away quickly, and came to a mans houſe in Bahurim, whiche had a wel in his yarde, into the whiche they went downe.

19 And the wyfe tooke and ſpread a couerlet ouer the welles mouth, and ſpread grounde corne

thereon: and the thyng was not ſpyed.

D 20 And when Abſaloms ſeruantes came to the wyfe to yͤ houſe, they ſayd, Where is Ahimaaz & Jonathan? The woman anſweared them, They be gonne ouer the brooke of water. And when they had ſought them, and coulde not fynde them, they returned to Hieruſalem.

21 And as ſoone as they were departed, the other came out of the wel, and went and told kyng Dauid, and ſayde vnto hym, Up, and geat you quickly ouer the water, for (g) ſuche counſel hath Ahithophel geuen againſt you.

22 Then Dauid aroſe, and al the people that were with hym, and they were comme ouer Jordane (h) by that it was day, ſo that there lacked not one of them, that was not come ouer Jordane.

23 And when Ahithophel ſaw, that his counſel was not folowed, he ſadled his aſſe, and aroſe, and gate hym home to his owne houſe, and to his owne citie, & put his houſholde in order, and (i) hanged hym ſelfe, and dyed, & was buryed in the ſepulchre of his father.

24 Then Dauid came to Mahanaim, and Abſalom paſſed ouer Jordane, he and al the menne of Iſrael with hym.

25 And Abſalom made Amaſa captayne of the hoſt in ſteed of Joab: Which Amaſa was a mans ſonne named Jethra, an Iſraelite, that went in to Abigail the daughter of (k) Nahas, ſyſter to Zaruia, Joabs mother.

26 So Iſrael & Abſalom pitched in the lande of Gilead.

27 And when Dauid was comme to Mahanaim, Sobi the ſonne of Nahas, out of Rabba of the chyldren of Ammon, and Machir the ſonne of Ammiel out of Lodeber, and Barzellai the Gileadite out of Rogelim, E

28 (l) Brought beddes, baſens, earthen veſſels, wheat, and barlye, floure, and parched corne, beanes, lentiles, and parched pulſe,

29 Hony, butter, ſheepe, and cheeſe of kyne, for Dauid, and for the people that were with hym, to eate: For they ſayde, The people is hungry, weary, & thyrſty in the wyldernesse.

The. xviii. Chapter.

2 Dauid diuideth his armie into three partes. 9 Abſalom is hanged, ſlayne, and caſt in a pyt.
33 Dauid lamenteth the death of Abſalom.

A 1 AND Dauid numbred the people, that were with hym, and ſet captaynes of thouſandes, & of hundredes ouer them.

2 And Dauid ſent foorth the thirde parte of the people vnder the hande of Joab, and the thirde part vnder the hande of Abiſai the ſonne of Zaruia, Joabs brother, and the other thirde parte vnder the hande of Jthai the Gethite: And the kyng ſayde vnto the people, I wyl goe with you my ſelfe alſo.

3 And the people anſweared, Thou ſhalt not goe foorth: for if we flee away, they wyl not care for vs, neyther ſhal they regarde vs, though halfe of vs were ſlayne: but thou (a) art nowe woorth ten thouſand of vs. Wherfore it is better that thou ſuccour vs out of the citie.

4 And the kyng ſayde vnto them, What ſeemeth you beſt, that wyl I doo. And the kyng ſtoode by the gate ſyde, & al the people came out by hundredes, and by thouſandes.

5 And the kyng commaunded Joab, and Abiſai, and Jthai, ſayeing, Intreate the young man Abſalom gently for my ſake. And al the people hearde, that the kyng gaue al the captaynes charge, concernyng Abſalom.

6 And ſo the people went out into the fielde agaynſt Iſrael (and the batayle was in the (b) wood of Ephraim,)

7 Where the people of Iſrael were ſlayne before the ſeruantes of Dauid: and there was a great ſlaughter that day, euen of twentie thouſande menne. B

8 For the batayle was ſcattered ouer al the countrey. And the wood deuoured moe people that day, then dyd the ſwoorde.

9 And Abſalom met the ſeruantes of Dauid, rydyng vpon a mule, whiche caryed hym vnder the thicke bowes of a greate oke, and his head was caught of the oke, and he was (c) lifted vp betweene the heauen and the earth: and the mule that was vnder him, went away.

10 And one that ſawe it, tolde Joab, ſayeing, Beholde, I ſawe Abſalom hang in an oke.

11 And Joab ſayde vnto the man that tolde hym, If thou dyddeſt ſee hym, why dyddeſt not thou there ſmyte hym to the grounde, and I woulde haue geuen thee ten ſicles of ſyluer, and a gyrdle?

12 The man ſayde vnto Joab, Though I ſhoulde receiue a thouſande ſicles of ſyluer in myne hande, yet woulde I not ſtretche out myne hande agaynſt the kynges ſonne: For we hearde with our eares, when the kyng charged thee, and Abiſai, and Jthai, ſayeing, Beware that none touch the young man Abſalom.

13 Moreouer,

(g) To wite, to purſue thee with al haſte.

(h) So that they trauayled al nyght, and by mornyng had al their companie paſſed ouer.

(i) Thus God ſometymes in this lyfe executeth iudgement vpon the cruel perſecutor of the innocent, to admoniſhe vs what iudgement al ſuch ſhal haue in the worlde to comme.

(k) Who was alſo called Jſai, Dauids father.

(l) God by them ſuccouryng the neceſſitie of his faythful ſeruant in his trouble and affliction.

(a) Signifying that a good gouernor ought to be ſo deere vnto his people, that they wyl rather looſe their lyues, then that ought ſhould comme vnto hym.

(b) So called, becauſe the Ephraimites (as ſome ſay) fedde their cattel beyonde Jordane in this wood.

(c) By Gods prouidence, yͭ this might be an example for euer, what it is afore god, the ſonne to rebel agaynſt the father.

13 Moreouer, if I had donne it, I ſhould haue donne agaynſte myne owne lyfe: for there is no mater hyd from the kyng, yea and thou thee ſelfe wouldeſt haue benne agaynſt me.

C 14 Then ſaide Joab, I may not ſtande thus taryeing with thee: and he tooke three dartes in his hande, and thruſt them “ through Abſalom, while he was yet alyue in the middes of the oke.

“ Hebr. In the harte of Abſalom.

15 And ten ſeruantes that bare Joabs weapons, turned, and ſmote Abſalom, and ſlue hym.

16 And Joab blewe the trumpet, and the people returned from folowyng Iſrael: for Joab (d) helde backe the people.

(d) Temperatyng the victorie with mercie and pittie vpon the people that were ſeduced by Abſalom.

17 And they tooke Abſalom, and caſt him into a great pit in the wood, and layed a mighty great heape of ſtones vpon hym: And al Iſrael fled euery one to their tentes.

18 And this Abſalom yet in his lyfe tyme tooke and reared vp a pyller, whiche is in the kynges dale: For he ſayde, I haue no (e) ſonne to keepe my name in remembrance, and he called the pyller after his owne name, and it is called vnto this day, Abſaloms place.

(e) It ſhould appeare by this that God had pouniſhed him by taking away his three ſonnes & his daughter.

19 Then ſayde Ahimaaz the ſonne of Sados, Let me runne nowe, and beare the kyng tydynges, how that the Lorde hath (f) iudged hym quyte of the hande of his enimies.

(f) That is, hath deliuered him out of the handes of his enemies.

D 20 And Joab ſayde vnto hym, Thou art no man to beare (g) tydynges to day, thou ſhalt beare tydyngs another time: but to day thou ſhalt beare none, becauſe the kynges ſonne is dead.

(g) Fauoring him, that he ſhould not incurre diſpleaſure, by telling of the death of Abſalom.

21 Then ſayde Joab to Chuſi, Goe and telle the kyng what thou haſt ſeene. And Chuſi bowed hym ſelfe vnto Joab, and ranne.

22 Then ſaide Ahimaaz the ſonne of Sadoc agayne to Joab, What, I pray thee, yf I alſo runne after Chuſi? And Joab ſayde, Wherefore wylt thou runne my ſonne, ſeeyng that thou haſt no tydynges to bryng?

23 Yet what if I runne? He ſayde vnto hym, Runne. Then Ahimaaz ranne by the way of the playne, and came before Chuſi.

24 And Dauid ſate betweene the two (h) gates: And the watcheman went vp to the roofe ouer the gate vnto the walle, and lyfted vp his eyes, and ſaw, and behold, there came a man runnyng alone.

(h) He ſate in the gate of the citie of Mahanaim.

25 And the watcheman cryed, & told the king. And the kyng ſayd, If he be alone, there is (i) tydynges in his mouth. And he came apaſe, and drewe neare.

(i) That is, he bryngeth tydinges.

26 And the watcheman ſawe another man runnyng, and the watcheman called vnto the porter, and ſayde, Behold there commeth another man runnyng alone. And the kyng ſayde, He is alſo a tydyndes brynger.

27 And the watcheman ſayd, “ Me thynketh the runnyng of the foremoſt, is lyke the runnyng of Ahimaaz the ſonne of Sadoc. The kyng ſayde, He is a (k) good man, and commeth with good tydynges.

“ Hebr. I ſee the runnyng.

“ Or, deliuered vp.

29 And the kyng ſayde, Is the young man Abſalom ſafe? Ahimaaz anſweared, When Joab ſent the kynges (l) ſeruant, and me thy ſeruant, I ſawe a great tumult, but I wote not what it was.

(l) To wite, Chuſi, who was an Ethiopian.

30 And the kyng ſayde vnto hym, Turne aſyde, and ſtande here. And he turned aſyde, and ſtoode ſtyl.

31 And beholde, Chuſi came alſo, and ſayd, “ Tydynges my Lord the kyng: for the Lord hath “ deliuered thee this day out of the hand of al them, that roſe agaynſt thee.

“ Hebr. Tydinges is brought.
“ Hebr. Judged.

32 And the kyng ſayde vnto Chuſi, Is the young man Abſalom ſafe? Chuſi anſweared, The enimies of my lord the kyng, and al that ryſe agaynſt thee, to doo thee hurt, be as that young man is.

33 And the kyng was (m) moued, and went vp to the chamber ouer the gate, and wept: and as he went, thus he ſayde, O my ſonne Abſalom, my ſonne, my ſonne Abſalom: Would God I had dyed for thee, O Abſalom my ſonne, my ſonne.

(m) The rebellion of his ſonne, could not quenche his fatherly affection.

A 1 AND it was tolde Joab, Beholde the kyng weepeth, and mourneth for Abſalom.

2 And the “ victory of that day, was turned into mournyng vnto al the people: for the people heard ſay that day, how the kyng ſorowed for his ſonne.

“ Hebr. Saluation, or deliueraunce.

3 And the people went that day, into the citie by ſtealth, as people confounded to conueigh them ſelues, when they flee in batayle.

4 But the kyng (a) hyd his face, and cryed with a loude voyce, O my ſonne Abſalom,

O Abſalom my ſonne, my ſonne.

(b) At Mahanaim.

5 And Joab came into (b) the houſe to yͤ king, and ſaide, Thou haſt ſhamed this day the faces of al thy ſeruantes, whiche this day haue ſaued thy life, and the liues of thy ſonnes, and of thy daughters, and the liues of thy wiues, and of thy concubines,

A 1 AND agayne the lorde was wroth agaynſt Iſrael, and (a) he moued Dauid agaynſt them, in that he ſaid, *Goe number Iſrael, and Juda.

2 For the kyng ſaid to Joab the captaine of the hoſt, whiche was with hym, Goe thou abroade nowe throughout al the tribes of Iſrael, euen from Dan to Beerſeba, and number ye the people, that I may knowe the (b) number of them.

(b) Becauſe he dyd this to trie his power and ſo to truſt therein, it offended God: els it was lawful to nūber the people. Exo.30.b. Num.1.a

3 And Joab ſayd vnto the kyng: The Lorde thy God encreaſe the people an hundred fold more then they be, and that the eyes of my lorde the kyng may ſee it: And what is the cauſe, that my Lorde the kyng hath a luſt to this thyng?

4 Notwithſtandyng, the kynges woorde preuayled againſt Joab, and againſt the captaynes of the hoſt: And Joab, & the captaines of the hoſt, went out from the preſence of the kyng, to number the people of Iſrael.

8 And ſo, when they had benne abroade throughout al the land, they returned to Hieruſalem, after the end of niene monethes and twentie dayes.

9 And Joab deliuered the number & ſumme of the people vnto the kyng: and there were in Iſrael eyght hundred thouſand menne of might, that drewe ſwoordes: and the menne of Juda were fiue hundred thouſand menne.

10 And Dauids hart ſmote him, after that he had numbred the people: And Dauid ſayde vnto the Lorde, I haue ſinned exceedyngly, in that I haue donne: And nowe I beſeeche thee, O Lorde, take away the treſpaſſe of thy ſeruant, for I haue donne very fooliſhly.

(c) Whom God hath appoynted for Dauid, and his tyme.

11 And when Dauid was vp in the mornyng, the woorde of the Lorde came vnto the prophete Gad Dauids (c) ſeer, ſayeing,

(d) For three yeeres of famine were paſt for the Gibeonites: this was the fourth yeere, to the whiche ſhoulde haue benne added three yeeres more. 1. Chro. 21.b.

13 So Gad came to Dauid, and ſhewed him, and ſayd vnto hym: Wylt thou haue (d) ſeuen yeeres hunger to comme vpon thy lande: or wylt thou flee three monethes before thyne enimies, they folowyng thee: or that there be three dayes peſtilence in thy lande? Nowe therefore aduiſe thee, and ſee, what anſweare I ſhal geue to hym that ſent me.

C 14 And Dauid ſayde vnto Gad, I am in a woonderful ſtrayte: Let vs fal now into the hande of the Lorde (for muche is his mercie) and let me not falle into the hande of man.

15 And ſo the Lord ſent a peſtilence in Iſrael, from the mornyng vnto the time appointed: And there dyed of the people from (e) Dan to Beerſeba ſeuentie thouſande menne.

(e) From the one ſide of the countrey to the other.

16 And when the angel ſtretched out his hand vpon Hieruſalem to deſtroy it, the Lorde repented him of the euyl, and ſayd to the angel, that deſtroyed the people, It is nowe ſufficient, holde thyne hande. And the angel of the Lord was by the threaſhing place of Areuna the Iebuſite.

17 And Dauid ſpake vnto the Lorde, when he ſawe the angel that ſmote the people, and ſayde, Lo, it is I, that haue ſinned, and that haue donne wickedly: But theſe ſheep, what haue they donne? Let thyne hande, I pray thee, be agaynſt me, and agaynſt my fathers houſe.

21 And Areuna ſayde, Wherefore is my lorde the kyng comme to his ſeruant? Dauid anſweared, To buy yͤ threaſhyng floore of thee, and to make an aulter vnto the Lorde, that the plague may ceaſſe from the people. D

22 And Areuna ſayde vnto Dauid, Let my Lord the kyng take, and offer what ſeemeth hym good in his eyes: Beholde, here be oxen for burnt ſacrifice, and charets, and the other inſtrumentes of the oxen for wood.

23 All theſe thynges dyd Areuna, as a (g) king, geue vnto the kyng, and ſayde moreouer vnto the kyng, The Lorde thy GOD accept thee.

24 And the kyng ſayd vnto Areuna, Not ſo, but I wyl buy it of thee at a price, and wyl not offer ſacrifice vnto the Lorde my God of that whiche dooth coſt me nothyng. And ſo Dauid bought the threaſhyng floore and the oxen for (h) fyftie ſicles of ſyluer.

25 And Dauid buylt there an aulter vnto the Lorde, and offered burnt ſacrifices, and peace offerynges: And ſo the Lorde was intreated for the lande, and the plague ceaſſed from Iſrael.

The ende of the ſeconde booke of Samuel, otherwyſe called the ſeconde booke of the Kinges.

R. M. Rich. Meneuensis

Richard Davis, Bishop of St. David

The thirde booke of the kinges, after the reckoning of the Latines, whiche thirde booke and the fourth alſo, is but one booke with the Hebrues.

The firſt Chapter.

3 Abiſag keepeth Dauid in his extreme age. 5 Adonia vſurpeth the kingdome. 30 Solomon is annoynted kyng. 50 Adonia fleeth to the aulter.

A 1 AND kyng Dauid was(a) olde, and ſtryken in yeeres, ſo that when they couered him with clothes, he caught no heate.

(a) He was about three ſcore and ten yeeres olde. 2. Sam. 5. a

2 Wherefore his ſeruantes ſayde vnto hym, Let there be ſought for my lorde the king a young virgine, to ‖ ſtande before the kyng, and to cheariſhe hym, and let her lye in thy boſome, that my lorde the kyng may geate heate.

‖ Serue.

3 And ſo they ſought for a fayre damoſel thorowout al the coaſtes of Iſrael, and founde one Abiſag a (b) Sunamite, and brought her to the kyng.

(b) whiche citie was in the tribe of Iſachar.

4 And the damoſel was exceeding fayre, and cheariſhed the kyng, and miniſtred to hym: But the kyng knewe her not.

5 And ‖ Adonia the ſonne of Haggith exalted hym ſelfe, ſayeing, I wyl be kyng. And he gate hym charrettes, and horſemen, and (c) fiftie menne to runne before hym.

‖ Adonias. or, Adoniah.

(c) As Abſalom had donne before. 2. Sam. 17. a

6 And his father for his tyme would not diſpleaſe hym, to ſay, Why haſt thou donne ſo? And he was a very goodly man: and his mother bare hym next after Abſolom.

7 And he tooke counſel of Ioab the ſonne of Zaruia, and of Abiathar the prieſt: and they (d) helped forewarde Adonia: B

(d) They toke his part, and folowed hym.

8 But Sadoc the prieſt, ‖ Banaiah the ſonne of Iehoiada, Nathan the prophete, Semei, and Rei, and the menne of might, whiche were with Dauid, they were not with Adonia.

‖ Banaiahu, or, Banaias.

9 And Adonia ſacrificed ſheepe, and oxen, and fat cattel, by the ſtone of Zoheleth, whiche is by the wel of Rogel, & called al his brethren the kynges ſonnes, and al the men of Iuda, the kynges ſeruantes:

10 But Nathan the prophete, and Banaiah, and the myghty menne, and ‖ Solomon his brother he called not.

‖ Salomon. or, Solomoh.

11 Wherefore Nathan ſpake vnto Bethſabe the mother of Solomon, ſayeing, Haſt thou not heard, that Adonia the ſonne of Haggith dooth raigne, and Dauid our lord knoweth it not?

12 Nowe therefore comme, and I wyl geue thee counſel, howe to ſaue thyne owne lyfe, and the (e) lyfe of thy ſonne Solomon.

(e) For Adonia wil deſtroy thy ſonne and thee if he raigne.

13 Goe and geat thee in vnto king Dauid, & ſay vnto hym, Diddeſt not thou, my lord, O kyng, ſweare vnto thy handmayd, ſayeing, Aſſuredly Solomon thy ſonne ſhal raigne after me, and he ſhal ſitte vpon my ſeate? Why is then Adonia kyng?

C 14 Beholde, while thou yet talkeſt there with the king, I wil come in after thee, and (f) confirme thy woordes.

(f) By declaryng ſuche thinges as may further the ſame.

15 And Bethſabe went in vnto the kyng into the chamber, and the king was very olde, and Abiſag the Sunamite miniſtred vnto the kyng.

16 And Bethſabe ſtouped, & made obeyſance vnto the king: And the kyng ſayde, What is thy matter?

17 She anſweared, My Lorde, thou ſwareſt by the Lorde thy God vnto thyne handmayde, [ſayeing] Aſſuredly Solomon thy ſonne ſhal raigne after me, and he ſhal ſitte vpon my ſeate:

18 And beholde, nowe is Adonia kyng: and thou my lorde the kyng knoweſt it not.

19 And he hath offered oxen, fat catel, and many ſheepe, and hath called al the ſonnes of the kyng, and Abiathar the prieſt, and Ioab the captayne of the hoſt: But Solomon thy ſeruant hath he not bidden.

20 And nowe, my lorde, O kyng, the eyes of al Iſrael wayte on thee, that thou ſhouldeſt tel them, who ought to ſitte on the ſeate of my lord the kyng after hym:

D 21 For els when my lord the kyng ſhal ſleepe with his fathers, I and my ſonne Solomon ſhalbe (g) ſinners.

(g) That is, ſhalbe reputed as ſinners, and condemned to death as tráſgreſſours.

22 And loe, whyle ſhee yet talked with the kyng, Nathan the prophete came alſo.

23 And they tolde the kyng, ſayeing, Behold, [here commeth] Nathan the prophete. And when he was come in to the kyng, he made obeyſance before the kyng vpon his face on the grounde.

24 And Nathan ſaide, My lorde (O kyng) haſt thou ſayde, Adonia ſhal raigne after me, and he ſhal ſitte vpon my ſeate?

25 For he is gonne downe this day, and hath ſlayne oxen, and fat cattel, and ſheepe a great many, and hath called al the kynges ſonnes, and the captaynes of the hoſt, and Abiathar the prieſt: And beholde, they eate and drinke before him, and ſay, God "ſaue king Adonia.

" Heb. Let the king Adonia lyue.

26 But me thy ſeruant, and Sadoc the prieſt, and Banaiah the ſonne of Iehoiada, and thy ſeruant Solomon, hath he not called.

27 Is this thing donne of my lord the king, and haſt thou not ſhewed it vnto thy (h) ſeruant, who ſhoulde ſitte on the ſeate of my lorde the kyng after hym?

(h) Meaning that he ought in ſuche affayres, enterpriſe nothyng except he had conſulted with the Lorde.

E

28 Then king Dauid anſweared, and ſayd, Calle me Bethſabe. And ſhe came into the kinges preſence, and ſtoode before hym.

29 And the king ſware, ſayeing, As the Lord liueth, that hath ridde my ſoule out of al aduerſitie, 30 Euen as I ſware vnto thee by the Lorde God of Iſrael, ſayeing, Aſſuredly Solomon thy ſonne ſhal raigne after me, and he ſhal ſitte vpon my ſeate for me, ſo wil I certainly doo this day.

31 Then Bethſabe bowed on her face to the earth, and dyd reuerence vnto the kyng, and ſayd, I pray God, that my Lorde king Dauid may lyue for euer.

32 And kyng Dauid ſayde, Calle me Sadoc the prieſt, and Nathan the prophete, and Banaiah the ſonne of Iehoiada. And they came before the kyng.

33 The kyng alſo ſayde vnto them, Take with you the (i) ſeruantes of your lorde, and ſet Solomon my ſonne vpon myne owne mule, and carrie him downe to Gihon:

(i) Meanyng the kynges ſeruantes and ſuche as were of his gardes.

34 And let Sadoc the prieſt, and Nathan the prophete, annoynt hym there king ouer Iſrael: And blowe ye with trumpets, and ſay, God ſaue kyng Solomon.

35 And then ye ſhal comme vp after hym, F that he may comme and ſitte vpon my ſeate: for he ſhalbe kyng in my ſteede: and I haue " commaunded him to be captayne ouer Iſrael and Iuda.

" Or, appoynted.

36 And Banaiah the ſonne of Iehoiada anſweared the kyng, and ſayde, Amen: And the Lorde God of my lord the kyng ſay ſo too.

37 And as the Lord hath benne with my lord the king, euen ſo be he with Solomon alſo, and make his ſeate greater, then the ſeate of my lord king Dauids hath benne.

38 And ſo Sadoc the prieſt, and Nathan the prophete, and Banaiah the ſonne of Iehoiada, and the Cerethites, and Phelethites, went downe, and ſet Solomon vpon kyng Dauids mule, and brought him to Gihon.

39 And Sadoc the prieſt tooke an horne of (k) oyle out of the tabernacle, & annoynted Solomon: and they blewe the trumpettes, and al the people ſayd, God ſaue king Solomon.

(k) Wherewith they accuſtomed to annoynt the prieſtes & the holy inſtrumentes. Exod. 30.f.

40 And al the people came vp after hym, pyping with pypes, and reioycyng greatly, ſo that the earth rang with the ſounde of them.

Heb, brake.

41 And Adonia, and al the gheaſtes, that he had called vnto him, hearde it [euen] as they had made an ende of eatyng. And when Ioab hearde the ſounde of the trumpet, he ſayd, what meaneth this noyſe, and vprore in the citie?

42 And as he yet ſpake, beholde Ionathan the ſonne of Abiathar the prieſt, came, and Adonia ſayde vnto hym, Comme in, for thou art a valient man, and bryngeſt good tidinges.

43 And Ionathan anſweared, and ſayde to Adonia, Verely our lorde kyng Dauid hath made Solomon kyng.

44 And the kyng hath ſent with him Sadoc the prieſt, and Nathan the prophete, and Banaiah the ſonne of Iehoiada, and the Cerethites, and the Phelethites, and they haue ſet hym vpon the kynges mule.

G 45 And Sadoc the prieſt and Nathan the prophete, haue annoynted hym kyng in Gihon. And they came vp from thence, and reioyced, that the citie dyd ſounde agayne: And that is the noyſe, that ye haue hearde.

46 And Solomon ſitteth on the ſeate of the kyngdome.

47 And moreouer, the kinges ſeruantes came to (l) bleſſe our Lorde kyng Dauid, ſayeing, God make the name of Solomon more honourable then thy name, and make his ſeate greater, then thy ſeate. (m) And the kyng bowed him ſelfe vpon the bed.

(l) To ſalute hym, and to prayſe God for hym.

(m) He gaue god thankes for the good ſucceſſe.

48 And thus ſayde the kyng, Bleſſed be the Lord God of Iſrael, whiche hath made one to ſit on my ſeate this day, mine eye ſeeing it.

49 And al the gheaſtes that were with Adonia were afrayde, and roſe vp, and went euery man his way.

50 And Adonia fearyng the preſence of Solomon, aroſe, and went, and caught holde on the hornes of the aulter.

Exod.21.b

52 And Solomon ſaide, If he wyl ſhew hym ſelfe a woorthy man, there ſhal not an heare of hym fal to the earth: But yf wickedneſſe be founde in hym, he ſhal dye.

53 And ſo kyng Solomon ſent, & they brought hym from the aulter, and he came and dyd obeyſance vnto king Solomon: And Solomon ſayde vnto hym, Get thee to thyne houſe.

i, Par, 29, f. 12 *Then ſate Solomon vpon the ſeate of Dauid his father, and his kyngdome was ſtabliſhed mightily.

13 And Adonia the ſonne of Haggith came to Bethſabe the mother of Solomon, and ſhe ſayde, *Commeſt thou peaceably? And he ſayde, Peaceably. 2, Re, 16, b.

C 14 He ſayde moreouer, I haue ſommewhat to ſay vnto thee. She ſayde, Say on.

15 And he ſayd, Thou knoweſt that the kingdome was myne, and that al Iſrael ſet their faces on me, that I ſhoulde raigne: howbeit, the kyngdome is turned away, and geuen to my brother, for it is appoynted hym of the Lorde.

16 And nowe I aſke a petition of thee: denie me not. And ſhe ſayd vnto hym, Say on.

17 And he ſaid, Speake I pray thee, vnto Solomon the king (for he wyl not ſay thee nay) that he geue me Abiſag, the Sunamite to wyfe.

18 And Bethſabe ſayde, Wel, I wyl ſpeake for thee vnto the kyng.

19 Bethſabe therefore went vnto kyng Solomon, to ſpeake vnto hym for Adonia: And the kyng roſe vp to meete her, and bowed hym ſelfe vnto her, and ſate hym downe on his ſeate, & there was a ſeate ſet for the kings mother, and ſhe ſate on his ryght ſyde.

20 Then ſhe ſayde, I deſyre a litle petition of thee: I pray thee, ſay me not, nay. And the kyng ſayde vnto her, Aſke on, my mother: for I wyl not ſay thee, nay.

D 21 She ſayde, Let Abiſag the Sunamite be geuen to Adonia thy brother to wyfe.

22 And kyng Solomon anſweared, and ſayd vnto his mother, Why dooeſt thou aſke Abiſag the Sunamite for Adonia? (b) aſke for hym the kyngdome alſo: for he is mine elder brother, & hath for hym Abiathar the prieſt, and Ioab the ſonne of Zaruia.

23 Then king Solomon ſware by the Lord, ſayeing, God doo ſo, and ſo to me, yf Adonia haue not ſpoken this woorde agaynſt his owne lyfe.

24 Nowe therefore, as the Lorde lyueth, whiche hath ordeyned me, and ſet me on the ſeate of Dauid my father, and made me an houſe, as he promyſed, Adonia ſhal dye this day.

25 And kyng Solomon ſent by the hande of Banaiah the ſonne of Iehoiada, & he ſmote hym, that he dyed.

26 And vnto Abiathar the prieſt ſayde the kyng, Geate thee to Anatoth vnto thyne owne feeldes: for thou art woorthy of death: but I wyl not at this tyme kyl thee, becauſe thou bareſt the arke of the Lorde GOD before Dauid my father, and becauſe thou haſt ſuffered with my father in al his afflictions.

27 (c) And ſo Solomon put away Abiathar from beeyng prieſt vnto the *Lorde, that he might fulfil the woordes of the lord, whiche he ſpake ouer the houſe of Eli in Silo. 1, Samu. ii.

28 Then tydinges came alſo to Ioab, (for Ioab had turned after Adonia, though he turned not after Abſalom) and Ioab fled vnto the tabernacle of the Lord, and caught holde on the hornes of the aulter. E

29 And it was tolde kyng Solomon, howe that Ioab fledde vnto the tabernacle of the Lorde: and behold he is by the aulter. Then Solomon ſent Banaiah the ſonne of Iehoiada, ſayeing, Goe and fal vpon hym.

30 And Banaiah came to the tabernacle of the Lorde, and ſayd vnto hym, Thus ſayth the kyng, Comme out. And he ſayde, Nay, but I wyl dye euen here. And Banaiah brought the kyng woorde agayne, ſayeing, Thus ſayth Ioab, & thus he anſweared me.

31 And the king ſayd vnto him, (d) Doo euen as he hath ſayde: Smite him, & burie hym, that thou mayeſt take away the blood, whiche Ioab ſhead cauſeleſſe, from me, and from the houſe of my father.

32 And the Lorde ſhal bryng his blood vpon his owne head: for he ſmote two menne more ryghteous, and better then hym ſelfe, and ſlue them with the ſworde, my father Dauid not knowing therof, euen Abner the ſonne of Ner, captayne of the hoſte of Iſrael, and Amaſa the ſonne of Iether captayne of the hoſte of Iuda.

33 Theyr blood ſhal therfore returne vpon the head of Ioab, and on the head of his ſeede for euer: But vpon Dauid, and vpon his ſeede, and vpon his houſe, and vpon his ſeate ſhal there be peace for euer of the Lorde.

34 So Banaiah the ſonne of Iehoiada went vp, and he fel vpon hym, and ſlue hym, and buried hym in his houſe in the wylderneſſe.

35 And the kyng put Banaiah the ſonne of Iehoiada in his roome ouer the hoſte, and put Sadoc the prieſt in the roome of Abiathar. F

36 And

(b) Meanyng that yf he ſhould haue graunted Abiſag, he would afterwarde haue aſpired to the kyngdome.

(c) King Solomon depoſed the high prieſt

(d) It was lawful to take a wilful murtherer from the aulter. Exod. xxi.

36 And the kyng ſent and called Semei, and ſayde vnto hym, Build thee an houſe in Hieruſalem, and dwel there, and ſee, that thou goe not foorth thence any whyther.

37 And be thou ſure, that the day, that thou goeſt out, and paſſeſt ouer the riuer of Cedron, thou ſhalt dye that day, and thy blood ſhalbe vpon thyne owne head.

38 And Semei ſayde vnto the kyng, This ſayeing is good: As my lorde the kyng hath ſayde, ſo wyl thy ſeruant doo. And Semei dwelt in Hieruſalem many a day.

39 And it chaunced after three yeeres, that two of the ſeruantes of Semei ranne away vnto Achis ſonne of Macha, kyng of Geth: And they tolde Semei, ſayeyng, Beholde thy ſeruantes be in Geth.

(e) His couetous mynde made hym venter his lyfe.

40 (e) And Semei ſtoode vp, and ſadled his aſſe, and gate hym to Geth to Achis to ſeeke his ſeruantes: And Semei went & brought his ſeruantes agayne from Geth.

G 41 And it was tolde Solomon, how that Semei had gonne from Hieruſalem to Geth, and was comme agayne.

42 And the kyng ſent, and called Semei, and ſayde vnto hym, Dyd I not charge thee by the Lorde with an othe, and teſtified vnto thee, ſayeing, Be ſure, that whenſoeuer thou goeſt out, and walkeſt abroade any whither, thou ſhalt dye the death? And thou ſaydeſt vnto me, It is good tydynges that I haue hearde.

43 Why then haſt thou not kept the othe of the Lorde, and the commaundement that I charged thee withal?

44 The kyng ſayde moreouer to Semei, *Thou remembreſt al the wyckedneſſe whiche thyne hart knoweth, and that thou dyddeſt to Dauid my father: the Lorde alſo ſhal bryng thy wyckedneſſe vpon thyne owne head:

2.Re.16.b.

45 And kyng Solomon ſhalbe bleſſed, and the ſeate of Dauid ſtabliſhed before the Lord for euer.

46 So the kyng commaunded Banaiah the ſonne of Iehoiada: Whiche went out, and ſmote hym, that he dyed: And the kingdome was ſtabliſhed in the hande of Solomon.

The.iii.Chapter.

A 1 Solomon made affinitie with Pharao kyng of Egypt, and tooke Pharaoes daughter, & brought her into the citie of (a) Dauid, vntyl he had made an end of buyldyng his owne houſe, and the houſe of the Lord, and the wal of Hieruſalem rounde about.

2.Par.1.a.

4 *And the kyng went to Gibeon, to offer there: for that was the ſpecial hygh place: And a thouſand burnt offerynges dyd Solomon offer vpon that aulter.

5 And in Gibeon the Lorde appeared to Solomon in a dreame by nyght, and God ſayd, Aſke what thou wilt, that I may geue it thee.

6 And Solomon ſayd, Thou haſt ſhewed vnto thy ſeruant Dauid my father great mercy, when he walked before thee in trueth, in ryghteouſneſſe, and in playneneſſe of hart with thee: and thou haſt kept for hym this great mercie, that thou haſt geuen hym a ſonne to ſitte on his ſeate, as it is comme to paſſe this day.

Sapi.9.a.

(c) To behaue my ſelfe in this great charge of thinges.

7 *And nowe, O Lorde, my God, it is thou that haſt made thy ſeruant kyng in ſteede of Dauid my father: *And I am but young, and (c) wote not howe to goe out and in.

8 And thy ſeruant is in the middeſt of thy people whiche thou haſt choſen: and veryly the people are ſo many, that they can not be told, nor numbred for multitude.

(d) Gouernement pertayneth to men of wyſdome and vnderſtandyng.

9 (d) Geue *therfore thy ſeruant an vnderſtandyng hart, to iudge thy people, that I may diſcerne betweene good and bad: For who is hable to iudge this thy ſo myghty a people?

10 And this pleaſed the Lorde wel, that Solomon had deſyred this thyng.

11 And God ſayd vnto hym, Thou haſt not aſked for thee ſelfe long lyfe, neyther haſt aſked riches for thee ſelfe, nor haſt aſked the lyfe of thyne enimies, but haſt aſked for thee ſelfe vnderſtandyng and diſcretion in iudgement:

12 Beholde, I haue donne accordyng to thy woordes: lo, I haue geuen thee a wiſe and an vnderſtandyng hart, ſo that there was none lyke thee before thee, neyther after thee ſhal any aryſe lyke vnto thee.

13 And I haue alſo geuen thee that, whiche thou haſt not aſked, euen riches, and honour, ſo that there ſhalbe no kyng like vnto thee al thy dayes.

C 14 And yf thou wilt walke in my wayes, to keepe mine ordinances, and my commaundementes,* as thy father Dauid dyd walke, I wyl lengthen thy dayes.

3.Reg.15.a

15 When Solomon awooke, (e) beholde it was a dreame: *And he came to Hieruſalem, and ſtoode before the arke of the couenant of the Lorde, and offered burnt offerynges and peace offerynges, and made a feaſt to al his ſeruantes.

18 And the thirde day after that I was deliuered, ſhe was deliuered alſo: and we were togeather, and no ſtraunger with vs in the houſe, ſaue we two.

19 And this wyues chylde dyed in the nyght: for ſhe ſmothered it.

20 And ſhe roſe at mydnyght, and tooke my ſonne from my ſyde whyle thine handmaide ſleapt, and layde it in her boſome, and put her dead chylde in my boſome.

D 21 And when I roſe in the mornyng to geue my chylde ſucke, beholde it was dead: But when I had looked vpon it in the morning, beholde, it was not my ſonne whiche I had borne.

22 And the other woman ſayde, It is not ſo, but my ſonne liueth, and thy ſonne is dead. And ſhe ſayde agayne, No, but thy ſonne is dead, and my ſonne is alyue. And thus they pleaded before the kyng.

23 Then ſayde the kyng, The one ſayth, This that is alyue, is my ſonne, ⁊ the dead is thine: And the other ſayth, Nay, but thy ſonne is the dead, and the liuing chylde is myne.

24 And the king ſayd, (f) Bring me a ſword. And they brought out a ſworde before the king.

(f) The wyſedome of kyng Solomon.

27 Then the king anſweared, ⁊ ſayd,* Geue her the liuing chylde, and ſlay it not: for ſhe is the mother thereof.

4 But nowe the Lord my God hath geuen me reaſt on euery ſyde, ſo that there is neyther aduerſarie, nor euyl to reſiſt:

2.Reg.7.d 5 And beholde, * I am determined to buylde an houſe vnto the name of the lord my god, as the Lorde ſpake vnto Dauid my father, ſayeing, Thy ſonne, whom I wyl ſet vpon thy ſeate for thee, he ſhal buylde an houſe vnto my name.

B 7 (a) And it came to paſſe, when Hiram hearde the woordes of Solomon, he reioyced greatly, and ſayde, Bleſſed be the Lorde this day, which hath geuen vnto Dauid a wiſe ſonne ouer this myghty people.

(a) In Hiram is prefigurate, the vocation of the Gentiles, who ſhoulde helpe to builde the ſpiritual temple.

8 And Hiram ſent to Solomõ, ſaying, I haue conſydered the thynges, which thou ſenteſt to me for, and wyl accompliſhe al thy deſyre, concernyng tymber of Cedar trees, and firre.

9 My ſeruantes ſhal bryng them from Libanon to the ſea, and I wyl conuey them by ſea in flotes vnto the place, that thou ſhalt ſhewe me, and wyl cauſe them to be diſcharged there, and thou ſhalt receiue them: & thou ſhalt doo me a pleaſure agayne, if thou miniſter foode for mine houſe.

The .vi. Chapter.

1 The buyldyng of the temple, and the fourme thereof. 12 The promiſſe of the Lorde to Solomon.

A 1 AND it came to paſſe, that in the foure hundreth and foureſcorth yeere, after the chyldren of Iſrael were comme out of the lande of Egypt, and *in the fourth yeere of the raigne of Solomon vpon Iſrael, & in the moneth " Zif, whiche is the ſeconde moneth, *he began to builde the houſe of the Lorde.

" April.

Actes,7.f.

2 And the houſe, whiche king Solomon built for the Lorde, was threeſcore cubites long, and twentie cubites broade, and thirtie cubites hygh.

3 And he made a porche before the temple of the houſe, whiche was twentie cubites long, after the breadth of the houſe, and ten cubites broade, [euen] in the fore front of the houſe.

4 And in the houſe he made " wyndowes, broade without, and narowe within.

" Some of the learned Iewes ſuppoſe that the windowes were narrow without, and broade within.

5 And by the wal of the houſe he made chambers rounde about, [euen] in the walles of the houſe round about the temple and the quire: and he made chambers rounde about.

6 The neathermoſt chamber was fyue cubites broade, and the middle was ſixe cubites broade, and the thirde was ſeuen cubites broade: For without in the wal of the houſe, he made reaſtes round about, that [the beames of the chambers] ſhoulde not be faſtened in the walles of the houſe.

B 7 And the houſe was built of ſtone, made perfite already before it was brought thither: ſo that there was neyther hammer, nor axe, nor any toole of iron hearde in the houſe, whyle it was in buyldyng.

8 The doore of the middle chamber was in the ryght ſyde of the houſe: and men went vp with winedyng ſtayres into the myddle chamber, and out of the middle into the third.

9 And ſo he built the houſe, and finiſhed it: and he roofed the houſe vaultly with beames of Cedar tymber.

10 And then he built chambers to al the temple fiue cubites hygh, and they were ioyned to the houſe with beames of Cedar.

11 And the woorde of the Lorde came to Solomon, ſayeing,

12 Concerning the houſe, whiche thou art in buyldyng, yf thou wilt walke in myne ordinances, and execute my lawes, and keepe al my commaundements to walke in them, then wyl I make good vnto thee my promiſſe, *whiche I promiſed Dauid thy father,

13 * And I wyl dwel among the chyldren of Iſrael, and wil not forſake my people Iſrael.

Exo.25.b.

C

14 Solomon therefore built the houſe, and finiſhed it.

15 And ſeeled the walles of the houſe within with boordes of Cedar tree: euen from the pauement of the houſe vnto the roofe dyd he ſeele the walles of it within with Cedar tree: and boorded the floore of the houſe with planckes of firre.

16 And he builded twentie cubites in the ſydes of the quier of the temple, both floore and walles with boordes of Cedar: and dreſſed it within the ſecrete place of the temple, euen in the place moſt holy.

17 But the houſe, that is the temple before it, was fourtie cubites [long.]

18 And the Cedar of the houſe within, was carued with knops, & grauen with flowres: and al was Cedar timber, ſo that no ſtone was ſeene.

D 19 And the quier that was within the temple, he prepared, to ſet there the arke of the appoyntment of the Lorde.

" Or, within. 20 And the quier " before, was twentie cubites long, and twentie cubites in breadth, and twentie cubites in heygth: And he couered it with pure golde, and boorded the aulter with Cedar.

21 So Solomon couered the houſe within with pure golde: And he made golden barres runne along the quier, whiche he had couered with golde.

22 And the whole houſe he ouerlayde with golde, vntyl he had ended it: alſo al the aulter, that was in the quier, he ouerlayde with golde.

Exo.25.b. " Or, Pine tree. 23 And within the quier he made two * Cherubims of " Oliue tree ten cubites hygh.

24 Fiue cubites long was a wyng of the one Cherub, and fiue cubites long was a wyng of the other Cherub: ſo that from the vttermoſt part of one wyng, vnto the vttermoſte part of the other, there were ten cubites.

25 And the other Cherub was tenne cubites hygh alſo: ſo that both the Cherubs were of one meaſure, and one ſiſe:

26 For the heigth of the one Cherub was ten cubites, and ſo was it of the other.

E 27 And he put the Cherubs within the inner Exo.25.b. houſe: * And the Cherubs ſtretched out theyr wynges, ſo that the one wyng of yͤ one touched the one wal, and the one wyng of the other touched the other wal: And the other two winges of them touched one another in the middeſt of the houſe.

28 And he ouerlayde the Cherubs with golde.

29 And in al the walles of the houſe round about, he made figures of carued and ſeeled woorke: [as namely] pictures of Cherubs, and palme trees, and grauen flowres, [both] within [in the quier] & without [in yͤ temple.]

30 And the floore of the houſe he couered with golde, [both] within [in the quier] and [alſo] without [in the temple.]

31 And in the entryng of the quier, he made two doores of Oliue tree: And both the vpper poſte, and the two ſide poſtes were fiue ſquare.

32 The two doores alſo were of Oliue tree: and he graued them with grauing of Cherubs, and palme trees, and grauen flowres, and couered them with golde, & layde thinne plates of golde vpon the Cherubs and palme trees.

33 And ſo made he for the doore of the temple poſtes of Oliue tree foure ſquare.

34 The two doores were of firre tree, and eyther doore with foldyng leaues. F

35 And he graued thereon Cherubs, palme trees, and carued flowres: and couered the carued woorke with golde finely wrought.

36 And he buylt the inner court with three rowes of hewed ſtone, and one rowe of Cedar wood.

37 In the fourth yeere was the fundation of the houſe of the Lorde layde, euen in the moneth " Zif. " April.

38 And in the eleuenth yeere, in the moneth " Bul (whiche is the eygth moneth) was the houſe ful finiſhed throughout al the partes thereof, accordyng to al the faſhion of it: And ſo was he ſeuen yeeres in buyldyng it. " October.

The vii. Chapter,

1 The buyldyng of the houſes of Solomon. 15 The excellent woorkemanſhip of Hiram in the peeces, whiche he made for the temple.

A 1 But Solomon was buildyng his owne houſe thirtiene yeeres, and finiſhed it al.

2 And he buylt the houſe in the wood Libanon, an hundred cubites long, and fiftie cubites broade, and thirtie cubites high. And it ſtoode vpon foure rowes of Cedar pillers, and Cedar beames were layde vpon the pillers.

3 And the roofe was Cedar aboue vpon the beames that lay on the pillers, euen fourtie and fiue beames in fiftiene rowes.

4 And there were windowes in three rowes, and the windowes were one agaynſt another three folde.

5 And al the doores, with the ſyde poſtes, and the vpper poſtes, were foure ſquare, and had windowes one agaynſt another three folde.

6 And he made a porche by the pillers [that bare vp the houſe] fiftie cubites long, and thirtie cubites broade: and the porche was before thoſe, and the other pillers: for there was a thicke tree ſet before them.

7 Then he made a porche to ſitte and iudge in, euen a porche of iudgement, ſeeled with Cedar throughout al the pauementes.

B 8 And his houſe wherein he dwelt, had an other hal, more inward, then the porche, of like worke: And then Solomon made an houſe for Pharaoes daughter (* whom he had taken to wife) like vnto the faſhion of ẏ porche.

3.Reg.3.a.

9 And al theſe were of the beſt ſtones, hewed after a meaſure, & ſawed with ſawes within and without, from the fundation, vnto the (a) beames, that lay aboue, after the meaſure, and euen ſo on the out ſyde toward the great court.

(a) Theſe beames were layde vpon ſtones, that hanged out on the toppe of the wal the breadth of a hande.

10 And the fundation was layde vpon riche ſtones, and that very great ſtones, whereof ſomme were ten cubites, and ſomme eyght cubites long.

11 And aboue were riche ſtones, ſquared after a certayne rule, and couered with Cedar.

12 And the great court rounde about, was with three rowes of hewed ſtones, and one rowe of Cedar planckes, after the manner of the inner court of the houſe of the Lorde, and of the porche of the temple.

2.Par.ii.a.

13 * And kyng Solomon ſent and fet one Hiram out of Tyre,

C 14 A wydowes ſonne of the tribe of Nephthalim, his father beyng a man of Tyre: whiche Hiram was a crafteſman in braſſe,* ful of wyſedome, vnderſtandyng, and cunnyng, to worke al manner of worke in braſſe: And he came to kyng Solomon, and wrought al his worke.

Exo.31.a.

Iere.52.c.

15 For he caſt * two pillers of braſſe of eyghtiene cubites high a peece: & a ſtring of twelue cubites dyd compaſſe eyther of them aboue.

16 And he made two pommels of moulten braſſe, [after the faſhion of a crowne,] to ſet on the toppes of the pillers: The heigth of the one head peece conteined fiue cubites, and the heigth of the other head peece conteyned fiue cubites alſo.

17 He made net worke, & wrythen worke lyke chaynes, for the pommelles vpon the head peeces, that were on the toppe of the pillers: euen ſeuen [rowes] vpon the one head peece, and ſeuen vpon the other.

18 And ſo he made the pillers, and two rowes of pomegranates rounde about in the one net worke to couer the pommels, that were vpon the toppe: and this he dyd alſo, for the other head peece.

D 19 And the pommels, that were on the toppe of the pillers, were after Lillie worke in the porche foure cubites.

20 And the pommels vpon the two pillers, hadde alſo aboue ouer agaynſt the middeſt within the net worke [pomegranates:] and vpon the ſeconde head peece, were there two hundred pomegranates in two rowes round about.

21 And he ſette vp the pillers in the porche of the temple: And when he had ſet vp ẏ ryght piller, he called the name thereof Iachin: and when he had ſet vp the left piller, he called the name thereof Boaz.

22 And vpon the toppe of the pillers [was] Lillie worke: and ſo was the workmanſhip of the pillers finiſhed.

23 And he made a moulten lauatorie ten cubites wyde from brim to brim, rounde in compaſſe, and fiue cubites high: And a ſtring of thyrtie cubites dyd compaſſe it about.

24 And vnder the brim of it there were knoppes rounde about, ten in one cubite: and they compaſſed the lauatorie rounde about: And the knoppes were caſt with it in two rowes when it was caſt.

25 And it ſtoode on twelue oxen, of whiche three looked towarde the north, three toward the weaſt, three towarde the ſouth, and three toward the eaſt: & the lauatorie ſtoode vpon them, & al their hinder partes were inwarde.

26 It was an hand breadth thicke, and the brym was wrought lyke the brym of a cup, with flowres of Lillies, and it conteyned two thouſande battes.

27 And he made ten feete of braſſe, foure cubites long, and foure cubites broade a peece, and three cubites hygh. E

28 And the worke of the feete was on this manner: They had ſides, and the ſides were betweene the ledges.

29 And on the ſides, that were betweene the ledges, were Lions, Oxen, and Cherubs: and lykewyſe vpon the ledges, that were aboue: and beneath the Lions and Oxen, were certayne additions made of thinne worke.

30 And vnder euery foote were foure braſen wheeles, & " boordes of braſſe: & in the foure corners thereof vnder the lauatorie, were vnderſetters moulten at ẏ ſide of euery addition.

" Or, tables.

31 And the ſtalke of the lauatorie was in the middle of it, and aboue one cubite: But the ſtalke thereof was rounde after the worke of the foote, a cubite and a halfe: and alſo vpon ẏ ſtalke were grauinges with their bandes, foure ſquare, and not rounde.

32 And vnder the ſides were foure wheeles, and the axeltrees ioyned faſt to the bottome, and the heigth of euery wheele, was a cubite and a halfe.

33 And the workmanſhip of the wheeles was lyke the worke of a charet wheele: and the axeltrees, the nauelles, the ſpokes, and ſhaftes were al moulten.

34 And there were foure vnderſetters in the foure corners of one foote, and the vnderſetters were of the very bottome it ſelfe.

35 And in the heigth of the bottome was there F a rounde compaſſe of halfe a cubite high: and in that heigth of the bottome there proceeded both legges, and ſides out of the ſame.

36 For in the boordes of the legges, and on the ſydes, he had grauen pictures of Cherubims, lions, and palme trees, one by another round about.

37 Thus made he the ten feete after this maner: and they had al one faſhion of caſtyng, one meaſure, and one ſiſe.

38 Then made he ten lauers of braſſe, one lauer conteynyng fourtie battes: and euery lauer was foure cubites, and vpon euery one of the ten feete, he put one lauer.

39 And he put fiue of thoſe feete on the ryght ſyde of the houſe, & other fiue on the left: and he ſette the lauatorie on the ryght ſyde of the houſe eaſtwarde, and towarde the ſouth.

40 And Hiram made pottes, ſhouels, and baſons, and ſo finiſhed al the worke, that he made kyng Solomon for the houſe of the Lorde:

41 That is to ſay, two pillers, and two round head peeces, that were to be ſet on the toppes of the two pillers:

G 42 And foure hundred pomegranates for the two networkes, euen two rowes of pomegranates in one networke to couer the two head peeces, that were to be ſet on the toppes of the pillers:

43 And the ten feete, and tenne lauers on the feete:

44 The lauatorie, and twelue oxen vnder it:

45 And pottes, ſhouels, and baſons: And al theſe veſſels, whiche Hiram made to kyng Solomon for the houſe of the Lorde, were of bryght braſſe.

46 In the playne of Iordane dyd the kyng caſt them [euen] in the thicke clay, betweene Socoth, and Zarthan.

47 And Solomon leaft al the veſſels [vnweighed] becauſe they were ſo exceeding many: neyther founde they out the weyght of the braſſe.

48 And ſo Solomon made al the veſſelles, that perteyned vnto the houſe of the Lorde, the golden aulter, and the golden table, whereon the ſhewe bread was:

49 And fiue candelſtickes for the ryght ſyde, and fiue for the left before the quier, of pure golde, with flowres, lampes, and ſnuffers of golde.

50 And bolles, flat peeces, baſons, ſpoones, and maſours of pure golde: and hyndges made he of golde, both for the doores of the quier, the place moſt holy, and for the doores of the temple alſo.

51 And ſo was ended al the worke that kyng Solomon made for the houſe of the Lorde: And *Solomon brought in the thinges, whiche Dauid his father had dedicated, euen the ſiluer, golde, and veſſels, and layde them vp among the treaſures of the houſe of the lord.

D 20 And al the people, that were leaft of the Amorites, Hethites, Pherezites, Heuites & Iebuſites, whiche were not of the chyldren of Iſrael, 21 Their chyldren that were leaft after them in the lande, whom the chyldren of Iſrael alſo were not hable to deſtroy: thoſe dyd Solomon compel to bryng tribute, vnto this day.

22 But of the chyldren of Iſrael dyd Solomon * make no bondmen: But they were menne of warre, his miniſters, his lordes, his captaynes, and rulers of his charettes, and his horſemen.

Leui.25.f.

23 And theſe were the lordes, that were ſet ouer Solomons woorke, [euen] fiue hundred were they and fiftie, and they ruled the people that wrought the woorke.

24 And Pharaoes daughter came vp out of the citie of Dauid vnto her houſe, whiche Solomon had buylt for her: and then did he alſo buylde Millo.

25 And thriſe a yeere did Solomon offer burnt offeringes, and peace offerynges vpon the aulter, whiche he buylt vnto the Lorde: and he burnt incenſe vpon the aulter, that was before the Lord, and ſo he finiſhed the houſe.

26 And kyng Solomon made a nauie of ſhippes in Azion Gaber, whiche is beſide Eloth, on the brinke of the red ſea, in the lande of Edom.

E 27 And Hiram ſent by ſhippe alſo of his ſeruantes, that were ſhipmen, and had knowledge of the ſea, with the ſeruantes of Solomon:

28 And they came to Ophir, & fet from thence (a) foure hundred & twentie talentes of golde, and brought it to kyng Solomon.

(a) In the .1. Chro. the 8. Chap. is made mention of thirtie mo, whiche ſeeme to haue ben imployed for their charges.

The.x.Chapter.

1 The Queene of Saba commeth to heare the wyſedome of Solomon. 18 His royal throne. 32 His power and magnificence.

A 1 AND the * queene of Saba hearyng the fame of Solomon (concernyng the name of the Lorde) came to proue hym with harde queſtions.

Mat.12.d. 2.Par.ix.a.

2 And ſhe came to Hieruſalem with a very great trayne, with Camelles, that bare ſweete odours, and golde exceedyng muche, and precious ſtones: And ſhe came to Solomon, & communed with hym of al, that was in her hart.

3 And Solomon declared vnto her al her queſtions, ſo that there was not one thyng hyd from the kyng, whiche he expounded not vnto her.

4 And the queene of Saba conſydered al Solomons wyſedome, and the houſe, that he had buylded,

5 And the meate of his table, and the ſitting of his ſeruantes, the order of his miniſters, & their apparel, and his drinke, and his burnt ſacrifices, that he offered in the houſe of the Lorde: and ſhe was aſtonied.

6 And ſhe ſayde vnto the king, It was a true woorde, that I hearde in myne owne lande of thy ſayeinges, and of thy wyſedome.

7 Howbeit I beleued it not, tyl I came and ſawe it with myne eyes: And beholde, the one halfe was not tolde me: for thy wyſedome & proſperitie exceedeth the fame which I hearde of thee.

B 8 Happy are thy menne, and happy are theſe thy ſeruantes, whiche ſtand euer before thee, and heare thy wyſedome.

9 Bleſſed be the Lorde thy God, whiche loued thee, to ſet thee on the ſeate of Iſrael: (a) becauſe the Lorde loued Iſrael for euer, and made thee kyng (b) to doo equitie and ryghteouſneſſe.

(a) God loueth that people to whō he geueth a wyſe ruler.
(b) The office of a kyng.

10 And ſhe gaue the kyng ſixe ſcore talentes of golde, & of ſweete odours exceeding much, and precious ſtones: There came no more ſuche abundance of ſweete odours, as the queene of Saba gaue to kyng Solomon.

11 The nauie alſo of the * ſhippes of Hiram (that caryed golde from Ophir) brought lykewyſe great plentie of Almuge trees, and precious ſtones from Ophir.

3.Reg.ix.e

12 And the kyng made of the Almuge trees, pillers for the houſe of the Lorde, and for the kynges palace, and made harpes and pſalteries for ſingers: There came no moe ſuche Almuge trees, nor were any more ſeene vnto this day.

13 And kyng Solomon gaue vnto the queene of Saba, accordyng to al her deſyres, whatſoeuer ſhe aſked, beſides that, he gaue her of a free wyl with his owne hande: And ſo ſhe returned vnto her owne countrey, both ſhe and her ſeruantes.

C 14 The weight of golde that came to Solomon in one yeere, was ſixe hundred threeſcore and ſixe talentes of golde, 15 Beſides that he had of marchauntes, and of the marchandiſe of ẏͤ ſpices, ⁊ of al the kinges of Arabia, and of the lordes of the countrey.

16 And kyng Solomon made two hundred targettes of beaten golde: ſixe hundred ſicles of golde went to a target.

17 And he made three hundred ſhieldes of beaten golde: three pounde of golde went to one ſhielde, and the kyng put them in the* houſe of the wood of Libanon.

3.Re,17.a.

18 And the kyng made a great ſeate of iuorie, and couered it with the beſt golde.

19 And the ſeate had ſixe ſteppes, and the toppe of the ſeate was rounde behynde, and there were pommelles on eyther ſyde of the place of the ſeate, and two Lions ſtoode beſyde the pommelles.

20 And there ſtoode twelue Lions on the ſteppes, ſixe on a ſyde: There was no lyke worke ſeene in any kyngdome.

Deu,17.d.

21 *And al kyng Solomons drinkyng veſſels were of golde, and lykewyſe al the veſſels of the houſe of ẏͤ wood of Libanon were of pure gold: And as for ſiluer, it was nothing worth in the dayes of Solomon:

22 For the kynges nauie of ſhippes went on the ſea vnto Tharſis with the nauie of Hirams ſhippes: euen once in three yeeres went the nauie to Tharſis, and brought golde and ſiluer, and Elephantes teeth, and Apes, and Pecockes.

23 *And ſo kyng Solomon exceeded al the kynges of the earth, both in ryches ⁊ in wiſedome.

2.Par,ix.f.

24 And al the worlde reſorted to Solomon, to heare his wyſedome, whiche God had put in his hart:

25 And brought him euery man his preſent, veſſels of ſiluer, and veſſels of gold, rayment, harneſſe, and ſweete odours, and horſes, and mules, yeere by yeere.

26 And Solomon geathered togeather charettes and horſemen: and he had a thouſande ⁊ foure hundred charettes, and twelue thouſande horſemen, whom he beſtowed in the charet cities, ⁊ with the kyng at Hieruſalem.

27 *And the kyng made ſiluer in Hieruſalem as plenteous, as ſtones, ⁊ Cedar as plenteous, as the wylde figge trees, that growe abundantly in the feeldes.

2.Par,1.d.

28 Alſo Solomon had horſes brought out of Egypt, and fine linnen: the kynges marchantes receiued the linnen for a price.

29 A charet came vp out of Egypt for ſixe hundred ſicles of ſiluer, that is, one horſe for an hundred ⁊ fiftie: And euen ſo for al the kinges of the Hethites, ⁊ for the kinges of Syria did they bryng them out through their handes.

The .xi. Chapter.

1 Solomon hath a thouſande wyues and concubines, whiche bryng hym to idolatrie.
14 His God rayſeth vp aduerſaries agaynſt hym. 43 He dyeth.

A 1 But kyng* Solomon loued many outlandyſhe women, and the daughter of Pharao, and women of the Moabites, Ammonites, Edomites, Zidonites, and Hethites:

3.Reg.3.a.

2 Where as yet concernyng theſe nations, the Lorde ſayd vnto the chyldren of Iſrael, *Goe not ye in to them, nor let them comme in to you: els wyl they turne your hartes after their goddes: Neuertheleſſe, Solomon claue vnto them in loue.

Exo,34.b.
Deu,17.d.

3 (a) And* he had ſeuen hundred queenes, and three hundred concubines: and his wyues turned away his hart.

4 For it came to paſſe when Solomon was olde, his wyues turned his hart after other goddes: and his harte was not perfect with the Lorde his God, as was the harte of Dauid his father.

5 For Solomon folowed Aſtaroth the god of the Zidonions, and Milcom the abomination of the Ammonites.

6 And Solomon wrought wickedneſſe in the ſyght of the Lorde, and folowed not the Lorde perfitely, as dyd Dauid his father.

7 For then did Solomon build an hye place for Chamos the abomination of Moabim, the hyl that is before Hieruſalem, and vnto Moloch the abomination of the chyldren of Ammon. B

8 (b) And lykewyſe dyd he for al his outlandiſhe wyues, whiche burnt incenſe, and offered vnto their goddes.

9 And the Lord was angry with Solomon, becauſe his hart was turned from the Lorde God of Iſrael* whiche had appeared vnto hym twyſe,

3.Reg.3.a.
and.ix.a.

10 And had geuen him a charge concernyng this thing, that he ſhould not folowe other gods: But he kept not that whiche the Lord commaunded hym.

11 Wherefore

(a) God tolerated in his people the Iſraelites pluralitie of wyues, as wel for thincreaſe of that his people, as alſo for the myſterie. For Agar and Sara Abrahams wyues, Lea and Rachel Jacobs wyues, were figures of the ſynagogue, and of the true Churche: but Chriſte hath called vs to the firſt inſtitution, ſaying, There ſhalbe two in one fleaſhe. Mat. 19. Mar. 10.

(b) Here it appeareth what daunger it is to ioyne with infidels, and wyues of ſtrange religion.

XUM

11 Wherfore the Lorde ſaide vnto Solomon, Foraſmuche as this is donne of thee, & thou haſt not kept myne appoyntmente, and my ſtatutes, Whiche I commaunded thee, I wyl rent the kyngdome from thee, and wyl geue it to thy ſeruaſt.

12 Notwithſtanding, in thy dayes I wyl not doo it, becauſe of Dauid thy father: but wyl take it from the hande of thy ſonne.

13 Howbeit, I wyl not take alway al the kyngdome: but wyl geue one (c) tribe to thy ſonne, becauſe of Dauid my ſeruant, and becauſe of Hieruſalem, whiche I haue choſen.

(c) Becauſe the tribes of Juda and Beniamin had their poſſeſſions mixed, they are here taken as one tribe.

14 And the Lorde ſtirred vp an aduerſary vnto Solomon, euen one Hadad an Edomite, of the kynges ſeede, whiche was in Edom. C

15 For when Dauid was in Edom, and Ioab the captayne of the hoſt was gonne vp to burie them, that were ſlayne, he ſmote al the menne chyldren in Edom:

16 (For ſyxe monethes dyd Ioab remayne there, and al Iſrael, tyl he had deſtroyed al the menne chyldren of Edom.)

17 And this Hadad fledde, and certayne other Edomites of his fathers ſeruants with him, to comme into Egypt, Hadad beyng yet a litle chylde.

18 And they aroſe out of Madian, and came to Paran, & tooke menne with them out of Paran, & came to Egypt vnto Pharao king of Egypt, whiche gaue hym an houſe, & appoynted hym vittailes, and gaue him lande.

19 And Hadad gate great fauour in the ſyght of Pharao, ſo that he gaue hym to wyfe the ſyſter of his owne wyfe, euen the ſyſter of Thahpenes the queene.

D 20 And the ſiſter of Thahpenes bare him Genubath his ſonne, whom Thahpenes nouriſhed in Pharaoes houſe: and Genubath was with Pharaoes houſhold among the ſonnes of Pharao.

21 And when Hadad hearde in Egypt, that Dauid was layde to ſleepe with his fathers, and that Ioab the captayne of the hoſt was dead alſo, he ſayd to Pharao, Let me depart, that I may goe to myne owne countrey.

22 Pharao ſayde vnto hym, what haſt thou lacked here with me, that thou wouldeſt thus goe to thyne owne countrey? He anſweared, Nothyng, howbeit, let me goe.

23 And God ſtirred hym vp another aduerſarie, one Rezon the ſonne of Eliada, whiche fled from his lord Hadad ezer king of Zoba:

24 And he geathered menne vnto hym, and became captayne ouer the companie, when Dauid ſlue them: and they went to Damaſco, and dwelt there, & raigned in Damaſco.

25 Therefore was he an aduerſarie to Iſrael al the dayes of Solomon, and this was the miſchiefe, in that Hadad dyd abhorre Iſrael, and raigned ouer Syria.

26 And Ieroboam the ſonne of Nabat, an Ephrathite of Zareda (whoſe mother was called Zeruah, whiche was a widowe) and he Solomons ſeruant, lyfted vp his hande agaynſt the kyng.

27 But this was the cauſe, that he lyfted vp his hande agaynſt the kyng: Solomon built Mello, and mended the broken places of the citie of Dauid his father. E

28 And this felowe Ieroboam was a man of ſtrength and courage: And Solomon ſeeyng the young man, that he was hable to doo the worke, made hym ruler ouer al the charge of the houſe of Ioſeph.

29 And it chaunced at that ſeaſon, that Ieroboam went out of Hieruſalem, & the prophete Ahia the Silonite, met hym by the way, hauyng a newe mantel on hym, and they two were alone in the fielde.

30 Ahia caught the newe mantel, that was on hym, and rent it in twelue peeces,

31 And ſayde to Ieroboam, Take the ten peeces: For thus ſayth the Lorde God of Iſrael, Beholde, I wyl rent the kyngdome out of the handes of Solomon, and wyl geue ten tribes to thee.

32 *And he ſhal haue one for my ſeruante Dauids ſake, and for Hieruſalem, the citie, whiche I haue choſen out of al the tribes of Iſrael: F 2.Par.7.e.

33 Becauſe they haue forſaken me, and haue worſhypped Aſtaroth the god of the Zidonions, & Chamos the god of the Moabites, and Milcom the god of the chyldren of Ammon, and haue not walked in my wayes, to fulfylle my pleaſure, my ſtatutes, and my lawes, as dyd Dauid his father.

34 I wyl not take the whole kyngdome out of his hande: But I wyl make hym chiefe al his life long, for Dauid my ſeruantes ſake, whom I choſe: becauſe he kepte my commaundementes, and my ſtatutes:

35 *But I wyl take the kingdome out of his ſonnes hand, and wyl geue it vnto thee, euen ten tribes of it. 3.Reg.20.c Pſal.132.b.

36 And vnto his ſonne wyl I geue one tribe, that Dauid my ſeruante maye haue a lyght alwaye before me in Hieruſalem, the citie, whiche I haue choſen me to put my name there. G

37 And I wil take thee, and thou ſhalt raigne accordyng to al that thy ſoule deſyreth, and ſhalt be kyng ouer Iſrael.

38 And yf thou hearken vnto al that I commaunde thee, and wylt walke in my waies, and doo that is ryght in my ſyght, that thou keepe my ſtatutes & my commaundementes, as Dauid my ſeruant dyd, then wyl I be with thee, and buylde thee a ſure houſe, as I buylt for my ſeruante Dauid, and wyl geue Iſrael vnto thee.

G 39 And I wyl for this [offenſe which Solomon hath committed] vexe the ſeede of Dauid, but not for euer.

40 Solomon ſought therefore to kylle Ieroboam, and Ieroboam aroſe, and fledde into Egypt, vnto Siſac kyng of Egypt, and continued there in Egypt, vntil the death of Solomon.

41 The reſt of the woordes that concerne Solomon, and al that he dyd, and his wiſdome, are they not wrytten in the booke of the woordes of Solomon?

42 The tyme that Solomon raigned in Hieruſalem vpon al Iſrael, was fourtie yeeres.

43 And Solomon ſleapte with his fathers, and was buryed in the citie of Dauid his father: and Rehoboam his ſonne raigned in his ſteede.

The.xii.Chapter.

1 Rehoboam ſucceedeth Solomon. 8 He refuſeth the counſel of the ancient. 20 Ieroboam raigneth ouer Iſrael. 21 God commaundeth Rehoboam not to fyght. 28 Ieroboam maketh golden calues.

A 1 2.Par.10.a. AND * Rehoboam went to Sichem: for al Iſrael was comme to Sichem, to make hym kyng.

2 3.Reg.12.g And when Ieroboam þ ſonne of Nabat, which was yet in Egypt, hearde of it: (* for he fled into Egypt from the preſence of kyng Solomon, and dwelt in Egypt:

3 So they ſent, and called hym) and Ieroboam, and al the congregation of Iſrael came, and ſpake vnto Rehoboam, ſayeing,

4 Thy father made our yoke greeuous, now therefore make thou the greeuous ſeruice of thy father, and his ſoare yoke, whiche he put vpon vs, lyghter, and we wyl ſerue thee.

5 And he ſayde vnto them, Depart yet for the ſpace of three dayes, and then comme againe to me. And the people departed.

6 And kyng Rehoboam tooke counſel with the olde menne that ſtoode before Solomon his father, while he yet liued, and ſaid, What counſel geue ye, that I maye haue matter to anſweare this people?

(a) Graue & wyſe counſel. 7 And they ſayde vnto hym, (a) If thou be a

B ſeruant vnto this people this day, and folow their myndes, and anſweare them, & ſpeake kynde woordes to them, they wyl be thy ſeruantes for euer.

8 But he forſooke the counſel that the olde menne had geuen hym, and called vnto his counſel, young menne, that were growen vp with hym, and wayted on hym.

9 And he ſayde vnto them, What counſel geue ye, that we may anſweare this people? for they haue communed with me, ſayeing, Make the yoke whiche thy father dyd put vpon vs, lyghter.

(b) Young and raſh counſel. 10 (b) And the young menne that were growen vp with him, ſpake vnto him, ſayeing, Thus ſhalt thou ſpeake vnto this people, that haue ſayde vnto thee, Thy father made our yoke heauy, but make thou it vs lighter: Euen thus ſhalt thou ſaye vnto them, My litle fynger ſhalbe weyghtier then my father was in the loynes.

11 And now wheras my father did lade you, & put a greeuous yoke vpō you, I wil make it heauier: my father hath chaſtiſed you with roddes, but I wyl correct you with ſcourges.

12 And ſo Ieroboam, and al the people, came to Rehoboam the third day, as the kyng had appoynted, ſayeing, Comme to me agayne the thirde day.

13 And the kyng anſweared the people chorliſhly, and leaft the olde mennes counſel that they gaue hym:

14 And ſpake to them after the counſel of the young menne, ſayeing, My father made your yoke greeuous, & I wyl make it more greeuous: My father alſo chaſtiſed you with rods, but I wyl chaſtiſe you with ſcourges. C

15 And the king hearkened not vnto the people: for it was the ordinance of God, that he * 3.Reg.11.f. myght perfourme his ſayeing, whiche the Lorde ſpake by Ahia the Silonite, vnto Ieroboam the ſonne of Nabat.

16 And ſo when al Iſrael ſawe, that þ kyng regarded them not, the people anſweared the kyng with theſe woordes, ſayeing, * What 2.Re.20.a. portion haue we in Dauid? We haue no inheritance in þ ſonne of Iſai: * To your tentes, O 2.Par.10.d Iſrael, now ſee to thine owne houſe Dauid. And ſo Iſrael departed vnto their tentes.

17 Howbeit, ouer the children of Iſrael, whiche dwelt in the cities of Iuda, dyd Rehoboam raigne ſtyl.

18 The kyng Rehoboam ſent Aduram the receiuer of the tribute, and al they of Iſrael ſtoned hym to death: But kyng Rehoboam made ſpeede to geat hym vp to his charet, & to flee to Hieruſalem.

19 And thei of Iſrael rebelled againſt the houſe of Dauid vnto this day.

D 20 And when al Iſrael hearde, that Ieroboam was comme agayne, they ſent, & called hym vnto the multitude, and made hym kyng ouer al Iſrael: and there was no tribe, that folowed the houſe of Dauid, but Iuda onely.

1. Par. 11. a. 21 * And when Rehoboam was comme to Hieruſalem, he geathered al the houſe of Iuda, with the tribe of Beniamin, an hundred and foure ſcore thouſande of thoſe menne, whiche were good warriers, to fight againſt the houſe of Iſrael, and to bryng the kyngdome againe to Rehoboam the ſonne of Solomon.

22 And the woord of God came vnto Semaia, the (c) man of God, ſayeing,

(c) The prophete of God.

23 Speake vnto Rehoboam the ſonne of Solomon kyng of Iuda, and vnto al the houſe of Iuda, and Beniamin, and to the remnant of the people, ſayeing,

24 Thus ſayth the Lorde, ye ſhal not goe vp, nor yet fyght agaynſt your brethren the chyldrẽ of Iſrael: returne euery man to his houſe, for this thyng is my dooyng. They hearkened therefore to the woorde of the Lorde, and returned to depart, accordyng to the woorde of the Lorde.

Iud. 8. d.

25 Then Ieroboam buylt Sichem in mount Ephraim, and dwelt therein: and went from thence, * and buylt Penuel.

26 And Ieroboam thought in his hart, Now ſhal the kyngdome returne to the houſe of Dauid.

E 27 (d) For if this people goe vp, and doo ſacrifice in the houſe of the Lorde at Hieruſalem, then ſhal the hart of this people turne againe vnto their lorde Rehoboam kyng of Iuda, and ſo ſhal they kylle me, and goe agayne to Rehoboam kyng of Iuda.

33 And he went vp to the aulter, to burne incenſe, whiche he had made in Bethel in the fyftienth day of the eygth mooneth, euen in the moneth whiche he had imagined of his owne harte: and made a ſolemne feaſt vnto the chyldren of Iſrael, and offered vpon the aulter, and burnt incenſe.

A 1 And beholde, there came a (a) man of god out of Iuda by the woorde of the Lorde, vnto Bethel: And Ieroboam ſtoode by the aulter to put incenſe.

(a) A prophet.

2 And he cryed agaynſte the aulter in the woorde of the Lorde, and ſayde, O aulter, aulter, thus ſayth the Lorde, Behold, a childe ſhalbe borne vnto the houſe of Dauid, Ioſia by name, & vpon thee ſhal he offer the prieſtes of the hyl aulters, that burnt incenſe vpon thee, and mennes bones ſhalbe burnt vpon thee.

3 And he gaue a token the ſame tyme, ſayeing, This is the token that the Lorde hath ſpoken it, Beholde, the aulter ſhal rente, and the aſhes that are vpon it ſhal falle out.

4 And when the kyng hearde the ſayeing of the man of God, whiche had cryed agaynſt ỹ aulter in Bethel, he ſtretched out his hand from the aulter, ſayeing, Holde him: and his hand, which he put foorth againſt him, dried vp, & he coulde not pul it in agayne to hym.

5 The aulter alſo claue a ſunder, and the aſhes felle out from the aulter, accordyng to the token, whiche the man of God had geuen by the woorde of the Lorde.

6 And the kyng anſweared, and ſayde vnto the man of God, * Oh, pray vnto the Lorde thy God, and make interceſſion for me, that my hande maye be reſtoared to me agayne. And the man of god beſought the Lord, and the kynges hand was reſtoared agayne, and became as it was before.

B 7 And the kyng ſaide vnto the man of God, Comme home with me, that thou mayeſt dyne, and I wyl geue thee a rewarde.

8 And the man of God ſayde vnto the kyng, If thou wouldeſt geue me halfe thine houſe, I wyl not goe in with thee, neyther wyl I eate bread, nor drynke water in this place.

9 For ſo was it charged me through yͤ woord of the lord, ſayeing, Eate no bread, nor drinke water, nor turne agayne by the ſame waye, that thou cameſt.

10 And ſo he went another way, and returned not by the way, that he came to Bethel.

11 And there dwelt an olde prophet in Bethel, and his ſonnes came and tolde hym al the workes, that the man of God had donne that day in Bethel, and the woordes which he had ſpoken vnto the kyng, tolde they their father alſo.

12 And their father ſayde vnto them, What way went he? And his ſonnes ſhewed hym what way the man of God wente, whiche came from Iuda.

13 And he ſayde vnto his ſonnes, Saddle me the aſſe. Whiche when they had ſadled, he gate hym vp thereon,

C 14 And went after the man of God, & founde hym ſyttyng vnder a tree, and he ſayde vnto hym, Art thou the man of God that cameſt from Iuda? And he ſayde, I am.

15 He ſayde vnto hym, Comme home with me, and eate bread.

16 He anſweared, I may not returne with thee, to goe in with thee: neither wil I eate bread, nor drynke water with thee in this place.

17 For it was ſayde to me in the woorde of the Lorde, Thou ſhalt eate no bread, nor drynke water there, nor turne agayne to goe by the way that thou cameſt.

18 He ſayde vnto hym, I am a prophete alſo as wel as thou, and an angel ſpake vnto me in the woorde of the Lorde, ſayeing, Bryng hym agayne with thee into thine houſe, that he may eate bread, and drynke water. [And] he lyed vnto hym.

19 And ſo he went agayne with hym, and dyd eate bread in his houſe, and dranke water.

D 20 And it fortuned, that as they ſate at the table, the woorde of the Lorde came vnto the prophete that brought hym agayne:

21 And he cryed vnto the man of God, that came from Iuda, ſayeing, Thus ſayth the lord, Becauſe thou haſt diſobeied the mouth of the lorde, and haſt not kept the commaundemente, whiche the Lorde thy God commaunded thee:

22 But cameſt backe agayne, and haſt eaten bread, and drunke water in the place, concernyng the whiche the Lorde did ſaye vnto thee, Thou ſhalt ate no bread, nor drynke no water: thy carkeſſe ſhal not comme vnto the ſepulchre of thy fathers.

23 And ſo it came to paſſe, that when he had eaten bread, and drunken, he ſadled hym the aſſe, to wite, to the prophete, whom he had brought agayne.

24 And when he was gonne, * (b) a lion met hym by the way, and ſlue hym, and his carkeſſe was caſt in the way, and the aſſe ſtoode thereby, and the lion ſtoode by the corſe alſo.

3.Reg 20.f. (b) The miniſter of God not dooing his duetie accordyng to Gods woorde, is in moſt daunger of ponishment.

25 And menne that paſſed by, ſawe the carkeſſe caſt in the way, and the lion ſtandyng by the carkeſſe: and they came and tolde it in the towne, where the olde prophete dwelt.

26 And when the prophete that brought hym backe agayne from the way, hearde thereof, he ſayde, It is the man of God: He was diſobedient vnto the woorde of the Lorde, and therefore the Lorde hath delyuered hym vnto the lion, whiche hath rent hym, and ſlaine hym, accordyng to the woorde of the Lorde, whiche he ſpake vnto hym.

E 27 And he ſpake to his ſonnes, ſayeing, Saddle me an aſſe: and they ſadled hym.

28 And he went, and found his body caſt in the way, and the aſſe and the lion ſtoode by the corſe, and the lion had not eaten the carkeſſe, nor hurt the aſſe.

29 And the prophete tooke vp the body of the man of God, and layde it vpon the aſſe, and brought it againe: and the old prophete came to the citie to lament, and to bury hym.

30 And he layde his body in his owne graue, and then lamented ouer hym [ſayeing] Alas my brother.

F 31 And when he had buryed hym, he ſpake to his ſonnes, ſayeing, When I am dead, ſee that ye bury me in the ſepulchre, wherein the man of God is buryed, lay my bones beſyde his bones.

32 * For the ſayeing, whiche he cryed at the woorde of the Lorde agaynſt the aulter in Bethel, & agaynſt al the houſes of hygh places, whiche are in the cities of Samarie, ſhal comme to paſſe.

3.Reg.23.d.

33 Howebeit, for al that, Ieroboam conuerted not frõ his wicked way: but turned backe, and made of the loweſt of the people prieſtes of the hygh places: And who ſo pleaſed hym, he * fylled his hande, and he became prieſt of the hygh places.

* Or, conſecrated hym.

34 And this thyng turned to ſynne vnto the houſe of Ieroboam, euen to deſtroy him, and to bryng hym to nought, from of the face of the earth.

The.xiiii.Chapter

1 Ieroboam ſendeth his wyfe diſguyſed to Ahia the prophete, who declareth vnto hym the deſtruction of his houſe. 25 Iuda is pouniſhed by Siſac.

A 1 AT that tyme Abia the ſonne of Ieroboam felle ſicke.

2 And Ieroboam ſayde vnto his wyfe, Up, I pray thee, and diſguiſe thee ſelfe that thou be not knowen to be the wyfe of Ieroboam: and geat thee to Silo, for there is Ahia the prophete, whiche tolde me, * that I ſhoulde be kyng ouer this people. 3.Reg.11.f.

3 And take with thee ten loaues, and cracknelles, and a cruſe of honye, and goe to hym, that he may telle thee, what ſhal becomme of the chylde.

4 And Ieroboams wyfe dyd ſo, and aroſe, ⁊ went to Silo, and came to the houſe of Ahia: But Ahia coulde not ſee, for his eyes were waxen dimme for age.

5 And the Lorde ſayde vnto Ahia, Beholde, the wyfe of Ieroboam commeth to aſke a thyng of thee for her ſonne, for he is ſicke: but thus ⁊ thus ſhalt thou ſay vnto her. And when ſhe came in, ſhe faigned her ſelfe to be another woman.

6 But when Ahia hearde the ſounde of her feete, as ſhe came in at the doore, he ſayde, Comme in thou wyfe of Ieroboam, why fayneſt thou thee ſelfe ſo to be another? I am ſent to thee [to ſhewe thee] heauy thynges.

B 7 Goe, telle Ieroboam, thus ſayth the Lorde God of Iſrael, [It repenteth me] foraſmuche as * I exalted thee from among the people, and made thee prince ouer my people Iſrael, 3.Reg.12.c.

8 I dyd rente the kyngdome away from the houſe of Dauid, and gaue it thee: Neuertheleſſe, thou haſt not benne, as my ſeruant Dauid, whiche kept my commaundementes, ⁊ folowed me with al his hart, to doo that only, whiche was ryght in myne eyes:

9 But haſt donne euyl aboue al that were before thee: For thou haſt gone, and made thee other goddes, and moulten images, to prouoke me, ⁊ haſt caſt me behynde thy backe.

10 Therefore behold, I wyl bryng euyl vpon the houſe of Ieroboam, and wyl roote out from Ieroboam euen hym, that * pyſſeth agaynſt the walle, and hym that is in pryſon and forſaken in Iſrael, and wyl take awaye the remnante of the houſe of Ieroboam, as a man taketh away doung til he hath carryed out al. 1.Reg.15.d

3.Reg.16. 11 * Whoſoeuer of Ieroboams houſe dye in the towne, hym ſhal the dogges eate: ⁊ hym that dyeth in the fielde, ſhal the foules of the ayre eate: for the Lorde hath ſayde it.

12 Up therefore, and geat thee to thyne owne houſe: [Beholde,] when thy foote entreth into the citie, the chylde ſhal dye,

13 And al they of Iſrael ſhal mourne for him, and bury him: For he only of Ieroboam ſhal come to the ſepulchre, becauſe in hym there is found goodneſſe toward the Lord God of Iſrael, in the houſe of Ieroboam.

14 Moreouer, the Lorde ſhal ſtirre hym vp a kyng ouer Iſrael, whiche ſhal deſtroye the houſe of Ieroboam in that day: But what is it nowe? C

15 For the Lorde ſhal ſmyte Iſrael, as when a reede is ſhaken in the water, and he ſhal weede Iſrael out of this good lande, whiche he gaue to their fathers, and ſhal ſcatter them beyonde [n] the ryuer, becauſe they haue made them groaues, and angred the Lorde.

16 And he ſhal geue Iſrael vp, becauſe of the ſynnes of Ieroboam, whiche dyd ſynne, and made Iſrael to ſynne.

17 And Ieroboams wyfe aroſe, and departed, and came to Thirza: and when ſhe came to the threſholde of the doore, the chylde was dead.

18 And al Iſrael buryed hym, and lamented hym, accordyng to the woorde of the Lorde, whiche he ſpake by the hande of his ſeruant Ahia the prophete.

19 And the reſt of the woordes that concerne Ieroboam, howe he warred, and howe he raigned, behold, thei are written in the booke of the cronicles of the kynges of Iſrael.

20 And the daies, whiche Ieroboam raigned, were two and twentie yeeres: And when he was layde a ſleepe with his fathers, Nadab his ſonne, raigned in his ſteede. D

21 Rehoboam the ſonne of Solomon raigned in Iuda: and Rehoboam was fourtie and one yeeres olde, when he beganne to raigne, and he raigned ſeuentiene yeeres in Hieruſalem, the citie whiche the Lorde dyd chooſe out of al the tribes of Iſrael, to put his name there: His mothers name was Naama an Ammonite.

22 And Iuda wrought wickedneſſe in the ſyght of the Lorde, and angred hym in moe thinges, then their fathers did in their ſinnes, whiche they ſynned,

23 For they alſo made them high places, images, and groaues on euery hygh hyl, and vnder [u] euery thicke tree,

24 And there was a ſtewes of male chyldren in the lande, and they dyd accordyng to al the abominations of the nations, whiche the Lorde caſt out before the chyldren of Iſrael.

25 And it fortuned, that in the fyfth yeere of kyng Rehoboam, Siſac kyng of Egypt came vp agaynſt Hieruſalem:

26 And tooke away the treaſures of the houſe of the Lorde, and the treaſures of the kynges houſe, and ſpoiled al that was to be had: And he tooke away al yͤ ſhieldes of gold, * whiche Solomon had made.

E 27 In whoſe ſteede kyng Rehoboam made braſen ſhieldes, and committed them vnto the handes [of the keepyng] of the captaynes of the garde, whiche wayted at the doore of the kynges houſe.

28 And when the king went into the houſe of the Lorde, they of the garde bare them, and brought them agayne into the garde chamber.

29 The reſt of the wordes that concerne Rehoboam, & al that he dyd, are they not wrytten (a) in the booke of the cronicles of the kynges of Iuda?

30 And there was warre betweene Rehoboam and Ieroboam al their lyues.

31 And Rehoboam ſleapt with his fathers, and was buryed beſyde his fathers in the citie of Dauid: His mothers name was Naama, an Ammonite. And Abiam his ſonne raigned in his ſteede.

A 1 IN the eyghteenth yeere of kyng * Ieroboam the ſonne of Nabat, raigned Abiam ouer Iuda.

i.Par,13.a.

2 Three yeeres raigned he in Hieruſalem, and his mothers name was Maacha, the daughter of (a) Abiſalom.

(a) That is, Abſalom.

3 And he walked in al the ſynnes of his father, whiche he had donne before hym, & his harte was not perfite with the Lorde his God, * as the hart of Dauid his father.

3.Reg.3.c.

4 Neuertheleſſe, for Dauids ſake dyd the Lorde his God geue hym (b) a lyght in Hieruſalem, that he ſet vp his ſonne after hym, and ſtabliſhed Hieruſalem:

(b) Meaning a ſonne to raigne ouer Iuda.

5 Becauſe Dauid dyd that whiche was ryght in the ſyght of the Lorde, and turned from nothyng that he commaunded hym al the dayes of his life, * ſaue only in the matter of Urias the Hethite.

8 And Abiam ſleapt with his fathers, & they buryed hym in the citie of Dauid: And Aſa his ſonne raigned in his ſteede.

9 * In the twentieth yeere of Ieroboam king of Iſrael, raigned Aſa ouer Iuda.

2.Par.14.a

10 Fourtie and one yeeres raigned he in Hieruſalem: and his mothers (c) name was Maacha, the daughter of Abiſalom.

(c) Graundmother.

11 And Aſa dyd [that ſeemed] ryght in the eyes of the Lorde, as dyd Dauid his father.

12 * And he tooke away the male ſtewes out of the lande, and put awaye al abominable idols, that his father had made.

3.Re.22.g

13 (b) And he put downe * Maacha his mother from bearyng rule, becauſe ſhe had made an idol in a groaue: And Aſa deſtroyed her idol, and burnt it by the brooke Cedron.

(b) Idolaters are to be puniſhed without reſpect of perſon.

2.Par.15.d.

14 But the high places were not put downe, (c) neuertheleſſe Aſaes hart was perfite with the Lorde al his dayes.

(c) He ſuffred that deede, only of ignoraunce

16 And there was warre betweene Aſa and Baaſa kyng of Iſrael al their dayes.

17 * And Baaſa kyng of Iſrael went vp agaynſt Iuda, and buylt Rama, ſo that he woulde let none goe out or in to Aſa kyng of Iuda.

2.Par.16.a.

18 Then Aſa tooke al the ſiluer and gold that was leaft in the treaſures of the houſe of the Lorde, and the treaſures of the kinges houſe, and delyuered them vnto the handes of his ſeruantes, and kyng Aſa ſent them to * Benhadad the ſonne of Tabrimon, the ſonne of Hezion kyng of Syria, that dwelt at Damaſco, ſayeing,

20 So Benhadad harkened vnto king Aſa, and ſent the captaynes of the hoſtes, whiche he had, againſt the cities of Iſrael, and ſmote

21 And when Baaſa hearde thereof, he leaſt buyldyng of Rama, and dwelt in Thirza.

22 Then kyng Aſa * made a proclamation throughout al Juda, that none ſhould be excuſed: And ſo they tooke the ſtones of Ramah, and the timber wherewith Baaſa had buylded, and kyng Aſa buylt with them the hyl of Beniamin and Miſpah.

* Or, geathered togeather al Juda, and none to be accepted.

23 The remnant of al the woordes, that concerne Aſa, and al his myght, and al that he dyd, & the cities, whiche he buylded, are they not wrytten in the booke of the cronicles of the kings of Juda? Neuertheleſſe, in his olde age he was diſeaſed in his feete.

24 And Aſa ſleapt with his fathers, and was buryed beſyde his fathers in the citie of Dauid his father: And * Jehoſaphat his ſonne raigned in his ſteede.

2.Par.17.a

25 And Nadab the ſonne of Jeroboam began to raigne vpon Iſrael the ſecond yeere of Aſa kyng of Juda, and raigned vpon Iſrael two yeeres.

26 And he dyd euyl in the ſyght of the Lorde, walkyng in the way of his father, and in his ſynne, wherewith he made Iſrael to ſynne.

E 27 And Baaſa the ſonne of Ahia, whiche was of the houſe of Iſachar, conſpired agaynſt hym, and Baaſa ſmote hym at Gibbethon, whiche is a citie of the Philiſtines (for Nadab, and al Iſrael layd ſiege to Gibbethon.)

28 Euen in yͤ third yeere of Aſa king of Juda, did Baaſa ſlay hym, & raigned in his ſteede.

29 *And it fortuned, that when he was kyng, he ſmote al the houſe of Jeroboam, & he leaſt hym nought that breathed, vntyl he had put hym cleane out, accordyng vnto the ſayeing of the Lorde, whiche he ſpake by his ſeruant Ahia the Selonite:

33 So in the third yeere of Aſa king of Juda, beganne Baaſa the ſonne of Ahia to raigne ouer al Iſrael in Thirza, twentie and foure yeeres.

34 And he dyd that which is euyl in the ſight of the Lorde, walking in the way of Jeroboam, and in his ſynne, wherewith he made Iſrael to ſynne.

The.xvi.Chapter.

1 Of Baaſa. 6 Ela. 9 Zimri. 16 Amri. 31 Achab maryeth Jezabel. 34 Jericho is buylt agayne.

A 1 THen the woorde of the Lorde came to Jehu the ſonne of Hanani, agaynſt Baaſa, ſayeing,

2 Foraſmuche as I exalted thee out of the duſte, and made thee captayne ouer my people Iſrael, and thou haſt walked in the way of Jeroboam, and haſt made my people Iſrael to ſynne, to anger me with their ſynnes:

3 Beholde, I wyl roote out the poſteritie of Baaſa, and the poſteritie of his houſe: and wyl make thy houſe lyke the houſe of Jeroboam the ſonne of Nabat.

3.Re.14.c. 4 * That man of Baaſa, which dyeth in the citie, hym ſhal the dogges eate: & that man of hym, whiche dyeth in the fieldes, ſhal the foules of the ayre eate.

5 The reſt of the woordes that concerne Baaſa, and what he dyd, and his power, are they not wrytten in the booke of the cronicles of the kynges of Iſrael?

6 And ſo Baaſa ſleapt with his fathers, and was buryed in Thirza, and Ela his ſonne raigned in his ſteede.

7 And by the hande of the prophete Jehu the ſonne of Hanani, came the woord of the lord agaynſt Baaſa, and agaynſt his houſe, and agaynſt al the wickedneſſe, that he dyd in the ſyght of the Lord, in angryng hym with the woorke of his owne handes, that he ſhoulde be lyke the houſe of Jeroboam, and becauſe he (a) kylled hym. B

(a) Meanyng Nadab, Jeroboams ſonne.

8 The twentie and ſixth yeere of Aſa kyng of Juda, beganne Ela the ſonne of Baaſa to raigne ouer Iſrael in Thirza, two yeeres.

9 And his ſeruant Zimri (whiche was captaine of halfe his charettes) conſpired againſt hym, as he was in Thirza drynkyng, and was drunken in the houſe of Arza, ſtewarde of his houſe in Thirza.

10 And Zimri came, and ſmote hym, and killed hym in the twentieth and ſeuenth yeere of Aſa kyng of Juda, & raigned in his ſteede.

11 And it fortuned, that when he was kyng,* & ſate on his ſeate, he ſlue al the houſe of Baaſa, not leauing thereof one to piſſe agaynſt a wal:

Exo.21.b.

wal: Yea, he ſlue his kynſfolkes, and frendes alſo.

12 And thus dyd Zimri deſtroy al the houſe of Baaſa, according to the woord of the lord, whiche he ſpake againſt Baaſa by the hand of Jehu the prophete,

13 For al the ſynnes of Baaſa, and ſynnes of Ela his ſonne, which they ſynned, and made Iſrael to ſinne, and to anger the Lord God of Iſrael with their vanities.

C 14 The reſt of the woordes that concerne Ela & al that he dyd, are they not wrytten in the booke of the cronicles of the kings of Iſrael?

15 In the twentieth and ſeuenth yeere of Aſa kyng of Juda, did Zimri raigne ſeuen daies in Thirza: & the people was then in the hoſte beſieging Gibbethō, a citie of the Philiſtines.

16 And the people in the hoſt hearde [one] ſay, Zimri hath conſpired and ſlayne the kyng: Wherefore al they of Iſrael made Amri, the captayne of the hoſt, kyng ouer Iſrael that ſame day, euen in the hoſt.

17 And Amri departed vp from Gibbethon, & al Iſrael with hym, & they beſieged Thirza.

18 And when Zimri ſaw, that the citie muſt needes be taken, he went into the palace of the kynges houſe, (b) and burnt him ſelfe and the kynges houſe with fyre, and ſo dyed,

(b) The ende of treaſon.

19 For his ſynnes, whiche he ſynned, in dooyng that, whiche is euyl in the ſyght of the Lorde, and in walkyng in the way of Jeroboam, and in his ſynnes, whiche he dyd, and in that he made Iſrael to ſynne.

D 20 The reſt of the woordes that concerne Zimri, and the treaſon that he wrought, are they not written in the booke of the cronicles of the kynges of Iſrael?

21 Then were the people of Iſrael diuided into two partes: for halfe the people folowed Thibni the ſonne of Ginath, makyng him kyng: and the other halfe folowed Amri.

22 But the people that folowed Amri, preuayled agaynſte the people, that folowed Thibni the ſonne of Ginath: And ſo Thibni dyed, and Amri raigned.

24 He bought the hil * Shomron of one Schemar, for two talentes of ſyluer, and buylte in the hil, and called the name of the citie which he buylt, after the name of Schemar, which had benne owner of the hyl Schomron.

* Or, Samaria.

25 But Amri wrought that whiche is euyl in the eyes of the Lorde, and did woorſe then al that were before hym.

26 For he walked in al the way of Jeroboam the ſonne of Nabat, and in his ſynnes that made Iſrael to ſinne, to anger the Lord God of Iſrael with their vanities.

27 The reſt of the woordes that concerne Amri, and al that he dyd, and his ſtrength that he ſhewed, are they not wrytten in the booke of the cronicles of the kings of Iſrael? E

28 And ſo Amri ſlept with his fathers, and was buryed in Samaria, & Ahab his ſonne raigned in his ſteede.

29 In the eyght and thirtieth yeere of Aſa kyng of Juda, began Ahab the ſonne of Amri to raigne ouer Iſrael, & the ſame Ahab the ſonne of Amri raigned ouer Iſrael in Samaria, twentie and two yeeres.

30 And Ahab the ſonne of Amri dyd euyl in the ſyght of the Lord, aboue al that were bebefore hym.

31 For (c) it ſeemed vnto him, but a light thing, to walke in the ſynnes of Jeroboam the ſonne of Nabat: he tooke Jezabel alſo the daughter of Ethbaal kyng of the Sidonites to wyfe, and * went and ſerued Baal, and woorſhypped hym.

(c) Somme reade it interrogatiuely.

4.Reg.x.d

32 And he reared vp an aulter for Baal in the temple of Baal, whiche he had buylded in Schomron: F

33 And Ahab made a groaue, and proceeded further in angryng the Lorde God of Iſrael, then al the kynges of Iſrael, that were before hym.

34 In his dayes dyd Hiel of Bethel buylde Jericho: He layde the fundation thereof in Abiram his eldeſt ſonne, and ſet vp the gates thereof in his youngeſt ſonne Segub, accordyng vnto the woorde of the Lord, * which he ſpake by Joſuah the ſonne of Nun.

11 And as ſhe was goeyng to fet it, he cryed after her, and ſayde, Bryng me, I pray thee, a morſel of bread alſo in thyne hande.

12 She ſayde, As the Lorde thy God lyueth, I haue no bread ready, but euen an handful of meale in a barrel, and a litle oyle in a cruſe: And beholde, I am geatheryng two ſtickes, for to goe in, and to dreſſe it for me and my ſonne, that we may eate it, and dye.

13 And Elias ſayde vnto her, Feare not, goe, and doo as thou haſt ſayde: but make me thereof a litle cake firſt of al, and bryng it vnto me, and afterwarde make for thee and thy ſonne.

C 14 For thus ſayth the Lorde God of Iſrael, The meale in the barrel ſhal not be waſted, neyther ſhal the oyle in the cruſe be miniſhed, vntyl the Lorde haue ſent reyne vpon the earth.

15 And ſhe went, and dyd as Elias ſayd: And ſhe, and he, and her houſe dyd eate a good ſpace.

16 And the meale waſted not out of the barrel, neither was the oyle ſpent out of the cruſe, according to the woorde of the Lorde, whiche he ſpake by the hande of Elias.

17 And after theſe thynges, it happened, that the ſonne of the wyfe of the houſe felle ſicke, and his ſickneſſe was ſo ſoare that there was no breath leaft in him.

18 And ſhe ſayde vnto Elias, What haue I to doo with thee, O thou man of God? Art thou comme vnto me, to calle my ſinne agayne to remembrance, to ſlay my ſonne?

19 He ſayd vnto her, Geue me thy ſonne. And he tooke hym out of her lap, and caryed hym vp into a loft, where he aboade, and laid him vpon his owne bed:

24 And the woman ſayd vnto Elias, Now I knowe, that thou art a man of God, & that the woord of the Lorde in thy mouth is true.

The.xviii.Chapter.

2 And Elias went to ſhewe hym ſelfe vnto Ahab: and there was a great famiſhment in Samaria.

3 And Ahab called Obadia, whiche was the gouernour of his houſe: (and Obadia feared God greatly.

4 For when Jezabel deſtroyed the prophetes of the Lorde, Obadia tooke an hundred prophetes, and hyd them by fyftie and by fyftie in a caue, and prouided bread and water for them.)

B 7 And it chaunced, that as Obadia was in the way, beholde Elias met hym, & he knewe hym, and felle on his face, and ſayde, Art not thou my Lorde Elias?

8 And he anſweared hym, I am he: Goe, and telle thy lorde, beholde, Elias is here.

9 He ſayde, What haue I ſinned, that thou wouldeſt deliuer thy ſeruant into the hande of Ahab, to ſlay me?

10 As the Lorde thy God lyueth, there is no nation, nor kingdome, whither my lord hath not ſent to ſeeke thee: And when they ſayde, He is not there: he tooke an othe of the kyngdome, and nation, when he founde thee not.

11 And nowe thou ſayeſt, Goe, and telle thy lorde, that Elias is here.

12 And as ſoone as I am gonne from thee, the ſpirite of the Lorde ſhal carrie thee into ſomme place, that I doo not knowe: and ſo when I comme and telle Ahab, and he can not fynde thee, he ſhal ſlay me: But I thy ſeruant feare the Lorde from my youth vpwarde.

13 Was it not tolde my lorde, what I dyd, when Jezabel ſlue the prophetes of the lorde? how I hid an hundred menne of the Lordes prophetes, fiftie menne in one caue, and fiftie in another, and prouided them of bread and water?

C 14 And thou ſayeſt, Goe thou now, and ſhew thy lorde, beholde, Elias is here: that he may ſlay me.

15 And Elias ſayde, As the Lorde of hoſtes lyueth, before whom I ſtande, I wyl ſhewe mee ſelfe vnto hym this day.

16 So Obadia went to meete Ahab, and told hym: And Ahab went to meete Elias.

17 And it fortuned, that when Ahab ſawe Elias, he ſayde vnto hym, Art thou he, that troubleth Iſrael?

18 He anſweared, It is not I, that haue troubled Iſrael, but[a] thou and thy fathers houſe, in that ye haue forſaken the commaundementes of the Lore, and thou haſt folowed Baal.

[a] The miniſter of Gods woorde ought to be faythful and bolde in Gods cauſe.

19 Nowe therefore ſende, and geather to me al Iſrael vnto mount Carmel, and the prophetes of Baal* foure hundred and fiftie, and the prophetes of the [idoles] groaues foure hundred, whiche eate at Jezabels table.

3.Reg.22.a

20 So Ahab ſent vnto al the chyldren of Iſrael, and geathered the prophetes togeather vnto mount Carmel.

D 21 And Elias came vnto al the people, & ſayd, How long[b] halt ye betweene two opiniõs? If the Lorde be GOD, folowe hym: but if Baal be he, then goe after hym. And the people anſweared him not one worde.

[b] Religion is not an indifferent thing, but wholy to be embraced, and conſtantly profeſſed.

22 Then ſaid Elias vnto the people [againe,] I only remayne a prophete of the Lorde: but[c] Baals prophetes are foure hundred and fiftie.

[c] Baal hath more prophetes then God.

23 Let them therefore geue vs two oxen, and let them chooſe the one, & cut hym in peeces, and lay him on wood, and put no fire vnder: and I wyl dreſſe the other oxe, and lay hym on wood, and wyl put no fire vnder.

24 And calle ye on the name of your goddes, and I wyl calle on the name of the Lorde: and then the God, that anſweareth by fire, let hym be God. * And al the people anſweared, and ſayde, It is wel ſpoken. i.Reg,ix.c

25 Elias ſayde vnto the prophetes of Baal, Chooſe you an oxe, and dreſſe hym firſt, for ye are many: & cal on the name of your goddes: but put no fire vnder.

26 And they tooke the one oxe, that he did geue them, and they dreſſed it, * and called on the name of Baal from mornyng to noone, ſaieyng, O Baal, heare vs. But there was no voyce, nor one to anſweare: And they leapt vpon the aulter that they had made. Mat.vi.a.

27 And at noone Elias mocked them, and ſayde, Crye alowde, for he is a God, peraduenture he is talking, or occupied in folowing vpon his enimies, or is in his iourney, or happyly he ſleapeth, and muſt be awaked [with your crie.]

28 And they cried alowde, & cut them ſelues, as their manner was, with kniues & lancers, til the blood folowed on them. E

29 And it chanced, that when midday was paſſed, they propheſied vntil the tyme of the euening ſacrifice: But there was neither voyce, nor one to anſweare, nor any, that regarded them.

30 And Elias ſaid vnto al the folke, Comme to me. And al the people came to hym: * And he repayred the aulter of the Lorde, that was broken. 1.Reg,14.c

31 *And Elias tooke twelue ſtones, accordyng to the number of the twelue tribes of the ſonnes of Jacob, vnto whom the woorde of the Lorde came, ſaieing, *Iſrael ſhalbe thy name. Ioſu.iiij,c. Gen,32,f.

32 And with the ſtones he made an aulter in the name of the Lorde: and he made a diche about the aulter, as great as would conteyne two meaſures of ſeede.

33 And he put the wood in order, and hewed the oxe in peeces, and layed him on the wood, and ſayde, Fylle foure barrels with water, and powre it on the burnt ſacrifice, and on the wood.

34 And he ſayd, Doo ſo agayne. And they did ſo the ſecond tyme. And he ſayd agayne, Doo it the thirde tyme. And they dyd it the thirde tyme:

35 And the water came rounde about the aulter, and he fylled the pitte with water alſo.

F 36 And it fortuned, that whẽ they ſhould offer the euenyng ſacrifice, Elias ẏ prophete came, and ſayd, Lord God of Abraham, of Iſahac, and of Iſrael, it ſhalbe knowen this day, that thou art the God in Iſrael, and [that] I [am] thy ſeruant, and that I haue donne al theſe thinges at thy commaundement.

37 Heare me, O Lorde, heare me, that this people may knowe, that thou art the Lorde God, and [that] thou haſt turned their hart agayne nowe at the laſt.

Iud.vi.d.
Eccl,48.a.
i.Mach.i.a

38 *And the fire of the Lorde felle, and conſumed the burnt ſacrifice, and the wood, and the ſtones, and the duſt, and licked vp the water that was in the pit.

39 And when al the people ſawe it, they felle on their faces, and ſayde, The Lorde is God, the Lorde is God.

40 And Elias ſayde vnto them, Take the prophetes of Baal, and let not one of them eſcape. And they tooke them, & Elias brought them vnto the brooke Kiſon, (d) and ſlue them there.

(d) Elias ſlue Baals prophetes.

41 And Elias ſaid vnto Ahab, Geat thee vp, eate and drinke, for there is a ſound of muche reyne.

42 And ſo Ahab went vp, to eate & to drinke, and Elias went vp to the top of Carmel, and he layd hym ſelfe flat vpon the earth, and put his face betweene his knees.

43 And ſaid to his ſeruant, Go vp [I pray thee] and looke toward the way of the ſea. And he went vp, and looked, and ſayde, There is nothyng. And agayne he ſayde, Goe agayne ſeuen tymes. G

44 And it fortuned, that at the ſeuenth tyme, he ſayde, Beholde there ariſeth a litle cloude of the ſea lyke a mans hande. He ſayde, Goe, and ſaye vnto Ahab, Make faſt [thy charet] and geat thee downe, that the reyne ſtoppe thee not.

45 And it came to paſſe, that in the meane whyle the heauen was blacke with cloudes and winde, and there was a great reyne. And Ahab geat vp, and came to Iezrahel.

46 And the hand of the Lord was on Elias, and he girded vp his loynes, and ranne before Ahab, tyl he came to Iezrahel.

The.xix.Chapter.

1 Elias fleeyng from Iezabel, is nouriſhed by the angel of God. 15 He is commaunded to annoynt Hazel, Iehu, and Eliſa.

A 1 AND Ahab tolde Iezabel al that Elias had donne, and howe he had ſlayne al the prophetes with the ſwoorde.

2 Thẽ Iezabel ſent a meſſenger vnto Elias, ſayeng, *So and ſo let the goddes doo to me, if I make not thy ſoule lyke one of theirs, by to morowe this tyme.

3.Reg.2,b.

3 When he ſawe that, he aroſe, and went for his lyfe, and came to Beerſeba in Iuda, and leaft his ſeruant there.

4 But he hym ſelfe went a daies iourney into the wylderneſſe, and came, and ſate downe vnder a Ieniper tree, & deſired for his ſoule, that he might dye, and ſayde, *It is nowe yenough, O Lorde take my ſoule, for I am not better then my fathers.

Iona.iiij,e

5 And as he lay and ſlept vnder the Ieniper tree: beholde an angel touched hym, and ſaid vnto hym, Vp, and eate.

6 And when he looked about hym, beholde there was a cake baken on the coales, and a veſſel of water at his head: And he did eate and drinke, and layde hym downe agayne to ſleepe.

7 And the angel of the Lorde came agayne the ſeconde time, and touched hym, and ſayd, Vp, & eate, for thou haſt yet a great iourney. B

8 And he aroſe, and dyd eate and drinke, and walked in the ſtrength of that meate *fourtie dayes and fourtie nightes, euen vnto Horeb the mount of God.

Mat.iiij,d

9 When he came thyther vnto a caue, he lodged therin al night: And behold, the word of the Lorde came to him, and ſayde vnto hym, What dooeſt thou here Elias?

10 And he anſweared, I haue bene ielous for the Lorde God of hoaſtes ſake: For the chyldren of Iſrael haue forſaken thy couenant, *broken downe thyne aulters, and ſlayne thy prophetes with the ſwoorde: and I onely am leaft, and they ſeeke my lyfe to take it awaye.

Rom,xi,a

11 And he ſaid, Comme out, and ſtande vpon the mount before the Lorde. And beholde, *the Lorde went by, and a mighty ſtrong wynde, that rent the mountaynes, and brake the rockes before the Lorde: but the Lorde was not in the wynde: And after the winde, came an earthquake, but the Lorde was not in the earthquake:

Eccl,48,a

12 And after the earthquake came fire, but the Lorde was not in the fire: And after the fyre, came a ſmalle ſtyl voyce.

13 And when Elias heard, he couered his face with his mantle, and went out, and ſtoode in the entryng of the caue: And beholde, there came a voyce vnto hym, and ſayde, What dooeſt thou here Elias?

C 14 And he anſweared, I haue bene ielous for the Lorde God of hoſtes ſake, becauſe the childrẽ of Iſrael haue forſaken thy couenant, caſt downe thyne aulters, and ſlayne thy prophetes with the ſword: and I onely am leaft, and they ſeeke my lyfe to take it away.

15 And the Lorde ſayde vnto hym, Goe, and turne thy way to the wylderneſſe vnto Damaſco: & when thou commeſt there, annoynt *Hazael kyng ouer Syria:

16 And *Iehu ſonne of Nimſi ſhalt thou annoynt king ouer Iſrael: And Eliſa the ſonne of Saphat of Abel Meholah ſhalt thou annoynt to be prophete in thy roome.

4.Re.8.d.

17 And it ſhal comme to paſſe, that whoſo eſcapeth the ſword of Hazael, hym ſhal Iehu ſlay: & if any man eſcape the ſworde of Iehu, hym ſhal Eliſa put to death.

18 And [thereto] I *haue leaft me ſeuen thouſand in Iſrael, of which neuer man (a) bowed his knees vnto Baal, nor kiſſed hym with his mouth.

Rom.xi.a
(a) wicked idolaters are not of God.

19 So he departed thence, and founde Eliſa the ſonne of Saphat plowyng, and hauyng twelue yoke of oxen before hym, and hym with the twelue: And Elias went by hym, and caſt his mantle vpon hym

20 And he leaft the oxen, and ranne after Elias, and ſayd, *Let me, I pray thee, kyſſe my father and my mother: and then I wil folow thee. He ſayde vnto hym, Goe backe agayne: for what is it, that I haue donne to thee?

Luke,ix.g

D 21 And when he went backe agayne from hym, he tooke a couple of oxen, and ſlue them, and dreſſed the fleaſhe with the inſtrumentes of the oxen, and gaue vnto the people, & they dyd eate: And then he aroſe, and went after Elias, and miniſtred vnto hym.

The.xx.Chapter.

1 Samaria is beſieged. 13 The Lorde promiſeth the victorie to Ahab by a prophete. The kyng of Iſrael made peace with Benhadad, and is reproued therefore by the prophete.

A 1 AND Benhadad the kyng of Syria, geathered al his hoſt togeather, hauyng thirtie and two kynges with hym, and horſes, & charettes: and went vp, and beſieged Samaria, and warred agaynſt it.

2 And he ſent meſſengers to Ahab king of Iſrael into the citie, and ſayde vnto hym, thus ſayth Benhadad,

3 Thy ſiluer and thy golde is mine, & the fayreſt of thy wiues, and of thy children be mine.

4 And the kyng of Iſrael anſweared & ſayde, My lorde king, accordyng to thy ſayeing, I am thyne, and al that I haue.

5 And when the meſſengers came agayne, they ſayd, thus ſaith Benhadad: Foraſmuch as I haue ſent vnto thee, ſaieing, Thou ſhalt deliuer me thy ſiluer and thy golde, and thy wyues, and thy chyldren:

6 I wyl therefore ſende my ſeruantes vnto thee to morowe this time: & they ſhal ſearche thyne houſe, and the houſes of thy ſeruantes, & whatſoeuer is pleaſant in thyne eyes, they ſhal take it in their handes, & bring it away.

B 7 Then the kyng of Iſrael ſent for al the elders of the land, and ſayd, Take heede, I pray you, and ſee howe this felowe goeth about miſchiefe: For he ſent vnto me for my wiues, for my chyldren, for my ſiluer, & for my golde: and I denyed hym not.

8 And al the elders, and al the people ſayde, Hearken not vnto hym, nor conſent.

9 Wherefore he ſayde vnto the meſſengers of Benhadad, Telle my lorde the kyng al that thou dyddeſt ſende for to thy ſeruant at the firſt tyme, that I wyl doo: but this thing I may not doo. And the meſſengers departed, and brought anſweare agayne.

10 And Benhadad ſent vnto hym agayne, and ſayde, Thus and thus doo the goddes vnto me, if the duſt of Samaria be yenough for al the people, that folow me, to take euery man an handful.

11 And the king of Iſrael anſweared, & ſayde, Telle hym, let not hym that putteth on his harneſſe boaſt hym ſelfe, as he that putteth it of.

12 And it fortuned, that when Benhadad hearde that tydynges, as he was with the kynges drynkyng within the pauilions, he ſayde vnto his ſeruantes, Put your ſelues in order. And they ſet thẽ ſelues in array againſt the citie.

13 And beholde, there came a prophete vnto Ahab kyng of Iſrael, ſayeing, Thus ſayth the Lorde, Haſt thou ſeene al this great multitude? beholde, I wyl deliuer it into thyne hande this day, and thou ſhalt know, that I am the Lorde.

C 14 And Ahab ſayde, By whom? He ſayde,

Thus ſaith the Lord, Euen by the ſeruantes of the gouernours of the ſhyres. He ſayde agayne, Who ſhal order the battayle? And he anſweared, Thou.

15 Then he numbred the ſeruantes of the gouernours of the ſhyres, and they were two hundred and thirtie and two: And after them alſo he numbred al the people of the chyldren of Iſrael [euen] ſeuen thouſande.

16 And they went out at noone: but Benhadad dyd drynke tyl he was drunken in the pauilions, both he, & the kynges: euen thirtie and two kynges, that holpe hym.

17 And the ſeruantes of the gouernours of the ſhyres went out firſt, & Benhadad ſent out, and they ſhewed hym, ſayeing, There are menne comme out of Samaria.

18 He ſayde, If they be comme out for peace, take them alyue: or if they be comme out to fight, take them yet alyue.

19 And ſo theſe young menne of the gouernours of the ſhyres came out of the citie, and the hoſt after them:

20 And they ſlue euery one his enimie [that came in his way:] and the Syrians fled, & they of Iſrael folowed after them: And Benhadad the kyng of Syria eſcaped on a horſe, with his horſemen.

D 21 And the king of Iſrael went out, & ſmote the horſes and charettes, and with a greate ſlaughter ſlue he the Syrians.

22 (And there came a prophete to the kyng of Iſrael, and ſayde vnto hym, Goe foorth, and play the man: be wyſe, and take heede, what thou doeſt: for when the yeere is gone about, the kyng of Syria wyl comme vp agaynſt thee.)

23 And the ſeruantes of the kyng of Syria ſayde vnto him, The goddes of the hylles are their goddes: and therfore they had the better of vs: but let vs fyght agaynſt them in the playne: and [for what ye wil] we ſhal haue the better of them.

24 And thus doo: Take the kynges away euery man out of his place, and put dukes in their roomes.

25 And doo thou number thee an hoſt, lyke the hoſt, that thou haſt loſt, ſuche horſes, and ſuche charettes: and we wyl fight agaynſt them in the plaine, and thou ſhalt ſee vs geat the better of them. And he hearkened vnto their voyce, and dyd euen ſo.

26 And it fortuned, that after the yeere was gonne about, Benhadad numbred the Syrians, and went vp to Aphec to fight againſt Iſrael.

27 And the children of Iſrael were numbred, and with their whole number went they agaynſt them: and the chyldren of Iſrael pitched before them lyke two litle flockes of kiddes: but the Syrians filled the countrey.

28 And there came a man of God, and ſayde vnto the kyng of Iſrael, thus ſaith the Lord, Becauſe the Syrians haue ſayde, the Lorde is but God of the hylles, and not God of the valleys, therefore wyl I deliuer al this great multitude into thine hande, & ye ſhal knowe, that I am the Lorde. E

29 And they pitched one ouer agaynſt the other ſeuen dayes: and it came to paſſe, that in the ſeuenth day the battayle was ioyned, and the chyldren of Iſrael ſlue of the Syrians an hundred thouſande footemen in one day.

30 But the reſt fled to Aphec into the citie, and there felle a wal vpon twentie & ſeuen thouſand of the menne that were leaſt: And Benhadad fled, & came into the citie, from chamber to chamber.

31 And his ſeruantes ſayd vnto him, Behold, we haue heard ſay, that yͤ kinges of the houſe of Iſrael are mercyful kinges: We wyl therefore put ſackcloth about our loynes, & ropes about our heades, and goe out to the kyng of Iſrael, if happyly he wyl ſaue thy lyfe.

32 And ſo they gyrded ſackcloth about their loynes, and put ropes about their heades, and came to the kyng of Iſrael, & ſayde, Thy ſeruant Benhadad ſaith, I pray thee, let me liue. He ſayde, Is he yet aliue? he is my brother.

33 And the menne tooke that woord for good lucke, and haſtily caught it out of his mouth, and ſayde, Yea thy brother (a) Benhadad. He ſayd, Goe, bring him hyther. And Benhadad came out vnto hym, and he cauſed hym to comme vp into the charet.

(a) He is aliue.

34 And he ſaid vnto him, The cities, whiche my father tooke frõ thy father, I wyl reſtoare againe, and thou ſhalt make ſtreates for thee in Damaſco, as my father dyd in Samaria: And I wyl make an appoyntmẽt with thee, and ſende thee away. And ſo he made an appoyntment with hym, and ſent hym away.

35 And there was a certayne man of the chyldren of the prophetes, whiche ſayde vnto his neyghbour in the woord of the Lord, Smite me, I pray thee. And the man woulde not ſmyte hym. F

36 Then ſayde he vnto hym, Becauſe thou haſt not harkened vnto the voyce of the lord: beholde, as ſoone as thou art departed from me, a lion ſhal ſlay thee. And it came to paſſe, that as ſoone as he was departed from hym, * a lion founde hym, and ſlue hym.

3.Reg.13.c

37 Then he founde another man, and ſayde,

Smyte me, I pray thee. And the man ſmote hym, ſo that in ſmiting he wounded hym.

38 So the prophete went foorth, and wayted for the kyng by the way, and put hym ſelfe out of knowledge with aſhes, whiche he layed vpon his face.

39 And when the kyng came by, he cryed vnto the king, and ſayd, Thy ſeruant went out in the myddes of the battaile, and behold there went away a man, whom another man brought vnto me, and ſayd, Keepe this man: and if he be miſſed, or loſt, thy lyfe ſhal goe for his, or els thou ſhalt pay a talent of ſiluer.

40 And as thy ſeruant had here and there to doo, he was gonne: And the kyng of Iſrael ſayde vnto him, Euen ſo ſhal thy iudgement be, as thou haſt defined it thee ſelfe.

41 And he haſted, and tooke the aſhes away from his face, and the kyng of Iſrael knewe him, that he was of the prophetes. G

42 And he ſayde vnto hym, Thus ſayth the Lorde: Becauſe thou haſt let goe out of thy hande a man, that is in my curſe, thy life ſhal goe for his lyfe, and thy people for his people.

43 And the kyng of Iſrael went to his houſe wayvvarde, and in diſpleaſure, and came to Samaria.

The.xxi.Chapter.

8 Iezabel commaundeth to kylle Naboth for the vineyarde, that he refuſed to ſelle to Ahab. 19 Elias reproueth Ahab, and he repenteth.

A 1 After theſe thinges, it chaunced, that Naboth the Iezraelite had a vineyarde in Iezrahel, harde by the palace of Ahab king of Samaria.

2 And Ahab ſpake vnto Naboth, ſayeing, *Geue me thy vineyarde, that I may make me a garde of herbes therof, becauſe it lyeth ſo nygh my houſe: and I wyl geue thee for it a better vineyarde then it is: or rather if it pleaſe thee, I wyl geue thee the woorth of it in money.

1.Reg.8.b.

3 And Naboth ſaide to Ahab, The Lorde forbyd that from me, that I ſhoulde geue the inheritance of my fathers vnto thee.

4 And Ahab came into the houſe heauy and euyl apayde, becauſe of the woorde whiche Naboth the Iezraelite had ſpoken to him: for he had ſaid, I wyl not geue thee ẏ inheritance of my fathers. And he layde hym downe vpon his bedde, and turned awaye his face, and woulde eate no bread.

5 But Iezabel his wife came to hym, & ſayde vnto hym, Why is thy ſpirite ſo waywarde, that thou eateſt no bread?

6 And he ſayde vnto her, For I ſpake vnto Naboth the Iezraelite, and ſayde vnto hym, Geue me thy vineyarde for money: Or els if it pleaſe thee, I wyl geue thee [another] vineyarde for it. And he anſweared, I wyl not geue thee my vineyarde.

B 7 And Iezabel his wyfe ſayde vnto hym, (a) Dooeſt thou nowe gouerne the kyngdome of Iſrael? vp, and eate bread, and ſet thyne hart at reaſt: I wyl geue thee the vineyarde of Naboth the Iezraelite.

(a) As though ſhe ſayde, thou knoweſt not what it is to raigne, Commaunde, and intreate not.

8 And ſo ſhe wrote a letter in Ahabs name, and ſealed it with his ſeale, and ſent the letter vnto the elders, and to the nobles that were in his citie dwellyng with Naboth.

9 And ſhe wrote in the letter, ſayeing, Proclayme a (b) faſt, and ſet Naboth on hygh among the people:

(b) For then they vſed to inquire of mens faultes: for none could faſt truly that were notorious ſinners.

10 And ſet two vnthriftes before him, to beare witneſſe againſt him, ſayeing, Thou diddeſt blaſpheme God and the king: And then carie hym out, and ſtone hym to death.

11 And (c) the menne of his citie, euen the elders and gouernours, whiche dwelt in his citie, dyd as Iezabel had ſent vnto them, and as it was written in the letter which ſhe had ſent vnto them.

(c) Worldlinges rather obey ẏ wicked commaundement of princes, then the iuſt lawes of God.

12 They proclaymed a faſt, and ſet Naboth among the cheefe of the people.

13 And there came in two menne the children of Belial, and ſate before hym: And the [two] vnthriſty perſons witneſſed againſt Naboth in the preſence of the people, ſayeing, Naboth did blaſpheme God, and the king. *And they caried him out of the citie, and ſtoned hym with ſtones, that he dyed.

Act. vij. g.

14 And then they ſent to Iezabel, ſayeing, Naboth is ſtoned to death. C

15 And it fortuned, when Iezabel hearde that Naboth was ſtoned to death*, ſhe ſayde to Ahab, Up, & take poſſeſſion of the vineyarde of Naboth the Iezraelite, whiche he denyed to geue for money: for Naboth is not alyue, but dead.

16 And when Ahab heard, that Naboth was dead, he ſtoode vp to goe downe to the vineyarde of Naboth the Iezraelite, and to take poſſeſſion of it.

17 And the woorde of the Lorde came vnto Elias the Theſbite, ſayeing,

18 Up, and goe downe to meete Ahab kyng of Iſrael, whiche is in Samaria: Beholde he is in the vineyarde of Naboth, whyther he is gonne downe to poſſeſſe it.

19 And therfore ſhalt thou ſay vnto him, thus ſayth the Lorde, Haſt thou kylled, and alſo gotten poſſeſſion? And thou ſhalt ſpeake vnto him, ſayeing, thus ſaith the Lorde:* In the place, where dogges licked the blood of Naboth, ſhal dogges licke euen thy blood alſo.

3.Reg.22.f.

20 And Ahab ſaide to Elias, Haſt thou found me, O thou myne enimie? He anſweared, I haue founde thee: for thou haſt ſolde thee ſelfe to worke wickedneſſe in the ſight of yͤ Lord.
